THE history of the earliest translations of the HOLY SCRIPTURES into the Anglo-Saxon language is involved in much obscurity, notwithstanding the researches of Fuller, Lewis, Thompson, Orme, and others. At a council held at Rome in the year 679, it was determined that Britain should be supplied with portions of the Bible, but nothing was accomplished until 701, when the venerable Bede translated the Psalms from the Vulgate; and this was also done in 709 by Adelme, bishop of Sherborne. In 735 Bede completed in his dying moments the Gospel by John; and soon afterwards the bishop of Landisfarne, called by different historians Egbert, Ecbert, Eckart, and Edfrid, gave to his countrymen a translation of several books of the Old Testament. During the next century Alfred the Great ordered that the whole Bible should be translated, and undertook some parts himself, but his death prevented the completion of this noble intention. In 995 Eldrid, or Elfrid, archbishop of Canterbury, translated the Pentateuch, and other historical books; but it was reserved for Wickliffe, in 1380, to give to the English church a translation of the entire Bible. In 1526 Tyndall had the honour to print the first New Testament, all preceding it having been written with the pen. It was published at Antwerp, to which city he had fled with Myles Coverdale to escape persecution. In 1535 Myles Coverdale printed the Old as well as the New Testament, which he dedicated to Henry VIII. In 1537 this Bible was revised and republished under the feigned name of Thomas Matthewe. In 1539 Archbishop Cranmer, assisted by several learned divines, revised this version, printed it with a preface by himself, and published it with the title of "The Great Bible," and under the sanction and auspices of Henry VIII. In 1560 "the Geneva Bible" appeared, and in 1568 "the Bishops' Bible" was published by Archbishop Parker and seven other bishops. In 1603, at a conference held at Hampton Court, King James the First acceded to the request of Dr. Reynolds and others, and appointed fifty-four learned men (of whom only forty-seven engaged in the work) to revise and correct the Bishops' Bible by collating it with Tyndall's, Coverdale's, Matthewe's, and the Geneva Bible. It was published in 1611, and this is our AUTHORIZED ENGLISH VERSION, which is characterized by unequalled fidelity, perspicuity, simplicity, dignity, and power. It is not only the most accurate standard of our language, but, as a whole, it perhaps approaches nearer to the spirit, the elegance, and the sublimity of the originals than any other translation extant; and it is a delightful circumstance, and one demanding deep and unfeigned gratitude, that whilst during the past two hundred years it has undergone more rigid scrutiny than any other book in the world, and whilst men of commanding intellect and unbounded research (some the friends and others the enemies of revelation) have minutely examined it, and suggested innumerable emendations, no one has ever yet detected a single error in reference to those great and vital truths in which all Christians agree. Hence it stands as an impregnable bulwark against the attacks of those who would weaken or destroy the cardinal doctrine of justification by faith alone in the propitiatory sacrifice of our Lord Jesus Christ.

It must excite the wonder of every reflecting mind that so few mistakes, omissions, or mistranslations, should be found in the authorized version; when it is recollected, that it was made many centuries after the originals were written; that printing not having been invented until the fifteenth century, every copy had previously been transcribed with the pen by uninspired and fallible men; and that the translators had but a comparatively limited acquaintance with oriental languages and manners. Besides which, the sacred Scriptures, like all other ancient books, were written without any punctuation or distinction of words; and as several Hebrew letters having very dissimilar significations closely resemble each other, it is surprising that more errors should not exist. Indeed, so inimitable, as an entire production, is the English version, so deep and extensive is the hold it has acquired of the public mind, so sacred has it become by our earliest associations, and by a hallowed prejudice, almost amounting to superstitious attachment, that no new translation materially differing from it is ever likely to become acceptable and popular.

The history of the English Bible records the great alarm that has always been excited by attempts to improve the translation, or to correct its acknowledged defects; and never did these apprehensions exist in a greater degree than when our present version was issued: but the result has proved that they were groundless; for nothing, perhaps, has contributed more to establish the truth of revelation, or to refute the sophistry of scepticism, than these corrections. Had no amended translation been given to us, we should have been compelled at this day to read the Bible as it existed in the days of Wickliffe, when the prevailing and then well understood language of Scripture was thus written: "bi feith, he that is clepid abraham: obeied to go out in to a place whiche he schulde take in to eritage, and he wente out: not witynge whidir he schulde go. bi feith he dwelte in the lond of biheest: as in an alien lond: dwellynge in litil housis with Isaac and Iacob euen eiris of the same biheest, for he abode the citee hauynge foundementis, whose craftiman and maker is god."

Those who deprecate any interference with the authorized text, lest it should lead to distrust of the contents of the sacred volume, should bear in mind, that desirable as it might have been never to have disturbed the common version, yet it has been and is continually being altered by men of corrupt minds, who suppress and pervert the truth. It is therefore necessary to give to the world those emendations which most orthodox Christians agree in admitting to be more faithful renderings, and thus to counteract and deprive erroneous translations of their injurious influence.

Should an error be detected in Homer or Virgil, or in any other Greek or Roman author, scholars would examine all existing copies to determine the true reading and sense of a single word; or should an omission or misprint be discovered in Milton or Shakspeare, it would be at once corrected. Now, assuredly, the Bible ought to be as perfect and free from defects as any other book; yet any attempt to make our translation as plain, faithful, and intelligible as the originals warrant, even though it tend to overthrow the objections of atheists, sceptics, and infidels, is, by some, deemed unwise and dangerous, if not absolutely impious.

Such timid and scrupulous persons should remember, that, although the general faithfulness and excellence of our version are unquestionable, great changes have taken place in the English language, and such a flood of light has been thrown on the originals by the increased knowledge of Eastern dialects, and by the researches of travellers, that every argument employed in justification of a new translation two hundred years ago, when that now in use first appeared, applies, with tenfold force, to the present attempt. It should also be remembered, that a very different meaning is now attached to many words and forms of expression from that which prevailed when our valuable translation was made. Words then in ordinary use, and well understood, are now wholly discarded, as obscure, uncouth, obsolete, or indelicate; such as sith, astonied, taches, aliant, wottell, fray, haft, delicates, greaves, scrabbled, earing time, marishes, helve, scant, magnifical, neese, ambassage, ouches, knop, beuray, &c.; all of which demand the substitution of other words which fully and clearly convey the original meaning of those which have now become unintelligible or improper. In this attempt to render the English version of the sacred Scriptures somewhat more in accordance with the spirit and letter of the originals, notwithstanding the introduction of nearly twenty thousand emendations, the least possible violence has been done to the inimitable vigour and beautiful style and expression of the Saxon dialect, so unequalled for its simplicity and power, so admirably adapted to the taste of general readers, and which invests the English Bible with much of its peculiar excellence and attraction.

Since the publication of the authorized version, scholars of pre-eminent piety and profound learning, of untiring industry, and inflexible integrity, have expended more time and talent on the Bible than on any other book in existence; and their combined labours have brought it nearer to a state of perfection than any ancient work. And, surely, if this blessed volume, so replete with the unsearchable riches of Christ, be the most precious boon conferred on the heirs of immortality; if it be the common property of all the children of Adam, written as it was by "holy men of God as they were moved by the Holy Spirit," as well for such as are of comparatively feeble attainments, as for those of powerful intellect, and of cultivated minds; it should be presented to the church and to the world with the results of those labours which have shed so much light on its obscure and difficult passages; light—which has hitherto been scattered through publications so numerous, rare, or costly, as to be inaccessible to the great mass of mankind.

In this version of the Bible every consideration has been subordinated to that of elucidating and illustrating the sacred text, and the object unceasingly kept in view has been to give the sense of the inspired penmen, without being paraphrastic; and although most of the proposed emendations are more literal renderings than those for which they are substituted, some few are more free, where the obscurity of the original language required it; yet not even to secure clearness of expression has fidelity of meaning in any instance been compromised. Neither has any merely conjectural rendering been admitted; and the adoption or rejection of every change, whether of punctuation, of a single word, or of an entire sentence, has been the result of much patient and reiterated consideration. Some biblical students may condemn the omission of emendations suggested by translators of erudition and piety, but almost all that have appeared in several hundreds of publications during the last two centuries have been carefully and impartially examined, and those only rejected which were deemed conjectural, useless, or unsupported by sufficient authority. Nearly treble the number might have been introduced, but several of those suggested, even by men of high standing in literature, have been most unwarrantably framed to sanction some disputed sentiment or heterodox doctrine, and could not be adopted without violating the commandment of Him who has said of his word, "Thou shalt not add thereto, nor diminish from it;" "If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book; and if any man shall take away from the words of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life." Before adopting any emendation, all the known authorities relating to it have been consulted, and no suggestion has been received unless it was well sustained by internal evidence, and deemed to be in accordance with the mind and Spirit of God. Nothing has been altered to gratify the taste of the fastidious: the regions of uncertainty have been avoided, and debateable ground has been but seldom trodden. In every instance where men of equal research and talent have differed, and where there has appeared no preponderance of evidence on either side, it has been considered most prudent to allow the passage to remain as in the authorized version.

Some words used by our translators have necessarily been altered, having no sanction from the Hebrew or Greek languages, such as Easter, candle, candlestick, &c., which were unknown until centuries after the sacred Scriptures were written; and other expressions are so unwarrantable and unsupported by the originals, as "God save the king," "God forbid," "Would to God," "God speed," &c., that although in some measure hallowed by familiar use, yet could not be allowed to remain, being direct violations of the commandment, "Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain." Connected with this subject is the alteration which scholars and divines of the highest eminence have proposed to make in reference to the terms JEHOVAH and ADONAI, which, in our version, are indiscriminately translated Lord, a title equally given in the English Bible to Him who is the only uncreated, self-existent, unchangeable, and almighty Being, "whose name alone is Jehovah," and to mere men in authority, "the lords of the heathen," and others. Although by many persons it may be deemed desirable to adopt the distinctive title of JEHOVAH, as belonging exclusively to Him who bears a name inapplicable to any created being, still, as it does not involve any compromise with error, or sacrifice of truth, it has been thought best, after the most mature consideration, to retain the word LORD, because it is inseparably associated by Christians with their earliest and most sacred feelings, and with their ordinary devotional engagements and language. There are a few words, such as Gehenna, (Matt. v. 22), which cannot be translated into English, and therefore remain as in the original, but are fully explained in the General Index, at the end of this Bible.

Numerous grammatical errors, occasioned by the carelessness of transcribers, have been rectified. The punctuation has been carefully examined and corrected, but always with a strict and conscientious regard to the meaning of the sacred writers. Uniformity in translating the same original words has been observed, wherever it was practicable; but there are many words, such as life, soul, hell, &c., which could not be always rendered the same without obscuring the sense and impairing the meaning of the inspired penmen: and this is one of the many proofs of wisdom displayed by our translators, who have employed, with judicious variety, different words expressive of the same meaning.

Many of the marginal readings of the authorized version have been substituted, being decidedly preferable to those in the text; and their adoption has given energy and clearness to passages otherwise feeble and obscure. In several places the Hebrew idioms have been restored, on account of their beauty and force; but, in some instances, they have been abandoned, and the sense of the passage has been given in preference—a practice very frequently adopted by our translators. Not a few of the most valuable emendations have been taken from the old English Bibles, because, in the judgment of eminent biblical critics, they far excel, both in perspicuity and fidelity, the corresponding words or sentiments in our present version; and it is gratifying to find that the majority of those passages of holy writ which have supplied infidels and sceptics with their most plausible objections, when correctly rendered, are destitute of any thing to support their vaunted triumph.

Faithfulness and consistency alike demand the abandonment of the practice of distinguishing supplementary words by printing them in italics, since many such words are in our authorized version without any such distinctive character; and were the principle fairly and fully carried out, it would involve the necessity of printing in italics a vast number of words not hitherto so characterized. Luther, Houbigant, Geddes, Campbell, and other eminent biblical scholars, have disapproved of thus distinguishing those words which our translators were compelled to introduce, on account of the elliptical brevity and peculiar grammatical construction of the Hebrew and Greek languages, and without the employment of which it would have been impossible to have made the sentence complete, or to have conveyed to the English reader the meaning of the inspired writers. Many words put in italics in our authorized version have been entirely withdrawn, because they obscure the sense, have no sanction from the originals, and are rejected by every sound biblical critic.

In the Bible now presented to the church and to the world, the sacred Scriptures are restored as nearly as possible to their original form, many of the chapters in our authorized version being most unwarrantably separated. This was first done in the Latin edition, in 1220, by Stephen Langton, then archbishop of Canterbury; and still more objectionably, in 1250, by Cardinal Hugo, de Sancto Charo, and his associates. The yet more uncalled for, arbitrary, and absurd division of paragraphs into verses, was first made by Sanctes Pagninus at Lyons, in 1527, and subsequently about the middle of the sixteenth century, by Robert Stephens, a learned printer of Paris, during a journey on horseback (inter equitandum) from that city to Lyons. He began with the Greek New Testament; but, in 1557, he introduced similar divisions into the Pentateuch, or five books of Moses, which from an early period had been separated by the Jews into sections corresponding with the number of sabbaths in the year. In 1661, the entire Bible was so marred, and this injudicious subdivision into verses has been continued to the present day, although it frequently obscures the sense, breaks the narrative, and weakens or destroys the argument of the sacred writer. The first English Bible thus disfigured was printed at Geneva, by holy and devoted men who, during the persecution of Queen Mary, fled to that city, where they published the Bible long and deservedly esteemed as “the Geneva Bible.”

The metrical portions of holy writ are printed in parallelisms; and the paragraphs as suggested by Reeve, Boothroyd, Coit, and others, have been adopted; but for the convenience of reference, the numbers of the chapters and verses are retained in the margin.

The names and authorities proposing and supporting the emendations in this version of the Bible could not be given without increasing the book to at least ten times its present size, as will appear by one illustration. The Hebrew word barak is in the 1st and 2nd chapters of Job translated “curse,” and this is defended by the learned Selden and others; but by many biblical scholars of the highest eminence, it is maintained that it should be rendered “bless.” Now, were the editor to enter fully into this discussion, he must adduce the lengthened and often tedious and intricate arguments and trains of reasoning, for the adoption of the one word, and the rejection of the other, as they are to be found in the works of Mason Good, Lee, Clarke, Leigh, Selden, Noldius, Boothroyd, and others; and were he to do the same with each of the many thousand emendations adopted by him, it is evident that several additional volumes would be required. He has therefore merely brought together the well-sustained emendations of some of the holiest and most learned men who have lived during the last two centuries. In this delightful work the editor has been engaged more than thirty years: it has been his solace and relief under the anxieties and toils of an arduous profession, thus to sit and be refreshed by the fountains of living waters: yet none but those who have been similarly occupied can duly appreciate or form any idea of the amount of labour which it has involved. It is now offered as a contribution towards a more perfect revision of the authorized version; and although it professes nothing absolutely new, and lays no claim to the impress of perfection, yet, having been commenced, carried on, and brought to a termination under a deep sense of responsibility, and in simple and prayerful dependence on Divine guidance and teaching, he trusts it may tend to promote the glory of God, and to advance the eternal interests of men, and more especially of that church which Jesus purchased with his most precious blood.

The emendations are derived from the Vatican, Alexandrian, and Aldine copies of the Septuagint; the Syriac, Arabic, Chaldee, Coptic, Samaritan, Ethiopic, Latin, Italian, French, German, Old English, and other versions of the sacred Scriptures; and also from the works of Lee, Bekker, J. P. Smith, Mill, Biel, Lowth, Boothroyd, Doddridge, Patrick, Greenfield, Geddes, Bloomfield, Vitringa, Lampe, Bodius, Locke, De Dieu, Campbell, Guise, Lightfoot, Mead, Horne, Arbuthnot, Coverdale, Jebb, Priestley, Wotton, Theophylact, Beza, Macknight, Skinner, Reid, Horsley, Vander-Hooght, Le Long, Kennicott, Newcome, Watson, Theodotion, Jenour, Mudge, Wemyss, Laurentius, Stephens, Hutheson, Haldane, Mantou, Jenkins, Lowman, Jones, Calmet, Keith, Roberts, D'Oyly, Hewlett, Lloyd, Wilson, Tennison, Field, Scattergood, Barker, Hayes, Canne, Sutcliffe, Newman, Turton, Reineccius, Noldius, Wynne, Scarlet, Harwood, Penn, Burgh, Pick, Stroud, Green, Lardner, Williams, Fuller, Poole, Fell, Blayney, Good, Bellamy, Bush, Pagninus, Geierus, Valckenær, Herodotus, Bennett, Dobree, Clarke, Johnson, Townson, Townsend, Pirie, Romaine, Pococke, Augustine, Gill, Bayley, Harvey, Henry, Scott, Leighton, Peters, Owen, Percy, Tilotson, Hall, M'Lean, Walton, Holden, Burder, Burgess, Fletcher, Harris, Hallett, Jahn, Michaelis, Morison, Wardlaw, Hodgson, Newton, Robinson, Paley, Sharpe, Pearson, Watts, Stackhouse, Simon, Witsius, Dwight, Wetstein, Hody, Schleusner, Griesbach, Justin Martyr, Whitby, Symonds, Calvin, Leigh, Taylor, Casaubon, Pearce, Claude, Ryland, Scholefield, Onkelos, Aquila, Tucker, Cox, Holme, Luther, Iken, Hales, Mede, Dodd, Jennings, Godwin, Prideaux, Benson, Tremellius, Buxtorf, Knox, Bryant, Fenelon, Le Clerc, Harmer, Nolan, Mercer, Rosenmüller, Eusebius, Doederlein, Fleming, Saurin, Walford, Middleton, Wordsworth, Du Veil, Woodhouse, Maimonides, De Sola, Blackwall, Schöttgen, Bengel, Hammond, Venema, Adams, Davenant, Knatchbull, Stuart, Hurd, Baumgarten, Philo, Winder, Parkhurst, Bate, Savory, Allen, Dathe, Levi, Bochart, Ludolf, Shaw, De Rossi, Symmachus, Houbigant, Tomlinson, Warc, Capellus, Edwards, Jerome, Gesenius, Rabbi Kimchi, Ben Gerson, and Ben Jarchi, Holwell, Valpy, Tomline, Usher, Stock, Selnden, Heath, Ostervald, Ward, Elmer, Robertson, Thompson, Schultens, Reiske, Barrington, Cocceius, Durell, Mereier, Desvoeux, Aben Ezra, Chandler, Gataker, Secker, Wintle, Stoner, Faber, Booth, Forsyth, Wheeler, Mendelssohn, Baudin, Richie, Ambrose, Melancthon, Hodge, Weston, Wells, Mant, Davidson, Macculloch, Leusden, Gray, Harwood, Grabe, Drusius, Laney, Dupin, Kidder, Maundrell, Volney, Grey, Marsh, Meuschen, Stillingfleet, Dodson, Ainsworth, Benjoin, Greenway, Merrick, Worsley, Purver, Wakefield, Haweis, Willis, Dawson, Street, Mudge, White, Pierce, Wesley, Nares, Magee, Spanheim, Pilkington, Beausobre, David and Henry Hunter, Henderson, Shuttleworth, Grotius, and others. But let it not be supposed that the editor has personally examined, or primarily derived, all his emendations from the original works of the authors whose names are here recorded. This would imply an acquaintance with almost every modern and ancient language, and with deep and extensive biblical criticism, to which he makes no pretension. He disavows any thing but industrious research, inflexible integrity, and inviolable impartiality, whilst collating the labours of the many whose learning and piety have so greatly contributed towards this more perfect translation of the sacred Scriptures. His motto therefore is, "Others have laboured;" I have "entered into their labours."

Some private manuscripts, never before examined, have been intrusted to the editor; and several passages, respecting which the greatest difference of opinion exists, he has himself collated with the Codex Vaticanus, and other rare and valuable manuscripts in the Vatican library at Rome. In conclusion, he would say to his fellow men, "With me it is a very small thing to be judged by you, or by man's judgment: yea, I do not even judge mine own self: for though I am not conscious of any unfaithfulness, yet am I not hereby justified; but he who judgeth me is the Lord." And finally, the results of his lengthened labours are now, with the most profound reverence, and with the deepest humility, laid at His feet whose glorious perfections adorn the sacred page, and who is himself emphatically and essentially "THE WORD OF GOD."

THE FIRST BOOK OF MOSES,

CALLED

GENESIS.

IN the beginning God created the heavens and the earth: but the earth was without form and void; and darkness was upon the surface of the deep: and the Spirit of God moved upon the surface of the waters. 1

And God said, Let there be light, and there was light. And God saw that the light was good: and God divided the light from the darkness. And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day. 3 4 5

And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters. And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament: and God called the firmament the Heavens. And the evening and the morning were the second day. 6 7 8

And God said, Let the waters under the heavens be gathered together to one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so. And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters he called Seas: and God saw that it was good. And God said, Let the earth bring forth tender plants on its surface, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding fruit after its kind, whose seed is in itself: and it was so. And the earth brought forth plants, and herb yielding seed after its kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after its kind: and God saw that it was good. And the evening and the morning were the third day. 9 10 11 12 13

And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heavens to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years: and let them be for lights in the firmament of the heavens to give light upon the earth: and it was so. And God made two great lights; the greater one to rule the day, and the lesser one with the stars to rule the night. And God set them in the firmament of the heavens to give light upon the earth, and to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness: and God saw that it was good. And the evening and the morning were the fourth day. 14 15 16 17 18 19

And God said, Let the waters bring forth abundantly the living creature that moveth, and let birds fly above the earth in the open firmament of the heavens. And God created great whales, and every living and creeping creature that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind, and every winged bird after its kind: and God saw that it was good. And God blessed them, saying, Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters of the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth. And the evening and the morning were the fifth day. 20 21 22 23

And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after its kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and wild beast of the earth after its kind: and it was so. And God made the wild beast of the earth after its kind, and cattle after their kind, and every thing that creepeth upon the earth after its kind: and God saw that it was good. 24 25

And God said, Let us make mankind in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth. So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them. And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over every living thing that creepeth upon the earth. 26 27 28

IN the beginning God created the heavens and the earth: but the earth was without form and void; and darkness was upon the surface of the deep: and the Spirit of God moved upon the surface of the waters. 1

And God said, Let there be light, and there was light. And God saw that the light was good: and God divided the light from the darkness. And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day. 2 3 4 5

And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters. And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament: and God called the firmament the Heavens. And the evening and the morning were the second day. 6 7 8

And God said, Let the waters under the heavens be gathered together to one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so. And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters he called Seas: and God saw that it was good. And God said, Let the earth bring forth tender plants on its surface, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding fruit after its kind, whose seed is in itself: and it was so. And the earth brought forth plants, and herb yielding seed after its kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after its kind: and God saw that it was good. And the evening and the morning were the third day. 9 10 11 12 13

And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heavens to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years: and let them be for lights in the firmament of the heavens to give light upon the earth: and it was so. And God made two great lights; the greater one to rule the day, and the lesser one with the stars to rule the night. And God set them in the firmament of the heavens to give light upon the earth, and to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness: and God saw that it was good. And the evening and the morning were the fourth day. 14 15 16 17 18 19

And God said, Let the waters bring forth abundantly the living creature that moveth, and let birds fly above the earth in the open firmament of the heavens. And God created great whales, and every living and creeping creature that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind, and every winged bird after its kind: and God saw that it was good. And God blessed them, saying, Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters of the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth. And the evening and the morning were the fifth day. 20 21 22 23

And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after its kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and wild beast of the earth after its kind: and it was so. And God made the wild beast of the earth after its kind, and cattle after their kind, and every thing that creepeth upon the earth after its kind: and God saw that it was good. 24 25

And God said, Let us make mankind in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth. So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them. And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over every living thing that creepeth upon the earth. 26 27 28

29 And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the surface of all the earth, and every tree, in which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; to you it shall be for food. And to every beast of the earth, and to every bird of the air, and to every thing that creepeth upon the earth, wherein is life, I have given every green herb for food: and it was so. And God saw every thing that he had made, and, behold, it was very good. And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

2 THUS the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them. And by the seventh day God had completed his works which he had made; and he ceased on the seventh day from all his works which he had made. And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because that on it he had ceased from all his works which he had created and made.

4 This is the origin of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, on the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens, and every plant of the field before it was on the earth, and every herb of the field before it grew: for the LORD God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was not a man to till the ground. But there went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole surface of the ground.

7 And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living being.

8 And the LORD God planted a garden eastward in Eden; and there he put the man whom he had formed. And out of the ground made the LORD God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight and good for food; the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. And a river went out of Eden to water the garden; and from thence it was parted, and became into four streams. The name of the first is Pison: which compasseth the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold; and the gold of that land is good: there is the pearl and the onyx stone. And the name of the second river is Gihon: which compasseth the whole land of Ethiopia. And the name of the third river is Hiddekel: which goeth toward the east of Assyria. And the fourth river is Euphrates.

15 And the LORD God took Adam, and put him into the garden of Eden to dress it and to keep it. And the LORD God commanded Adam, saying, Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat: but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil thou shalt not eat: for on the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.

18 And the LORD God said, It is not good that Adam should be alone; let us make him a helpmate. And out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field, and every bird of the air; and brought them unto Adam to see what he would call them: and whatsoever Adam called every living creature, that was the name thereof. And Adam gave names to all cattle, and to the birds of the air, and to every beast of the field; but for Adam there was not found a helpmate.

21 And the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and while he slept he took one of his ribs, and closed up the place with flesh; and the rib, which the LORD God had taken from man, he made into a woman, and brought her unto the man.

23 And Adam said, This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man. Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they two shall be one flesh.

25 And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed.

3 NOW the serpent was more subtle than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made: and he said unto the woman, Hath God really said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden? And the woman said unto the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of every tree of the garden, but of the fruit of that tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die. And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die: for God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, your eyes shall be opened, so that by knowing good and evil ye shall be as God.

6 And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and gave of it also unto her husband; and they did eat. And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves girdles.

8 And they heard the voice of the LORD God waxing louder and louder in the garden in the cool of the day: and for fear of him Adam and his wife hid themselves amongst the trees of the garden. And the LORD God called unto Adam, and said unto him, Where art thou? And he said, I heard thy voice in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself. And he said, Who told thee that 11 thou wast naked? What, of the tree of which I commanded thee that thou shouldst not eat hast thou eaten? And Adam said, The woman whom thou gavest to be 12 with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat. And the LORD God said unto the 13 woman, Why hast thou done this? And the woman said, The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat.

And the LORD God said unto the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou art 14 cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field; upon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life: and I will put enmity between 15 thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; he shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.

Unto the woman he said, I will surely multiply thy sorrow with thy conception; in 16 anguish thou shalt bring forth children; and thou shalt be in subjection to thy husband, and he shall rule over thee.

And unto Adam he said, Because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife, 17 and hast eaten of the tree, of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it: the ground shall be cursed for thy sake; in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life; thorns also and thistles shall it bring forth to thee; and thou shalt 18 eat the herb of the field; in the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return to the dust; since out of it wast thou taken: for dust thou hast been, and unto dust shalt thou turn again. 19

And Adam called his wife's name Eve [LIFE-GIVER]; because she was the mother 20 of all living. Unto Adam also and to his wife did the LORD God make coats of 21 skins, and clothed them.

And the LORD God said, Behold, Adam would become as one of us, to know 22 good and evil: and now possibly he will put forth his hand, and take also of the tree of life, and eat, that he may live for ever: therefore the LORD God sent him forth 23 from the garden of Eden, to till the ground from whence he was taken. So he drove out Adam; and he placed at the east of the garden of Eden cherubims, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to keep the way of the tree of life. 24

AND ADAM KNEW EVE HIS WIFE; and she conceived, and bore Cain [ACQUISITION], and said, I have gotten a man-child from the LORD. And she again bore his brother Abel [VANITY]. And Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground.

And, in process of time, Cain brought of the fruit of the ground an offering 3 unto the LORD. And Abel, he also brought of the firstlings of his flock, and of the 4 fat thereof: and the LORD had respect unto Abel and to his offering: but unto Cain and to his offering he had not respect: and Cain was very wrath, and his 5 countenance fell. And the LORD said unto Cain, Why art thou wroth? and why 6 is thy countenance fallen? If thou doest well, shalt thou not be accepted? and if 7 thou doest not well, a sin offering lieth at thy door. And unto thee may be his desire, and thou mayest rule over him.

And Cain said to Abel his brother, Let us go into the field: and when they were 8 in the field, Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and slew him. And the LORD 9 said unto Cain, Where is Abel thy brother? And he said, I know not: am I my brother's keeper? And he said, What hast thou done? the voice of thy brother's 10 blood crieth unto me from the ground. And now art thou cursed from the earth, 11 which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brother's blood from thy hand; when 12 thou tillest the ground, it shall not henceforth yield unto thee her strength; a fugitive and a vagabond shalt thou be in the earth. And Cain said unto the LORD, 13 My punishment is greater than I can bear. Behold, thou drivest me out this day 14 from this land; and from thy face shall I be hid; and I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond in the land; and every one who findeth me shall slay me. And the 15 LORD said unto him, Not so: whosoever slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold. And the LORD gave a token to Cain, lest any finding him should kill him. And Cain went out from the presence of the LORD, and dwelt in the land 16 of Nod, on the east of Eden.

And Cain knew his wife; and she conceived, and bore Enoch: and he built a 17 city, and called the name of the city, after the name of his son, Enoch. And unto 18 Enoch was born Irad: and Irad begat Mehujael: and Mehujael begat Methusael: and Methusael begat Lamech.

And Lamech took unto him two wives: the name of the one was Adah, and the 19 name of the other Zillah. And Adah bore Jabal: he was the father of such as dwell 20 in tents, and of such as have care of cattle. And his brother's name was Jubal: he 21

- 22 was the father of all such as handle the harp and organ. And Zillah, she also bore Tubal-cain, an instructor of every artificer in brass and iron : and the sister of Tubal-23 cain was Naamah. And Lamech said unto his wives, Adah and Zillah, hear my voice ;
Ye wives of Lamech, hearken unto my speech :
Have I slain a man to my wounding,
And a young man to my hurt ?
24 If Cain shall be avenged sevenfold, Truly Lamech seventy and sevenfold.
- 25 And Adam knew Eve his wife again ; and she bore a son, and called his name Seth [A SUBSTITUTE] : For God, said she, hath appointed me another son instead of 26 Abel, whom Cain slew. And to Seth also there was born a son ; and he called his name Enos : then began men to be called by the name of the LORD.
- 5 THIS is the record of the genealogy of Adam. In the day that God created man, in the likeness of God made he him : male and female created he them ; and blessed them, and called their name Mankind, in the day when they were created.
- 3 And Adam lived a hundred and thirty years, and begat a son in his own likeness, 4 after his image ; and called his name Seth : and the days of Adam, after he had be-5 gotten Seth, were eight hundred years : and he begat sons and daughters. And all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred and thirty years : and he died.
- 6 7 And Seth lived a hundred and five years, and begat Enos : and Seth lived, after 8 he begat Enos, eight hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters : and all the days of Seth were nine hundred and twelve years : and he died.
- 9 10 And Enos lived ninety years, and begat Cainan : and Enos lived, after he begat 11 Cainan, eight hundred and fifteen years, and begat sons and daughters : and all the days of Enos were nine hundred and five years : and he died.
- 12 13 And Cainan lived seventy years, and begat Mahalaleel : and Cainan lived, after he 14 begat Mahalaleel, eight hundred and forty years, and begat sons and daughters : and all the days of Cainan were nine hundred and ten years : and he died.
- 15 16 And Mahalaleel lived sixty and five years, and begat Jared : and Mahalaleel lived after he begat Jared, eight hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters.
17 and all the days of Mahalaleel were eight hundred ninety and five years : and he died.
- 18 19 And Jared lived a hundred sixty and two years, and he begat Enoch : and Jared 20 lived, after he begat Enoch, eight hundred years, and begat sons and daughters : and all the days of Jared were nine hundred sixty and two years : and he died.
- 21 22 And Enoch lived sixty and five years, and begat Methuselah : and Enoch so walked that he pleased God, after he begat Methuselah, three hundred years, and begat sons 23 and daughters : and all the days of Enoch were three hundred sixty and five years :
24 and Enoch so walked that he pleased God : and he was not ; for God took him.
- 25 26 And Methuselah lived a hundred eighty and seven years, and begat Lamech : and Methuselah lived, after he begat Lamech, seven hundred eighty and two years, and 27 begat sons and daughters : and all the days of Methuselah were nine hundred sixty and nine years : and he died.
- 28 29 And Lamech lived a hundred eighty and two years, and begat a son : and he called his name Noah [COMFORTER], saying, This same shall comfort us amidst our work 30 the toil of our hands, because of the ground which the LORD hath cursed. And La-mech lived, after he begat Noah, five hundred ninety and five years, and begat son 31 and daughters : and all the days of Lamech were seven hundred seventy and seven years : and he died.
- 32 And Noah was five hundred years old : and Noah begat Shem, Ham, and Japheth 6 AND when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them, the sons of the chiefs saw the daughters of men that they were beautiful ; and they took them wives of all whom they chose.
- 3 And the LORD said, My Spirit shall not always strive with man, for the transgresion of his flesh : yet his days shall be a hundred and twenty years.
- 4 There were giants in the earth in those days ; and also after that, when the sons the chiefs came in unto the daughters of men, and they bore children to them, the same became men of renown, the mighty men of old.
- 5 And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that the 6 purposes and desires of the thoughts of his heart were only evil continually. And repeated the LORD that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his 7 heart. And the LORD said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the fa-of the earth; both man, and beast, and the creeping thing, and the birds of the air; for it repenteth me that I have made them.

But Noah found grace in the eyes of the LORD. These are the generations of 89 Noah: Noah was a just man and upright in his generation; and Noah so walked that he pleased God. And Noah begat three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth. The 10 11 earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence. And God 12 looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth.

And God said unto Noah, The end of all flesh is come before me; for the earth is 13 filled with violence through them; and, behold, I will destroy them from the earth. Make thee an ark of gopher wood: rooms shalt thou make in the ark, and shalt pitch 14 it within and without with pitch. And this is the fashion which thou shalt make 15 it of. The length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits, the breadth of it fifty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits. A roof shalt thou make to the ark, and thou 16 shalt finish it a cubit above; and the door of the ark shalt thou set in the side thereof; with lower, second, and third stories shalt thou make it. And, behold! I, even 17 I, do bring a flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life, from under the heavens; and everything that is in the earth shall die. But with thee will I establish my covenant; and thou shalt go into the ark, 18 thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, and thy sons' wives with thee. And of every living 19 thing of all flesh, two of every sort shalt thou bring into the ark, to keep them alive with thee; they shall be male and female. Of birds after their kind, and of cattle 20 after their kind, of every creeping thing of the earth after its kind, two of every sort shall come unto thee, to keep them alive. And take thou unto thee of all food that 21 is eaten, and thou shalt gather it to thee; and it shall be for food for thee, and for them. Thus did Noah; according to all that God commanded him, so did he. 22

AND the LORD said unto Noah, Go thou and all thy house into the ark; for thee 7 have I seen righteous before me in this generation. Of every clean beast thou shalt take to thee seven pairs, the male and his female: and of beasts that are not clean two pairs, the male and his female. Of birds also of the air seven pairs, the male and 3 the female; to keep seed alive upon the face of all the earth. For yet seven days, 4 and I will cause it to rain upon the earth forty days and forty nights; and every living substance that I have made will I destroy from off the face of the earth. And Noah 5 did according unto all that the LORD commanded him.

And Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of waters was upon the earth. 6 And Noah went in, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him, into 7 the ark, because of the waters of the flood. Of clean beasts, and of beasts that are 8 not clean, and of birds, and of every thing that creepeth upon the earth, there 9 went in two and two unto Noah into the ark, the male and the female, as God had commanded Noah. And after seven days, the waters of the flood were upon the 10 earth.

In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day 11 of the month, the same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up, and the floodgates of the heavens were opened. And the storm of rain was upon the 12 earth forty days and forty nights. In the selfsame day entered Noah, and Shem, and 13 Ham, and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, into the ark; they, and every beast after its kind, and all the cattle 14 after their kind, and every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth after its kind, and every fowl after its kind, every bird of every sort. And they went in unto Noah 15 into the ark, two and two of all flesh, wherein is the breath of life. And they that 16 went in, went in male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him: and the LORD shut him in.

And the flood was forty days upon the earth; and the waters increased, and bore 17 up the ark, and it was lifted up above the earth. And the waters prevailed, and were 18 increased greatly upon the earth; and the ark went upon the face of the waters. And the waters prevailed exceedingly upon the earth; and all the high hills, that 19 were under the whole heavens, were covered. Fifteen cubits upward did the waters 20 prevail; and the mountains were covered.

And all flesh died that moved upon the earth, of birds, and of cattle, and of beast, 21 and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, and every man: all in 22 whose nostrils was the breath of life, of all that was in the dry land, died. And every 23 living substance was destroyed which was upon the face of the ground, both man, and cattle, and the creeping things, and the birds of the heavens; and they were destroyed from the earth: and Noah only remained alive, and they who were with 24 him in the ark. And the waters prevailed upon the earth a hundred and fifty days.

8 AND God remembered Noah, and every living thing, and all the cattle that was with him in the ark : and God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters assuaged. The fountains also of the deep and the floodgates of the heavens were stopped, and the rain from the heavens was restrained ; and the waters returned from off the earth continually : and after the end of the hundred and fifty days the waters were abated.

4 And the ark rested in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, upon the mountains of Ararat. And the waters decreased continually until the tenth month : in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, were the tops of the mountains seen.

6 And at the end of forty days, Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made : and he sent forth a raven, which went forth to and fro, until the waters were dried up from off the earth. Also he sent forth a dove from him, to see if the waters were abated from off the face of the ground ; but the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she returned unto him into the ark, for the waters were on the face of the whole earth : then he put forth his hand, and took her, and pulled her in unto him into the ark. And he stayed yet other seven days ; and again he sent forth the dove out of the ark ; and the dove came in to him in the evening ; and, lo, in her mouth was an olive branch plucked off : so Noah knew that the waters were abated from off the earth. And he stayed yet other seven days ; and sent forth the dove ; which returned not again unto him any more.

13 And in the six hundredth and first year of the life of Noah, in the first month, the first day of the month, the waters were dried up from off the earth : and Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and, behold, the face of the ground was dry. And in the second month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, was the earth dried.

15 16 And God spoke unto Noah, saying, Go forth out of the ark, thou, and thy wife, and thy sons, and thy sons' wives with thee. Bring forth with thee every living thing that is with thee, of all flesh, both of birds, and of cattle, and of every creeping thing, that creepeth upon the earth ; that they may be fruitful, and multiply upon the earth. And Noah went forth, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him : every beast, and every bird, and whatsoever creepeth upon the earth, after their kinds, went forth out of the ark.

20 And Noah built an altar unto the LORD ; and took of every clean beast, and of every clean bird, and offered burnt offerings on the altar. And the LORD smelled a sweet savour ; and the LORD said in his heart, I will not again curse the ground any more for man's sake ; although the purposes and desires of man's heart are evil from his youth ; neither will I again smite any more every thing living, as I have done. While the earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease.

9 AND God blessed Noah and his sons, and said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth. And the fear of you and the dread of you shall be upon every beast of the earth, and upon every bird of the air, upon all that moveth upon the earth, and upon all the fishes of the sea ; into your hand are they delivered. 3 Every moving thing that liveth shall be food for you ; even as the green herb have I given you all things. But flesh with the life-blood thereof shall ye not eat. And surely of your life-blood will I require an account ; at the hand of every one living will I require it ; at the hand of man, and at the hand of every man's brother will I require the life of man. Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed ; (for in the image of God made he man.) And you, be ye fruitful, and multiply ; bring forth abundantly in the earth, and multiply therein.

8 9 And God spoke unto Noah, and to his sons with him, saying, And I, behold, I establish my covenant with you, and with your seed after you ; and with every living creature that is with you, of the birds, of the cattle, and of every beast of the earth with you ; from all that go out of the ark, to every beast of the earth. And I will establish my covenant with you ; neither shall all flesh be cut off any more by the waters of a flood ; neither shall there any more be a flood to destroy the earth. And God said, This is the token of the covenant which I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for perpetual generations : I do set my bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a token of the covenant between me and the earth. And when I bring a cloud over the earth, the bow shall be seen in the cloud : and I will remember my covenant, which is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh ; and the waters shall no more become a flood to destroy all flesh. And the 16 bow shall be in the cloud ; and I will look upon it, that I may remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is upon the earth. And God said unto Noah, This is the token of the covenant, which I 17 have established between me and all flesh that is upon the earth.

AND the sons of Noah, who went forth of the ark, were Shem, and Ham, and 18 Japheth : and Ham is the father of Canaan. These are the three sons of Noah : and 19 of them was the whole earth overspread.

And Noah became a husbandman, and planted a vineyard : and he drank of the 20 21 wine, and was drunken ; and he was uncovered within his tent. And Ham, the 22 father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brethren who were without. And Shem and Japheth took a garment, and laid it upon both their shoul- 23 ders, and went backward, and covered the nakedness of their father ; and their faces were backward, and they saw not their father's nakedness. And Noah awoke from 24 his wine, and knew what his younger son had done unto him. And he said, Cursed 25 be Canaan : a servant of servants shall he be unto his brethren. And he said, Bless- 26 ed of the LORD God be Shem ; and Canaan shall be his servant. God shall en- 27 large Japheth, and he shall dwell in the tents of Shem ; and Canaan shall be his servant. And Noah lived after the flood three hundred and fifty years. And all 28 29 the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years ; and he died.

Now these are the generations of the sons of Noah ; Shem, Ham, and Japheth : 10 and unto them were sons born after the flood. The sons of Japheth ; Gomer, and Magog, and Madai, and Javan, and Tubal, and Meshech, and Tiras. And the sons 3 of Gomer ; Ashkenaz, and Riphath, and Togarmah. And the sons of Javan ; Eli- 4 shah, and Tarshish, Chittim, and Rodanim. By these were the isles of the Gentiles 5 divided in their lands ; every one after his tongue, after their families, in their nations.

And the sons of Ham ; Cush, and Mizraim, and Phut, and Canaan. And the 6 7 sons of Cush ; Seba, and Havilah, and Sabtah, and Raamah, and Sabteclah : and the sons of Raamah ; Sheba, and Dedan.

And Cush begat Nimrod : he began to be a mighty one in the earth. He was a 8 9 mighty hunter before the LORD : wherefore it is said, Even as Nimrod the mighty hunter before the LORD. And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel, and 10 Erech, and Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar. He went forth to war against 11
Assyria, and built Nineveh, and the city Rehoboth, and Calah, and Resen, between 12 Nineveh, the great city, and Calah.

And Mizraim begat Ludim, and Ananim, and Lehabim, and Naphtuhim, and Pa- 13 14
thrusim, and Casluhim, (out of whom came the Philistines,) and Caphtorim.

And Canaan begat Sidon his firstborn, and Heth, and the Jebusite, and the Amo- 15 16 rite, and the Girgasite, and the Hivite, and the Arkite, and the Sinite, and the Ar- 17 18 vadite, and the Zemarite, and the Hamathite : and afterward were the families of the Canaanites spread abroad. And the border of the Canaanites was from Sidon, 19 as thou comest to Gerar, unto Gaza ; as thou goest, unto Sodom, and Gomorrah, and Admah, and Zeboim, even unto Lasha. These are the sons of Ham, after their 20 families, after their tongues, in their countries, and in their nations.

Unto Shem also, the father of all the children of Eber, the brother of Japheth 21 the elder, even to him were sons born. The sons of Shem ; Elam, and Asshur, and 22 Arphaxad, and Lud, and Aram. And the sons of Aram ; Uz, and Hul, and Gether, 23 and Meshech. And Arphaxad begat Salah ; and Salah begat Eber. And unto Eber 24 25 were born two sons : the name of one was Peleg [DIVISION] ; for in his days was the earth divided ; and his brother's name was Joktan. And Joktan begat Almodad, 26 and Sheleph, and Hazarmaveth, and Jerah, and Hadoram, and Uzal, and Diklah, 27 and Obal, and Abimael, and Sheba, and Ophir, and Havilah, and Jobab : all these 28 29 were the sons of Joktan. And their dwelling was from Mesha, as thou goest, unto 30 Sephar a mount of the east. These are the sons of Shem, after their families, after 31 their tongues, in their lands, after their nations. These are the families of the sons 32 of Noah, according to their genealogies : and by these were the nations distinguished in the earth after the flood.

AND the whole earth was of one language, and of one purpose. And as they 11 journeyed from the east, they found a plain in the land of Shinar ; and they dwelt there.

And they said one to another, Come, let us make brick, and burn them thoroughly. 3
And they had brick for stone, and slime had they for mortar. And they said, Come, 4 let us build us a city and a tower, whose top may reach unto the heavens ; and let us make us an everlasting monument, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of

- 5 the whole earth. And the LORD came down to see the city and the tower, which 6 the children of men built. And the LORD said, Behold, the people are of one
7 purpose, and they have all one language; and this they begin to do: and now no
8 thing will restrain them from doing that which they have purposed to do. Come, 9 let us go down, and there confound their language, that they may not understand 10 one another's speech. So the LORD scattered them abroad from thence upon the 11 face of all the earth; and they left off to build the city. Therefore is the name of 12 it called Babel [CONFUSION]; because the LORD did there confound the language 13 of all the earth: and from thence did the LORD scatter them abroad upon the face 14 of all the earth.
- 15 THESE are the generations of Shem: Shem was a hundred years old, and begat 16 Arphaxad two years after the flood: and Shem lived, after he begat Arphaxad, five 17 hundred years, and begat sons and daughters. And Arphaxad lived five and thirty 18 years, and begat Salah: and Arphaxad lived, after he begat Salah, four hundred 19 and three years, and begat sons and daughters. And Salah lived thirty years, and 20 begat Eber: and Salah lived, after he begat Eber, four hundred and three years, and 21 begat sons and daughters. And Eber lived four and thirty years, and begat Peleg:
22 and Eber lived, after he begat Peleg, four hundred and thirty years, and begat sons 23 and daughters. And Peleg lived thirty years, and begat Reu: and Peleg lived, 24 after he begat Reu, two hundred and nine years, and begat sons and daughters. And 25 Reu lived two and thirty years, and begat Serug: and Reu lived, after he begat Se-26 rug, two hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters. And Serug lived 27 thirty years, and begat Nahor: and Serug lived, after he begat Nahor, two hundred 28 years, and begat sons and daughters. And Nahor lived nine and twenty years, and 29 begat Terah: and Nahor lived, after he begat Terah, a hundred and nineteen years, 30 and begat sons and daughters. And Terah lived seventy years, and begat Abram, 31 Nahor, and Haran.
- 32 Now these are the generations of Terah: Terah begat Abram, Nahor, and Haran; 33 and Haran begat Lot. And Haran died in the presence of his father Terah in the 34 land of his nativity, in Ur of the Chaldees. And Abram and Nahor took them wives:
35 the name of Abram's wife was Sarai; and the name of Nahor's wife, Milcah, the 36 daughter of Haran, the father of Milcah, and the father of Iscah. But Sarai was 37 barren; she had no child. And Terah took Abram his son, and Lot the son of Ha-38 ran his son's son, and Sarai his daughter-in-law, his son Abram's wife; and they 39 went forth with them from Ur of the Chaldees, to go into the land of Canaan; and 40 they came unto Haran, and dwelt there. And the days of Terah were one hundred 41 and forty-five years; and Terah died in Haran.
- 12 AND the LORD said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy 42 kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will show thee: and I will 43 make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and 44 thou shalt be a blessing: and I will bless them who bless thee, and curse him who 45 curseth thee: and through thee shall all the families of the earth be blessed.
- 46 So Abram departed, as the LORD had spoken unto him; and Lot went with him:
47 and Abram was seventy and five years old when he departed out of Haran. And 48 Abram took Sarai his wife, and Lot his brother's son, and all their substance that 49 they had gathered, and all the servants whom they had gotten in Haran; and they 50 went forth to go into the land of Canaan; and into the land of Canaan they came.
- 51 And Abram passed through the land unto the place of Sichem, unto the plain of 52 Moreh. And the Canaanite was then in the land. And the LORD appeared unto 53 Abram, and said, Unto thy seed will I give this land: and there built he an altar 54 unto the LORD, who appeared unto him.
- 55 And he removed from thence unto a mountain on the east of Beth-el, and pitched 56 his tent, having Beth-el on the west, and Hai on the east: and there he built an 57 altar unto the LORD, and called upon the name of the LORD. And Abram jour-58 neyed, going on still toward the south.
- 59 And there was a famine in the land: and Abram went down into Egypt to sojourn 60 there; for the famine was grievous in the land. And when he was come near to 61 enter into Egypt, he said unto Sarai his wife, Behold now, I know that thou art a 62 beautiful woman to look upon: therefore when the Egyptians shall see thee, they 63 shall say, This is his wife: and they will kill me, but they will save thee alive.
64 Say, I pray thee, thou art my sister, that it may be well with me for thy sake; and I 65 shall live because of thee.
- 66 And when Abram was come into Egypt, the Egyptians beheld the woman that she 67 was very beautiful. The princes also of Pharaoh saw her, and commended her before Pharaoh : and the woman was taken into Pharaoh's house. And he entreated 16 Abram well for her sake : and he had sheep, and oxen, and he-asses, and menservants, and maidservants, and she-asses, and camels. And the LORD smote Pharaoh 17 and his house with great plagues, because of Sarai, Abram's wife. And Pharaoh 18 called Abram, and said, What is this that thou hast done unto me? why didst thou not tell me that she was thy wife? why saidst thou, She is my sister? so I might have 19 taken her to me to wife : now, therefore, behold thy wife, take her, and go thy way.

And Pharaoh commanded his men concerning him : and they sent him away, and his 20 wife, and all that he had.

And Abram went up out of Egypt, he, and his wife, and all that he had, and Lot 13 with him, into the south to Negib. And Abram was very rich in cattle, in silver, and in gold. And he went on his journeys from the south even to Beth-el, unto the 3 place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Beth-el and Hai ; unto the 4 place of the altar, which he had made there formerly : and where Abram had called on the name of the LORD.

And Lot also, who went with Abram, had flocks, and herds, and tents. And the 5 6 land was not able to bear them, that they might dwell together ; for their substance was great, so that they could not dwell together. And there was a strife between 7.
the herdmen of Abram's cattle and the herdmen of Lot's cattle : (and the Canaanite and the Perizzite dwelt then in the land.) And Abram said unto Lot, Let there be 8 no strife, I pray thee, between me and thee, and between my herdmen and thy herd-men ; for we be brethren. Is not the whole land before thee? separate thyself, I 9 pray thee, from me : if thou wilt take the left hand, then I will go to the right ; or if thou depart to the right hand, then I will go to the left.

And Lot lifted up his eyes, and beheld all the plain of the Jordan as thou comest 10 to Zoar, that it was well watered every where, even as the garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt, before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah. Then Lot 11 chose him all the plain of the Jordan ; and Lot journeyed east : and they separated themselves the one from the other. Abram dwelt in the land of Canaan, and Lot 12 dwelt in the cities of the plain, and pitched his tent toward Sodom. But the men 13 of Sodom were exceedingly wicked and sinners before the LORD.

And the LORD said unto Abram, after that Lot was departed from him, Lift up 14 now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou art, northward, and southward, and eastward, and westward : for all the land which thou seest, to thee will I give it, 15 and to thy seed for ever. And I will make thy seed as the dust of the earth : so 16 that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then shall thy seed also be numbered.
Arise, walk through the land in the length of it and in the breadth of it ; for I will 17 give it unto thee. Then Abram removed his tent, and came and dwelt in the plain 18 of Mamre, which is in Hebron, and built there an altar unto the LORD.

AND in the days of Amraphel king of Shinar, Arioch king of Ellasar, 14
Chedorlaomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of Goim ; these made war with Bera king of Sodom, and with Birsha king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of Admah, and Shemeber king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela, which is Zoar. All these were 3 joined together in the vale of Siddim, which is the salt sea. Twelve years they 4 served Chedorlaomer, and in the thirteenth year they rebelled. And in the four- 5 teenth year came Chedorlaomer, and the kings who were with him, and smote the Repbahims in Ashteroth Karnaim, and the Zuzims in Ham, and the Emims in Shaveh Kiriathaim, and the Horites in their Mount Seir, unto El-paran, which is by the 6 wilderness. And they returned, and came to En-mishpat, (which is Kadesh,) and 7 smote all the country of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites, who dwelt in Hazezon-tamar. And there went out the king of Sodom, and the king of Gomorrah, and 8 the king of Admah, and the king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (the same is Zoar) ; and they joined battle with them in the vale of Siddim : with Chedorlaomer 9 the king of Elam, and with Tidal king of Goim, and Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioch king of Ellasar ; four kings with five. And the vale of Siddim was full of 10 slimepits ; and the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah were defeated, and many fell there ; and they who remained fled to the mountain. And they took all the goods of 11 Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their victuals, and went their way. And they took 12
Lot, Abram's brother's son, who dwelt in Sodom, and his goods, and departed.

And there came one who had escaped, and told Abram the Hebrew ; for he dwelt 13 in the plain of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol, and brother of Aner ; and these were confederate with Abram. And when Abram heard that his brother was 14 taken captive, he led forth his trained servants, born in his own house, three hundred and eighteen, and pursued them unto Dan. And he divided his servants against 15 them by night, and smote them, and pursued them unto Hobah, which is on the left hand of Damascus. And he brought back all the goods, and also brought again his brother Lot, and his goods, and the women also, and the people.

17 And the king of Sodom went out to meet him after his return from the slaughter of Chedorlaomer, and of the kings who were with him, at the valley of Shaveh, which is the king's dale. And Melchizedek, king of Salem, brought forth bread and wine; and he was the priest of the most high God. And he blessed him, and said, Blessed be Abram of the most high God, possessor of the heavens and earth: and blessed be the most high God, who hath delivered thine enemies into thy hand. And Abram gave him tithes of all.

21 And the king of Sodom said unto Abram, Give me the persons, and take the goods to thyself. And Abram said to the king of Sodom, I have lifted up my hand unto the LORD, the most high God, the possessor of the heavens and earth, that I will not take from a thread even to a shoe-latchet, and that I will not take anything that is thine, lest thou shouldst say, I have made Abram rich: save only that which the young men have eaten, and the portion of the men who went with me, Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre; let them take their portion.

15 AFTER these things the word of the LORD came unto Abram in a vision, saying, Fear not, Abram: I am thy shield, and thy exceeding great reward. (For Abram had said, Lord God, what wilt thou give me, seeing I go childless, and the son of the steward of my house, this Eliezer of Damascus, is mine heir?) And Abram said, Behold, to me thou hast given no seed; and, lo, one born in my house is mine heir. And, behold, the word of the LORD came unto him, saying, This shall not be thine heir; but he who shall come forth out of thine own bowels shall be thine heir. And he brought him forth abroad, and said, Look now towards the heavens, and tell the stars, if thou be able to number them: and he said unto him, So shall thy seed be. And Abram believed in the LORD; and it was counted to him for righteousness.

7 And he said unto him, I am the LORD who brought thee out of Ur of the Chaldees, to give thee this land to inherit it. And he said, O Lord God, whereby shall I know that I shall inherit it? And he said unto him, Take me a heifer of three years old, and a she-goat of three years old, and a ram of three years old, and a turtle-dove, and a young pigeon. And he took unto him all these, and divided them in the midst, and laid each piece one against another: but the birds divided he not. And when the birds of prey came down upon the carcases, Abram drove them away. And when the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram; and, lo, horror and great darkness fell upon him. And he said unto Abram, Know of a surety that thy seed shall be sojourners in a land that is not theirs, and shall serve them; and they shall afflict them four hundred years; and also that nation, whom they shall serve, will I judge; and afterwards shall they come out with great substance. And thou shalt go to thy fathers in peace; thou shalt be buried in a good old age: but in the fourth generation they shall come hither again: for the iniquity of the Amorites will then be full. And when the sun went down, and it was dark, behold a smoking furnace, and a flame of fire passed between those pieces. In that same day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying, Unto thy seed have I given this land, from Sehor, the river of Egypt, unto the great river, the river Euphrates: the Kenites, and the Kenizzites, and the Kadmonites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Rephaims, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Girgashites, and the Jebusites.

16 Now Sarai, Abram's wife, bore him no children; and she had a handmaid, an Egyptian, whose name was Hagar. And Sarai said unto Abram, Behold, now, the LORD hath restrained me from bearing; I pray thee, go in unto my maid; it may be that I may obtain children by her. And Abram hearkened to the voice of Sarai.

3 And Sarai, Abram's wife, took Hagar her maid, the Egyptian, after Abram had dwelt ten years in the land of Canaan, and gave her to her husband Abram to be his wife. And he went in unto Hagar, and she conceived: and when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress was despised in her eyes. And Sarai said unto Abram, My wrong be upon thee: I have given my maid unto thy bosom; and when she saw that she had conceived, I was despised in her eyes: the LORD judge between me and thee. But Abram said unto Sarai, Behold, thy maid is in thy hand; do to her as it pleaseth thee. And when Sarai dealt hardly with her, she fled from her face.

7 And the angel of the LORD found her by a fountain of water in the wilderness, by the fountain in the way to Shur. And he said, Hagar, Sarai's maid, whence camest thou? and whither wilt thou go? And she said, I flee from the face of my mistress Sarai. And the angel of the LORD said unto her, Return to thy mistress, and submit thyself under her hands. And the angel of the LORD said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be numbered for multitude. And the angel of the LORD said unto her, Behold, thou art with child, and shalt bear a son, and shalt call his name Ishmael [GOD HEARETH]; because the LORD hath heard the prayers offered in thy affliction. And he will be a wild man; his hand will be against every man, and every man's hand against him; and he shall dwell in the presence of all his brethren. And she called the name of the LORD who spoke unto her, El-roi [THOU GOD SEEST ME]: for she said, Here have I also looked after him who seeth me? Wherefore the well was called Beer-lahai-roi [THE WELL OF HIM WHO LIVETH AND SEETH ME]; behold, it is between Kadesh and Bered. And Hagar bore Abram a son: and Abram called his son's name, whom Hagar bore; Ishmael. And Abram was fourscore and six years old, when Hagar bore Ishmael to him.

And when Abram was ninety years old and nine, the LORD appeared to Abram, and said unto him, I am the Almighty God; walk before me, and be thou upright. And I will confirm my covenant between me and thee, and will multiply thee exceedingly. And Abram fell on his face: and God talked with him, saying, As for me, behold, my covenant is with thee, and thou shalt be a father of many nations. Neither shall thy name any more be called Abram, but thy name shall be Abraham [FATHER OF A GREAT MULTITUDE]; for a father of many nations have I made thee. And I will make thee exceeding fruitful, and I will make nations of thee, and kings shall come out of thee. And I will establish my covenant between me and thee and thy seed after thee, in their generations, for an everlasting covenant, to be a God unto thee, and to thy seed after thee. And I will give unto thee, and to thy seed after thee, the land of thy sojournings, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession; and I will be their God.

And God said unto Abraham, Thou shalt keep my covenant therefore, thou, and thy seed after thee in their generations. This is my covenant, which ye shall keep, between me and you and thy seed after thee; every man-child among you shall be circumcised. And ye shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin; and it shall be a token of the covenant betwixt me and you. And he who is eight days old shall be circumcised among you, every man-child in your generations, he who is born in the house, or bought with money of any stranger, who is not of thy seed. He who is born in thy bouse, and he who is bought with thy money, must needs be circumcised: and my covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant. And the uncircumcised man-child whose flesh of his foreskin is not circumcised, that soul shall be cut off from his people; he hath broken my covenant.

And God said unto Abraham, As for Sarai thy wife, thou shalt not call her name Sarai, but Sarah [PRINCESS] shall her name be. And I will bless her, and give thee a son of her, whom also I will bless: yea, I will bless her, and she shall become a mother of nations; and kings of people shall be of her. Then Abraham fell upon his face, and laughed, and said in his heart, Shall a child be born unto him who is a hundred years old? and shall Sarah, who is ninety years old, bear? And Abraham said unto God, Oh that Ishmael might live before thee! And God said, Sarah thy wife shall bear thee a son indeed; and thou shalt call his name Isaac [LAUGHTER]: and I will establish my covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, and with his seed after him. And as for Ishmael, I have heard thee: Behold, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and will multiply him exceedingly; twelve princes shall he beget, and I will make him a great nation. But my covenant will I establish with Isaac, whom Sarah shall bear unto thee at this set time in the next year.

And he left off talking with him, and God went up from Abraham. And Abraham took Ishmael his son, and all who were born in his house, and all who were bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham's house; and circumcised the flesh of their foreskin in the selfsame day, as God had said unto him. And Abraham was ninety years old and nine, when he was circumcised. And Ishmael his son was thirteen years old, when he was circumcised. In the selfsame day was Abraham circumcised, and Ishmael his son. And all the men of his house, born in the house, and bought with money of the stranger, were circumcised with him.

AND the LORD appeared unto him in the plains of Mamre, as he sat in the tent door in the heat of the day; and he lifted up his eyes and looked, and, lo, three men stood by him: and when he saw them, he ran to meet them from the tent door, and bowed himself toward the ground, and said, My lords, if now I have found favour in your sight, pass not away, I pray you, from your servant: let a little water, I pray you, be fetched, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree: and I will

- fetch a morsel of bread, and comfort ye your hearts; after that ye shall pass on: for therefore are ye come to your servant. And they said, So do, as thou hast said.
- 6 And Abraham hastened into the tent unto Sarah, and said, Make ready quickly three measures of fine meal, knead it, and make cakes upon the hearth. And Abraham ran unto the herd, and fetched a calf, tender and good, and gave it unto a young man; and he hastened to dress it. And he took butter, and milk, and the calf which he had dressed, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree, and they did eat.
- 9 And they said unto him, Where is Sarah thy wife? And he said, Behold, in the tent. And the LORD said, I will certainly return unto thee according to the time of life; and, lo, Sarah thy wife shall have a son. And Sarah heard it, for she was behind him at the door of the tent. Now Abraham and Sarah were old and advanced in age; and it ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women. Therefore Sarah laughed within herself, saying, After I am waxed old shall I have that pleasure, my lord being old also? And the LORD said unto Abraham, Wherefore did Sarah laugh, saying, Shall I of a surety bear a child, who am old? Is anything too hard for the LORD? At the time appointed I will return unto thee, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son. Then Sarah denied; saying, I laughed not; for she was afraid. And he said, Nay, but thou didst laugh.
- 16 And the men rose up from thence, and looked towards Sodom; and Abraham went with them to bring them on the way. And the LORD said, Shall I conceal from Abraham my servant, that which I am about to do; seeing that Abraham shall surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be blessed through him? For I know him, that he will command his children and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of the LORD, to do justice and judgment; that the LORD may bring upon Abraham that which he hath spoken of him. And the LORD said, Because the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grievous, I will go down now, and see whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it, which is come unto me; and if not, I will know. And the men turned their faces from thence, and went towards Sodom: but Abraham stood yet before the LORD.
- 23 And Abraham drew near, and said, Wilt thou also destroy the righteous with the wicked? Peradventure there be fifty righteous within the city; wilt thou also destroy and not spare the place for the fifty righteous that are therein? That be far from thee to do after this manner, to slay the righteous with the wicked: and that the righteous should be as the wicked, that be far from thee: Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right? And the LORD said, If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare all the place for their sakes. And Abraham answered and said, Behold now, I who am but dust and ashes have taken upon me to speak unto the LORD. Peradventure there shall lack five of the fifty righteous: wilt thou destroy all the city for lack of five? And he said, If I find there forty and five, I will not destroy it. And he spoke unto him yet again, and said, Peradventure there shall be forty found there. And he said, I will not do it for forty's sake. And he said unto him, Oh! let not the LORD be angry, and I will speak. Peradventure there shall thirty be found there. And he said, I will not do it, if I find thirty there.
- 31 And he said, Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak unto the LORD. Peradventure there shall be twenty found there. And he said, I will not destroy it for twenty's sake. And he said, Oh! let not the LORD be angry, and I will speak yet but this once. Peradventure ten shall be found there. And he said, I will not destroy it for ten's sake. And the LORD went away, as soon as he had left communing with Abraham: and Abraham returned unto his place.
- 19 AND the two angels came to Sodom in the evening; and Lot sat in the gate of Sodom: and Lot, seeing them, rose up to meet them; and he bowed himself with his face towards the ground; and he said, Behold now, my lords, turn in, I pray you, into your servant's house, and tarry all night, and wash your feet, and ye shall rise up early, and go on your ways. And they said, Nay, but we will abide in the street all night. And he pressed upon them greatly; and they turned in unto him, and entered into his house; and he made them a feast, and did bake unleavened cakes, and they did eat.
- 4 But before they lay down, the men of the city, even the men of Sodom, compassed the house round, both old and young, all the people from every quarter: and they called unto Lot, and said unto him, Where are the men who came in to thee this night? bring them out unto us, that we may know them. And Lot went out at the door unto them, and shut the door after him, and said, I pray you, brethren, do not so wickedly. Behold now, I have two daughters who have not known man; 8 let me, I pray you, bring them out unto you, and do ye to them as is good in your eyes; only unto these men do nothing; for therefore came they under the shadow of my roof. And they said, Stand back. And they said again, Shall one who came 9 in only to sojourn be a judge? now will we deal worse with thee, than with them.

And they pressed sore upon the man, even Lot, and came near to break the door.
But the men put forth their hand, and pulled Lot into the house to them, and shut 10 to the door. And they smote the men who were at the door of the house with 11 blindness, both small and great; so that they wearied themselves to find the door.

And the angels said unto Lot, Hast thou here any besides? son-in-law, and thy 12 sons, and thy daughters, and whatsoever thou hast in the city, bring them out of this place; for we will destroy this place, because the cry of them is waxen great be- 13 fore the face of the LORD; and the LORD hath sent us to destroy it. And Lot 14 went out, and spoke unto his sons-in-law, who were betrothed to his daughters, and said, Up, get you out of this place; for the LORD will destroy this city. But he seemed as one who mocked unto his sons-in-law.

And when the morning arose, then the angels hastened Lot, saying, Arise, take 15 thy wife, and thy two daughters, who are here; lest thou be consumed in the punishment of the city. And while he lingered, the men laid hold upon his hand, and 16 upon the hand of his wife, and upon the hand of his two daughters; (the LORD being merciful unto them:) and they brought them forth, and set them without 17 the city. And when they had brought them forth abroad, they said, Escape for 18 thy life; look not behind thee, neither stay thou in all the plain; escape to the mountain, lest thou be consumed. And Lot said unto one of them, Oh! not so, 19 my lord: behold, now, thy servant hath found grace in thy sight, and thou hast 20 magnified thy mercy, which thou hast showed unto me in saving my life; and I cannot escape to the mountain, lest some evil take me, and I die: behold, now, this 21 city is near to flee unto, and it is a little one: Oh! let me escape thither, (is it not a little one?) and my soul shall live. And he said unto him, See, I have accepted 22 thee concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow this city, for which thou hast spoken. Haste thee, escape thither; for I cannot do anything till thou art 23 come thither. Therefore the name of the city was called Zoar [LITTLE]. The sun 24 was risen upon the earth when Lot entered into Zoar.

Then the LORD rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrah brimstone and fire from 25 the LORD out of the heavens; and he overthrew those cities, and all the plain, and all 26 the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew upon the ground. But Lot's wife 27 looked earnestly back from behind him, and she became a pillar of salt. And Abra- 28 ham got up early in the morning to the place where he stood before the LORD: and he looked towards Sodom and Gomorrah, and towards all the land of the plain; and beheld, and, lo, the smoke of the country went up as the smoke of a furnace.

AND when God destroyed the cities of the plain, God remembered Abraham, 29 and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities in which Lot dwelt. And Lot went up out of Zoar, and dwelt in the mountain, 30 and his two daughters with him; for he feared to dwell in Zoar: and he dwelt in a cave, he and his two daughters. And the firstborn said unto the younger: 31
Our father is old, and there is not a man in the land to come in unto us after the manner of all the land: come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie 32 with him, that we may preserve seed of our father. And they made their father 33 drink wine that night; and the firstborn went in, and lay with her father; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose. And on the morrow, 34 the firstborn said unto the younger: Behold, I lay last night with my father;
let us make him drink wine this night also; and go thou in, and lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father. And they made their father drink wine 35 that night also: and the younger arose, and lay with him; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose. Thus were both the daughters of Lot with 36 child by their father. And the firstborn bore a son, and called his name Moab: the 37 same is the father of the Moabites unto this day. And the younger, she also bore a 38 son, and called his name Ben-ammi: the same is the father of the children of Ammon unto this day.

AND Abraham journeyed from thence toward the south country, and dwelt and 20 sojourned in Gerar between Kadesh and Shur. And Abraham said of Sarah his wife,
She is my sister, for he was afraid to say, She is my wife, lest the men of the city should kill him on her account: and Abimelech king of Gerar sent, and took Sarah.

But God came to Abimelech in a dream by night, and said to him, Behold, thou 3 art but a dead man, for the woman which thou hast taken; for she is a man's wife.

4 But Abimelech had not come near her; and he said, Lord, wilt thou slay also a 5 righteous nation? Said he not unto me, She is my sister? and she, even she herself said, He is my brother: in the integrity of my heart and innocency of my hands 6 have I done this. And God said unto him in a dream, Yea, I know that thou didst this in the integrity of thy heart; and I also withheld thee from sinning against me:
7 and therefore suffered I thee not to touch her. Now therefore restore the man his wife, for he is a prophet, and he shall pray for thee, and thou shalt live: and if thou restore her not, know thou that thou shalt surely die, thou, and all who are thine.
8 Therefore Abimelech rose early in the morning, and called all his servants, and 9 told all these things in their ears; and the men were sore afraid. Then Abimelech called Abraham, and said unto him, What is this that thou hast done unto us? and what have I offended thee, that thou hast brought on me and on my kingdom a great 10 sin? thou hast done deeds unto me that ought not to be done. And Abimelech 11 said unto Abraham, What sawest thou, that thou hast done this thing? And Abraham said, Because I thought, surely the fear of God is not in this place; and they 12 will slay me for my wife's sake. And yet indeed she is my sister; she is the daugh-13 ter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife. And when God caused me to wander from my father's house, I said unto her, This is thy kindness which thou shalt show unto me; at every place whither we shall come, 14 say of me, He is my brother. And Abimelech took sheep, and oxen, and menservants, and womenservants, and a thousand pieces of silver, and gave them unto Abraham, and restored him Sarah his wife. And Abimelech said, Behold, my land is 15 before thee; dwell where it pleaseth thee. And unto Sarah he said, Behold, I have given thy brother a thousand pieces of silver, to purchase vails for thee, and for all 17 who are with thee: thus she was reproved. So Abraham prayed unto God; and God 18 healed Abimelech, and his wife, and his maidservants; and they bore children. For the LORD had fast closed up all the wombs of the house of Abimelech, because of Sarah Abraham's wife.

21 AND the LORD visited Sarah as he had said, and the LORD did unto Sarah as he had spoken. For Sarah conceived, and bore Abraham a son in his old age, at the 3 set time of which God had spoken to him. And Abraham called the name of his son 4 who was born unto him, (whom Sarah bore to him,) Isaac [LAUGHTER]. And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac being eight days old, as God had commanded him.
5 And Abraham was a hundred years old, when his son Isaac was born unto him. And 6 Sarah said, A cause of laughter it is that God has done unto me, and all who hear 7 it will laugh about me. And she said, Who would have said unto Abraham, that Sarah should have given children suck? for I have borne him a son in mine old age.
8 And the child grew, and was weaned: and Abraham made a great feast the same 9 day that Isaac was weaned. And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian (whom 10 she had borne unto Abraham) deriding her son Isaac. Wherefore she said unto Abraham, Cast out this bondwoman and her son; for the son of this bondwoman 11 shall not be heir with my son, even with Isaac. And the thing was very grievous in 12 Abraham's sight because of his son. And God said unto Abraham, Let it not be grievous in thy sight because of the lad, and because of thy bondwoman; in all that Sarah hath said unto thee, hearken unto her voice; for in Isaac shall thy seed be 13 called. And also of the son of the bondwoman will I make a great nation, because 14 he is thy seed. And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and took bread, and a bottle of water, and gave them unto Hagar (putting them on her shoulder) and the child, and sent her away.
15 And she departed, and wandered in the wilderness of Be'er-sheba. And the water 16 was spent in the bottle, and she laid the child under one of the shrubs. And she went, and sat her down over against him a good way off, as it were a bowshot: for she said, Let me not see the death of the child. And she sat over against him, and 17 the child lifted up his voice, and wept. And God heard the voice of the lad; and the angel of God called to Hagar out of heaven, and said unto her, What aileth thee, 18 Hagar? fear not, for God hath heard the voice of the lad where he is. Arise, lift up 19 the lad, and hold him in thy hand; for I will make him a great nation. And God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water; and she went, and filled the bottle with 20 water, and gave the lad drink. And God was with the lad; and he grew, and dwelt 21 in the wilderness, and became an archer. And he dwelt in the wilderness of Paran; and his mother took him a wife out of the land of Egypt.
22 And at that time, Abimelech and Phicol the chief captain of his host spoke unto 23 Abraham, saying, God is with thee in all that thou doest: now therefore swear unto me here by God that thou wilt not deal falsely with me, nor with my son, nor with my son's son; but according to the kindness that I have done unto thee, thou shalt do unto me, and to the land wherein thou hast sojourned. And Abraham said, I will swear. And Abraham reproved Abimelech because of a well of water, which Abimelech's servants had violently taken away. And Abimelech said, I know not who hath done this thing; neither didst thou tell me, neither yet heard I of it, but to-day. And Abraham took sheep and oxen, and gave them unto Abimelech; and both of them made a covenant. And Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves. And Abimelech said unto Abraham, What mean these seven ewe lambs which thou hast set by themselves? And he said, Thou shalt take of my hand these seven ewe lambs, that they may be a witness for me, that I have digged this well. Wherefore he called that place Beer-sheba [THE WELL OF THE OATH]; because there they swore both of them. Thus they made a covenant at Beer-sheba: then Abimelech rose up, and Phicol the chief captain of his host, and they returned into the land of the Philistines.

And Abraham planted a grove in Beer-sheba, and called there on the name of the LORD, the everlasting God. And Abraham sojourned in the Philistines' land many days.

AND after these things, God did try Abraham, and said unto him, Abraham, 22
Abraham! and he said, Behold, here I am. And he said, Take now thy son, thine only son Isaac, whom thou lovest, and get thee into the land of Moriah; and offer him there for a burnt offering upon one of the mountains which I will tell thee of. And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and saddled his ass, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son, and clave the wood for the burnt offering, and rose up to go unto the place of which God had told him. Then, on the third day, Abraham lifted up his eyes, and saw the place afar off. And Abraham said unto his young men, Abide ye here with the ass; and I and the young man will go yonder and worship, and come again to you. And Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering, and laid it upon Isaac his son; and he took the fire in his hand, and a knife; and they went both of them together. And Isaac spoke unto Abraham his father, and said, My father: and he said, Here am I, my son. And he said, Behold the fire and the wood; but where is the lamb for the burnt offering? And Abraham said, My son, God will provide himself a lamb for the burnt offering: so they went both of them together.

And they came to the place which God had told him of; and Abraham built an altar there, and laid the wood in order, and bound Isaac his son, and laid him on the altar upon the wood. And Abraham stretched forth his hand, and took the knife to slay his son. And the angel of the LORD called unto him out of heaven, and said, Abraham, Abraham: and he said, Here am I. And he said, Lay not thy hand upon the young man, neither do thou anything unto him; for now I know that thou fearest God, seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thine only son, from me. And Abraham lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, a ram caught in a thicket by its horns: and Abraham went and took the ram, and offered it up for a burnt offering in the stead of his son. And Abraham called the name of that place Jehovah-jireh [JEHOVAH WILL PROVIDE]: as it is said to this day, In this mount the LORD shall be seen. And the angel of the LORD called unto Abraham out of heaven the second time, and said, By myself have I sworn, saith the LORD, for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld from me thy son, thine only son: that in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heavens, and as the sand which is upon the sea shore; and thy seed shall possess the cities of his enemies; and through thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; because thou hast obeyed my voice. So Abraham returned unto his young men, and they rose up and went together to Beer-sheba; and Abraham dwelt at Beer-sheba.

AND after these things, it was told Abraham, saying, Behold, Milcah, she hath also borne children unto thy brother Nahor: Huz his firstborn, and Buz his brother, and Kemuel the father of Aram, and Chesed, and Hazo, and Pildash, and Jidlaph, and Bethuel. And Bethuel begat Rebekah: these eight Milcah did bear to Nahor, Abraham's brother. And his concubine, whose name was Reumah, she bore also Tebah, and Gaham, and Thahash, and Maachah.

And Sarah was a hundred and seven and twenty years old: these were the years of the life of Sarah. And Sarah died in Kirjath-arba, (the same is Hebron,) in the land of Canaan: and Abraham came to mourn for Sarah, and to weep for her.

And Abraham rose up from mourning before his dead, and spoke unto the sons of 3

- 4 Heth, saying, I am a stranger and a sojourner with you : give me a possession of a buryingplace with you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight.
- 5 6 And the children of Heth answered Abraham, saying unto him, Hear us, my lord ; thou art a mighty prince among us : in the choice of our sepulchres bury thy dead ; none of us shall withhold from thee his sepulchre, but that thou mayest bury thy dead.
- 7 And Abraham stood up, and bowed himself to the people of the land, even to the
- 8 children of Heth. And he communed with them, saying, If it be your mind that I should bury my dead out of my sight, hear me, and entreat for me to Ephron the
- 9 son of Zohar, that he may give me the cave of Machpelah, which he hath, which is in the end of his field ; for as much money as it is worth he shall give it me for a possession of a buryingplace amongst you.
- 10 And Ephron was sitting among the children of Heth : and Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the hearing of the children of Heth, even of all who were come
- 11 to the gate of his city, saying, Nay, my lord, hear me : the field give I thee, and the cave that is therein, I give it thee ; in the presence of the sons of my people give I it thee : bury thy dead.
- 12 13 And Abraham bowed down himself before the people of the land. And he spoke unto Ephron in the hearing of the people of the land, saying, I pray thee, hear me : I would rather give thee money for the field ; take the price from me, and I will bury my dead there.
- 14 15 And Ephron answered Abraham, saying unto him, My lord, hearken unto me : the land is worth four hundred shekels of silver ; what is that betwixt me and thee ? bury, therefore, thy dead.
- 16 And Abraham hearkened unto Ephron ; and Abraham weighed to Ephron the silver, which he had named in the audience of the sons of Heth, four hundred shekels of silver, current money with the merchant. And the field of Ephron, which
- 17 was in Machpelah, which was before Mamre, the field, and the cave which was therein, and all the trees that were in the field, that were in all the borders round
- 18 about, were made sure unto Abraham for a possession in the presence of the children of Heth, before all who went in at the gate of his city.
- 19 And after this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Mach-
- 20 pelah before Mamre, (the same is Hebron,) in the land of Canaan. And the field, and the cave that is therein, were made sure unto Abraham for a possession of a buryingplace by the sons of Heth.
- 21 22 And Abraham was old, and far advanced in years : and the LORD had blessed Abraham in all things. And Abraham said unto his eldest servant of his house, who
- 3 ruled over all that he had, Put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh : and I will make thee swear by the LORD, the God of the heavens, and the God of the earth, that thou shalt not take a wife for my son Isaac of the daughters of the Canaanites,
- 4 among whom I dwell ; but thou shalt go unto my country, and to my kindred, and take a wife for my son Isaac.
- 5 And the servant said unto him, Peradventure the woman will not be willing to follow me unto this land : must I needs bring thy son again unto the land from whence thou camest ?
- 6 And Abraham said unto him, Beware thou that thou bring not my son thither
- 7 again. The LORD God of the heavens and of the earth, who took me from my father's house, and from the land of my kindred, and who spoke unto me, and who swore unto me, saying, Unto thy seed will I give this land ; he shall send his angel
- 8 before thee, and thou shalt take a wife unto my son from thence. And if the woman will not be willing to follow thee, then thou shalt be clear from this my oath : only
- 9 bring not my son thither again. And the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and swore to him concerning that matter.
- 10 And the servant took ten camels of the camels of his master, and departed ; for all the goods of his master were in his hand : and he arose, and went to Mesopotamia, unto the city of Nahor. And he made his camels to kneel down without the city, by a well of water, at the time of the evening, even at the time that women who draw water go forth.
- 12 And he said, O LORD God of my master Abraham, I pray thee, send me good
- 13 success this day, and show kindness unto my master Abraham. Behold, I stand here by the well of water ; and the daughters of the men of the city come out to draw
- 14 water : and let it come to pass, that the damsel to whom I shall say, Let down thy pitcher, I pray thee, that I may drink ; and she shall say, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also ; let the same be she whom thou hast appointed for thy servant Isaac; and thereby shall I know that thou hast showed kindness unto my master Abraham.

And before he had done speaking, behold, Rebekah came out, (who was born 15 to Bethuel, son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother,) with her pitcher upon her shoulder. And the damsel was very beautiful to look upon, a virgin, for 16 no man had known her: and she went down to the well, and filled her pitcher, and came up. And the servant ran to meet her, and said, Let me, I pray thee, 17 drink a little water of thy pitcher. And she said, Drink, my lord: and she hastened, and let down her pitcher upon her hand, and gave him drink. And when she 18 had done giving him drink, she said, I will draw water for thy camels also, until they have done drinking. And she hastened, and emptied her pitcher into the trough, 20 and ran again unto the well to draw water, and drew for all his camels. And the 21 man, wondering at her, and musing, held his peace, to know whether the LORD had made his journey prosperous or not.

And as the camels had done drinking, the man took a golden jewel for the fore- 22 head of half a shekel weight, and two bracelets for her hands of ten shekels weight of gold; and said, Whose daughter art thou? tell me, I pray thee: is 23 there room in thy father's house for us to lodge in? And she said unto him, I am 24 the daughter of Bethuel the son of Milcah, whom she bore unto Nahor. She said 25 moreover unto him, We have both straw and provender enough, and room to lodge in. And the man bowed down his head, and worshipped the LORD. And he 26 27 said, Blessed be the LORD God of my master Abraham, who hath not left my master destitute of his mercy and his truth: the LORD has led me in the right way to my master's brethren.

And the damsel ran, and told them of her mother's house these things. And 28 29 Rebekah had a brother, and his name was Laban: and Laban ran out unto the man, unto the well. And when he saw the jewel on her forehead, and bracelets upon 30 his sister's hands, and when he heard the words of Rebekah his sister, saying, Thus spoke the man unto me; he came unto the man; and, behold, he stood by the camels at the well. And he said, Come in, thou blessed of the LORD! wherefore 31 standest thou without? for I have prepared the house, and room for the camels. And the man came into the house: and he ungirded his camels, and gave straw 32 and provender for the camels, and water to wash his feet, and the men's feet who were with him. And there was set meat before him to eat: but he said, I will not 33 eat, until I have told mine errand. And he said, Speak on.

And he said, I am Abraham's servant. And the LORD hath blessed my master 34 35 greatly; and he is become great: and he hath given him flocks, and herds, and silver, and gold, and menservants, and maidservants, and camels, and asses. And 36 Sarah, my master's wife, bore a son to my master when she was old; and unto him hath he given all that he hath. And my master made me swear, saying, Thou shalt 37 not take a wife for my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I dwell; but thou shalt go unto my father's house, and to my kindred, and take a wife for 38 my son. And I said unto my master, Peradventure the woman will not follow me. 39 And he said unto me, The LORD, before whom I walk, will send his angel with thee, and prosper thy way; and thou shalt take a wife for my son of my kindred, and of 40 my father's house: then shalt thou be clear from this my oath, when thou comest to my kindred; and if they give not thee one, thou shalt be clear from my oath. And I 41 came this day unto the well, and said, O LORD, God of my master Abraham, if now thou do prosper my way which I go; behold, I stand by the well of water; and 42 when the virgin cometh forth to draw water, and I say to her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water of thy pitcher to drink; and she say to me, Both drink thou, 43 and I will also draw for thy camels; let the same be the woman whom the LORD hath appointed for my master's son. And before I had done speaking in my 44 heart, behold, Rebekah came forth with her pitcher on her shoulder; and she went down unto the well, and drew water: and I said unto her, Let me drink, I pray 45 thee. And she made haste, and let down her pitcher from her shoulder, and said, 46 Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also: so I drank, and she made the camels drink also. And I asked her, and said, Whose daughter art thou? And she said, 47 The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bore unto him: and I put the ornament upon her forehead, and the bracelets upon her hands. And I bowed 48 down my head, and worshipped the LORD, and blessed the LORD God of my master Abraham, who had led me in the right way to take my master's brother's daughter unto his son. And now if ye will deal kindly and truly with my master, 49 tell me; and if not, tell me; that I may turn to the right hand, or to the left.

50 Then Laban and Bethuel answered and said, The thing proceedeth from the 51 LORD; we cannot speak unto thee bad or good. Behold, Rebekah is before thee, take her, and go, and let her be thy master's son's wife, as the LORD hath spoken.
 52 And when Abraham's servant heard their words, he worshipped the LORD, 53 bowing himself to the earth. And the servant brought forth vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and raiment, and gave them to Rebekah: he gave also to her 54 brother and to her mother precious things. And they did eat and drink, he and the men who were with him, and tarried all night; and they rose up in the morning, 55 and he said, Send me away unto my master. And her brother and her mother said, Let the damsel abide with us a few days, at the least ten; and after that she shall 56 go. And he said unto them, Hinder me not, seeing that the LORD hath prospered 57 my way; send me away that I may go to my master. And they said, We will call 58 the damsel, and inquire at her mouth. And they called Rebekah, and said unto 59 her, Wilt thou go with this man? And she said, I will go. And they sent away 60 Rebekah their sister, and her nurse, and Abraham's servant, and his men. And they blessed Rebekah, and said unto her, Our sister! be thou the mother of innumerable 61 and let thy seed possess the cities of those who hate them.

61 And Rebekah arose, and her damsels, and they rode upon the camels, and fol-62 lowed the man: and the servant took Rebekah, and went his way. And Isaac came 63 from the way of the well Lahai-roi; (for he dwelt in the south country.) And Isaac went out to meditate in the field at the eventide: and he lifted up his eyes, and saw, 64 and, behold, the camels were coming. And Rebekah lifted up her eyes, and when 65 she saw Isaac, she lighted off the camel. For she had said unto the servant, What man is this who walketh in the field to meet us? And the servant had said, It is 66 my master: therefore she took a veil, and covered herself. And the servant told 67 Isaac all things that he had done. And Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah's tent, and took Rebekah, and she became his wife; and he loved her: and Isaac was comforted after his mother's death.

25 Then again Abraham took a wife, and her name was Keturah. And she bore him Zimran, and Jokshan, and Medan, and Midian, and Ishbak, and Shuah. And Jokshan begat Sheba, and Dedan. And the sons of Dedan were Asshurim, and Letushim, and 4 Leummim. And the sons of Midian; Ephah, and Ephraim, and Hanoch, and Abidah, 5 and Eldaah. All these were the children of Keturah. And Abraham gave all that 6 he had unto Isaac. But unto the sons of the concubines, which Abraham had, Abraham gave gifts, and sent them away from Isaac his son, while he yet lived, eastward, unto the east country [ARABIA].

7 And these are the days of the years of Abraham's life which he lived, a hundred 8 threescore and fifteen years. Then Abraham gave up his spirit, and died in a good 9 old age, an old man, and full of years; and was gathered to his people. And his sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah, in the field of Ephron 10 the son of Zohar the Hittite, which is before Mamre; the field which Abraham pur-11 chased of the sons of Heth: there was Abraham buried, and Sarah his wife. And after the death of Abraham, God blessed his son Isaac; and Isaac dwelt by the well Lahai-roi.

12 NOW these are the generations of Ishmael, Abraham's son, whom Hagar the 13 Egyptian, Sarah's handmaid, bore unto Abraham: and these are the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names, according to their generations: the firstborn of 14 Ishmael, Nebajoth; and Kedar, and Adbeel, and Mibsam, and Mishma, and Du-15 16 mah, and Massa, Hadar, and Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah: these are the sons of Ishmael, and these are their names, by their towns, and by their fenced 17 dwellings; twelve princes according to their nations. And these are the years of the life of Ishmael, a hundred and thirty and seven years; and he resigned his spirit 18 and died; and was gathered unto his people. And he dwelt from Havilah unto Shur, on the borders of Egypt, as thou goest towards Assyria; and he died in the presence of all his brethren.

19 And these are the generations of Isaac, Abraham's son: Abraham begat Isaac:
 20 and Isaac was forty years old when he took Rebekah to wife, the daughter of Bethuel 21 the Syrian of Padan-aram, the sister to Laban the Syrian. And Isaac entreated the LORD for his wife, because she was barren; and the LORD was entreated of him, 22 and Rebekah his wife conceived. And the children struggled together within her; and she said, If it be so, why am I thus? And she went to inquire of the LORD.
 23 And the LORD said unto her, Two nations are in thy womb, and two manner of people shall be separated from thy bowels; and the one people shall be stronger than 24 the other people; and the elder shall serve the younger. And when her days to be delivered were fulfilled, behold, there were twins in her womb. And the first came 25 out red, all over like a hairy garment; and they called his name Esau. And after 26 that came his brother out, and his hand took hold on Esau's heel; and his name was called Jacob: and Isaac was threescore years old when she bore them.

And the boys grew: and Esau was a skilful hunter, a man of the field; and Jacob 27 was a plain man, dwelling in tents. And Isaac loved Esau, because he did eat of 28 his venison; but Rebekah loved Jacob. And Jacob boiled pottage: and Esau came 29 from the field, and he was faint: and Esau said to Jacob, Feed me, I pray thee, with 30 that same red pottage; for I am faint: therefore was his name called Edom [REU].
And Jacob said, Sell me this day thy birthright. And Esau said, Behold, I am going 31 32 to die: and what profit shall this birthright do to me? And Jacob said, Swear to me 33 this day; and he swore unto him: and he sold his birthright unto Jacob. Then 34 Jacob gave Esau bread and pottage of lentiles; and he ate and drank, and rose up, and went his way: thus Esau despised his birthright.

AND there was a famine in the land, besides the first famine that was in the days 26 of Abraham. And Isaac went unto Abimelech king of the Philistines unto Gerar.

And the LORD appeared unto him, and said, Go not down into Egypt; dwell in 2 the land which I shall tell thee of: sojourn in this land, and I will be with thee, 3 and will bless thee; for unto thee, and unto thy seed, I will give all these countries, and I will perform the oath which I swore unto Abraham thy father: and I will make 4 thy seed to multiply as the stars of the heavens, and will give unto thy seed all these countries; and in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; because that 5 Abraham thy father obeyed my voice, and kept my charge, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws.

And Isaac dwelt in Gerar: and the men of the place asked him of his wife; and 6 7 he said, She is my sister; for he feared to say, She is my wife; lest, said he, the men of the place should kill me for Rebekah; because she was fair to look upon. And 8 when he had been there a long time, Abimelech, king of the Philistines, looked out at a window, and saw, and, behold, Isaac was sporting with Rebekah his wife.
And Abimelech called Isaac, and said, Behold, of a surety she is thy wife: and how 9 saidst thou, She is my sister? And Isaac said unto him, Because I said, Lest I die for her. And Abimelech said, What is this thou hast done unto us? one of the 10 people might lightly have lain with thy wife, and thou shouldst have brought guilti-ness upon us. And Abimelech charged all his people, saying, He that toucheth this 11 man or his wife shall surely be put to death.

Then Isaac sowed in that land, and received in the same year a hundredfold: and 12 the LORD blessed him: and the man waxed great, and went forward, and grew 13 until he became very great; for he had possession of flocks, and possession of herds, 14 and great store of servants; and the Philistines envied him. For all the wells which the servants of his father Abraham had digged, the Philistines had stopped up, and filled them with earth. And Abimelech said unto Isaac, Go from us; for thou art 16 much mightier than we.

And Isaac departed thence, and pitched his tent in the valley of Gerar, and dwelt 17 there. And Isaac digged again the wells of water, which the servants of Abraham 18 his father had digged; for the Philistines had stopped them after the death of Abraham: and he called their names after the names by which his father had called them.
And Isaac's servants digged in the valley, and found there a well of springing water. 19
And the herdmen of Gerar did strive with Isaac's herdmen, saying, The water is 20 ours: and he called the name of the well Ezek [STRIFE], because they strove with him. And they digged another well, and strove for that also: and he called the 21 name of it Sitnah [OPPOSITION].

And he removed from thence, and digged another well; and for that they strove 22 not: and he called the name of it Rehoboth [ROOM]; and he said, For now the LORD hath made room for us, and we shall be fruitful in the land.

And he went up from thence to Beer-sheba. And the LORD appeared unto him 23 24 the same night, and said, I am the God of Abraham thy father; fear not, for I am with thee, and will bless thee, and multiply thy seed for my servant Abraham's sake. And he built an altar there, and called upon the name of the LORD, and 25 pitched his tent there: and there Isaac's servants digged a well.

Then Abimelech went to him from Gerar, and Ahuzzath one of his friends, and 26 Phicol the chief captain of his army. And Isaac said unto them, Wherefore come 27 ye to me, seeing ye hate me, and have sent me away from you? And they said, We 28 saw certainly that the LORD was with thee; and we said, Let there be now an oath betwixt us, even betwixt us and thee, and let us make a covenant with thee; that 29

thou wilt do us no hurt, as we have not touched thee, and as we have done unto thee nothing but good, and have sent thee away in peace : thou art now the blessed 30 31 of the LORD. And he made them a feast, and they did eat and drink. And they rose up betimes in the morning, and swore one to another : and Isaac sent them
 32 away, and they departed from him in peace. And the same day, Isaac's servants came, and told him concerning the well which they had digged, and said unto him, 33 We have found water. And he called it Shebah [AN OATH] : therefore the name of the city is Beer-sheba unto this day.

34 And Esau was forty years old when he took to wife Judith the daughter of Beeri 35 the Hittite, and Bashemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite ; who were cause of grief of mind unto Isaac and to Rebekah.

27 AND when Isaac was old, and his eyes were dim, so that he could not see, he called Esau his eldest son, and said unto him, My son : and he said unto him, Behold, 2 here am I. And he said, Behold now, I am old, I know not the day of my death : 3 now therefore take, I pray thee, thy weapons, thy quiver and thy bow, and go out to 4 the field, and hunt me some venison ; and make me savoury food, such as I love, and 5 bring it to me, that I may eat ; that my soul may bless thee before I die. And Rebekah heard when Isaac spoke to Esau his son. And Esau went to the field to hunt venison for his father.

6 And Rebekah spoke unto Jacob her son, saying, Behold, I heard thy father speak 7 unto Esau thy brother, saying, Bring me venison, and make me savoury food, that I 8 may eat, and bless thee before the LORD before my death. Now therefore, my son, 9 obey my voice according to that which I command thee. Go now to the flock, and fetch me from thence two kids tender and good ; and I will make them savoury food 10 for thy father, such as he loveth : and thou shalt bring it to thy father, that he may eat, and that he may bless thee before his death.

11 And Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, Behold, Esau my brother is a hairy man, 12 and I am a smooth man : my father peradventure will feel me, and I shall seem to 13 him as a great deceiver ; and I shall bring a curse upon me, and not a blessing. And his mother said unto him, Upon me be thy curse, my son ; only obey my voice, and 14 go fetch me them. And he went, and fetched, and brought them to his mother : and his mother made savoury meat, such as his father loved.

18 And he came unto his father, and said, My father : and he said, Here am I ; who 19 art thou, my son ? And Jacob said unto his father, I am Esau thy firstborn ; I have done according as thou badest me : arise, I pray thee, sit and eat of my venison, that 20 thy soul may bless me. And Isaac said unto his son, How is it that thou hast found it so quickly, my son ? And he said, Because the LORD thy God brought it to me. 21 And Isaac said unto Jacob, Come near, I pray thee, that I may feel thee, my son, 22 whether thou be my very son Esau or not. And Jacob went near unto Isaac his father ; and he felt him, and said, The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the 23 hands of Esau. And he discerned him not, because his hands were hairy, as his 24 brother Esau's hands : so he blessed him. And he said, Art thou my very son Esau ? 25 And he said, I am. And he said, Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my son's venison, that my soul may bless thee. And he brought it near to him, and he did 26 eat : and he brought him wine, and he drank. And his father Isaac said unto him, 27 Come near now, and kiss me, my son. And he came near, and kissed him : and he smelt the smell of his raiment, and blessed him, and said, See, the smell of my son is 28 as the smell of a field which the LORD hath blessed : therefore God give thee of the 29 dew of heaven, and the fatness of the earth, and plenty of corn and wine : let people serve thee, and nations bow down to thee : be lord over thy brethren, and let thy mother's sons bow down to thee : cursed be every one who curseth thee, and blessed be he who bleisseth thee.

30 And as soon as Isaac had made an end of blessing Jacob, and Jacob was yet scarce gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, Esau his brother came 31 in from his hunting. And he also had made savoury food, and brought it unto his father, and said unto his father, Let my father arise, and eat of his son's venison, 32 that thy soul may bless me. And Isaac his father said unto him, Who art thou ? 33 And he said, I am thy son, thy firstborn Esau. And Isaac trembled greatly with a great trembling, and said, Who ? where is he who hath hunted venison, and brought it me, and I have eaten of all before thou camest, and have blessed him? yea, and he shall be blessed. And when Esau heard the words of his father, he cried with a great and exceeding bitter cry, and said unto his father, Bless me, even me also, O my father! And he said, Thy brother came with subtilty, and hath taken away thy blessing. And he said, Is not he rightly named Jacob [SUPPLANTER]? for he hath supplanted me these two times: he took away my birthright; and, behold, now he hath taken away my blessing. And he said, Hast thou not reserved a blessing for me? And Isaac answered and said unto Esau, Behold, I have made him thy lord, and all his brethren have I given to him for servants; and with corn and wine have I sustained him; and what shall I do now unto thee, my son? And Esau said unto his father, Hast thou but one blessing, my father? bless me, even me also, O my father! And Esau lifted up his voice, and wept. And Isaac his father answered and said unto him, Behold, thy dwelling shall be of the fatness of the earth, and of the dew of the heavens from above; and by thy sword shalt thou live, and shalt serve thy brother; and when thou shalt be humbled, thou shalt break his yoke from off thy neck.

And Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing wherewith his father blessed him: and Esau said in his heart, The days of mourning for my father are at hand; then will I slay my brother Jacob. And these words of Esau her elder son were told to Rebekah: and she sent and called Jacob her younger son, and said unto him, Behold, thy brother Esau, as touching thee, doth comfort himself, purposing to kill thee. Now therefore, my son, obey my voice; and arise, flee thou to Laban my brother to Haran; and tarry with him a few days, until thy brother's fury turn away; until thy brother's anger turn away from thee, and he forget that which thou hast done to him: then I will send, and fetch thee from thence: why should I be deprived also of you both in one day?

And Rebekah said to Isaac, I am weary of my life because of the daughters of Heth: if Jacob take a wife of the daughters of Heth, such as these who are of the daughters of the land, what good shall my life do me? And Isaac called Jacob, and blessed him, and charged him, and said unto him, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan. Arise, go to Padan-aram, to the house of Bethuel thy mother's father; and take thee a wife from thence of the daughters of Laban thy mother's brother. And God Almighty bless thee, and make thee fruitful, and multiply thee, that thou mayest be a multitude of people; and give thee the blessing of Abraham, to thee, and to thy seed with thee; that thou mayest inherit the land of thy sojournings, which God gave unto Abraham. And Isaac sent away Jacob; and he went to Padan-aram unto Laban, son of Bethuel the Syrian, the brother of Rebekah, Jacob's and Esau's mother.

When Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob, and sent him away to Padan-aram, to take him a wife from thence; and that as he blessed him he gave him a charge, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan; and that Jacob obeyed his father and his mother, and was gone to Padan-aram; and Esau seeing that the daughters of Canaan pleased not Isaac his father; then went Esau unto Ishmael, and took unto the wives which he had Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael Abraham's son, the sister of Nebajoth, to be his wife.

And Jacob went out from Beer-sheba, and went toward Haran. And he lighted upon a certain place, and tarried there all night, because the sun was set; and he took one of the stones of that place, and put it for his pillow, and lay down in that place to sleep. And he dreamed, and behold, a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven: and behold, the angels of God ascending and descending on it. And, behold, the LORD stood above it, and said, I am the LORD God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isaac: the land whereon thou liest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed; and thy seed shall be as the dust of the earth, and thou shalt spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south: and in thee and through thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed. And, behold, I will be with thee, and will keep thee in all places whither thou goest, and will bring thee again into this land; for I will not leave thee, until I have done that which I have spoken to thee of.

And Jacob awaked out of his sleep, and he said, Surely, the LORD is in this place; and I knew it not. And he was afraid, and said, How dreadful is this place! this is none other but the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven! And Jacob rose up early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put for his pillow, and set it up for a pillar, and poured oil upon the top of it. And he called the name of that place Beth-el [THE HOUSE OF GOD]; but the name of that city was called Luz

- 20 at the first. And Jacob vowed a vow, saying, If God will be with me, and will keep 21 me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat, and raiment to put on, so that I come again to my father's house in peace; and the LORD will be my God; 22 then this stone, which I have set for a pillar, shall be God's house: and of all that thou shalt give me I will surely give the tenth unto thee.
- 29 THEN Jacob went on his journey, and came into the land of the people of the east. And he looked, and, behold, a well in the field, and, lo, there were three flocks of sheep lying by it; for out of that well they watered the flocks: and a great stone 3 was upon the well's mouth. And thither were all the flocks gathered: and the shepherds rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the sheep, and put the 4 stone again upon the well's mouth in its place. And Jacob said unto them, My 5 brethren, whence be ye? And they said, Of Haran are we. And he said unto them, 6 Know ye Laban the son of Nahor? And they said, We know him. And he said unto them, Is he well? And they said, He is well: and, behold, Rachel his daughter 7 cometh with her father's sheep. And he said, Lo, it is yet high day, neither is it time that the cattle should be gathered together: water ye the sheep, and go and 8 feed them. And they said, We cannot, until all the flocks be gathered together, and the shepherds roll the stone from the well's mouth; then we water the sheep.
9 And while he yet spoke with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep; for she 10 kept them. And when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother, Jacob went near, and rolled 11 the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the flock of Laban his mother's 12 brother. And Jacob kissed Rachel, and lifted up his voice, and wept. And Jacob told Rachel that he was her father's brother, and that he was Rebekah's 13 son; and she ran and told her father. And when Laban heard the tidings of Jacob his sister's son, he ran to meet him, and embraced him, and kissed him, and 14 brought him to his house: and he told Laban all these things. And Laban said to him, Surely thou art my bone and my flesh: and he abode with him the space of a month.
- 15 And Laban said unto Jacob, Because thou art my brother, shouldest thou therefore serve me for nought? tell me, what shall thy wages be? And Laban had two daughters; the name of the elder was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel.
17 Leah was tender eyed; but Rachel was beautiful and well favoured. And Jacob loved Rachel; and said, I will serve thee seven years for Rachel thy younger daugh-18 ter. And Laban said, It is better that I give her to thee, than that I should give her to another man: abide with me. And Jacob served seven years for Rachel; 20 and they seemed unto him but a few days, for the love he had to her.
- 21 And Jacob said unto Laban, Give me my wife, for my days are fulfilled, that I may go in unto her. And Laban gathered together all the men of the place, and made 22 a feast. And in the evening, he took Leah his daughter, and brought her to him; 23 and he went in unto her. And Laban gave unto his daughter Leah Zilpah his 24 maid for a handmaid. And in the morning, behold, it was Leah: and he said to Laban, What is this thou hast done unto me? did not I serve with thee for Rachel?
26 wherefore, then, hast thou deceived me? And Laban said, It must not be so done in 27 our country, to give the younger before the firstborn. Fulfil her week, and we will give thee the other also for the service which thou shalt serve with me yet seven other years.
- 28 And Jacob did so, and fulfilled her week; and he gave him Rachel his daughter 29 to wife also. And Laban gave Bilhah his handmaid to Rachel his daughter, to be 30 her maid. And he went in also unto Rachel, and he loved also Rachel more than Leah, and served with him yet seven other years.
- 31 And when the LORD saw that Leah was slighted, he opened her womb; but 32 Rachel was barren. And Leah conceived, and bore a son, and she called his name Reuben [BEHOLD A SON]: for she said, Surely the LORD hath looked upon my 33 affliction; now, therefore, my husband will love me. And she conceived again, and bore a son; and said, Because the LORD hath heard that I was slighted, he hath, therefore, given me this son also: and she called his name Simeon [HE HEARETH 34 THE AFFLICTED]. And she conceived again, and bore a son; and said, Now at length will my husband be attached unto me, because I have borne him three sons: 35 therefore was his name called Levi [ATTACHMENT]. And she conceived again, and bore a son; and she said, Now will I praise the LORD: therefore she called his name Judah [PRAISE]; and left off bearing.
- 30 And when Rachel saw that she bore Jacob no children, Rachel envied her sister; and said unto Jacob, Give me children, or else I die. And Jacob's anger was kindled against Rachel ; and he said, Am I in God's stead, who hath withheld from thee the fruit of the womb? And she said, Behold my maid Bilhah, go in unto her ; and she shall bear upon my knees, that I may also have children by her. And she gave him Bilhah her handmaid to wife : and Jacob went in unto her.

And Bilhah conceived, and bore Jacob a son. And Rachel said, God hath judged me, and hath also heard my voice, and hath given me a son : therefore called she his name Dan [HE HATH DONE JUSTICE]. And Bilhah, Rachel's maid, conceived again, and bore Jacob a second son. And Rachel said, With great wrestlings have I wrestled with my sister, and I have prevailed : and she called his name Naphtali [MY WRESTLING].

When Leah saw that she had left bearing, she took Zilpah her maid, and gave her Jacob to wife. And Zilpah, Leah's maid, bore Jacob a son. And Leah said, Good fortune cometh : and she called his name Gad [PROSPERITY]. And Zilpah, Leah's maid, bore Jacob a second son. And Leah said, Happy am I, for the daughters will call me blessed : and she called his name Asher [HAPPY].

And Reuben went in the days of wheat harvest, and found mandrakes in the field, and brought them unto his mother Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, Give me, I pray thee, of thy son's mandrakes. And she said unto her, Is it a small matter that thou hast taken my husband? and wouldest thou take away my son's mandrakes also? And Rachel said, Therefore he shall lie with thee to-night for thy son's mandrakes. And Jacob came out of the field in the evening, and Leah went out to meet him, and said, Thou must come in unto me ; for surely I have hired thee with my son's mandrakes : and he lay with her that night.

And God hearkened unto Leah, and she conceived, and bore Jacob the fifth son. And Leah said, God hath given me my hire, because I have given my maiden to my husband : and she called his name Issachar [A REWARD IS HE]. And Leah conceived again, and bore Jacob the sixth son. And Leah said, God hath endured me with a good dowry ; now will my husband dwell with me, because I have borne him six sons : and she called his name Zebulun [DELIGHT]. And afterwards she bore a daughter, and called her name Dinah [JUDGMENT].

And God remembered Rachel, and God hearkened to her, and opened her womb : and she conceived, and bore a son ; and said, God hath taken away my reproach : and she called his name Joseph [ADDING] ; and said, The LORD shall add to me another son.

AND when Rachel had borne Joseph, Jacob said unto Laban, Send me away, that I may go unto mine own place, and to my country. Give me my wives and my children, for whom I have served thee, and let me go ; for thou knowest my service which I have done thee.

And Laban said unto him, I pray thee, if I have found favour in thine eyes, tarry ; for I have learned by experience that the LORD hath blessed me for thy sake. And he said, Appoint me thy wages, and I will give them.

And he said unto him, Thou knowest how I have served thee, and how thy cattle was with me : for it was little which thou hadst before I came, and it is now increased unto a multitude ; and the LORD hath blessed thee since my coming : and now when shall I provide for mine own house also?

And he said, What shall I give thee?

And Jacob said, Thou shalt not give me anything : if thou wilt do this thing for me, I will again feed and keep thy flock : I will pass through all thy flock to-day, removing from thence all the speckled and spotted cattle, and all the brown cattle among the sheep, and the spotted and speckled among the goats ; and of such shall be my hire. So shall my righteousness answer for me in time to come, when it shall come for my hire before thy face : every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats, and brown among the sheep, that shall be counted stolen with me.

And Laban said, Behold, I would it might be according to thy word.

And he removed that day the he-goats that were ringstraked and spotted, and all the she-goats that were speckled and spotted, and every one that had some white in it, and all the brown among the sheep, and gave them into the hand of his sons. And he set three days' journey betwixt himself and Jacob : and Jacob fed the rest of Laban's flocks.

And Jacob took him rods of green poplar, and of the hazel and chesnut tree ; and peeled white strakes in them, and made the white appear which was in the rods. And he set the rods which he had peeled before the flocks in the gutters in the watering troughs when the flocks came to drink, that they should conceive when they came to drink. And the flocks conceived before the rods, and brought forth

- 40 cattle ringstraked, speckled, and spotted. And Jacob did separate the lambs, and set aside from the flock all the ringstraked, and all the brown in the flock of Laban; and set them apart for a flock to himself, and put them not unto Laban's cattle.
- 41 And whosoever the stronger cattle did conceive, Jacob laid the rods before the eyes 42 of the cattle in the gutters, that they might conceive among the rods. But when the cattle were feeble, he put them not in: so the feebler were Laban's, and the stronger 43 Jacob's. And the man increased exceedingly, and had much cattle, and maidservants, and menservants, and camels, and asses.
- 31 And he heard the words of Laban's sons, saying, Jacob hath taken away all that was our father's; and of that which was our father's hath he gotten all this glory.
2 And Jacob beheld the countenance of Laban, and, behold, it was not towards him as before.
- 3 And the LORD said unto Jacob, Return unto the land of thy fathers, and to thy 4 kindred; and I will be with thee. And Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to 5 the field unto his flock, and said unto them, I see your father's countenance, that it is 6 not towards me as before; but the God of my father hath been with me. And ye
7 know that with all my power I have served your father. And your father hath deceived me, and changed my wages ten times; but God suffered him not to hurt me.
8 If he said thus, The speckled shall be thy wages; then all the cattle bore speckled: and if he said thus, The ringstraked shall be thy hire; then bore all the cattle ringstraked. Thus God hath taken away the cattle of your father, and given them to me.
9 And at the time that the cattle conceived, I lifted up mine eyes, and saw in a dream, and, behold, the rams which leaped upon the cattle were ringstraked, speckled,
10 and grizzled. And the angel of God spoke unto me in a dream, saying, Jacob: and I said, Here am I. And he said, Lift up now thine eyes, and see, all the rams which leap upon the cattle are ringstraked, speckled, and grizzled; for I have seen all 11 that Laban doeth unto thee. I am the God of Beth-el, where thou anointedst the pillar, and where thou vowedst a vow unto me: now arise, get thee out from this land, and return unto the land of thy kindred.
- 14 And Rachel and Leah answered and said unto him, Is there yet any portion or 15 inheritance for us in our father's house? Are we not counted of him strangers? for 16 he hath sold us, and hath quite devoured also our money. For all the riches which God hath taken from our father, that is ours, and our children's: now then, whatsoever God hath said unto thee, do.
- 17 18 THEN Jacob rose up, and set his sons and his wives upon camels; and he carried away all his cattle, and all his goods which he had gotten, the cattle of his getting, which he had gotten in Padan-aram, to go to Isaac his father in the land of Canaan.
- 19 And Laban was gone to shear his sheep; and Rachel stole the images that were her 20 father's. And Jacob stole away unawares to Laban the Syrian, in that he told him 21 not that he fled. So he fled with all that he had; and he speedily passed over the river, and set his face towards the mount Gilead.
- 22 23 And it was told Laban, on the third day, that Jacob was fled. And he took his brethren with him, and pursued after him seven days' journey; and they overtook him 24 in the mount Gilead. And God came to Laban the Syrian in a dream by night, and 25 said unto him, Take heed that thou speak not to Jacob either good or bad. Then Laban overtook Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the mount; and Laban with his brethren pitched in the mount of Gilead.
- 26 And Laban said to Jacob, Why hast thou done this, that thou hast stolen away unawares to me, and carried away my daughters, as captives taken with the sword?
27 Wherefore didst thou flee away secretly, and steal away from me; and didst not tell me, that I might have sent thee away with mirth, and with songs, with tabret, and 28 with harp? and hast not suffered me to kiss my sons and my daughters? thou hast
29 now done foolishly in so doing. It is in the power of my hand to do you hurt; but the God of your father spoke unto me last night, saying, Take thou heed that thou 30 speak not to Jacob either good or bad. And now, though thou wouldest needs be gone, because thou sore longedst after thy father's house, yet wherefore hast thou stolen my gods?
- 31 And Jacob answered and said to Laban, Because I was afraid; for I said, Peradventure thou wouldest take by force thy daughters from me. With whomsoever thou findest thy gods, let him not live: before our brethren discern thou what is thine with me, and take it to thee. For Jacob knew not that Rachel had stolen them.
- 33 And Laban went into Jacob's tent, and into Leah's tent, and into the two maidservants' tents; but he found them not. Then went he out of Leah's tent, and entered into Rachel's tent. Now Rachel had taken the images, and put them in the camel's furniture, and sat upon them. And Laban searched all the tent, but found them not. And she said to her father, Let it not displease my lord that I cannot rise up before thee; for the custom of women is upon me. And he searched, but found not the images.

And Jacob was wroth, and chode with Laban: and Jacob answered and said to Laban, What is my trespass? what is my sin, that thou hast so hotly pursued after me? Whereas thou hast searched all my stuff, what hast thou found of all thy household stuff? set it here before my brethren and thy brethren, that they may judge betwixt us both. These twenty years have I been with thee; thy ewes and thy she-goats have not cast their young, and the rams of thy flock have I not eaten. That which was torn of beasts I brought not unto thee; I bore the loss of it; of my hand didst thou require it, whether stolen by day, or stolen by night. By day the drought consumed me, and the frost by night; and my sleep departed from mine eyes. Thus have I been twenty years in thy house; I served thee fourteen years for thy two daughters, and six years for thy cattle; and thou hast changed my wages ten times. Except the God of my father, the God of Abraham, and the Fear of Isaac, had been with me, surely thou hadst sent me away now empty. God hath seen mine affliction and the labour of my hands, and rebuked thee last night.

And Laban answered and said unto Jacob, These daughters are my daughters, and these children are my children, and these cattle are my cattle, and all that thou seest is mine: and what can I do this day unto these my daughters, or unto their children which they have borne? Now, therefore, come thou, let us make a covenant, I and thou; and let it be for a witness between me and thee.

And Jacob took a stone, and set it up for a pillar. And Jacob said unto his brethren, Gather stones; and they took stones, and made a heap: and they did eat there upon the heap. And Laban called it Jegar-sahadutha; but Jacob called it Galeed [THE HEAP OF WITNESS].

And Laban said, This heap is a witness between me and thee this day. Therefore was the name of it called Galeed; and Mizpah [WATCH-TOWER]; for he said, The LORD watch between me and thee, when we are absent one from another. If thou shalt afflict my daughters, or if thou shalt take other wives besides my daughters, no man is with us; see, God is witness betwixt me and thee. And Laban said to Jacob, Behold this heap, and behold this pillar, which I have cast betwixt me and thee; this heap be witness, and this pillar be witness, that I will not pass over this heap and this pillar to thee, and that thou shalt not pass over this heap and this pillar unto me, for harm. The God of Abraham, and the God of Nahor, judge betwixt us. And Jacob swore by the Fear of his father Isaac.

Then Jacob offered sacrifice upon the mount, and called all his brethren to eat bread; and they did eat bread, and tarried all night in the mount. And early in the morning Laban rose up, and kissed his sons and his daughters, and blessed them: and Laban departed, and returned unto his place.

AND Jacob went on his way, and the angels of God met him. And when Jacob saw them, he said, This is God's host: and he called the name of that place Mahanaim [THE CAMPS].

And Jacob sent messengers before him to Esau his brother unto the land of Seir, the country of Edom. And he commanded them, saying, Thus shall ye speak unto my lord Esau; thy servant Jacob saith thus, I have sojourned with Laban, and stayed there until now; and I have oxen, and asses, flocks, and menservants, and womenservants: and I have sent to tell my lord, that I may find grace in thy sight.

And the messengers returned to Jacob, saying, We came to thy brother Esau, and also he cometh to meet thee, and four hundred men with him.

Then Jacob was greatly afraid and distressed; and he divided the people that was with him, and the flocks, and herds, and the camels, into two bands; and said, If Esau come to the one company, and smite it, then the other company which is left shall escape. And Jacob said, O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isaac! the LORD who saidst unto me, Return unto thy country, and to thy kindred, and I will deal well with thee; I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies, and of all the truth, which thou hast showed unto thy servant; for with my staff only I passed over this Jordan; and now I am become two bands. Deliver me, I pray thee, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau: for I fear him, lest he will come and smite me, and the mother with the children. And thou saidst, I will surely do thee good, and make thy seed as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.

- 13 And he lodged there that same night, and took of that which came to his hand 14 present for Esau his brother; two hundred she-goats, and twenty he-goats, two hun-15 dred ewes, and twenty rams, thirty milch camels with their colts, forty kine, and ten 16 bulls, twenty she-asses, and ten foals. And he delivered them into the hand of his servants, every drove by itself; and said unto his servants, Pass over before me, and 17 put a space betwixt drove and drove. And he commanded the foremost, saying,
 When Esau my brother meeteth thee, and asketh thee, saying, Whose art thou? and 18 whither goest thou? and whose are these before thee? Then thou shalt say, They be thy servant Jacob's; it is a present sent unto my lord Esau: and, behold, also he is 19 behind us. And so commanded he the second, and the third, and all that followed the droves, saying, On this manner shall ye speak unto Esau, when ye find him.
 20 And say ye moreover, Behold, thy servant Jacob is behind us. For he said, I will appease him with the present that goeth before me, and afterward I will see his face; peradventure he will accept me.
 21 So the present went over before him; and himself lodged that night in the com-
 22 pany. And he rose up that night, and took his two wives, and his two womenserv-23 ants, and his eleven sons, and passed over the ford Jabbok. And he took them, and caused them to pass over the brook, and sent over all that he had.
 24 And Jacob was left alone; and there wrestled a man with him until the breaking 25 of the day. And when he saw that he prevailed not against him, he touched the hollow of his thigh; and the hollow of Jacob's thigh was out of joint, as he wrestled 26 with him. And he said, Let me go, for the day breaketh. And he said, I will not 27 let thee go, except thou bless me. And he said unto him, What is thy name? And 28 he said, Jacob. And he said, Thy name shall no more be called only Jacob, but also Israel [ONE THAT HATH POWER WITH GOD]; for as a prince hast thou had power 29 with God; and with men thou shalt prevail. And Jacob asked him, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, thy name. And he said, Wherefore is it that thou dost ask after 30 my name? And he blessed him there. And Jacob called the name of the place Peniel
 [THE FACE OF GOD]: for I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved.
 31 And as he passed over Peniel the sun rose upon him, and he halted upon his 32 thigh. Therefore the children of Israel eat not of the sinew which shrank, which is upon the hollow of the thigh, unto this day; because he touched the hollow of Jacob's thigh in the sinew that shrank.
- 33 And Jacob lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, Esau came, and with him four hundred men. And he divided the children unto Leah, and unto Rachel, and 2 unto the two handmaids. And he put the handmaids and their children foremost,
 3 and Leah and her children after, and Rachel and Joseph hindmost. And he passed over before them, and bowed himself to the ground seven times, until he came 4 near to his brother. And Esau ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his 5 neck, and kissed him: and they wept. And he lifted up his eyes, and saw the women and the children; and said, Who are those with thee? And he said, The 6 children whom God hath graciously given thy servant. Then the handmaidens came 7 near, they and their children, and they bowed themselves. And Leah also with her children came near, and bowed themselves: and after came Joseph near and 8 Rachel, and they bowed themselves. And he said, What meanest thou by all this drove which I met? And he said, These are to find grace in the sight of my lord.
 9 10 And Esau said, I have enough, my brother; keep that thou hast unto thyself. And Jacob said, Nay, I pray thee, if now I have found grace in thy sight, then receive my present at my hand; for, therefore, I have seen thy face, as though I had seen the 11 face of God, and thou wast pleased with me. Take, I pray thee, my present that I have brought for thee; because God hath dealt graciously with me, and because I 12 have enough. And he urged him, and he took it. And he said, Let us take our 13 journey, and let us go, and I will go beside thee. And he said unto him, My lord knoweth that the children are tender, and the flocks and herds giving suck are with 14 me; and if men should overdrive them one day, all the flock will die. Let my lord, I pray thee, pass over before his servant; and I will lead on softly, according as the cattle that goeth before me and the children be able to endure, until I come 15 unto my lord unto Seir. And Esau said, Let me now leave with thee some of the folk who are with me. And he said, What need of this? let me find grace in the sight of my lord.
 16 17 So Esau returned that day on his way unto Seir. And Jacob journeyed to Suc-coth, and built him a house, and made booths for his cattle: therefore the name of the place is called Succoth [BOOTHES].
 18 And Jacob came safely to the city Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from Padan-aram ; and pitched his tent before the city. And he bought a 19 parcel of a field, where he had spread his tent, at the hand of the children of Hamor, Shechem's father, for a hundred lambs. And he erected there an altar, and called 20 it El-elohe-Israel [GOD THE GOD OF ISRAEL].

AND Dinah the daughter of Leah, whom she bore unto Jacob, went out to see the 34 daughters of the land. And when Shechem the son of Hamor the Hivite, prince of the country, saw her, he took her, and lay with her, and defiled her. And his soul 3 clave unto Dinah the daughter of Jacob, and he loved the damsel, and spoke kindly unto the damsel. And Shechem spoke unto his father Hamor, saying, Get me this 4 damsel to wife. And Jacob heard that Shechem had defiled Dinah his daughter : 5 now his sons were with his cattle in the field ; and Jacob held his peace until they were come.

And Hamor the father of Shechem went out unto Jacob to commune with him. 6
And the sons of Jacob came out of the field when they heard it ; and the men were 7 grieved ; and they were very wroth, because he had wrought folly in Israel in lying with Jacob's daughter ; which thing ought not to be done.

And Hamor communed with them, saying, The soul of my son Shechem longeth 8 for your daughter : I pray you give her him to wife. And make ye marriages with 9 us, and give your daughters unto us, and take our daughters unto you. And ye shall 10 dwell with us ; and the land shall be before you : dwell and trade ye therein, and get you possessions therein. And Shechem said unto her father and unto her brethren, 11 Let me find grace in your eyes, and what ye shall say unto me, I will give. Ask me 12 never so much dowry and gift, and I will give according as ye shall say unto me ; but give me the damsel to wife.

And the sons of Jacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father deceitfully, when 13 they spoke, because he had defiled Dinah their sister : and they said unto them, We 14 cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one who is uncircumcised ; for that would be a reproach unto us : but in this will we consent unto you ; If ye will be as we be, 15 that every male of you be circumcised ; then will we give our daughters unto you, 16 and we will take your daughters to us, and we will dwell with you, and we will become one people. But if ye will not hearken unto us, to be circumcised ; then will 17 we take our daughter, and we will be gone.

And their words pleased Hamor, and Shechem Hamor's son. And the young man 18 19 deferred not to do the thing, because he had delight in Jacob's daughter ; and he was more honourable than all the house of his father. And Hamor and Shechem 20 his son came unto the gate of their city, and communed with the men of their city, saying, These men are peaceable with us ; therefore let them dwell in the land, and 21 trade therein ; for the land, behold, it is large enough for them ; let us take their daughters to us for wives, and let us give them our daughters. Only herein will the 22 men consent to dwell with us, to be one people, if every male among us be circumcised, as they are circumcised. Shall not their cattle and their substance and every 23 beast of theirs be ours ? only let us consent unto them, and they will dwell with us.
And unto Hamor and unto Shechem his son hearkened all who went out of the gate 24 of his city ; and every male was circumcised, all who went out of the gate of his city.

And on the third day, when they were sore, two of the sons of Jacob, Simeon and 25
Levi, Dinah's brethren, took each man his sword, and came upon the city boldly, and slew all the males. And they slew Hamor and Shechem his son with the edge of the 26 sword, and took Dinah out of Shechem's house, and went out. The sons of Jacob 27 came upon the slain, and spoiled the city, because they had defiled their sister. They 28 took their sheep, and their oxen, and their asses, both all that was in the city, and all that was in the field, and all their wealth, and all their little ones, and their wives 29 took they captive, and spoiled even all that was in the house. And Jacob said to 30 Simeon and Levi, Ye have troubled me to make me to stink among the inhabitants of the land, among the Canaanites and the Perizzites : and I being few in number, they shall gather themselves together against me, and slay me ; and I shall be destroyed, I and my household. And they said, Should he deal with our sister as with 31 a harlot ?

AND God said unto Jacob, Arise, go up to Beth-el, and dwell there ; and make 35
there an altar unto God, who appeared unto thee when thou fleddest from the face of Esau thy brother. Then Jacob said unto his household, and to all who were with 2 him, Put away the gods of the strangers that are among you, and be clean, and change your garments ; and let us arise, and go up to Beth-el ; and I will make there 3 an altar unto God, who answered me in the day of my distress, and was with me in the way which I went. And they gave unto Jacob all the strange gods which were 4

- in their hand, and all their earrings which were in their ears; and Jacob hid them 5 under the oak which was by Shechem. And they journeyed; and the terror of God was upon the cities that were round about them, and they did not pursue after the sons of Jacob.
- 6 So Jacob came to Luz, which is in the land of Canaan, that is, Beth-el, he and all 7 the people who were with him. And he built there an altar, and called the place El-beth-el [THE HOUSE OF GOD]: because there God appeared unto him, when he fled from the face of his brother Esau.
- 8 But Deborah, Rebekah's nurse, died, and she was buried beneath Beth-el under an oak; and the name of it was called Allon-bachuth [THE OAK OF WEeping].
- 9 And God appeared unto Jacob again, (when he was come out of Padan-aram,) in 10 Luz, and blessed him. And God said unto him, Thy name is Jacob: thy name shall not be called any more Jacob, but Israel shall be thy name: and he called his name 11 Israel. And God said unto him, I am God Almighty: be fruitful and multiply; nations, yea, numerous nations, shall be of thee, and kings shall come out of thy loins; 12 and the land which I gave Abraham and Isaac, to thee I will give it, and to thy 13 seed after thee will I give the land. And God went up from him in the place where 14 he talked with him. And Jacob set up a pillar in the place where he talked with him, even a pillar of stone; and he poured a drink offering thereon, and he poured 15 oil thereon. And Jacob called the name of the place where God spoke with him, Beth-el.
- 16 And they journeyed from Beth-el; and there was still some way to come to Eph-17 rath, when Rachel travailed, and she had hard labour. And when she was in hard 18 labour, the midwife said unto her, Fear not; thou shalt have this son also. And as her spirit was departing, (for she died) she called his name Ben-oni [THE SON OF MY SORROW]; but his father called him Benjamin [THE SON OF MY RIGHT HAND].
- 19 20 And Rachel died, and was buried in the way to Ephrath, which is Beth-lehem. And Jacob set a pillar upon her grave: that is the pillar of Rachel's grave unto this day.
- 21 22 And Israel journeyed, and spread his tent beyond the tower of Edar. And when Israel dwelt in that land, Reuben went and lay with Bilhah his father's concubine:
and Israel heard of it, and was greatly displeased.
- 23 Now the sons of Jacob were twelve: The sons of Leah; Reuben, Jacob's firstborn, 24 and Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Zebulun: the sons of Rachel;
25 Joseph, and Benjamin: and the sons of Bilhah, Rachel's handmaid; Dan, and 26 Naphtali: and the sons of Zilpah, Leah's handmaid; Gad, and Asher: these are the sons of Jacob, who were born to him in Padan-aram.
- 27 And Jacob came unto Isaac his father unto Mamre, unto the city of Arbah, which 28 is Hebron, where Abraham and Isaac sojourned. And the days of Isaac were a 29 hundred and fourscore years. And Isaac resigned his spirit, and died, and was gathered unto his people, being old and full of days; and his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.
- 36 NOW these are the generations of Esau, who is Edom. Esau took his wives of the daughters of Canaan; Adah the daughter of Elon the Hittite, and Aholibamah 3 the daughter of Anah the son of Zibeon the Horite; and Mahalath Ishmael's daugh-
4 ter, sister of Nebaioth. And Adah bore to Esau Eliphaz; and Mahalath bore 5 Reuel; and Aholibamah bore Jeush, and Jaalam, and Korah: these are the sons of Esau, which were born unto him in the land of Canaan.
- 6 And Esau took his wives, and his sons, and his daughters, and all the persons of his house, and his cattle, and all his beasts, and all his substance, which he had got in the land of Canaan; and went into the country from the face of his brother Jacob.
7 For their riches were more than that they might dwell together; and the land where-8 in they dwelt could not bear them because of their cattle. Thus dwelt Esau in mount Seir: Esau is Edom.
- 9 And these are the generations of Esau the father of the Edomites in mount Seir:
10 these are the names of Esau's sons; Eliphaz the son of Adah the wife of Esau, Reuel 11 the son of Mahalath the wife of Esau. And the sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, 12 Zepho, Gatam, and Kenaz. And Timna was concubine to Eliphaz, Esau's son; and 13 she bore to Eliphaz Amalek: these were the sons of Adah, Esau's wife. And these are the sons of Reuel; Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah: these were the sons 14 of Mahalath, Esau's wife. And these were the sons of Aholibamah, the daughter of Anah the son of Zibeon, Esau's wife: and she bore to Esau Jeush, and Jaalam, and Korah.
- 15 These were dukes of the sons of Esau: the sons of Eliphaz the firstborn son of 16 Esau; duke Teman, duke Omar, duke Zepho, duke Kenaz, duke Gatam, and duke

Amalek : these are the dukes that came of Eliphaz in the land of Edom ; these were the sons of Adah. And these are the sons of Reuel, Esau's son ; duke Nahath, duke Zerah, duke Shammah, duke Mizzah : these are the dukes that came of Reuel in the land of Edom ; these are the sons of Bashemath, Esau's wife. And these are the sons of Aholibamah, Esau's wife ; duke Jeshu, duke Jaalam, duke Korah : these were the dukes that came of Aholibamah the daughter of Anah, Esau's wife. These are the sons of Esau, who is Edom, and these are their dukes.

These are the sons of Seir the Horite, who inhabited the land ; Lotan, and Shobal, and Zibeon, and Anah, and Dishon, and Ezer, and Dishan : these are the dukes of the Horites, the children of Seir in the land of Edom. And the children of Lotan were Hori and Heman ; and Lotan's sister was Timna. And the children of Shobal were these ; Alvan, and Manahath, and Ebal, Shepho, and Onam. And these are the children of Zibeon ; both Ajah, and Anah : this was that Anah who found the waters in the wilderness, as he fed the asses of Zibeon his father. And the children of Anah were these ; Dishon, and Aholibamah the daughter of Anah. And these are the children of Dishon ; Hemdan, and Eshban, and Ithran, and Cheran. The children of Ezer are these ; Bilhan, and Zaavan, and Achan. The children of Dishan are these ; Uz, and Aran. These are the dukes that came of the Horites ; duke Lotan, duke Shobal, duke Zibeon, duke Anah, duke Dishon, duke Ezer, duke Dishan : these are the dukes that came of Hori, among their dukes in the land of Seir.

And these are the kings that reigned in the land of Edom, before there reigned any king over the children of Israel. And Bela the son of Beor reigned in Edom ; and the name of his city was Dinhabah. And Bela died, and Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his stead. And Jobab died, and Husham of the land of Temani reigned in his stead. And Husham died, and Hadad the son of Bedad, who smote Midian in the field of Moab, reigned in his stead ; and the name of his city was Avith. And Hadad died, and Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his stead. And Samlah died, and Saul of Rehoboth by the river reigned in his stead. And Saul died, and Baal-hanan the son of Achbor reigned in his stead. And Baal-hanan the son of Achbor died, and Hadar reigned in his stead ; and the name of his city was Pau ; and his wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahab.

And these are the names of the dukes who came of Esau, according to their families, after their places, by their names ; duke Timnah, duke Alvah, duke Jetheth, duke Aholibamah, duke Elah, duke Pinon, duke Kenaz, duke Teman, duke Mibzar, duke Magdiel, duke Iram : these are the dukes of Edom, according to their habitations in the land of their possession : he is Esau the father of the Edomites.

AND Jacob dwelt in the land of his father's sojournings, in the land of Canaan. These are the generations of Jacob. 37

Joseph, being seventeen years old, was feeding the flock with his brethren ; and the lad was with the sons of Bilhah, and with the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives : and Joseph brought unto his father an evil report of them. Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his children, because he was the son of his old age ; and he made him a coat of divers colours. And when his brethren saw that their father loved him more than all his brethren, they hated him, and could not speak peaceably unto him.

And Joseph dreamed a dream, and he told it to his brethren : and they hated him yet the more. And he said unto them, Hear, I pray you, this dream which I have dreamed : for, behold, we were binding sheaves in the field, and, lo, my sheaf arose, and also stood upright ; and, behold, your sheaves stood round about, and made obeisance to my sheaf. And his brethren said to him, Shalt thou indeed reign over us ? or shalt thou indeed have dominion over us ? And they hated him yet the more for his dreams, and for his words. And he dreamed yet another dream, and told it to his father and to his brethren, and said, Behold, I have dreamed a dream more ; and, behold, the sun and the moon and the eleven stars made obeisance to me. And he told it to his father, and to his brethren : and his father rebuked him, and said unto him, What is this dream that thou hast dreamed ? Shall I, and thy mother, and thy brethren indeed come to bow down ourselves to thee to the earth ? And his brethren envied him ; but his father observed the saying.

And his brethren went to feed their father's flock in Shechem. And Israel said unto Joseph, Do not thy brethren feed the flock in Shechem ? come, and I will send thee unto them. And he said to him, Here am I. And he said to him, Go, I pray thee, see whether it be well with thy brethren, and well with the flocks ; and bring me word again. So he sent him out of the vale of Hebron, and he came to Shechem. And a certain man found him, and, behold, he was wandering in the field ; and the man asked him, saying, What seekest thou ? And he said, I seek my brethren : tell

- 17 me, I pray thee, where they feed their flocks. And the man said, They are departed hence, for I heard them say, Let us go to Dothan. And Joseph went after his brethren, and found them in Dothan.
- 18 And when they saw him afar off, even before he came near unto them, they conspired against him to slay him. And they said one to another, Behold, this dreamer cometh. Come now therefore, and let us slay him, and cast him into some pit, and we will say, Some evil beast hath devoured him : and we shall see what will become of his dreams. And Reuben heard it, and he delivered him out of their hands ; and said, Let us not kill him. And Reuben said unto them, Shed no blood, but cast him into this pit that is in the wilderness, and lay no hand upon him ; (that he might rid him out of their hands, to deliver him to his father again.)
- 23 And when Joseph was come unto his brethren, they stripped Joseph out of his coat, his coat of divers colours that was on him ; and they took him, and cast him into a pit ; and the pit was empty, there was no water in it. And they sat down to eat bread ; and they lifted up their eyes and looked, and, behold, a company of Ishmaelites came from Gilead with their camels bearing spicery and storax and resin, going to carry it down to Egypt. And Judah said unto his brethren, What profit is it if we slay our brother, and conceal his blood ? Come, and let us sell him to the Ishmaelites, and let not our hand be upon him ; for he is our brother and our flesh : and his brethren were content. Then there passed by Midianites merchantmen ; and they drew and lifted up Joseph out of the pit, and sold Joseph to the Ishmaelites for twenty pieces of silver ; and they brought Joseph into Egypt. And Reuben returned unto the pit ; and, behold, Joseph was not in the pit ; and he rent his clothes. And he returned unto his brethren, and said, The child is not ; and I, whither shall I go ?
- 31 And they took Joseph's coat, and killed a kid of the goats, and dipped the coat in the blood ; and they sent the coat of divers colours, and they who brought it to their father said, This have we found : know, now, whether it be thy son's coat or not ! And he knew it, and said, It is my son's coat ; an evil beast hath devoured him ; torn, torn in pieces is Joseph my son ! And Jacob rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his loins, and mourned for his son many days. And all his sons and all his daughters rose up to comfort him ; but he refused to be comforted ; and he said, I will go down into the grave unto my son mourning. Thus his father wept for him.
- 36 And the Midianites sold him into Egypt unto Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh's, and captain of the guard.
- 38 AND at that time, Judah went down from his brethren, and turned in to a certain Adullamite, whose name was Hirah. And Judah saw there a daughter of a certain Canaanite, whose name was Shuah ; and he took her, and went in unto her : and she conceived, and bore a son ; and she called his name Er : and she conceived again, and bore a son ; and she called his name Onan. And she yet again conceived, and bore a son ; and called his name Shelah ; and he was at Chezib, when she bore him.
- 6 7 And Judah took a wife for Er, his firstborn, whose name was Tamar. And Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of the LORD : and the LORD slew him. And Judah said unto Onan, Go in unto thy brother's wife, and marry her, and raise up seed to thy brother. And Onan knew that the seed should not be his ; and when he went in unto his brother's wife, he spilled it on the ground, lest he should give seed to his brother. And the thing which he did displeased the LORD ; wherefore he slew him also. Then said Judah to Tamar his daughter-in-law, Remain a widow at thy father's house, till Shelah my son be grown ; for he said, Lest peradventure he die also, as his brethren did. And Tamar went and dwelt in her father's house.
- 12 And in process of time the daughter of Shuah, Judah's wife, died ; and Judah was comforted, and went up unto his sheep-shearers to Timnath, he and his friend Hirah the Adullamite. And it was told Tamar, saying, Behold thy father-in-law goeth up to Timnath to shear his sheep. And she put her widow's garments off from her, and covered her with a vail, and wrapped herself, and sat in a place of two ways, which is by the way to Timnath ; for she saw that Shelah was grown, and she was not given unto him to wife. When Judah saw her, he thought her to be a harlot ; because she had covered her face. And he turned unto her by the way, and said, Go to, I pray thee, let me come in unto thee ; (for he knew not that she was his daughter-in-law.) And she said, What wilt thou give me, that thou mayest come in unto me ? And he said, I will send thee a kid from the flock. And she said, Wilt thou give me a pledge, till thou send it ? And he said, What pledge shall I give thee ? And she said, Thy signet, thy mantle, thy bracelets, and thy staff that is in thy hand. And he gave it her, and came in unto her, and she conceived by him. And she arose, and went away, and laid by her vail from her, and put on the garments of her widowhood. And Judah sent the kid by the hand of his friend the Adullamite, to receive his pledge from the woman's hand; but he found her not. Then he asked the men of that place, saying, Where is the harlot, that was openly by the way side? And they said, There was no harlot in this place. And he returned to Judah, and said, I cannot find her; and also the men of the place said, that there was no harlot in this place. And Judah said, Let her take it to her, lest we become a content: behold, I sent this kid, and thou hast not found her. And about three months after, it was told Judah, saying, Tamar thy daughter-in-law hath played the harlot; and also, behold, she is with child by whoredom. And Judah said, Bring her forth, and let her be burnt. When she was brought forth, she sent to her father-in-law, saying, By the man, whose these are, am I with child: and she said, Discern, I pray thee, whose are these, the signet, and mantle, and bracelets, and staff. And Judah acknowledged them, and said, She hath been more righteous than I; because I gave her not to Shelah my son: and he knew her again no more.

And in the time of her travail, behold, twins were in her womb. And when she travailed, the one put out his hand; and the midwife took and bound upon his hand a scarlet thread, saying, This came out first. And as he drew back his hand, behold, his brother came out; and she said, How hast thou broken forth? this breach be upon thee: therefore his name was called Pharez [A BREACH MAKER]. And afterwards came out his brother, that had the scarlet thread upon his hand; and his name was called Zarah [BRIGHTNESS].

AND Joseph was brought down to Egypt; and Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, captain of the guard, an Egyptian, bought him of the hands of the Ishmaelites, who had brought him down thither. And the LORD was with Joseph, and he was a prosperous man; and he was in the house of his master the Egyptian. And his master saw that the LORD was with him, and that the LORD made all that he did to prosper in his hand. And Joseph found favour in his sight, and he served him; and he made him overseer over his house, and all that he had he put into his hand. And from the time that he had made him overseer in his house, and over all that he had, the LORD blessed the Egyptian's house for Joseph's sake; and the blessing of the LORD was upon all that he had in the house, and in the field. And he left all that he had in Joseph's hand; and he knew not aught he had, save the bread which he did eat. And Joseph was beautiful both in form and countenance.

And after these things, his master's wife cast her eyes upon Joseph; and she said, Lie with me. But he refused, and said unto his master's wife, Behold, my master knoweth not what is with me in the house, and he hath committed all that he hath to my hand; there is none greater in this house than I; neither hath he kept back anything from me but thee, because thou art his wife: how then can I do this great wickedness, and sin against God? And as she spoke to Joseph day by day, he hearkened not unto her, to lie by her, or to be with her. And about this time, Joseph went into the house to do his business; and there was none of the men of the house within. And she caught him by his garment, saying, Lie with me; and he left his garment in her hand, and fled, and got him out. And when she saw that he had left his garment in her hand, and was fled forth, she called unto the men of her house, and spoke unto them, saying, See, he hath brought in a Hebrew unto us to disgrace us; he came in unto me to lie with me, and I cried with a loud voice: and when he heard that I lifted up my voice and cried, he left his garment with me, and fled, and got away. And she laid up his garment by her, until his lord came home. And she spoke unto him according to these words, saying, The Hebrew servant, whom thou hast brought unto us, came in unto me to disgrace me: and as I lifted up my voice and cried, he left his garment with me, and fled out. And when his master heard the words of his wife, which she spoke unto him, saying, After this manner did thy servant to me; his wrath was kindled. And Joseph's master took him, and put him into the tower, a place where the king's prisoners were bound; and he was there in the tower. But the LORD was with Joseph, and showed him kindness, and gave him favour in the sight of the keeper of the tower. And the keeper of the tower committed to Joseph's custody all the prisoners that were in the tower; and whatsoever they did there, he was the doer of it. The keeper of the tower looked not to anything that was under his hand; because the LORD was with him, and all that he did the LORD made to prosper.

AND after these things, the cupbearer of the king of Egypt and his confectioner had offended their lord the king of Egypt. And Pharaoh was wroth against two of his officers, against the chief of the cupbearers, and against the chief of the confectioners. And he put them in ward in the house of the captain of the guard, into the tower, the place where Joseph was bound. And the captain of the guard charged Joseph with them, and he served them; and they continued a season in ward.

And they dreamed a dream both of them, each man his dream in one night, each man according to the interpretation of his dream, the cupbearer and the confectioner of the king of Egypt, who were bound in the tower. And Joseph came in unto them in the morning, and looked upon them, and, behold, they were sad. And he asked Pharaoh's officers who were with him in the ward of his lord's house, saying, Wherefore look ye so sadly to-day? And they said unto him, We have dreamed a dream, and there is no interpreter of it. And Joseph said unto them, Do not interpretations belong to God? tell me them, I pray you.

And the chief cupbearer told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, In my dream, behold, a vine was before me; and in the vine were three branches; and it was as though it budded, and its blossoms shot forth; and the clusters thereof brought forth ripe grapes: and Pharaoh's cup was in my hand; and I took the grapes, and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and I gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand. And Joseph said unto him, This is the interpretation of it: The three branches mean three days: yet within three days shall Pharaoh lift up thy head, and restore thee unto thy place; and thou shalt deliver Pharaoh's cup into his hand, after the former manner when thou wast his cupbearer. But think on me when it shall be well with thee, and show kindness, I pray thee, unto me, and make mention of me unto Pharaoh, and bring me out of this house: for indeed I was stolen away out of the land of the Hebrews: and here also have I done nothing that they should put me into the dungeon.

When the chief confectioner saw that the interpretation was good, he said unto Joseph, I, also, was in my dream, and, behold, I had three wicker baskets on my head; and in the uppermost basket there was of all manner of bake-meats for Pharaoh; and the birds did eat them out of the basket upon my head. And Joseph answered and said, This is the interpretation thereof: The three baskets mean three days: yet within three days shall Pharaoh take thine office from thee, and shall hang thee on a tree; and the birds shall eat thy flesh from off thee.

And the third day, which was Pharaoh's birthday, he made a feast unto all his servants; and he decided concerning the chief cupbearer and the chief confectioner among his servants. And he restored the chief cupbearer unto his office again; and he gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand: but he hanged the chief confectioner, as Joseph had interpreted to them. Yet did not the chief cupbearer remember Joseph, but forgot him.

41 AND at the end of two full years, Pharaoh dreamed; and, behold, he stood by the river. And, behold, there came up out of the river seven wellfavoured kine and fatfleshed; and they fed in a meadow. And, behold, seven other kine came up after them out of the river, illfavoured and leanfleshed; and stood by the other kine upon the brink of the river. And the illfavoured and leanfleshed kine did eat up the seven wellfavoured and fat kine. So Pharaoh awoke. And he slept and dreamed the second time; and, behold, seven ears of corn came up upon one stalk, rank and good. And, behold, seven thin ears and blasted with the east wind sprung up after them. And the seven thin ears devoured the seven rank and full ears. And Pharaoh awoke, and, behold, it was a dream.

And in the morning his spirit was troubled; and he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt, and all the wise men thereof; and Pharaoh told them his dreams; but there was none who could interpret them unto Pharaoh.

Then spake the chief cupbearer unto Pharaoh, saying, I do remember my faults this day: Pharaoh was wroth with his servants, and put me in ward in the captain of the guard's house, both me and the chief confectioner; and we dreamed a dream in one night, I and he; we dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his dream. And there was there with us a young man, a Hebrew, servant to the captain of the guard; and we told him, and he interpreted to us our dreams; to each man according to his dream he did interpret. And as he interpreted to us, so it was; me he restored unto mine office, and him he hanged.

Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they brought him hastily out of the dungeon: and he shaved himself, and changed his raiment, and came in unto Pharaoh. And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, I have dreamed a dream, and there is no one who can interpret it; and I have heard say of thee, that when thou hearest a dream thou canst interpret it.

And Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, It is not in me: God shall give Pharaoh 16 an answer of peace.

And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, In my dream, behold, I stood upon the bank of 17 the river; and, behold, there came up out of the river seven kine, fattished and well- 18 favoured; and they fed in a meadow; and, behold, seven other kine came up after 19 them, poor and very illfavoured and leanfished, such as I never saw in all the land of Egypt for badness; and the lean and the illfavoured kine did eat up the first seven 20 fat kine; and when they had eaten them up, it could not be known that they had 21 eaten them; but they were still illfavoured, as at the beginning: so I awoke. And I 22 saw in my dream, and, behold, seven ears came up in one stalk, full and good: and, 23 behold, seven ears, withered, thin, and blasted with the east wind, sprung up after them; and the thin ears devoured the seven good ears: and I told this unto the 24 magicians; but there was no one who could declare it to me.

And Joseph said unto Pharaoh, The dream of Pharaoh is one: God hath showed 25 Pharaoh what he is about to do. The seven good kine are seven years; and the 26 seven good ears are seven years: the dream is one. And the seven thin and illfavoured 27 kine that came up after them are seven years; and the seven empty ears blasted with the east wind shall be seven years of famine. This is the thing which I have 28 spoken unto Pharaoh: what God is about to do he sheweth unto Pharaoh. Behold, 29 there come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt; and there 30 shall arise after them seven years of famine; and all the plenty shall be forgotten in the land of Egypt; and the famine shall consume the land; and the plenty shall not 31 be known in the land by reason of that famine following; for it shall be very grievous. And for that the dream was doubled unto Pharaoh twice; it is because the 32 thing is established by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass. Now, therefore, 33 let Pharaoh look out a man discreet and wise, and set him over the land of Egypt.
Let Pharaoh do this, and let him appoint overseers over the land, and take up the 34 fifth part of the land of Egypt in the seven plenteous years. And let them gather 35 all the food of those good years that come, and lay up corn under the hand of Pharaoh, and let them keep food in the cities. And that food shall be for store to 36 the land against the seven years of famine, which shall be in the land of Egypt; that the land perish not through the famine.

And the thing was good in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of all his servants. 37
And Pharaoh said unto his servants, Can we find such a one as this is, a man in 38 whom the Spirit of God is? And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Forasmuch as God hath 39 showed thee all this, there is none so discreet and wise as thou art: thou shalt be 40 over my house, and according unto thy word shall all my people be provided for; only in the throne will I be greater than thou. And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, See, 41
I have set thee over all the land of Egypt. And Pharaoh took off his ring from his 42 hand, and put it upon Joseph's hand, and arrayed him in vestures of fine linen, and put a gold chain about his neck; and he made him to ride in the second chariot 43 which he had; and they cried before him, Bow the knee: and he made him ruler over all the land of Egypt. And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, I am Pharaoh, and with- 44 out thee shall no man lift up his hand or foot in all the land of Egypt. And Pharaoh 45 called Joseph's name Zaphnath-paaneah [A REVEALER OF SECRETS]; and he gave him to wife Asenath the daughter of Poti-pherah prince of On.

And Joseph went out over all the land of Egypt. And Joseph was thirty years 46 old when he stood before Pharaoh king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Egypt. And in the seven 47 plenteous years the earth brought forth by handfuls. And he gathered up all the 48 food of the seven years, which was in the land of Egypt, and laid up the food in the cities: the food of the field, which was round about every city, laid he up in the same. And Joseph gathered corn as the sand of the sea, very much, until he left 49 numbering; for it was without number.

And unto Joseph were born two sons before the years of famine came, which 50 Asenath the daughter of Poti-pherah prince of On bore unto him. And Joseph 51 called the name of the firstborn Manasseh [MAKING FORGETFUL]: for God, said he, hath made me forget all my toil, and all my father's house. And the name of the 52 second called he Ephraim [FRUITFUL]: for God hath caused me to be fruitful in the land of my affliction.

AND the seven years of plenteousness, that was in the land of Egypt, were ended. 53
And the seven years of dearth began to come, according as Joseph had said: and 54 the dearth was in all lands; but in all the land of Egypt there was bread. And when 55 all the land of Egypt was famished, the people cried to Pharaoh for bread; and Pharaoh said unto all the Egyptians, Go unto Joseph; what he saith to you, do.

56 And the famine was over all the face of the earth: and Joseph opened all the storehouses, and sold unto the Egyptians; and the famine waxed sore in the land of 57 Egypt. And all countries came into Egypt to Joseph to buy corn; because that the famine was sore in all lands.

42 Now when Jacob understood that there was corn in Egypt, Jacob said unto his sons, Why do ye look one upon another? And he said, Behold, I have heard that there is corn in Egypt; get you down thither, and buy for us from thence; that 3 we may live, and not die. And Joseph's ten brethren went down to buy corn in 4 Egypt. But Benjamin, Joseph's brother, Jacob sent not with his brethren; for he said, Lest peradventure mischief befall him.

5 And the sons of Israel came to buy corn among those who came; for the famine
6 was in the land of Canaan. And Joseph was the governor over the land, and he it was who sold to all the people of the land: and Joseph's brethren came, and bowed 7 down themselves before him with their faces to the earth. And Joseph saw his brethren, and he knew them, but made himself strange unto them, and spoke roughly unto them; and he said unto them, Whence come ye? And they said, 8 From the land of Canaan to buy food. And Joseph knew his brethren, but they knew 9 not him. And Joseph remembered the dreams which he dreamed of them, and 10 said unto them, Ye are spies; to see the nakedness of the land ye are come. And 11 they said unto him, Nay, my lord, but to buy food are thy servants come. We are 12 all one man's sons; we are true men, thy servants are no spies. And he said unto 13 them, Nay, but to see the nakedness of the land ye are come. And they said, Thy servants are twelve brethren, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan; and, be-14 hold, the youngest is this day with our father, and one is not. And Joseph said
15 unto them, That is it that I spoke unto you, saying, Ye are spies: hereby ye shall be proved: As Pharaoh liveth ye shall not go forth hence, except your youngest brother come hither. Send one of you, and let him fetch your brother, and ye shall he kept in prison, that your words may be proved, whether there be any truth in you; or else, as Pharaoh liveth, surely ye are spies. And they said, The lad cannot leave his father, for if he should leave his father, his father would die. And he put them
18 all together into ward three days. And Joseph said unto them the third day, This do, and live; for I fear God: if ye be true men, let one of your brethren be bound 20 in the house of your prison: go ye, carry corn for the famine of your houses; but bring your youngest brother unto me; so shall your words be verified, and ye shall 21 not die. And they did so. And they said one to another, We are verily guilty concerning our brother, in that we saw the anguish of his soul, when he besought us, and we would not hear; therefore is this distress come upon us. And Reuben answered them, saying, Spoke I not unto you, saying, Do not sin against the child; and ye would not hear? therefore, behold, also his blood is required. And they knew not that Joseph understood them; for he spoke unto them by an interpreter.
24 And he turned himself about from them, and wept; and returned to them again, and communed with them, and took from them Simeon, and bound him before their eyes.

25 Then Joseph commanded to fill their sacks with corn, and to restore every man's money into his sack, and to give them provision for the way: and thus did his servants unto them. And they laded their asses with the corn, and departed thence.
27 And as one of them opened his sack to give his ass provender in the lodging-place, he espied his money; for, behold, it was in his sack's mouth. And he said unto his brethren, My money is restored; and, lo, it is even in my sack: and their heart failed them, and they were afraid, saying one to another, What is this that God hath done unto us?

29 And they came unto Jacob their father unto the land of Canaan, and told him all that befell unto them; saying, The man, who is the lord of the land, spoke roughly to us, and took us for spies of the country: and we said unto him, We are true men, we are no spies: we are twelve brethren, sons of one father; one is not, and the 33 youngest is this day with our father in the land of Canaan. And the man, the lord of the country, said unto us, Hereby shall I know that ye are true men; leave one of your brethren here with me, and take food for the famine of your households, and be gone: and bring your youngest brother unto me: then shall I know that ye are no spies, but that ye are true men: so will I deliver you your brother, and 35 ye shall traffic in the land. And as they emptied their sacks, behold, every man's bundle of money was in his sack; and when both they and their father saw the 36 bundles of money, they were afraid. And Jacob their father said unto them,

Me have ye bereaved of my children: Joseph is not, and Simeon is not, and ye will take Benjamin away: all these things are against me. And Reuben spoke unto his father, saying, Slay my two sons, if I bring him not to thee: deliver him into my hand, and I will bring him to thee again. And he said, My son shall not go down with you; for his brother is dead, and he is left alone: if mischief befall him by the way in the which ye go, then shall ye bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave.

And the famine was sore in the land. And when they had eaten up the corn which they had brought out of Egypt, their father said unto them, Go again, buy a little food. And Judah spoke unto him, saying, The man who is lord of the land did solemnly protest unto us, saying, Ye shall not see my face, except your brother be with you. If thou wilt send our brother with us, we will go down and buy thee food; but if thou wilt not send him, we will not go down; for the man said unto us, Ye shall not see my face, except your brother be with you. And Israel said, Wherefore dealt ye so ill with me, as to tell the man whether ye had yet a brother? And they said, The man asked us strictly of our state, and of our kindred, saying, Is your father yet alive? have ye another brother? and we told him according to the tenor of these words: could we certainly know that he would say, Bring your brother down? And Judah said unto Israel his father, Send the lad with me, and we will arise and go, that we may live, and not die, both we, and thou, and also our little ones. I will be surety for him; of my hand shalt thou require him: if I bring him not unto thee, and set him before thee, then let me bear the blame for ever; for except we had lingered, surely now we had returned twice by this time. And their father Israel said unto them, If it must be so now, do this; take of the best fruits in the land in your vessels, and carry down the man a present, a little storax, and a little honey, spices, and myrrh, nuts, and almonds; and take double money in your hand; and the money that was brought again in the mouth of your sacks, carry it again in your hand; peradventure it was an oversight: take also your brother, and arise, go again unto the man; and God Almighty give you mercy before the man, that he may send away your other brother, and Benjamin. If I be bereaved, I am bereaved.

And the men took that present, and they took double money in their hand, and Benjamin; and rose up, and went down to Egypt, and stood before Joseph. And when Joseph saw his brother Benjamin, the son of his own mother, with them, he said to the ruler of his house, Bring these men home, and slay, and make ready; for these men shall eat with me at noon. And the man did as Joseph bade; and the man brought the men into Joseph's house. And the men were afraid, because they were brought into Joseph's house; and they said, Because of the money that was returned in our sacks formerly are we brought in; that he may seek occasion against us, and fall upon us, and take us for bondmen, and our asses. And they came near to the steward of Joseph's house, and they communed with him at the door of the house, and said, O sir, we came indeed down formerly to buy food: and when we came to the lodging-place, we opened our sacks, and, behold, every man's money was in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight; and we have brought it again in our hand: and other money have we brought down in our hands to buy food: we cannot tell who put our money in our sacks. And he said, Peace be to you, fear not: your God, and the God of your father, hath given you treasure in your sacks: I had your money. And he brought Simeon out unto them.

And the man brought the men into Joseph's house, and gave them water, and they washed their feet; and he gave their asses provender. And they made ready the present against Joseph came at noon; for they heard that they should eat bread there. And when Joseph came home, they brought him the present which was in their hand into the house, and bowed themselves to him to the earth. And he asked them of their welfare, and said, Is your father well, the old man of whom ye spoke? Is he yet alive? And they answered, Thy servant our father is in good health, he is yet alive. And they bowed down their heads, and made obeisance. And he lifted up his eyes, and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son, and said, Is this your younger brother, of whom ye spoke unto me? And he said, God be gracious unto thee, my son. And Joseph made haste; for his bowels did yearn upon his brother; and he sought where to weep; and he entered into his chamber, and wept there. And he washed his face, and went out, and refrained himself, and said, Set on bread. And they set on for him by himself, and for them by themselves, and for the Egyptians, who did eat with him, by themselves; because the Egyptians might not eat bread with the Hebrews; for that is an abomination unto the Egyptians. And they sat before him, the first-born according to his birthright, and the youngest according to his youth: and the men marvelled one at another. And he took and sent portions unto them from before him; but Benjamin's portion was five times as much as any of theirs. And they drank, and were merry with him.

44 And he commanded the steward of his house, saying, Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put every man's money in his sack's mouth. And put my cup, the silver cup, in the sack's mouth of the youngest, and his corn money. And he did according to the word that Joseph had spoken.

3 As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away, they and their asses.

4 And when they were gone out of the city, and not yet far off, Joseph said unto his steward, Up, follow after the men; and when thou dost overtake them, say unto them, Wherefore have ye rewarded evil for good? Why have ye stolen my silver

5 cup? Is not this it in which my lord drinketh, and whereby, indeed, he divineth? ye have done evil in so doing. And he overtook them, and he spoke unto them these

7 same words. And they said unto him, Wherefore saith my lord these words? God

8 forbid that thy servants should do according to this thing: behold, the money, which we found in our sacks' mouths, we brought again unto thee out of the land of

9 Canaan: how then should we steal out of thy lord's house silver or gold? With whomsoever of thy servants it be found, both let him die, and we also will be my

10 lord's bondmen. And he said, Now also let it be according unto your words: he

11 with whom it is found shall be my servant; and ye shall be blameless. Then they

12 speedily took down every man his sack to the ground, and opened every man his 13 sack. And he searched, and began at the eldest, and left at the youngest: and the 14 cup was found in Benjamin's sack.

15 Then they rent their clothes, and laded every man his ass, and returned to the 16 city. And Judah and his brethren came to Joseph's house; for he was yet there: and 17 they fell before him on the ground. And Joseph said unto them, What deed is this 18 that ye have done? knew ye not that such a man as I can certainly divine? And

19 Judah said, What shall we say unto my lord? what shall we speak? or how shall we

20 clear ourselves? God hath found out the iniquity of thy servants: behold, we are my 21 lord's bondmen, both we, and he also with whom the cup is found. And he said,

22 God forbid that I should do so; but the man in whose hand the cup is found, he 23 shall be my bondman; and as for you, get you up in peace unto your father.

24 Then Judah came near unto him, and said, O, my lord, let thy servant, I pray

25 thee, speak a word in my lord's ears, and let not thine anger burn against thy servant:

26 for thou art even as Pharaoh. My lord asked his servants, saying, Have ye a

27 father, or a brother? And we said unto my lord, We have a father, an old man,

28 and a child of his old age, the youngest; and his brother is dead, and he alone is left

29 of his mother, and his father loveth him. And thou saidst unto thy servants, Bring

30 him down unto me, that I may set mine eyes upon him. And we said unto my lord,

31 The lad cannot leave his father; for if he should leave his father, his father would

32 die. And thou saidst unto thy servants, Except your youngest brother come down

33 with you, ye shall see my face no more. And when we came up unto thy servant

34 our father, we told him the words of my lord. And our father said, Go again, and

35 buy us a little food. And we said, We cannot go down: if our youngest brother be

36 with us, then will we go down; for we may not see the man's face, except our

37 youngest brother be with us. And thy servant our father said unto us, Ye know

38 that my wife bore me two sons; and the one went out from me, and I said, Surely

39 he is torn in pieces; and I saw him not since: and if ye take this also from me, and 40 mischief befall him, ye shall bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave.

41 Now therefore when I come to thy servant my father, and the lad is not with us,

42 (seeing that his life is bound up in the lad's life,) when he seeth that the lad is not

43 with us, he will die; and thy servants shall bring down the gray hairs of thy servant

44 our father with sorrow to the grave. For thy servant became surety for the lad

45 unto my father, saying, If I bring him not unto thee, then I shall bear the blame to 46 my father for ever. Now therefore, I pray thee, let thy servant abide instead of 47 the lad a bondman to my lord; and let the lad go up with his brethren. For how

48 shall I go up to my father, and the lad be not with me? lest peradventure I see the 49 evil that shall come on my father.

45 Then Joseph could no longer refrain himself before all them who stood by him; and he cried, Cause every man to go out from me. And there stood no man with him, while Joseph made himself known unto his brethren. And he wept aloud; and the Egyptians and the house of Pharaoh heard. And Joseph said unto his brethren, I am Joseph; doth my father yet live? And his brethren could not answer him; for they were terrified at his presence. And Joseph said unto his brethren, Come near to me, I pray you. And they came near. And he said, I am Joseph your brother, whom ye sold into Egypt. Now, therefore, be not grieved, nor angry with yourselves, that ye sold me hither; for God did send me before you to preserve life. For these two years hath the famine been in the land; and yet there are five years, in the which there shall neither be ploughing nor harvest. And God sent me before you to preserve you a posterity in the earth, and to save your lives by a great deliverance. So now it was not you who sent me hither, but God; and he hath made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and a ruler throughout all the land of Egypt. Haste ye, and go up to my father, and say unto him, Thus saith thy son Joseph, God hath made me lord of all Egypt: come down unto me, tarry not: and thou shalt dwell in the land of Goshen, and thou shalt be near unto me, thou, and thy children, and thy children's children, and thy flocks, and thy herds, and all that thou hast; and there will I nourish thee; (for yet there are five years of famine;) lest thou, and thy household, and all that thou hast, come to poverty. And, behold, your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that it is my mouth that speaketh unto you. And ye shall tell my father of all my glory in Egypt, and of all that ye have seen; and ye shall haste and bring down my father hither. And he fell upon his brother Benjamin's neck, and wept; and Benjamin wept upon his neck. Moreover he kissed all his brethren, and wept upon them: and 15 after that his brethren talked with him.

And the fame thereof was heard in Pharaoh's house, saying, Joseph's brethren are come: and it was pleasing to Pharaoh, and to all his servants. And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Say unto thy brethren, This do ye; lade your beasts, and go, get you unto the land of Canaan; and take your father and your households, and come unto me: and I will give you the best of all the land of Egypt, and ye shall eat the fat of the land. Now thou art commanded, this do ye; take you wagons out of the land of Egypt for your little ones, and for your wives, and bring your father, and come. Also regard not your stuff; for the best of all the land of Egypt is yours.

And the children of Israel did so; and Joseph gave them wagons, according to the commandment of Pharaoh, and gave them provision for the way. To all of them he gave each man changes of raiment; but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver, and five changes of raiment. And to his father he sent after this manner; ten asses laden with the good things of Egypt, and ten she-asses laden with corn and bread and meat for his father by the way. So he sent his brethren away, and they departed; and he said unto them, See that ye fall not out by the way.

And they went up out of Egypt, and came into the land of Canaan unto Jacob their father, and told him, saying, Joseph is yet alive, and he is governor over all the land of Egypt. And Jacob's heart fainted, for he believed them not. And they told him all the words of Joseph, which he had said unto them: and when he saw the wagons which Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jacob their father revived: and Israel said, It is enough; Joseph my son is yet alive: I will go and see him before I die.

And Israel took his journey with all that he had, and came to Beer-sheba, and offered sacrifices unto the God of his father Isaac. And God spoke unto Israel in the visions of the night, and said, Jacob, Jacob! And he said, Here am I. And he said, I am God, the God of thy father: fear not to go down into Egypt; for I will there make of thee a great nation: I will go down with thee into Egypt; and I will also surely bring thee up again; and Joseph shall put his hand upon thine eyes. And Jacob rose up from Beer-sheba: and the sons of Israel carried Jacob their father, and their little ones, and their wives, in the wagons which Pharaoh had sent to carry him. And they took their cattle, and their goods, which they had gotten in the land of Canaan, and came into Egypt, Jacob, and all his seed with him: his sons, and his sons' sons with him; his daughters, and his sons' daughters, and all his seed brought he with him into Egypt.

AND these are the names of the children of Israel, who came into Egypt, Jacob and his sons: Reuben, Jacob's firstborn. And the sons of Reuben; Hanoch, and Phallu, and Hezron, and Carmi. And the sons of Simeon; Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jachin, and Zohar, and Shaul the son of a Canaanitish woman. And the sons of Levi; Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. And the sons of Judah; Er, and Onan, and Shelah, and Pharez, and Zarah: but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan. And the sons of Pharez were Hezron and Hamul. And the sons of Issachar; Tola, and Phuvah, and Job, and Shimron. And the sons of Zebulun; Sered, and Elon, and Jahleel. These be the sons of Leah, whom she bore unto Jacob in Padan-aram, with his daughter Dinah : all the souls of his sons and his daughters were thirty and three. And the sons of Gad ; Ziphion, and Haggi, Shuni, and Ezbon, Eri, and Arodi, and Arel. And the sons of Asher ; Jinnah, and Ishuah, and Isui, and Beriah, and Serah their sister : and the sons of Beriah ; Heber, and Malchiel. These are the sons of Zilpah, whom Laban gave to Leah his daughter, and these she bore unto Jacob, even sixteen souls. The sons of Rachel Jacob's wife ; Joseph, and Benjamin. And unto Joseph in the land of Egypt were born Manasseh and Ephraim, whom Asenath, the daughter of Poti-pherah prince of On, bore unto him. And the sons of Benjamin were Belah, and Becher, and Ashbel, Gera, and Naaman, Ehi, and Rosh, Muppim, and Huppim, and Ard. These are the sons of Rachel, who were born to Jacob : all the souls were fourteen. And the sons of Dan ; Hushim. And the sons of Naphtali ; Jahzeel, and Guni, and Jezer, and Shillem. These are the sons of Bilhah, whom Laban gave unto Rachel his daughter, and she bore these unto Jacob : all the souls were seven.

All the souls that came with Jacob into Egypt, who came out of his loins, besides Jacob's sons' wives, all the souls were threescore and six ; and the sons of Joseph, who were born him in Egypt, were two souls : all the souls of the house of Jacob who came into Egypt, were threescore and ten.

AND he sent Judah before him unto Joseph, to request Joseph to meet him at Goshen ; and they came into the land of Goshen. And Joseph made ready his chariot, and went up to meet Israel his father, to Goshen, and presented himself unto him ; and he fell on his neck, and wept on his neck a good while. And Israel said unto Joseph, Now let me die, since I have seen thy face, because thou art yet alive. And Joseph said unto his brethren, and unto his father's house, I will go up, and show Pharaoh, and say unto him, My brethren, and my father's house, who were in the land of Canaan, are come unto me ; and the men are shepherds, for their trade hath been to feed cattle ; and they have brought their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have. And when Pharaoh shall call you, and shall say, What is your occupation ? ye shall say, Thy servants' trade hath been about cattle from our youth even until now, both we, and also our fathers ; that ye may dwell in the land of Goshen ; for every shepherd is an abomination unto the Egyptians.

47 Then Joseph came and told Pharaoh, and said, My father and my brethren, and their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have, are come out of the land of Canaan ; and, behold, they are in the land of Goshen. And he took some of his brethren, even five men, and presented them unto Pharaoh. And Pharaoh said unto Joseph's brethren, What is your occupation ? And they said unto Pharaoh, Thy servants are shepherds, both we, and also our fathers. They said moreover unto Pharaoh, To sojourn in the land are we come ; for thy servants have no pasture for their flocks ; for the famine is sore in the land of Canaan : now therefore, we pray thee, let thy servants dwell in the land of Goshen. And Pharaoh spoke unto Joseph, saying, Thy father and thy brethren are come unto thee : the land of Egypt is before thee ; in the best of the land make thy father and brethren to dwell ; in the land of Goshen let them dwell : and if thou knowest any men of activity among them, then make them rulers over my cattle.

And Joseph brought in Jacob his father, and set him before Pharaoh : and Jacob blessed Pharaoh. And Pharaoh said unto Jacob, How many are the days of thy life ? And Jacob said unto Pharaoh, The days of the years of my pilgrimage are a hundred and thirty years : few and evil have the days of the years of my life been, and have not attained unto the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage. Again Jacob blessed Pharaoh, and went out from before Pharaoh.

And Joseph placed his father and his brethren, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded. And Joseph nourished his father, and his brethren, and all his father's household, with bread, according to their families.

And there was no bread in all the land ; for the famine was very sore, so that the land of Egypt and all the land of Canaan fainted by reason of the famine. And Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, for the corn which they bought : and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house. And when money failed in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came unto Joseph, and said, Give us bread ; (for why should we die in thy presence ?) for the money faileth. And Joseph said, Give your cattle ; and I will give you bread for your cattle, if money fail. And they brought their cattle unto Joseph ; and Joseph gave them bread in exchange for horses, and for the flocks, and for the cattle of the herds, and for the asses; and he fed them with bread for all their cattle for that year.

When that year was ended, they came unto him the second year; and said unto him, We will not hide it from my lord, how that our money is spent; my lord also hath our herds of cattle; there is not aught left in the sight of my lord, but our bodies, and our lands: wherefore shall we die before thine eyes, both we and our land? buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants unto Pharaoh; and give us seed, that we may live, and not die, that the land be not desolate. And Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh; for the Egyptians sold every man his field, because the famine prevailed over them: so the land became Pharaoh's. And the people he made servants from one end of the borders of Egypt even to the other end thereof. Only the land of the priests bought he not; for the priests had a portion assigned them of Pharaoh, and did eat their portion which Pharaoh gave them: wherefore they sold not their lands. Then Joseph said unto the people, Behold, I have bought you this day and your land for Pharaoh: lo, here is seed for you, and ye shall sow the land. And in the increase, ye shall give the fifth part unto Pharaoh, and four parts shall be your own, for seed of the field, and for your food, and for them of your households, and for food for your little ones. And they said, Thou hast saved our lives: let us find grace in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh's servants. And Joseph made it a law over the land of Egypt unto this day, that Pharaoh should have the fifth part; except the land of the priests only, which became not Pharaoh's.

AND Israel dwelt in the land of Egypt, in the country of Goshen; and they had possessions therein, and grew, and multiplied exceedingly. And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years: so the whole age of Jacob was a hundred forty and seven years. And the time drew nigh that Israel must die: and he called his son Joseph, and said unto him, If now I have found grace in thy sight, put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh, and deal kindly and truly with me; bury me not, I pray thee, in Egypt: but I will lie with my fathers, and thou shalt carry me out of Egypt, and bury me in their buryingplace. And he said, I will do as thou hast said. And he said, Swear unto me: and he swore unto him. And Israel bowed himself leaning upon the top of his staff.

AND after these things, one told Joseph, Behold, thy father is sick: and he took with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim, and went to Jacob. And one told Jacob, and said, Behold, thy son Joseph cometh unto thee: and Israel strengthened himself, and sat upon the bed. And Jacob said unto Joseph, God Almighty appeared unto me at Luz in the land of Canaan, and blessed me, and said unto me, Behold, I will make thee fruitful, and multiply thee, and I will make of thee a multitude of people; and will give this land to thee and to thy seed after thee for an everlasting possession. And now thy two sons, Ephraim and Manasseh, who were born unto thee in the land of Egypt before I came unto thee into Egypt, are mine; as Reuben and Simeon, they shall be mine. And thine issue, which thou begetteth after them, shall be thine, and shall be called after the name of their brethren in their inheritance. And as for me, when I came from Padan-aram, Rachel thy mother died by me in the land of Canaan in the way, when yet there was but a little way to come unto Ephrath; and I buried her there in the way of Ephrath; (the same is Beth-lehem.)

And Israel beheld Joseph's sons, and said, Who are these? And Joseph said unto his father, They are my sons, whom God hath given me in this place. And he said, Bring them, I pray thee, unto me, and I will bless them. Now the eyes of Israel were dim from age, so that he could not see clearly. And he brought them near unto him; and he kissed them, and embraced them. And Israel said unto Joseph, I had not thought to see thy face; and, lo, God hath showed me also thy seed. And Joseph brought them out from between Israel's knees, and they bowed themselves with their faces to the earth. And Joseph took them both, Ephraim in his right hand towards Israel's left hand, and Manasseh in his left hand towards Israel's right hand, and brought them near unto him. And Israel stretched out his right hand, and laid it upon Ephraim's head, who was the younger, and his left hand upon Manasseh's head, guiding his hands wittingly; for Manasseh was the firstborn.

And he blessed the sons of Joseph, and said, God, before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac did walk, the God who fed me all my life long unto this day, the Angel who redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads; and let them be called by my name, and by the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac; and let them multiply abundantly in the midst of the earth. And when Joseph saw that his father laid

- his right hand upon the head of Ephraim, it displeased him: and he held up his 18 father's hand, to remove it from Ephraim's head unto Manasseh's head. And Joseph said unto his father, Not so, my father; for this is the firstborn: put thy right hand 19 upon his head. And his father refused, and said, I know it, my son, I know it: he also shall become a people, and he also shall be great: but truly his younger brother 20 shall be greater than he, and his seed shall become a multitude of nations. And he blessed them that day, saying, In thee shall Israel bless, saying, God make thee as Ephraim and as Manasseh: and he set Ephraim before Manasseh.
 21 And Israel said unto Joseph, Behold, I die; but God shall be with you, and bring 22 you again unto the land of your fathers. Moreover I have given to thee one portion above thy brethren, which I took out of the hand of the Amorite with my sword and with my bow.

49 And Jacob called unto his sons, and said, Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you that which shall befall you in the last days.

2 Gather yourselves together, and hear, ye sons of Jacob;
 And hearken unto Israel your father.

3 Reuben, thou art my firstborn,
 My might, and the beginning of my strength,
 The excellency of dignity, and the excellency of power:

4 Unstable as water, thou shalt not excel,
 Because thou wentest up to thy father's bed;
 Thus by going up thou didst defile my couch.

5 Simeon and Levi are brethren;
 Their swords are weapons of violence.

6 O my soul, come not thou into their secret;
 Unto their assembly, mine honour, be not thou united;
 For in their anger they slew the men,
 And in their self-will they cut off the princes.

7 Cursed be their anger, for it was fierce;
 And their wrath, for it was cruel:
 I will divide them in Jacob,
 And scatter them in Israel.

8 Judah, thee shall thy brethren praise:
 Thy hand shall be on the neck of thine enemies;
 Thy father's children shall bow down before thee.

9 Judah is a young lion:
 From the prey, my son, thou art returned:
 He stoopeth down, he coucheth as a lion,
 And as an old lion; who shall rouse him up?

10 The sceptre shall not depart from Judah,
 Nor a lawgiver from between his feet,
 Until Shiloh come;
 And unto him shall the homage of the nations be.

11 Binding his ass unto the vine,
 And his ass's colt unto the choice vine;
 He shall wash his garments in wine,
 And his clothes in the blood of grapes:

12 His eyes shall be red with wine,
 And his teeth white with milk.

13 Zebulun shall dwell at the haven of the sea,
 And he shall be for a haven of ships;
 And his border shall be unto Zidon.

14 Issachar is a strong ass
 Couching down between two burdens:

15 And he saw that rest was good,
 And the land that it was pleasant;
 And bowed his shoulder to bear,
 And became a servant unto tribute.

16 Dan shall judge his people,
 As one of the tribes of Israel.

17 Dan shall be a serpent by the way,

An adder in the path,
That biteth the horse's heels,
So that his rider shall fall backward.

- 18 I have waited for thy salvation, O LORD.
- 19 Gad, a troop shall overcome him;
But he shall overcome at the last.
- 20 Out of Asher his bread shall be fat,
And he shall yield royal dainties.
- 21 Naphtali is a spreading oak;
Producing goodly branches.
- 22 Joseph is a fruitful stem,
Even a fruitful stem by a well;
Whose branches run over the wall:
- 23 The archers have sorely grieved him,
And shot at him, and hated him;
- 24 Yet his bow abode in strength,
And his arms and his hands were made strong
By the power of the mighty God of Jacob;
By the name of the shepherd, the rock of Israel:
- 25 Even by the God of thy father, who shall help thee;
And by the Almighty, who shall bless thee
With blessings of the heavens above, Blessings of the deep that lieth under,
Blessings of the breasts, and of the womb:
- 26 The blessings of thy father and thy mother,
With the blessings of the everlasting hills:
They shall be on the head of Joseph,
And on the crown of the head of him who was separate from his brethren.
- 27 Benjamin shall spoil as a wolf:
In the morning he shall devour the prey,
And at night he shall divide the spoil.

All these are the twelve tribes of Israel; and this is it that their father spoke unto them, and blessed them; every one according to his blessing he blessed them. And 28 he charged them, and said unto them, I am to be gathered unto my people; hurry me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite, in the cave 30 that is in the field of Machpelah, which is before Mamre, in the land of Canaan, which Abraham bought with the field of Ephron the Hittite for a possession of a buryingplace. There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife; there they buried 31 Isaac and Rebekah his wife; and there I buried Leah. The purchase of the field 32 and of the cave that is therein was from the children of Heth. And when Jacob 33 had made an end of commanding his sons, he gathered up his feet into the bed, and yielded up his spirit, and was gathered unto his people.

And Joseph fell upon his father's face, and wept upon him, and kissed him. And 50 Joseph commanded his servants the physicians to embalm his father: and the physicians embalmed Israel. And forty days were fulfilled for him; for so are fulfilled 3 the days of those who are embalmed: and the Egyptians mourned for him threescore and ten days. And when the days of his mourning were past, Joseph spoke unto 4 the house of Pharaoh, saying, If now I have found grace in your eyes, speak, I pray you, in the ears of Pharaoh, saying, My father made me swear, saying, Lo, I die: 5 in my grave which I have digged for me in the land of Canaan, there shalt thou bury me. Now therefore let me go up, I pray thee, and bury my father, and I will 6 come again. And Pharaoh said, Go up, and bury thy father, according as he made thee swear.

And Joseph went up to bury his father; and with him went up all the servants of 7 Pharaoh, the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt, and all the 8 house of Joseph, and his brethren, and his father's house: only their little ones, and their flocks, and their herds, they left in the land of Goshen. And there went up 9 with him both chariots and horsemen: and it was a very great company. And they 10 came to the threshingfloor of Atad, which is beyond the Jordan, and there they mourned with a great and very sore lamentation: and he made a mourning for his father seven days. And when the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the 11

- mourning in the floor of Atad, they said, This is a grievous mourning to the Egyptians : wherefore the name of it was called Abel-mizraim [THE MOURNING OF THE EGYPTIANS], which is on this side the Jordan. And his sons did unto him according as he commanded them : for his sons carried him into the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, which Abraham bought with the field for a possession of a buryingplace of Ephron the Hittite, before Mamre. And Joseph returned into Egypt, he, and his brethren, and all that went up with him to bury his father, after he had buried his father.
- And when Joseph's brethren saw that their father was dead, they said, Joseph will peradventure hate us, and will certainly requite us all the evil which we did unto him. And they sent a messenger unto Joseph, saying, Thy father did command before he died, saying, So shall ye say unto Joseph, Forgive, I pray thee now, the trespass of thy brethren, and their sin ; for they did unto thee evil : and now, we pray thee, forgive the trespass of the servants of the God of thy father. And Joseph wept when they thus spoke unto him. And his brethren went and fell down before his face ; and they said, Behold, we are thy servants. And Joseph said unto them, Fear not ; for I also revere God. But as for you, ye thought evil against me ; but God meant it to bring to pass good, as it is this day, to save much people alive. Now, therefore, fear ye not : I will nourish you, and your little ones. And he comforted them, and spoke kindly unto them.
- And Joseph dwelt in Egypt, he, and his father's house : and Joseph lived a hundred and ten years. And Joseph saw Ephraim's children of the third generation : the children also of Machir the son of Manasseh were borne upon Joseph's knees.
- And Joseph said unto his brethren, I die ; and God will surely visit you, and bring you out of this land unto the land which he swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. And Joseph took an oath of the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you, and ye shall carry up my bones from hence with you. So Joseph died, being a hundred and ten years old ; and they embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.

THE SECOND BOOK OF MOSES,

CALLED

EXODUS.

- I NOW these are the names of the children of Israel, who came into Egypt ; every man and his household came with Jacob their father. Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah, Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin, Dan, and Naphtali, Gad, and Asher. And all the souls that came out of the loins of Jacob were seventy souls ; for Joseph was in Egypt already. And Joseph died, and all his brethren, and all that generation.
- And the children of Israel were very fruitful, and increased abundantly, and multiplied, and waxed exceedingly mighty ; and the land was filled with them.
- NOW there arose up a new king over Egypt, who knew not Joseph. And he said unto his people, Behold, the people of the children of Israel are more and mightier than we : come on, let us deal wisely with them, lest they multiply, and it come to pass, that, when there falleth out any war, they join also unto our enemies, and fight against us, and so get them up out of the land. Therefore they did set over them taskmasters to afflict them with their burdens. And they built for Pharaoh treasure cities, Pithom and Raamses. But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and grew. And they were alarmed because of the children of Israel.
- And the Egyptians made the children of Israel to serve with rigour : and they made their lives bitter with hard bondage, in mortar, and in brick, and in all manner of service in the field : all their service, wherein they made them serve, was with rigour.
- And the king of Egypt spoke to the Hebrew midwives, (of whom the name of the one was Shiprah, and the name of the other Puah :) and he said, When ye perform the office of a midwife to the Hebrew women, and see them upon the stone troughs; if the child be a son, then ye shall kill him: but if it be a daughter, then she shall live. But the midwives feared God, and did not as the king of Egypt 17 commanded them, but saved the men-children alive. And the king of Egypt called 18 for the midwives, and said unto them, Why have ye done this thing, and have saved the men-children alive? And the midwives said unto Pharaoh, Because the Hebrew 19 women are not as the Egyptian women; for they are more vigorous, and are delivered ere the midwives come in unto them. Therefore God dealt well with the 20 midwives: and the people multiplied, and waxed very mighty. And because the 21 midwives feared God, he prospered their households. Therefore Pharaoh charged 22 all his people, saying, Every son who is born of the Hebrews ye shall cast into the river, and every daughter ye shall save alive.

And there went a man of the house of Levi, and took to wife a daughter of Levi. 2 And the woman conceived, and bore a son: and when she saw that he was a beautiful child, she hid him three months. And when she could no longer hide him, she took 3 for him an ark of bulrushes, and daubed it with slime and with pitch, and put the child therein; and she laid it in the flags by the river's brink. And his sister stood 4 afar off, to know what would be done to him.

And the daughter of Pharaoh came down to wash herself at the river; and her 5 maidens walked along by the river's side; and when she saw the ark among the flags, she sent her maid to fetch it. And when she had opened it, she saw the child; and, 6 behold, the babe wept. And the daughter of Pharaoh had compassion on him, and said, This is one of the Hebrews' children. Then said his sister to Pharaoh's daugh- 7 ter, Shall I go and call to thee a nurse of the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for thee? And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, Go. And the damsel went 8 and called the child's mother. And Pharaoh's daughter said unto her, Take this 9 child away, and nurse it for me, and I will give thee thy wages. And the woman took the child, and nursed it. And the child grew, and she brought him unto Pha- 10 raoth's daughter, and he was to her for a son. And she called his name Moses [ONE DRAWN OUT OF THE WATER]; and she said, Because I drew him out of the water.

And in those days, when Moses was grown, he went out unto his brethren, and 11 looked on their burdens; and he spied an Egyptian smiting a Hebrew, one of his brethren. And he looked this way and that way, and when he saw that there 12 was no man, he slew the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand. And when he went 13 out the second day, behold, two men of the Hebrews strove together; and he said to him who did the wrong, Wherefore smitest thou thy companion? And he said, 14 Who made thee a prince and a judge over us? intendest thou to kill me, as thou killedst the other day the Egyptian? And Moses feared, and said, Surely this 15 thing is known. Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to slay Moses; 16 but Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh, and went into the land of Midian: and he sat down by a well. Now the prince of Midian had seven daughters; and they 17 came and drew water, and filled the troughs to water their father's flock. And the 18 shepherds came and drove them away; but Moses stood up and helped them, and watered their flock. And when they came to Reuel their father, he said, How is it 19 that ye are come so soon to-day? And they said, An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds, and also drew water enough for us, and watered the flock. And he said unto his daughters, And where is he? why is it that ye have left the 20 man? call him, that he may eat bread. And Moses was contented to dwell with the 21 man; and he gave Moses Zipporah his grand-daughter for a wife. And she bore 22 him a son, and he called his name Gershom [A STRANGER HERE]; for he said, I have been a stranger in a foreign land.

AND in process of time, the king of Egypt died; and the children of Israel sighed 23 by reason of the bondage, and they cried, and their cry came up unto God by reason of the bondage. And God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant 24 with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob. And God looked upon the children of 25 Israel, and God had respect unto them.

Now Moses kept the flock of Jethro his father-in-law, the prince of Midian; and 3 he led the flock to the border of the desert, and came to the mountain of God, even to Horeb. And the angel of the LORD appeared unto him in a flame of fire out of 2 the midst of a bush; and he looked, and, behold, the bush burned with fire, but the bush was not consumed. And Moses said, I will now turn aside, and see this great 3 sight, why the bush is not burnt. And when the LORD saw that he turned aside 4 to see, God called unto him out of the midst of the bush, and said, Moses, Moses! And he said, Here am I. And he said, Draw not nigh hither; put off thy shoes 5 from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground. Moreover he 6

- said, I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses hid his face; for he was afraid to look upon God.
- 7 And the LORD said, I have surely seen the affliction of my people who are in Egypt, and have heard their cry by reason of their taskmasters; for I know their sorrows; and I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land unto a good land and a large, unto a land flowing with milk and honey; unto the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites. Now therefore, behold, the cry of the children of Israel is come unto me; and I have also
- 10 seen the oppression wherewith the Egyptians oppress them. Come now therefore, and I will send thee unto Pharaoh, that thou mayest bring forth my people the children of Israel out of Egypt.
- 11 And Moses said unto God, Who am I, that I should go unto Pharaoh, and that I should bring forth the children of Israel out of Egypt? And he said, Certainly I will be with thee; and this shall be a token unto thee, that I have sent thee: when thou hast brought forth the people out of Egypt, ye shall serve God upon this mountain.
- 13 And Moses said unto God, Behold, when I come unto the children of Israel, and shall say unto them, The God of your fathers hath sent me unto you; and they shall say to me, What is his name? what shall I say unto them?
- 14 And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM: and he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you. And God said moreover unto Moses, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath sent me unto you: this is my name for ever, and this is my memorial unto all generations.
- 16 Go, and gather the elders of Israel together, and say unto them, The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, appeared unto me, saying, I have surely visited you, and seen that which is done to you in Egypt: and I have said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt unto the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, unto a land flowing with milk and honey. And they shall hearken to thy voice; and thou shalt come, thou and the elders of Israel, unto the king of Egypt, and ye shall say unto him, The LORD God of the Hebrews hath met with us; and now let us go, we beseech thee, three days' journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God. And I am sure that the king of Egypt will not let you go, but by a mighty hand. And I will stretch out my hand, and smite Egypt with all my wonders which I will do in the midst thereof; and after that he will let you go. And I will give this people favour in the sight of the Egyptians: and when ye go, ye shall not go empty; but every woman shall ask of her neighbour, and of her who sojourneth in her house, articles of silver, and articles of gold, and raiment; and ye shall put them upon your sons, and upon your daughters; and thus shall ye spoil the Egyptians.
- 4 And Moses answered and said, But, behold, they will not believe me, nor hearken unto my voice: for they will say, The LORD hath not appeared unto thee.
- 2 And the LORD said unto him, What is that in thy hand? And he said, A rod. And he said, Cast it on the ground: and he cast it on the ground, and it became a serpent; and Moses fled from before it. And the LORD said unto Moses, Put forth thy hand, and take it by the tail: and he put forth his hand, and caught it, and it became a rod in his hand: that they may believe that the LORD God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath appeared unto thee.
- 6 And the LORD said furthermore unto him, Put now thy hand into thy bosom: and he put his hand into his bosom; and when he took it out, behold, his hand was leprous as snow. And he said, Put thy hand into thy bosom again: and he put his hand into his bosom again, and plucked it out of his bosom, and, behold, it was turned again as his other flesh. And if they will not believe thee, neither hearken to the voice of the first sign, they will believe the voice of the latter sign. And if they will not believe also these two signs, neither hearken unto thy voice, thou shalt take of the water of the river, and pour it upon the dry land; and the water which thou takest out of the river shall become blood upon the dry land.
- 10 And Moses said unto the LORD, O my Lord, I am not eloquent, neither heretofore, nor since thou hast spoken unto thy servant; but I am slow of speech, and of a slow tongue.
- 11 And the LORD said unto him, Who hath made man's mouth? or who maketh the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? have not I, the LORD? Now therefore 12 go, and I will be with thy mouth, and teach thee what thou shalt say.

And he said, O my Lord, send, I pray thee, by the hand of him whom thou 13 shouldest send.

And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Moses, and he said, Is not Aaron 14 the Levite thy brother? I know that he can speak fluently: and also, behold, he cometh forth to meet thee; and when he seeth thee, he will be glad in his heart. And 15 thou shalt speak unto him, and put words in his mouth: and I will be with thy mouth, and with his mouth, and will teach you what ye shall do. And he shall be 16 thy spokesman unto the people; and he shall be, even he shall be to thee instead of a mouth, and thou shalt be to him instead of God. And thou shalt take this rod in 17 thy hand, wherewith thou shalt do signs.

And Moses went and returned to Jethro his father-in-law, and said unto him, Let 18 me go, I pray thee, and return unto my brethren who are in Egypt, and see whether they be yet alive. And Jethro said to Moses, Go in peace. After these days the king of Egypt died. And the LORD said unto Moses in Midian, Go, return into 19 Egypt: for all the men are dead who sought thy life. And the LORD said unto 21 Moses, When thou shalt have returned into Egypt, see that thou do all those wonders before Pharaoh, which I have put in thy hand; but his heart shall be hardened, that he shall not let the people go. And thou shalt say unto Pharaoh, Thus saith the 22 LORD, Israel is my son, even my firstborn: and I say unto thee, Let my son go, that he may serve me: and if thou refuse to let him go, behold, I will slay thy son, even 23 thy firstborn. And Moses took his wife and his sons, and set them upon asses; and 20 he returned to the land of Egypt. And Moses took the rod of God in his hand.

And in the lodging place by the way, the LORD met him, and sought to kill him. 24 Then Zipporah took a sharp stone, and cut off the foreskins of her sons, and cast 25 them at his feet, and said, Surely a blood-bought husband art thou to me. So he let him go: then she said, A blood-bought husband thou art, because of the 26 circumcision.

And the LORD said to Aaron, Go into the wilderness to meet Moses. And he 27 went, and met him at the great mountain of Horeb, and kissed him. And Moses 28 told Aaron all the words of the LORD who had sent him, and all the signs which he had commanded him.

And Moses and Aaron went and gathered together all the elders of the children 29 of Israel: and Aaron spoke all the words which the LORD had spoken unto Moses, 30 and did the signs in the sight of the people. And the people believed: and when 31 they heard that the LORD had visited the children of Israel, and that he had looked upon their affliction, then they bowed their heads and worshipped.

And afterwards Moses and Aaron went in, and told Pharaoh, Thus saith the LORD 5 God of Israel, Let my people go, that they may hold a feast unto me in the wilderness. And Pharaoh said, Who is the LORD, that I should obey his voice to let Israel 2 go? I know not the LORD, neither will I let Israel go. And they said, The God of 3 the Hebrews hath met with us: let us go, we pray thee, three days' journey into the desert, and sacrifice unto the LORD our God; lest he fall upon us with pestilence, or with the sword. And the king of Egypt said unto them, Wherefore do ye, Mo- 4 ses and Aaron, hinder the people from their works? get you unto your burdens. And Pharaoh said, Behold, they are now more numerous than the people of the land, 5 and yet ye make them rest from their burdens.

And Pharaoh commanded the same day the taskmasters of the people, and their 6 officers, saying, Ye shall no more give the people straw to make brick, as heretofore: 7 let them go and gather straw for themselves. And the same number of bricks, 8 which they did make heretofore, ye shall lay upon them; ye shall not diminish aught thereof; for they be idle: therefore they cry, saying, Let us go and sacrifice to our God. Let there more work be laid upon the men, that they may labour therein; 9 and let them not attend to vain words.

And the taskmasters of the people went out, and their officers, and they spoke to 10 the people, saying, Thus saith Pharaoh, I will not give you straw. Go ye, get you 11 straw where ye can find it: yet not aught of your work shall be diminished. So the 12 people were scattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt to gather stubble instead of straw. And the taskmasters hastened them, saying, Fulfil your works, your 13 daily tasks, as when straw was given you. And the officers of the children of Israel, 14 which Pharaoh's taskmasters had set over them, were beaten, and demanded, Wherefore have ye not fulfilled your task in making brick both yesterday and to-day, as heretofore?

EXODUS VI.

- 15 Then the officers of the children of Israel came and cried unto Pharaoh, saying, 16 Wherefore dealest thou thus with thy servants? There is no straw given unto thy servants, and they say to us, Make brick : and, behold, thy servants are beaten as if 17 they had sinned ; but the fault is in thine own people. But he said, Ye are idle, ye 18 are idle ; therefore ye say, Let us go and do sacrifice to the LORD. Go therefore now, and work ; for there shall no straw be given you, yet shall ye deliver the same 19 number of bricks. And the officers of the children of Israel did see that they were in evil case, after it was said, Ye shall not diminish aught from your bricks of your daily task.
- 20 And they met Moses and Aaron, who stood in the way, as they came forth from 21 the presence of Pharaoh : and they said unto them, The LORD look upon you, and judge ; because ye have made us to be abhorred in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of his servants, so that ye have put a sword in their hand to slay us.
- 22 And Moses returned unto the LORD, and said, Lord, wherefore hast thou so evil 23 entreated this people? why is it that thou hast sent me? For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in thy name, he hath done evil to this people ; neither hast thou de-6 livered thy people at all. Then the LORD said unto Moses, Now shalt thou see what I will do to Pharaoh ; for through a strong hand only will he let them go, and with a strong hand shall he drive them out of his land.
- 2 3 And God spoke unto Moses, and said unto him, I am the LORD : and I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, by the name of God Almighty, but by 4 my name JEHOVAH was I not known to them. And I have also established my covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their pilgrimage, 5 wherein they were strangers. And I have also heard the groaning of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians keep in bondage ; and I have remembered my covenant.
- 6 Wherefore say unto the children of Israel, I am the LORD, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will rescue you from their bondage, and I will redeem you with a stretched out arm, and with great judg-7 ments : and I will take you to me for a people, and I will be to you a God : and ye shall know that I am the LORD your God, who bringeth you out from under the 8 burdens of the Egyptians. And I will bring you in unto the land, concerning the which I did swear to give it to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob ; and I will give it 9 you for an heritage : I am the LORD. And Moses spoke so unto the children of Israel ; but they hearkened not unto Moses for anguish of spirit, and for cruel bondage ; but said to him, Let us alone, and let us serve the Egyptians.
- 10 11 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Go in, speak unto Pharaoh king of 12 Egypt, that he let the children of Israel go out of his land. And Moses spoke before the LORD, saying, Behold, the children of Israel have not hearkened unto me ; how 13 then shall Pharaoh hear me, who am of uncircumcised lips? And the LORD spoke unto Moses and unto Aaron, and gave them a charge unto the children of Israel, and unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt.
- 14 These be the heads of their fathers' houses : the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel ; Hanoch, and Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi : these be the families of Reuben.
- 15 And the sons of Simeon ; Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jachin, and Zohar, 16 and Shaul the son of a Canaanitish woman : these are the families of Simeon. And these are the names of the sons of Levi according to their generations ; Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari : and the years of the life of Levi were a hundred thirty and 17 18 seven years. The sons of Gershon ; Libni, and Shimi, according to their families. And the sons of Kohath ; Amram, and Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel : and the years of 19 the life of Kohath were a hundred thirty and three years. And the sons of Merari ; Mahali and Mushi : these are the families of Levi according to their generations.
- 20 And Amram took him Jochebed his father's sister to wife ; and she bore him Aaron and Moses, and Miriam their sister : and the years of the life of Amram were a hun-21 dred and thirty and seven years. And the sons of Izhar ; Korah, and Nepheg, and 22 23 Zithri. And the sons of Uzziel ; Mishael, and Elzaphan, and Zithri. And Aaron took him Elisheba, daughter of Amminadab, sister of Naashon, to wife ; and she 24 bore him Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. And the sons of Korah ; Assir, 25 and Elkanah, and Abiasaph : these are the families of the Korhites. And Eleazar Aaron's son, took him one of the daughters of Putiel to wife ; and she bore him Phinehas : these are the heads of the fathers of the Levites according to their fami-26 lies. These are that Aaron and Moses, to whom the LORD said, Bring out the 27 children of Israel from the land of Egypt according to their armies. These are they who spoke to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring out the children of Israel from Egypt :
 these are that Moses and Aaron.

And on the day when the LORD spoke unto Moses in the land of Egypt, the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, I am the LORD : speak thou unto Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I say unto thee. And Moses said before the LORD, Behold, I am of uncircumcised lips, and how shall Pharaoh hearken unto me? And the LORD said unto Moses, See, I have made thee a god to Pharaoh; and Aaron thy brother shall be thy prophet. Thou shalt speak all that I command thee; and Aaron thy brother shall speak unto Pharaoh, that he send the children of Israel out of his land. And I will permit Pharaoh's heart to be hardened, and I will multiply my signs and my wonders in the land of Egypt. But Pharaoh shall not hearken unto you, that I may lay my hand upon Egypt, and bring forth mine armies, and my people the children of Israel, out of the land of Egypt by great judgments. And the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I stretch forth my hand upon Egypt, and bring out the children of Israel from among them. And Moses and Aaron did as the LORD commanded them, so did they. And Moses was fourscore years old, and Aaron fourscore and three years old, when they spoke unto Pharaoh.

And the LORD spoke unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying, If Pharaoh shall speak unto you, saying, Show us a miracle; then thou shalt say unto Aaron, Take thy rod, and cast it before Pharaoh, and before his servants, and it shall become a serpent. And Moses and Aaron went in unto Pharaoh, and they did as the LORD had commanded: and Aaron cast down his rod before Pharaoh, and before his servants, and it became a serpent. Then Pharaoh also called the wise men and the sorcerers: now the magicians of Egypt, they also did in like manner with their enchantments. For they cast down every man his rod, and they became serpents; but Aaron's rod swallowed up their rods. And yet Pharaoh's heart was hardened, so that he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said.

And the LORD said unto Moses, Pharaoh's heart is hardened, he refuseth to let the people go. Get thee unto Pharaoh in the morning; lo, he then goeth forth to the water; and thou shalt stand by the river's brink against he come; and the rod which was turned to a serpent shalt thou take in thy hand. And thou shalt say unto him, The LORD God of the Hebrews hath sent me unto thee, saying, Let my people go, that they may serve me in the wilderness: and, behold, hitherto thou wouldst not hear. Thus saith the LORD, In this thou shalt know that I am the LORD: behold, I will smite with the rod that is in my hand upon the waters which are in the river, and they shall be turned to blood. And the fish that is in the river shall die, and the river shall stink; and the Egyptians shall lothe to drink of the water of the river.

And the LORD spoke unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Take thy rod, and stretch out thy hand upon the waters of Egypt, upon their streams, upon their rivers, and upon their ponds, and upon all their pools of water, that they may become blood; and that there may be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in cisterns of wood, and in cisterns of stone. And Moses and Aaron did so, as the LORD commanded; and Aaron lifted up the rod, and smote the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his servants; and all the waters that were in the river were turned to blood. And the fish that was in the river died; and the river stank, and the Egyptians could not drink of the water of the river; and there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt. And the magicians of Egypt did so with their enchantments: and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, neither did he hearken unto them; as the LORD had said. And Pharaoh turned and went into his house, neither did he set his heart to this also. And all the Egyptians digged round about the river for water to drink; for they could not drink of the water of the river.

And seven days were fulfilled, after that the LORD had smitten the river, and the LORD spoke unto Moses, Go unto Pharaoh, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Let my people go, that they may serve me. And if thou refuse to let them go, behold, I will smite all thy borders with frogs; and the river shall bring forth frogs abundantly, which shall go up and come into thy house, and into thy bedchamber, and upon thy bed, and into the house of thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thine ovens, and into thy dough-bags: and the frogs shall come up both on thee, and upon thy people, and upon all thy servants.

And the LORD spoke unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Stretch forth thy hand with thy rod over the streams, over the rivers, and over the ponds, and cause frogs to come up upon the land of Egypt. And Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt; and the frogs came up, and covered the land of Egypt. And the magicians did so with their enchantments, and brought up frogs upon the land of Egypt.

- 6 for you out of the field : and they shall fill thy houses, and the houses of all thy servants, and the houses of all the Egyptians ; which neither thy fathers, nor thy fathers' fathers have seen, since the day that they were upon the earth unto this day. And he turned himself, and went out from Pharaoh.
- 7 And Pharaoh's servants said unto him, How long shall this man be a snare unto us ? let the men go, that they may serve the LORD their God : knowest thou not yet that Egypt is destroyed ? And Moses and Aaron were brought again unto Pharaoh ; and he said unto them, Go, serve the LORD your God : but who and who are they that shall go ? And Moses said, We will go with our young and with our old, with our sons and with our daughters, with our flocks and with our herds will we go ; for we must hold a feast unto the LORD. And he said unto them, Let the LORD be so with you, as I will let you go : but as for your little ones, (look to it ; for evil is before you,) not so. But go now ye who are men, and serve the LORD ; for that ye did desire. And they were driven out from Pharaoh's presence.
- 12 And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thy hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come up upon the land of Egypt, and eat every herb of the land, and the fruit of every tree, even all that the hail hath left. And Moses stretched forth his rod over the land of Egypt, and the LORD brought an east wind upon the land all that day, and all that night ; and when it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts : and the locusts went up over all the land of Egypt, and rested in all the coasts of Egypt : very grievous were they ; before them there were no such locusts as they, neither after them shall be such : for they covered the face of the whole earth, so that the land was darkened ; and they did eat every green herb of the land, and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left : and there remained not any green thing on the trees, or in the herbs of the field, through all the land of Egypt.
- 16 Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron in haste ; and he said, I have sinned against the LORD your God, and against you. Now, therefore, forgive, I pray thee, my sin only this once, and entreat the LORD your God, that he may only take away from me this destruction. And he went out from Pharaoh, and entreated the LORD. And the LORD turned a mighty strong west wind, which took away the locusts, and cast them into the Red Sea ; there remained not one locust in all the coasts of Egypt. But the LORD permitted Pharaoh's heart to be hardened, so that he would not let the children of Israel go.
- 21 And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thy hand towards the heavens, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, even darkness which may be felt. And Moses stretched forth his hand towards the heavens ; and there was a thick darkness in all the land of Egypt three days ; they saw not one another, neither rose any from his place for three days : but all the children of Israel had light in their dwellings.
- 24 And Pharaoh called unto Moses and Aaron, and said, Go ye, serve the LORD ; only let your flocks and your herds be stayed : let your little ones also go with you. And Moses said, Thou must give us also sacrifices and burnt offerings, that we may sacrifice unto the LORD our God. Our cattle also shall go with us ; there shall not a hoof be left behind ; for thereof must we take to serve the LORD our God ; and we know not with what we must serve the LORD, until we come thither.
- 27 But the LORD permitted Pharaoh's heart to be hardened, and he would not let them go.
- 11 And the LORD said unto Moses, Yet will I bring one plague more upon Pharaoh, and upon Egypt ; afterwards he will let you go hence : when he shall let you go, he shall surely thrust you out hence altogether. Speak now in the ears of the people, and let every man ask of his neighbour, and every woman ask of her neighbour, articles of silver, and articles of gold, and raiment. And the LORD gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they gave them what they asked. Moreover the man Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh's servants, and in the sight of the people.
- 4 And Moses said, Thus saith the LORD, About midnight will I go out into the midst of Egypt ; and all the firstborn in the land of Egypt shall die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sitteth upon his throne, even unto the firstborn of the bondwoman who is behind the mill ; and all the firstborn of beasts : and there shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as there was none like it, nor shall be like it any more. But amongst all the children of Israel shall not a dog move his tongue, against man or beast ; that ye may know that the LORD maketh a difference between the Egyptians and Israel. And all these thy servants shall come down unto me, and bow down themselves unto me, saying, Get thee out, and all the people who follow thee; and after that I will go out. And Pharaoh said unto him, Get thee from me, take heed to thyself, see my face no more; for in that day thou seest my face thou shalt die. And Moses said, Thou hast spoken well, I will see thy face again no more. And he went out from Pharaoh in a great anger.

And the LORD said unto Moses, Pharaoh shall not hearken unto you; that my 9 signs and my wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt. And Moses and 10 Aaron did all these signs and wonders before Pharaoh; and the LORD permitted Pharaoh's heart to be hardened, so that he would not let the children of Israel go out of his land.

Now the LORD had spoken to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying, 12
This month shall be to you the beginning of months: it shall be the first month of the year to you.

Speak ye to all the congregation of Israel, saying, In the tenth day of this month 3 they shall take to them every man a lamb, according to the house of their fathers, a lamb for a household: and if the household be too little for the lamb, let him and 4 his neighbour next unto his house take it according to the number of the souls; every man according to his eating shall make your count for the lamb.

Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male of the first year: ye shall take it out 5 from the sheep, or from the goats: and ye shall keep it up until the fourteenth day 6 of the same month; and the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it in the evening.

And they shall take of the blood, and strike it on the two side posts and on the 7 upper door post of the houses, wherein they shall eat it.

And they shall eat the flesh in that night, roast with fire, and unleavened bread; 8 and with bitter herbs they shall eat it. Eat not of it raw, nor sodden at all with 9 water, but roast with fire; its head with its legs, and with the carcase thereof. And 10 ye shall let nothing of it remain until the morning; and that which remaineth of it until the morning ye shall burn with fire, and a bone of it ye shall not break. And 11 thus shall ye eat it: with your loins girded, your shoes on your feet, and your staves in your hands; and ye shall eat it in haste: it is the LORD'S passover.

For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night, and will smite all the first- 12 horn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and against all the princes of Egypt I will execute judgment: I am the LORD. And the blood shall be to you for a token 13 upon the houses where ye are; and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you for a destruction, when I smite in the land of Egypt.

And this day shall be unto you for a memorial; and ye shall keep it a feast to 14 the LORD throughout your generations; ye shall keep it a feast by an ordinance for ever.

Seven days shall ye eat unleavened bread; even the first day ye shall put away 15 leaven out of your houses; for whosoever eateth leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that soul shall be cut off from Israel. And in the first day 16 there shall be a holy convocation, and in the seventh day there shall be a holy convocation to you; no manner of work shall be done in them, save that which every man must eat, that only may be done of you. And ye shall observe the feast of un- 17 leavened bread; for in this selfsame day have I brought your armies out of the land of Egypt: therefore shall ye observe this day in your generations by an ordinance for ever. In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at evening, ye shall 18 eat unleavened bread, until the one and twentieth day of the month at evening. Seven days shall there be no leaven found in your houses; for whosoever eateth that 19 which is leavened, even that soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he be a stranger, or born in the land. Ye shall eat nothing leavened; in 20 all your habitations shall ye eat unleavened bread.

Then Moses called for all the elders of Israel, and said unto them, Draw out and 21 take ye a lamb according to your families, and kill the passover. And ye shall 22 take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and strike the lintel and the two side posts with the blood that is in the basin; and none of you shall go out at the door of his house until the morning. For the LORD will pass 23 through to smite the Egyptians; and when he seeth the blood upon the lintel, and on the two side posts, the LORD will pass over the door, and will not suffer the destroyer to come in unto your houses to smite you. And ye shall observe this thing 24 for an ordinance to thee and to thy sons for ever. And when ye be come to the land 25 which the LORD will give you, according as he hath promised, ye shall keep this service, in the same month. And when your children shall say unto you, What mean 26 ye by this service? ye shall say, It is the sacrifice of the LORD'S passover, who 27

- passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when he smote the Egyptians, and delivered our houses. And the people bowed the head and worshipped.
- 28 And the children of Israel went away, and did as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.
- 29 And at midnight the LORD smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sat on his throne unto the firstborn of the captive who was in the dungeon; and all the firstborn of cattle. And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Egypt; for there was not a house where there was not one dead.
- 31 And Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, Rise up, and get you forth from among my people, both ye and the children of Israel; and go, serve the LORD, as ye have said. Also take your flocks and your herds, as ye have said, and be gone; and bless me also.
- 33 And the Egyptians were urgent upon the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste; for they said, We are all dead men. And the people took their dough before it was leavened, their dough bags being bound up in their clothes upon their shoulders. And the children of Israel did according to the word of Moses; and they asked of the Egyptians articles of silver, and articles of gold, and raiment: and the LORD gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they gave unto them such things as they required. And thus they spoiled the Egyptians.
- 37 AND the children of Israel journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, about six hundred thousand on foot who were men, besides children. And a mixed multitude went up also with them; and flocks, and herds, even very much cattle. And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they brought forth out of Egypt, for it was not leavened; because they were thrust out of Egypt, and could not tarry, neither had they prepared for themselves any food.
- 40 Now the sojourning of the children of Israel, and of their fathers who dwelt in Canaan and in Egypt, was four hundred and thirty years. And at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, even the selfsame day, all the hosts of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt.
- 42 It is a night to be solemnly kept unto the LORD for bringing them out from the land of Egypt: this is that night of the LORD to be solemnly kept by all the children of Israel in their generations.
- 43 And the LORD said unto Moses and Aaron, This is the ordinance of the passover: there shall no stranger eat thereof; but every man's servant who is bought for money, when thou hast circumcised him, then shall he eat thereof. A foreigner and a hired servant shall not eat thereof. In one house shall it be eaten; thou shalt not carry forth ought of the flesh abroad out of the house; neither shall ye break a bone thereof. All the congregation of Israel shall keep it. And when a stranger shall sojourn with thee, and will keep the passover to the LORD, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near and keep it; and he shall be as one who is born in the land; for no uncircumcised person shall eat thereof. One law shall be to him who is homeborn, and unto the stranger who sojourneth among you. Thus did all the children of Israel; as the LORD commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.
- 51 And the selfsame day, the LORD did bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt by their armies.
- 13 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Sanctify unto me all the firstborn, whatsoever openeth the womb among the children of Israel, both of man and of beast: it is mine.
- 3 And Moses said unto the people, Remember this day, in which ye came out from Egypt, out of the house of bondage; for by strength of hand the LORD brought you out from this place; there shall no leavened bread be eaten. This day came ye out in the month Abib. And when the LORD shall bring thee into the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Iivites, and the Jebusites, which he swore unto thy fathers to give thee, a land flowing with milk and honey, thou shalt keep this service in this month. Seven days thou shalt eat unleavened bread, and in the seventh day shall be a feast to the LORD. Unleavened bread shall be eaten seven days; and there shall no leavened bread be seen with thee, neither shall there be leaven seen with thee in all thy quarters. And thou shalt show thy son in that day, saying, This is done because of that which the LORD did unto me when I came forth out of Egypt. And it shall be for a sign unto thee upon thy hand, and for a memorial between thine eyes, that the LORD'S law may be in thy mouth; for with a strong hand hath the LORD brought thee out of Egypt. Thou shalt therefore keep this ordinance in his season from year to 10 year.

And when the LORD shall bring thee into the land of the Canaanites, as he swore 11 unto thee and to thy fathers, that he would give it thee, thou shalt set apart unto 12 the LORD every firstborn that openeth the womb, and every firstling that cometh of a beast which thou hast; being males they shall be the LORD'S. And every first- 13 ling of an ass thou shalt redeem with a lamb; and if thou wilt not redeem it, then thou shalt break its neck: and all the firstborn of man among thy children shalt thou redeem.

And when thy son asketh thee in time to come, saying, What is this? thou shalt 14 say unto him, By strength of hand the LORD brought us out from Egypt, from the house of bondage: and when Pharaoh would hardly let us go, the LORD slew all 15 the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of man, and the firstborn of beast: therefore I sacrifice to the LORD all that openeth the womb, being males; but all the firstborn of my children I redeem. And it shall be for a token upon thy 16 hand, and for frontlets between thine eyes: for by strength of hand the LORD brought us forth out of Egypt.

And when Pharaoh had let the people go, God led them not through the way of 17 the land of the Philistines, although that was the nearest; for God said, Lest peradventure the people repent when they see war, and they return to Egypt: but God 18 led the people about, through the way of the wilderness of the Red Sea: and the children of Israel went up by five in a rank out of the land of Egypt. And Moses 19 took the bones of Joseph with him; for Joseph had strictly sworn the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you; and ye shall carry up my bones away hence with you.

And they took their journey from Succoth, and encamped in Etham, which is at 20 the edge of the wilderness. And the LORD went before them by day in a pillar of 21 a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light: to go by day and night: he took not away the pillar of the cloud by day, nor the pillar 22 of fire by night, from before the people.

And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, that 14 they turn and encamp before Pi-hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, over against Baal-zephon: before it shall ye encamp by the sea. For Pharaoh will say of the 3 children of Israel, They are entangled in the land, the wilderness hath shut them in.
And Pharaoh's heart shall be hardened, that he shall follow after them; and I will 4 be honoured upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host; that the Egyptians may know that I am the LORD: and they did so.

And it was told the king of Egypt that the people fled; and the heart of Pharaoh 5 and of his servants was turned against the people, and they said, Why have we done this, that we have let the Israelites go from serving us? And Pharaoh made ready 6 his chariot, and took all his people with him: and he took six hundred chosen 7 chariots, and all the horsemen of Egypt, and captains over all of them. And the 8 LORD suffered the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt to be hardened, and he pursued after the children of Israel: and the children of Israel went out with a high hand.
But the Egyptians pursued after them, all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, and 9 his horsemen, and his army, and overtook them encamping by the sea, beside Pi-hahiroth, before Baal-zephon.

And when Pharaoh drew nigh, the children of Israel lifted up their eyes, and, be- 10 hold, the Egyptians marched after them; and they were sore afraid: and the children of Israel cried out unto the LORD. And they said unto Moses, Because there were 11 no graves in Egypt, hast thou taken us away to die in the wilderness? wherefore hast thou dealt thus with us, to bring us forth out of Egypt? Is not this the word 12 that we did tell thee in Egypt, saying, Let us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians? for it had been better for us to serve the Egyptians, than that we should die in the wilderness.

And Moses said unto the people, Fear ye not, stand still, and see the salvation of 13
the LORD, which he will show to you to-day; for the Egyptians whom ye have seen to-day, ye shall see them again no more for ever. The LORD shall fight for you, 14 and ye shall hold your peace.

And Moses cried unto the LORD; and the LORD said unto Moses, Wherefore 15 criest thou unto me? speak unto the children of Israel, that they go forward; but 16 lift thou up thy rod, and stretch out thy hand over the sea, and divide it; and the children of Israel shall go on dry ground through the midst of the sea. And I, be- 17 hold, I will permit the hearts of the Egyptians to be hardened, and they shall follow

- them : and I will get me honour upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen. And all the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I have gotten me honour upon Pharaoh, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.
- 19 And the angel of God, who went before the camp of Israel, removed and went behind them ; and the pillar of the cloud went from before their face, and stood behind them ; and it came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of the Israelites ; and it was a cloud and darkness to the Egyptians, but it gave light by night to the Israelites : so that the one came not near the other all the night.
- 21 And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea ; and the LORD caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all that night, and made the sea dry land, and the waters were divided. And the children of Israel went into the midst of the sea upon the dry ground ; and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left.
- 23 And the Egyptians pursued, and went in after them to the midst of the sea, even all Pharaoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen. And in the morning watch the LORD looked unto the host of the Egyptians through the pillar of fire and of the cloud, and troubled the host of the Egyptians, and entangled their chariot wheels, and made them to go heavily : so that the Egyptians said, Let us flee from the face of Israel ; for the LORD fighteth for them against the Egyptians. And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thy hand over the sea, that the waters may come again upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots, and upon their horsemen. And Moses stretched forth his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to his strength when the morning appeared ; and the Egyptians fled against it ; and the LORD overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea. And the waters returned, and covered the chariots, and the horsemen, and all the host of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them ; there remained not so much as one of them. But the children of Israel walked upon dry land in the midst of the sea ; and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left.
- 30 Thus the LORD saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians ; and Israel saw the Egyptians dead upon the sea shore. And Israel saw that great work which the LORD did upon the Egyptians : and the people feared the LORD, and believed the LORD, and his servant Moses.

15 Then sang Moses and the children of Israel this song unto the LORD, and spoke, saying,

- I will sing unto the LORD, for he hath triumphed gloriously :
The horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.
- 2 The LORD is my strength and song,
And he is become my salvation :
He is my God, and him will I extol ;
My father's God, and him will I exalt.
- 3 Mighty in battle is the LORD : the LORD is his name.
- 4 Pharaoh's chariots and his host hath he cast into the sea :
His chosen captains also are drowned in the Red Sea.
- 5 The depths have covered them ;
They sank down to the bottom as a stone.
- 6 Thy right hand, O LORD, is become glorious in power :
Thy right hand, O LORD, hath dashed in pieces the enemy.
- 7 And in the greatness of thine excellency thou hast overthrown those who rose up against thee :
Thou sentest forth thy wrath, which consumed them as stubble.
- 8 And with the blast of thy nostrils the waters were gathered together,
The floods stood upright as a heap,
And the depths were congealed in the heart of the sea.
- 9 The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake,
I will divide the spoil ; my desire shall be satisfied upon them ;
I will draw my sword ; my hand shall destroy them.
- 10 Thou didst blow with thy wind, the sea covered them ;
They sank as lead in the mighty waters.
- 11 Who is like unto thee, O LORD, among the mighty ones ?
Who is like thee, glorious in holiness,
To be praised with reverence, doing wonders ?
- 12 Thou stretchedst out thy right hand, the earth swallowed them.

EXODUS XVI.

- 13 Thou, in thy mercy, hast led forth the people whom thou hast redeemed :
Thou hast guided them in thy strength unto thy holy habitation.
- 14 The people shall hear, and be afraid ;
Sorrow shall take hold on the inhabitants of Palestina.
- 15 Then the dukes of Edom shall be amazed ;
The mighty men of Moab, trembling shall take hold upon them ;
All the inhabitants of Canaan shall melt away.
- 16 Fear and dread shall fall upon them ;
By the greatness of thine arm they shall be as still as a stone Till thy people pass over, O LORD,
Till the people pass over, whom thou hast purchased.
- 17 Thou shalt bring them in, and plant them in the mountain of thine inheritance,
In the place, O LORD, which thou hast made for thee to dwell in,
In the sanctuary, O LORD, which thy hands have established.
- 18 The LORD shall reign for ever and ever.

For the horse of Pharaoh went in with his chariots and with his horsemen into 19 the sea, and the LORD brought again the waters of the sea upon them ; but the children of Israel went on dry land in the midst of the sea.

And Miriam the prophetess, the sister of Aaron, took a timbrel in her hand ; and 20 all the women went out after her with timbrels and with dances. And to them Mi- 21 riam gave the song, saying,

Sing ye to the LORD, for he hath triumphed gloriously ;
The horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.

SO Moses brought Israel from the Red Sea into the wilderness of Shur ; and they 22 went a journey of three days in the wilderness, and found no water. And when 23 they came to Marah, they could not drink of the waters of Marah, for they were bitter :
therefore the name of it was called Marah [BITTERNESS]. And the people 24 murmured against Moses, saying, What shall we drink ? And he cried unto the 25 LORD ; and the LORD showed him a tree, which when he had cast into the waters, the waters were made sweet : there he made for them a statute and an ordinance, and there he proved them, and said, If thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice 26 of the LORD thy God, and wilt do that which is right in his sight, and wilt give ear to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, I will put none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians ; for I am the LORD who healeth thee.

And they came to Elim, where were twelve wells of water, and threescore and ten 27 palm trees ; and they encamped there by the waters.

And they took their journey from Elim, and all the congregation of the children of 16 Israel came unto the wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after their departing out of the land of Egypt.
And the whole congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and 2 Aaron in the wilderness : and the children of Israel said unto them, Would to God 3 we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the flesh pots, and when we did eat bread to the full ; for ye have brought us forth into this wilderness, to kill this whole assembly with hunger.

Then said the LORD unto Moses, Behold, I will rain bread from the heavens for you ; 4 and the people shall go out and gather a certain portion every day, that I may prove them, whether they will walk by my laws, or not. And on the sixth day they shall 5 prepare that which they bring in ; and it shall be twice as much as they gather daily.

And Moses and Aaron said unto all the children of Israel, At evening ye shall 6 know that the LORD hath brought you out from the land of Egypt ; and in the 7 morning ye shall see the glory of the LORD ; for he heareth your murmurings against the LORD himself : and what are we, that ye murmur against us ? And 8 Moses said, This shall be, when the LORD shall give you in the evening flesh to eat, and in the morning bread to the full ; for that the LORD heareth your murmurings which ye murmur against him : and what are we ? your murmurings are not against us, but against the LORD. And Moses spoke unto Aaron, Say unto all the congre- 9 gation of the children of Israel, Come near before the LORD ; for he hath heard your murmurings.

And as Aaron spoke unto the whole congregation of the children of Israel, they 10 looked toward the wilderness, and, behold, the glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud. And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, I have heard the murmurings of 11 12

the children of Israel; speak unto them, saying, At evening ye shall eat flesh, and in the morning ye shall be filled with bread; and ye shall know that I am the LORD your God.

- 13 And at evening quails came up, and covered the camp: and in the morning the
- 14 dew lay round about the host. And when the dew that lay was gone up, behold, upon the face of the wilderness there remained a small round thing, as small as the
- 15 hoar frost on the ground. And when the children of Israel saw it, they said one to another, What is it? for they knew not what it was. And Moses said unto them,
- 16 This is the bread which the LORD hath given you to eat. This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded, Gather of it every man according to his eating, an omer for every man, according to the number of your persons; take ye every man
- 17 for those who are in his tents. And the children of Israel did so, and gathered,
- 18 some more, some less. And when they did mete it with an omer, he who gathered much had nothing over, and he who gathered little had no lack: they gathered every
- 19 man according to his eating. And Moses said, Let no man leave of it till the morn-
- 20 ing. Notwithstanding they hearkened not unto Moses; but some of them left of it until the morning, and it bred worms, and stank: and Moses was wroth with them.
- 21 And they gathered it every morning, every man according to his eating; and when the sun waxed hot, it melted.
- 22 And on the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for one man:
- 23 and all the rulers of the congregation came and told Moses. And he said unto them, This is that which the LORD hath said, To-morrow is the rest of the holy sabbath unto the LORD: bake that which ye will bake to-day, and seeth that ye will seeth; and that which remaineth over lay up for you to be kept until the morn-
- 24 ing. And they laid it up till the morning, as Moses bade; and it did not stink,
- 25 neither was there any worm therein. And Moses said, Eat that to-day; for to-day
- 26 is a sabbath unto the LORD: to-day ye shall not find it in the field. Six days ye shall gather it; but on the seventh day, which is the sabbath, in it there shall be
- 27 none. And there went out some of the people on the seventh day to gather, and
- 28 they found none. And the LORD said unto Moses, How long refuse ye to keep my commandments and my laws? See, because the LORD hath enjoined you to ob-
- 29 serve the sabbath, therefore he giveth you on the sixth day the bread of two days; abide ye every man in his place, let no man go out of his place on the seventh day.
- 30 So the people rested on the seventh day. And the Israelites called the name thereof Manna; and it was like coriander seed, white; and the taste of it was like wafers made with honey.
- 32 And Moses said, This is the thing which the LORD commandeth, Fill an omer of it to be kept for your generations; that they may see the bread wherewith I have
- 33 fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you forth from the land of Egypt. And Moses said unto Aaron, Take a pot, and put an omer full of manna therein, and lay
- 34 it up before the LORD, to be kept for your generations. As the LORD commanded
- 35 Moses, so Aaron laid it up before the Testimony, to be kept. And the children of Israel did eat manna forty years, until they came to a land inhabited; they did eat
- 36 manna, until they came unto the borders of the land of Canaan. Now an omer is the tenth part of an ephah.
- 17 And all the congregation of the children of Israel journeyed from the wilderness of Sin, after their journeys, according to the commandment of the LORD, and
- 2 pitched in Rephidim; and there was no water for the people to drink. Wherefore the people did chide with Moses, and said, Give us water that we may drink. And Moses said unto them, Why chide ye with me? wherefore do ye tempt the LORD?
- 3 And the people thirsted there for water; and the people murmured against Moses, and said, Wherefore is this that thou hast brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and our cattle with thirst?
- 4 And Moses cried unto the LORD, saying, What shall I do unto this people? they
- 5 be almost ready to stone me. And the LORD said unto Moses, Go on before the people, and take with thee of the elders of Israel; and thy rod, wherewith thou
- 6 smotest the river, take in thy hand, and go. Behold, I will stand before thee there upon the rock in Horeb; and thou shalt smite the rock, and there shall come water out of it, that the people may drink. And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of
- 7 Israel. And he called the name of the place Massah [TEMPTATION], and Meribah [STRIFE], because of the chiding of the children of Israel, and because they tempted the LORD, saying, Is the LORD among us, or not?
- 8 Then came Amalek, and fought with Israel in Rephidim. And Moses said unto Joshua, Choose us out men, and go out, fight with Amalek: to-morrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the rod of God in my hand. So Joshua did as Moses had said to him, and went to fight with Amalek: and Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill. And when Moses held up his hand, Israel prevailed; and when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed. But Moses' hands were heavy; and they took a stone, and put it under him, and he sat thereon; and Aaron and Hur stayed up his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side; and his hands were steady until the going down of the sun. And Joshua discomfited Amalek and his people, and smote them with the edge of the sword. And the LORD said unto Moses, Write this for a memorial in a book, and rehearse it in the ears of Joshua; for I will utterly put out the remembrance of Amalek from under the heavens. And Moses built an altar, and called the name of it JEHOVAH-nissi [THE LORD MY BANNER]: for he said, Because the LORD hath sworn that the LORD will have war with Amalek from generation to generation.

When Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses' father-in-law, heard of all that God had done for Moses, and for Israel his people, and that the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt; he took Zipporah, Moses' wife, after he had sent her back, and her two sons, (of which the name of the one was Gershom [A STRANGER HERE]; for he said, I have been an alien in a strange land: and the name of the other was Eliezer [MY GOD IS MY HELP]; for the God of my father, said he, was my help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh,) and Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, came with his sons and his wife unto Moses into the wilderness, where he was encamped by the great mountain: and he said unto Moses, I, thy father-in-law Jethro, am come unto thee, and thy wife, and her two sons with her. And Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, and did obeisance, and kissed him; and they asked each other of their welfare; and they came into the tent. And Moses told his father-in-law all that the LORD had done unto Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, and all the travail that had come upon them by the way, and how the LORD delivered them. And Jethro rejoiced for all the goodness which the LORD had done to Israel, whom he had delivered out of the hand of the Egyptians. And Jethro said, Blessed be the LORD, who hath delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh, who hath delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians. Now I know that the LORD is the greatest of all gods; for in the thing wherein they dealt proudly he was above them. And Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, took a burnt offering and sacrifices for God: and Aaron came, and all the elders of Israel, to eat bread with Moses' father-in-law before God.

And on the morrow, Moses sat to judge the people: and the people stood by Moses from the morning unto the evening. And when Moses' father-in-law saw all that he did to the people, he said, What is this thing that thou doest to the people? why sittest thou thyself alone, and all the people stand by thee from morning unto evening? And Moses said unto his father-in-law, Because the people come unto me to inquire of God: when they have a matter, they come unto me; and I judge between one and another, and I make known to them the statutes of God, and his laws. And Moses' father-in-law said unto him, The thing that thou doest is not good. Thou wilt surely wear away, both thou, and this people who is with thee; for this thing is too heavy for thee; thou art not able to perform it thyself alone. Hearken now unto my voice, I will give thee counsel, and God shall be with thee: Be thou for the people to God-ward, that thou mayest bring the causes unto God: and thou shalt teach them ordinances and laws, and shalt show them the way wherein they must walk, and the work that they must do. Moreover, thou shalt provide out of all the people, able men, such as fear God; men of truth, hating covetousness; and place such over them, to be rulers of thousands, and rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens: and let them judge the people at all seasons: and every great matter they shall bring unto thee, but every small matter they shall judge; so shall it be easier for thyself, and they shall bear the burden with thee. If thou shalt do this thing, and God command thee so, then thou shalt be able to endure, and all this people shall also go to their place in peace.

So Moses hearkened to the voice of his father-in-law, and did all that he had said. And Moses chose able men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens. And they judged the people at all seasons: the hard causes they brought unto Moses, but every small matter they judged themselves. And Moses let his father-in-law depart; and he went his way into his own land.

IN the third month, when the children of Israel were gone forth out of the land of Egypt, the same day came they into the wilderness of Sinai. For they were departed from Rephidim, and were come to the desert of Sinai, and had pitched in the wilderness; and there Israel camped before the mount. And Moses went up unto God, and the LORD called unto him out of the mountain, saying, Thus shalt thou say to the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel; Ye have seen what I did unto the Egyptians, and how I have borne you as on eagles' wings, and brought you unto myself. Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine: and ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and a holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.

And Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and laid before them all these words which the LORD commanded him. And all the people answered together, and said, All that the LORD hath spoken we will do. And Moses returned the words of the people unto the LORD.

And the LORD said unto Moses, Lo, I come unto thee in a thick cloud, that the people may hear when I speak with thee, and believe thee for ever. And Moses told the words of the people unto the LORD. And the LORD said unto Moses, Go unto the people, and sanctify them to-day and to-morrow, and let them wash their clothes, and be ready against the third day; for the third day the LORD will come down in the sight of all the people upon mount Sinai. And thou shalt set bounds about the mountain, and speak unto the people, saying, Take heed to yourselves that ye go not up into the mount, or touch the border of it: whosoever toucheth the mount shall be surely put to death: there shall not a hand touch him, but he shall surely be stoned, or thrust through; whether it be beast or man, it shall not live: when the trumpet hath ceased, they shall come up to the mount.

And Moses went down from the mount unto the people, and sanctified the people; and they washed their clothes. And he said unto the people, Be ready against the third day: come not to your wives.

And on the third day in the morning, there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the mount, and the voice of the trumpet exceeding loud; so that all the people in the camp trembled. And Moses brought forth the people out of the camp to meet with God; and they stood at the nether part of the mount. And mount Sinai was altogether on a smoke, because the LORD descended upon it in fire; and the smoke thereof ascended as the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mount quaked greatly. And when the voice of the trumpet waxed louder and louder, Moses spoke, and God answered him by a voice. And the LORD came down upon mount Sinai, on the top of the mount: and the LORD called Moses up to the top of the mount; and Moses went up. And the LORD said unto Moses, Go down, charge the people, lest they break through unto the LORD to gaze, and many of them perish. And let the priests also, who come near to the LORD, sanctify themselves, lest the LORD break forth upon them. And Moses said unto the LORD, The people cannot come up to mount Sinai; for thou chargedst us, saying, Set bounds about the mountain, and sanctify it. And the LORD said unto him, Away, get thee down, and thou shalt come up, thou, and Aaron with thee; but let not the priests and the people break through to come up unto the LORD, lest he break forth upon them. So Moses went down from the mountain unto the people, and spoke unto them.

20 Then God spoke all these words, saying,

I am the LORD thy God, who brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of anything that is in the heavens above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them; for I, the LORD thy God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of those who hate me, and showing mercy unto thousands of those who love me, and keep my commandments.

Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain, for the LORD will not hold him guiltless who taketh his name in vain.

Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work, but the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD thy God: on it thou shalt not do any work, neither thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy bondman, nor thy bondwoman, nor thine ox, nor thine ass, nor any of thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates; for in six days the LORD made the heavens and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and ceased the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.

Honour thy father and thy mother; that it may be well with thee, and that thy 12 days may be long upon the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

Thou shalt not kill. 13

Thou shalt not commit adultery. 14

Thou shalt not steal. 15

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour. 16

Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's 17 wife, nor his bondman, nor his bondwoman, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbour's.

And all the people heard the thunderings, and the noise of the trumpet, and saw 18 the lightnings, and the mountain smoking: and when the people saw it, they removed, and stood afar off. And they said unto Moses, Speak thou with us, and we 19 will hear; but let not God speak with us, lest we die. And Moses said unto the 20 people, Fear not; for God is come to prove you, and that his fear may be before your faces, that ye sin not.

And the people stood afar off, and Moses drew near unto the thick darkness, where 21 God was.

And the LORD said unto Moses, Thus thou shalt say unto the children of Israel, 22 Ye have seen that I have talked with you from heaven. Ye shall not make with me 23 gods of silver, neither shall ye make unto you gods of gold. An altar of earth thou 24 shalt make unto me, and shalt sacrifice thereon thy burnt offerings, and thy peace offerings, thy sheep, and thine oxen: in all places where I record my name I will come unto thee, and I will bless thee. And if thou wilt make me an altar of stone, 25 thou shalt not build it of hewn stone; for if thou lift up thy tool upon it, thou hast polluted it. Neither shalt thou go up by steps unto mine altar, that thy nakedness 26 be not discovered thereon.

Now these are the judgments which thou shalt set before them.

If thou buy a Hebrew bondman, six years he shall serve; and in the seventh he 21 shall go out free for nothing. If he came in by himself, he shall go out by himself: 3 if he were married, then his wife shall go out with him. If his master have given him 4 a wife, and she have borne him sons or daughters; the wife and her children shall be her master's, and he shall go out by himself. And if the bondman shall plainly say, 5
I love my master, my wife, and my children; I will not go out free: then his mas- 6 ter shall bring him unto the judges; he shall also bring him to the door, or unto the door post; and his master shall bore his ear through with an awl; and he shall serve him for ever.

And if a man sell his daughter to be a bondwoman, she shall not go out as the 7 bondmen do. If she please not her master, who hath betrothed her to himself, then 8 shall he let her be redeemed: to sell her unto a strange nation he shall have no power, seeing he hath dealt deceitfully with her. And if he have betrothed her unto 9 his son, he shall deal with her after the manner of daughters. If he take him an- 10 other wife; her food, her raiment, and her duty of marriage, shall he not diminish.
And if he do not these three unto her, then shall she go out free without money. 11

If he who smiteth a man, so that he die, shall be surely put to death. And if a man 12 13 lie not in wait, but God deliver him into his hand; then I will appoint thee a place whither he shall flee. But if a man come presumptuously upon his neighbour, to 14 slay him with guile; thou shalt take him from mine altar, that he may die. And he 15 who smiteth his father, or his mother, shall be surely put to death.

And he who stealeth a man, and selleth him, or if he be found in his hand, he shall 16 surely be put to death.

And he who curseth his father, or his mother, shall surely be put to death. 17

And if men strive together, and one smite his neighbour with a stone, or with his 18 fist, and he die not, but keepeth his bed; if he rise again, and walk abroad upon his 19 staff, then shall he who smote him be quit; only he shall pay for the loss of his time, and shall cause him to be thoroughly healed.

And if a man smite his bondman, or his bondwoman, with a rod, and he die under 20 his hand; he shall be surely punished. Notwithstanding, if he continue a day or 21 two, he shall not be punished; for he is his money.

If men strive, and hurt a woman with child, so that her fruit depart from her, 22 and yet no mischief follow, he shall be surely punished, according as the woman's husband will lay upon him; and he shall pay as the judges determine. And if any 23 mischief follow, then thou shalt give life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand 24 for hand, foot for foot, burning for burning, wound for wound, stripe for stripe. 25

And if a man smite the eye of his bondman, or the eye of his bondwoman, that it 26

- 27 perish; he shall let him go free for his eye's sake. And if he smite out his bondman's tooth, or his bondwoman's tooth; he shall let him go free for his tooth's sake.
- 28 If an ox gore a man or a woman, so that he or she die: then the ox shall be surely
- 29 stoned, and its flesh shall not be eaten; but the owner of the ox shall be quit. But if the ox were wont to push with its horn in time past, and it hath been testified to its owner, and he hath not kept it in, but that it hath killed a man or a woman;
- 30 the ox shall be stoned, and its owner also shall be put to death. If there be laid on him a sum of money, then he shall give for the ransom of his life whatsoever is laid
- 31 upon him. Whether it have gored a son, or have gored a daughter, according to this judgment shall it be done unto him. If the ox shall push a bondman or a bond-
- 32 woman; he shall give unto their master thirty shekels of silver, and the ox shall be stoned.
- 33 And if a man shall open a pit, or if a man shall dig a pit, and not cover it, and an
- 34 ox or an ass fall therein; the owner of the pit shall make it good, and give money unto the owner of it; and the dead beast shall be his.
- 35 And if one man's ox hurt another's, that he die; then they shall sell the live ox, and
- 36 divide the money of it; and the dead ox also they shall divide. Or if it be known that the ox hath used to push in time past, and its owner hath not kept it in; he shall surely pay ox for ox; and the dead shall be his own.
- 22 If a man shall steal an ox, or a sheep, and kill it, or sell it; he shall restore five oxen for an ox, and four sheep for a sheep.
- 2 If a thief be found breaking in, and be smitten that he die, there shall no blood be shed for him. If the sun be risen upon him, there shall be blood shed for him; for he should make full restitution; if he have nothing, then he shall be sold for his
- 4 theft. If the theft be certainly found in his hand alive, whether it be ox, or ass, or sheep; he shall restore double.
- 5 If a man shall cause a field or vineyard to be eaten, and shall put in his beast, and shall feed in another man's field; of the best of his own field, and of the best of his
- 6 own vineyard, shall he make restitution. If fire break out, and catch in thorns, so that the stacks of corn, or the standing corn, or the field, be consumed therewith; he that kindled the fire shall surely make restitution.
- 7 If a man shall deliver unto his neighbour money or stuff to keep, and it be stolen
- 8 out of the man's house; if the thief be found, let him pay double. If the thief be not found, then the master of the house shall be brought unto the judges, to see
- 9 whether he have put his hand unto his neighbour's goods. For all manner of trespass, whether it be for ox, for ass, for sheep, for raiment, or for any manner of lost thing, which another challengeth to be his, the cause of both parties shall come before the judges; and whom the judges shall condemn, he shall pay double unto his neighbour.
- 10 If a man deliver unto his neighbour an ass, or an ox, or a sheep, or any beast, to
- 11 keep; and it die, or be hurt, or driven away, no man seeing it: then shall an oath of the LORD be between them both, that he hath not put his hand unto his neighbour's goods; and the owner of it shall accept thereof, and he shall not make it good.
- 12 13 And if it be stolen from him, he shall make restitution unto the owner thereof. If it be torn in pieces then let him bring it for witness, and he shall not make good that which was torn.
- 14 And if a man borrow ought of his neighbour, and it be hurt, or die, the owner
- 15 thereof being not with it, he shall surely make it good. But if the owner thereof be with it, he shall not make it good: if it be a hired thing, it came for his hire.
- 16 And if a man entice a virgin that is not betrothed, and lie with her, he shall surely
- 17 endow her to be his wife. If her father utterly refuse to give her unto him, he shall pay money according to the dowry of virgins.
- 18 Thou shalt not suffer a sorcerer to live.
- 19 Whosoever lieth with a beast shall surely be put to death.
- 20 He who sacrificeth unto any god, save unto the LORD only, he shall be utterly destroyed.
- 21 Thou shalt neither vex a sojourner, nor oppress him: for ye were sojourners in the
- 22 23 land of Egypt. Ye shall not afflict any widow, or fatherless child. If thou afflict
- 24 them in any way, and they cry at all unto me, I will surely hear their cry; and my wrath shall wax hot, and I will kill you with the sword; and your wives shall be widows, and your children fatherless.
- 25 If thou lend money to any of my people that is poor by thee, thou shalt not be to
- 26 him as a usurer, neither shalt thou lay upon him usury. If thou at all take thy neighbour's raiment to pledge, thou shalt deliver it unto him by the time that the sun goeth down; for that is his covering only, it is his raiment for his skin: wherein 27 shall he sleep? and when he crieth unto me, I will hear; for I am gracious.

Thou shalt not revile the judges, nor curse the ruler of thy people. 28

Thou shalt not delay to offer the first of thy ripe fruits, and of thy liquors: the 29 firstborn of thy sons shalt thou give unto me. Likewise shalt thou do with thine 30 oxen, and with thy sheep: seven days it shall be with its dam; on the eighth day thou shalt give it me.

And ye shall be holy men unto me; neither shall ye eat any flesh that is torn of 31 beasts in the field; ye shall cast it to the dogs.

Thou shalt not receive a false report: put not thy hand with the wicked to be an 23 unrighteous witness. Thou shalt not follow a multitude to do evil: neither shalt thou speak in a cause to incline after many to wrest judgment: neither shalt thou 3 countenance even a poor man in his cause.

If thou meet thine enemy's ox, or his ass, or any other beast, going astray, thou 4 shalt surely bring it back to him again. If thou see the ass of him who hateth thee 5 lying under its burden, and wouldst forbear to help it, thou shalt surely help it up.

Thou shalt not wrest the judgment of thy poor in his cause. Keep thee far from: 6 7 a false matter; and the innocent and righteous slay thou not; for thou shalt not justify the wicked for gifts.

And thou shalt take no gift; for the gift blindeth the wise, and perverteth the 8 words of the righteous.

Also thou shalt not oppress a sojourner; for ye know the heart of a sojourner, see- 9 ing ye were sojourners in the land of Egypt.

And six years thou shalt sow thy land, and shalt gather in the fruits thereof: but 10 11 the seventh year thou shalt let it rest and lie still, that the poor of thy people may eat; and what they leave the beasts of the field shall eat. In like manner thou shalt deal with thy vineyard, and with thine oliveyard.

Six days thou shalt do thy work, and on the seventh day thou shalt rest: that thine 12 ox and thine ass may rest, and the son of thy handmaid, and the stranger, may be refreshed. And in all things that I have said unto you be circumspect: and make 13 no mention of the name of other gods, neither let it be heard out of thy mouth.

Three times thou shalt keep a feast unto me in the year. Thou shalt keep the feast 14 15 of unleavened bread: (thou shalt eat unleavened bread seven days, as I commanded thee, in the time appointed of the month Abib; for in it thou camest out from Egypt: and none shall appear before me empty:) and the feast of harvest, the firstfruits of thy labours, which thou hast sown in thy field; and the feast of ingathering, which is in the end of the year, when thou hast gathered in thy labours out of the field. Three times in the year all thy males shall appear before the LORD your 17 God.

Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread; neither shall 18 the fat of my sacrifice remain until the morning. The first of the firstfruits of thy 19 land thou shalt bring into the house of the LORD thy God. Thou shalt not seeth a kid in its mother's milk.

Behold, I send mine Angel before thee, to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee 20 into the place which I have prepared. Beware of him, and obey his voice, provoke 21 him not; for he will not pardon your transgressions: for my name is in him. But 22 if thou shalt indeed obey his voice, and do all that I speak; then I will be an enemy unto thine enemies, and I will afflict those who afflict thee. For mine Angel shall 23 go before thee, and bring thee in unto the Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites: and I will cut them off. Thou shalt not bow down to their gods, nor serve them, nor do after their 24 works: but thou shalt utterly overthrow them, and quite break down their images.
And ye shall serve the LORD your God, and he shall bless thy bread, and thy 25 water: and I will take sickness away from the midst of thee. There shall nothing 26 cast thy young, nor be barren, in thy land: the number of thy days I will fulfil.
I will send the fear of me before thee, and will dismay all the people to whom thou 27 shalt come, and I will make all thine enemies turn their backs unto thee. And I 28 will send hornets before thee, which shall drive out the Hivite, the Canaanite, and the Hittite, from before thee. I will not drive them out from before thee in one 29 year; lest the land become desolate, and the beast of the field multiply against thee.
By little and little I will drive them out from before thee, until thou be increased, 30 and inherit the land.

And I will set thy bounds from the Red Sea even unto the sea of the Philistines, 31 and from the desert unto the great river Euphrates; for I will deliver the inhabit-

32 ants of the land into your hand; and thou shalt drive them out before thee. Thou 33 shalt make no covenant with them, nor with their gods. They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me; for if thou serve their gods, it will surely be a snare unto thee.

24 And he said unto Moses, Come up unto the LORD, thou, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel; and worship ye afar off. And Moses alone shall come near the LORD; but they shall not come nigh, neither shall the people go up with him.

3 And Moses came and told the people all the words of the LORD, and all the judgments: and all the people answered with one voice, and said, All the words which 4 the LORD hath said will we do. And Moses wrote all the words of the LORD, and rose up early in the morning, and built an altar under the hill, and twelve 5 pillars, according to the twelve tribes of Israel. And he sent young men of the children of Israel, who offered burnt offerings, and sacrificed peace offerings of oxen 6 unto the LORD. And Moses took half of the blood, and put it in basins; and half 7 of the blood he sprinkled on the altar. And he took the book of the covenant, and read in the audience of the people: and they said, All that the LORD hath said will 8 we do, and be obedient. And Moses took the blood, and sprinkled it on the people, and said, Behold the blood of the covenant, which the LORD hath made with you concerning all these words.

9 Then went up Moses and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of 10 Israel; and they saw the God of Israel: and there was under his feet as it were a 11 paved work of sapphire stone, and as it were the heaven itself in its clearness. And upon the nobles of the children of Israel he laid not his hand: but they saw God, and did eat and drink.

12 And the LORD said unto Moses, Come up to me into the mount, and be there; and I will give thee tables of stone, and a law, and commandments which I have 13 written; that thou mayest teach them. And Moses rose up, and his minister Joshua: and Moses went up into the mount of God. And he said unto the elders, 14 Tarry ye here for us, until we come again unto you: and, behold, Aaron and Hur are with you: if any man have any matters to do, let him come unto them.

15 And Moses went up into the mount, and a cloud covered the mount: and the glory of the LORD abode upon mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days; and the 17 seventh day he called unto Moses out of the midst of the cloud. And the sight of the glory of the LORD was like devouring fire on the top of the mount in the eyes 18 of the children of Israel. And Moses went into the midst of the cloud, and gat him up into the mount; and Moses was in the mount forty days and forty nights.

25 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, that they bring me an offering: of every man who giveth it willingly with his heart ye 3 shall take the offering. And this is the offering which ye shall take of them; gold,
4 and silver, and copper, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats'
5 hair, and rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' skins, and shittim wood, oil for the light, 6 spices for anointing oil, and for sweet incense, onyx stones, and stones to be set in 7 the ephod, and in the breastplate. And let them make me a sanctuary; that I may 8 dwell among them. According to all that I show thee, after the pattern of the tabernacle, and the pattern of all the instruments thereof, even so shall ye make it.

10 And they shall make an ark of shittim wood: two cubits and a half shall be the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the 11 height thereof. And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, within and without shalt 12 thou overlay it, and shalt make upon it a border of gold round about. And thou shalt cast four rings of gold for it, and put them in the four corners thereof; and 13 two rings shall be in the one side of it, and two rings in the other side of it. And 14 thou shalt make staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold. And thou shalt put the staves into the rings by the sides of the ark, that the ark may be borne 15 with them. The staves shall be in the rings of the ark: they shall not be taken 16 from it. And thou shalt put into the ark the testimony which I shall give thee.

17 And thou shalt make a mercy seat of pure gold: two cubits and a half shall be 18 the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof. And thou shalt make two cherubims of gold, of beaten work shalt thou make them, in the two ends of the 19 mercy seat. And make one cherub on the one end, and the other cherub on the other end: even of the mercy seat shall ye make the cherubims on the two ends thereof.
20 And the cherubims shall stretch forth their wings on high, covering the mercy seat with their wings, and their faces shall look one to another; towards the mercy seat 21 shall the faces of the cherubims be. And thou shalt put the mercy seat above upon the ark; and in the ark thou shalt put the testimony that I shall give thee. And there I will meet with thee, and I will commune with thee from above the mercy seat, from between the two cherubims which are upon the ark of the testimony, of all things which I will give thee in commandment unto the children of Israel.

Thou shalt also make a table of shittim wood: two cubits shall be the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof. And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, and make thereto a crown of gold round about. And thou shalt make unto it a border of a hand's breadth round about, and thou shalt make a golden crown to the border thereof round about. And thou shalt make for it four rings of gold, and put the rings in the four corners that are on the four feet thereof. Over against the border shall the rings be for places of the staves to bear the table. And thou shalt make the staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold, that the table may be borne with them. And thou shalt make the dishes thereof, and the incense pots, and the large and small cups: of pure gold shalt thou make them. And thou shalt set upon the table showbread before me alway.

And thou shalt make a lampholder of pure gold: of beaten work shall the lampholder be made: its shaft, and its branches, its bowls, its knops, and its flowers, shall be of the same. And six branches shall come out of the sides of it; three branches of the lampholder out of the one side, and three branches of the lampholder out of the other side: three bowls made like unto almonds, with a knop and a flower in one branch; and three bowls made like almonds in the other branch, with a knop and a flower: so in the six branches that come out of the lampholder. And in the lampholder shall be four bowls made like unto almonds, with their knops and their flowers. And there shall be a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, according to the six branches that proceed out of the lampholder. Their knops and their branches shall be of the same: all of it shall be one beaten work of pure gold. And thou shalt make the seven lamps thereof: and they shall light the lamps thereof, that they may give light over against it. And the snuffers thereof, and the snuffdishes thereof, shall be of pure gold. Of a talent of pure gold shall he make it, with all these vessels. And look that thou make them after their pattern, which was showed thee in the mount.

Moreover thou shalt make the tabernacle with ten curtains of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet: with cherubims of skilful work shalt thou make them. The length of one curtain shall be eight and twenty cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: and every one of the curtains shall have one measure. The five curtains shall be coupled together one to another; and other five curtains shall be coupled one to another. And thou shalt make loops of blue upon the edge of the one curtain from the selvege in the coupling; and likewise shalt thou make in the uttermost edge of another curtain, in the coupling of the second. Fifty loops shalt thou make in the one curtain, and fifty loops shalt thou make in the edge of the curtain that is in the coupling of the second; that the loops may take hold one of another. And thou shalt make fifty clasps of gold, and couple the curtains together with the clasps; and it shall be one tabernacle.

And thou shalt make curtains of goats' hair to be a covering upon the tabernacle: eleven curtains shalt thou make. The length of one curtain shall be thirty cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits; and the eleven curtains shall be all of one measure. And thou shalt couple five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves, and shalt double the sixth curtain in the forefront of the tabernacle. And thou shalt make fifty loops on the edge of the one curtain that is outmost in the coupling, and fifty loops in the edge of the curtain which coupleth the second. And thou shalt make fifty clasps of brass, and put the clasps into the loops, and couple the tent together, that it may be one. And the remnant that remaineth of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that remaineth, shall hang over the backside of the tabernacle. And a cubit on the one side, and a cubit on the other side of that which remaineth in the length of the curtains of the tent, it shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle on this side and on that side, to cover it.

And thou shalt make a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering above of badgers' skins.

And thou shalt make boards for the tabernacle of shittim wood standing up. Ten cubits shall be the length of a board, and a cubit and a half shall be the breadth of one board. Two tenons shall there be in one board, set in order one against another: thus shalt thou make for all the boards of the tabernacle.

And thou shalt make the boards for the tabernacle, twenty boards on the south side

- 19 southward. And thou shalt make forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards: two sockets under one board for its two tenons, and two sockets under another board for its two tenons.
- 20 And for the second side of the tabernacle on the north side there shall be twenty
- 21 boards: and their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.
- 22 23 And for the sides of the tabernacle westward thou shalt make six boards. And
- 24 two boards shalt thou make for the corners of the tabernacle in the two sides. And they shall be coupled together beneath, and they shall be coupled together above the head of it unto one ring: thus shall it be for them both; they shall be for the two
- 25 corners. And they shall be eight boards, and their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.
- 26 And thou shalt make bars of shittim wood; five for the boards of the one side of
- 27 the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and
- 28 five bars for the boards of the side of the tabernacle, for the side westward. And
- 29 the middle bar in the midst of the boards shall reach from end to end. And thou shalt overlay the boards with gold, and make their rings of gold for places for the bars: and thou shalt overlay the bars with gold.
- 30 And thou shalt rear up the tabernacle according to the fashion thereof which was showed thee in the mount.
- 31 And thou shalt make a vail of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen
- 32 of skilful work: with cherubims shall it be made: and thou shalt hang it upon four pillars of shittim wood overlaid with gold: their hooks shall be of gold, upon the four
- 33 sockets of silver. And thou shalt hang up the vail under the clasps, that thou mayest bring in thither within the vail the ark of the testimony; and the vail shall divide unto
- 34 you between the holy place and the most holy. And thou shalt put the mercy seat
- 35 upon the ark of the testimony in the most holy place. And thou shalt set the table without the vail, and the lampholder over against the table on the side of the tabernacle toward the south; and thou shalt put the table on the north side.
- 36 And thou shalt make a covering for the door of the tent, of blue, and purple, and
- 37 scarlet, and fine twined linen, wrought with needlework. And thou shalt make for the covering five pillars of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold, and their hooks shall be of gold: and thou shalt cast five sockets of brass for them.
- 27 And thou shalt make an altar of shittim wood, five cubits long, and five cubits broad; the altar shall be foursquare: and the height thereof shall be three cubits.
- 2 And thou shalt make the horns of it upon the four corners thereof: its horns shall be of the same: and thou shalt overlay it with brass. And thou shalt make its pans to receive its ashes, and its shovels, and its basins, and its fleshhooks, and its firepans:
- 4 all the vessels thereof thou shalt make of brass. And thou shalt make for it a grate of network of brass; and upon the net shalt thou make four brazen rings in the four
- 5 corners thereof. And thou shalt put it under the compass of the altar beneath, that
- 6 the net may be even to the midst of the altar. And thou shalt make staves for the
- 7 altar, staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with brass. And the staves shall be put into the rings, and the staves shall be upon the two sides of the altar, to bear it.
- 8 Hollow with boards shalt thou make it; as it was showed thee in the mount, so shalt thou make it.
- 9 And thou shalt make the court of the tabernacle: for the south side southward there shall be hangings for the court of fine twined linen of a hundred cubits long
- 10 for one side; and the twenty pillars thereof and their twenty sockets shall be of
- 11 brass; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets shall be of silver. And likewise for the north side in length there shall be hangings of a hundred cubits long, and its
- 12 twenty pillars and their twenty sockets of brass; the hooks of the pillars and their
- 13 fillets of silver. And for the breadth of the court on the west side shall be hangings
- 14 of fifty cubits: their pillars ten, and their sockets of brass ten. And the breadth of
- 15 the court on the east side eastward shall be fifty cubits. The hangings of one side
- 16 of the gate shall be fifteen cubits: their pillars three, and their sockets three. And on the other side shall be hangings of fifteen cubits: their pillars three, and their
- 17 sockets of brass three. And for the gate of the court shall be a hanging of twenty cubits, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, wrought with needlework: and their pillars shall be four, and their sockets of brass four. All the pillars
- 18 round about the court shall be filleted with silver; their hooks shall be of silver, and their sockets of brass. The length of the court shall be a hundred cubits, and the
- 19 breadth fifty by fifty every where, and the height five cubits. The hangings of the court shall be of fine twined linen; and the sockets of brass. All the vessels of the tabernacle in all the service thereof, and all the pins thereof, and all the pins of the court, shall be of brass.

And thou shalt command the children of Israel, that they bring thee pure olive oil 20 beaten for the light, to cause the lamp to burn always. In the tabernacle of the con- 21 gregation without the vail, which is before the testimony, Aaron and his sons shall order it from evening to morning before the LORD: it shall be a statute for ever unto their generations on the behalf of the children of Israel.

And appoint next unto thyself Aaron thy brother, and his sons with him, from 28 among the children of Israel, that he may minister unto me in the priest's office, even Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron's sons. And thou shalt 2 make holy garments for Aaron thy brother for glory and for beauty. And thou shalt 3 speak unto all who are wise hearted, whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdom, that they may make Aaron's garments to consecrate him, that he may minister unto me in the priest's office. And these are the garments which they shall make; a 4 breastplate, and an ephod, and a robe, and an embroidered coat, a mitre, and a girdle: and they shall make holy garments for Aaron thy brother, and his sons, that he may minister unto me in the priest's office. And they shall take gold, and 5 blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen.

And they shall make the ephod of gold, of blue, and of purple, of scarlet, and fine 6 twined linen, with skilful work. It shall have the two shoulderpieces thereof joined 7 at the two edges thereof; and so it shall be joined together. And the curious girdle 8 of the ephod, which is upon it, shall be of the same, according to the work thereof; even of gold, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen. And thou shalt 9 take two onyx stones, and grave on them the names of the children of Israel: six of 10 their names on one stone, and the other six names of the rest on the other stone, according to their birth. With the work of an engraver in stone, like the engravings 11 of a signet, shalt thou engrave the two stones with the names of the children of Israel: thou shalt make them to be set in sockets of gold. And thou shalt put the 12 two stones upon the shoulders of the ephod for stones of memorial unto the children of Israel: and Aaron shall bear their names before the LORD upon his two shoulders for a memorial. And thou shalt make sockets of gold; and two chains of pure 13 14 gold at the ends; of wreathen work shalt thou make them, and fasten the wreathen chains to the sockets.

And thou shalt make the breastplate of judgment with skilful work; after the 15 work of the ephod thou shalt make it; of gold, of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, and of fine twined linen, shalt thou make it. Foursquare it shall be being doubled; 16 a span shall be the length thereof, and a span shall be the breadth thereof. And 17 thou shalt set in it settings of stones, even four rows of stones: the first row shall be a sardius, a topaz, and a carbuncle: this shall be the first row. And the second row 18 shall be an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond. And the third row a ligure, an 19 agate, and an amethyst. And the fourth row a beryl, and an onyx, and a jasper: 20 they shall be set in gold in their enclosings. And the stones shall be with the names 21 of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names, like the engravings of a signet; every one with his name shall they be according to the twelve tribes. And 22 thou shalt make upon the breastplate chains at the ends of wreathen work of pure gold. And thou shalt make upon the breastplate two rings of gold, and shalt put 23 the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate. And thou shalt put the two 24 wreathen chains of gold in the two rings which are on the ends of the breastplate. And the other two ends of the two wreathen chains thou shalt fasten in the 25 sockets, and put them on the shoulderpieces of the ephod before it. And thou 26 shalt make two rings of gold, and thou shalt put them upon the two ends of the breastplate in the border thereof, which is in the side of the ephod inward. And two 27 other rings of gold thou shalt make, and shalt put them on the two sides of the ephod underneath, towards the fore part thereof, over against the other coupling thereof, above the curious girdle of the ephod. And they shall bind the breastplate by the 28 rings thereof unto the rings of the ephod with a face of blue, that it may be above the curious girdle of the ephod, and that the breastplate be not loosed from the ephod. And Aaron shall bear the names of the children of Israel in the breastplate 29 of judgment upon his heart, when he goeth in unto the holy place, for a memorial before the LORD continually.

And thou shalt put in the breastplate of judgment the Urim [LIGHT] and the Thum- 30 mim [PERFECTION]; and they shall be upon Aaron's heart, when he goeth in before the LORD; and Aaron shall bear the judgment of the children of Israel upon his heart before the LORD continually.

- 31 32 And thou shalt make the robe of the ephod all of blue. And the opening of its top shall be hemmed : it shall have a binding of woven work round about the hole of it, as it were the hole of a coat of mail, that it be not rent. And beneath upon the hem of it thou shalt make pomegranates of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, round about the hem thereof ; and bells of gold between them round about : a golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, upon the hem of the robe round about. And it shall be upon Aaron to minister : and his sound shall be heard when he goeth in unto the holy place before the LORD, and when he cometh out, that he die not.
- 36 And thou shalt make a plate of pure gold, and grave upon it, like the engravings of a signet, HOLINESS TO THE LORD. And thou shalt put it on a blue lace, that it may be upon the mitre ; upon the forefront of the mitre it shall be. And it shall be upon Aaron's forehead, that Aaron may bear away the iniquity of the holy things, which the children of Israel shall hallow in all their holy gifts ; and it shall be always upon his forehead, that they may be accepted before the LORD.
- 39 And thou shalt embroider the coat of fine linen, and thou shalt make the mitre of fine linen, and thou shalt make the girdle of needlework.
- 40 And for Aaron's sons thou shalt make coats, and thou shalt make for them girdles, and turbans shalt thou make for them, for glory and for beauty. And thou shalt put them upon Aaron thy brother, and his sons with him ; and shalt anoint them, and consecrate them, and sanctify them, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office. And thou shalt make them linen breeches to cover their nakedness ; from the loins even unto the thighs they shall reach : and they shall be upon Aaron, and upon his sons, when they come in unto the tabernacle of the congregation, or when they come near unto the altar to minister in the holy place ; that they bear not iniquity, and die : it shall be a statute for ever unto him and his seed after him.
- 29 And this is the thing that thou shalt do unto them to hallow them, to minister unto me in the priest's office : Take one young bullock, and two rams without blemish, and unleavened bread, and cakes unleavened tempered with oil, and wafers unleavened anointed with oil : of wheaten flour shalt thou make them. And thou shalt put them into one basket, and bring them in the basket, with the bullock and the two rams. And Aaron and his sons thou shalt bring unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and shalt wash them with water. And thou shalt take the garments, and put upon Aaron the coat, and the robe of the ephod, and the ephod, and the breastplate, and gird him with the curious girdle of the ephod : and thou shalt put the mitre upon his head, and put the holy crown upon the mitre. Then shalt thou take the anointing oil, and pour it upon his head, and anoint him.
- 8 9 And thou shalt bring his sons, and put coats upon them. And thou shalt gird them with girdles, Aaron and his sons, and put the turbans on them ; and the priest's office shall be theirs for a perpetual statute : and thou shalt consecrate Aaron and his sons.
- 10 And thou shalt cause a bullock to be brought before the tabernacle of the congregation ; and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the bullock. And thou shalt kill the bullock before the LORD, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and put it upon the horns of the altar with thy finger, and pour all the blood beside the bottom of the altar. And thou shalt take all the fat that covereth the inward parts, and the caul that is above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and burn them upon the altar. But the flesh of the bullock, and its skin, and its dung, shalt thou burn with fire without the camp : it is a sin offering.
- 15 Thou shalt also take one ram ; and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram. And thou shalt slay the ram, and thou shalt take its blood, and sprinkle it round about upon the altar. And thou shalt cut the ram in pieces, and wash the inward parts of it, and its legs, and put them unto its pieces, and upon its head. And thou shalt burn the whole ram upon the altar : it is a burnt offering unto the LORD : it is a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the LORD.
- 19 And thou shalt take the other ram ; and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram. Then shalt thou kill the ram, and take of its blood, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of Aaron, and upon the tip of the right ear of his sons, and upon the thumb of their right hand, and upon the great toe of their right foot, and sprinkle the blood upon the altar round about. And thou shalt take of the blood that is upon the altar, and of the anointing oil, and sprinkle it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon the garments of his sons with him: and he shall be hallowed, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him. Also thou shalt take of the ram the fat and the rump, 22 and the fat that covereth the inward parts, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and the right shoulder; for it is a ram of consecration: and one loaf of bread, and one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer out 23 of the basket of the unleavened bread that is before the LORD: and thou shalt put all in the hands of Aaron, and in the hands of his sons; and shalt wave them for a wave offering before the LORD. And thou shalt receive them of their hands, and 25 burn them upon the altar for a burnt offering, for a sweet savour before the LORD: it is an offering made by fire unto the LORD. And thou shalt take the breast of 26 the ram of Aaron's consecration, and wave it for a wave offering before the LORD: and it shall be thy part. And thou shalt sanctify the breast of the wave offering, 27 and the shoulder of the heave offering, which is waved, and which is heaved up, of the ram of the consecration, even of that which is for Aaron, and of that which is for his sons: and it shall be Aaron's and his sons' by a statute for ever from 28 the children of Israel: for it is a heave offering: and it shall be a heave offering from the children of Israel of the sacrifice of their peace offerings, even their heave offering unto the LORD.

And the holy garments of Aaron shall be his sons' after him, to be anointed there- 29 in, and to be consecrated in them. And the son that is priest in his stead shall put them on seven days, when he cometh into the tabernacle of the congregation to minister in the holy place. And thou shalt take the ram of the consecration, and seeth 31 its flesh in the holy place. And Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram, and the bread that is in the basket, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. And they shall eat those things wherewith the atonement was made, to consecrate and 33 to sanctify them: but a stranger shall not eat thereof, because they are holy. And if aught of the flesh of the consecrations, or of the bread, remain unto the morning, then thou shalt burn the remainder with fire: it shall not be eaten, because it is holy.

And thus shalt thou do unto Aaron, and to his sons, according to all things which 35 I have commanded thee: seven days shalt thou consecrate them. And thou shalt offer every day a bullock as a sin offering for atonement; and thou shalt cleanse the altar, when thou hast made an atonement on it, and thou shalt anoint it, to sanctify it. Seven days thou shalt make an atonement on the altar, and sanctify it; and it 37 shall be an altar most holy: whatsoever toucheth the altar shall be holy.

Now this is that which thou shalt offer upon the altar; two lambs of the first year, 38 day by day, continually. The one lamb thou shalt offer in the morning; and the other lamb thou shalt offer at evening: and with the one lamb a tenth part of flour 40 mingled with the fourth part of beaten oil; and the fourth part of wine for a drink offering. And the other lamb thou shalt offer at evening, and shalt do thereto according to the thank offering of the morning, and according to the drink offering thereof, for a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the LORD. This shall be a continual burnt offering throughout your generations at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD; where I will meet you, to speak there unto thee. And there I will meet with the children of Israel, and the tabernacle shall be sanctified by my glory. And I will sanctify the tabernacle of the congregation, and the 44 altar: I will sanctify also both Aaron and his sons, to minister to me in the priest's office. And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will be their God. And 45-46 they shall know that I am the LORD their God, who brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, that I may dwell among them: I am the LORD their God.

And thou shalt make an altar to burn incense upon; of shittim wood shalt thou make it. A cubit shall be the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof; four-square shall it be; and two cubits shall be the height thereof: the horns thereof shall be of the same. And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, the roof thereof, and the 3 sides thereof round about, and the horns thereof; and thou shalt make unto it a crown of gold round about. And two golden rings shalt thou make to it under the 4 crown of it, by the two corners thereof, upon the two sides of it shalt thou make it; and they shall be for places for the staves to bear it with. And thou shalt make the 5 staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold. And thou shalt put it before the vail that is by the ark of the testimony, before the mercy seat that is over the testimony, where I will meet with thee. And Aaron shall burn thereon incense of 7 sweet spices every morning: when he dresseth the lamps, he shall burn incense upon it. And when Aaron lighteth the lamps at evening, he shall burn incense upon it, 8 a perpetual incense before the LORD throughout your generations. Ye shall offer no strange incense thereon, nor burnt sacrifice, nor thank offering; neither shall ye 9

- 10 pour drink offering thereon. And Aaron shall make an atonement upon the horns of it once in a year with the blood of the sin offering of atonements: once in the year shall he make atonement upon it throughout your generations: it is most holy unto the LORD.
- 11 12 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, When thou takest the sum of the children of Israel after their number, then shall they give every man a ransom for his soul unto the LORD, when thou numberest them; that there be no plague among them, when thou numberest them. This they shall give, every one who passeth among them who is numbered, half a shekel after the shekel of the sanctuary: a 14 half shekel shall be the offering of the LORD. Every one who passeth among them who is numbered, from twenty years old and above, shall give an offering unto the 15 LORD. The rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less than half a shekel, when they give an offering unto the LORD, to make an atonement for your 16 souls. And thou shalt take the atonement money of the children of Israel, and shalt appoint it for the service of the tabernacle of the congregation; that it may be a memorial unto the children of Israel before the LORD, to make an atonement for your souls.
- 17 18 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Thou shalt also make a laver of brass, and its cover also of brass, to wash in: and thou shalt put it between the tabernacle 19 of the congregation and the altar, and thou shalt put water therein: for Aaron and 20 his sons shall wash their hands and their feet thereat: when they go into the tabernacle of the congregation, they shall wash with water, that they die not; or when they come near to the altar to minister, to burn offering made by fire unto the 21 LORD: so they shall wash their hands and their feet, that they die not: and it shall be a statute for ever to them, even to him and to his seed throughout their generations.
- 22 23 Moreover the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Take thou also unto thee principal spices, of pure myrrh five hundred shekels, and of sweet cinnamon fifty so much, even 24 two hundred and fifty shekels, and of sweet cane two hundred and fifty shekels, and of cassia five hundred shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, and of olive oil a 25 hin: and thou shalt make it an oil of holy ointment, an ointment compound after 26 the art of the perfumer: it shall be a holy anointing oil. And thou shalt anoint the tabernacle of the congregation therewith, and the ark of the testimony, and the table 27 and all its vessels, and the lampholder and its vessels, and the altar of incense, and 28 the altar of burnt offering with all its vessels, and the laver and its cover. And thou shalt sanctify them, that they may be most holy: whatsoever toucheth them shall be 30 holy. And thou shalt anoint Aaron and his sons, and consecrate them, that they 31 may minister unto me in the priest's office. And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, This shall be a holy anointing oil unto me throughout your genera- 32 tions. Upon man's flesh shall it not be poured, neither shall ye make any other 33 like it, after the composition of it: it is holy, and it shall be holy unto you. Who- soever compoundeth any like it, or whosoever putteth any of it upon a stranger, shall even be cut off from his people.
- 34 And the LORD said unto Moses, Take unto thee sweet spices, stacte, and onycha, and galbanum; these sweet spices with pure frankincense: of each shall there be a 35 like weight: and thou shalt make it a perfume, a compound after the art of the per- 36 fumer, tempered together, pure and holy: and thou shalt beat some of it very small, and put of it before the testimony in the tabernacle of the congregation, where I will 37 meet with thee: it shall be unto you most holy. And as for the perfume which thou shalt make, ye shall not make to yourselves according to the composition thereof: it 38 shall be unto thee holy for the LORD. Whosoever shall make like unto that, to smell thereto, shall even be cut off from his people.
- 31 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, See, I have called by name Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah; and I have filled him with the spirit of God, in wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all man- 4 ner of workmanship, to devise skillful works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in 5 brass, and in cutting of stones, to set them, and in carving of timber, to work in all 6 manner of workmanship. And I, behold, I have joined with him Aholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan: and in the hearts of all who are wise hearted I 7 have put wisdom, that they may make all that I have commanded thee; the tabernacle of the congregation, and the ark of the testimony, and the mercy seat that is 8 thereupon, and all the vessels of the tabernacle, and the table and its furniture, and 9 the lampholder of pure gold with all its vessels, and the altar of incense, and the 10 altar of burnt offering with all its vessels, and the laver and its cover, and the cloths of covering, and the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the priest's office, and the anointing oil, and sweet incense for the 11 holy place: according to all that I have commanded thee shall they do.

And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Speak thou also unto the children of 12 13 Israel, saying, Verily my sabbaths ye shall keep; for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations; that ye may know that I am the LORD who doth sanctify you. Ye shall keep the sabbath therefore; for it is holy unto you: every one 14 who profaneth it shall surely be put to death: for whosoever doeth any work thereon, that soul shall be cut off from among his people. Six days may work be done; 15 but on the seventh is the sabbath of rest, holy to the LORD: whosoever doeth any work on the sabbath day, he shall surely be put to death. Wherefore the children 16 of Israel shall keep the sabbath, to observe the sabbath throughout their generations, for a perpetual covenant. It is a sign between me and the children of Israel for ever; 17 for in six days the LORD made the heavens and earth, and on the seventh day he ceased, and was refreshed.

And he gave unto Moses, when he had made an end of communing with him upon 18 mount Sinai, two tables of testimony, tables of stone, written with the finger of God.

And when the people saw that Moses delayed to come down out of the mount, 32 the people gathered themselves together against Aaron, and said unto him, Up, make us gods, which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we know not what is become of him. And Aaron said 2 unto them, Break off the golden earrings, which are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring them unto me. And all the people broke off 3 the golden earrings which were in their ears, and brought them unto Aaron. And 4 he received them at their hand, and fashioned them with a graving tool, after he had made of them a molten calf: and they said, This is thy god, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt. And when Aaron saw it, he built an altar before 5 it; and Aaron made proclamation, and said, To-morrow is a feast to the LORD. And they rose up early on the morrow, and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace 6 offerings; and the people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play.

And the LORD said unto Moses, Go, get thee down; for thy people, whom thou 7 broughtest out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves: they have turned 8 aside quickly out of the way which I commanded them: they have made them a molten calf, and have worshipped it, and have sacrificed thereunto, and said, This is thy god, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt. And the LORD 9 said unto Moses, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiffnecked people: now, 10 therefore, let me alone, that my wrath may wax hot against them, and that I may consume them; and I will make of thee a great nation.

And Moses besought the LORD his God, and said, LORD, why doth thy wrath 11 wax hot against thy people, whom thou hast brought forth out of the land of Egypt, with great power, and with a mighty hand? Wherefore should the Egyptians speak, 12 and say, For mischief did he bring them out, to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth? Turn from thy fierce wrath, and relent of this evil against thy people. Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, thy servants, 13 to whom thou swarest by thine own self, and saidst unto them, I will multiply your seed as the stars of the heavens, and all this land that I have spoken of will I give unto your seed, and they shall inherit it for ever. And the LORD relented of the 14 evil which he thought to do unto his people.

And Moses turned, and went down from the mount, and the two tables of the 15 testimony were in his hand: the tables were written on both their sides; on the one side and on the other were they written. And the tables were the work of God, and 16 the writing was the writing of God, graven upon the tables. And when Joshua heard 17 the noise of the people as they shouted, he said unto Moses, There is a noise of war in the camp. And he said, It is not the voice of those who shout for mastery, neither 18 is it the voice of those who cry for being overcome: but the noise of those who sing nirthful songs do I hear. And as soon as he came nigh unto the camp, he saw the 19 calf, and the dancing: and Moses' anger waxed hot, and he cast the tables out of his hands, and broke them beneath the mount. And he took the calf which they had 20 made, and burnt it in the fire, and ground it to powder, and strewed it upon the water, and made the children of Israel drink of it.

And Moses said unto Aaron, What did this people unto thee, that thou hast 21 brought so great a sin upon them? And Aaron said, Let not the anger of my lord 22 wax hot: thou knowest the people, that they are set on mischief. For they said 23 unto me, Make us gods, which shall go before us: for as for this Moses, the man who

- 24 brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we know not what is become of him. And I said unto them, Whosoever have any golden ornaments, let them break them off. So they gave them me: then I cast them into the fire, and there came out this calf.
- 25 And when Moses saw that the people were without their ornaments, (for Aaron had stript them of their ornaments unto their shame among their enemies,) then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, Who is on the LORD'S side? let him come unto me. And all the sons of Levi gathered themselves together unto him.
- 27 And he said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Put every man his sword by his side, and go in and out from gate to gate throughout the camp, and slay every man his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbor.
- 28 And the children of Levi did according to the word of Moses: and there fell of the people that day about three thousand men. For Moses had said, Consecrate yourselves to-day to the LORD, because every man hath been against his son, and against his brother; that he may bestow upon you a blessing this day.
- 30 And on the morrow, Moses said unto the people, Ye have sinned a great sin; and now I will go up unto the LORD; peradventure I shall make an atonement for your sin.
- 31 And Moses returned unto the LORD, and said, Oh! this people have sinned a great sin, and have made them a god of gold. Yet now, if thou wilt forgive their sin, forgive it; and if not, blot me, I pray thee, out of thy book which thou hast written. And the LORD said unto Moses, Whosoever hath sinned against me, him will I blot out of my book. Therefore now go, lead the people unto the place of which I have spoken unto thee: behold, mine Angel shall go before thee: nevertheless in the day when I visit I will visit their sin upon them. And the LORD plagued the people, because they made the calf, which Aaron made.
- 33 And the LORD said unto Moses, Depart, and go up hence, thou and the people whom thou hast brought up out of the land of Egypt, unto the land which I swore unto Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, Unto thy seed will I give it: and I will send an angel before thee; and I will drive out the Canaanite, the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite; unto a land flowing with milk and honey: for I will not go up in the midst of thee, for thou art a stiffnecked people; lest I consume thee in the way.
- 4 And when the people heard these evil tidings, they mourned; and no man did put on his ornaments. For the LORD had said unto Moses, Say unto the children of Israel, Ye are a stiffnecked people; if I should come up into the midst of thee one moment, I should consume thee: therefore now put off thine ornaments from thee, and I shall know what to do unto thee. And the children of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments by the mount Horeb.
- 7 And Moses took the tabernacle, and pitched it without the camp, afar off from the camp, and called it the Tabernacle of the congregation. And every one who sought the LORD went out unto the tabernacle of the congregation, which was without the camp. And when Moses went out unto the tabernacle, all the people rose up, and stood every man at his tent door, and looked after Moses, until he was gone into the tabernacle.
- 9 And as Moses entered into the tabernacle, the cloudy pillar descended, and stood at the door of the tabernacle, and the LORD talked with Moses. And all the people saw the cloudy pillar stand at the tabernacle door: and all the people rose up and worshipped, every man in his tent door. And the LORD spoke unto Moses familiarly, as a man speaketh unto his friend. And he turned again into the camp; but his servant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, departed not out of the tabernacle.
- 12 And Moses said unto the LORD, See, thou sayest unto me, Bring up this people; and thou hast not let me know whom thou wilt send with me. Yet thou hast said, I know thee by name, and thou hast also found grace in my sight. Now therefore, I pray thee, if I have found grace in thy sight, show me now thy way, that I may know thee, that I may find grace in thy sight; and consider that this nation is thy people.
- 14 15 And he said, My presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest. And he said unto him, If thy presence go not with me, carry us not up hence. For wherein shall it be known here that I and thy people have found grace in thy sight? is it not in that thou goest with us? so shall we be separated, I and thy people, from all the people who are upon the face of the earth.
- 17 And the LORD said unto Moses, I will do this thing also that thou hast spoken; for thou hast found grace in my sight, and I know thee by name. And he said, I beseech thee, show me thy glory. And he said, I will make all my goodness pass before thee, and I will proclaim the name of the LORD before thee; and will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show mercy on whom I will show mercy. And he said, Thou canst not see my face; for there shall no man see me, and live. And the LORD said, Behold, there is a place by me, and thou shalt stand upon a rock: and while my glory passeth by, I will put thee in a cleft of the rock, and will cover thee with my hand while I pass by: and I will take away my hand, and thou shalt see my back parts; but my face shall not be seen.

And the LORD said unto Moses, Hew thee two tables of stone like unto the first; and I will write upon these tables the words that were in the first tables, which thou brakest. And be ready in the morning, and come up in the morning unto mount Sinai, and await me in the top of the mount. And no man shall come up with thee, neither let any man be seen throughout all the mount; neither let the flocks nor herds feed before that mount.

And he hewed two tables of stone like unto the first; and Moses rose up early in the morning, and went up unto mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him, and took in his hand the two tables of stone. And the LORD descended in the cloud, and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of the LORD. And the LORD passed by before him, and proclaimed, The LORD, The LORD, a God merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abundant in goodness and truth, keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity, transgression, and sin, but will by no means clear the impenitent; visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children's children, unto the third and to the fourth generation. And Moses made haste, and bowed his head towards the earth, and worshipped. And he said, If now I have found grace in thy sight, O LORD, let my Lord, I pray thee, go among us; for although it is a stiffnecked people, yet pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for thine inheritance.

And he said, Behold, I make a covenant: before all thy people I will do marvels, such as have not been done in all the earth, nor in any nation: and all the people among whom thou art shall see the work of the LORD; for it is a terrible thing that I will do with thee. Observe thou that which I command thee this day: behold, I drive out before thee the Amorite, and the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite. Take heed to thyself, lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land whither thou goest, lest it be for a snare in the midst of thee: but ye shall destroy their altars, break their images, and cut down their groves: for thou shalt worship no other god: for the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God: lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and worship their idols, and do sacrifice unto their gods, and one call thee, and thou eat of his sacrifice; and thou take of their daughters unto thy sons, and their daughters worship their idols, and make thy sons worship their gods. Thou shalt make thee no molten gods.

The feast of unleavened bread shalt thou keep. Seven days thou shalt eat unleavened bread, as I commanded thee, in the time of the month Abib; for in the month Abib thou camest out from Egypt. All that open the womb are mine; and every firstling among thy cattle, whether ox or sheep, that is male. But the firstling of an ass thou shalt redeem with a lamb; and if thou redeem it not, then shalt thou break its neck. All the firstborn of thy sons thou shalt redeem. And none shall appear before me empty.

Six days thou shalt work, but on the seventh day thou shalt rest: in ploughing time and in harvest thou shalt rest.

And thou shalt observe the feast of weeks, of the firstfruits of wheat harvest, and the feast of ingathering at the year's end.

Thrice in the year shall all your men-children appear before the LORD God, the God of Israel. For I will cast out the nations before thee, and enlarge thy borders; neither shall any man desire thy land, when thou shalt go up to appear before the LORD thy God thrice in the year.

Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leaven; neither shall the sacrifice of the feast of the passover be left unto the morning. The first of the firstfruits of thy land thou shalt bring unto the house of the LORD thy God. Thou shalt not seeth a kid in its mother's milk.

And the LORD said unto Moses, Write thou these words; for after the tenor of these words I have made a covenant with thee and with Israel. And he was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights; he did neither eat bread, nor drink water. And he wrote upon the tables the words of the covenant,—the ten commandments.

And when Moses came down from mount Sinai with the two tables of testimony in his hand, when he came down from the mount, Moses knew not that the skin of his face shone while he talked with him. And when Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone; and they were afraid to come nigh him. And Moses called unto them; and Aaron and all the rulers of the congregation returned unto him; and Moses talked with them. And afterwards all the children of Israel came nigh; and he gave them in commandment all that the LORD had spoken with him in mount Sinai. And when Moses had done speaking with them, he put a vail on his face. But when Moses went in before the LORD to speak with him, he took the vail off, until he came out. And he came out, and spoke unto the children of Israel that which he was commanded. And the children of Israel saw the face of Moses, that the skin of his face shone: and Moses put the vail upon his face again, until he went in to speak with him.

35 And Moses gathered all the congregation of the children of Israel together, and said unto them, These are the words which the LORD hath commanded, that ye should do them. Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day there shall be to you a holy day, a sabbath of rest to the LORD: whosoever doeth work thereon shall be put to death. Ye shall kindle no fire throughout your habitations upon the sabbath day.

And Moses spoke unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the LORD commanded, saying, Take ye from among you an offering unto the LORD: whosoever is of a willing heart, let him bring it, an offering of the LORD; gold, and silver, and brass, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair, and rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' skins, and shittim wood, and oil for the light, and spices for anointing oil, and for the sweet incense, and onyx stones, and stones to be set for the ephod, and for the breastplate. And every wise hearted among you shall come, and make all that the LORD hath commanded; the tabernacle, its tent, and its covering, its clasps, and its boards, its bars, its pillars, and its sockets, the ark, and the staves thereof, with the mercy seat, and the vail of the covering, the table, and its staves, and all its vessels, and the showbread, the lampholder also for the light, and its vessels, and its lamps, with the oil for the light, and the incense altar, and its staves, and the anointing oil, and the sweet incense, and the hanging for the door at the entering in of the tabernacle, the altar of burnt offering, with its brazen grate, its staves, and all its vessels, the laver and its cover, the hangings of the court, its pillars, and their sockets, and the hanging for the door of the court, the pins of the tabernacle, and the pins of the court, and their cords, the cloths of service, to do service in the holy place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the priest's office.

And all the congregation of the children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses. And they came, every one whose heart stirred him up, and every one whom his spirit made willing, and they brought the LORD'S offering to the work of the tabernacle of the congregation, and for all its service, and for the holy garments. And they came, both men and women, as many as were willing hearted, and brought bracelets, and earrings, and rings, and girdles, and all sorts of jewels of gold: and every man who offered offered an offering of gold unto the LORD. And every man, with whom was found blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair, and red skins of rams, and badgers' skins, brought them. Every one who did offer an offering of silver and brass brought the LORD'S offering: and every man, with whom was found shittim wood for any work of the service, brought it. And all the women who were wise hearted did spin with their hands, and brought that which they had spun, both of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, and of fine linen. And all the women whose heart stirred them up in wisdom spun goats' hair. And the rulers brought onyx stones, and stones to be set, for the ephod, and for the breastplate; and spice, and oil for the light, and for the anointing oil, and for the sweet incense. The children of Israel brought a willing offering unto the LORD, every man and woman, whose heart made them willing to bring for all manner of work, which the LORD had commanded to be made by the hand of Moses.

And Moses said unto the children of Israel, See, the LORD hath called by name Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah; and he hath filled him with the spirit of God, in wisdom, in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship; and to devise curious works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in the cutting of stones, to set them, and in carving of wood, to make any manner of curious work. And he hath put in his heart that he may teach, both he, and Aholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan. Them hath he filled with wisdom of heart, to work all manner of work, of the engraver, and of the skilful workman, and of the embroiderer, in blue, and in purple, in scarlet, and in fine linen, and of the weaver, even of those who do any work, and of those who devise curious work.

Then wrought Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every wise hearted man, in whom the LORD put wisdom and understanding to know how to work all manner of work for the service of the sanctuary, according to all that the LORD had commanded. And 2 Moses called Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every wise hearted man, in whose heart the LORD had put wisdom, even every one whose heart stirred him up to come unto the work to do it: and they received of Moses all the offering, which the children of 3 Israel had brought for the work of the service of the sanctuary, to make it with. And they brought yet unto him free offerings every morning.

And all the wise men, who wrought all the work of the sanctuary, came every man 4 from his work which they made; and they spoke unto Moses, saying, The people 5 bring much more than enough for the service of the work, which the LORD commanded to make. And Moses gave commandment, and they caused to be proclaimed throughout the camp, saying, Let neither man nor woman make any more work for the offering of the sanctuary. So the people were restrained from bringing. For the stuff they had was sufficient for all the work to make it, and too much. 7

And every wise hearted man among those who wrought the work of the tabernacle 8 made ten curtains of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet; with cherubims of skilful work made he them. The length of one curtain was twenty and 9 eight cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: the curtains were all of one size. And he coupled the five curtains one unto another: and the other five 10 curtains he coupled one unto another. And he made loops of blue on the edge of 11 one curtain from the selvage in the coupling: likewise he made in the uttermost side of another curtain, in the coupling of the second. Fifty loops made he in one curtain, 12 and fifty loops made he in the edge of the curtain which was in the coupling of the second: the loops held one curtain to another. And he made fifty clasps of 13 gold, and coupled the curtains one unto another with the clasps: so it became one tabernacle.

And he made curtains of goats' hair for the tent over the tabernacle: eleven curtains he made them. The length of one curtain was thirty cubits, and four cubits 15 was the breadth of one curtain: the eleven curtains were of one size. And he coupled 16 five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves. And he made fifty 17 loops upon the uttermost edge of the curtain in the coupling, and fifty loops made he upon the edge of the curtain which coupleth the second. And he made fifty clasps 18 of brass to couple the tent together, that it might be one.

And he made a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering of 19 badgers' skins above that.

And he made boards for the tabernacle of shittim wood, standing up. The length 20 21 of a board was ten cubits, and the breadth of a board one cubit and a half. One board 22 had two tenons, equally distant one from another: thus did he make for all the boards of the tabernacle. And he made boards for the tabernacle; twenty boards 23 for the south side southward: and forty sockets of silver he made under the twenty 24 boards; two sockets under one board for its two tenons, and two sockets under another board for its two tenons. And for the other side of the tabernacle, which is 25 towards the north corner, he made twenty boards, and their forty sockets of silver; 26 two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board. And for the 27 sides of the tabernacle westward he made six boards. And two boards made he for 28 the corners of the tabernacle in the two sides. And they were coupled beneath, 29 and coupled together at the head thereof, to one ring: thus he did to both of them in both the corners. And there were eight boards; and their sockets were sixteen 30 sockets of silver, under every board two sockets.

And he made bars of shittim wood; five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars 31 for the boards of the tabernacle for the sides westward. And he made the middle 32 bar to shoot through the boards from the one end to the other. And he overlaid the 33 boards with gold, and made their rings of gold to be places for the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold. 34

And he made a vail of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen: with 35 cherubims made he it of curious work. And he made thereunto four pillars of shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold: their hooks were of gold; and he cast for 36 them four sockets of silver.

And he made a hanging for the tabernacle door of blue, and purple, and scarlet, 37

38 and fine twined linen, of needlework; and the five pillars of it with their hooks; and he overlaid their capitals and their fillets with gold; but their five sockets were of brass.

37 And Bezaleel made the ark of shittim wood: two cubits and a half was the length of it, and a cubit and a half the breadth of it, and a cubit and a half the height of it: 2 and he overlaid it with pure gold within and without, and made a crown of gold to 3 it round about. And he cast for it four rings of gold, to be set by the four corners of it; even two rings upon the one side of it, and two rings upon the other side of it. 4 And he made staves of shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold. And he put the staves into the rings by the sides of the ark, to bear the ark.

6 And he made the mercy seat of pure gold: two cubits and a half was the length thereof, and one cubit and a half the breadth thereof. And he made two cherubims of gold, beaten out of one piece made he them, on the two ends of the mercy seat; 8 one cherub on the end on this side, and another cherub on the other end on that side: out of the mercy seat made he the cherubims on the two ends thereof. And the cherubims spread out their wings on high, and covered with their wings over the mercy seat, with their faces one to another; even towards the mercy seatward were the faces of the cherubims.

10 And he made the table of shittim wood: two cubits was the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof: and he overlaid it with pure gold, and made thereunto a crown of gold round about. Also he made thereunto a border of a handbreadth round about; and made a crown of gold for 13 the border thereof round about. And he cast for it four rings of gold, and put the 14 rings upon the four corners that were in the four feet thereof. Over against the 15 border were the rings, the places for the staves to bear the table. And he made the 16 staves of shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold, to bear the table. And he made the vessels which were upon the table, its dishes, and its spoons, and its bowls, and its covers to cover with, of pure gold.

17 And he made the lampholder of pure gold: of beaten work made he the lampholder; and its branch, its bowls, its knobs, and its flowers, were of the same: 18 and six branches going out of the sides thereof; three branches of the lampholder 19 out of the one side thereof, and three branches out of the other side thereof: three bowls made after the fashion of almonds in one branch, a knob and a flower; and three bowls made like almonds in another branch, a knob and a flower: so throughout the six branches going out of the lampholder. And in the lampholder were 21 four bowls made like almonds, its knobs, and its flowers: and a knob under two branches of the same, and a knob under two branches of the same, and a knob under 22 two branches of the same, according to the six branches going out of it. Their knobs and their branches were of the same: all of it was one beaten work of pure gold.

23 And he made its seven lamps, and its snuffers, and its snuffdishes, of pure gold. Of a talent of pure gold made he it, and all the vessels thereof.

25 And he made the incense altar of shittim wood: the length of it was a cubit, and the breadth of it a cubit; it was foursquare; and two cubits was the height of it; 26 the horns thereof were of the same. And he overlaid it with pure gold, both the top of it, and the sides thereof round about, and the horns of it: also he made unto 27 it a crown of gold round about. And he made two rings of gold for it under the crown thereof, by the two corners of it, upon the two sides thereof, to be places for 28 the staves to bear it with. And he made the staves of shittim wood, and overlaid 29 them with gold. And he made the holy anointing oil, and the pure incense of sweet spices, according to the work of the confectioner.

38 And he made the altar of burnt offering of shittim wood: five cubits was the length thereof, and five cubits the breadth thereof; it was foursquare; and three cubits the 2 height thereof. And he made the horns thereof on the four corners of it; the horns 3 thereof were of the same: and he overlaid it with brass. And he made all the vessels of the altar, the pots, and the shovels, and the basins, and the fleshhooks, and the fire- 4 pans: all the vessels thereof made he of brass. And he made for the altar a brazen 5 grate of network under the compass thereof beneath unto the midst of it. And he cast 6 four rings for the four ends of the grate of brass, to be places for the staves. And 7 he made the staves of shittim wood, and overlaid them with brass. And he put the staves into the rings on the sides of the altar, to bear it with; he made the altar hollow with boards.

8 And he made the laver of brass, and the cover of it of brass, of the brazen mirrors of the women assembling, who assembled at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

And he made the court: on the south side southward the hangings of the court 9 were of fine twined linen, a hundred cubits: their pillars were twenty, and their 10 brazen sockets twenty; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets were of silver. And 11 for the north side the hangings were a hundred cubits, their pillars were twenty, and their sockets of brass twenty: the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver. 12
And for the west side were hangings of fifty cubits, their pillars ten, and their sockets ten; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver. And for the east 13 side eastward fifty cubits. The hangings of the one side of the gate were fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three. And for the other side of the 15 court gate, on this hand and that hand, were hangings of fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three. All the hangings of the court round about were of 16 fine twined linen. And the sockets for the pillars were of brass; the hooks of the 17 pillars and their fillets of silver; and the overlaying of their capitals of silver; and all the pillars of the court were filleted with silver. And the hanging for the gate 18 of the court was needlework, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen:
and twenty cubits was the length, and the height in the breadth was five cubits, answerable to the hangings of the court. And their pillars were four, and their 19 sockets of brass four; their hooks of silver, and the overlaying of their capitals and their fillets of silver. And all the pins of the tabernacle, and of the court round 20 about, were of brass.

This is the sum of the tabernacle, even of the tabernacle of testimony, as it was 21 counted, according to the commandment of Moses, for the service of the Levites, by the hand of Ithamar, son to Aaron the priest. And Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son 22 of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made all that the LORD commanded Moses. And with 23 him was Aholiab, son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver, and a skilful workman, and an embroiderer in blue, and in purple, and in scarlet, and fine linen.

All the gold that was occupied for the work in all the work of the holy place, even 24 the gold of the offering, was twenty and nine talents, and seven hundred and thirty shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary.

And the silver of those who were numbered of the congregation was a hundred 25 talents, and a thousand seven hundred and threescore and fifteen shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary: a bekah for every man, that is, half a shekel, after the 26 shekel of the sanctuary, for every one who went to be numbered, from twenty years old and upwards, for six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty men. And of the hundred talents of silver were cast the sockets of the sanctuary, 27 and the sockets of the vail; a hundred sockets of the hundred talents, a talent for a socket. And of the thousand seven hundred seventy and five shekels he made hooks 28 for the pillars, and overlaid their capitals, and filleted them.

And the brass of the offering was seventy talents, and two thousand and four hun- 29 dred shekels. And therewith he made the sockets to the door of the tabernacle of 30 the congregation, and the brazen altar, and the brazen grate for it, and all the vessels of the altar, and the sockets of the court round about, and the sockets of the 31 court gate, and all the pins of the tabernacle, and all the pins of the court round about.

And of the blue, and purple, and scarlet, they made cloths of service, to do service 39 in the holy place, and made the holy garments for Aaron; as the LORD commanded Moses.

And he made the ephod of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined 2 linen. And they did beat the gold into thin plates, and cut it into wires, to work it 3 in the blue, and in the purple, and in the scarlet, and in the fine linen, with skilful work. They made shoulderpieces for it, to couple it together: by the two edges was 4 it coupled together. And the curious girdle of his ephod, that was upon it, was of 5 the same, according to the work thereof; of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen; as the LORD commanded Moses.

And they wrought onyx stones enclosed in studs of gold, graven, as signets are 6 graven, with the names of the children of Israel. And he put them on the shoulders 7 of the ephod, that they should be stones for a memorial to the children of Israel; as the LORD commanded Moses.

And he made the breastplate of skilful work, like the work of the ephod; of gold, 8 blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen. It was foursquare; they made 9 the breastplate double: a span was the length thereof, and a span the breadth thereof. And they set in it four rows of stones; the first row was a ruby, a topaz, and a 10 carbuncle: this was the first row. And the second row, an emerald, a sapphire, and 11 a diamond. And the third row, a figure, an agate, and an amethyst. And the fourth 12 13 row, a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper: they were enclosed in studs of gold in their

- 14 enclosings. And the stones were according to the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names, like the engravings of a signet, every one with his 15 name, according to the twelve tribes. And they made upon the breastplate chains 16 at the ends, of wreathen work of pure gold. And they made two studs of gold, 17 and two gold rings; and put the two rings in the two ends of the breastplate. And they put the two wreathen chains of gold in the two rings on the ends of the breast-18 plate. And the two ends of the two wreathen chains they fastened in the two studs, 19 and put them on the shoulderpieces of the ephod, before it. And they made two rings of gold, and put them on the two ends of the breastplate, upon the border of it, 20 which was on the side of the ephod inward. And they made two other golden rings, and put them on the two sides of the ephod underneath, towards the fore part of it, 21 over against the other coupling thereof, above the curious girdle of the ephod. And they did bind the breastplate by its rings unto the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it might be above the curious girdle of the ephod, and that the breastplate might not be loosed from the ephod; as the LORD commanded Moses.
- 22 23 And he made the robe of the ephod of woven work, all of blue. And there was a hole in the midst of the robe, as the hole of a coat of mail, with a band round about 24 the hole, that it should not rend. And they made upon the hems of the robe pome-25 granates of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and twined linen. And they made bells of pure gold, and put the bells between the pomegranates upon the hem of the robe, 26 round about between the pomegranates; a bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate, round about the hem of the robe to minister in; as the LORD commanded Moses.
- 27 28 And they made coats of fine linen of woven work for Aaron, and for his sons, and a mitre of fine linen, and goodly bonnets of fine linen, and linen breeches of fine 29 twined linen, and a girdle of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, of needlework; as the LORD commanded Moses.
- 30 And they made the plate of the holy crown of pure gold, and wrote upon it a 31 writing, like to the engravings of a signet, HOLINESS TO THE LORD. And they tied unto it a lace of blue, to fasten it on high upon the mitre; as the LORD com-32 manded Moses. Thus was all the work of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation finished: and the children of Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did they.
- 33 And they brought the tabernacle unto Moses, the tent, and all its furniture, its 34 clasps, its boards, its bars, and its pillars, and its sockets, and the covering of rams' 35 skins dyed red, and the covering of badgers' skins, and the veil of the covering, the 36 ark of the testimony, and the staves thereof, and the mercy seat, the table, and all 37 the vessels thereof, and the showbread, the lampholder of pure gold, with the lamps thereof, even with the lamps to be set in order, and all the vessels thereof, and the 38 oil for light, and the golden altar, and the anointing oil, and the incense of sweet 39 spices, and the hanging for the tabernacle door, the brazen altar, and its grate of 40 brass, its staves, and all its vessels, the laver and its cover, the hangings of the court, its pillars, and its sockets, and the hanging for the court gate, its cords, and its pins, and all the vessels of the service of the tabernacle, for the tent of the congregation, 41 the cloths of service to do service in the holy place, and the holy garments for Aaron 42 the priest, and his sons' garments, to minister in the priest's office. According to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel made all the work.
- 43 And Moses did look upon all the work, and, behold, they had done it as the LORD had commanded, even so had they done it: and Moses blessed them.
- 40 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, On the first day of the first month shalt thou set up the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation. And thou shalt put 4 therein the ark of the testimony, and cover the ark with the veil. And thou shalt bring in the table, and set in order the things that are to be set in order upon it; 5 and thou shalt bring in the lampholder, and light the lamps thereof. And thou shalt set the altar of gold for the incense before the ark of the testimony, and put the 6 hanging of the door to the tabernacle. And thou shalt set the altar of the burnt 7 offering before the door of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation. And thou shalt set the laver between the tent of the congregation and the altar, and shalt put 8 water therein. And thou shalt set up the court round about, and hang up the hang-9 ing at the court gate. And thou shalt take the anointing oil, and anoint the tabernacle, and all that is therein, and shalt hallow it, and all the vessels thereof: and it 10 shall be holy. And thou shalt anoint the altar of the burnt offering, and all its ves-11 sels, and sanctify the altar: and it shall be an altar most holy. And thou shalt 12 anoint the laver and its cover, and sanctify it. And thou shalt bring Aaron and his sons unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and wash them with water. And thou shalt put upon Aaron the holy garments, and anoint him, and sanctify him; that he may minister unto me in the priest's office. And thou shalt bring his sons, and clothe them with coats: and thou shalt anoint them, as thou didst anoint their father, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office; for their anointing shall surely be an everlasting priesthood throughout their generations.

Thus did Moses: according to all that the LORD commanded him, so did he. And in the first month in the second year after they were come out of Egypt, on the first day of the month, the tabernacle was reared up. And Moses reared up the tabernacle, and fastened its sockets, and set up the boards thereof, and put in the bars thereof, and reared up its pillars. And he spread abroad the tent over the tabernacle, and put the covering of the tent above upon it; as the LORD commanded Moses.

And he took and put the testimony into the ark, and set the staves on the ark, and put the mercy seat above upon the ark: and he brought the ark into the tabernacle, and set up the vail of the covering, and covered the ark of the testimony; as the LORD commanded him.

And he put the table in the tent of the congregation, upon the side of the tabernacle northward, without the vail. And he set the bread in order upon it before the LORD; as the LORD had commanded him.

And he put the lampholder in the tent of the congregation, over against the table, on the side of the tabernacle southward. And he lighted the lamps before the LORD, as the LORD commanded him.

And he put the golden altar in the tent of the congregation before the vail: and he burnt sweet incense thereon; as the LORD commanded him.

And he set up the hanging at the door of the tabernacle. And he put the altar of burnt offering by the door of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation, and offered upon it the burnt offering and the thank offering; as the LORD commanded him.

And he set the laver between the tent of the congregation and the altar, and put water there, to wash with. And Moses and Aaron and his sons washed their hands and their feet thereat: when they went into the tent of the congregation, and when they came near unto the altar, they washed; as the LORD commanded Moses.

And he reared up the court round about the tabernacle and the altar, and set up the hanging of the court gate. So Moses finished the work.

Then a cloud covered the tent of the congregation, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle. And Moses was not able to enter into the tent of the congregation, because the cloud abode thereon, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle. And when the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle, the children of Israel went onward in all their journeys: but if the cloud were not taken up, then they journeyed not till the day that it was taken up. For the cloud of the LORD was upon the tabernacle by day, and fire was on it by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel, throughout all their journeys.

THE THIRD BOOK OF MOSES,

CALLED

LEVITICUS.

AND the LORD called unto Moses, and spoke unto him out of the tabernacle of the congregation, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, If any man of you bring an offering unto the LORD, ye shall bring your offering of the cattle, even of the herd, and of the flock. 1

If his offering be a burnt sacrifice of the herd, let him offer a male without blemish: he shall offer it of his own voluntary will at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, that it may be accepted before the LORD. And he shall put his 4

- hand upon the head of the burnt offering; and it shall be accepted for him to make 5 atonement for him. And he shall kill the bullock before the LORD: and the priests, 6 Aaron's sons, shall bring the blood, and sprinkle the blood round about upon the 7 altar that is by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. And he shall lay 8 the burnt offering, and cut it into pieces. And the sons of Aaron the priest shall put 9 fire upon the altar, and lay the wood in order upon the fire: and the priests, 10 Aaron's sons, shall lay the parts, the head, and the fat, in order upon the wood that 11 is on the fire which is upon the altar: but the inward parts and the legs shall he 12 wash in water: and the priest shall burn all on the altar, to be a burnt sacrifice, an 13 offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.
- And if his offering be of the flocks, namely, of the sheep, or of the goats, for a 14 burnt sacrifice, he shall bring it a male without blemish. And he shall kill it on the 15 side of the altar northward before the LORD: and the priests, Aaron's sons, shall 16 sprinkle its blood round about upon the altar. And he shall cut it into pieces, with 17 its head and its fat: and the priest shall lay them in order on the wood that is on the 18 fire which is upon the altar: but he shall wash the inward parts and the legs with 19 water: and the priest shall bring it all, and burn it upon the altar: it is a burnt 20 sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.
- And if the burnt sacrifice for his offering to the LORD be of birds, then he shall 21 bring his offering of turtledoves, or of young pigeons. And the priest shall bring 22 it unto the altar, and wring off its head, and burn it on the altar; and the blood
23 thereof shall be wrung out at the side of the altar: and he shall pluck away its crop 24 with its feathers, and cast it beside the altar on the east part, by the place of the 25 ashes. And he shall cleave it with the wings thereof, but shall not divide it asunder:
26 and the priests shall burn it upon the altar, upon the wood that is upon the fire: it 27 is a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.
- 2 And when any will offer a thank offering unto the LORD, his offering shall be of fine flour; and he shall pour oil upon it, and put frankincense thereon: and he shall bring it to Aaron's sons the priests: and he shall take thereof his handful of the flour thereof, and of the oil thereof, with all the frankincense thereof; and the 3 priest shall burn the memorial of it upon the altar, to be an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD: and the remnant of the thank offering shall be Aaron's and his sons': it a thing most holy of the offerings of the LORD made by fire.
- 4 And if thou bring an oblation of a thank offering baked in the oven, it shall be unleavened cakes of fine flour mingled with oil, or unleavened wafers anointed with oil.
- 5 And if thine oblation be a thank offering baked on a fire-plate, it shall be of fine 6 flour unleavened, mingled with oil. Thou shalt part it in pieces, and pour oil thereon: it is a thank offering.
- 7 And if thine oblation be a thank offering baked in the fryingpan, it shall be made 8 of fine flour with oil. And thou shalt bring the thank offering that is made of these 9 things unto the LORD: and when it is presented unto the priest, he shall bring it 10 unto the altar. And the priest shall take from the thank offering a memorial thereof, and shall burn it upon the altar: it is an offering made by fire, of a sweet 11 savour unto the LORD. And that which is left of the thank offering shall be Aaron's and his sons': it is a thing most holy of the offerings of the LORD made by fire.
- 12 No thank offering, which ye shall bring unto the LORD, shall be made with leaven: for ye shall burn no leaven, nor any honey, in any offering of the LORD 13 made by fire. As for the oblation of the firstfruits, ye shall offer them unto the 14 LORD: but they shall not be burnt on the altar for a sweet savour. And every oblation of thy thank offering shalt thou season with salt; neither shalt thou suffer the salt of the covenant of thy God to be lacking from thy thank offering: with all thine offerings thou shalt offer salt.
- 15 And if thou offer a thank offering of thy firstfruits unto the LORD, thou shalt offer for the thank offering of thy firstfruits green ears of corn dried by the fire, even corn 16 beaten out of full ears. And thou shalt put oil upon it, and lay frankincense thereon: it is a thank offering. And the priest shall burn the memorial of it, part of the beaten corn thereof, and part of the oil thereof, with all the frankincense thereof: it is an offering made by fire unto the LORD.
- 3 And if his oblation be a sacrifice of peace offering, if he offer it of the herd; whether it be a male or female, he shall offer it without blemish before the LORD. And he shall lay his hand upon the head of his offering, and kill it at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and Aaron's sons the priests shall sprinkle the blood

LEVITICUS IV.

upon the altar round about. And he shall offer of the sacrifice of the peace offering 3 an offering made by fire unto the LORD; the fat that covereth the inward parts, and all the fat that is upon the inward parts, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on 4 them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, shall he take. And Aaron's sons shall burn it on the altar upon the burnt sacrifice, which is 5 upon the wood that is on the fire: it is an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

And if his offering for a sacrifice of peace offering unto the LORD be of the flock; 6 male or female, he shall offer it without blemish. If he offer a lamb for his offering, 7 then shall he offer it before the LORD. And he shall lay his hand upon the head of 8 his offering, and kill it before the tabernacle of the congregation: and Aaron's sons shall sprinkle the blood thereof round about upon the altar. And he shall offer of 9 the sacrifice of the peace offering an offering made by fire unto the LORD; the fat thereof, and the whole tail, he shall take it off close to the backbone; and the fat that covereth the inward parts, and all the fat that is upon the inward parts, and the 10 two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, shall he take away. And the priest shall burn it upon 11 the altar: it is the food of the offering made by fire unto the LORD.

And if his offering be a goat, then he shall offer it before the LORD. And he 12 13 shall lay his hand upon the head of it, and kill it before the tabernacle of the congregation: and the sons of Aaron shall sprinkle the blood thereof upon the altar round about. And he shall offer thereof his offering, even an offering made by fire 14 unto the LORD; the fat that covereth the inward parts, and all the fat that is upon the inward parts, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by the 15 flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, shall he take away. And the 16 priest shall burn them upon the altar: it is the food of the offering made by fire for a sweet savour: all the fat is the LORD'S. It shall be a perpetual statute for your 17 generations throughout all your dwellings, that ye eat neither fat nor blood.

And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, say- 4
ing, If any one shall sin through ignorance against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which ought not to be done, and shall do against any of them: if the priest who is anointed do sin according to the sin of the people; then 3 let him bring for his sin which he hath sinned, a young bullock without blemish unto the LORD for a sin offering. And he shall bring the bullock unto the door of 4 the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD; and shall lay his hand upon the bullock's head, and kill the bullock before the LORD. And the priest who is 5 anointed shall take of the bullock's blood, and bring it to the tabernacle of the congregation: and the priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle of the blood 6 seven times before the LORD, before the vail of the sanctuary. And the priest shall 7 put some of the blood upon the horns of the altar of sweet incense before the LORD, which is in the tabernacle of the congregation; and shall pour all the blood of the bullock at the bottom of the altar of the burnt offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. And he shall take off from it all the fat of the bul- 8 lock for the sin offering; the fat that covereth the inward parts, and all the fat that is upon the inward parts, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which 9 is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, shall he take away, as it was taken off from the bullock of the sacrifice of peace offerings: and the priest 10 shall burn them upon the altar of the burnt offering. And the skin of the bullock, 11 and all its flesh, with its head, and with its legs, and its inward parts, and its dung, even the whole bullock shall he carry forth without the camp unto a clean place, 12 where the ashes are poured out, and burn it on the wood with fire: where the ashes are poured out shall it be burnt.

And if the whole congregation of Israel sin through ignorance, and the thing be 13 hid from the eyes of the assembly, and they have done somewhat against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which should not be done, and are guilty; when the sin, which they have sinned against it, is known, then the congrega- 14 tion shall offer a young bullock for the sin, and bring it before the tabernacle of the congregation. And the elders of the congregation shall lay their hands upon the head of the bullock before the LORD: and the bullock shall be killed before the LORD. And the priest who is anointed shall bring of the bullock's blood to the 16 tabernacle of the congregation: and the priest shall dip his finger in some of the blood, and sprinkle it seven times before the LORD, even before the vail. And he 17 shall put some of the blood upon the horns of the altar which is before the LORD, that is in the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall pour out all the blood at 18

the bottom of the altar of the burnt offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. And he shall take its fat from it, and burn it upon the altar. And he shall do with the bullock as he did with the bullock for a sin offering, so shall he do with this; and the priest shall make an atonement for them, and it shall be forgiven them. And he shall carry forth the bullock without the camp, and burn it as he burnt the first bullock: it is a sin offering for the congregation.

When a ruler hath sinned, and done somewhat through ignorance against any of the commandments of the LORD his God concerning things which should not be done, and is guilty; or if his sin, wherein he hath sinned, come to his knowledge; he shall bring his offering, a kid of the goats, a male without blemish: and he shall lay his hand upon the head of the goat, and kill it in the place where they kill the burnt offering before the LORD: it is a sin offering. And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out its blood at the bottom of the altar of burnt offering. And he shall burn all its fat upon the altar, as the fat of the sacrifice of peace offerings: and the priest shall make an atonement for him as concerning his sin, and it shall be forgiven him.

And if any one of the common people sin through ignorance, while he doeth somewhat against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which ought not to be done, and be guilty; or if his sin, which he hath sinned, come to his knowledge; then he shall bring his offering, a kid of the goats, a female without blemish, for his sin which he hath sinned. And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the sin offering, and slay the sin offering in the place of the burnt offering. And the priest shall take of the blood thereof with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out all the blood thereof at the bottom of the altar. And he shall take away all the fat thereof, as the fat is taken away from off the sacrifice of peace offerings; and the priest shall burn it upon the altar for a sweet savour unto the LORD; and the priest shall make an atonement for him, and it shall be forgiven him.

And if he bring a lamb for a sin offering, he shall bring it a female without blemish. And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the sin offering, and slay it for a sin offering in the place where they kill the burnt offering. And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out all the blood thereof at the bottom of the altar: and he shall take away all the fat thereof, as the fat of the lamb is taken away from the sacrifice of the peace offerings; and the priest shall burn it upon the altar, together with the offerings made by fire unto the LORD: and the priest shall make an atonement for his sin that he hath committed, and it shall be forgiven him.

5 And if any one sin, and hear the voice of swearing, and be a witness, whether he hath seen or known of it; if he do not reveal it, then he shall bear the punishment of his iniquity. Or if any person touch any unclean thing, whether it be a carcase of an unclean beast, or a carcase of unclean cattle, or the carcase of unclean creeping things, and if it be hidden from him; he also shall be unclean, and guilty. Or if he touch the uncleanness of man, whatsoever uncleanness it be that a man shall be defiled with, and it be hid from him; when he knoweth of it, then he shall be guilty. Or if any one swear, pronouncing with his lips to do evil, or to do good, whatsoever it be that a man shall pronounce with an oath, and it be hid from him; when he knoweth of it, then he shall be guilty in one of these. And when he shall be guilty in one of these things, he shall confess that he hath sinned in that thing: and he shall bring his trespass offering unto the LORD for his sin which he hath sinned, a female from the flock, a lamb or a kid of the goats, for a sin offering; and the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his sin.

7 And if he be not able to bring a lamb, then he shall bring for his trespass, which he hath committed, two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, unto the LORD; one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering. And he shall bring them unto the priest, who shall offer that which is for the sin offering first, and wring off its head from its neck, but shall not divide it asunder: and he shall sprinkle of the blood of the sin offering upon the side of the altar; and the rest of the blood shall be wrung out at the bottom of the altar: it is a sin offering. And he shall offer the second for a burnt offering, according to the ordinance: and the priest shall make an atonement for him for his sin which he hath sinned, and it shall be forgiven him.

11 But if he be not able to bring two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, then he who sinned shall bring for his offering the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a sin offering; he shall put no oil upon it, neither shall he put any frankincense thereon : for it is a sin offering. Then shall he bring it to the priest, and the priest shall take 12 his handful of it, even a memorial thereof, and burn it on the altar, according to the offerings made by fire unto the LORD : it is a sin offering. And the priest shall make 13 an atonement for him as touching his sin that he hath sinned in one of these, and it shall be forgiven him; and the remnant shall be the priest's, as a thank offering.

And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, If a soul commit a trespass, and sin 14 15 through ignorance, in the holy things of the LORD; then he shall bring for his trespass unto the LORD a ram without blemish out of the flocks, with thine estimation by shekels of silver, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for a trespass offering: and he shall make amends for the harm that he hath done in the holy thing, and 16 shall add the fifth part thereto, and give it unto the priest: and the priest shall make an atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering, and it shall be forgiven him.

And if a soul sin, and commit any of these things which are forbidden to be 17 done by the commandments of the LORD; though he knew it not, yet is he guilty, and shall bear his iniquity. And he shall bring a ram without blemish out of the 18 flock, with thine estimation, for a trespass offering, unto the priest: and the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his ignorance wherein he erred and knew it not, and it shall be forgiven him. It is a trespass offering: he hath certainly 19 trespassed against the LORD.

And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, If any one sin, and commit a trespass 6 against the LORD, and lie unto his neighbour in that which was delivered him to keep, or in dealing, or in a thing taken away by violence, or have deceived his neighbour; or have found that which was lost, and lieth concerning it, and sweareth 3 falsely; in any of all these that a man doeth, sinning therein: then, because he 4 hath sinned, and is guilty, he shall restore that which he took violently away, or the thing which he hath deceitfully gotten, or that which was delivered him to keep, or the lost thing which he found, or all that about which he hath sworn 5 falsely; he shall even restore it in the principal, and shall add the fifth part more thereto, and give it unto him to whom it appertaineth, in the day of his being found guilty. And he shall bring his trespass offering unto the LORD, a ram without 6 blemish out of the flock, with thine estimation, for a trespass offering, unto the priest: and the priest shall make an atonement for him before the LORD: and it shall be 7 forgiven him for any thing of all that he hath done in trespassing therein.

And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Command Aaron and his sons, saying, 8 9 This is the law of the burnt offering: That burnt offering shall be upon the fire-place upon the altar all night unto the morning; and the fire of the altar shall be burning on it. And the priest shall put on his linen garment, and his linen breeches 10 shall he put upon his flesh, and take up the ashes wherein the fire hath consumed the burnt offering on the altar, and he shall put them beside the altar. And he shall 11 put off his garments, and put on other garments, and carry forth the ashes without the camp unto a clean place. And the fire upon the altar shall be burning in it; it shall not be put out: and the priest shall burn wood on it every morning, and lay the burnt offering in order upon it; and he shall burn thereon the fat of the peace offerings. The fire shall ever be burning upon the altar; it shall never go out. 13

And this is the law of the thank offering: the sons of Aaron shall offer it before 14 the LORD, before the altar. And he shall take of it his handful, of the flour of the thank offering, and of the oil thereof, and all the frankincense which is upon the 15 thank offering, and shall burn it upon the altar for a sweet savour, even the memorial of it, unto the LORD. And the remainder thereof shall Aaron and his sons 16 eat: unleavened shall it be eaten in the holy place; in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation they shall eat it. It shall not be baked leavened. I have given 17 it unto them for their portion of my offerings made by fire; it is most holy, as is the sin offering, and as the trespass offering. All the males among the children of Aaron 18 shall eat of it. It shall be a statute for ever in your generations concerning the offerings of the LORD made by fire: every one who toucheth them shall be holy.

And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, This is the offering of Aaron and of his 19 20 sons, which they shall offer unto the LORD in the day when he is anointed; the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a perpetual thank offering, half of it in the morning, and half thereof at night. In a pan it shall be made with oil; and when it 21 is baked, thou shalt bring it in: and the baked pieces of the thank offering shalt thou offer for a sweet savour unto the LORD. And the priest of his sons who is 22 anointed in his stead shall offer it: it is a statute for ever unto the LORD; it shall

- 23 be wholly burnt. For every thank offering for the priest shall be wholly burnt: it shall not be eaten.
- 24 25 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Speak unto Aaron and to his sons, saying, This is the law of the sin offering: In the place where the burnt offering is killed shall the sin offering be killed before the LORD: it is most holy. The priest who offereth it for sin shall eat it: in the holy place shall it be eaten, in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation. Whatsoever shall touch the flesh thereof shall be holy: and when there is sprinkled of the blood thereof upon any garment, thou shalt wash that whereon it was sprinkled in the holy place. But the earthen vessel wherein it is sodden shall be broken: and if it be sodden in a brazen pot, it shall be both scoured and rinsed in water. All the males among the priests shall eat thereof: it is most holy. And no sin offering, whereof any of the blood is brought into the tabernacle of the congregation to reconcile with in the holy place, shall be eaten: it shall be burnt in the fire.
- 7 Likewise this is the law of the trespass offering: it is most holy. In the place where they kill the burnt offering shall they kill the trespass offering: and the blood thereof shall he sprinkle round about upon the altar. And the fat thereof shall be taken away; the rump, and the fat that covereth the inward parts, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the flanks, and the caul that is above the liver, with the kidneys, shall he take away: and the priest shall burn them upon the altar for an offering made by fire unto the LORD: it is a trespass offering.
- 6 Every male among the priests may eat thereof: it shall be eaten in the holy place: it is most holy.
- 7 As the sin offering is, so is the trespass offering: there is one law for them: the priest who maketh atonement therewith shall have it. And the priest who offereth any man's burnt offering, even the priest shall have to himself the skin of the burnt offering which he hath offered. And all the thank offering that is baked in the oven, and all that is dressed in the fryingpan, and in the fire-plate, shall be the priest's who offereth it. And every thank offering, mingled with oil, or dry, shall all the sons of Aaron have, one as much as another.
- 11 And this is the law of the sacrifice of peace offerings, which he shall offer unto the LORD. If he offer it for a thanksgiving, then he shall offer with the sacrifice of thanksgiving unleavened cakes mingled with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and cakes mingled with oil, of fine flour, fried. Besides the cakes, he shall offer for his offering leavened bread with the sacrifice of thanksgiving of his peace offerings. And of it he shall offer one of every whole oblation for a heave offering unto the LORD, and it shall be the priest's who sprinkleth the blood of the peace offerings. And the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving shall be eaten the same day that it is offered; he shall not leave any of it until the morning. But if the sacrifice of his offering be a vow, or a voluntary offering, it shall be eaten the same day that he offereth his sacrifice; and on the morrow also the remainder of it shall be eaten: but the remainder of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day shall be burnt with fire. And if any of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings be eaten at all on the third day, it shall not be accepted, neither shall it be imputed unto him who offereth it: it shall be an abomination, and the soul who eateth of it shall bear his iniquity. And the flesh that toucheth any unclean thing shall not be eaten; it shall be burnt with fire: and as for the flesh, all who are clean shall eat thereof. But the soul who eateth of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings, that pertain unto the LORD, having his uncleanness upon him, even that soul shall be cut off from his people. Moreover the soul who shall touch any unclean thing, as a man of uncleanness, or any unclean beast, or any abominable unclean reptile, and eat of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings, which pertain unto the LORD, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.
- 22 23 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, Ye shall eat no manner of fat, of ox, or of sheep, or of goat. And the fat of the beast that dieth of itself, and the fat of that which is torn with beasts, may be used in any other use: but ye shall in no wise eat of it. For whosoever eateth the fat of the beast, of which men offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD, even the soul who eateth it shall be cut off from his people. Moreover ye shall eat no manner of blood, whether it be of bird or of beast, in any of your dwellings. Whatsoever soul it be who eateth any manner of blood, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.
- 28 29 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, He who offereth the sacrifice of his peace offerings unto the LORD shall bring his oblation unto the LORD of the sacrifice of his peace offerings. His own hands shall 50 bring the offerings of the LORD made by fire, the fat laid upon the breast, it shall he bring, that the breast may be waved for a wave offering before the LORD. And 31 the priest shall burn the fat upon the altar; but the breast shall be Aaron's and his sons'. And the right shoulder shall ye give unto the priest for a heave offering of 32 the sacrifices of your peace offerings. He among the sons of Aaron, who offereth the 33 blood of the peace offerings, and the fat, shall have the right shoulder for his part.

For the wave breast and the heave shoulder have I taken of the children of Israel 34 from off the sacrifices of their peace offerings, and have given them unto Aaron the priest and unto his sons by a statute for ever from among the children of Israel. This 35 is the portion assigned to Aaron, and assigned to his sons, out of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, in the day when he presented them to minister unto the LORD in the priest's office; which the LORD commanded to be given them of the children 36 of Israel, in the day that he anointed them, by a statute for ever throughout their generations.

This is the law of the burnt offering, of the thank offering, and of the sin offering, 37 and of the trespass offering, and of the consecrations, and of the sacrifice of the peace offerings; which the LORD commanded Moses in mount Sinai, in the day that he 38 commanded the children of Israel to offer their oblations unto the LORD, in the wilderness of Sinai.

And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Take Aaron and his sons with him, 8 and the garments, and the anointing oil, and a bullock for the sin offering, and two rams, and a basket of unleavened bread; and gather thou all the congregation toge- 3 ther unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. And Moses did as the 4 LORD commanded him; and the assembly was gathered together unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

And Moses said unto the congregation, This is the thing which the LORD com- 5 manded to be done. And Moses brought Aaron and his sons, and washed them with 6 water. And he put upon Aaron the coat, and girded him with the girdle, and clothed 7 him with the robe, and put the ephod upon him, and he girded him with the curious girdle of the ephod, and bound it unto him therewith. And he put the breastplate 8 upon him: also he put in the breastplate the Urim and the Thummim. And he put 9 the mitre upon his head; also upon the mitre, even upon his forehead, did he put the golden plate, the holy crown; as the LORD commanded Moses.

And Moses took the anointing oil, and anointed the tabernacle and all that was 10 therein, and sanctified them. And he sprinkled thereof upon the altar seven times, 11 and anointed the altar and all its vessels, both the laver and its cover, to sanctify them. And he poured of the anointing oil upon Aaron's head, and anointed him, 12 to sanctify him. And Moses brought Aaron's sons, and put coats upon them, and 13 girded them with girdles, and put turbans upon them; as the LORD commanded Moses.

And he brought the bullock for the sin offering: and Aaron and his sons laid their 14 hands upon the head of the bullock for the sin offering. And he slew it; and Moses 15 took the blood, and put it upon the horns of the altar round about with his finger, and purified the altar, and poured the blood at the bottom of the altar, and sanctified it, to make reconciliation upon it. And he took all the fat that was upon the 16 inward parts, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and Moses burnt them upon the altar. But the bullock, and its hide, its flesh, and its 17 dung, he burnt with fire without the camp; as the LORD commanded Moses.

And he brought the ram for the burnt offering: and Aaron and his sons laid their 18 hands upon the head of the ram. And when it was killed, Moses sprinkled the blood 19 upon the altar round about. And he cut the ram into pieces; and Moses burnt the 20 head, and the pieces, and the fat. And he washed the inward parts and the legs in 21 water; and Moses burnt the whole ram upon the altar: it was a burnt sacrifice for a sweet savour, and an offering made by fire unto the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moses.

And he brought the other ram, the ram of consecration: and Aaron and his sons 22 laid their hands upon the head of the ram. And when it was killed, Moses took of 23 the blood of it, and put it upon the tip of Aaron's right ear, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot. And he brought Aaron's 24 sons, and Moses put of the blood upon the tip of their right ear, and upon the thumbs of their right hands, and upon the great toes of their right feet: and Moses sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about. And he took the fat, and the rump, and all 25 the fat that was upon the inward parts, and the caul above the liver, and the two kid-

LEVITICUS IX.

- 26 neys, and their fat, and the right shoulder : and out of the basket of unleavened bread, that was before the LORD, he took one unleavened cake, and a cake of oiled bread,
- 27 and one wafer, and put them on the fat, and upon the right shoulder : and he put all upon Aaron's hands, and upon his sons' hands, and waved them for a wave offering before the LORD. And Moses took them from off their hands, and burnt them on the altar upon the burnt offering : they were consecrations for a sweet savour : it
- 29 is an offering made by fire unto the LORD. And Moses took the breast, and waved it for a wave offering before the LORD : for of the ram of consecration it was Moses' part ; as the LORD commanded Moses.
- 30 And Moses took of the anointing oil, and of the blood which was upon the altar, and sprinkled it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon his sons' garments with him ; and sanctified Aaron, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him.
- 31 And Moses said unto Aaron and to his sons, Boil the flesh at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation ; and there eat it with the bread that is in the basket of
- 32 consecrations, as I commanded, saying, Aaron and his sons shall eat it. And that
- 33 which remaineth of the flesh and of the bread shall ye burn with fire. And ye shall not go from the door of the tabernacle of the congregation seven days, until the days
- 34 of your consecration be at an end : for seven days shall he consecrate you. As he hath done this day, so the LORD hath commanded to do, to make an atonement for
- 35 you. Therefore shall ye abide at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation day and night seven days, and keep the charge of the LORD, that ye die not ; for so I am
- 36 commanded. So Aaron and his sons did all things which the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.
- 9 And on the eighth day Moses called Aaron and his sons, and the elders of Israel ; and he said unto Aaron, Take thee a young calf for a sin offering, and a ram for a
- 3 burnt offering, without blemish, and offer them before the LORD. And unto the children of Israel thou shalt speak, saying, Take ye a kid of the goats for a sin offering ; and a calf and a lamb, both of the first year, without blemish, for a burnt
- 4 offering ; also a bullock and a ram for peace offerings, to sacrifice before the LORD ; and a thank offering mingled with oil ; for to-day the LORD will appear unto you.
- 5 And they brought that which Moses commanded before the tabernacle of the congregation ; and all the congregation drew near and stood before the LORD. And
- 6 Moses said, This is the thing which the LORD commanded that ye should do : and the glory of the LORD shall appear unto you.
- 7 And Moses said unto Aaron, Go unto the altar, and offer thy sin offering, and thy burnt offering, and make an atonement for thyself, and for the people ; and offer the offering of the people, and make an atonement for them ; as the LORD commanded.
- 8 Aaron therefore went unto the altar, and slew the calf of the sin offering, which
- 9 was for himself. And the sons of Aaron brought the blood unto him : and he dipped his finger in the blood, and put it upon the horns of the altar, and poured out the
- 10 blood at the bottom of the altar : but the fat, and the kidneys, and the caul above the liver of the sin offering, he burnt upon the altar ; as the LORD commanded Mo-
- 11 12 ses. And the flesh and the hide he burnt with fire without the camp. And he slew the burnt offering ; and Aaron's sons presented unto him the blood, which he
- 13 sprinkled round about upon the altar. And they presented the burnt offering unto him, with the pieces thereof, and the head : and he burnt them upon the altar.
- 14 And he washed the inward parts and the legs, and burnt them upon the burnt offering on the altar.
- 15 And he brought the people's offering, and took the goat, which was the sin offering for the people, and slew it, and offered it for sin, as the first. And he brought
- 16 the burnt offerings, and offered it according to the ordinance. And he brought the thank offering, and took a handful thereof, and burnt it upon the altar, beside the
- 18 burnt sacrifice of the morning. He slew also the bullock and the ram for a sacrifice of peace offerings, which was for the people : and Aaron's sons presented unto him
- 19 the blood, which he sprinkled upon the altar round about, and the fat of the bullock and of the ram, the rump, and that which covereth the inward parts, and the kidneys, and the caul above the liver : and they put the fat upon the breasts, and he
- 21 burnt the fat upon the altar : and the breasts and the right shoulder Aaron waved for a wave offering before the LORD ; as he commanded Moses.
- 22 And Aaron lifted up his hand towards the people, and blessed them, and came down from offering of the sin offering, and the burnt offering, and peace offerings.
- 23 And Moses and Aaron went into the tabernacle of the congregation, and came out, and blessed the people : and the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the people.

And there came a fire out from before the LORD, and consumed upon the altar 21 the burnt offering and the fat: which when all the people saw, they shouted, and fell on their faces.

And Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, took each of them his censer, and 10 put fire therein, and put incense thereon, and offered strange fire before the LORD, which he commanded them not. And there went out fire from the LORD, and 2 devoured them, and they died before the LORD. Then Moses said unto Aaron, 3
This is it that the LORD spoke, saying, I will be revered by those who come nigh me, and before all the people I will be glorified. And Aaron held his peace.
And Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel the uncle of Aaron, 4 and said unto them, Come near, carry your brethren from before the sanctuary out of the camp. So they went near, and carried them in their coats out of the camp; 5 as Moses had said.

And Moses said unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar, his sons, Un- 6 cover not your heads, neither rend your clothes; lest ye die, and lest wrath come upon all the people; but let your brethren, the whole house of Israel, bewail the burning which the LORD hath kindled. And ye shall not go out from the door of 7 the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die: for the anointing oil of the LORD is upon you. And they did according to the word of Moses.

And the LORD spoke unto Aaron, saying, Do not drink wine nor strong drink, 8 9 thou, nor thy sons with thee, when ye go into the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die; it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations: and that ye 10 may put difference between holy and unholy, and between unclean and clean; and 11 that ye may teach the children of Israel all the statutes which the LORD hath spoken unto them by the hand of Moses.

And Moses spoke unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar, his sons that 12 were left, Take the thank offering that remaineth of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and eat it without leaven beside the altar; for it is most holy: and 13 ye shall eat it in the holy place, because it is thy due, and thy sons' due, of the sacrifices of the LORD made by fire: for so I am commanded. And the wave breast 14 and heave shoulder shall ye eat in a holy place; thou, and thy sons, and thy daughters with thee: for they are thy due, and thy sons' due, which are given out of the sacrifices of peace offerings of the children of Israel. The heave shoulder and the 15 wave breast shall they bring with the offerings made by fire of the fat, to wave it for a wave offering before the LORD; and it shall be thine, and thy sons' with thee, by a statute for ever; as the LORD hath commanded.

And Moses diligently sought the goat of the sin offering, and, behold, it was burnt: 16 and he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, the sons of Aaron who were left alive, saying, Wherefore have ye not eaten the sin offering in the holy place, seeing it is 17 most holy, and God hath given it you to bear the iniquity of the congregation, to make atonement for them before the LORD? Behold, the blood of it was not 18 brought in within the holy place: ye should indeed have eaten it in the holy place, as I commanded. And Aaron said unto Moses, Behold, this day have they offered 19 their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD; and such things have befallen me: and if I had eaten the sin offering to-day, would it have been accepted in the sight of the LORD? And when Moses heard that, he was content. 20

And the LORD spoke unto Moses and to Aaron, saying unto them, Speak unto 11 the children of Israel, saying, These are the beasts which ye shall eat among all the beasts that are on the earth. Whatsoever parteth the hoof, and is clovenfooted, and 3 cheweth the cud, among the beasts, shall ye eat. Nevertheless these shall ye not eat 4 of them that chew the cud, or of them that divide the hoof: as the camel, because it cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof; it is unclean unto you. And the coney, 5 because it cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof; it is unclean unto you. And 6 the hare, because it cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof; it is unclean unto you. And the swine, though it divide the hoof, and be clovenfooted, yet it cheweth 7 not the cud; it is unclean to you. Of their flesh shall ye not eat, and their carcase 8 shall ye not touch; they are unclean to you.

These shall ye eat of all that are in the waters: whatsoever hath fins and scales in 9 the waters, in the seas, and in the rivers, shall ye eat. And all that have not fins 10 and scales in the seas, and in the rivers, of all that move in the waters, and of any living thing which is in the waters, they shall be an abomination unto you: they 11 shall be even an abomination unto you; ye shall not eat of their flesh, but ye shall have their carcases in abomination. Whatsoever hath no fins nor scales in the waters, 12 that shall be an abomination unto you.

- 13 And these are they which ye shall have in abomination among the birds; they shall not be eaten, they are an abomination: the eagle, and the ossifrage, and the 14-16 ospray, and the vulture, and the kite after its kind; every raven after its kind; and 17 the owl, and the night hawk, and the cuckow, and the hawk after its kind, and 18 the little owl, and the cormorant, and the great owl, and the swan, and the peli-19 can, and the vulture, and the stork, the heron after its kind, and the lapwing, and the bat.
- 20-21 All insects that fly, going upon all four, shall be an abomination unto you. Yet these may ye eat of every flying creeping thing that goeth upon all four, which have 22 legs above their feet, to leap with upon the earth; even these of them ye may eat; the locust after its kind, and the bald locust after its kind, and the beetle after its 23 kind, and the grasshopper after its kind. But all other flying creeping things, which 24 have four feet, shall be an abomination unto you. And for these ye shall be unclean: whosoever toucheth the carcase of them shall be unclean until the evening.
25 And whosoever beareth aught of the carcase of them shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the evening.
- 26 The carcasses of every beast which divideth the hoof, and is not clovenfooted, nor cheweth the cud, are unclean unto you: every one who toucheth them shall be un-27 clean. And whatsoever goeth upon its paws, among all manner of beasts that go on all four, those are unclean unto you: whoso toucheth their carcase shall be un-28 clean until the evening. And he who beareth the carcase of them shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the evening: they are unclean unto you.
- 29 These also shall be unclean unto you among the creeping things that creep upon 30 the earth; the weasel, and the mouse, and the tortoise after their kinds, and the ferret, and the chameleon, and the lizard, and the snail, and the mole. These are un-31 clean to you among all that creep: whosoever doth touch them, when they be dead,
32 shall be unclean until the evening. And upon whatsoever any of them, when they are dead, doth fall, it shall be unclean; whether it be any vessel of wood, or rai-33 ment, or skin, or sack, whatsoever vessel it be, wherein any work is done, it must be put into water, and it shall be unclean until the evening; so it shall be cleansed.
- 34 And every earthen vessel, wherinto any of them falleth, whatsoever is in it shall be 34 unclean; and ye shall break it. Of all meat which may be eaten, that on which water cometh shall be unclean: and all drink that may be drunk in every such ves-
35 sel shall be unclean. And every thing whereupon any part of their carcase falleth shall be unclean; whether it be oven, or ranges for pots, they shall be broken down:
36 for they are unclean, and shall be unclean unto you. Nevertheless a fountain or pit, wherein there is plenty of water, shall be clean: but he who toucheth their carcase 37 shall be unclean. And if any part of their carcase fall upon any sowing seed which 38 is to be sown, it shall be clean. But if any water be put upon the seed, and any part of their carcase fall thereon, it shall be unclean unto you.
- 39 And if any beast, of which ye may eat, die; he who toucheth the carcase thereof 40 shall be unclean until the evening. And he who eateth of the carcase of it shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the evening: he also who beareth the carcase of it shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the evening.
- 41 And every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth shall be an abomination; it 42 shall not be eaten. Whatsoever goeth upon the belly, and whatsoever goeth upon all four, or whatsoever hath more feet among all creeping things that creep upon the 43 earth, them ye shall not eat; for they are an abomination. Ye shall not make yourselves abominable with any creeping thing that creepeth, neither shall ye make your-44 selves unclean with them that ye should be defiled thereby. For I am the LORD your God: ye shall therefore sanctify yourselves, and ye shall be holy; for I am 45 holy: neither shall ye defile yourselves with any manner of creeping thing that 45 creepeth upon the earth. For I am the LORD who bringeth you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: ye shall therefore be holy, for I am holy.
- 46 This is the law of the beasts, and of the birds, and of every living creature that 47 moveth in the waters, and of every creature that creepeth upon the earth: to make a difference between the unclean and the clean, and between the beast that may be eaten and the beast that may not be eaten.
- 12 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If a woman have conceived seed, and borne a man-child, then she shall be unclean seven days; according to the days of the separation for her infirmity shall she 3 be unclean. And on the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised.
4 And she shall then continue in the blood of her purifying three and thirty days; she shall touch no hallowed thing, nor come into the sanctuary, until the days of her purifying be fulfilled. But if she bear a maid-child, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her separation: and she shall continue in the blood of her purifying threescore and six days.

And when the days of her purifying are fulfilled, for a son, or for a daughter, she shall bring a lamb of the first year for a burnt offering, and a young pigeon, or a turtle dove, for a sin offering, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, unto the priest: who shall offer it before the LORD, and make an atonement for her; and she shall be cleansed from the issue of her blood. This is the law for her who hath borne a male or a female. And if she be not able to bring a lamb, then she shall bring two turtles, or two young pigeons; the one for the burnt offering, and the other for a sin offering: and the priest shall make an atonement for her, and she shall be clean.

And the LORD spoke unto Moses and Aaron, saying, When a man shall have in the skin of his flesh a rising, a scab, or a bright spot, that may become in the skin of his flesh the plague of leprosy; then he shall be brought unto Aaron the priest, or unto one of his sons the priests; and the priest shall look on the plague in the skin of the flesh: and when the hair in the plague is turned white, and the plague in sight be deeper than the skin of his flesh, it is a plague of leprosy: and the priest shall look on him, and pronounce him unclean. If the bright spot be white in the skin of his flesh, and in sight be not deeper than the skin, and the hair thereof be not turned white; then the priest shall bind up the wound seven days: and the priest shall look on him the seventh day; and, behold, if the plague in his sight be at a stay, and the plague spread not in the skin; then the priest shall bind it up seven days more: and the priest shall look on him again the seventh day: and, behold, if the plague be somewhat dark, and the plague spread not in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean: it is but a scab: and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean. But if the scab spread much abroad in the skin, after he hath been seen of the priest for his cleansing, he shall be seen of the priest again: and if the priest see that, behold, the scab spreadeth in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a leprosy.

When the plague of leprosy is in a man, then he shall be brought unto the priest; and the priest shall see him: and, behold, if the rising be white in the skin, and it have turned the hair white, and there be quick raw flesh in the rising; it is an old leprosy in the skin of his flesh, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean, and shall not shut him up: for he is unclean. And if a leprosy break out abroad in the skin, and the leprosy cover all the skin of him who hath the plague from his head even to his foot, wheresoever the priest looketh; then the priest shall consider: and, behold, if the leprosy have covered all his flesh, he shall pronounce him clean who hath the plague: it is all turned white: he is clean. But when raw flesh appeareth in him, he shall be unclean. And the priest shall see the raw flesh, and pronounce him to be unclean: for the raw flesh is unclean: it is a leprosy. Or if the raw flesh turn again, and be changed unto white, he shall come unto the priest; and the priest shall see him: and, behold, if the plague be turned into white; then the priest shall pronounce him clean who hath the plague: he is clean.

The flesh also, in which, even in the skin thereof, was a boil, and is healed, in the place of the boil there be a white rising, or a bright spot, white, and very red, and it be showed to the priest; and if, when the priest seeth it, behold, it be in sight lower than the skin, and the hair thereof be turned white; the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a plague of leprosy broken out of the boil. But if the priest look on it, and, behold, there be no white hairs therein, and if it be not lower than the skin, but be somewhat dark; then the priest shall shut him up seven days: and if it spread much abroad in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a plague. But if the bright spot stay in its place, and spread not, it is the scar of a boil; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

Or if there be any flesh, in the skin whereof there is a hot burning, and the quick flesh that burneth have a white bright spot, very red, or white; then the priest shall look upon it: and, behold, if the hair in the bright spot be turned white, and it be in sight deeper than the skin; it is a leprosy broken out of the burning: wherefore the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leprosy. But if the priest look on it, and, behold, there be no white hair in the bright spot, and it be no lower than the other skin, but be somewhat dark; then the priest shall shut him up seven days: and the priest shall look upon him the seventh day: and if it be spread much abroad in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leprosy. And if the bright spot stay in its place, and spread not in the skin, but it be somewhat dark ; it is a rising of the burning, and the priest shall pronounce him clean : for it is an inflammation of the burning.

- 29 30 If a man or woman have a plague upon the head or the beard ; then the priest shall see the plague : and, behold, if it be in sight deeper than the skin ; and there be in it a yellow thin hair ; then the priest shall pronounce him unclean : it is a dry 31 scall, even a leprosy upon the head or beard. And if the priest look on the plague of the scall, and, behold, it be not in sight deeper than the skin, and there be no black hair in it ; then the priest shall shut up him who hath the plague of the 32 scall seven days : and on the seventh day the priest shall look on the plague : and, behold, if the scall spread not, and there be in it no yellow hair, and the scall be not
33 in sight deeper than the skin ; he shall be shaven, but the scall shall he not shave ;
34 and the priest shall shut up him who hath the scall seven days more : and on the seventh day the priest shall look on the scall : and, behold, if the scall be not spread in the skin, nor be in sight deeper than the skin ; then the priest shall pronounce 35 him clean : and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean. But if the scall spread 36 much in the skin after his cleansing ; then the priest shall look on him : and, behold, if the scall be spread in the skin, the priest shall not seek for yellow hair ; he is un-37 clean. But if the scall be in his sight at a stay, and there be black hair grown up therein ; the scall is healed, he is clean : and the priest shall pronounce him clean.
38 If a man also or a woman have in the skin of their flesh bright spots, even white 39 bright spots ; then the priest shall look : and, behold, if the bright spots in the skin of their flesh be darkish white ; it is a freckled spot that groweth in the skin ; he is clean.

- 40 41 And the man whose hair is fallen off his head, he is bald ; yet is he clean. And he who hath his hair fallen off from the part of his head towards his face, he is forehead
42 bald : yet is he clean. And if there be in the bald head, or bald forehead, a white 43 reddish sore ; it is a leprosy sprung up in his bald head, or his bald forehead. Then the priest shall look upon it : and, behold, if the rising of the sore be white reddish in his bald head, or in his bald forehead, as the leprosy appeareth in the skin of the 44 flesh ; he is a leprous man, he is unclean : the priest shall pronounce him utterly unclean ; his plague is in his head.

- 45 And the leper in whom the plague is, his clothes shall be rent, and his head bare, 46 and he shall put a covering upon his upper lip, and shall cry, Unclean, unclean. All the days wherein the plague shall be in him he shall be defiled ; he is unclean : he shall dwell alone ; without the camp shall his habitation be.

- 47 The garment also that the plague of leprosy is in, whether it be a woollen garment, 48 or a linen garment ; whether it be in the warp, or woof ; of linen, or of woollen ;
49 whether in a skin, or in anything made of skin ; and if the plague be very green or red in the garment, or in the skin, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything of skin ; it is a plague of leprosy, and shall be showed unto the priest :
50 and the priest shall look upon the plague, and shut up it that hath the plague seven
51 days : and he shall look on the plague on the seventh day : if the plague be spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in a skin, or in any work that 52 is made of skin ; the plague is a fretting leprosy ; it is unclean. He shall therefore burn that garment, whether warp or woof, in woollen or in linen, or anything of skin, wherein the plague is : for it is a fretting leprosy ; it shall be burnt in the fire.

- 53 And if the priest shall look, and, behold, the plague be not spread in the garment, 54 either in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything of skin ; then the priest shall command that they wash the thing wherein the plague is, and he shall shut it up seven
55 days more : and the priest shall look on the plague, after it is washed : and, behold, if the plague have not changed its colour, and the plague be not spread ; it is unclean ; thou shalt burn it in the fire ; it is fret inward, whether it be bare within or 56 without. And if the priest look, and, behold, the plague be somewhat dark after the washing of it ; then he shall rend it out of the garment, or out of the skin, or 57 out of the warp, or out of the woof : and if it appear still in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything of skin ; it is a spreading plague : thou 58 shalt burn that wherein the plague is with fire. And the garment, either warp, or woof, or whatsoever thing of skin it be, which thou shalt wash, if the plague be departed from them, then it shall be washed the second time, and shall be clean.

- 59 This is the law of the plague of leprosy in a garment of woollen or linen, either in the warp, or woof, or anything of skins, to pronounce it clean, or to pronounce it unclean.

- 14 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, This shall be the law of the leper in the day of his cleansing : He shall be brought unto the priest : and the priest shall go forth out of the camp; and the priest shall look, and, behold, if the plague of leprosy be healed in the leper; then shall the priest command to take for him who is to be cleansed two birds alive and clean, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop: and the priest shall command that one of the birds be killed in an earthen vessel over running water: as for the living bird, he shall take it, and the cedar wood, and the scarlet, and the hyssop, and shall dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water: and he shall sprinkle upon him who is to be cleansed from the leprosy seven times, and shall pronounce him clean, and shall let the living bird loose into the open field.

And he who is to be cleansed shall wash his clothes, and shave off all his hair, and wash himself in water, that he may be clean: and after that he shall come into the camp, and shall tarry abroad out of his tent seven days. But on the seventh day he shall shave all his hair off his head and his beard and his eyebrows, even all his hair he shall shave off: and he shall wash his clothes, also he shall wash his flesh in water, and he shall be clean.

And on the eighth day he shall take two he-lambs without blemish, and one ewe-lamb of the first year without blemish, and three tenth deals of fine flour for a thank offering, mingled with oil, and one log of oil. And the priest who maketh him clean shall present the man who is to be made clean, and those things, before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and the priest shall take one he-lamb, and offer it for a trespass offering, and the log of oil, and wave them for a wave offering before the LORD: and he shall slay the lamb in the place where he shall kill the sin offering and the burnt offering, in the holy place: for as the sin offering is the priest's, so is the trespass offering: it is most holy: and the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass offering, and the priest shall put it upon the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot: and the priest shall take some of the log of oil, and pour it into the palm of his own left hand: and the priest shall dip his right finger in the oil that is in his left hand, and shall sprinkle of the oil with his finger seven times before the LORD: and of the rest of the oil that is in his hand shall the priest put upon the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot, upon the blood of the trespass offering: and the remnant of the oil that is in the priest's hand he shall pour upon the head of him who is to be cleansed: and the priest shall make an atonement for him before the LORD. And the priest shall offer the sin offering, and make an atonement for him who is to be cleansed from his uncleanness; and afterwards he shall kill the burnt offering: and the priest shall offer the burnt offering and the thank offering upon the altar: and the priest shall make an atonement for him, and he shall be clean.

And if he be poor, and cannot get so much; then he shall take one lamb for a trespass offering to be waved, to make an atonement for him, and one tenth deal of fine flour mingled with oil for a thank offering, and a log of oil; and two turtle-doves, or two young pigeons, such as he is able to get; and the one shall be a sin offering, and the other a burnt offering. And he shall bring them on the eighth day for his cleansing unto the priest, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, before the LORD. And the priest shall take the lamb of the trespass offering, and the log of oil, and wave them for a wave offering before the LORD: and he shall kill the lamb of the trespass offering, and the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot: and the priest shall pour of the oil into the palm of his own left hand; and shall sprinkle with his right finger some of the oil that is in his left hand seven times before the LORD: and the priest shall put of the oil that is in his hand upon the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot, upon the place of the blood of the trespass offering: and the rest of the oil that is in the priest's hand he shall put upon the head of him who is to be cleansed, to make an atonement for him before the LORD. And he shall offer one of the turtle-doves, or of the young pigeons, such as he can get; even such as he is able to get, the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, with the thank offering: and the priest shall make an atonement for him who is to be cleansed before the LORD.

This is the law of him in whom is the plague of leprosy, whose hand is not able to get that which pertaineth to his cleansing.

And the LORD spoke unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying, When ye come into the land of Canaan, which I give to you for a possession, and I put the plague of 35 leprosy in a house of the land of your possession; and he who owneth the house shall come and tell the priest, saying, It seemeth to me there is as it were a plague in the 36 house: then the priest shall command that they empty the house, before he go into it to see the plague, that all that is in the house be not made unclean: and afterwards 37 the priest shall go in to see the house: and he shall look on the plague, and, behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow strakes, very green or 38 red, which in sight are lower than the wall; then the priest shall go out of the house 39 to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days: and the priest shall come again the seventh day, and shall look: and, behold, if the plague be spread 40 in the walls of the house; then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and they shall cast them into an unclean place with-41 out the city: and he shall cause the house to be scraped within round about, and they shall pour out the dust that they scrape off without the city into an unclean 42 place: and they shall take other stones, and put them in the place of those stones; 43 and he shall take other mortar, and shall plaster the house. And if the plague come again, and break out in the house, after that he hath taken away the stones, and after 44 he hath scraped the house, and after it is plastered; then the priest shall come and look, and, behold, if the plague be spread in the house, it is a fretting leprosy in the 45 house: it is unclean. And he shall break down the house, the stones of it, and the timber thereof, and all the mortar of the house; and he shall carry them forth out of 46 the city into an unclean place. Moreover he who goeth into the house all the while 47 that it is shut up shall be unclean until the evening. And he who lieth in the house shall wash his clothes; and he who eateth in the house shall wash his clothes.

48 And if the priest shall come in, and look upon it, and, behold, the plague hath not spread in the house, after the house was plastered; then the priest shall pronounce 49 the house clean, because the plague is healed. And he shall take to cleanse the 50 house two birds, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop: and he shall kill one of 51 the birds in an earthen vessel over running water: and he shall take the cedar wood, and the hyssop, and the scarlet, and the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the 52 slain bird, and in the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times: and he shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird, and with the running water, and with the living bird, and with the cedar wood, and with the hyssop, and with the 53 scarlet: but he shall let go the living bird out of the city into the open fields, and make an atonement for the house: and it shall be clean.
54 55 This is the law for all manner of plague of leprosy, and scall, and for the leprosy 56 of a garment, and of a house, and for a rising, and for a scab, and for a bright spot:
57 to teach when it is unclean, and when it is clean: this is the law of leprosy.

15 And the LORD spoke unto Moses and to Aaron, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When any man hath a running issue out of his flesh, 3 because of his issue he is unclean. And this shall be his uncleanness in his issue:
whether his flesh run with his issue, or his flesh be stopped from his issue, it is his 4 uncleanness. Every bed, whereon he lieth who hath the issue, is unclean: and every 5 vessel, whereon he sitteth, shall be unclean. And whosoever toucheth his bed shall 6 wash his clothes, and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening. And he who sitteth on any thing whereon he sat who hath the issue shall wash his clothes, and 7 bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening. And he who toucheth the flesh of him who hath the issue shall wash his clothes, and bathe in water, and be unclean 8 until the evening. And if he who hath the issue spit upon him who is clean; then he 9 shall wash his clothes, and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening. And 10 what saddle soever he rideth upon who hath the issue shall be unclean. And whosoever toucheth any thing that was under him shall be unclean until the evening: and he who beareth any of those things shall wash his clothes, and bathe in water, and 11 be unclean until the evening. And whomsoever he toucheth who hath the issue, and hath not rinsed his hands in water, he shall wash his clothes, and bathe in water, 12 and be unclean until the evening. And the vessel of earth, that he toucheth who hath the issue, shall be broken: and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.
13 And when he who hath an issue is cleansed of his issue; then he shall number to himself seven days for his cleansing, and wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in 14 running water, and shall be clean. And on the eighth day he shall take to him two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, and come before the LORD unto the door of the 15 tabernacle of the congregation, and give them unto the priest: and the priest shall offer them, the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering; and the priest shall make an atonement for him before the LORD for his issue.

And if any man's seed of copulation go out from him, then he shall wash all his flesh in water, and be unclean until the evening. And every garment, and every skin, whereon is the seed of copulation, shall be washed with water, and be unclean until the evening. The woman also with whom man shall lie with seed of copulation, shall bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening.

And if a woman have an issue, and her issue in her flesh be blood, she shall be put apart seven days: and whosoever toucheth her shall be unclean until the evening. And every thing that she lieth upon in her separation shall be unclean: every thing also that she sitteth upon shall be unclean. And whosoever toucheth her bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening. And whosoever toucheth any thing that she sat upon shall wash his clothes, and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening. And if it be on her bed, or on any thing whereon she sitteth, when he toucheth it, he shall be unclean until the evening. And if any man lie by her at all, and her flowers be upon him, he shall be unclean seven days; and all the bed whereon he lieth shall be unclean.

And if a woman have an issue of her blood many days out of the time of her separation, or if it run beyond the time of her separation; all the days of the issue of her uncleanness shall be as the days of her separation: she shall be unclean. Every bed whereon she lieth all the days of her issue shall be unto her as the bed of her separation: and whatsoever she sitteth upon shall be unclean, as the uncleanness of her separation. And whosoever toucheth those things shall be unclean, and shall wash his clothes, and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening. But if she be cleansed of her issue, then she shall number to herself seven days, and after that she shall be clean. And on the eighth day she shall take unto her two turtles, or two young pigeons, and bring them unto the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. And the priest shall offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering; and the priest shall make an atonement for her before the LORD for the issue of her uncleanness.

Thus shall ye separate the children of Israel from their uncleanness; that they die not in their uncleanness, when they defile my tabernacle that is among them.

This is the law of him who hath an issue, and of him whose seed goeth from him, and is defiled therewith; and of her who is sick of her flowers, and of him who hath an issue, of the man, and of the woman, and of him who lieth by her who is unclean.

And the LORD spoke unto Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they offered strange fire before the LORD, and died; and the LORD said unto Moses, 16 Speak unto Aaron thy brother, that he come not at all times into the holy place within the vail before the mercy seat, which is upon the ark; that he die not; for I will appear in the cloud upon the mercy seat. Thus shall Aaron come into the holy place; with a young bullock for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering. He shall put on the holy linen coat, and he shall have the linen breeches upon his flesh, and shall be girded with a linen girdle, and with the linen mitre shall he be attired: these are holy garments: therefore shall he wash his flesh in water, and so put them on. And he shall take of the congregation of the children of Israel two kids of the goats for a sin offering, and one ram for a burnt offering.

And Aaron shall offer his bullock of the sin offering, which is for himself, and make an atonement for himself, and for his house. And he shall take the two goats, and present them before the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. And Aaron shall cast lots upon the two goats; one lot for the LORD, and the other lot for the scapegoat. And Aaron shall bring the goat upon which the LORD'S lot fell, and offer it for a sin offering. But the goat, on which the lot fell to be the scapegoat, shall be presented alive before the LORD, to make an atonement over it, and to let it go for a scapegoat into the wilderness.

And Aaron shall bring the bullock of the sin offering, which is for himself, and shall make an atonement for himself, and for his house, and shall kill the bullock of the sin offering which is for himself: and he shall take a censer full of burning coals of fire from off the altar before the LORD, and his hands full of sweet incense beaten small, and bring them within the vail: and he shall put the incense upon the fire before the LORD, that the cloud of the incense may cover the mercy seat that is upon the testimony, that he die not: and he shall take of the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it with his finger upon the mercy seat eastward; and before the mercy seat shall he sprinkle of the blood with his finger seven times. Then shall he kill the goat of the sin offering, that is for the people, and bring its blood within the vail, and do with that blood as he did with the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it upon

- 16 the mercy seat, and before the mercy seat: and he shall make an atonement for the holy place, because of the uncleanness of the children of Israel, and because of their transgressions in all their sins: and so shall he do for the tabernacle of the congregation, that remaineth among them in the midst of their uncleanness. And there shall be no man in the tabernacle of the congregation when he goeth in to make an atonement in the holy place, until he come out, and have made an atonement for himself, and for his household, and for all the congregation of Israel. And he shall go out unto the altar that is before the LORD, and make an atonement for it; and shall take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the goat, and put it upon the 19 horns of the altar round about. And he shall sprinkle of the blood upon it with his finger seven times, and cleanse it, and hallow it from the uncleanness of the children of Israel.
- 20 And when he hath made an end of reconciling the holy place, and the tabernacle 21 of the congregation, and the altar, he shall bring the live goat: and Aaron shall lay both his hands upon the head of the live goat, and confess over it all the iniquities of the children of Israel, and all their transgressions in all their sins, putting them upon the head of the goat, and shall send it away by the hand of an appointed man 22 into the wilderness: and the goat shall bear upon it all their iniquities unto a land not inhabited: and he shall let go the goat in the wilderness.
- 23 And Aaron shall come into the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall put off the linen garments, which he put on when he went into the holy place, and shall 24 leave them there: and he shall wash his flesh with water in the holy place, and put on his garments, and come forth, and offer his burnt offering, and the burnt offering 25 of the people, and make an atonement for himself, and for the people. And the fat of the sin offering shall he burn upon the altar.
- 26 And he who let go the goat for the scape-goat shall wash his clothes, and bathe 27 his flesh in water, and afterwards come into the camp. And the bullock for the sin offering, and the goat for the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement 28 in the holy place, shall one carry forth without the camp; and they shall burn in the fire their skins, and their flesh, and their dung. And he who burneth them shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and afterwards he shall come into the camp.
- 29 And this shall be a statute for ever unto you: that in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, ye shall afflict your souls, and do no work at all, whether it 30 be one of your own country, or a stranger who sojourneth among you; for on that day shall the priest make an atonement for you, to cleanse you, that ye may be clean 31 from all your sins before the LORD. It shall be a sabbath of rest unto you, and ye 32 shall afflict your souls, by a statute for ever. And the priest, whom he shall anoint, and whom he shall consecrate to minister in the priest's office in his father's stead, shall make the atonement, and shall put on the linen clothes, even the holy garments: and he shall make an atonement for the holy of holies, and he shall make 33 an atonement for the tabernacle of the congregation, and for the altar, and he shall 34 make an atonement for the priests, and for all the people of the congregation. And this shall be an everlasting statute unto you, to make an atonement for the children of Israel for all their sins once a year. And he did as the LORD commanded Moses.
- 17 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Speak unto Aaron, and unto his sons, and unto all the children of Israel, and say unto them; This is the thing which the 3 LORD hath commanded, saying, What man soever there be of the house of Israel, who killeth an ox, or lamb, or goat, in the camp, or who killeth it out of the camp, 4 and bringeth it not unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, to offer an offering unto the LORD before the tabernacle of the LORD; blood shall be imputed unto that man; he hath shed blood; and that man shall be cut off from among 5 his people: to the end that the children of Israel may bring their sacrifices, which they slaughter in the open field, even that they may bring them unto the LORD, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, unto the priest, and offer them 6 for peace offerings unto the LORD. And the priest shall sprinkle the blood upon the altar of the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and burn 7 the fat for a sweet savour unto the LORD. And they shall no more offer their sacrifices unto demons, after whom they have gone a whoring. This shall be a statute for ever unto them throughout their generations.
- 8 And thou shalt say unto them, Whatsoever man there be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who sojourn among you, who offereth a burnt offering or sacrifice, 9 and bringeth it not unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, to offer it unto the LORD; even that man shall be cut off from among his people.

And whatsoever man there be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who so- 10 journ among you, who eateth any manner of blood; I will even set my face against that person who eateth blood, and will cut him off from among his people. For the 11 life of the flesh is in the blood: and I have given it to you upon the altar to make an atonement for your souls: for it is the blood that maketh an atonement for the soul.
Therefore I said unto the children of Israel, No one among you shall eat blood, 12 neither shall any stranger who sojourneth among you eat blood.

And whatsoever man there be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers who 13 sojourn among you, who hunteth and catcheth any beast or bird that may be eaten; he shall even pour out the blood thereof, and cover it with dust. For it is the life of 14 all flesh: the blood of it is for the life thereof: therefore I said unto the children of Israel, Ye shall eat the blood of no manner of flesh: for the life of all flesh is the blood thereof: whosoever eateth it shall be cut off.

And every one who eateth that which died of itself, or that which was torn with 15 beasts, whether it be one of your own country, or a stranger, he shall both wash his clothes, and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening: then shall he be clean.
But if he wash them not, nor bathe his flesh; then he shall bear the punishment of 16 his iniquity.

And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, and 18 say unto them, I am the LORD your God. After the doings of the land of Egypt, wherein ye dwelt, shall ye not do: and after the doings of the land of Canaan, whither I bring you, shall ye not do: neither shall ye walk in their ordinances. Ye 4 shall do my judgments, and keep mine ordinances, to walk therein: I am the LORD your God. Ye shall therefore keep all my statutes, and all my judgments: which if 5 a man do, he shall live in them: I the LORD am your God.

None of you shall approach to any who are near of kin to him, to uncover their 6 nakedness: I the LORD forbid it. The nakedness of thy father, or the nakedness 7 of thy mother, shalt thou not uncover: she is thy mother; thou shalt not uncover her nakedness. The nakedness of thy father's wife shalt thou not uncover: it is thy 8 father's nakedness. The nakedness of thy sister, the daughter of thy father, or 9 daughter of thy mother, whether she be born at home, or born abroad, even her nakedness thou shalt not uncover. The nakedness of thy son's daughter, or of thy 10 daughter's daughter, thou shalt not uncover: for theirs is thine own nakedness.
The nakedness of thy father's wife's daughter, begotten of thy father, she is thy 11 sister, thou shalt not uncover her nakedness. Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness 12 of thy father's sister; she is thy father's near kinswoman. Thou shalt not uncover 13 the nakedness of thy mother's sister; for she is thy mother's near kinswoman. Thou 14 shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy father's brother, thou shalt not approach to his wife; she is thine aunt. Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy daughter- 15 in-law; she is thy son's wife; thou shalt not uncover her nakedness. Thou shalt 16 not uncover the nakedness of thy brother's wife; it is thy brother's nakedness. Thou 17 shalt not uncover the nakedness of a woman and her daughter, neither shalt thou take her son's daughter, or her daughter's daughter, to uncover her nakedness; for 18 they are her near kinswomen: it is wickedness. Neither shalt thou take a wife to her sister, to vex her, to uncover her nakedness, besides the other in her life time.

Also thou shalt not approach unto a woman to uncover her nakedness, as long as 19 she is put apart for her uncleanness. Moreover thou shalt not lie carnally with thy 20 neighbour's wife, to defile thyself with her. And thou shalt not let any of thy seed 21 pass through the fire to Moloch, neither shalt thou profane the name of thy God: I the LORD forbid it. Thou shalt not lie with mankind, as with womankind: it is 22 abomination. Neither shalt thou lie with any beast to defile thyself therewith: neither 23 shall any woman stand before a beast to lie down thereto: it is confusion.

Defile not ye yourselves in any of these things; for in all these the nations are de- 24 filed which I cast out before you: and the land is defiled: therefore I visit the 25 iniquity thereof upon it, and the land itself vomiteth out her inhabitants. Ye shall 26 therefore keep my statutes and my judgments, and shall not commit any of these abominations; neither any of your own nation, nor any stranger that sojourneth among you: (for all these abominations have the men of the land done, which were 27 before you, and the land is defiled;) that the land may not vomit you out also, when 28 ye defile it, as it vomited out the nations that were before you. For whosoever shall 29 commit any of these abominations, even they who commit them shall be cut off from 30 among their people. Therefore shall ye keep mine ordinance, that ye commit not any one of these abominable customs, which were committed before you, and that ye defile not yourselves therein: I am the LORD your God.

- 19 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Speak unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, and say unto them, Ye shall be holy; for I the LORD your God am holy.
- 3 Ye shall reverence every man his mother, and his father, and keep my sabbaths: I the LORD your God command it.
- 4 Turn ye not unto idols, nor make to yourselves molten gods: I the LORD am your God.
- 5 And if ye offer a sacrifice of peace offerings unto the LORD, ye shall offer it at your own will. It shall be eaten the same day ye offer it, and on the morrow: and if aught remain until the third day, it shall be burnt in the fire. And if it be eaten at all on the third day, it is abominable; it shall not be accepted. Therefore every one who eateth it shall bear the punishment of his iniquity, because he hath profaned the hallowed thing of the LORD: and that person shall be cut off from among his people.
- 9 And when ye reap the harvest of your land, thou shalt not wholly reap the corners of thy field, neither shalt thou gather the gleanings of thy harvest. And thou shalt not glean thy vineyard, neither shalt thou gather every grape of thy vineyard; thou shalt leave them for the poor and stranger: I the LORD your God so command.
- 11 12 Ye shall not steal, neither deal falsely, neither lie one to another. And ye shall not swear by my name falsely, for then thou wouldest profane the name of thy God: I the LORD forbid it. Thou shalt not defraud thy neighbour, neither rob him: the wages of him who is hired shall not abide with thee all night until the morning.
- 14 Thou shalt not curse the deaf, nor put a stumblingblock before the blind, but shalt fear thy God: I the LORD so command.
- 15 Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment: thou shalt not respect the person of the poor, nor honour the person of the mighty: but in righteousness shalt thou judge thy neighbour.
- 16 Thou shalt not go up and down as a talebearer among thy people: neither shalt thou stand up against the blood of thy neighbour: I the LORD so command.
- 17 Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thy heart: thou shalt in any wise rebuke thy neighbour, and not suffer sin upon him. Thou shalt not avenge, nor bear any grudge against the children of thy people, but thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself: I the LORD so command.
- 19 Ye shall keep my statutes. Thou shalt not let thy cattle gender with a diverse kind: thou shalt not sow thy field with mingled seed: neither shall a garment mingled of linen and woollen come upon thee.
- 20 And whosoever lieth carnally with a woman, who is a bondmaid, betrothed to a husband, and not at all redeemed, nor freedom given her; he shall be scourged; he shall not be put to death, because she was not free. And he shall bring his trespass offering unto the LORD, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, even a ram for a trespass offering. And the priest shall make an atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering before the LORD for his sin which he hath done: and the sin which he hath done shall be forgiven him.
- 23 And when ye shall come into the land, and shall have planted all manner of trees for food, then ye shall count the fruit thereof as uncircumcised: three years shall it be as uncircumcised unto you: it shall not be eaten of. But in the fourth year all the fruit thereof shall be holy to praise the LORD with. And in the fifth year shall ye eat of the fruit thereof, that it may yield unto you the increase thereof: I the LORD your God so command.
- 26 Ye shall not eat any thing with the blood; neither shall ye use enchantment, nor observe times. Ye shall not round the corners of your heads, neither shalt thou mar the corners of thy beard. Ye shall not make any cuttings in your flesh for the dead, nor print any marks upon you: I the LORD forbid it.
- 29 Do not prostitute thy daughter, to cause her to be a whore; lest the land fall to whoredom, and the land become full of wickedness.
- 30 Ye shall keep my sabbaths, and reverence my sanctuary: I the LORD so command. Regard not those who have familiar spirits, neither seek after wizards, to be defiled by them: I the LORD your God forbid it.
- 32 Thou shalt rise up before the hoary head, and honour the face of the old man, and fear thy God: I the LORD so command.
- 33 34 And if a stranger sojourn with thee in your land, ye shall not oppress him: but the stranger who dwelleth with you shall be unto you as one born among you, and thou shalt love him as thyself; for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt: I the LORD your God so command.

Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment, in meteyard, in weight, or in measure. Just balances, just weights, a just ephah, and a just hin, shall ye have : I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt. Therefore shall ye observe all my statutes, and all my judgments, and do them : I am the LORD.

And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Again, thou shalt say to the children of Israel, Whosoever he be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers who sojourn in Israel, who giveth any of his seed unto Moloch ; he shall surely be put to death : the people of the land shall stone him with stones. And I will set my face against that man, and will cut him off from among his people ; because he hath given of his seed unto Moloch, to defile my sanctuary, and to profane my holy name. And if the people of the land do in any way hide their eyes from the man, when he giveth of his seed unto Moloch, and kill him not ; then I will set my face against that man, and against his family, and will cut him off, and all who go a whoring after him, to commit whoredom with Moloch, from among their people. And the person who turneth after such as have familiar spirits, and after wizards, to go a whoring after them, I will even set my face against that person, and will cut him off from among his people. Sanctify yourselves therefore, and be ye holy : for I am the LORD your God. And ye shall keep my statutes, and do them : I am the LORD who has sanctified you.

For every one who curseth his father or his mother shall be surely put to death : he hath cursed his father or his mother ; his blood shall be upon him.

And the man who committeth adultery with another man's wife, the adulterer and the adulteress shall surely be put to death.

And the man who lieth with his father's wife hath uncovered his father's nakedness : both of them shall surely be put to death ; their blood shall be upon them.

And if a man lie with his daughter-in-law, both of them shall surely be put to death : they have wrought confusion ; their blood shall be upon them.

If a man also lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination : they shall surely be put to death ; their blood shall be upon them.

And if a man take a wife and her mother, it is wickedness : they shall be burnt with fire, both he and they ; that there be no wickedness among you.

And if a man lie with a beast, he shall surely be put to death : and ye shall slay the beast. And if a woman approach unto any beast, and lie down thereto, thou shalt kill the woman, and the beast : they shall surely be put to death ; their blood shall be upon them.

And if a man shall take his sister, his father's daughter, or his mother's daughter, and see her nakedness, and she see his nakedness ; it is a wicked thing ; and they shall be cut off in the sight of their people : he hath uncovered his sister's nakedness ; he shall bear the punishment of his iniquity. And if a man shall lie with a woman having her sickness, and shall uncover her nakedness ; he hath discovered her fountain, and she hath uncovered the fountain of her blood : and both of them shall be cut off from among their people.

And thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy mother's sister, nor of thy father's sister ; for he uncovereth his near kin : they shall bear the punishment of their iniquity. And if a man shall lie with his uncle's wife, he hath uncovered his uncle's nakedness : they shall bear the punishment of their sin ; they shall die childless. And if a man shall take his brother's wife, it is an unclean thing : he hath uncovered his brother's nakedness ; they shall be childless.

Ye shall therefore keep all my statutes, and all my judgments, and do them : that the land, whither I bring you to dwell therein, eject you not. And ye shall not walk in the manners of the nations, which I cast out before you : for they committed all these things, and therefore I abhorred them. But I have said unto you, Ye shall inherit their land, and I will give it unto you to possess it, a land that floweth with milk and honey : I, who am the LORD your God, have separated you from other people.

Ye shall therefore put difference between clean beasts and unclean, and between unclean birds and clean : and ye shall not make your souls abominable by beast, or by bird, or by any manner of living thing that creepeth on the ground, which I have separated from you as unclean. And ye shall be holy unto me : for I the LORD am holy, and have severed you from other people, that ye should be mine.

A man also or woman who hath a familiar spirit, or who is a wizard, shall surely be put to death : they shall stone them with stones : their blood shall be upon them.

And the LORD said unto Moses, Speak unto the priests the sons of Aaron, and say unto them, There shall none be defiled for the dead among his people : but for

- his kin, who is near unto him, that is, for his mother, and for his father, and for his son, and for his daughter, and for his brother, and for his sister a virgin, who is nigh unto him, who hath had no husband; for her may he be defiled. But he shall not defile himself, being a chief man among his people, to profane himself. They shall not make baldness upon their heads, neither shall they shave off the corners of their beard, nor make any cuttings in their flesh. They shall be holy unto their God, and not profane the name of their God; for the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and the bread of their God, they do offer: therefore they shall be holy. They shall not take a wife who is a whore, or profane; neither shall they take a woman put away from her husband: for they are holy unto their God. Thou shalt sanctify them therefore; for they offer the bread of thy God: they shall be holy unto thee: for I the LORD, who have hallowed you, am holy. And the daughter of any priest, if she profane herself by playing the whore, she profaneth her father: she shall be burnt with fire.
- And he who is the high priest among his brethren, upon whose head the anointing oil was poured, and who is consecrated to put on the garments, shall not uncover his head, nor rend his clothes; neither shall he go in to any dead body, nor defile himself for his father, or for his mother; neither shall he go out of the sanctuary, nor profane the sanctuary of his God; for the crown of the anointing oil of his God is upon him: I the LORD so command. And he shall take a wife in her virginity. A widow, or a divorced woman, or profane, or a harlot, these shall he not take: but he shall take a virgin of his own people to wife. Neither shall he profane his seed among his people: for I the LORD do sanctify him.
- And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Speak unto Aaron, saying, Whosoever he be of thy seed in their generations who hath any blemish, let him not approach to offer the bread of his God. For whatsoever man he be who hath a blemish, he shall not approach: a blind or a lame man, or he who hath a flat nose, or any thing superfluous, or a man who is brokenfooted, or brokenhanded, or crookbacked, or a dwarf, or who hath a blemish in his eye, or be scurvy, or scabbed, or hath his stones broken; no man who hath a blemish of the seed of Aaron the priest shall come nigh to offer the offerings of the LORD made by fire: he hath a blemish; he shall not come nigh to offer the bread of his God. He shall eat the bread of his God, both of the most holy, and of the holy. Only he shall not go in unto the vail, nor come nigh unto the altar, because he hath a blemish; that he profane not my sanctuaries: for I the LORD do sanctify them.
- And Moses told it unto Aaron, and to his sons, and unto all the children of Israel.
- 22 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Speak unto Aaron and to his sons, that they separate themselves from the holy things of the children of Israel, and that they profane not my holy name in those things which they hallow unto me: I am the LORD. Say unto them, Whosoever he be of all your seed among your generations, who goeth unto the holy things, which the children of Israel hallow unto the LORD, having his uncleanness upon him, that person shall be cut off from my presence: I the LORD so command. What man soever of the seed of Aaron is a leper, or hath a running issue; he shall not eat of the holy things, until he be clean. And whoso toucheth any thing that is unclean by the dead, or a man whose seed goeth from him; or whosoever toucheth any creeping thing, whereby he may be made unclean, or a man of whom he may take uncleanness, whatsoever uncleanness he hath; the person who hath touched any such shall be unclean until the evening, and shall not eat of the holy things, unless he wash his flesh with water. And when the sun is down, he shall be clean, and shall afterwards eat of the holy things; because it is his food. That which dieth of itself, or is torn with beasts, he shall not eat to defile himself therewith: I am the LORD. They shall therefore keep mine ordinance, lest they bear sin for it, and die therefore, if they profane it: I the LORD do sanctify them.
- There shall no stranger eat of the holy thing: a sojourner of the priest, or a hired servant, shall not eat of the holy thing. But if the priest buy any one with his money, he shall eat of it, and he who is born in his house: they shall eat of his meat. If the priest's daughter also be married unto a stranger, she may not eat of an offering of the holy things. But if the priest's daughter be a widow, or divorced, and have no child, and is returned unto her father's house, as in her youth, she shall eat of her father's meat: but there shall no stranger eat thereof. And if a man eat of the holy thing unawares, then he shall put the fifth part thereof unto it, and shall give it unto the priest with the holy thing. And they shall not profane the holy things of the children of Israel, which they offer unto the LORD; or suffer them to bear the iniquity of trespass, when they eat their holy things: for I the LORD do sanctify them. And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Speak unto Aaron, and to his sons, 17 18 and unto all the children of Israel, and say unto them, Whosoever he be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers in Israel, who will offer his oblation for all his vows, and for all his freewill offerings, which they will offer unto the LORD for a burnt offering; ye shall offer at your own will a male without blemish, of the oxen, of the sheep, 19 or of the goats. But whatsoever hath a blemish, that shall ye not offer: for it shall 20 not be acceptable for you. And whosoever offereth a sacrifice of peace offerings unto 21 the LORD to accomplish his vow, or a freewill offering in oxen or sheep, it shall be perfect to be accepted; there shall be no blemish therein. Blind, or broken, or 22 maimed, or having a wen, or scurvy, or scabbed, ye shall not offer these unto the LORD, nor make an offering by fire of them upon the altar unto the LORD. Either 23 a bullock or a lamb that hath any thing superfluous or lacking in its parts, that mayest thou offer for a freewill offering; but for a vow it shall not be accepted. Ye 24 shall not offer unto the LORD that which is bruised, or crushed, or broken, or cut; neither shall ye make such in your land. Neither from a stranger's hand shall ye 25 offer the bread of your God of any of these; because their corruption is in them, and blemishes be in them: they shall not be accepted for you.

And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, When a bullock, or a sheep, or a goat, 26 27 is brought forth, then it shall be seven days under the dam; and from the eighth day and thenceforth it shall be accepted for an offering made by fire unto the LORD. And whether it be cow or ewe, ye shall not kill it and its young both on 28 one day.

And when ye will offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving unto the LORD, offer it at your 29 own will. On the same day it shall be eaten up; ye shall leave none of it until the 30 morrow: I am the LORD.

Therefore shall ye keep my commandments, and do them: I am the LORD. 31 Neither shall ye profane my holy name; but I will be hallowed among the children 32 of Israel: I am the LORD who have hallowed you, and have brought you out of the 33 land of Egypt, to be your God: I am the LORD.

And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, and 23 say unto them, Concerning the feasts of the LORD, which ye shall proclaim to be holy convocations, even these are my feasts.

Six days shall work be done; but the seventh day is the sabbath of rest, a holy 3 convocation; ye shall do no work thereon: it is the sabbath of the LORD in all your dwellings.

These are the feasts of the LORD, even holy convocations, which ye shall proclaim 4 in their seasons. On the fourteenth day of the first month at evening is the LORD'S 5 passover. And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast of unleavened 6 bread unto the LORD: seven days ye must eat unleavened bread. On the first 7 day ye shall have a holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work thereon. But ye 8 shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD seven days: on the seventh day is a holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work thereon.

And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, and 9 10 say unto them, When ye be come into the land which I give unto you, and shall reap the harvest thereof, then ye shall bring a sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest unto the priest: and he shall wave the sheaf before the LORD, to be accepted for 11 you: on the morrow after the sabbath the priest shall wave it. And ye shall offer 12 that day when ye wave the sheaf a he-lamb without blemish of the first year for a burnt offering unto the LORD. And the thank offering thereof shall be two tenth 13 deals of fine flour mingled with oil, an offering made by fire unto the LORD for a sweet savour: and the drink offering thereof shall be of wine, the fourth part 14 of a hin. And ye shall eat neither bread, nor parched corn, nor green ears, until the selfsame day that ye have brought an offering unto your God: it shall be a statute 15 for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

And ye shall count unto you from the morrow after the sabbath, from the day 15 that ye brought the sheaf of the wave offering; seven sabbaths shall be complete: even unto the morrow after the seventh week shall ye number fifty days; and ye 16 shall offer a new thank offering unto the LORD. Ye shall bring out of your habitations two wave loaves of two tenth deals: they shall be of fine flour; they shall be 17 baked with leaven; they are the firstfruits unto the LORD. And ye shall offer with 18 the bread seven lambs without blemish of the first year, and one young bullock, and two rams: they shall be for a burnt offering unto the LORD, with their thank offering, and their drink offerings, even an offering made by fire, of sweet savour

LEVITICUS XXIV.

- 19 unto the LORD. Then ye shall sacrifice one kid of the goats for a sin offering, and 20 two lambs of the first year for a sacrifice of peace offerings. And the priest shall wave them with the bread of the firstfruits for a wave offering before the LORD, 21 with the two lambs: they shall be holy to the LORD for the priest. And ye shall proclaim on the selfsame day, that it may be a holy convocation unto you: ye shall do no servile work thereon: it shall be a statute for ever in all your dwellings throughout your generations.
- 22 And when ye reap the harvest of your land, thou shalt not make clean riddance of the corners of thy field when thou reapest, neither shalt thou gather any gleanings of thy harvest: thou shalt leave them unto the poor, and to the stranger: I am the LORD your God.
- 23 24 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, shall ye have a sabbath, 25 a memorial of blowing of trumpets, a holy convocation. Ye shall do no servile work thereon: but ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD.
- 26 27 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Also on the tenth day of this seventh month there shall be a day of atonement: it shall be a holy convocation unto you;
 and ye shall afflict your souls, and offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD.
 28 And ye shall do no work on that same day: for it is a day of atonement, to make an 29 atonement for you before the LORD your God. For whosoever he be who shall not 30 be afflicted on that same day, he shall be cut off from among his people. And whosoever he be who doeth any work on that same day, the same will I destroy from 31 among his people. Ye shall do no manner of work: it shall be a statute for ever 32 throughout your generations in all your dwellings. It shall be unto you a sabbath of rest, and ye shall afflict your souls: on the ninth day of the month at evening, from evening unto evening, shall ye celebrate your sabbath.
- 33 34 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, The fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be the feast of tabernacles for 35 seven days unto the LORD. On the first day shall be a holy convocation: ye shall 36 do no servile work thereon. Seven days ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD: on the eighth day shall be a holy convocation unto you; and ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD: it is a solemn assembly; and ye 37 shall do no servile work thereon. These are the feasts of the LORD, which ye shall proclaim to be holy convocations, to offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD, a burnt offering, and a thank offering, a sacrifice, and drink offerings, every thing 38 upon its day: besides the sabbaths of the LORD, and besides your gifts, and besides all your vows, and besides all your freewill offerings, which ye give unto the LORD.
- 39 Also on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when ye have gathered in the fruit of the land, ye shall keep a feast unto the LORD seven days: on the first day shall 40 be a sabbath, and on the eighth day shall be a sabbath. And ye shall take you on the first day the fruit of goodly trees, branches of palm trees, and the boughs of thick trees, and willows of the brook; and ye shall rejoice before the LORD your God 41 seven days. And ye shall keep it a feast unto the LORD seven days in the year. It shall be a statute for ever in your generations: ye shall celebrate it in the seventh 42 month. Ye shall dwell in booths seven days; all who are Israelites born shall dwell in 43 booths: that your generations may know that I made the children of Israel to dwell in booths, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.
- 44 And Moses declared unto the children of Israel the feasts of the LORD.
- 24 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Command the children of Israel, that they bring unto thee pure olive oil beaten for the light, to cause the lamps to burn 3 continually. Without the vail of the testimony, in the tabernacle of the congregation, shall Aaron and his sons order it from the evening unto the morning before the 4 LORD continually: it shall be a statute for ever in your generations. He shall order the lamps upon the lampholder of pure gold before the LORD continually.
- 5 And thou shalt take fine flour, and bake twelve cakes thereof: two tenth deals shall 6 be in one cake. And thou shalt set them in two rows, six on a row, upon the pure 7 table before the LORD. And thou shalt put pure frankincense upon each row, that it may be on the bread for a memorial, even an offering made by fire unto the 8 LORD. Every sabbath he shall set it in order before the LORD continually, being 9 taken from the children of Israel by an everlasting covenant. And it shall be Aaron's and his sons'; and they shall eat it in the holy place; for it is most holy unto him of the offerings of the LORD made by fire by a perpetual statute.
- 10 And the son of an Israelitish woman, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the children of Israel; and this son of the Israelitish woman and a man of Israel strove together in the camp; and the Israelitish woman's son blasphemed the name of the LORD, and cursed. And they brought him unto Moses: (and his mother's name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan:) and they put him in ward, that the mind of the LORD might be showed them. And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Bring forth him who hath cursed without the camp; and let all who heard him lay their hands upon his head, and let all the congregation stone him. And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, Whosoever curseth his God shall bear his sin. And he who blasphemeth the name of the LORD shall surely be put to death, and all the congregation shall certainly stone him: as well the stranger, as he who is born in the land, when he blasphemeth the name of the LORD, shall be put to death. And he who killeth any man shall surely be put to death. And he who killeth a beast shall make it good; beast for beast. And if a man cause a blemish in his neighbour; as he hath done, so shall it be done to him; breach for breach, eye for eye, tooth for tooth: as he hath caused a blemish in a man, so shall it be done to him again. And he who killeth a beast shall restore it: and he who killeth a man shall be put to death. Ye shall have one manner of law, as well for the stranger, as for one of your own country: for I am the LORD your God. And Moses spoke to the children of Israel, that they should bring forth him who had cursed out of the camp, and stone him with stones. And the children of Israel did as the LORD commanded Moses.

And the LORD spoke unto Moses in mount Sinai, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye come into the land which I give you, then shall the land keep a sabbath unto the LORD. Six years thou shalt sow thy field, and six years thou shalt prune thy vineyard, and gather in the fruit thereof; but in the seventh year shall be a sabbath of rest unto the land, a sabbath for the LORD: thou shalt neither sow thy field, nor prune thy vineyard. That which groweth of its own accord of thy harvest thou shalt not reap, neither gather the grapes of thy vine undressed; for it is a year of rest unto the land. And the sabbath of the land shall be food for you; for thee, and for thy bondman, and for thy bondwoman, and for thy hired servant, and for thy stranger who sojourneth with thee, and for thy cattle, and for the beast that are in thy land, shall all the increase thereof be meat.

And thou shalt number seven sabbaths of years unto thee, seven times seven years; and the space of the seven sabbaths of years shall be unto thee forty and nine years. Then shalt thou cause the trumpet of the jubilee to sound on the tenth day of the seventh month, on the day of atonement shall ye make the trumpet sound throughout all your land. And ye shall hallow the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof: it shall be a jubilee unto you; and ye shall return every man unto his possession, and ye shall return every man unto his family. A jubilee shall that fiftieth year be unto you: ye shall not sow, neither reap that which groweth of itself in it, nor gather the grapes in it of thy vine undressed. For it is the jubilee; it shall be holy unto you: ye shall eat the increase thereof out of the field. In the year of this jubilee ye shall return every man unto his possession. And if thou sell aught unto thy neighbour, or buy aught of thy neighbour's hand, ye shall not oppress one another: according to the number of years after the jubilee thou shalt buy of thy neighbour, and according unto the number of years of the fruits he shall sell unto thee: according to the multitude of years thou shalt increase the price thereof, and according to the fewness of years thou shalt diminish the price of it: for according to the number of the years of the fruits doth he sell unto thee. Ye shall not therefore oppress one another; but thou shalt fear thy God: for I am the LORD your God.

Wherefore ye shall do my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them; and ye shall dwell in the land in safety. And the land shall yield her fruit, and ye shall eat your fill, and dwell therein in safety. And if ye shall say, What shall we eat the seventh year? behold, we shall not sow, nor gather in our increase: then I will command my blessing upon you in the sixth year, and it shall bring forth fruit for three years. And ye shall sow the eighth year, and eat yet of old fruit until the ninth year; until her fruits come in ye shall eat of the old store.

The land shall not be sold for ever; for the land is mine; for ye are strangers and sojourners with me. And in all the land of your possession ye shall grant a redemption for the land. If thy brother be waxen poor, and hath sold away some of his possession, and if any of his kin come to redeem it, then shall he redeem that which his brother sold. And if the man have none to redeem it, and himself be able to redeem it; then let him count the years of the sale thereof, and restore the overplus

- 28 unto the man to whom he sold it; that he may return unto his possession. But if he be not able to restore it to him, then that which is sold shall remain in the hand of him who hath bought it until the year of jubilee: and in the jubilee it shall go out, and he shall return unto his possession.
- 29 And if a man sell a dwelling house in a walled city, then he may redeem it within a whole year after it is sold; within a full year may he redeem it. And if it be not redeemed within the space of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city shall be established for ever to him who bought it throughout his generations: it shall not go out in the jubilee. But the houses of the villages which have no wall round about them shall be counted as the fields of the country: they may be redeemed, and they shall go out in the jubilee. Notwithstanding the cities of the Levites, and the houses of the cities of their possession, may the Levites redeem at any time. And if one of the Levites redeem them, then the house that was sold, and the city of his possession, shall go out in the year of jubilee: for the houses of the cities of the Levites are their possession among the children of Israel. But the field of the suburbs of their cities may not be sold; for it is their perpetual possession.
- 35 And if thy brother be waxen poor, and fallen into decay with thee; then thou shalt relieve him: yea, though he be a stranger, or a sojourner; that he may live with thee. Take thou no usury of him, or increase: but fear thy God; that thy brother may live with thee. Thou shalt not give him thy money upon usury, nor lend him thy victuals for increase. I am the LORD your God, who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan, and to be your God.
- 39 And if thy brother who dwelleth by thee be waxen poor, and be sold unto thee; thou shalt not compel him to serve as a bondservant: but as a hired servant, and as a sojourner, he shall be with thee, and shall serve thee unto the year of jubilee: and then shall he depart from thee, both he and his children with him, and shall return unto his own family, and unto the possession of his fathers shall he return. For they are my servants, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt: they shall not be sold as bondmen. Thou shalt not rule over him with rigour; but shalt fear thy God. Both thy bondmen and thy bondmaids, whom thou shalt have, shall be of the nations that are round about you; of them shall ye buy bondmen and bondmaids. Moreover of the children of the strangers who sojourn among you, of them shall ye buy, and of their families who are with you, whom they begat in your land: and they shall be your possession. And ye shall take them as an inheritance for your children after you, to inherit them for a possession; they shall be your bondmen for ever: but over your brethren the children of Israel, ye shall not rule one over another with rigour.
- 47 And if a sojourner or stranger wax rich by thee, and thy brother who dwelleth by him wax poor, and sell himself unto the stranger or sojourner by thee, or to the stock of the stranger's family: after that he is sold he may be redeemed again; one of his brethren shall redeem him: either his uncle, or his uncle's son, may redeem him, or any who is of kin unto him of his family may redeem him; or if he be able, he may redeem himself. And he shall reckon with him who bought him from the year that he was sold to him unto the year of jubilee: and the price of his sale shall be according unto the number of years, according to the time of a hired servant shall it be with him. If there be yet many years behind, according unto them he shall give again the price of his redemption out of the money that he was bought for. And if there remain but few years unto the year of jubilee, then he shall count with him, and according unto his years shall he give him again the price of his redemption. And as a yearly hired servant shall he be with him; and the other shall not rule with rigour over him in thy sight. And if he be not redeemed in these years, then he shall go out in the year of jubilee, both he, and his children with him. For unto me the children of Israel are servants; they are my servants whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.
- 26 Ye shall make you no idols nor graven image, neither rear you up a statue, neither shall ye set up any image of stone in your land, to bow down unto it: for I am the LORD your God. Ye shall keep my sabbaths, and reverence my sanctuary: I am the LORD.
- 3 4 If ye walk in my statutes, and keep my commandments, and do them; then I will give you rain in due season, and the land shall yield its increase, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit. And your threshing shall reach unto the vintage, and the vintage shall reach unto the sowing time: and ye shall eat your bread to the full, and dwell in your land safely. And I will give peace in the land, and ye shall lie down, and none shall make you afraid: and I will cause evil beasts to cease out of the land, neither shall the sword go through your land. And ye shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall before you by the sword. And five of you shall chase a hundred, and a hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight; and your enemies shall fall before you by the sword. For I will have respect unto you, and make you fruitful, and multiply you, and establish my covenant with you. And ye shall eat old store, and bring forth the old because of the new. And I will set my tabernacle among you; and my soul shall not abhor you. And I will walk among you, and will be your God, and ye shall be my people. I am the LORD your God, who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, that ye should not be their bondmen; and I have broken the bands of your yoke, and made you go upright.

But if ye will not hearken unto me, and will not do all these commandments; and if ye despise my statutes, or if your soul abhor my judgments, so that ye will not do all my commandments, but that ye break my covenant: I also will do this unto you: I will even send upon you terror, consumption, and the burning ague, that shall consume the eyes, and cause sorrow of heart: and ye shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it. And I will set my face against you, and ye shall be slain before your enemies: those who hate you shall reign over you; and ye shall flee when none pursueth you. And if ye will not, yet for all this, hearken unto me, then I will punish you seven times more for your sins. And I will break the pride of your power; and I will make your heavens as iron, and your earth as brass: and your strength shall be spent in vain; for your land shall not yield its increase, neither shall the trees of the land yield their fruits. And if ye walk contrary unto me, and will not hearken unto me; I will bring seven times more plagues upon you according to your sins. I will also send wild beasts among you, which shall rob you of your children, and destroy your cattle, and make you few in number; and your highways shall be desolate. And if ye will not be reformed by me by these things, but will walk contrary unto me; then will I also walk contrary unto you, and will punish you yet seven times for your sins. And I will bring a sword upon you, that shall avenge the quarrel of my covenant; and when ye are gathered together within your cities, I will send the pestilence among you; and ye shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy. And when I have broken the staff of your bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall deliver you your bread again by weight; and ye shall eat, and not be satisfied.

And if ye will not for all this hearken unto me, but walk contrary unto me; then I will walk contrary unto you also in fury; and I, even I, will chastise you seven times for your sins. And ye shall eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters shall ye eat. And I will destroy your high places, and cut down your images, and cast your carcases upon the carcases of your idols, and my soul shall abhor you. And I will make your cities waste, and bring your sanctuaries unto desolation, and I will not smell the savour of your sweet odours. And I will bring the land into desolation; and your enemies who dwell therein shall be astonished at it. And I will scatter you among the nations, and will draw out a sword after you; and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste. Then shall the land enjoy its sabbaths, as long as it lieth desolate, and ye be in your enemies' land; even then shall the land rest, and enjoy its sabbaths. So long as it lieth desolate it shall rest; because it did not rest in your sabbaths, when ye dwelt upon it. And upon those who are left alive of you I will send a faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies; and the sound of a driven leaf shall chase them; and they shall flee, as fleeing from a sword; and they shall fall when none pursueth. And they shall fall one upon another, as it were before a sword, when none pursueth; and ye shall have no power to stand before your enemies. And ye shall perish among the nations, and the land of your enemies shall eat you up. And those who are left of you shall pine away in their iniquity in your enemies' lands; and also in the iniquities of their fathers shall they pine away with them. If they shall confess their iniquity, and the iniquity of their fathers, with their trespass which they trespassed against me, and that also they have walked contrary unto me; and that I also have walked contrary unto them, and have brought them into the land of their enemies; if then their uncircumcised hearts be humbled, and they then make an atonement for their iniquity: then will I remember my covenant with Jacob, and also my covenant with Isaac, and also my covenant with Abraham will I remember; and I will remember the land.

The land also shall be left of them, and shall enjoy its sabbaths, while it lieth desolate without them: and they shall make an atonement for their iniquity: because, even because they despised my judgments, and because their soul abhorred my statutes. And yet for all that, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will 44 not cast them away, neither will I abhor them, to destroy them utterly, and to break my covenant with them: for I am the LORD their God. But I will for their sakes remember the covenant of their ancestors, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the heathen, that I might be their God: I am the LORD.

These are the statutes and judgments and laws, which the LORD made between him and the children of Israel in mount Sinai by the hand of Moses.

27 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When a man shall make an especial vow, the persons shall be for the LORD by thine estimated value. And thine estimation shall be of the male from twenty years old even unto sixty years old, even thine estimation shall be fifty shekels of silver, after the shekel of the sanctuary. And if it be a female, then thine estimation shall be thirty shekels. And if it be from five years old even unto twenty years old, then thine estimation shall be of the male twenty shekels, and for the female ten shekels. And if it be from a month old even unto five years old, then thine estimation shall be of the male five shekels of silver, and for the female thine estimation shall be three shekels of silver. And if it be from sixty years old and above; if it be a male, then thine estimation shall be fifteen shekels, and for the female ten shekels. But if he be poorer than thine estimation, then he shall present himself before the priest, and the priest shall value him; according to his ability who vowed shall the priest value him.

And if it be a beast, whereof men bring an offering unto the LORD, all that any man giveth of such unto the LORD shall be holy. He shall not alter it, nor change it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good: and if he shall at all change beast for beast, then it and the exchange thereof shall be holy. And if it be any unclean beast, of which they do not offer a sacrifice unto the LORD, then he shall present the beast before the priest: and the priest shall value it, whether it be good or bad: as thou valuest it, O priest, so shall it be. But if he will at all redeem it, then he shall add a fifth part thereof unto thine estimation.

And when a man shall sanctify his house to be holy unto the LORD, then the priest shall estimate it, whether it be good or bad: as the priest shall estimate it, so shall it stand. And if he who sanctified it will redeem his house, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of thine estimation unto it, and it shall be his.

And if a man shall sanctify unto the LORD some part of a field of his possession, then thine estimation shall be according to the seed thereof: an homer of barley seed shall be valued at fifty shekels of silver. If he sanctify his field from the year of jubilee, according to thine estimation it shall stand. But if he sanctify his field after the jubilee, then the priest shall reckon unto him the money according to the years that remain, even unto the year of the jubilee, and it shall be abated from thine estimation. And if he who sanctified the field will in any wise redeem it, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of thine estimation unto it, and it shall be made sure to him. And if he will not redeem the field, or if he have sold the field to another man, it shall not be redeemed any more. But the field, when it goeth out in the jubilee, shall be holy unto the LORD, as a field devoted; the possession thereof shall be the priest's.

And if a man sanctify unto the LORD a field which he hath bought, which is not of the fields of his possession; then the priest shall reckon unto him the worth of thine estimation, even unto the year of the jubilee: and he shall give thine estimation in that day, as a holy thing unto the LORD. In the year of the jubilee the field shall return unto him of whom it was bought, even to him to whom the possession of the land did belong. And all thine estimations shall be according to the shekel of the sanctuary: twenty gerahs shall be the shekel.

Only the firstling of the beasts, which should be the LORD'S firstling, no man shall sanctify it; whether it be ox, or sheep: it is the LORD'S. And if it be of an unclean beast, then he shall redeem it according to thine estimation, and shall add a fifth part of it thereto: or if it be not redeemed, then it shall be sold according to thine estimation.

Notwithstanding no devoted thing, that a man shall devote unto the LORD of all that he hath, either of man or beast, or of the field of his possession, shall be sold or redeemed: every devoted thing is most holy unto the LORD. None devoted, that shall be devoted of men, shall be redeemed; but shall surely be put to death.

And all the tithe of the land, whether of the seed of the land, or of the fruit of the tree, is the LORD'S: it is holy unto the LORD. And if a man will at all redeem ought of his tithes, he shall add thereto the fifth part thereof. And concerning the tithe of the herd, or of the flock, even of whatsoever passeth under the rod, the tenth shall be holy unto the LORD. He shall not search whether it be good or bad, 33 neither shall he change it: and if he change it at all, then both it and the change thereof shall be holy; it shall not be redeemed.

These are the commandments, which the LORD commanded Moses for the chil- 34 dren of Israel in mount Sinai.

THE FOURTH BOOK OF MOSES,

AND the LORD spoke unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the tabernacle of 1 the congregation, on the first day of the second month, in the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying, Take ye the sum of all the congregation 2 of the children of Israel, after their families, by the house of their fathers, with the number of their names, every male one by one; from twenty years old and upward, 3 all who are able to go forth to war in Israel: thou and Aaron shall number them by their tribes. And with you there shall be a man of every tribe; every one head of 4 the house of his fathers.

And these are the names of the men who shall stand with you: of the tribe of 5 Reuben; Elizur the son of Shedeur. Of Simeon; Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai. 6 Of Judah; Nahshon the son of Amminadab. Of Issachar; Nethaneel the son of 7 8 Zuar. Of Zebulun; Eliab the son of Helon. Of the children of Joseph: of Ephraim; 9 10 Elishama the son of Ammihud: of Manasseh; Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur. Of 11 Benjamin; Abidan the son of Gideoni. Of Dan; Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai. 12 Of Asher; Pagiel the son of Ocran. Of Gad; Eliasaph the son of Reuel. Of Naph- 13-15 tali; Ahira the son of Enan. These were the renowned of the congregation, princes 16 of the tribes of their fathers, heads of thousands in Israel.

And Moses and Aaron took these men who were expressly named: and they assem- 17 18 bled all the congregation together on the first day of the second month, and they declared their pedigrees after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upwards, one by one. As the 19 LORD commanded Moses, so he numbered them in the wilderness of Sinai.

And the children of Reuben, Israel's eldest son, by their genealogies, after their 20 families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, one by one, every male from twenty years old and upwards, all who were able to go forth to war; those who were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Reuben, were forty 21 and six thousand and five hundred.

Of the children of Simeon, by their genealogies, after their families, by the house 22 of their fathers, those who were numbered of them, according to the number of the names, one by one, every male from twenty years old and upwards, all who were able to go forth to war; those who were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Simeon, 23 were fifty and nine thousand and three hundred.

Of the children of Gad, by their genealogies, after their families, by the house of 24 their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upwards, all who were able to go forth to war; those who were numbered of them, even 25 of the tribe of Gad, were forty and five thousand six hundred and fifty.

Of the children of Judah, by their genealogies, after their families, by the house 26 of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upwards, all who were able to go forth to war; those who were numbered of them, 27 even of the tribe of Judah, were threescore and fourteen thousand and six hundred.

Of the children of Issachar, by their genealogies, after their families, by the house 28 of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upwards, all who were able to go forth to war; those who were numbered of them, 29 even of the tribe of Issachar, were fifty and four thousand and four hundred.

Of the children of Zebulun, by their genealogies, after their families, by the house 30

NUMBERS II.

- of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upwards, all who were able to go forth to war; those who were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Zebulun, were fifty and seven thousand and four hundred.
- Of the children of Joseph, namely, of the children of Ephraim, by their genealogies, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upwards, all who were able to go forth to war; those who were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Ephraim, were forty thousand and five hundred.
- Of the children of Manasseh, by their genealogies, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upwards, all who were able to go forth to war; those who were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Manasseh, were thirty and two thousand and two hundred.
- Of the children of Benjamin, by their genealogies, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upwards, all who were able to go forth to war; those who were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Benjamin, were thirty and five thousand and four hundred.
- Of the children of Dan, by their genealogies, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upwards, all who were able to go forth to war; those who were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Dan, were threescore and two thousand and seven hundred.
- Of the children of Asher, by their genealogies, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upwards, all who were able to go forth to war; those who were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Asher, were forty and one thousand and five hundred.
- Of the children of Naphtali, throughout their genealogies, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upwards, all who were able to go forth to war; those who were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Naphtali, were fifty and three thousand and four hundred.
- These are those who were numbered, whom Moses and Aaron numbered, and the princes of Israel, being twelve men: each one was for the house of his fathers. So were all those who were numbered of the children of Israel, by the house of their fathers, from twenty years old and upwards, all who were able to go forth to war in Israel; even all they who were numbered were six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty.
- But the Levites after the tribe of their fathers were not numbered among them.
- For the LORD had spoken unto Moses, saying, Only thou shalt not number the tribe of Levi, neither take the sum of them among the children of Israel: but thou shalt appoint the Levites over the tabernacle of testimony, and over all the vessels thereof, and over all things that belong to it: they shall bear the tabernacle, and all the vessels thereof; and they shall minister unto it, and shall encamp round about the tabernacle. And when the tabernacle setteth forward, the Levites shall take it down: and when the tabernacle is to be pitched, the Levites shall set it up: and the stranger who cometh nigh shall be put to death. And the children of Israel shall pitch their tents, every man by his own camp, and every man by his own standard, throughout their hosts. But the Levites shall pitch round about the tabernacle of testimony, that there be no wrath upon the congregation of the children of Israel: and the Levites shall keep the charge of the tabernacle of testimony. And the children of Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did they.
- 2 And the LORD spoke unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying, Every man of the children of Israel shall pitch by his own standard, with the ensign of his father's house: over against the tabernacle of the congregation shall he pitch.
- And on the east side towards the rising of the sun shall they of the standard of the camp of Judah pitch throughout their armies: and Nahshon the son of Amminadab shall be captain of the children of Judah. And his host, and they who were numbered of them, were threescore and fourteen thousand and six hundred. And they who encamp next unto him shall be the tribe of Issachar: and Nethaneel the son of Zuar shall be captain of the children of Issachar. And his host, and they who were numbered thereof, were fifty and four thousand and four hundred. Then the tribe of Zebulun: and Eliab the son of Helon shall be captain of the children of Zebulun. And his host, and they who were numbered thereof, were fifty and seven thousand and four hundred. All who were numbered in the camp of Judah were a hundred thousand and fourscore thousand and six thousand and four hundred, throughout their armies. These shall first set forth.

NUMBERS III.

On the south side shall be the standard of the camp of Reuben according to their 10 armies: and the captain of the children of Reuben shall be Elizur the son of Shedeur.
And his host, and they who were numbered thereof, were forty and six thousand 11 and five hundred. And they who encamp by him shall be the tribe of Simeon: and 12 the captain of the children of Simeon shall be Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.
And his host, and they who were numbered of them, were fifty and nine thousand 13 and three hundred. Then the tribe of Gad: and the captain of the sons of Gad shall 14 be Eliasaph the son of Reuel. And his host, and they who were numbered of them, 15 were forty and five thousand and six hundred and fifty. All who were numbered in 16 the camp of Reuben were a hundred thousand and fifty and one thousand and four hundred and fifty, throughout their armies. And they shall march in the second rank.

Then the tabernacle of the congregation shall set forward with the camp of the Le- 17 vites in the midst of the camp: as they encamp, so shall they set forward, every man in his place by his own standard.

On the west side shall be the standard of the camp of Ephraim according to their 18 armies: and the captain of the sons of Ephraim shall be Elishama the son of Am-mihud. And his host, and they who were numbered of them, were forty thou- 19 sand and five hundred. And by him shall be the tribe of Manasseh: and the captain 20 of the children of Manasseh shall be Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur. And his host, 21 and they who were numbered of them, were thirty and two thousand and two hundred. Then the tribe of Benjamin: and the captain of the sons of Benjamin shall 22 be Abidan the son of Gideon. And his host, and they who were numbered of 23 them, were thirty and five thousand and four hundred. All who were numbered of 24 the camp of Ephraim were a hundred thousand and eight thousand and a hundred, throughout their armies. And they shall go forward in the third rank.

The standard of the camp of Dan shall be on the north side by their armies: and 25 the captain of the children of Dan shall be Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai. And 26 his host, and they who were numbered of them, were threescore and two thousand and seven hundred. And they who encamp by him shall be the tribe of Asher: 27 and the captain of the children of Asher shall be Pagiel the son of Ocran. And his 28 host, and they who were numbered of them, were forty and one thousand and five hundred. Then the tribe of Naphtali: and the captain of the children of Naphtali 29 shall be Ahira the son of Enan. And his host, and they who were numbered of 30 them, were fifty and three thousand and four hundred. All they who were num- 31 bered in the camp of Dan were a hundred thousand and fifty and seven thousand and six hundred. They shall go hindmost with their standards.

These are they who were numbered of the children of Israel by the house of their 32 fathers: all they who were numbered of the camps throughout their hosts were six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty. But the Levites 33 were not numbered among the children of Israel; as the LORD commanded Moses.
And the children of Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses: 34 so they pitched by their standards, and marched every one after his family, according to the house of his father.

These also are the generations of Aaron and Moses in the day that the LORD 3 spoke with Moses in mount Sinai. And these are the names of the sons of Aaron; Nadab the firstborn, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. These are the names of the 3 sons of Aaron, the priests who were anointed, whom he consecrated to minister in the priest's office. And Nadab and Abihu died before the LORD, when they offered 4 strange fire before the LORD, in the wilderness of Sinai, and they had no children: and Eleazar and Ithamar ministered in the priest's office in the sight of Aaron their father.

And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Bring the tribe of Levi near, and pre- 5 6 sent them before Aaron the priest, that they may minister unto him. And they 7 shall keep his charge, and the charge of the whole congregation before the tabernacle of the congregation, to do the service of the tabernacle. And they shall keep 8 all the instruments of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the children of Israel, to do the service of the tabernacle. And thou shalt give the Le- 9 vites unto Aaron and to his sons: they are wholly given unto him out of the children of Israel. And thou shalt appoint Aaron and his sons, and they shall wait on their 10 priest's office: and the stranger who cometh nigh shall be put to death.

And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, And I, behold, I have taken the Levites 11 12 from among the children of Israel instead of all the firstborn males who open the womb among the children of Israel: therefore the Levites shall be mine; because 13 all the firstborn are mine; for on the day that I smote all the firstborn in the land

NUMBERS III.

- of Egypt I hallowed unto me all the firstborn in Israel, both man and beast : mine shall they be : I am the LORD.
- 14 15 And the LORD spoke unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying, Number the children of Levi after the house of their fathers, by their families : every male from 16 a month old and upwards shalt thou number. And Moses numbered them according 17 ing to the word of the LORD, as he was commanded. And these were the sons of 18 Levi by their names ; Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari. And these are the names 19 of the sons of Gershon by their families ; Libni, and Shimei. And the sons of 20 Kohath by their families ; Amram, and Izehar, Hebron, and Uzziel. And the sons of Merari by their families ; Mahli, and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to the house of their fathers.
- 21 Of Gershon was the family of the Libnites, and the family of the Shimites : these 22 are the families of the Gershonites. They who were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upwards, even they who were 23 numbered of them were seven thousand and five hundred. The families of the 24 Gershonites shall pitch behind the tabernacle westward. And the chief of the house 25 of the father of the Gershonites shall be Eliasaph the son of Lael. And the charge of the sons of Gershon in the tabernacle of the congregation shall be the tabernacle, and the tent, the covering thereof, and the hanging for the door of the tabernacle of 26 the congregation, and the hangings of the court, and the curtain for the door of the court, which is by the tabernacle, and by the altar round about, and the cords of it for all the service thereof.
- 27 And of Kohath was the family of the Amramites, and the family of the Izeharites, and the family of the Hebronites, and the family of the Uzzielites : these are the 28 families of the Kohathites. In the number of all the males, from a month old and upwards, were eight thousand and six hundred, keeping the charge of the sanctuary.
 29 The families of the sons of Kohath shall pitch on the side of the tabernacle south-30 ward. And the chief of the house of the father of the families of the Kohathites shall be Elizaphan the son of Uzziel.
- 31 And their charge shall be the ark, and the table, and the lampholder, and the altars, and the vessels of the sanctuary wherewith they minister, and the hanging, and all 32 the service thereof. And Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest shall be chief over the chief of the Levites, and have the oversight of those who keep the charge of the sanctuary.
- 33 Of Merari was the family of the Mahlites, and the family of the Mushites : these 34 are the families of Merari. And they who were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upwards, were six thousand and 35 two hundred. And the chief of the house of the father of the families of Merari was Zuriel the son of Abihail : these shall pitch on the side of the tabernacle northward.
 36 And under the custody and charge of the sons of Merari shall be the boards of the tabernacle, and the bars thereof, and the pillars thereof, and the sockets thereof, and 37 all the vessels thereof, and all that serveth thereto, and the pillars of the court round about, and their sockets, and their pins, and their cords.
- 38 But they who encamp before the tabernacle towards the east, even before the tabernacle of the congregation eastward, shall be Moses, and Aaron and his sons, keeping the charge of the sanctuary for the charge of the children of Israel ; and the 39 stranger who cometh nigh shall be put to death. All who were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron numbered at the commandment of the LORD, throughout their families, all the males from a month old and upwards, were twenty and two thousand.
- 40 And the LORD said unto Moses, Number all the firstborn of the males of the children of Israel from a month old and upwards, and take the number of their 41 names. And thou shalt take the Levites for me (I am the LORD) instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel ; and the cattle of the Levites instead of all 42 the firstlings among the cattle of the children of Israel. And Moses numbered, as 43 the LORD commanded him, all the firstborn among the children of Israel. And all the firstborn males by the number of names, from a month old and upwards, of those who were numbered of them, were twenty and two thousand two hundred and threescore and thirteen.
- 44 45 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Take the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites instead of their 46 cattle ; and the Levites shall be mine : I am the LORD. And for those who are to be redeemed of the two hundred and threescore and thirteen of the firstborn of 47 the children of Israel, who are more than the Levites ; thou shalt even take five shekels apiece one by one, after the shekel of the sanctuary shalt thou take them : (the shekel is twenty gerahs :) and thou shalt give the money, wherewith the odd number of them is to be redeemed, unto Aaron and to his sons. And Moses took the redemption money of those who were over and above those who were redeemed by the Levites : of the firstborn of the children of Israel took he the money ; a thousand three hundred and threescore and five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary : and Moses gave the money of those who were redeemed unto Aaron and to his sons, according to the word of the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses.

And the LORD spoke unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying, Take the sum of the sons of Kohath from among the sons of Levi, after their families, by the house of their fathers, from thirty years old and upwards even until fifty years old, all who are fit to enter upon the service, to do the work in the tabernacle of the congregation.

This shall be the service of the sons of Kohath in the tabernacle of the congregation, about the most holy things : and when the camp setteth forward, Aaron shall come, and his sons, and they shall take down the covering vail, and cover the ark of testimony with it : and shall put thereon the covering of badgers' skins, and shall spread over it a cloth wholly of blue, and shall put in the staves thereof. And upon the table of showbread they shall spread a cloth of blue, and put thereon the dishes, and the spoons, and the bowls, and covers to cover with : and the continual bread shall be thereon : and they shall spread upon them a cloth of scarlet, and cover the same with a covering of badgers' skins, and shall put in the staves thereof. And they shall take a cloth of blue, and cover the lampholder, and its lamps, and its tongs, and its snuffdishes, and all its oil vessels, wherewith they minister unto it : and they shall put it and all the vessels within a covering of badgers' skins, and shall put it upon a bearer. And upon the golden altar they shall spread a cloth of blue, and cover it with a covering of badgers' skins, and shall put them on a bearer : and they shall take all the instruments of ministry, wherewith they minister in the sanctuary, and put them in a cloth of blue, and cover them with a covering of badgers' skins, and shall put them on a bearer : and they shall take away the ashes from the altar, and spread a purple cloth thereon : and they shall put upon it all the vessels, wherewith they minister about it, even the censers, the fleshhooks, the shovels, the basins, and all the vessels of the altar ; and they shall spread upon it a covering of badgers' skins, and put them on a bearer. And when Aaron and his sons have made an end of covering the sanctuary, and all the vessels of the sanctuary, as the camp is to set forward ; after that, the sons of Kohath shall come to bear it : but they shall not touch any holy thing, lest they die. These things are the burden of the sons of Kohath in the tabernacle of the congregation.

And to the office of Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest pertaineth the oil for the light, and the sweet incense, and the daily thank offering, and the anointing oil, and the oversight of all the tabernacle, and of all that therein is, in the sanctuary, and in the vessels thereof.

And the LORD spoke unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying, Cut ye not off the tribe of the families of the Kohathites from among the Levites : but thus do unto them, that they may live, and not die, when they approach unto the most holy things : Aaron and his sons shall go in, and appoint them every one to his service and to his burden : but they shall not go in to see when the holy things are covered, lest they die.

And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Take also the sum of the sons of Gershon, throughout the houses of their fathers, by their families ; from thirty years old and upwards until fifty years old shalt thou number them ; all who enter in to perform the service, to do the work in the tabernacle of the congregation. This is the service of the families of the Gershonites, to serve, and for burdens : and they shall bear the curtains of the tabernacle, and the tabernacle of the congregation, its covering, and the covering of the badgers' skins that is above upon it, and the hanging for the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the hangings of the court, and the hanging for the door of the gate of the court, which is by the tabernacle and by the altar round about, and their cords, and all the instruments of their service, and all that is to be done by them : so shall they serve. At the appointment of Aaron and his sons shall be all the service of the sons of the Gershonites, in all their burdens, and in all their service : and ye shall appoint unto them in charge all their burdens. This is the service of the families of the sons of Gershon in the tabernacle of the congregation : and their charge shall be under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

As for the sons of Merari, thou shalt number them after their families, by the house of their fathers ; from thirty years old and upwards even unto fifty years old

- shalt thou number them, every one who entereth into the service, to do the work of the tabernacle of the congregation. And this is the charge of their burden, according to all their service in the tabernacle of the congregation; the boards of the tabernacle, and the bars thereof, and the pillars thereof, and sockets thereof, and the pillars of the court round about, and their sockets, and their pins, and their cords, with all their instruments, and with all their service: and by name ye shall reckon the instruments of the charge of their burden. This is the service of the families of the sons of Merari, according to all their service, in the tabernacle of the congregation, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.
- And Moses and Aaron and the chief of the congregation numbered the sons of the Kohathites after their families, and after the house of their fathers, from thirty years old and upwards even unto fifty years old, every one who entereth into the service, for the work in the tabernacle of the congregation: and they who were numbered of them by their families were two thousand seven hundred and fifty. These were they who were numbered of the families of the Kohathites, all who might do service in the tabernacle of the congregation, whom Moses and Aaron did number according to the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses.
- And they who were numbered of the sons of Gershon, throughout their families, and by the house of their fathers, from thirty years old and upwards even unto fifty years old, every one who entereth into the service, for the work in the tabernacle of the congregation, even they who were numbered of them, throughout their families, by the house of their fathers, were two thousand and six hundred and thirty. These are they who were numbered of the families of the sons of Gershon, of all who might do service in the tabernacle of the congregation, whom Moses and Aaron did number according to the commandment of the LORD.
- And they who were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, throughout their families, by the house of their fathers, from thirty years old and upwards even unto fifty years old, every one who entereth into the service, for the work in the tabernacle of the congregation, even they who were numbered of them after their families, were three thousand and two hundred. These are they who were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.
- All they who were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron and the chief of the Levites numbered, after their families, and after the house of their fathers, from thirty years old and upwards even unto fifty years old, every one who came to do the service of the ministry, and the service of the burden in the tabernacle of the congregation, even they who were numbered of them, were eight thousand and five hundred and fourscore. According to the commandment of the LORD they were numbered by the hand of Moses, every one according to his service, and according to his burden: thus were they numbered of him, as the LORD commanded Moses.
- And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Command the children of Israel, that they put out of the camp every leper, and every one who hath an issue, and whosoever is defiled by the dead: both male and female shall ye put out, without the camp shall ye put them; that they defile not their camps, in the midst whereof I dwell.
- And the children of Israel did so, and put them out without the camp: as the LORD spoke unto Moses, so did the children of Israel.
- And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, When a man or woman shall commit any sin that men commit, to do a trespass against the LORD, and that person be guilty; then they shall confess their sin which they have done: and he shall recompense his trespass with the principal thereof, and add unto it the fifth part thereof, and give it unto him against whom he hath trespassed. But if the man have no kinsman to recompense the trespass unto, let the trespass be recompensed unto the LORD, even to the priest; besides the ram of the atonement, whereby an atonement shall be made for him.
- And every heave offering of all the holy things of the children of Israel, which they bring unto the priest, shall be his. And every man's hallowed things shall be his: whatsoever any man giveth the priest, it shall be his.
- And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, If any man's wife go aside, and commit a trespass against him, and a man lie with her carnally, and it be hid from the eyes of her husband, and be kept close, and she be defiled, and there be no witness against her, neither she be taken in the act; and the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be defiled: or if the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be not defiled: then shall the man bring his wife unto the priest, and he shall bring her offering for her, the tenth part of an ephah of barley meal; he shall pour no oil upon it, nor put frankincense thereon; for it is an offering of jealousy, an offering of memorial, bringing iniquity to remembrance.

And the priest shall bring it near, and set it before the LORD: and the priest shall take holy water in an earthen vessel; and of the dust that is in the floor of the tabernacle the priest shall take, and put it into the water: and the priest shall set the woman before the LORD, and uncover the woman's head, and put the offering of memorial in her hands, which is the jealousy offering: and the priest shall have in his hand the bitter water that causeth the curse: and the priest shall charge her by an oath, and say unto the woman, If no man have lain with thee, and if thou have not gone aside to uncleanness with another instead of thy husband, be thou free from this bitter water that causeth the curse: but if thou have gone aside to another instead of thy husband, and if thou be defiled, and some man have lain with thee besides thy husband: then the priest shall charge the woman with an oath of cursing, and the priest shall say unto the woman, The LORD make thee a curse and an oath among thy people, when the LORD doth make thy thigh to rot, and thy belly to swell; and this water that causeth the curse shall go into thy bowels, to make thy belly to swell, and thy thigh to rot. And the woman shall say, Amen, amen. And the priest shall write these curses in a book, and he shall blot them out with the bitter water: and he shall cause the woman to drink the bitter water that causeth the curse: and the water that causeth the curse shall enter into her, and become bitter.

Then the priest shall take the jealousy offering out of the woman's hand, and shall wave the offering before the LORD, and offer it upon the altar: and the priest shall take a handful of the offering, even the memorial thereof, and burn it upon the altar, and afterwards shall cause the woman to drink the water.

And when he hath made her to drink the water, then if she be defiled, and have done trespass against her husband, the water that causeth the curse shall enter into her, and become bitter, and her belly shall swell, and her thigh shall rot; and the woman shall be a curse among her people. And if the woman be not defiled, but be clean; then she shall be free, and shall conceive seed.

This is the law of jealousies, when a wife goeth aside to another instead of her husband, and is defiled; or when the spirit of jealousy cometh upon him, and he be jealous over his wife, and shall set the woman before the LORD, and the priest shall execute upon her all this law. Then shall the man be guiltless from iniquity, and this woman shall bear the punishment of her iniquity.

AND the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When either man or woman shall separate themselves to vow of a Nazarite, to separate themselves unto the LORD: he shall separate himself from wine and strong drink, and shall drink no vinegar of wine, or vinegar of strong drink, neither shall he drink any liquor of grapes, nor eat moist grapes, or dried. All the days of his separation shall he eat nothing that is made of the vine, from the kernels even to the husk. All the days of the vow of his separation there shall no razor come upon his head: until the days be fulfilled, in the which he separateth himself unto the LORD, he shall be holy, and shall let the locks of the hair of his head grow. All the days that he separateth himself unto the LORD he shall come at no dead body. He shall not make himself unclean for his father, or for his mother, for his brother, or for his sister, when they die: because the consecration of his God is upon his head. All the days of his separation he is holy unto the LORD. And if any man die suddenly by him, and he hath defiled the head of his consecration; then he shall shave his head in the day of his cleansing, on the seventh day shall he shave it. And on the eighth day he shall bring two turtles, or two young pigeons, to the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and the priest shall offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, and make an atonement for him, for that he sinned by the dead, and shall hallow his head that same day. And he shall consecrate unto the LORD the days of his separation, and shall bring a lamb of the first year for a trespass offering: but the days that were before shall be lost, because his separation was defiled.

And this is the law of the Nazarite, when the days of his separation are fulfilled: he shall be brought unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and he shall offer his offering unto the LORD, one he-lamb of the first year without blemish for a burnt offering, and one ewe-lamb of the first year without blemish for a sin offering, and one ram without blemish for peace offerings, and a basket of unleavened bread, cakes of fine flour mingled with oil, and wafers of unleavened bread anointed with oil, and their thank offering, and their drink offerings. And the priest shall bring 16

- 17 them before the LORD, and shall offer his sin offering, and his burnt offering: and he shall offer the ram for a sacrifice of peace offerings unto the LORD, with the basket of unleavened bread: the priest shall offer also his thank offering, and his drink offering. And the Nazarite shall shave the head of his separation at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall take the hair of the head of his separation, and put it in the fire which is under the sacrifice of the peace offerings. And the priest shall take the sodden shoulder of the ram, and one unleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and shall put them upon the hands of the
- 20 Nazarite, after the hair of his separation is shaven: and the priest shall wave them for a wave offering before the LORD: this is holy for the priest, with the wave breast and heave shoulder: and after that the Nazarite may drink wine. This is the law of the Nazarite who hath vowed, and of his offering unto the LORD for his separation, besides that which his hand shall get: according to the vow which he vowed, so he must do after the law of his separation.
- 22 23 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Speak unto Aaron and unto his sons, saying, On this wise ye shall bless the children of Israel, saying unto them,
- 24 The LORD bless thee, and keep thee:
 25 The LORD make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee:
 26 The LORD lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace.
 27 And they shall put my name upon the children of Israel; and I will bless them.
- 7 AND on the day that Moses had fully set up the tabernacle, and had anointed it, and sanctified it, and all the instruments thereof, both the altar and all its vessels, and had anointed them, and sanctified them; the princes of Israel, heads of the house of their fathers, who were over the princes of the tribes, and were over those who
- 3 were numbered, offered: and they brought their offering before the LORD, six covered wagons, and twelve oxen; a wagon for two of the princes, and for each one
- 4 an ox: and they brought them before the tabernacle. And the LORD spoke unto
- 5 Moses, saying, Take it of them, that they may be to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation; and thou shalt give them unto the Levites, to every man according to his service. And Moses took the wagons and the oxen, and gave them
- 6 unto the Levites. Two wagons and four oxen he gave unto the sons of Gershon,
- 8 according to their service: and four wagons and eight oxen he gave unto the sons of Merari, according unto their service, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron
- 9 the priest. But unto the sons of Kohath he gave none: because the service of the sanctuary belonging unto them was that they should bear upon their shoulders.
- 10 And the princes offered for dedicating of the altar on the day that it was anointed,
- 11 even the princes offered their offering before the altar. And the LORD said unto Moses, They shall offer their offering, each prince on his day, for the dedicating of the altar.
- 12 And he who offered his offering the first day was Nahshon the son of Amminadab,
- 13 of the tribe of Judah: and his offering was one silver dish, the weight thereof was a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them were full of fine flour mingled with oil for a thank
- 14 15 offering: one spoon of ten shekels of gold, full of incense: one young bullock, one
- 16 ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering: one kid of the goats for a sin
- 17 offering: and for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the offering of Nahshon the son of Amminadab.
- 18 19 On the second day Nethaneel the son of Zuar, prince of Issachar, offered: he offered for his offering one silver dish, the weight whereof was a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of
- 20 them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a thank offering: one spoon of gold of
- 21 ten shekels, full of incense: one young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year.
- 22 23 for a burnt offering: one kid of the goats for a sin offering: and for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the offering of Nethaneel the son of Zuar.
- 24 On the third day Eliab the son of Helon, prince of the children of Zebulun, offered: his offering was one silver dish, the weight whereof was a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of
- 26 them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a thank offering: one golden spoon of
- 27 ten shekels, full of incense: one young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year,
- 28 29 for a burnt offering: one kid of the goats for a sin offering: and for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the offering of Eliab the son of Helon.
- 30 On the fourth day Elizur the son of Shedeur, prince of the children of Reuben, offered : his offering was one silver dish of the weight of a hundred and thirty she- 31 kels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary ; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a thank offering : one golden spoon of ten 32

shekels, full of incense : one young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for 33
a burnt offering : one kid of the goats for a sin offering : and for a sacrifice of peace 34 35 offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five lambs of the first year : this was the offering of Elizur the son of Shedeur.

On the fifth day Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai, prince of the children of 36
Simeon, offered : his offering was one silver dish, the weight whereof was a hundred 37 and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary ; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a thank offering : one 38 golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense : one young bullock, one ram, one lamb 39 of the first year, for a burnt offering : one kid of the goats for a sin offering : and for 40 41
a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five lambs of the first year : this was the offering of Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

On the sixth day Eliasaph the son of Reuel, prince of the children of Gad, offer- 42 ed : his offering was one silver dish of the weight of a hundred and thirty shekels, 43 a silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary ; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a thank offering : one golden spoon of ten shekels, 44 full of incense : one young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt 45 offering : one kid of the goats for a sin offering : and for a sacrifice of peace offerings, 46 47 two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five lambs of the first year : this was the offering of Eliasaph the son of Reuel.

On the seventh day Elishama the son of Ammihud, prince of the children of 48
Ephraim, offered : his offering was one silver dish, the weight whereof was a hun- 49 dred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary ; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a thank offering : one 50 golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense : one young bullock, one ram, one lamb 51
of the first year, for a burnt offering : one kid of the goats for a sin offering : and for 52 53
a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five lambs of the first year : this was the offering of Elishama the son of Ammihud.

On the eighth day offered Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur, prince of the children of 54
Manasseh : his offering was one silver dish of the weight of a hundred and thirty 55 shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary ; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a thank offering : one golden spoon of ten 56
shekels, full of incense : one young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for 57
a burnt offering : one kid of the goats for a sin offering : and for a sacrifice of peace 58 59
offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five lambs of the first year : this was the offering of Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

On the ninth day Abidan the son of Gideoni, prince of the children of Benjamin, 60 offered : his offering was one silver dish, the weight whereof was a hundred and 61 thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary ; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a thank offering : one golden spoon 62 of ten shekels, full of incense : one young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, 63 for a burnt offering : one kid of the goats for a sin offering : and for a sacrifice of 64 65 peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five lambs of the first year : this was the offering of Abidan the son of Gideoni.

On the tenth day Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai, prince of the children of Dan, 66 offered : his offering was one silver dish, the weight whereof was a hundred and 67
thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary ;
both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a thank offering : one golden 68
spoon of ten shekels, full of incense : one young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the 69 first year, for a burnt offering : one kid of the goats for a sin offering : and for a sacri- 70 71 fice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five lambs of the first year :
this was the offering of Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.

On the eleventh day Pagiel the son of Ocran, prince of the children of Asher, 72 offered : his offering was one silver dish, the weight whereof was a hundred and 73
thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary ;
both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a thank offering : one golden 74
spoon of ten shekels, full of incense : one young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the 75 first year, for a burnt offering : one kid of the goats for a sin offering : and for a 76 77 sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five lambs of the first year : this was the offering of Pagiel the son of Ocran.

On the twelfth day Ahira the son of Enan, prince of the children of Naphtali, offer- 78

79 ed : his offering was one silver dish, the weight whereof was a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both 80 of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a thank offering : one golden spoon of 81 ten shekels, full of incense : one young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, 82 83 for a burnt offering : one kid of the goats for a sin offering : and for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five lambs of the first year : this was the offering of Ahira the son of Enan.

84 This was the dedication of the altar, in the day when it was anointed, by the princes of Israel : twelve dishes of silver, twelve silver bowls, twelve spoons of gold : 85 each dish of silver weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, each bowl seventy : all the silver vessels weighed two thousand and four hundred shekels, after the shekel of 86 the sanctuary : the golden spoons were twelve, full of incense, weighing ten shekels apiece, after the shekel of the sanctuary : all the gold of the spoons was a hundred 87 and twenty shekels. All the oxen for the burnt offering were twelve bullocks, the rams twelve, the lambs of the first year twelve, with their thank offering : and the 88 kids of the goats for sin offering twelve. And all the oxen for the sacrifice of the peace offerings were twenty and four bullocks, the rams sixty, the he-goats sixty, the lambs of the first year sixty. This was the dedication of the altar, after that it was anointed.

89 And when Moses was gone into the tabernacle of the congregation to speak with God, then he heard the voice of one speaking unto him from off the mercy seat that was upon the ark of testimony, from between the two cherubims : and he spoke unto God.

8 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Speak unto Aaron, and say unto him, When thou lightest the lamps, the seven lamps shall give light over against the 3 lampholder. And Aaron did so ; he lighted the lamps thereof over against the 4 lampholder, as the LORD commanded Moses. And this work of the lampholder was of beaten gold, unto the shaft thereof, unto the flowers thereof, was beaten work :
according unto the pattern which the LORD had showed Moses, so he made the lampholder.

5 6 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Take the Levites from among the chil-7 dren of Israel, and cleanse them. And thus shalt thou do unto them, to cleanse them : Sprinkle water of purifying upon them, and let them shave all their flesh, and 8 let them wash their clothes, and so make themselves clean. Then let them take a young bullock with his thank offering, even fine flour mingled with oil, and another 9 young bullock shalt thou take for a sin offering. And thou shalt bring the Levites before the tabernacle of the congregation : and thou shalt gather the whole assembly 10 of the children of Israel together : and thou shalt bring the Levites before the 11 LORD : and the children of Israel shall put their hands upon the Levites : and Aaron shall offer the Levites before the LORD for a heave offering of the children 12 of Israel, that they may be to execute the service of the LORD. And the Levites shall lay their hands upon the heads of the bullocks : and thou shalt offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, unto the LORD, to make an atonement for the Levites.

13 And thou shalt set the Levites before Aaron, and before his sons, and offer them 14 for an offering unto the LORD. Thus shalt thou separate the Levites from among 15 the children of Israel : and the Levites shall be mine. And after that shall the Levites go in to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation : and thou shalt 16 cleanse them, and offer them for an offering. For they are wholly given unto me from among the children of Israel ; instead of such as open every womb, even in-17 stead of the firstborn of all the children of Israel, have I taken them unto me. For all the firstborn of the children of Israel are mine, both man and beast : on the day 18 that I smote every firstborn in the land of Egypt I sanctified them for myself. And 19 I have taken the Levites for all the firstborn of the children of Israel. And I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron and to his sons from among the children of Israel, to do the service of the children of Israel in the tabernacle of the congregation, and to make an atonement for the children of Israel : that there be no plague among the children of Israel, when they come nigh unto the sanctuary.

20 And Moses, and Aaron, and all the congregation of the children of Israel, did to the Levites according unto all that the LORD commanded Moses concerning the 21 Levites, so did the children of Israel unto them. And the Levites were purified, and they washed their clothes ; and Aaron offered them as an offering before the 22 LORD ; and Aaron made an atonement for them to cleanse them. And after that went the Levites in to do their service in the tabernacle of the congregation before

Aaron, and before his sons : as the LORD had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so did they unto them.

And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, This is it that belongeth unto the Levites : from twenty and five years old and upwards they shall go in to wait upon the service of the tabernacle of the congregation : and from the age of fifty years they shall cease waiting upon the service thereof, and shall serve no more : but shall minister with their brethren in the tabernacle of the congregation, to keep the charge, and shall do no service. Thus shalt thou do unto the Levites touching their charge.

AND the LORD spoke unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying, Let the children of Israel also keep the passover at its appointed season. On the fourteenth day of this month, at evening, ye shall keep it in its appointed season : according to all the rites of it, and according to all the ceremonies thereof, shall ye keep it. And Moses spoke unto the children of Israel, that they should keep the passover. And they kept the passover on the fourteenth day of the first month at evening in the wilderness of Sinai : according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did the children of Israel.

And there were certain men, who were defiled by the dead body of a man, that they could not keep the passover on that day : and they came before Moses and before Aaron on that day : and those men said unto him, We are defiled by the dead body of a man : wherefore are we kept back, that we may not offer an offering of the LORD in his appointed season among the children of Israel ? And Moses said unto them, Stand still, and I will hear what the LORD will command concerning you. And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If any man of you or of your posterity shall be unclean by reason of a dead body, or be on a journey afar off, yet he shall keep the passover unto the LORD. The fourteenth day of the second month at evening they shall keep it, and eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. They shall leave none of it unto the morning, nor break any bone of it : according to all the ordinances of the passover they shall keep it. But the man who is clean, and is not on a journey, and forbeareth to keep the passover, even the same man shall be cut off from among his people : because he brought not the offering of the LORD in his appointed season, that man shall bear his sin. And if a stranger shall sojourn among you, and will keep the passover unto the LORD ; according to the ordinance of the passover, and according to the manner thereof, so shall he do : ye shall have one ordinance, both for the stranger, and for him who was born in the land.

And on the day that the tabernacle was reared up the cloud covered the tabernacle, namely, the tent of the testimony : and at evening there was upon the tabernacle as it were the appearance of fire, until the morning. So it was always : by day it was a cloud over the tabernacle, and the appearance of fire by night. And when the cloud was taken up from the tabernacle, then after that the children of Israel journeyed : and in the place where the cloud abode, there the children of Israel pitched their tents. At the commandment of the LORD the children of Israel journeyed, and at the commandment of the LORD they pitched : so long as the cloud abode upon the tabernacle they rested in their tents. And when the cloud tarried long upon the tabernacle many days, then the children of Israel kept the charge of the LORD, and journeyed not. And so it was, when the cloud was a few days upon the tabernacle ; according to the commandment of the LORD they abode in their tents, and according to the commandment of the LORD they journeyed. And sometimes, when the cloud abode from the evening unto the morning, when the cloud was taken up in the morning, then they journeyed : whether it was by day or by night that the cloud was taken up, they journeyed. Or whether it were two days, or a month, or a year, that the cloud tarried upon the tabernacle, remaining thereon, the children of Israel abode in their tents, and journeyed not : but when it was taken up, they journeyed. At the commandment of the LORD they rested in the tents, and at the commandment of the LORD they journeyed : they kept the charge of the LORD, at the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Make thee two trumpets of silver ; of a whole piece shalt thou make them : that thou mayest use them for the calling of the assembly, and for the journeying of the camps. And when they shall blow with them, all the assembly shall assemble themselves to thee at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. And if they blow but with one trumpet, then the princes, who are heads of the thousands of Israel, shall gather themselves unto thee. When ye blow an alarm, then the camps that lie on the east parts shall go forward. When

- ye blow an alarm the second time, then the camps that lie on the south side shall take their journey. When ye blow a third alarm, the camps which lie on the west side shall journey; and when ye blow a fourth alarm, the camps which lie on the north side shall journey: they shall blow an alarm for their journeys. But when the congregation is to be gathered together, ye shall blow, but ye shall not sound an alarm. And the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow with the trumpets; and they shall be to you for an ordinance for ever throughout your generations. And if ye go to war in your land against the enemy who oppresseth you, then ye shall blow an alarm with the trumpets; and ye shall be remembered before the LORD your God, and ye shall be saved from your enemies. Also in the day of your gladness, and in your solemn days, and in the beginnings of your months, ye shall blow with the trumpets over your burnt offerings, and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings; that they may be to you for a memorial before your God: I am the LORD your God.
- 11 AND on the twentieth day of the second month, in the second year, the cloud was taken up from off the tabernacle of the testimony. And Jehovah spoke unto Moses, saying, Ye have dwelt long enough by this mountain. Turn and take your journey to the land which I swore I would give to your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and their seed after them. And the children of Israel took their journeys out of the wilderness of Sinai; and the cloud rested in the wilderness of Paran.
- 13 And they first took their journey according to the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses.
- 14 In the first place went the standard of the camp of the children of Judah according to their armies: and over his host was Nahshon the son of Amminadab. And over the host of the tribe of the children of Issachar was Nethaneel the son of Zuar.
- 16 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Zebulun was Eliab the son of Helon. And the tabernacle was taken down; and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari set forward, bearing the tabernacle. And the standard of the camp of Reuben set forward according to their armies: and over his host was Elizur the son of Shedeur. And over the host of the tribe of the children of Simeon was Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai. And over the host of the tribe of the children of Gad was Eliasaph the son of Reuel. And the Kohathites set forward, bearing the sanctuary: and the other did set up the tabernacle against they came. And the standard of the camp of the children of Ephraim set forward according to their armies: and over his host was Elishama the son of Ammihud. And over the host of the tribe of the children of Manasseh was Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur. And over the host of the tribe of the children of Benjamin was Abidan the son of Gideon.
- 25 And the standard of the camp of the children of Dan set forward, which was the rearward of all the camps throughout their hosts: and over his host was Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai. And over the host of the tribe of the children of Asher was Pagiel the son of Ocran. And over the host of the tribe of the children of Naphtali was Ahira the son of Enan. Thus were the journeyings of the children of Israel according to their tribes, when they set forward.
- 29 And Moses said unto Hobab, the son of Reuel the Midianite, his father-in-law, We are journeying unto the place of which the LORD said, I will give it you: come thou with us, and we will do thee good; for the LORD hath spoken good concerning Israel. And he said unto him, I will not go; but I will depart to mine own land, and to my kindred. And he said, Leave us not, I pray thee; forasmuch as thou knowest how we are to encamp in the wilderness, and thou mayest be to us instead of eyes. And it shall be, if thou go with us, yea, it shall be, that what goodness the LORD shall do unto us, the same will we do unto thee.
- 33 And they departed from the mount of the LORD three days' journey; and the ark of the covenant of the LORD went before them in the three days' journey, to search out a resting place for them. And the cloud of the LORD was upon them by day, when they went out of the camp.
- 35 And when the ark set forward, Moses said, Rise up, LORD, and let thine enemies be scattered; and let those who hate thee flee before thee. And when it rested, he said, Give repose, O LORD, unto the many thousands of Israel.
- 11 And when the people complained, it displeased the LORD: and the LORD heard it; and his anger was kindled; and the fire of the LORD burnt among them, and consumed those who were in the uttermost parts of the camp. And the people cried unto Moses; and when Moses prayed unto the LORD, the fire was quenched. And he called the name of the place Taberah [THE BURNING]; because the fire of the LORD burnt among them.

And the mixed multitude that was among them vehemently desired flesh : and 4 the children of Israel also wept again, and said, Who shall give us flesh to eat ? We 5 remember the fish, which we did eat in Egypt freely ; the cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlick : but now we pine away : there is 6 nothing at all, besides this manna, before our eyes. And the manna was as coriander 7 seed, and the colour thereof as the colour of bdellium. And the people went about, 8 and gathered it, and ground it in mills, or beat it in a mortar, and baked it in pans, and made cakes of it ; and the taste of it was as the taste of fresh oil. And when 9 the dew fell upon the camp in the night, the manna fell upon it.

Then Moses heard the people weep throughout their families, every man in the 10 door of his tent : and the anger of the LORD was kindled greatly ; Moses also was displeased. And Moses said unto the LORD, Wherefore hast thou afflicted thy 11 servant ? and wherefore have I not found favour in thy sight, that thou layest the burden of all this people upon me ? Have I conceived all this people ? have I be- 12 gotten them, that thou shouldest say unto me, Carry them in thy bosom, as a nursing father beareth the sucking child, unto the land which thou swarest unto their fathers ?
Whence should I have flesh to give unto all this people ? for they weep unto me, say- 13 ing, Give us flesh, that we may eat. I am not able to bear all this people alone, be- 14 cause it is too heavy for me. And if thou deal thus with me, kill me, I pray thee, out 15 of hand, if I have found favour in thy sight ; and let me not see my wretchedness.

And the LORD said unto Moses, Gather unto me seventy men of the elders of Is- 16 rael, whom thou knowest to be the elders of the people, and officers over them ; and bring them unto the tabernacle of the congregation, that they may stand there with thee. And I will come down and talk with thee there ; and I will take of the spirit 17 which is upon thee, and will put it upon them ; and they shall bear the burden of the people with thee, that thou bear it not thyself alone. And say thou unto the people, 18 Get yourselves ready against to-morrow, and ye shall eat flesh : for ye have wept in the ears of the LORD, saying, Who shall give us flesh to eat ? for it was well with us in Egypt : therefore the LORD will give you flesh, and ye shall eat. Ye shall 19 not eat one day, nor two days, nor five days, neither ten days, nor twenty days ; but even a whole month, until it come out at your nostrils, and it be loathsome unto you ; because that ye have despised the LORD who is among you, and have wept 20 before him, saying, Why came we forth out of Egypt ?

And Moses said, The people, among whom I am, are six hundred thousand foot- 21 men ; and thou hast said, I will give them flesh, that they may eat a whole month.
Shall the flocks and the herds be slain for them, to suffice them, or shall all the fish 22 of the sea be gathered together for them, to suffice them ? And the LORD said 23 unto Moses, Is the LORD'S hand waxed short ? thou shalt see now whether my word shall come to pass unto thee or not.

And Moses went out, and told the people the words of the LORD, and gathered the 24 seventy men of the elders of the people, and set them round about the tabernacle.
And the LORD came down in a cloud, and spoke unto him, and took of the spirit that 25 was upon him, and gave it unto the seventy elders : and when the spirit rested upon them, they prophesied, and did not cease. But there remained two of the men 26 in the camp, the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad : and the spirit rested upon them ; and they were of those who were written, but went not out unto the tabernacle : and they prophesied in the camp. And there ran a young 27 man, and told Moses, and said, Eldad and Medad do prophesy in the camp. And 28 Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of Moses, one of his young men, answered and said, My lord Moses, forbid them. And Moses said unto him, Enviest thou for my 29 sake ? Oh that all the LORD'S people were prophets, and that the LORD would put his spirit upon them ! And Moses went into the camp, he and the elders of 30 Israel.

And there went forth a wind from the LORD, and brought quails from the sea, 31 and let them fall by the camp, as it were a day's journey on this side, and as it were a day's journey on the other side, round about the camp, and as it were two cubits high upon the face of the earth. And the people stood up all that day, and all that 32 night, and all the next day, and they gathered the quails : he who gathered least gathered ten homers : and they spread them all abroad for themselves round about the camp. And while the flesh was yet between their teeth, ere it was chewed, the 33 wrath of the LORD was kindled against the people, and the LORD smote the people with a very great plague. And he called the name of that place Kibroth-hattaavah 34 [THE GRAVES OF LONGING] : because there they buried the people who longed for flesh.

35 AND the people journeyed from Kibroth-hattaavah unto Hazeroth; and abode at Hazeroth.

12 And Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses because of the Ethiopian woman whom he had married: for he had married a Cushite. And they said, Hath the LORD indeed spoken only by Moses? hath he not spoken also by us? And the LORD heard it. (Now the man Moses gave forth more answers from God than all the men who were upon the face of the earth.) And the LORD spoke suddenly unto Moses, and unto Aaron, and unto Miriam, Come out ye three unto the tabernacle of the congregation. And they three came out. And the LORD came down in the pillar of the cloud, and stood in the door of the tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam: and they both came forth. And he said, Hear now my words: If there be a prophet among you, I the LORD will make myself known unto him in a vision, and will speak unto him in a dream. But I will not speak so to my servant Moses, who is faithful in all my house. With him will I speak mouth to mouth, even openly, and not in dark speeches; and the similitude of the LORD shall he behold: wherefore then were ye not afraid to speak against my servant Moses? And the anger of the LORD was kindled against them; and he departed. And the cloud departed from off the tabernacle; and, behold, Miriam became leprous, white as snow: and Aaron looked upon Miriam, and, behold, she was leprous. And Aaron said unto Moses, Alas! my lord, I beseech thee, lay not the sin upon us, wherein we have done foolishly, and wherein we have sinned. Let her not be as one dead, of whom the flesh is half consumed when he cometh out of his mother's womb. And Moses cried unto the LORD, saying, Heal her now, O God, I beseech thee. And the LORD said unto Moses, If her father had but spit before her, should she not be ashamed seven days? let her be shut out from the camp seven days, and after that let her be received in again. And Miriam was shut out from the camp seven days: and the people journeyed not till Miriam was brought in again.

13 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Send thou men, that they may search the land of Canaan, which I give unto the children of Israel: of every tribe of their fathers shall ye send a man, every one a ruler among them. And Moses by the commandment of the LORD sent them from the wilderness of Paran: all those men were heads of the children of Israel. And these were their names: of the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zaccur. Of the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori. Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh. Of the tribe of Issachar, 8 Igal the son of Joseph. Of the tribe of Ephraim, Hosea the son of Nun. Of the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu. Of the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel the son of Sodi. Of the tribe of Joseph, namely, of the tribe of Manasseh, Gaddi the son 12 of Susi. Of the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the son of Gemalli. Of the tribe of Asher, 14 Sethur the son of Michael. Of the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi. Of the tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Machi. These are the names of the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land. And Moses called Hosea the son of Nun Jehoshua.

17 And Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said unto them, Get you up this way southward to Negeb, and go up into the mountain: and see the land, what it is; and the people who dwell therein, whether they be strong or weak, few 19 or many; and what the land is that they dwell in, whether it be good or bad; and 20 what cities they be that they dwell in, whether in tents, or in strong holds; and what the land is, whether it be fat or lean, whether there be wood therein, or not. And be ye of good courage, and bring of the fruit of the land. Now the time was the time 21 of the firstripe grapes. So they went up, and searched the land from the wilderness 22 of Zin unto Rehob, as men come to Hamath. And they ascended by the south to Negeb, and came unto Hebron; where Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the children of Anak, were. (Now Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.)

23 And they came unto the valley of Eshcol, and cut down from thence a branch with one cluster of grapes, and they bore it between two upon a staff; and they brought 24 of the pomegranates, and of the figs. The place was called the valley Eshcol, because 25 of the cluster of grapes which the children of Israel cut down from thence. And they returned from searching of the land after forty days.

26 And they went and came to Moses, and to Aaron, and to all the congregation of the children of Israel, unto the wilderness of Paran, to Kadesh; and brought back word unto them, and unto all the congregation, and showed them the fruit of the 27 land. And they told him, and said, We came unto the land whither thou sentest 28 us, and surely it floweth with milk and honey; and this is the fruit of it. Nevertheless the people are strong who dwell in the land, and the cities are walled, and very great: and, moreover, we saw the children of Anak there. The Amalekites dwell in the land of the south; and the Hittites, and the Jebusites, and the Amorites, dwell in the mountains; and the Canaanites dwell by the sea, and by the coast of the Jordan. And Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, Let us go up at once, and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it. But the men who went up with him said, We are not able to go up against the people; for they are stronger than we. And they brought up an evil report of the land which they had searched unto the children of Israel, saying, The land, through which we have gone to search it, is a land that eateth up the inhabitants thereof; and all the people whom we saw in it are men of a great stature. And there we saw the giants, the sons of Anak, who come of the giants: and we were in our own sight as grasshoppers, and so we were in their sight.

And all the congregation lifted up their voice, and cried; and the people wept that night. And all the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron: and the whole congregation said unto them, Oh that we had died in the land of Egypt! or oh that we had died in this wilderness! And wherefore hath the LORD brought us unto this land, to fall by the sword, that our wives and our children should be a prey? were it not better for us to return into Egypt? And they said one to another, Let us make a captain, and let us return into Egypt.

Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the children of Israel. And Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, who were of those who searched the land, rent their clothes: and they spoke unto all the company of the children of Israel, saying, The land, which we passed through to search it, is an exceedingly good land. If the LORD delight in us, then he will bring us into this land, and give it us; a land which floweth with milk and honey. Only rebel not ye against the LORD, neither fear ye the people of the land; for they are bread for us: their defence is departed from them, and the LORD is with us: fear them not.

But all the congregation proposed to stone them with stones. And the glory of the LORD appeared on the tabernacle of the congregation before all the children of Israel.

And the LORD said unto Moses, How long will this people provoke me? and how long will it be ere they believe me, for all the signs which I have showed among them? I will smite them with the pestilence, and disinherit them, and will make of thee a nation greater and mightier than they. And Moses said unto the LORD, Then the Egyptians shall hear it, (for thou broughtest up this people in thy might from among them;) and they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land; for they have heard that thou LORD art among this people, that thou LORD art seen face to face, and that thy cloud standeth over them, and that thou goest before them, by day time in a pillar of a cloud, and in a pillar of fire by night. Now if thou shalt kill all this people at once, then the nations that have heard the fame of thee will speak, saying, Because the LORD was not able to bring this people into the land of which he swore unto them, therefore he hath slain them in the wilderness. And now, I beseech thee, let the power of my LORD be great, according as thou hast spoken, saying, The LORD is longsuffering, and of great mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression, and by no means clearing the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation. Pardon, I beseech thee, the iniquity of this people according unto the greatness of thy mercy, and as thou hast forgiven this people, from Egypt even until now.

And the LORD said, I have pardoned according to thy word: but as truly as I live, all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the LORD. Because all those men who have seen my glory, and my miracles, which I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, have tempted me now these many times, and have not hearkened to my voice: surely they shall not see the land of which I swore unto their fathers, neither shall any of them who provoked me see it: but my servant Caleb, because he had another spirit with him, and hath followed me fully, him will I bring into the land whereto he went; and his seed shall possess it. (Now the Amalekites and the Canaanites dwelt in the valley.) To-morrow turn you, and get you into the wilderness by the way of the Red Sea.

And the LORD spoke unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying, How long shall I bear with this evil congregation, who murmur against me? I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel, which they murmur against me. Say unto them, As truly as I live, saith the LORD, as ye have spoken in mine ears, so will I do to you: your carcases shall fall in this wilderness; and all who were numbered of you, according to your whole number, from twenty years old and upwards, who have murmured against me, doubtless ye shall not come into the land, concerning which I swore to make you dwell therein, save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun. But your little ones, which ye said should be a prey, them will I bring in, and they shall know the land which ye have despised. But as for you, your carcasses, they shall fall in this wilderness. And your children shall wander in the wilderness forty years, and suffer for your rebellions, until your carcasses be wasted in the wilderness. After the number of the days in which ye searched the land, even forty days, each day for a year, shall ye bear the punishment of your iniquities, even forty years, and ye shall feel my indignation. I the LORD have said, I will surely do it unto all this evil congregation, who are gathered together against me: in this wilderness they shall be consumed, and there they shall die. And the men, whom Moses sent to search the land, who returned, and made all the congregation to murmur against him, by bringing up a slander upon the land, even those men who did bring up the evil report upon the land, died by the plague before the LORD. But Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, alone lived still of the men who went to search the land.

And Moses told these sayings unto all the children of Israel: and the people mourned greatly. And they rose up early in the morning, and went up to the top of the mountain, saying, Lo, we are here, and will go up unto the place which the LORD hath promised: for we have sinned. And Moses said, Wherefore now do ye transgress the commandment of the LORD? but it shall not prosper. Go not up, for the LORD is not among you; lest ye be smitten before your enemies. For the Amalekites and the Canaanites are there before you, and ye shall fall by the sword; because ye are turned away from the LORD, therefore the LORD will not be with you. But they presumed to go up unto the hill top: nevertheless the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and Moses, departed not out of the camp.

Then the Amalekites came down, and the Canaanites who dwelt on that hill, and smote them, and discomfited them, even unto Hormah.

15 AND the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye come into the land of your habitations, which I give unto you, and will make an offering by fire unto the LORD, a burnt offering, or a sacrifice in performing a vow, or in a freewill offering, or in your solemn feasts, to make a sweet savour unto the LORD, of the herd, or of the flock: then shall he who offereth his offering unto the LORD bring a thank offering of a tenth deal of flour mingled with the fourth part of a hin of oil. And the fourth part of a hin of wine for a drink offering shalt thou prepare with the burnt offering or sacrifice, for one lamb. Or for a ram, thou shalt prepare for a thank offering two tenth deals of flour mingled with the third part of a hin of oil. And for a drink offering thou shalt offer the third part of a hin of wine, for a sweet savour unto the LORD. And when thou preparest a bullock for a burnt offering, or for a sacrifice in performing a vow, or peace offerings unto the LORD: then shall he bring with a bullock a thank offering of three tenth deals of flour mingled with half a hin of oil. And thou shalt bring for a drink offering half a hin of wine, for an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD. Thus shall it be done for one bullock, or for one ram, or for a lamb, or a kid. According to the number that ye shall prepare, so shall ye do to every one according to their number. All who are born in the country shall do these things after this manner, in offering an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD. And if a stranger sojourn with you, or whosoever be among you in your generations, and will offer an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD; as ye do, so he shall do. One ordinance shall be both for you of the congregation, and also for the stranger who sojourneth with you, an ordinance for ever in your generations: as ye are, so shall the stranger be before the LORD. One law and one manner shall be for you, and for the stranger who sojourneth with you.

17 18 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye come into the land whither I bring you, then, when ye eat of the bread of the land, ye shall offer up a heave offering unto the LORD. Ye shall offer up a cake of the first of your dough for a heave offering: as ye do the heave offering of the threshing-floor, so shall ye heave it. Of the first of your dough ye shall give unto the LORD a heave offering in your generations.

And if ye have erred, and not observed all these commandments, which the LORD hath spoken unto Moses, even all that the LORD hath commanded you by the hand of Moses, from the day that the LORD commanded Moses, and henceforward among your generations; then, if aught be committed by ignorance without the knowledge of the congregation, all the congregation shall offer one young bullock for a burnt offering, for a sweet savour unto the LORD, with his thank offering, and his drink offering, according to the ordinance, and one kid of the goats for a sin offering. And the priest shall make an atonement for all the congregation of the children of Israel, and it shall be forgiven them; for it is ignorance: and they shall bring their offering, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD, and their sin offering before the LORD, for their ignorance: and it shall be forgiven all the congregation of the children of Israel, and the stranger who sojourneth among them; seeing all the people were in ignorance.

And if any one sin through ignorance, then he shall bring a she-goat of the first year for a sin offering. And the priest shall make an atonement for the person who sinneth ignorantly, when he sinneth by ignorance before the LORD, to make an atonement for him; and it shall be forgiven him. Ye shall have one law for him who sinneth through ignorance, both for him who is born among the children of Israel, and for the stranger who sojourneth among them.

But the person who doeth aught presumptuously, whether he be born in the land, or a stranger, the same reproacheth the LORD; and that person shall be cut off from among his people. Because he hath despised the word of the LORD, and hath broken his commandment, that person shall utterly be cut off; his iniquity shall be upon him.

And while the children of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man who gathered sticks upon the sabbath day. And they who found him gathering sticks brought him unto Moses and Aaron, and unto all the congregation. And they put him in ward, because it was not declared what should be done to him. And the LORD said unto Moses, The man shall be surely put to death: all the congregation shall stone him with stones without the camp. And all the congregation brought him without the camp, and stoned him with stones, and he died; as the LORD commanded Moses.

And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, and bid them that they make them fringes in the borders of their garments throughout their generations, and that they put upon the fringe of the borders a riband of blue: and it shall be unto you for a fringe, that ye may look upon it, and remember all the commandments of the LORD, and do them; and that ye seek not after your own heart and your own eyes, after which ye are wont to be led astray; that ye may remember, and do all my commandments, and be holy unto your God. I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am the LORD your God.

NOW Korah, the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, took Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, and On, the son of Peleth, the son of Reuben; and they conspired, and rose up before Moses, with certain of the children of Israel, two hundred and fifty princes of the assembly, famous in the congregation, men of renown: and they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron, and said unto them, Ye take too much upon you, seeing all the congregation are holy, every one of them, and the LORD is among them: wherefore then lift ye up yourselves above the congregation of the LORD?

And when Moses heard it, he fell upon his face: and he spoke unto Korah and unto all his company, saying, Even to-morrow the LORD will show who are his, and who is holy: and will cause him to come near unto him: even him whom he hath chosen will he cause to come near unto him. This do; take you censers, Korah, and all his company; and put fire therein, and put incense in them before the LORD to-morrow: and the man whom the LORD doth choose, he shall be holy: ye take too much upon you, ye sons of Levi. And Moses said unto Korah, Hear, I pray you, ye sons of Levi: seemeth it but a small thing unto you, that the God of Israel hath separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to himself to do the service of the tabernacle of the LORD, and to stand before the congregation to minister unto them? And he hath brought thee near to him, and all thy brethren the sons of Levi with thee: and seek ye the priesthood also? For which cause both thou and all thy company are gathered together against the LORD: and what is Aaron, that ye murmur against him?

And Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab: who said, We will not come up: is it a small thing that thou hast brought us up out of a land that floweth with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, except thou make thyself altogether a prince over us? Moreover thou hast not brought us into a land that floweth with milk and honey, or given us inheritance of fields and vineyards: wilt

- 15 thou put out the eyes of these men? we will not come up. And Moses was very wroth, and said unto the LORD, Respect not thou their offering: I have not taken 16 one ass from them, neither have I hurt one of them. And Moses said unto Korah, Be thou and all thy company before the LORD, thou, and they, and Aaron, to-morrow: and take every man his censer, and put incense in it, and bring ye before 17 the LORD every man his censer, two hundred and fifty censers; thou also, and Aaron, each of you his censer.
- 18 And they took every man his censer, and put fire in them, and laid incense thereon, and stood in the door of the tabernacle of the congregation with Moses and Aaron.
 19 And Korah gathered all the congregation against them unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the congregation.
- 20 21 And the LORD spoke unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying, Separate yourselves 22 from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment. And they fell upon their faces, and said, O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin, and wilt thou be wroth with all the congregation? And the LORD spoke unto 23 Moses, saying, Speak unto the congregation, saying, Get you up from about the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.
- 24 And Moses rose up and went unto Dathan and Abiram; and the elders of Israel 25 followed him. And he spoke unto the congregation, saying, Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of theirs, lest ye be consumed 26 in all their sins. So they went from the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, on every side: and Dathan and Abiram came out, and stood at the door of their 27 tents, and their wives, and their sons, and their little children. And Moses said, Hereby ye shall know that the LORD hath sent me to do all these works; for I
 28 have not done them of mine own mind. If these men die the common death of all men, or if they be visited after the visitation of all men; then the LORD hath not 29 sent me. But if the LORD make a new thing, and the earth open her mouth, and swallow them up, with all that appertain unto them, and they go down alive into the pit; then ye shall understand that these men have provoked the LORD.
- 30 And as he had made an end of speaking all these words, the ground clave asunder 31 that was under them: and the earth opened its mouth, and swallowed them up, and their houses, and all the men who appertained unto Korah, and all their goods.
 32 They, and all that appertained to them, went down alive into the pit, and the earth closed upon them: and they perished from among the congregation. And all Israel who were round about them fled at the cry of them: for they said, Lest the earth 33 swallow us up also. And there came out a fire from the LORD, and consumed the two hundred and fifty men who offered incense.
- 34 37 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Speak unto Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, that he take up the censers out of the burning, and scatter thou the fire 35 yonder; for they are hallowed. Of the censers of these sinners against their own lives, let them make them broad plates for a covering of the altar; for they offered 36 them before the LORD, therefore they are hallowed: and they shall be a sign unto the children of Israel. And Eleazar the priest took the brazen censers, wherewith 37 those who were burnt had offered; and they were made broad plates for a covering
 38 of the altar: to be a memorial unto the children of Israel, that no stranger, who is not of the seed of Aaron, come near to offer incense before the LORD; that he be not as Korah, and as his company: as the LORD said to him by the hand 39 of Moses.
- 40 But on the morrow all the congregation of the children of Israel murmured against 41 Moses and against Aaron, saying, Ye have killed the people of the LORD. And when the congregation were gathered against Moses and against Aaron, they looked 42 towards the tabernacle of the congregation: and, behold, the cloud covered it, and the glory of the LORD appeared. And Moses and Aaron came before the tabernacle 43 44 45 nacle of the congregation. And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Get you up from among this congregation, that I may consume them as in a moment. And 46 they fell upon their faces. And Moses said unto Aaron, Take a censer, and put fire therein from off the altar, and put on incense, and go quickly unto the congregation, and make an atonement for them; for there is wrath gone out from the LORD; the 47 plague is begun. And Aaron took as Moses commanded, and ran into the midst of the congregation; and, behold, the plague was begun among the people: and he put 48 on incense, and made an atonement for the people. And he stood between the dead 49 and the living; and the plague was stayed. Now they who died in the plague were fourteen thousand and seven hundred, besides those who died about the matter of Korah. And Aaron returned unto Moses unto the door of the tabernacle of the 50 congregation : and the plague was stayed.

And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, 17 and take of every one of them a rod according to the house of their fathers, of all their princes according to the house of their fathers twelve rods : write thou every man's name upon his rod. And thou shalt write Aaron's name upon the rod of Levi : 3 for one rod shall be for the head of the house of their fathers. And thou shalt lay them up in the tabernacle of the congregation before the testimony, where I will meet with you. And the man's rod, whom I shall choose, shall blossom : and I 5 will make to cease from me the murmurings of the children of Israel, whereby they murmur against you.

And Moses spoke unto the children of Israel, and every one of their princes gave 6 him a rod apiece, for each prince one, according to his father's house, even twelve rods : and the rod of Aaron was among their rods. And Moses laid up the rods 7 before the LORD in the tabernacle of witness.

And on the morrow Moses went into the tabernacle of witness ; and, behold, the 8 rod of Aaron for the house of Levi was budded, and brought forth buds, and bloomed blossoms, and yielded almonds. And Moses brought out all the rods from before the 9 LORD unto all the children of Israel : and they looked, and took every man his rod.

And the LORD said unto Moses, Bring Aaron's rod again before the testimony, 10 to be kept for a token against the rebels ; and thou shalt quite take away their murmurings from me, that they die not. And Moses did so : as the LORD commanded 11 him, so did he.

And the children of Israel spoke unto Moses, saying, Behold, we die, we perish, 12 we all perish. Whosoever approacheth the tabernacle of the LORD shall die : shall 13 we be consumed with dying ? And the LORD said unto Aaron, Thou and thy sons and thy father's house with thee shall bear the iniquity of the sanctuary : and thou 18 and thy sons with thee shall bear the iniquity of your priesthood. And thy brethren also of the tribe of Levi, the tribe of thy father, bring thou with thee, that they may be joined unto thee, and minister unto thee : but thou and thy sons with thee shall minister before the tabernacle of witness. And they shall keep thy 3 charge, and the charge of all the tabernacle : only they shall not come nigh the vessels of the sanctuary and the altar, that neither they, nor ye also, die. And they 4 shall be joined unto thee, and keep the charge of the tabernacle of the congregation, for all the service of the tabernacle : and a stranger shall not come nigh unto you. And ye shall keep the charge of the sanctuary, and the charge of the altar : 5 that there be no wrath any more upon the children of Israel. And I, behold, I have taken your brethren the Levites from among the children of Israel : to you they are given as a gift for the LORD, to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation. Therefore thou and thy sons with thee shall keep your priest's office for 7 every thing of the altar, and within the vail ; and ye shall serve : I have given your priest's office unto you as a service of gift : and the stranger who cometh nigh shall be put to death.

And the LORD spoke unto Aaron, Behold, I also have given thee the charge of 8 my heave offerings of all the hallowed things of the children of Israel ; unto thee have I given them by reason of the anointing, and to thy sons, by an ordinance for ever. This shall be thine of the most holy things, reserved from the fire : every ob- 9 lation of theirs, every thank offering of theirs, and every sin offering of theirs, and every trespass offering of theirs, which they shall render unto me, shall be most holy for thee and for thy sons. In the most holy place shalt thou eat it ; every 10 male shall eat it : it shall be holy unto thee. And this is thine ; the heave offering of their gift, with all the wave offerings of the children of Israel : I have given them unto thee, and to thy sons and to thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever : every one who is clean in thy house shall eat of it. All the best of the oil, and all 12 the best of the wine, and of the wheat, the firstfruits of them which they shall offer unto the LORD, them have I given thee. And whatsoever is first ripe in the land, 13 which they shall bring unto the LORD, shall be thine ; every one who is clean in thy house shall eat of it. Every thing devoted in Israel shall be thine. Every thing 14 15 that openeth the womb in all flesh, which they bring unto the LORD, whether it be of men or beasts, shall be thine : nevertheless the firstborn of man shalt thou surely redeem, and the firstling of unclean beasts shalt thou redeem. And those that are to 16 be redeemed from a month old shalt thou redeem, according to thine estimation, for the money of five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, which is twenty gerahs. But the firstling of a cow, or the firstling of a sheep, or the firstling of a goat, thou 17

- shalt not redeem; they are holy: thou shalt sprinkle their blood upon the altar, and shalt burn their fat for an offering made by fire, for a sweet savour unto the LORD.
- 18 And the flesh of them shall be thine, as the wave breast and as the right shoulder are thine. All the heave offerings of the holy things, which the children of Israel offer unto the LORD, have I given to thee, and to thy sons and thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: it is a covenant of everlasting duration before the LORD unto thee and to thy seed with thee.
- 20 And the LORD spoke unto Aaron, Thou shalt have no inheritance in their land, neither shalt thou have any part among them: I am thy part and thine inheritance among the children of Israel. And, behold, I have given the children of Levi all the tenth in Israel for an inheritance, for their service which they serve, even the service of the tabernacle of the congregation. Neither must the children of Israel henceforth come nigh the tabernacle of the congregation, lest they bear sin; and die.
- 23 But the Levites shall do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they shall bear the punishment of their iniquity: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations, that among the children of Israel they have no inheritance. But the tithes of the children of Israel, which they offer as a heave offering unto the LORD, I have given to the Levites to inherit: therefore I have said unto them, Among the children of Israel they shall have no inheritance.
- 25 26 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Thus speak unto the Levites, and say unto them, When ye take of the children of Israel the tithes which I have given you from them for your inheritance, then ye shall offer up a heave offering of it for the LORD, even a tenth part of the tithe. And this your heave offering shall be reckoned unto you, as though it were the corn of the threshingfloor, and as the fulness of the winepress. Thus ye also shall offer a heave offering unto the LORD of all your tithes, which ye receive of the children of Israel; and ye shall give thereof the LORD'S heave offering to Aaron the priest. Out of all your gifts ye shall offer every heave offering of the LORD, of all the best thereof, even the hallowed part thereof out of it. Therefore thou shalt say unto them, When ye have heaved the best thereof from it, then it shall be counted unto the Levites as the increase of the threshingfloor, and as the increase of the winepress. And ye shall eat it in every place, ye and your households: for it is your reward for your service in the tabernacle of the congregation. And ye shall bear no sin by reason of it, when ye have heaved from it the best of it: neither shall ye pollute the holy things of the children of Israel, lest ye die.
- 19 And the LORD spoke unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying, This is the ordinance of the law which the LORD hath commanded, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, that they bring thee a red heifer without spot, wherein is no blemish, and 3 upon which never came yoke: and ye shall give it unto Eleazar the priest, that he may bring it forth without the camp, and one shall slay it before his face: and Eleazar the priest shall take of its blood with his finger, and sprinkle of its blood directly before the tabernacle of the congregation seven times: and one shall burn the heifer in his sight; its skin, and its flesh, and its blood, with its dung, shall he burn: 6 and the priest shall take cedar wood, and hyssop, and scarlet, and cast it into the midst of the burning of the heifer. Then the priest shall wash his clothes, and he shall bathe his flesh in water, and afterwards he shall come into the camp, and the priest shall be unclean until the evening. And he who burneth it shall wash his clothes in 9 water, and bathe his flesh in water, and shall be unclean until the evening. And a man who is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer, and lay them up without the camp in a clean place, and it shall be kept for the congregation of the children 10 of Israel for a water of separation: it is a purification for sin. And he who gathereth the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the evening: and it shall be unto the children of Israel, and unto the stranger who sojourneth among them, for a statute for ever.
- 11 12 He who toucheth the dead body of any man shall be unclean seven days. He shall purify himself with it on the third day, and on the seventh day, then he shall be clean: but if he purify not himself on the third day, and on the seventh day, he shall not be clean. Whosoever toucheth the dead body of any man who is dead, and purifieth not himself, defileth the tabernacle of the LORD, and shall be cut off from Israel: because the water of separation was not sprinkled upon him, he shall be unclean; his uncleanness is yet upon him. This is the law, when a man dieth in a tent: all that come into the tent, and all that is in the tent, shall be unclean seven 15 days. And every open vessel, which hath no covering bound upon it, is unclean. 16 And whosoever toucheth one who is slain with a sword in the open fields, or a dead body, or a bone of a man, or a grave, shall be unclean seven days.

And for an unclean person they shall take of the ashes of the burnt heifer of purification for sin, and running water shall be put thereto in a vessel : and a clean person shall take hyssop, and dip it in the water, and sprinkle it upon the tent, and upon all the vessels, and upon the persons who were there, and upon him who touched a bone, or one slain, or one dead, or a grave : and the clean person shall sprinkle upon the unclean on the third day, and on the seventh day : and on the seventh day he shall purify himself, and wash his clothes, and bathe in water, and shall be clean at evening. But the man who shall be unclean, and shall not purify himself, that person shall be cut off from among the congregation, because he hath defiled the sanctuary of the LORD : the water of separation hath not been sprinkled upon him ; he is unclean. And it shall be a perpetual statute unto them, that he who sprinkleth the water of separation shall wash his clothes ; and he who toucheth the water of separation shall be unclean until evening. And whatsoever the unclean person toucheth shall be unclean ; and he who toucheth it shall be unclean until evening.

THEN came the children of Israel, even the whole congregation, into the desert of Zin in the first month : and the people abode in Kadesh ; and Miriam died there, and was buried there. 20

And there was no water for the congregation : and they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron. And the people contended with Moses, and spoke, saying, Oh that we had died when our brethren died before the LORD ! And why have ye brought up the congregation of the LORD into this wilderness, that we and our cattle should die there ? And wherefore have ye made us to come up out of Egypt, to bring us in unto this evil place ? it is no place of seed, or of figs, or of vines, or of pomegranates ; neither is there any water to drink.

And Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they fell upon their faces and cried unto God : and the glory of the LORD appeared unto them. And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Take the rod, and gather thou the assembly together, thou, and Aaron thy brother, and speak ye unto the rock before their eyes ; and it shall give forth its water, and thou shalt bring forth to them water out of the rock : so thou shalt give the congregation and their beasts drink.

And Moses took the rod from before the LORD, as he commanded him. And Moses and Aaron gathered the congregation together before the rock, and he said unto them, Hear now, ye rebels : must we fetch you water out of this rock ? And Moses lifted up his hand, and with his rod he smote the rock twice ; and the water came out abundantly, and the congregation drank, and their beasts also.

And the LORD spoke unto Moses and Aaron, Because ye believed me not, to sanctify me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore ye shall not bring this congregation into the land which I have given them. This is the water of Meribah [STRIFE] ; because the children of Israel strove with the LORD, and he was sanctified in them.

And Moses sent messengers from Kadesh unto the king of Edom, Thus say thy brethren the Israelites, Thou knowest all the travail that hath befallen us : how our fathers went down into Egypt, and we have dwelt in Egypt a long time ; and the Egyptians vexed us, and our fathers : and when we cried unto the LORD, he heard our voice, and sent an angel, and hath brought us forth out of Egypt : and, behold, we are in Kadesh, a city in the uttermost of thy border : let us pass, I pray thee, through thy country : we will not pass through the fields, or through the vineyards, neither will we drink of the water of the wells : we will go by the king's highway, we will not turn to the right hand nor to the left, until we have passed thy borders. And Edom said unto him, Thou shalt not pass by me, lest I come out against thee with the sword. And the children of Israel said unto him, We will go by the highway : and if I and my cattle drink of thy water, then I will pay for it : I will only, without doing any thing else, go through on my feet. And he said, Thou shalt not go through. And Edom came out against him with much people, and with a strong hand. Thus Edom refused to give Israel passage through his border : wherefore Israel turned away from him.

AND the children of Israel, even the whole congregation, journeyed from Kadesh, and came unto mount Hor.

And the LORD spoke unto Moses and Aaron in mount Hor, by the coast of the land of Edom, saying, Aaron shall be gathered unto his people : for he shall not enter into the land which I have given unto the children of Israel, because ye rebelled against my word at the water of Meribah. Take Aaron and Eleazar his son,

- 26 and bring them up unto mount Hor : and strip Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Eleazar his son : and Aaron shall be gathered unto his people, and shall die there. And Moses did as the LORD commanded : and they went up into mount Hor in the sight of all the congregation. And Moses stripped Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Eleazar his son ; and Aaron died there in the top of the mount : and Moses and Eleazar came down from the mount. And when all the congregation saw that Aaron was dead, they mourned for Aaron thirty days, even all the house of Israel.
- 21 And when the Canaanite, the king of Arad, who dwelt in the south, heard that Israel came by the way of Atherim ; then he fought against Israel, and took some of them prisoners. And Israel vowed a vow unto the LORD, and said, If thou wilt indeed deliver this people into my hand, then I will utterly destroy their cities. And the LORD hearkened to the voice of Israel, and delivered up the Canaanites ; and they utterly destroyed them and their cities : and he called the name of the place Hormah [THE DEVOTED PLACE].
- 4 AND they journeyed from mount Hor by the way of the Red Sea, to compass the land of Edom : and the people were much discouraged because of the way. And the people spoke against God, and against Moses, Wherefore have ye brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness ? for there is no bread, neither is there any water ; and our soul loatheth this light bread. And the LORD sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people : and much people of Israel died. Therefore the people came to Moses, and said, We have sinned, for we have spoken against the LORD, and against thee ; pray unto the LORD, that he take away the serpents from us. And Moses prayed for the people. And the LORD said unto Moses, Make thee a fiery serpent, and set it upon a pole : and every one who is bitten, when he looketh upon it, shall live. And Moses made a serpent of brass, and put it upon a pole, and if a serpent had bitten any man, when he beheld the serpent of brass, he lived.
- 10 And the children of Israel set forward, and pitched in Oboth.
- 11 And they journeyed from Oboth, and pitched at Ije-abarim, in the wilderness which is before Moab, towards the sunrise.
- 12 13 FROM thence they removed, and pitched in the valley of Zared. From thence they removed, and pitched on the other side of Arnon, which is in the wilderness that cometh out of the coasts of the Amorites : for Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites. Wherefore it is said in the book of the wars of the LORD,
- What he did in the Red Sea,
And in the brooks of Arnon,
15 And at the stream of the brooks
That goeth down to the dwelling of Ar,
And lieth upon the border of Moab.
- 16 And from thence they went to Beer : that is the well whereof the LORD spoke unto Moses, Gather the people together, and I will give them water. Then Israel sang this song,
- Spring up, O well ; sing ye unto it :
18 The princes digged the well,
The nobles of the people digged it,
By the direction of the lawgiver, with their staves.
- 19 And from the wilderness they went to Mattanah : and from Mattanah to Nahaliel : and from Nahaliel to Bamoth : and from Bamoth in the valley, that is in the country of Moab, to the top of Pisgah, which looketh towards Jeshimon.
- 21 22 AND Israel sent messengers unto Sihon king of the Amorites, saying, Let me pass through thy land : we will not turn into the fields, or into the vineyards ; we will not drink of the waters of the well ; but we will go along by the king's highway, until we be past thy borders. And Sihon would not suffer Israel to pass through his border : but Sihon gathered all his people together, and went out against Israel into the wilderness : and he came to Jahaz, and fought against Israel. And Israel smote him with the edge of the sword, and possessed his land from Arnon unto Jabbok, even unto the children of Ammon ; for the border of the children of Ammon was strong. And Israel took all these cities : and Israel dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all the villages thereof. For Heshbon was the city of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab, and taken all his land out of his hand, even unto Arnon. Wherefore they who speak 27 in proverbs say,

- Come into Heshbon,
Let the city of Sihon be built and prepared ;
28 For there is a fire gone out of Heshbon,
A flame from the city of Sihon :
It hath consumed Ar of Moab,
And the lords of the high places of Arnon.
29 Woe to thee, Moab !
Thou art undone, O people of Chemosh :
He hath suffered his sons to become fugitives,
And his daughters to go into captivity Unto Sihon king of the Amorites.
30 Their light is extinguished ;
Heshbon is perished even unto Dibon,
And we have laid them waste even unto Nophah,
Which reacheth unto Medeba.

Thus Israel dwelt in the land of the Amorites. And Moses sent to spy out Jaazer, 31 32 and they took the villages thereof, and drove out the Amorites who were there.

And they turned and went up by the way of Bashan : and Og the king of Bashan 33 went out against them, he, and all his people, to the battle at Edrei. And the 34 LORD said unto Moses, Fear him not : for I have delivered him into thy hand, and all his people, and his land ; and thou shalt do to him as thou didst unto Sihon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon. So they smote him, and his sons, and 35 all his people, until there were none left him alive : and they possessed his land.

AND the children of Israel set forward, and pitched in the plains of Moab on this 22 side the Jordan by Jericho.

And Balak the son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites. And 2 3 Moab was sore afraid of the people, because they were many : and Moab was perplexed because of the children of Israel. And Moab said unto the elders of Midian, 4 Now shall this company lick up all that are round about us, as the ox licketh up the grass of the field. And Balak the son of Zippor was king of the Moabites at that time. He sent messengers therefore unto Balaam the son of Beor to Pethor, which 5 is by the river of the land of the children of Ammon, to call him, saying, Behold, there is a people come out from Egypt : behold, they cover the face of the earth, and they abide over against me : come now therefore, I pray thee, curse me this 6 people ; for they are too mighty for me : peradventure I shall prevail, that we may smite them, and that I may drive them out of the land : for I know that he whom thou blessest is blessed, and he whom thou cursest is cursed. And the elders of Moab 7 and the elders of Midian departed with the instruments of divination in their hand ; and they came unto Balaam, and spoke unto him the words of Balak. And he said 8 unto them, Lodge here this night, and I will bring you word again, as the LORD shall speak unto me : and the princes of Moab abode with Balaam.

And God came unto Balaam, and said, What men are these with thee ? And 9 10
Balaam said unto God, Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, hath sent unto me, saying, Behold, there is a people come out of Egypt, who cover the face of the earth : 11 come now, curse me them ; peradventure I shall be able to overcome them, and drive them out. And God said unto Balaam, Thou shalt not go with them ; thou shalt 12 not curse the people ; for they are blessed.

And Balaam rose up in the morning, and said unto the princes of Balak, Get 13 you into your land ; for the LORD refuseth to give me leave to go with you. And 14 the princes of Moab rose up, and they went unto Balak, and said, Balaam refuseth to come with us.

And Balak sent yet again princes, more, and more honourable than they. And 15 16 they came to Balaam, and said to him, Thus saith Balak the son of Zippor, Let nothing, I pray thee, hinder thee from coming unto me ; for I will promote thee 17 unto very great honour, and I will do whatsoever thou sayest unto me : come therefore, I pray thee, curse me this people. And Balaam answered and said unto the 18 servants of Balak, If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the word of the LORD my God, to do less or more. Now therefore, 19
I pray you, tarry ye also here this night, that I may know what the LORD will say unto me more.

And God came unto Balaam at night, and said unto him, If the men come to call 20 thee, rise up, and go with them; but yet the word which I shall say unto thee, that shalt thou do.

- 21 And Balaam rose up in the morning, and saddled his ass, and went with the 22 princes of Moab. And God's anger was kindled because he went with a covetous 23 disposition: and the angel of the LORD stood in the way for an adversary against 23 him. Now he was riding upon his ass, and his two servants were with him. And the ass saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand; and the ass turned aside out of the way, and went into the field: and 24 Balaam smote the ass, to turn her into the way. But the angel of the LORD stood 25 in a path of the vineyards, a wall being on this side, and a wall on that side. And when the ass saw the angel of the LORD, it thrust itself unto the wall, and crushed 26 Balaam's foot against the wall: and he smote it again. And the angel of the LORD went further, and stood in a narrow place, where was no way to turn either to the 27 right hand or to the left. And when the ass saw the angel of the LORD, it fell down under Balaam: and Balaam's anger was kindled, and he smote the ass with a 28 staff. And the LORD opened the mouth of the ass, and it said unto Balaam, What 29 have I done unto thee, that thou hast smitten me these three times? And Balaam said unto the ass, Because thou hast mocked me: I would there were a sword in 30 my hand, for now would I kill thee. And the ass said unto Balaam, Am not I thine ass, upon which thou hast ridden ever since I was thine unto this day? was I ever 31 wont to do so unto thee? And he said, Nay. Then the LORD opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand: and he bowed himself to the ground, and fell flat on his face.
 32 And the angel of the LORD said unto him, Wherefore hast thou smitten thine ass these three times? behold, I went out to withstand thee, because thy way is perverse 33 before me: and the ass saw me, and turned from me these three times: unless it 34 had turned from me, surely now also I had slain thee, and saved it alive. And Balaam said unto the angel of the LORD, I have sinned; for I knew not that thou stoodest in the way against me: now therefore, if it displease thee, I will get me 35 back again. And the angel of the LORD said unto Balaam, Go with the men: but only the word that I shall speak unto thee, that thou shalt speak.
 36 So Balaam went with the princes of Balak. And when Balak heard that Balaam was come, he went out to meet him unto a city of Moab, which is in the border of 37 Arnon, which is in the utmost coast. And Balak said unto Balaam, Did I not earnestly send unto thee to call thee? wherefore camest thou not unto me? am I not able 38 indeed to promote thee to honour? And Balaam said unto Balak, Lo, I am come unto thee: have I now any power at all to say any thing? the word that God putteth in my mouth, that shall I speak.
 39 And Balaam went with Balak, and they came unto Kirjath-huzoth [A CITY OF 40 STREETS]. And Balak offered oxen and sheep, and sent to Balaam, and to the princes who were with him.
 41 And on the morrow Balak took Balaam, and brought him up into the high places 23 of Baal, and he saw from thence the utmost part of the people. And Balaam said unto Balak, Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven oxen and seven 2 rams. And Balak did as Balaam had spoken; and Balak and Balaam offered on 3 every altar a bullock and a ram. And Balaam said unto Balak, Stand by thy burnt offering, and I will go: peradventure the LORD will come to meet me: and what-4 soever he sheweth me I will tell thee. And he went alone to an open place. And God met Balaam; and he said unto him, I have prepared seven altars, and I have 5 offered upon every altar a bullock and a ram. And the LORD put a word in Ba-6 laam's mouth, and said, Return unto Balak, and thus thou shalt speak. And he returned unto him, and, lo, he stood by his burnt sacrifice, he, and all the princes of 7 Moab. And he took up his parable, and said,

Balak the king of Moab hath brought me from Aram,
 Out of the mountains of the east, saying,
 Come, curse me Jacob,
 And come, devote Israel to destruction.

- 8 How shall I curse, whom God hath not cursed?
 Or how shall I devote to destruction, whom the LORD hath not devoted?
 9 For from the top of the rocks I see them,
 And from the hills I behold them:
 Lo, the people shall dwell alone,
 And shall not be reckoned among the nations.

- 10 Who can count the dust of Jacob,
And number the fourth part of Israel?
Let me die the death of the righteous,
And let my last end be like his!

And Balak said unto Balaam, What hast thou done unto me? I took thee to curse 11 mine enemies, and, behold, thou hast altogether blessed them. And he answered and 12 said, Must I not take heed to speak that which the LORD hath put in my mouth?

And Balak said unto him, Come, I pray thee, with me unto another place, from 13 whence thou mayest see them: thou shalt see but the utmost part of them, and shalt not see them all: and curse me them from thence. And he brought him into the 14 field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah, and built seven altars, and offered a bullock and a ram on every altar. And he said unto Balak, Stand here by thy burnt offer- 15 ing, while I meet the LORD yonder. And the LORD met Balaam, and put a word 16 in his mouth, and said, Go again unto Balak, and say thus. And when he came to 17 him, behold, he stood by his burnt offering, and the princes of Moab with him. And Balak said unto him, What hath the LORD spoken? And he took up his parable, 18 and said,

- Rise up, Balak, and hear;
Hearken unto me, thou son of Zippor:
19 God is not a man, that he should lie;
Neither the son of man, that he should repent:
Hath he said—and shall he not do it?
Or hath he spoken—and shall he not make it good?
20 Behold, I have received commandment to bless:
And he hath blessed; and I cannot reverse it.
21 He doth not approve of vexation against Jacob,
Nor of trouble or affliction in Israel:
The LORD his God is with him,
And the shout of a king is among them.
22 God brought them out of Egypt;
He hath as it were the strength of a unicorn.
23 Surely there is no enchantment against Jacob,
Neither is there any divination against Israel:
According to this time it shall be said of Jacob
And of Israel, What hath God wrought!
24 Behold, the people shall rise up as a lioness,
And lift up themselves as a young lion:
He shall not lie down until he eat of the prey,
And drink the blood of the slain.

And Balak said unto Balaam, Neither curse them at all, nor bless them at all. 25
But Balaam answered and said unto Balak, Did I not tell thee, saying, All that the 26
LORD speaketh, that I must do?

And Balak said unto Balaam, Come, I pray thee, I will bring thee unto another 27 place; peradventure it will please God that thou mayest curse me them from thence.
And Balak brought Balaam unto the top of Peor, that looketh towards Jeshimon. 28
And Balaam said unto Balak, Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here 29 seven bullocks and seven rams. And Balak did as Balaam had said, and offered a 30 bullock and a ram on every altar.

And when Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he went not, as 24 at other times, to seek for enchantments, but he set his face towards the wilderness.
And Balaam lifted up his eyes, and he saw the Israelites abiding in their tents ac- 2 cording to their tribes; and the spirit of God came upon him. And he took up his 3 parable, and said,

- Balaam the son of Beor hath said,
And the man who had his eyes shut, but now opened,
4 Who heard the words of God,
Who saw the vision of the Almighty,
Falling into a trance, but having his eyes open, hath said:
5 How goodly are thy tents, O Jacob!
And thy tabernacles, O Israel!
6 As the valleys are they spread forth,
As the gardens by the river's side,

- As the trees of lign aloes which the LORD hath planted,
 And as cedar trees beside the waters.
- 7 Water shall flow from the urn of Jacob,
 And his seed shall become as many waters.
 His king shall be higher than Agag,
 And his kingdom shall be exalted.
- 8 God brought him forth out of Egypt;
 He hath as it were the strength of a unicorn:
 He shall eat up the nations his enemies,
 And shall break their bones,
 And pierce them through with his arrows.
- 9 He couched, he lay down as a lion,
 And as a great lion: who shall stir him up?
 Blessed is he who blesseth thee,
 And cursed is he who curseth thee.
- 10 And Balak's anger was kindled against Balaam, and he smote his hands together:
 and Balak said unto Balaam, I called thee to curse mine enemies, and, behold, thou 11 hast altogether blessed them these three times. Therefore now flee thou to thy place: I thought to promote thee unto great honour; but, lo, the LORD hath 12 kept thee back from honour. And Balaam said unto Balak, Spoke I not also to thy 13 messengers whom thou sentest unto me, saying, If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the commandment of the LORD, to do either good or bad of mine own mind; but what the LORD saith, that will I speak?
 14 And now, behold, I go unto my people: come therefore, and I will tell thee what 15 this people shall do to thy people in the latter days. And he took up his parable, and said,
 Balaam the son of Beor hath said,
 And the man who had his eyes shut, but now opened,
 16 Who heard the words of God,
 And knew the knowledge of the Most High,
 Who saw the vision of the Almighty,
 Falling into a trance, but having his eyes open, hath said:
 17 I shall see him—but not now:
 I shall behold him—but not nigh:
 There shall come a Star out of Jacob,
 And a Sceptre shall rise out of Israel,
 And shall smite the corners of Moab,
 And destroy all the children of Sheth.
- 18 And Edom shall be a possession,
 Seir also, his enemy, shall be a possession;
 And Israel shall do valiantly.
- 19 Out of Jacob shall he come who shall have dominion,
 And shall destroy him who remaineth of the city.
- 20 And when he looked on Amalek, he took up his parable, and said, Amalek was the first of the nations who warred against Israel;
 But his posterity shall perish for ever.
- 21 And he looked on the Kenites, and took up his parable, and said,
 Strong is thy dwellingplace,
 And thou putttest thy nest in a rock.
- 22 Nevertheless the Kenite shall be wasted,
 Until Asshur shall carry thee away captive.
- 23 And he took up his parable, and said,
 Alas! who shall live
 When God doeth this!
- 24 And ships shall come from the coast of Chittim,
 And shall afflict Asshur, and shall afflict Eber,
 And he also shall perish for ever.
- 25 And Balaam rose up, and went and returned to his place: and Balak also went his way.
- 25 And Israel abode in Shittim, and the people began to commit whoredom with the daughters of Moab. And they called the people unto the sacrifices of their gods; and the people did eat, and bowed down to their gods. And Israel joined himself 3 unto Baal-peor; and the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel. And the 4 LORD said unto Moses, Take all the heads of the people, and hang them up before the LORD against the sun, that the fierce anger of the LORD may be turned away from Israel. And Moses said unto the judges of Israel, Slay ye every one his men 5 who were joined unto Baal-peor. And, behold, one of the children of Israel came 6 and brought unto his brethren a Midianitish woman in the sight of Moses, and in the sight of all the congregation of the children of Israel, who were weeping before the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. And when Phinehas, the son of 7 Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, saw it, he rose up from among the congregation, and took a javelin in his hand; and he went after the man of Israel into the tent, and 8 thrust both of them through, the man of Israel and the woman. So the plague was stayed from the children of Israel. And those who died in the plague were twenty 9 and four thousand.

And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son 10 11 of Aaron the priest, hath turned my wrath away from the children of Israel, while he was zealous for my sake among them, that I consumed not the children of Israel in my jealousy. Wherefore say, Behold, I give unto him my covenant of peace: and 12 13 he shall have it, and his seed after him, even the covenant of an everlasting priesthood; because he was zealous for his God, and made an atonement for the children of Israel. Now the name of the Israelite who was slain with the Midianitish woman, 14 was Zimri, the son of Salu, a prince of a chief house among the Simeonites. And 15 the name of the Midianitish woman who was slain was Cozbi, the daughter of Zur:
he was head over a people, and of a chief house in Midian.

And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Harass the Midianites, and smite them: 16 17 for they harass you with their wiles, wherewith they have beguiled you in the mat- 18 ter of Peor, and in the matter of Cozbi, the daughter of a prince of Midian, their sister, who was slain in the day of the plague for Peor's sake.

And after the plague, the LORD spoke unto Moses and unto Eleazar the son of 26
Aaron the priest, saying, Take the sum of all the congregation of the children of Israel, from twenty years old and upwards, throughout their fathers' house, all who are able to go to war in Israel. And Moses and Eleazar the priest spoke with them 3 in the plains of Moab by the Jordan near Jericho, saying, Take the sum of the peo- 4 ple, from twenty years old and upwards; as the LORD commanded Moses and the children of Israel, who went forth out of the land of Egypt.

Reuben, the eldest son of Israel: the children of Reuben; Hanoeh, of whom 5 cometh the family of the Hanochites: of Pallu, the family of the Palluites: of Hez- 6 ron, the family of the Hezronites: of Carmi, the family of the Carnites. These are 7 the families of the Reubenites: and those who were numbered of them were forty and three thousand and seven hundred and thirty. And the sons of Pallu; Eliab. 8
And the sons of Eliab; Nemuel, and Dathan, and Abiram. These are Dathan and 9 Abiram, who were famous in the congregation, who strove against Moses and against Aaron in the company of Korah, when they strove against the LORD: and the 10 earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up together with Korah, when that company died, when the fire devoured two hundred and fifty men: and they became a sign. Notwithstanding the children of Korah died not. 11

The sons of Simeon after their families: of Nemuel, the family of the Nemuelites: 12 of Jamin, the family of the Jaminites: of Jachin, the family of the Jachinites: of 13 Zerah, the family of the Zarahites: of Shaul, the family of the Shaulites. These are 14 the families of the Simeonites, twenty and two thousand and two hundred.

The children of Gad after their families: of Zephon, the family of the Zephonites: 15 of Haggi, the family of the Haggites: of Shuni, the family of the Shunites: of Ozni, 16 the family of the Omites: of Eri, the family of the Erites: of Arod, the family of 17 the Arodites: of Areli, the family of the Arelites. These are the families of the 18 children of Gad according to those who were numbered of them, forty thousand and five hundred.

The sons of Judah were Er and Onan: and Er and Onan died in the land of Ca- 19 naan. And the sons of Judah after their families were; of Shelah, the family of the 20 Shelanites: of Pharez, the family of the Pharizes: of Zerah, the family of the Zar-hites. And the sons of Pharez were; of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites: of 21 Hamul, the family of the Hamulites. These are the families of Judah according 22 to those who were numbered of them, threescore and sixteen thousand and five hundred.

Of the sons of Issachar after their families: of Tola, the family of the Tolaites: 23

- 24 of Pua, the family of the Punites : of Jashub, the family of the Jashubites : of Shimron, the family of the Shimronites. These are the families of Issachar according to those who were numbered of them, threescore and four thousand and three hundred.
- 26 Of the sons of Zebulun after their families : of Sered, the family of the Sardites : of Elon, the family of the Elonites : of Jahleel, the family of the Jahleelites. These are the families of the Zebulunites according to those who were numbered of them, threescore thousand and five hundred.
- 28 29 The sons of Joseph after their families were Manasseh and Ephraim. Of the sons of Manasseh : of Machir, the family of the Machirites : and Machir begat Gilead : of Gilead come the family of the Gileadites. These are the sons of Gilead : of Jeezer, the family of the Jeezerites : of Helek, the family of the Helekites : and of Asriel, the family of the Asrielites : and of Shechem, the family of the Shechemites : and of Shemida, the family of the Shemidaïtes : and of Hephher, the family of the Hephherites. And Zelophehad the son of Hephher had no sons, but daughters : and the names of the daughters of Zelophehad were Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.
- 34 These are the families of Manasseh, and those who were numbered of them, fifty and two thousand and seven hundred.
- 35 These are the sons of Ephraim after their families : of Shuthelah, the family of the Shuthalahites : of Becher, the family of the Bachrites : of Tahan, the family of the Tahanites. And these are the sons of Shuthelah : of Eran, the family of the Eranites. These are the families of the sons of Ephraim according to those who were numbered of them, thirty and two thousand and five hundred. These are the sons of Joseph after their families.
- 38 The sons of Benjamin after their families : of Bela, the family of the Belaites : of Ashbel, the family of the Ashbelites : of Ahiram, the family of the Ahiramites : of Shupham, the family of the Shuphamites : of Hupham, the family of the Huphamites. And the sons of Bela were Ard and Naaman : of Ard, the family of the Ardites : and of Naaman, the family of the Naamites. These are the sons of Benjamin after their families : and those who were numbered of them were forty and five thousand and six hundred.
- 42 These are the sons of Dan after their families : of Shuham, the family of the Shuhamites. These are the families of Dan after their families. All the families of the Shuhamites, according to those who were numbered of them, were threescore and four thousand and four hundred.
- 44 Of the children of Asher after their families : of Jimna, the family of the Jimnites : of Jesui, the family of the Jesuites : of Beriah, the family of the Beriites. Of the sons of Beriah : of Heber, the family of the Heberites : of Malchiel, the family of the Malchielites. And the name of the daughter of Asher was Sarah. These are the families of the sons of Asher according to those who were numbered of them ; who were fifty and three thousand and four hundred.
- 48 Of the sons of Naphtali after their families : of Jahzeel, the family of the Jahzeelites : of Guni, the family of the Gunites : of Jezer, the family of the Jezerites : of Shillem, the family of the Shillemites. These are the families of Naphtali according to their families : and they who were numbered of them were forty and five thousand and four hundred.
- 51 These were the numbered of the children of Israel, six hundred thousand and a thousand seven hundred and thirty.
- 52 53 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Unto these the land shall be divided for an inheritance according to the number of names. To many thou shalt give the more inheritance, and to few thou shalt give the less inheritance : to every one shall his inheritance be given according to those who were numbered of him. Notwithstanding the land shall be divided by lot : according to the names of the tribes of their fathers they shall inherit. According to the lot shall the possession thereof be divided between many and few.
- 57 And these are they who were numbered of the Levites after their families : of Gershon, the family of the Gershonites : of Kohath, the family of the Kohathites : of Merari, the family of the Merarites. These are the families of the Levites : the family of the Libnites, the family of the Hebronites, the family of the Mahlites, the family of the Mushites, the family of the Korathites. And Kohath begat Amram. And the name of Amram's wife was Jochebed, the daughter of Levi, whom her mother bore to Levi in Egypt : and she bore unto Amram Aaron and Moses, and Miriam their sister. And unto Aaron was born Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.
- 61 62 And Nadab and Abihu died, when they offered strange fire before the LORD. And those who were numbered of them were twenty and three thousand, all males from a month old and upwards: for they were not numbered among the children of Israel, because there was no inheritance given them among the children of Israel.

These are they who were numbered by Moses and Eleazar the priest, who num- 63 bered the children of Israel in the plains of Moab by the Jordan near Jericho. But 64 among these there was not a man of them whom Moses and Aaron the priest numbered, when they numbered the children of Israel in the wilderness of Sinai. For 65 the LORD had said of them, They shall surely die in the wilderness. And there was not left a man of them, save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun.

Then came the daughters of Zelophehad, the son of Hopher, the son of Gilead, the 27 son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of Manasseh the son of Joseph:
and these are the names of his daughters; Mahlah, Noah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Tirzah. And they stood before Moses, and before Eleazar the priest, and before 2 the princes and all the congregation, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, saying, Our father died in the wilderness, and he was not in the company of 3 those who gathered themselves together against the LORD in the company of Ko-rah: but died in his own sin, and had no sons. Why should the name of our father 4 be done away from among his family, because he hath no son? Give unto us therefore a possession among the brethren of our father.

And Moses brought their cause before the LORD. And the LORD spoke unto 5 6
Moses, saying, The daughters of Zelophehad speak right: thou shalt surely give 7 them a possession of an inheritance among their father's brethren; and thou shalt cause the inheritance of their father to pass unto them. And thou shalt speak unto 8 the children of Israel, saying, If a man die, and have no son, then ye shall cause his inheritance to pass unto his daughter. And if he have no daughter, then ye shall 9 give his inheritance unto his brethren. And if he have no brethren, then ye shall 10 give his inheritance unto his father's brethren. And if his father have no brethren, 11 then ye shall give his inheritance unto his kinsman who is next to him of his family, and he shall possess it: and it shall be unto the children of Israel a statute of judgment, as the LORD commanded Moses.

And the LORD said unto Moses, Get thee up into this mount Abarim, and see 12 the land which I have given unto the children of Israel. And when thou hast seen 13 it, thou also shalt be gathered unto thy people, as Aaron thy brother was gathered.
For ye rebelled against my commandment in the desert of Zin, in the strife of the 14 congregation, and ye were not willing to sanctify me at the water before their eyes:
that is, at the water of Meribah in Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin.

And Moses spoke unto the LORD, saying, Let the LORD, the God of the spirits 15 16 of all flesh, set a man over the congregation, who may go out before them, and who may go in before them, and who may lead them out, and who may bring them in; that the congregation of the LORD be not as sheep which have no shepherd.

And the LORD said unto Moses, Take thee Joshua the son of Nun, a man in 18 whom is the spirit, and lay thy hand upon him; and set him before Eleazar the priest, 19 and before all the congregation; and give him a charge in their sight. And thou 20 shalt put some of thine honour upon him, that all the congregation of the children of Israel may be obedient. And he shall stand before Eleazar the priest, who shall 21 ask counsel for him after the judgment of Urim before the LORD: at his word shall they go out, and at his word they shall come in, both he, and all the children of Israel with him, even all the congregation.

And Moses did as the LORD commanded him: and he took Joshua, and set him 22 before Eleazar the priest, and before all the congregation: and he laid his hands 23 upon him, and gave him a charge, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

AND the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Command the children of Israel, and 28 say unto them, My offering, and my bread for my sacrifices made by fire, for a sweet savour unto me, shall ye observe to offer unto me in their due season.

And thou shalt say unto them, This is the offering made by fire which ye shall 3 offer unto the LORD; two lambs of the first year without spot day by day, for a continual burnt offering. The one lamb shalt thou offer in the morning, and the 4 other lamb shalt thou offer at evening; and a tenth part of an ephah of flour for a 5 thank offering, mingled with the fourth part of a hin of beaten oil. It is a continual 6 burnt offering, which was ordained in mount Sinai for a sweet savour, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD. And the drink offering thereof shall be the fourth 7 part of a hin for the one lamb: in the holy place shalt thou cause the strong wine to be poured unto the LORD for a drink offering. And the other lamb shalt thou offer 8 at evening: as the thank offering of the morning, and as the drink offering thereof, thou shalt offer it, a sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

9 And on the sabbath day two lambs of the first year without spot, and two tenth deals of flour for a thank offering, mingled with oil, and the drink offering thereof: this is the burnt offering of every sabbath, besides the continual burnt offering, and its drink offering.

11 And in the beginnings of your months ye shall offer a burnt offering unto the LORD; two young bullocks, and one ram, seven lambs of the first year without spot; and three tenth deals of flour for a thank offering, mingled with oil, for one bullock; and two tenth deals of flour for a thank offering, mingled with oil, for one ram; and a several tenth deal of flour mingled with oil for a thank offering unto one lamb; for a burnt offering of a sweet savour, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD. 14 And their drink offerings shall be half a hin of wine unto a bullock, and the third part of a hin unto a ram, and a fourth part of a hin unto a lamb: this is the burnt offering of every month throughout the months of the year. And one kid of the goats for a sin offering unto the LORD shall be offered, besides the continual burnt offering, and its drink offering.

16 17 AND on the fourteenth day of the first month is the passover of the LORD. And on the fifteenth day of this month is the feast: seven days shall unleavened bread be eaten. On the first day shall be a holy convocation; ye shall do no manner of servile work therein: but ye shall offer a sacrifice made by fire for a burnt offering unto the LORD; two young bullocks, and one ram, and seven lambs of the first year: they shall be unto you without blemish: and their thank offering shall be of flour mingled with oil: three tenth deals shall ye offer for a bullock, and two tenth deals for a ram; a several tenth deal shalt thou offer for every lamb, throughout the seven lambs: and one goat for a sin offering, to make an atonement for you. Ye shall offer these besides the burnt offering in the morning, which is for a continual burnt offering. After this manner ye shall offer daily, throughout the seven days, the meat of the sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD: it shall be offered besides the continual burnt offering, and its drink offering. And on the seventh day ye shall have a holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work. 26 ALSO on the day of the firstfruits, when ye bring a new thank offering unto the LORD, after your weeks are out, ye shall have a holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work: but ye shall offer the burnt offering for a sweet savour unto the LORD; 28 two young bullocks, one ram, seven lambs of the first year; and their thank offering of flour mingled with oil, three tenth deals unto one bullock, two tenth deals unto one ram, a several tenth deal unto one lamb, throughout the seven lambs; and one kid 31 of the goats, to make an atonement for you. Ye shall offer them besides the continual burnt offering, and its thank offering, (they shall be unto you without blemish,) and their drink offerings.

29 AND in the seventh month, on the first day of the month, ye shall have a holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work: it is a day of blowing the trumpets unto you. And ye shall offer a burnt offering for a sweet savour unto the LORD; one young bullock, one ram, and seven lambs of the first year without blemish: and the thank offering shall be of flour mingled with oil, three tenth deals for a bullock, and two tenth deals for a ram, and one tenth deal for one lamb, throughout the seven lambs: and one kid of the goats for a sin offering, to make an atonement for you: besides the burnt offering of the month, and its thank offering, and the daily burnt offering, and its thank offering, and their drink offerings, according unto their manner, for a sweet savour, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD.

7 AND ye shall have on the tenth day of this seventh month a holy convocation; and ye shall afflict your souls: ye shall not do any work thereon: but ye shall offer a burnt offering unto the LORD for a sweet savour; one young bullock, one ram, and seven lambs of the first year; they shall be unto you without blemish: and their thank offering shall be of flour mingled with oil, three tenth deals to a bullock, and two tenth deals to one ram, a several tenth deal for one lamb, throughout the seven lambs: one kid of the goats for a sin offering; besides the sin offering of atonement, and the continual burnt offering, and the thank offering of it, and their drink offerings.

12 AND on the fifteenth day of the seventh month ye shall have a holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work, and ye shall keep a feast unto the LORD seven days: and ye shall offer a burnt offering, a sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD; thirteen young bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year; 14 they shall be without blemish: and their thank offering shall be of flour mingled with oil, three tenth deals unto every bullock of the thirteen bullocks, two tenth deals to each ram of the two rams, and a several tenth deal to each lamb of the fourteen lambs : and one kid of the goats for a sin offering ; besides the continual burnt offering, its thank offering, and its drink offering.

And on the second day ye shall offer twelve young bullocks, two rams, fourteen lambs of the first year without spot : and their thank offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner : and one kid of the goats for a sin offering ; besides the continual burnt offering, and the thank offering thereof, and their drink offerings.

And on the third day eleven bullocks, two rams, fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish ; and their thank offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner : and one goat for a sin offering ; besides the continual burnt offering, and its thank offering, and its drink offering.

And on the fourth day ten bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish : their thank offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner : and one kid of the goats for a sin offering ; besides the continual burnt offering, its thank offering, and its drink offering.

And on the fifth day nine bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year without spot : and their thank offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner : and one goat for a sin offering ; besides the continual burnt offering, and its thank offering, and its drink offering.

And on the sixth day eight bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish : and their thank offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner : and one goat for a sin offering ; besides the continual burnt offering, its thank offering, and its drink offering.

And on the seventh day seven bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish : and their thank offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner : and one goat for a sin offering ; besides the continual burnt offering, its thank offering, and its drink offering.

On the eighth day ye shall have a solemn assembly : ye shall do no servile work thereon : but ye shall offer a burnt offering, a sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD : one bullock, one ram, seven lambs of the first year without blemish : their thank offering and their drink offerings for the bullock, for the ram, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner : and one goat for a sin offering ; besides the continual burnt offering, and its thank offering, and its drink offering.

These things ye shall offer unto the LORD in your set feasts, besides your vows, and your freewill offerings, for your burnt offerings, and for your thank offerings, and for your drink offerings, and for your peace offerings. And Moses told the children of Israel according to all that the LORD commanded him.

AND Moses spoke unto the heads of the tribes of the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded. If a man vow a vow unto the LORD, or swear an oath to bind his soul with a bond ; he shall not break his word, he shall do according to all that proceedeth out of his mouth.

If a woman also vow a vow unto the LORD, and bind herself by a bond, being in her father's house in her youth ; and her father hear her vow, and her bond wherewith she hath bound herself, and her father shall hold his peace at her ; then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she hath bound herself shall stand. But if her father disallow her in the day that he heareth ; not any of her vows, or of her bonds wherewith she hath bound herself, shall stand : and the LORD shall forgive her, because her father disallowed her.

And if she had at all a husband, when she vowed, or uttered ought out of her lips, wherewith she bound herself ; and her husband heard it, and held his peace at her in the day that he heard it : then her vows shall stand, and her bonds wherewith she bound herself shall stand. But if her husband disallowed her on the day that he heard it ; then he shall make her vow which she vowed, and that which she uttered with her lips, wherewith she bound herself, of none effect : and the LORD shall forgive her.

But every vow of a widow, and of one divorced, wherewith they have bound themselves, shall stand against them.

- 10 And if she vowed in her husband's house, or bound herself by a bond with an oath; 11 and her husband heard it, and held his peace at her, and disallowed her not; then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she bound herself shall stand.
 12 But if her husband hath utterly made them void on the day he heard them; then whatsoever proceeded out of her lips concerning her vows, or concerning the bond of herself, shall not stand: her husband hath made them void; and the LORD shall 13 forgive her. Every vow, and every binding oath to afflict herself, her husband may 14 establish it, or her husband may make it void. But if her husband altogether hold his peace at her from day to day; then he establisheth all her vows, or all her bonds, which are upon her: he confirmeth them, because he held his peace at her in the 15 day that he heard them. But if he shall in any manner make them void after that he hath heard them; then he shall bear her iniquity.
 16 These are the statutes, which the LORD commanded Moses, between a man and his wife, between the father and his daughter, being yet in her youth in her father's house.

- 31 AND the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Avenge the children of Israel of the Midianites: afterwards shalt thou be gathered unto thy people.
 3 And Moses spoke unto the people, saying, Arm some of yourselves unto the war, 4 and let them go against the Midianites, and avenge the LORD of Midian. Of every tribe a thousand, throughout all the tribes of Israel, shall ye send to the war.
 5 So there were delivered out of the thousands of Israel, a thousand of every tribe, 6 twelve thousand armed for war. And Moses sent them to the war, a thousand of every tribe, with Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, who had with him the 7 holy instruments, and the trumpets to blow in his hand. And they warred against 8 the Midianites, as the LORD commanded Moses; and they slew all the males. And they slew the kings of Midian, besides the rest of those who were slain; namely, Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, five princes of Midian: Balaam also the 9 son of Beor they slew with the sword. And the children of Israel took all the women of Midian captives, and their little ones, and took the spoil of all their cattle, 10 and all their flocks, and all their goods. And they burnt all their cities wherein 11 they dwelt, and all their goodly castles, with fire. And they took all the spoil, and 12 all the prey, both of men and of beasts. And they brought the captives, and the prey, and the spoil, unto Moses, and Eleazar the priest, and unto the congregation of the children of Israel, unto the camp at the plains of Moab, which are by the Jordan near Jericho.
 13 And Moses, and Eleazar the priest, and all the princes of the congregation, went 14 forth to meet them without the camp. And Moses was wroth with the officers of the host, with the captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, who came 15 from the battle. And Moses said unto them, Have ye saved all the women alive?
 16 Behold, these caused the children of Israel, through the counsel of Balaam, to commit trespass against the LORD in the matter of Peor, and there was a plague among the 17 congregation of the LORD. Now therefore kill every male among the little ones, 18 and kill every woman who hath known man by lying with him. But all the women children, who have not known a man by lying with him, keep alive for yourselves.
 19 And do ye abide without the camp seven days: whosoever hath killed any person, and whosoever hath touched any slain, purify both yourselves and your captives 20 on the third day, and on the seventh day. And purify all your raiment, and all that is made of skins, and all work of goats' hair, and all things made of wood.
 21 And Eleazar the priest said unto the men of war who went to the battle, This is 22 the ordinance of the law which the LORD commanded Moses; only the gold, and the 23 silver, the brass, the iron, the tin, and the lead, every thing that may abide the fire, ye shall make it go through the fire, and it shall be clean: nevertheless it shall be purified with the water of separation: and all that abideth not the fire ye shall 24 make go through the water. And ye shall wash your clothes on the seventh day, and ye shall be clean, and afterwards ye shall come into the camp.
 25 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Take the sum of the prey that was taken, both of man and of beast, thou, and Eleazar the priest, and the chief fathers of the 27 congregation: and divide the prey into two parts; between those who took the war 28 upon them, who went out to battle, and between all the congregation: and levy a tribute unto the LORD of the men of war who went out to battle: one soul of five hundred, both of the persons, and of the oxen, and of the asses, and of the sheep:
 29 take it of their half, and give it unto Eleazar the priest, for a heave offering of the 30 LORD. And of the children of Israel's half, thou shalt take one portion of fifty, of the persons, of the oxen, of the asses, and of the flocks, of all manner of beasts, and give them unto the Levites, who keep the charge of the tabernacle of the LORD. And Moses and Eleazar the priest did as the LORD commanded Moses. 31

And the booty, being the rest of the prey which the men of war had caught, was six hundred thousand and seventy thousand and five thousand sheep, and threescore and twelve thousand oxen, and threescore and one thousand asses, and thirty and two thousand persons in all, of women who had not known man by lying with him. 33 34

And the half, which was the portion of those who went out to war, was in number three hundred thousand and seven and thirty thousand and five hundred sheep: and the LORD'S tribute of the sheep was six hundred and threescore and fifteen. And the oxen were thirty and six thousand; of which the LORD'S tribute was threescore and twelve. And the asses were thirty thousand and five hundred; of which the LORD'S tribute was threescore and one. And the persons were sixteen thousand; of which the LORD'S tribute was thirty and two persons. And Moses gave the tribute, which was the LORD'S heave offering, unto Eleazar the priest, as the LORD commanded Moses. 36 37 38 39 40 41

And of the children of Israel's half, which Moses divided from the men who warred, (now the half that pertained unto the congregation was three hundred thousand and thirty thousand and seven thousand and five hundred sheep, and thirty and six thousand oxen, and thirty thousand asses and five hundred, and sixteen thousand persons;) even of the children of Israel's half, Moses took one portion of fifty, both of man and of beast, and gave them unto the Levites, who kept the charge of the tabernacle of the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moses. 42 43 44 45 46 47

And the officers who were over thousands of the host, the captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds, came near unto Moses: and they said unto Moses, Thy servants have taken the sum of the men of war who are under our charge, and there lacketh not one man of us. We have therefore brought an oblation for the LORD, what every man hath gotten, of jewels of gold, chains, and bracelets, rings, earrings, and girdle clasps, to make an atonement for our souls before the LORD. And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold of them, even all wrought jewels. And all the gold of the heave offering that they offered up to the LORD, of the captains of thousands, and of the captains of hundreds, was sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty shekels. (For the men of war had taken spoil, every man for himself.) And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold of the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and brought it into the tabernacle of the congregation, for a memorial for the children of Israel before the LORD. 48 49 50 51 52 53 54

NOW the children of Reuben and the children of Gad had a very great multitude of cattle: and when they saw the land of Jazer, and the land of Gilcad, that, behold, the place was a place for cattle; the children of Gad and the children of Reuben came and spoke unto Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and unto the princes of the congregation, saying, Ataroth, and Dihon, and Jazer, and Nimrah, and Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Shebam, and Nebo, and Beon, even the country which the LORD smote before the congregation of Israel, is a land for cattle, and thy servants have cattle: wherefore, said they, if we have found grace in thy sight, let this land be given unto thy servants for a possession, and bring us not over the Jordan. 32 2 3 4 5

And Moses said unto the children of Gad and to the children of Reuben, Shall your brethren go to war, and shall ye sit here? And wherefore discourage ye the heart of the children of Israel from going over into the land which the LORD hath given them? Thus did your fathers, when I sent them from Kadesh-barnea to see the land. For when they went up unto the valley of Esheol, and saw the land, they discouraged the heart of the children of Israel, that they should not go into the land which the LORD had given them. And the LORD'S anger was kindled the same time, and he swore, saying, Surely none of the men who came up out of Egypt, from twenty years old and upwards, shall see the land which I swore unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob; because they have not wholly followed me: save Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite, and Joshua the son of Nun: for they have wholly followed the LORD. And the LORD'S anger was kindled against Israel, and he made them wander in the wilderness forty years, until all the generation that had done evil in the sight of the LORD was consumed. And, behold, ye are risen up in your fathers' stead, an increase of sinful men, to augment yet the fierce anger of the LORD towards Israel. For if ye turn away from after him, he will yet again leave them in the wilderness; and ye shall destroy all this people. 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15

And they came near unto him, and said, We will build sheepfolds here for our cattle, and cities for our little ones: but we ourselves will go ready armed before the children of Israel, until we have brought them unto their place; and our little ones

18 shall dwell in the fenced cities because of the inhabitants of the land. We will not return unto our houses, until the children of Israel have inherited every man his inheritance. For we will not inherit with them on yonder side of the Jordan, or forward; because our inheritance is fallen to us on this side of the Jordan eastward.

20 And Moses said unto them, If ye will do this thing, if ye will go armed before the LORD to war, and will go all of you armed over the Jordan before the LORD, until he hath driven out his enemies from before him, and the land be subdued before the LORD: then afterwards ye shall return, and be guiltless before the LORD, and before Israel; and this land shall be your possession before the LORD. But if ye will not do so, behold, ye have sinned against the LORD: and be sure the punishment of your sin will overtake you. Build you cities for your little ones, and folds for your sheep; and do that which hath proceeded out of your mouth.

25 And the children of Gad and the children of Reuben spoke unto Moses, saying, 26 Thy servants will do as my lord commandeth. Our little ones, our wives, our flocks, 27 and all our cattle, shall be there in the cities of Gilead: but thy servants will pass over, every man armed for war, before the LORD to battle, as my lord saith. So concerning them Moses commanded Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, 29 and the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel: and Moses said unto them, If the children of Gad and the children of Reuben will pass with you over the Jordan, every man armed to battle, before the LORD, and the land shall be subdued before you; then ye shall give them the land of Gilead for a possession: but if they will not pass over with you armed, they shall have possessions among you in the land of Canaan. And the children of Gad and the children of Reuben answered, saying, 32 As the LORD hath said unto thy servants, so will we do. We will pass over armed before the LORD unto the land of Canaan, that the possession of our inheritance on this side of the Jordan may be ours.

33 And Moses gave unto them, even to the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, and unto half the tribe of Manasseh the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, the land, with the cities thereof in the coasts, even the cities of the country round about.

34 35 And the children of Gad built Dibon, and Ataroth, and Aroer, and Atroth, Shophan, and Jaazer, and Jogbehah, and Beth-nimrah, and Beth-haran, fenced cities: and folds for sheep.

37 38 And the children of Reuben built Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Kirjathaim, and Nebo, and Baal-meon, and Shibmah, and called them by their former names: and gave other names unto the cities which they built.

39 And the children of Machir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead, and took it, and 40 dispossessed the Amorite who was in it. And Moses gave Gilead unto Machir the son of Manasseh; and he dwelt therein. And Jair the son of Manasseh went and took the small towns thereof, and called them Havoth-jair [THE VILLAGES OF JAIR].

42 And Nobah went and took Kenath, and its villages, and called it Nobah, after his own name.

33 THESE are the journeys of the children of Israel, who went forth out of the land of Egypt with their armies under the hand of Moses and Aaron. And Moses wrote their goings out according to their journeys by the commandment of the LORD; and these are their journeys according to their goings out.

3 And they departed from Rameses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month; on the morrow after the passover the children of Israel went out with a high hand in the sight of all the Egyptians. For the Egyptians buried all their firstborn, whom the LORD had smitten among them: upon their gods also the LORD executed judgments. And the children of Israel removed from Rameses, and pitched in Succoth.—And they departed from Succoth, and pitched in Etham, which is in the edge of the wilderness.—And they removed from Etham, and turned again unto Pi-lahiroth, which is before Baal-zephon; and they pitched before Migdol.—And they departed from before Pi-lahiroth, and passed through the midst of the sea into the wilderness, and went three days' journey in the wilderness of Etham, and pitched in Marah.—And they removed from Marah, and came unto Elim; and in Elim were twelve fountains of water, and threescore and ten palm trees; and they pitched there. 10 11 —And they removed from Elim, and encamped by the Red Sea.—And they removed from the Red Sea, and encamped in the wilderness of Sin.—And they took their journey out of the wilderness of Sin, and encamped in Dophkah.—And they departed from Dophkah, and encamped in Alush.—And they removed from Alush, and encamped at Rephidim, where was no water for the people to drink.—And they departed from Rephidim, and pitched in the wilderness of Sinai.—And they removed from the desert of Sinai, and pitched at Kibroth-hattaavah.—And they departed 17 from Kibroth-hattaavah, and encamped at Hazeroth.—And they departed from 18 Hazeroth, and pitched in Rithmah.—And they departed from Rithmah, and pitched 19 at Rimmon-parez.—And they departed from Rimmon-parez, and pitched in Libnah. 20 —And they removed from Libnah, and pitched at Kissah.—And they journeyed 21 22 from Rissah, and pitched in Kehelathah.—And they went from Kehelathah, and 23 pitched in mount Shapher.—And they removed from mount Shapher, and encamped 24 in Haradah.—And they removed from Haradah, and pitched in Makheloth.—And 25 26 they removed from Makheloth, and encamped at Tahath.—And they departed from 27 Tahath, and pitched at Tarah.—And they removed from Tarah, and pitched in 28 Mitheah.—And they went from Mitheah, and pitched in Hashmonah.—And they de- 29 30 parted from Hashmonah, and encamped at Moseroth.—And they departed from 31 Moseroth, and pitched in Bene-jaakan.—And they removed from Bene-jaakan, and 32 encamped at Hor-hagidgad.—And they went from Hor-hagidgad, and pitched in 33 Jotbathah.—And they removed from Jotbathah, and encamped at Ebronah.—And 34 35 they departed from Ebronah, and encamped at Ezion-gaber.—And they removed 36 from Ezion-gaber, and pitched in the wilderness of Zin, which is Kadesh.—And they 37 removed from Kadesh, and pitched in mount Hor, in the edge of the land of Edom.

And Aaron the priest went up into mount Hor at the commandment of the 38
LORD, and died there, in the fortieth year after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, on the first day of the fifth month. And Aaron was a hun- 39 dred and twenty and three years old when he died in mount Hor.

And the king of Arad the Canaanite, who dwelt in the south in the land of Canaan, 40 heard of the coming of the children of Israel. And they departed from mount Hor, 41 and pitched in Zalmonah.—And they departed from Zalmonah, and pitched in Pu- 42 non.—And they departed from Punon, and pitched in Oboth.—And they departed 43 44 from Oboth, and pitched in Ije-abarim, in the border of Moab.—And they departed 45 from Iim, and pitched in Dibon-gad.—And they removed from Dibon-gad, and en- 46 camped in Almon-diblathaim.—And they removed from Almon-diblathaim, and 47 pitched in the mountains of Abarim, before Nebo.—And they departed from the 48 mountains of Abarim, and pitched in the plains of Moab by the Jordan near Jericho.
—And they pitched by the Jordan, from Beth-jesimoth even unto Abel-shittim in 49
the plains of Moab.

AND the LORD spoke unto Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan near 50
Jericho, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye are 51 passed over the Jordan into the land of Canaan; then ye shall drive out all the in- 52 habitants of the land from before you, and destroy all their pictures, and destroy all their molten images, and quite pluck down all their high places: and ye shall dis- 53 possess the inhabitants of the land, and dwell therein: for I have given you the land to possess it. And ye shall divide the land by lot for an inheritance among your 54 families; and to the more ye shall give the more inheritance, and to the fewer ye shall give the less inheritance: every man's inheritance shall be in the place where his lot falleth; according to the tribes of your fathers ye shall inherit. But if ye 55 will not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you; then, those whom ye let remain of them shall be pricks in your eyes, and thorns in your sides, and shall vex you in the land wherein ye dwell. Moreover, I shall do unto you, as I thought 56 to do unto them.

And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Command the children of Israel, and 34 say unto them, When ye come into the land of Canaan; (this is the land that shall fall unto you for an inheritance, even the land of Canaan with the coasts thereof:)

Then your south quarter shall be from the wilderness of Zin along by the coast of 3 Edom, and your south border shall be the utmost coast of the salt sea eastward: and 4 your border shall turn from the south to the ascent of Akkrabbim, and pass on to Zin: and the going forth thereof shall be from the south to Kadesh-barnea, and shall go on to Hazar-addar, and pass on to Azmon: and the border shall fetch a 5 compass from Azmon unto the river of Egypt, and the goings out of it shall be at the sea.

And as for the western border, ye shall even have the great sea for a border: this 6 shall be your west border.

And this shall be your north border: from the great sea ye shall point out for 7 you mount Hor: from mount Hor ye shall point out your border unto the entrance 8 of Hamath; and the goings forth of the border shall be to Zedad: and the border 9 shall go on to Ziphron, and the goings out of it shall be at Hazar-enan: this shall be your north border.

- 10 11 And ye shall point out your east border from Hazar-enan to Shepham : and the coast shall go down from Shepham to Riblah, on the east side of Ain ; and the border 12 shall descend, and shall reach unto the side of the sea of Chinnereth eastward : and the border shall go down to the Jordan, and the goings out of it shall be at the salt sea : this shall be your land with the coasts thereof round about.
- 13 And Moses commanded the children of Israel, saying, This is the land which ye shall inherit by lot, which the LORD commanded to give unto the nine tribes, and 14 to the half tribe : for the tribe of the children of Reuben according to the house of their fathers, and the tribe of the children of Gad according to the house of their fathers, have received their inheritance ; and half the tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance : the two tribes and the half tribe have received their inheritance on this side the Jordan near Jericho eastward, towards the sunrising.
- 16 17 And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, These are the names of the men who shall divide the land unto you : Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun. And 18 ye shall take one prince of every tribe, to divide the land by inheritance. And the names of the men are these : Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh.
- 20 21 And of the tribe of the children of Simeon, Shemuel the son of Ammihud. Of the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad the son of Chislon. And the prince of the tribe of the children of Dan, Bukki the son of Jogli. The prince of the children of Joseph, for 24 the tribe of the children of Manasseh, Hanniel the son of Ephod. And the prince of the tribe of the children of Ephraim, Kemuel the son of Shiptan. And the prince of the tribe of the children of Zebulun, Elizaphan the son of Parnach. And 27 the prince of the tribe of the children of Issachar, Paltiel the son of Azzan. And the prince of the tribe of the children of Asher, Ahihud the son of Shelomi. And the prince of the tribe of the children of Naphtali, Pedahel the son of Ammihud.
- 29 These are they whom the LORD commanded to divide the inheritance unto the children of Israel in the land of Canaan.
- 35 AND the LORD spoke unto Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan near Jericho, saying, Command the children of Israel, that they give unto the Levites of the inheritance of their possession cities to dwell in ; and ye shall give also unto the 3 Levites suburbs for the cities round about them. And the cities shall they have to dwell in ; and the suburbs of them shall be for their cattle, and for their goods, and 4 for all their beasts. And the suburbs of the cities, which ye shall give unto the Levites, shall reach from the wall of the city and outwards a thousand cubits round
 5 about. And ye shall measure from without the city on the east side two thousand cubits, and on the south side two thousand cubits, and on the west side two thousand cubits, and on the north side two thousand cubits ; and the city shall be in the midst :
 6 this shall be to them the suburbs of the cities. And among the cities which ye shall give unto the Levites there shall be six cities for refuge, which ye shall appoint for the manslayer, that he may flee thither : and to them ye shall add forty and two 7 cities. So all the cities which ye shall give to the Levites shall be forty and eight 8 cities : these shall ye give with their suburbs. And the cities which ye shall give shall be of the possession of the children of Israel : from them who have many ye shall give many ; but from them who have few ye shall give few : every one shall give of his cities unto the Levites according to his inheritance which he inheriteth.
- 9 10 AND the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, and 11 say unto them, When ye be come over the Jordan into the land of Canaan ; then ye shall appoint you cities to be cities of refuge for you ; that the slayer may flee thither, who killeth any person unintentionally. And they shall be unto you cities for refuge from the avenger ; that the manslayer die not, until he stand before the congregation in judgment. And of these cities which ye shall give, six cities shall ye 14 have for refuge. Ye shall give three cities on this side the Jordan, and three cities 15 shall ye give in the land of Canaan, which shall be cities of refuge. These six cities shall be a refuge, both for the children of Israel, and for the stranger, and for the sojourner among them : that every one who killeth any person unintentionally may flee thither.
- 16 And if he smite him with an instrument of iron, so that he die, he is a murderer :
 17 the murderer shall surely be put to death. And if he smite him with throwing a stone, wherewith he may die, and he die, he is a murderer : the murderer shall 18 surely be put to death. Or if he smite him with a hand weapon of wood, wherewith he may die, and he die, he is a murderer : the murderer shall surely be put to death.
- 19 The revenger of blood himself shall slay the murderer ; when he meeteth him, he 20 shall slay him. But if he thrust him of hatred, or hurl at him by laying of wait, that 21 he die ; or in enmity smite him with his hand, that he die : he who smote him shall surely be put to death; for he is a murderer: the revenger of blood shall slay the murderer, when he meeteth him.

But if he thrust him suddenly, without enmity, or have cast upon him any thing without laying of wait, or with any stone, wherewith a man may die, seeing him not; and cast it upon him, that he die, and was not his enemy, neither sought his harm: then the congregation shall judge between the slayer and the revenger of blood according to these judgments: and the congregation shall deliver the slayer out of the hand of the revenger of blood, and the congregation shall restore him to the city of his refuge, whither he was fled: and he shall abide in it unto the death of the high priest, who was anointed with the holy oil.

But if the slayer shall at any time come without the border of the city of his refuge, whither he was fled; and the revenger of blood find him without the borders of the city of his refuge, and the revenger of blood kill the slayer; he shall not be guilty of blood: because he should have remained in the city of his refuge until the death of the high priest: but after the death of the high priest the slayer shall return into the land of his possession. So these things shall be for a statute of judgment unto you throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

Whoso killeth any person, the murderer shall be put to death by the mouth of witnesses: but one witness shall not testify against any person to cause him to die. Moreover ye shall take no satisfaction for the life of a murderer, who is guilty of death: but he shall be surely put to death. And ye shall take no satisfaction for him who is fled to the city of his refuge, that he should come again to dwell in the land, until the death of the priest.

So ye shall not pollute the land wherein ye are: for blood defileth the land: and the land cannot be cleansed of the blood that is shed therein, but by the blood of him who shed it. Defile not therefore the land which ye shall inhabit, wherein I dwell; for I the LORD dwell among the children of Israel.

AND the chief fathers of the families of the children of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of the sons of Joseph, came near, and spoke before Moses, and before the princes, the chief fathers of the children of Israel: and they said, The LORD commanded my lord to give the land for an inheritance by lot to the children of Israel: and my lord was commanded by the LORD to give the inheritance of Zelophehad our brother unto his daughters. And if they be married to any of the sons of the other tribes of the children of Israel, then shall their inheritance be taken from the inheritance of our fathers, and shall be put to the inheritance of the tribe whereunto they are received: so shall it be taken from the lot of our inheritance. And when the jubilee of the children of Israel shall be, then shall their inheritance be put into the inheritance of the tribe whereunto they are received: so shall their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.

And Moses commanded the children of Israel according to the word of the LORD, saying, The tribe of the sons of Joseph hath said well. This is the thing which the LORD doth command concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, Let them marry to whom they think best; only to the family of the tribe of their father shall they marry. So shall not the inheritance of the children of Israel remove from tribe to tribe; for every one of the children of Israel shall keep himself to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers. And every daughter, who possesseth an inheritance in any tribe of the children of Israel, shall be wife unto one of the family of the tribe of her father, that the children of Israel may enjoy every man the inheritance of his fathers. Neither shall the inheritance remove from one tribe to another tribe; but every one of the tribes of the children of Israel shall keep himself to his own inheritance.

Even as the LORD commanded Moses, so did the daughters of Zelophehad: for Mahlah, Tirzah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad, were married unto their father's brothers' sons: and they were married into the families of the sons of Manasse the son of Joseph, and their inheritance remained in the tribe of the family of their father.

These are the commandments and the judgments, which the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses unto the children of Israel in the plains of Moab by the Jordan near Jericho.

THE FIFTH BOOK OF MOSES,

DEUTERONOMY.

- 1 THESE are the words which Moses spoke unto all Israel on this side the Jordan in the wilderness, in the plain over against the Red Sea, between Paran, and Tophel, and Laban, and Hazeroth, and Dizahab. (There are eleven days' journey from Horeb by the way of mount Seir unto Kadesh-barnea.) And in the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first day of the month, Moses spoke unto the children of Israel, according unto all that the LORD had given him in commandment unto them; after he had slain Sihon the king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, who dwelt at Ashtaroth in Edrei.
- 5 On this side the Jordan, in the land of Moab, began Moses to declare this law, saying,—The LORD our God spoke unto us in Horeb, saying, Ye have dwelt long enough in this mount: turn you, and take your journey, and go to the mount of the Amorites, and unto all the places nigh thereunto, in the plain, in the hills, and in the vale, and in the south, and by the sea side, to the land of the Canaanites, and unto Lebanon, unto the great river, the river Euphrates. Behold, I have set the land before you: go in and possess the land which the LORD swore unto your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give unto them and to their seed after them.
- 9 And I spoke unto you at that time, saying, I am not able to bear you myself alone: the LORD your God hath multiplied you, and, behold, ye are this day as the stars of the heavens for multitude. (The LORD God of your fathers make you a thousand times so many more as ye are, and bless you, as he hath promised you!) How can I myself alone bear your encumbrance, and your burden, and your strife? Take you wise men, and understanding, and known among your tribes, and I will make them rulers over you. And ye answered me, and said, The thing which thou hast spoken is good for us to do. So I took the chief of your tribes, wise men, and known, and made them heads over you, captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, and captains over fifties, and captains over tens, and officers among your tribes. And I charged your judges at that time, saying, Hear the causes between your brethren, and judge righteously between every man and his brother, and the stranger who is with him. Ye shall not respect persons in judgment; but ye shall hear the small as well as the great; ye shall not be afraid of the face of man; for the judgment is God's: and the cause that is too hard for you, bring it unto me, and I will hear it. And I commanded you at that time all the things which ye should do.
- 19 And when we departed from Horeb, we went through all that great and terrible wilderness, which ye saw by the way of the mountain of the Amorites, as the LORD our God commanded us; and we came to Kadesh-barnea. And I said unto you, Ye are come unto the mountain of the Amorites, which the LORD our God doth give unto us. Behold, the LORD thy God hath set the land before thee: go up and possess it, as the LORD God of thy fathers hath said unto thee; fear not, neither be discouraged. And ye came near unto me every one of you, and said, We will send men before us, and they shall search us out the land, and bring us word again by what way we must go up, and into what cities we shall come. And the saying pleased me well: and I took twelve men of you, one of a tribe: and they turned and went up into the mountain, and came unto the valley of Eshcol, and searched it out. And they took of the fruit of the land in their hands, and brought it down unto us, and brought us word again, and said, It is a good land which the LORD our God doth give us.
- 26 Notwithstanding ye would not go up, but rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God; and ye murmured in your tents, and said, Because the LORD hated us, he hath brought us forth out of the land of Egypt, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us. Whither shall we go up? our brethren have discouraged our heart, saying, The people are greater and taller than we; the cities are great and walled up to the heavens; and moreover we have seen the sons of the Anakims there. Then I said unto you, Dread not, neither be afraid of them. The LORD your God who goeth before you, he shall fight for you, according to all that he did for you in Egypt before your eyes; and in the wilderness, where thou hast seen 31 how that the LORD thy God bore thee, as a man doth bear his son, in all the way that ye went, until ye came into this place. Yet in this thing ye did not believe the 32 LORD your God, who went in the way before you, to search you out a place to pitch 33 your tents in, in fire by night, to show you by what way ye should go, and in a cloud by day.

And the LORD heard the voice of your words, and was wroth, and swore, saying, 34
Surely there shall not one of these men of this evil generation see that good land, 35 which I swore to give unto your fathers, save Caleb the son of Jephunneh; he shall 36 see it, and to him will I give the land that he hath trodden upon, and to his children, because he hath wholly followed the LORD. Also the LORD was angry with me for 37 your sakes, saying, Thou also shalt not go in thither. But Joshua the son of Nun, 38 who standeth before thee, he shall go in thither: encourage him: for he shall cause Israel to inherit it. Moreover your little ones, who ye said should be a prey, and 39 your children, who in that day had no knowledge between good and evil, they shall go in thither, and unto them will I give it, and they shall possess it. But as for you, 40 turn you, and take your journey into the wilderness by the way of the Red Sea.

Then ye answered and said unto me, We have sinned against the LORD, we will go 41 up and fight, according to all that the LORD our God commanded us. And when ye had girded on every man his weapons of war, ye were ready to go up into the hill.
And the LORD said unto me, Say unto them, Go not up, neither fight; for I am 42 not among you; lest ye be smitten before your enemies. So I spoke unto you; and 43 ye would not hear, but rebelled against the commandment of the LORD, and were presumptuous and went up on the hill. And the Amorites, who dwelt in that 44 mountain, came out against you, and chased you, as bees do, and destroyed you in Seir, even unto Hormah. And ye returned and wept before the LORD; but the 45 LORD would not hearken to your voice, nor give ear unto you. So ye abode in 46
Kadesh many days, according unto the days that ye abode there.

THEN we turned, and took our journey into the wilderness by the way of the Red 2 Sea, as the LORD spoke unto me: and we compassed mount Seir many days. And the LORD spoke unto me, saying, Ye have compassed this mountain long enough: 3 turn you northward. And command thou the people, saying, Ye are to pass through 4 the boundary of your brethren the children of Esau, who dwell in Seir; and they shall be afraid of you: take ye good heed unto yourselves therefore: meddle not 5 with them; for I will not give you of their land, no, not even to the treading of the sole of the foot; because I have given mount Seir unto Esau for a possession. Ye 6 shall buy food of them for money, that ye may eat; and ye shall also buy water of them for money, that ye may drink. For the LORD thy God hath blessed thee in 7 all the works of thy hand: he knoweth thy walking through this great wilderness: these forty years the LORD thy God hath been with thee; thou hast lacked nothing.

And when we passed by from our brethren the children of Esau, who dwelt in 8 Seir, through the way of the plain from Elath, and from Ezion-gaber, we turned and passed by the way of the wilderness of Moab. And the LORD said unto me, Dis- 9 tress not the Moabites, neither contend with them in battle: for I will not give thee of their land for a possession; because I have given Ar unto the children of Lot for a possession. The Emims dwelt therein in times past, a people great, and many, 10 and tall, as the Anakims; who also were accounted giants, as the Anakims; but the 11 Moabites call them Emims. The Horims also dwelt in Seir beforetime; but the 12 children of Esau succeeded them, when they had destroyed them from before them, and dwelt in their stead; as Israel did unto the land of his possession, which the LORD gave unto them. Now rise up, said I, and get you over the brook Zered. 13
And we went over the brook Zered.

And the space in which we came from Kadesh-barnea, until we were come over 14 the brook Zered, was thirty and eight years; until all the generation of the men of war were wasted out from among the host, as the LORD swore unto them. For in- 15 deed the hand of the LORD was against them, to destroy them from among the host, until they were consumed.

So when all the men of war were consumed and dead from among the people, 16 the LORD spoke unto me, saying, Thou art to pass over through Ar, the coast of 17 18 Moab, this day: and when thou comest nigh over against the children of Ammon, 19 distress them not, nor meddle with them; for I will not give thee of the land of the children of Ammon any possession; because I have given it unto the children of Lot for a possession. (That also was accounted a land of giants: giants dwelt there- 20

DEUTERONOMY III.

- 21 in in old time; and the Ammonites call them Zamzummims; a people great, and many, and tall, as the Anakims; but the LORD destroyed them before them; and
- 22 they succeeded them, and dwelt in their stead: as he did to the children of Esau, who dwelt in Seir, when he destroyed the Horims from before them; and they succeeded
- 23 them, and dwelt in their stead even unto this day: and the Avims who dwelt in Ilazerim, even unto Azzah, the Caphtorims, who came forth out of Caphtor, destroyed
- 24 them, and dwelt in their stead.) Rise ye up, take your journey, and pass over the river Arnon: behold, I have given into thy hand Sihon the Amorite, king of Hesh-
- 25 bon, and his land: begin to possess it, and contend with him in battle. This day will I begin to put the dread of thee and the fear of thee upon the nations that are under the whole heavens, who shall hear report of thee, and shall tremble, and be in anguish because of thee.
- 26 And I sent messengers out of the wilderness of Kedemoth unto Sihon king of Heshbon with words of peace, saying, Let me pass through thy land: I will go along
- 28 by the highway, I will neither turn unto the right hand nor to the left. Thou shalt sell me food for money, that I may eat; and give me water for money, that I may
- 29 drink: only I will pass through on my feet; (as the children of Esau who dwell in Seir, and the Moabites who dwell in Ar, did unto me;) until I shall pass over the
- 30 Jordan into the land which the LORD our God giveth us. But Sihon king of Heshbon would not let us pass by him; for the LORD thy God had suffered his spirit to be hardened, and his heart to be obstinate, that he might deliver him into thy hand, as appeareth this day.
- 31 And the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have begun to give Sihon and his land into
- 32 thy power: begin to possess, that thou mayest inherit his land. Then Sihon came
- 33 out against us, he and all his people, to fight at Jahaz. And the LORD our God
- 34 delivered him before us; and we smote him, and his sons, and all his people. And we took all his cities at that time, and utterly destroyed the men, and the women,
- 35 and the little ones, of every city, we left none to remain: only the cattle we took
- 36 for a prey unto ourselves, and the spoil of the cities which we took. From Aroer, which is by the brink of the river of Arnon, and from the city that is by the river, even
- unto Gilead, there was not one city too strong for us: the LORD our God delivered
- 37 all unto us: only unto the land of the children of Ammon thou camest not, nor unto any place of the river Jabbok, nor unto the cities in the mountains, nor unto whatsoever the LORD our God forbid us.
- 3 Then we turned, and went up the way to Bashan: and Og the king of Bashan came - out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei. And the LORD said unto
- me, Fear him not: for I will deliver him, and all his people, and his land, into thy
- hand; and thou shalt do unto him as thou didst unto Sihon king of the Amorites, who
- 3 dwelt at Heshbon. So the LORD our God delivered into our hands Og also, the - king of Bashan, and all his people; and we smote him until none was left to him
- 4 remaining. And we took all his cities at that time, there was not a city which we
- took not from them, threescore cities, all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og
- 5 in Bashan. All these cities were fenced with high walls, gates, and bars; besides
- 6 unvalled towns a great many. And we utterly destroyed them, as we did unto Sihon
- king of Heshbon, utterly destroying the men, women, and children, of every city.
- 7 8 But all the cattle, and the spoil of the cities, we took for a prey to ourselves. And we took at that time out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorites the land that
- 9 was on this side the Jordan, from the river of Arnon unto mount Hermon; (which
- 10 Hermon the Sidonians call Sirion; and the Amorites call it Shenir;) all the cities of the plain, and all Gilead, and all Bashan, unto Salchah and Edrei, cities of the king-
- 11 dom of Og in Bashan. For only Og king of Bashan remained of the remnant of giants; behold, his bedstead was a bedstead of iron; is it not in Rabbath of the chil- dren of Ammon? nine cubits was the length thereof, and four cubits the breadth of
- it, after the cubit of a man.
- 12 And this land, which we possessed at that time, from Aroer, which is by the river
- Arnon, and half mount Gilead, and the cities thereof, gave I unto the Reubenites
- 13 and to the Gadites. And the rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, being the kingdom of
- Og, gave I unto the half tribe of Manasseh; all the region of Argob, with all Bashan,
- 14 which was called the land of giants. Jair the son of Manasseh took all the country
- of Argob unto the coasts of Geshuri and Maachathi; and called the whole of Bashan
- 15 16 after his own name, Bashan-havoth-jair. And I gave Gilead unto Machir. And unto the Reubenites and unto the Gadites I gave from Gilead even unto the river Arnon
- half Nahal, and Gebul even unto the river Jabbok, which is the border of the chil-
- 17 dren of Ammon; the plain also, and the Jordan, and the coast thereof, from Chin-nereth even unto the sea of the plain, even the salt sea, under the springs of Pisgah eastward. And I commanded you at that time, saying, The LORD your God hath given you this land to possess it: ye shall pass over armed before your brethren the children of Israel, all who are men of might. But your wives, and your little ones, and your cattle, (for I know that ye have much cattle,) shall abide in your cities which I have given you; until the LORD have given rest unto your brethren, as well as unto you, and until they also possess the land which the LORD your God hath given them beyond the Jordan; and then shall ye return every man unto his possession, which I have given you.

And I commanded Joshua at that time, saying, Thine eyes have seen all that the LORD your God hath done unto these two kings: so shall the LORD do unto all the kingdoms whither thou passest. Ye shall not fear them; for the LORD your God he shall fight for you.

And I besought the LORD at that time, saying, O Lord God, thou hast begun to show thy servant thy greatness, and thy mighty hand: for what God is there in the heavens, or in earth, that can do according to thy works, and according to thy might? I pray thee, let me go over, and see the good land that is beyond the Jordan, that goodly mountain, and Lebanon. But the LORD was wroth with me for your sakes, and would not hear me: and the LORD said unto me, Let it suffice thee; speak no more unto me of this matter. Get thee up into the top of Pisgah, and lift up thine eyes westward, and northward, and southward, and eastward, and behold it with thine eyes; for thou shalt not go over the Jordan. But charge Joshua, and encourage him, and strengthen him; for he shall go over before this people, and he shall cause them to inherit the land which thou shalt see. So we abode in the valley over against Beth-peor.

NOW therefore hearken, O Israel, unto the statutes and unto the judgments, which I teach you, for to do them, that ye may live, and go in and possess the land which the LORD God of your fathers giveth you. Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish aught from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you. Your eyes have seen what the LORD did because of Baal-peor: for all the men who followed Baal-peor, the LORD thy God hath destroyed them from among you. But ye who did cleave unto the LORD your God are alive every one of you this day. Behold, I have taught you statutes and judgments, even as the LORD my God commanded me, that ye should do so in the land whither ye go to possess it. Keep therefore and do them; for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the nations, who shall hear all these statutes, and say, Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people. For what nation is there so great, who hath God so nigh unto them, as the LORD our God is in all things that we call upon him for? And what nation is there so great, who hath statutes and judgments so righteous as all this law, which I set before you this day? Only take heed to thyself, and keep thy soul diligently, lest thou forget the things which thine eyes have seen, and lest they depart from thy heart all the days of thy life; but teach them thy sons, and thy son's sons; especially the day that thou stoodest before the LORD thy God in Horeb, when the LORD said unto me, Gather me the people together, and I will make them hear my words, that they may learn to fear me all the days that they shall live upon the earth, and that they may teach their children. And ye came near and stood under the mountain; and the mountain burned with fire unto the midst of the heavens, with darkness, clouds, and thick darkness. And the LORD spoke unto you out of the midst of the fire: ye heard the voice of the words, but saw no similitude; only ye heard a voice. And he declared unto you his covenant, which he commanded you to perform. even ten commandments; and he wrote them upon two tables of stone. And the LORD commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and judgments, that ye might do them in the land whither ye go over to possess it.

Take ye therefore good heed unto yourselves; for ye saw no manner of similitude on the day that the LORD spoke unto you in Horeb out of the midst of the fire: lest ye corrupt yourselves, and make you a graven image, the similitude of any figure, the likeness of male or female, the likeness of any beast that is on the earth, the likeness of any winged bird that flieth in the air, the likeness of any thing that creepeth on the ground, the likeness of any fish that is in the waters beneath the earth: and lest thou lift up thine eyes unto the heavens, and when thou seest the sun, and the moon, and the stars, even all the host of the heavens, shouldst be led astray to worship them, and serve them, which the LORD thy God hath imparted unto all nations under the whole heavens. But the LORD hath taken you, and brought you forth out of the iron furnace, even out of Egypt, to be unto him a people of inheritance, as ye are this day.

- 21 Furthermore the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, and swore that I should not go over the Jordan, and that I should not go in unto that good land, which the 22 LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance: but I must die in this land, I must 23 not go over the Jordan: but ye shall go over, and possess that good land. Take heed unto yourselves, lest ye forget the covenant of the LORD your God, which he made with you, and make you a graven image, or the likeness of any thing, 24 which the LORD thy God hath forbidden thee. For the LORD thy God is a consuming fire, even a jealous God.
 25 When thou shalt beget children, and children's children, and ye shall have remained long in the land, and shall corrupt yourselves, and make a graven image, or the likeness of any thing, and shalt do evil in the sight of the LORD thy God, to 26 provoke him to anger: I call the heavens and earth to witness against you this day, that ye shall soon utterly perish from off the land whereunto ye go over the Jordan to possess it; ye shall not prolong your days upon it, but shall utterly be destroyed.
 27 And the LORD shall scatter you among the nations, and ye shall be left few in 28 number among the heathen, whither the LORD shall lead you. And there ye shall serve gods, the work of men's hands, wood and stone, which neither see, nor hear, 29 nor eat, nor smell. But if from thence thou shalt seek the LORD thy God, thou 30 shalt find him, if thou seek him with all thy heart and with all thy soul. When thou art in tribulation, and all these things are come upon thee, even in the latter days, if 31 thou turn to the LORD thy God, and shalt be obedient unto his voice; (for the LORD thy God is a merciful God;) he will not forsake thee, neither destroy thee, nor forget the covenant of thy fathers which he swore unto them.
 32 For ask now of the days that are past, which were before thee, since the day that God created man upon the earth, and ask from the one side of the heavens unto the other, whether there hath been any such thing as this great thing is, or hath been 33 heard like it? Did ever people hear the voice of God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as thou hast heard, and live? Or hath any other god attempted to go and take him a nation from the midst of another nation, by trials, by signs, and by wonders, and by war, and by a mighty hand, and by a stretched out arm, and by great terrors, according to all that the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your 35 eyes? Unto thee it was shown, that thou mightest know that the LORD he is God; there is none else besides him. Out of the heavens he made thee to hear his voice, that he might instruct thee; and upon earth he showed thee his great fire; and thou 37 hearest his words out of the midst of the fire. And because he loved thy fathers, therefore he chose their seed after them, and brought thee out in his sight with his 38 mighty power out of Egypt; to drive out nations from before thee greater and mightier than thou art, to bring thee in, to give thee their land for an inheritance, as it is this day.
 39 Know therefore this day, and consider it in thy heart, that the LORD he is God in the heavens above, and upon the earth beneath: there is none else. Thou shalt keep therefore his statutes, and his commandments, which I command thee this day, that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, and that thou mayest prolong thy days upon the earth, which the LORD thy God giveth thee, for ever.
 41 Then Moses severed three cities on this side the Jordan towards the sunrising; that the slayer might flee thither, who should kill his neighbour unintentionally, and hated him not in times past; and that fleeing unto one of these cities he might 43 live: namely, Bezer in the wilderness, in the plain country, of the Reubenites; and Ramoth in Gilead, of the Gadites; and Golan in Bashan, of the Manassites.
 44 45 AND this is the law which Moses set before the children of Israel: these are the testimonies, and the statutes, and the judgments, which Moses spoke unto the children of Israel, after they came forth out of Egypt, on this side the Jordan, in the valley over against Beth-peor, in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon, whom Moses and the children of Israel smote, after they were come 47 forth out of Egypt: and they possessed his land, and the land of Og king of Bashan, two kings of the Amorites, who were on this side the Jordan towards the sunrising; from Aroer, which is by the bank of the river Arnon, even unto mount Sion, which 49 is Hermon, and all the plain along the east side of the Jordan, even unto the sea of the plain, under the springs of Pisgah.
 5 And Moses called all Israel, and said unto them, Hear, O Israel, the statutes and judgments which I speak in your ears this day, that ye may learn them, and keep,
 2 3 and do them. The LORD our God made a covenant with us in Horeb. The LORD made not this covenant with our fathers, but with us, even us, who are all of us here alive this day. The LORD talked with you face to face in the mount out of the midst of the fire, (I stood between the LORD and you at that time, to show you the word of the LORD; for ye were afraid by reason of the fire, and went not up into the mount;) saying,

I am the LORD thy God, who brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage. Thou shalt have no other gods besides me.

Thou shalt not make thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in the heavens above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the waters beneath the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them; for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of those who hate me, and showing mercy unto thousands of those who love me and keep my commandments.

Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain; for the LORD will not hold him guiltless who taketh his name in vain.

Keep the sabbath day to sanctify it, as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee. Six days thou shalt labour, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, nor thy bondman, nor thy bondwoman, nor thine ox, nor thine ass, nor any of thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates; that thy bondman and thy bondwoman may rest as well as thyself. And remember that thou wast a bondman in the land of Egypt, and that the LORD thy God brought thee out thence through a mighty hand and by a stretched out arm: therefore the LORD thy God commanded thee to keep the sabbath day.

Honour thy father and thy mother, as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee; that thy days may be prolonged, and that it may go well with thee, in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

Thou shalt not kill.

Neither shalt thou commit adultery.

Neither shalt thou steal.

Neither shalt thou bear false witness against thy neighbour.

Neither shalt thou desire thy neighbour's wife, neither shalt thou covet thy neighbour's house, his field, or his bondman, or his bondwoman, his ox, or his ass, or any thing that is thy neighbour's.

These words the LORD spoke unto all your assembly in the mount out of the midst of the fire, of the cloud, and of the thick darkness, with a great voice; and he added no more: and he wrote them on two tables of stone, and delivered them unto me. And when ye heard the voice out of the midst of the darkness, (for the mount did burn with fire,) ye came near unto me, even all the heads of your tribes, and your elders; and ye said, Behold, the LORD our God hath showed us his glory and his greatness, and we have heard his voice out of the midst of the fire: we have seen this day that God doth talk with man, and he liveth. Now therefore why should we die? for this great fire will consume us: if we hear the voice of the LORD our God any more, then we shall die. For who is there of all flesh, that hath heard the voice of the living God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as we have, and lived? Go thou near, and hear all that the LORD our God shall say; and speak thou unto us all that the LORD our God shall speak unto thee; and we will hear it, and do it.

And the LORD heard the voice of your words, when ye spoke unto me; and the LORD said unto me, I have heard the voice of the words of this people, which they have spoken unto thee: they have well said all that they have spoken. Oh that there were such a heart in them, that they would fear me, and keep all my commandments always, that it might be well with them, and with their children for ever! Go, say to them, Get you into your tents again. But as for thee, stand thou here by me, and I will speak unto thee all the commandments, and the statutes, and the judgments, which thou shalt teach them, that they may do them in the land which I give them to possess. Ye shall observe to do therefore as the LORD your God hath commanded you: ye shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left. Ye shall walk in all the ways which the LORD your God hath commanded you, that ye may live, and that it may be well with you, and that ye may prolong your days in the land which ye shall possess.

NOW these are the commandments, the statutes, and the judgments, which the LORD your God commanded to teach you, that ye might do them in the land whither ye pass over to possess it: that thou mightest fear the LORD thy God, to keep all his statutes and his commandments, which I command thee, thou, and thy son, and

- 3 thy son's son, all the days of thy life; and that thy days may be prolonged. Hear therefore, O Israel, and observe to do them; that it may be well with thee, and that ye may increase mightily, as the LORD God of thy fathers hath promised thee, in the land that floweth with milk and honey.
- 4 5 Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God is one LORD: and thou shalt love the LORD thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might. And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thy heart: and thou shalt teach them diligently again and again unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thy house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thy hand, and they shall be as frontlets between thine eyes. And thou shalt write them upon the posts of thy house, and on thy gates.
- 10 And when the LORD thy God shall have brought thee into the land which he swore unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give thee great and goodly cities, which thou buildedst not, and houses full of all good things, which thou filledst not, and wells digged, which thou diggedst not, vineyards and olive trees, which thou plantedst not; when thou shalt have eaten and be full; then beware lest thou forget the LORD, who brought thee forth out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage. Thou shalt fear the LORD thy God, and serve him, and shalt swear by his name alone. Ye shall not go after other gods, of the gods of the people who are round about you, (for the LORD thy God is a jealous God among you,) lest the anger of the LORD thy God be kindled against thee, and destroy thee from off the face of the earth.
- 16 17 Ye shall not provoke the LORD your God, as ye provoked him in Massah. Ye shall diligently keep the commandments of the LORD your God, and his testimonies, and his statutes, which he hath commanded thee. And thou shalt do that which is right and good in the sight of the LORD; that it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest go in and possess the good land which the LORD swore unto thy fathers, to cast out all thine enemies from before thee, as the LORD hath spoken.
- 20 And when thy son asketh thee in time to come, saying, What mean the testimonies, and the statutes, and the judgments, which the LORD our God hath commanded you? Then thou shalt say unto thy son, We were Pharaoh's bondmen in Egypt; and the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand: and the LORD showed signs and wonders, great and sore, upon Egypt, upon Pharaoh, and upon all his household, before our eyes: and he brought us out from thence, that he might bring us in, to give us the land of which he swore unto our fathers. And the LORD commanded us to do all these statutes, to fear the LORD our God, for our good always, that he might preserve us alive, as at this day. And it shall be our righteousness, if we observe to do all these commandments before the LORD our God, as he hath commanded us.
- 7 WHEN the LORD thy God shall bring thee into the land whither thou goest to possess it, and hath cast out many nations before thee, the Hittites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, seven nations greater and mightier than thou; and when the LORD thy God shall deliver them before thee; thou shalt smite them, and utterly destroy them; thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor show mercy unto them: neither shalt thou make marriages with them; thy daughter thou shalt not give unto his son, nor his daughter shalt thou take unto thy son. For they will turn away thy son from following me, that they may serve other gods: so will the anger of the LORD be kindled against thee, and destroy thee suddenly. But thus shall ye deal with them; ye shall destroy their altars, and break down their images, and cut down their groves, and burn their graven images with fire. For thou art a holy people unto the LORD thy God: the LORD thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, above all people who are upon the face of the earth. The LORD did not set his love upon you, nor choose you, because ye were more in number than any people; for ye were the fewest of all people: but because the LORD loved you, and because he would keep the oath which he had sworn unto your fathers, hath the LORD brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you out of the house of bondmen, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt. Know therefore that the LORD thy God, he is God, the faithful God, who keepeth covenant and mercy with those who love him and keep his commandments to a thousand generations; and repayeth those who hate him to their face, to destroy them: he will not be slack to him who hateth him, he will repay him to his face.
- 11 Thou shalt therefore keep the commandments, and the statutes, and the judgments, which I command thee this day, to do them. Wherefore if ye hearken to these judgments, and keep, and do them, the LORD thy God shall keep unto thee the covenant and the mercy which he swore unto thy fathers : and he will love thee, and bless thee, and multiply thee : he will also bless the fruit of thy womb, and the fruit of thy land, thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep, in the land which he swore unto thy fathers to give thee. Thou shalt be blessed above all people : there shall not be male or female barren among you, or among your cattle. And the LORD will take away from thee all sickness, and will put none of the evil diseases of Egypt, which thou knowest, upon thee ; but will lay them upon all who hate thee.

And thou shalt consume all the people whom the LORD thy God shall deliver to thee ; thine eye shall have no pity upon them ; neither shalt thou serve their gods ; for that will be a snare unto thee. If thou shalt say in thy heart, These nations are more than I ; how can I dispossess them ? Thou shalt not be afraid of them : but shalt well remember what the LORD thy God did unto Pharaoh, and unto all Egypt ; the great trials which thine eyes saw, and the signs, and the wonders, and the mighty hand, and the stretched out arm, whereby the LORD thy God brought thee out : so shall the LORD thy God do unto all the people of whom thou art afraid. Moreover the LORD thy God will send the hornet among them, until they who are left, and hide themselves from thee, be destroyed. Thou shalt not be affrighted at them ; for the LORD thy God is among you, a mighty God and terrible. And the LORD thy God will pluck off those nations before thee by little and little : thou mayest not consume them at once, lest the beasts of the field increase upon thee. But the LORD thy God shall deliver them unto thee, and shall destroy them with a mighty destruction, until they be destroyed. And he shall deliver their kings into thy hand, and thou shalt destroy their name from under the heavens : there shall no man be able to stand before thee, until thou have destroyed them. The graven images of their gods shall ye burn with fire : thou shalt not desire the silver or gold that is on them, nor take it unto thee, lest thou be snared therein ; for it is an abomination to the LORD thy God. Neither shalt thou bring an abomination into thy house, lest thou be a cursed thing like it : but thou shalt utterly detest it, and thou shalt utterly abhor it ; for it is a cursed thing.

All the commandments which I command thee this day shall ye observe to do, that ye may live, and multiply, and go in and possess the land of which the LORD swore unto your fathers. And thou shalt remember all the way which the LORD thy God led thee these forty years in the wilderness, to humble thee, and to prove thee, to know what was in thy heart, whether thou wouldest keep his commandments, or not. And he humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with manna, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know ; that he might make thee know that man doth not live by bread only, but by every thing that God hath appointed for you doth man live. Thy raiment waxed not old upon thee, neither did thy foot swell, these forty years. Thou shalt also consider in thy heart, that, as a man chasteneth his son, so the LORD thy God chasteneth thee. Therefore thou shalt keep the commandments of the LORD thy God, to walk in his ways, and to fear him : for the LORD thy God bringeth thee into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and depths that spring out of valleys and hills ; a land of wheat, and barley, and vines, and fig trees, and pomegranates ; a land of olive oil, and honey ; a land wherein thou shalt eat bread without scarceness, thou shalt not lack any thing in it ; a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills thou mayest dig copper.

When thou hast eaten and art full, then thou shalt bless the LORD thy God for the good land which he hath given thee. Beware that thou forget not the LORD thy God, in not keeping his commandments, and his judgments, and his statutes, which I command thee this day : lest when thou hast eaten and art full, and hast built goodly houses, and dwelt therein ; and when thy herds and thy flocks multiply, and thy silver and thy gold are multiplied, and all that thou hast is multiplied ; then thy heart be lifted up, and thou forget the LORD thy God, who brought thee forth out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage ; who led thee through that great and terrible wilderness, wherein were fiery serpents, and scorpions, and drought, where there was no water ; who brought thee forth water out of the rock of flint ; who fed thee in the wilderness with manna, which thy fathers knew not, that he might humble thee, and that he might prove thee, to do thee good at thy latter end ; and thou say in thy heart, My power and the might of my hand hath gotten me this wealth. But thou shalt remember the LORD thy God : for it is he who giveth thee power to get wealth, that he may establish his covenant which he swore unto thy fathers, as it is this day.

- 19 And if thou do at all forget the LORD thy God, and walk after other gods, and serve them, and worship them, I testify against you this day that ye shall surely 20 perish. As the nations which the LORD destroyeth before your face, so shall ye perish; because ye would not be obedient unto the voice of the LORD your God.

9 Hear, O Israel: Thou art to pass over the Jordan this day, to go in to possess nations greater and mightier than thyself, cities great and fenced up to the heavens,
2 a people great and tall, the children of the Anakims, whom thou knowest, and of 3 whom thou hast heard say, Who can stand before the children of Anak! Understand therefore this day, that the LORD thy God is he who goeth over before thee; as a consuming fire he shall destroy them, and he shall bring them down before thy face: so shalt thou drive them out, and destroy them quickly, as the LORD hath 4 said unto thee. Speak not thou in thy heart, after that the LORD thy God hath cast them out from before thee, saying, For my righteousness the LORD hath brought me in to possess this land; but for the wickedness of these nations the 5 LORD doth drive them out from before thee. Not for thy righteousness, or for the uprightness of thy heart, dost thou go to possess their land; but for the wickedness of these nations the LORD thy God doth drive them out from before thee, and that he may perform the word which the LORD swore unto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

6 Understand therefore, that the LORD thy God giveth thee not this good land to 7 possess it for thy righteousness; for thou art a stiffnecked people. Remember, and forget not, how thou provokedst the LORD thy God to wrath in the wilderness: from the day that thou didst depart out of the land of Egypt, until ye came unto 8 this place, ye have been rebellious against the LORD. Even in Horeb ye provoked the LORD to wrath, so that the LORD was angry with you to have destroyed you.

9 When I was gone up into the mount to receive the tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant which the LORD made with you, then I abode in the mount forty 10 days and forty nights, I neither did eat bread nor drink water: and the LORD delivered unto me two tables of stone written with the finger of God; and on them was written according to all the words, which the LORD spoke with you in the 11 mount out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly. And at the end of forty days and forty nights the LORD gave me the two tables of stone, even the 12 tables of the covenant. And the LORD said unto me, Arise, get thee down quickly from hence; for thy people whom thou hast brought forth out of Egypt have corrupted themselves; they are quickly turned aside out of the way which I commanded 13 them; they have made them a molten image. Furthermore the LORD spoke unto 14 me, saying, I have seen this people, and, behold, they are a stiffnecked people: let me alone, that I may destroy them, and blot out their name from under the heavens; and I will make of thee a nation mightier and greater than they. So I turned 15 and came down from the mount, and the mount burned with fire; and the two tables of the covenant were in my two hands. And I looked, and, behold, ye had 16 sinned against the LORD your God, and had made you a molten calf: ye had 17 turned aside quickly out of the way which the LORD had commanded you. And I took the two tables, and cast them out of my two hands, and broke them before
18 your eyes. And I fell down before the LORD, as at the first, forty days and forty nights: I did neither eat bread, nor drink water, because of all your sins which ye 19 sinned, in doing wickedly in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger. For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure, wherewith the LORD was wroth against you to destroy you. But the LORD hearkened unto me at that time also.
20 And the LORD was very angry with Aaron to have destroyed him: and I prayed 21 for Aaron also the same time. And I took your sin, (the calf which ye had made,) and burnt it with fire, and stamped it, and ground it very small, even until it was as small as dust; and I cast the dust thereof into the brook that descended out of the mount.

22 And at Taberah, and at Massah, and at Kibroth-hattaavah, ye provoked the 23 LORD to wrath. Likewise when the LORD sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, Go up and possess the land which I have given you; then ye rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God, and ye believed him not, nor hearkened to his 24 voice. Ye have been rebellious against the LORD from the day that I knew you.

25 Thus I fell down before the LORD forty days and forty nights, as I fell down at the first; because the LORD had said he would destroy you. I prayed therefore unto the LORD, and said, O Lord God, destroy not thy people and thine inheritance, whom thou hast redeemed through thy greatness, whom thou hast brought forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand. Remember thy servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; look not unto the stubbornness of this people, nor to their wickedness, nor to their sin: lest the land whence thou broughtest us out say, Because the LORD was not able to bring them into the land which he promised them, and because he hated them, he hath brought them out to slay them in the wilderness. Yet they are thy people and thine inheritance, whom thou broughtest out by thy mighty power and by thy stretched out arm.

At that time the LORD said unto me, Hew thee two tables of stone like unto the first, and come up unto me into the mount, and make thee an ark of wood. And I will write on the tables the words that were on the first tables which thou brokest, and thou shalt put them in the ark. And I made an ark of shittim wood, and hewed two tables of stone like unto the first, and went up into the mount, having the two tables in my hand. And he wrote on the tables, according to the first writing, the ten commandments, which the LORD spoke unto you in the mount out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly; and the LORD gave them unto me. And I turned myself and came down from the mount, and put the tables in the ark which I had made; and there they are, as the LORD commanded me.

(And the children of Israel took their journey from Beeroth of the children of Jaakan to a peak of mount Hor: there Aaron died, and there he was buried; and Eleazar his son ministered in the priest's office in his stead. From thence they journeyed unto Guldadah; and from Guldadah to Jotbath, a land of rivers of waters.

At that time the LORD separated the tribe of Levi, to bear the ark of the covenant of the LORD, to stand before the LORD to minister unto him, and to bless in his name, unto this day. Wherefore Levi hath no part nor inheritance with his brethren: the LORD is his inheritance, according as the LORD thy God promised him.)

And I stayed in the mount, according to the first time, forty days and forty nights; and the LORD hearkened unto me at that time also, and the LORD would not destroy thee. And the LORD said unto me, Arise, take thy journey before the people, that they may go in and possess the land, which I swore unto their fathers to give unto them.

And now, Israel, what doth the LORD thy God require of thee, but to fear the LORD thy God, to walk in all his ways, and to love him, and to serve the LORD thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul, to keep the commandments of the LORD, and his statutes, which I command thee this day for thy good? Behold, the heavens and the heaven of heavens are the LORD thy God's; the earth also, with all that therein is. Only the LORD had a delight in thy fathers to love them, and he chose their seed after them, even you above all people, as it is this day. Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be no more stiffnecked. For the LORD your God is God of gods, and Lord of lords, a great God, a mighty, and a terrible, who regardeth not persons, nor taketh a bribe: he doth execute the judgment of the fatherless and widow, and loveth the stranger, in giving him food and raiment. Love ye therefore the stranger; for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt. Thou shalt fear the LORD thy God; him shalt thou serve, and to him shalt thou cleave, and swear by his name. He is thy praise, and he is thy God, who hath done for thee these great and terrible things, which thine eyes have seen. Thy fathers went down into Egypt with threescore and ten persons; and now the LORD thy God hath made thee as the stars of the heavens for multitude. Therefore thou shalt love the LORD thy God, and keep his charge, and his statutes, and his judgments, and his commandments, always.

And know ye this day; for I speak not with your children who have not known, and who have not seen the chastisement of the LORD your God, his greatness, his mighty hand, and his stretched out arm, and his miracles, and his acts, which he did in the midst of Egypt unto Pharaoh the king of Egypt, and unto all his land; and what he did unto the army of Egypt, unto their horses, and to their chariots; how he made the water of the Red Sea to overflow them as they pursued after you, and how the LORD hath destroyed them unto this day; and what he did unto you in the wilderness, until ye came into this place; and what he did unto Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, the son of Reuben: how the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their households, and their tents, and all the substance that was in their possession, in the midst of all Israel: but your eyes have seen all the great acts of the LORD which he did. Therefore shall ye keep all the commandments which I command you this day, that ye may be strong, and go in and possess the land, whither ye go to possess it; and that ye may prolong your days in the land, which 9 the LORD swore unto your fathers to give unto them and to their seed, a land that floweth with milk and honey.

- 10 For the land, which thou goest to possess, is not as the land of Egypt, from whence ye came out, where thou sowedst thy seed, and wateredst it with thy foot, as a garden of herbs; but the land, which ye go to possess, is a land of hills and valleys, and
- 11 drinketh water of the rain of the heavens: a land which the LORD thy God careth for: the eyes of the LORD thy God are always upon it, from the beginning of the year even unto the end of the year.
- 13 And if ye hearken diligently unto my commandments which I command you this day, to love the LORD your God, and to serve him with all your heart and with all
- 14 your soul, I will give you the rain of your land in its due season, the early rain and the latter rain, that thou mayest gather in thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil.
- 15 And I will give grass in thy fields for thy cattle, that thou mayest eat and be full.
- 16 Take heed to yourselves, that your hearts be not deceived, and ye turn aside, and
- 17 serve other gods, and worship them; and then the LORD'S wrath be kindled against you, and he shut up the heavens, that there be no rain, and that the land yield not her fruit; and lest ye perish quickly from off the good land which the LORD giveth you.
- 18 Therefore shall ye lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul, and bind them for a sign upon your hand, that they may be as frontlets between your eyes.
- 19 And ye shall teach them your children, speaking of them when thou sittest in thy house, and when thou walkest by the way, when thou liest down, and when thou
- 20 risest up. And thou shalt write them upon the door posts of thy house, and upon
- 21 thy gates: that your days may be multiplied, and the days of your children, in the land which the LORD swore unto your fathers to give them, as the days of heaven upon the earth.
- 22 For if ye shall diligently keep all these commandments which I command you, to do them, to love the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, and to cleave unto
- 23 him; then will the LORD drive out all these nations from before you, and ye shall
- 24 possess nations greater and mightier than yourselves. Every place whercon the soles of your feet shall tread shall be yours: from the wilderness and Lebanon, from the river, the river Euphrates, even unto the uttermost sea [THE MEDITERRANEAN] shall
- 25 your coast be. There shall no man be able to stand before you; for the LORD your God shall lay the fear of you and the dread of you upon all the land that ye shall tread upon, as he hath said unto you.
- 26 27 Behold, I set before you this day a blessing and a curse; a blessing, if ye obey the
- 28 commandments of the LORD your God, which I command you this day: and a curse, if ye will not obey the commandments of the LORD your God, but turn aside out of the way which I command you this day, to go after other gods, which ye have not known.
- 29 And when the LORD thy God hath brought thee in unto the land whither thou goest to possess it, thou shalt put the blessing upon mount Gerizim, and the curse
- 30 upon mount Ebal. Are they not on the other side the Jordan, far off by the way where the sun goeth down, in the land of the Canaanites, who dwell in the open
- 31 country over against Gilgal, beside the oaks of Moreh? For ye shall pass over the Jordan to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God giveth you, and ye
- 32 shall possess it, and dwell therein. And ye shall observe to do all the statutes and judgments which I set before you this day.
- 12 THESE are the statutes and judgments, which ye shall observe to do in the land, which the LORD God of thy fathers giveth thee to possess it, all the days that ye live upon the earth.
- 2 Ye shall utterly destroy all the places, wherein the nations which ye shall possess served their gods, upon the high mountains, and upon the hills, and under every
- 3 green tree: and ye shall overthrow their altars, and break their pillars, and burn their groves with fire; and ye shall hew down the graven images of their gods, and destroy the names of them out of that place.
- 4 5 Ye shall not do so unto the LORD your God. But unto the place which the LORD your God shall choose out of all your tribes to put his name there, even unto his
- 6 habitation shall ye seek, and thither thou shalt come: and thither ye shall bring your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, and your tithes, and heave offerings of your hand, and your vows, and your freewill offerings, and the firstlings of your herds and
- 7 of your flocks: and there ye shall eat before the LORD your God, and ye shall rejoice in all that ye put your hand unto, ye and your households, wherein the LORD thy God hath blessed thee.

Ye shall not do after all the things that we do here this day, every man whatsoever 8 is right in his own eyes. For ye are not as yet come to the rest and to the inheritance, 9 which the LORD your God giveth you. But when ye go over the Jordan, and dwell 10 in the land which the LORD your God giveth you to inherit, and when he giveth you rest from all your enemies round about, so that ye dwell in safety; then it shall 11 be that place which the LORD your God shall choose to cause his name to dwell there; thither shall ye bring all that I command you; your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, your tithes, and the heave offering of your land, and all your choice 12 vows which ye vow unto the LORD: and ye shall rejoice before the LORD your God, ye, and your sons, and your daughters, and your bondmen, and your bond-women, and the Levite who is within your gates; forasmuch as he hath no part nor inheritance with you.

Take heed to thyself that thou offer not thy burnt offerings in every place that thou 13 seest: but in the place which the LORD shall choose in one of thy tribes, there thou 14 shalt offer thy burnt offerings, and there thou shalt do all that I command thee.

Notwithstanding thou mayest kill and eat flesh in all thy gates, whenever ye 15 choose, according to the blessing of the LORD thy God which he hath given thee:
 the unclean and the clean may eat thereof, as of the roebuck, and as of the hart.
 Only ye shall not eat the blood; ye shall pour it upon the earth as water. 16

Thou mayest not eat within thy gates the tithe of thy corn, or of thy wine, or of 17 thine oil, or the firstlings of thy herds or of thy flock, nor any of thy vows which thou vowest, nor thy freewill offerings, or heave offering of thy hand: but thou must 18 eat them before the LORD thy God in the place which the LORD thy God shall choose, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy bondman, and thy bondwoman, and the Levite who is within thy gates: and thou shalt rejoice before the LORD 19 thy God in all that thou puttest thy hands unto. Take heed to thyself that thou forsake not the Levite as long as thou livest upon the earth.

When the LORD thy God shall enlarge thy border, as he hath promised thee, and 20 thou shalt say, I will eat flesh, because thou longest for it; thou mayest eat flesh, when-soever thou longest for it. If the place which the LORD thy God hath chosen to put 21 his name there be too far from thee, then thou shalt kill of thy herd and of thy flock, which the LORD hath given thee, as I have commanded thee, and thou shalt eat it 22 in thy gates whensoever thy soul longeth for it. Even as the roebuck and the hart are eaten, so thou shalt eat them: the unclean and the clean shall eat of them alike.
 Only be sure that thou eat not the blood; for the blood is the life; and thou mayest 23 not eat the life with the flesh. Thou shalt not eat it; thou shalt pour it upon the earth as water. Thou shalt not eat it; that it may go well with thee, and with thy chil- 24 dren after thee, when thou shalt do that which is right in the sight of the LORD. 25

Only thy holy things which thou hast, and thy vows, thou shalt take, and go unto 26 the place which the LORD shall choose: and thou shalt offer thy burnt offerings, 27 the flesh and the blood, upon the altar of the LORD thy God: and the blood of thy sacrifices shall be poured out upon the altar of the LORD thy God, and thou shalt eat the flesh.

Observe and hear all these words which I command thee, that it may go well with 28 thee, and with thy children after thee for ever, when thou doest that which is good and right in the sight of the LORD thy God.

When the LORD thy God shall cut off the nations from before thee, whither thou 29 goest to possess them, and thou succeedest them, and dwellest in their land; take heed 30 to thyself that thou be not snared by following them, after that they have been destroyed from before thee; and that thou inquire not after their gods, saying, How did these nations serve their gods? even so will I do likewise. Thou shalt not do so 31 unto the LORD thy God; for every abomination to the LORD, which he hateth, have they done unto their gods; for even their sons and their daughters they have burnt in the fire to their gods. What thing soever I command you, observe to do 32 it: thou shalt not add thereto, nor diminish from it.

If there arise among you a prophet, or a dreamer of dreams, and he give thee a 13 sign or a wonder, and the sign or the wonder come to pass, whereof he spoke unto thee, saying, Let us go after other gods, which thou hast not known, and let us serve them; thou shalt not hearken unto the words of that prophet, or that dreamer 3 of dreams: for the LORD your God proveth you, to know whether ye love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul. Ye shall walk after 4 the LORD your God, and fear him, and keep his commandments, and obey his voice, and ye shall serve him, and cleave unto him. And that prophet, or that 5 dreamer of dreams, shall be put to death; because he hath spoken to turn you away from the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed you out of the house of bondage, to thrust thee out of the way which the LORD thy God commanded thee to walk in. So shalt thou put the evil away from the midst of thee.

6 If thy brother, the son of thy mother, or thy son, or thy daughter, or the wife of thy bosom, or thy friend, who is as thine own soul, entice thee secretly, saying, Let us go and serve other gods, which thou hast not known, thou, nor thy fathers; 7 namely, of the gods of the people who are round about you, nigh unto thee, or far off from thee, from the one end of the earth even unto the other end of the earth; 8 thou shalt not consent unto him, nor hearken unto him; neither shall thine eye 9 pity him, neither shalt thou spare, neither shalt thou conceal him; but thou shalt surely kill him; thy hand shall be first upon him to put him to death, and afterwards the hand of all the people. And thou shalt stone him with stones, that he die; because he hath sought to thrust thee away from the LORD thy God, who 11 brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage. And all Israel shall hear, and fear, and shall do no more any such wickedness as this is among you.

12 If thou shalt hear say in one of thy cities, which the LORD thy God hath given 13 thee to dwell there, saying, Certain men, the children of Belial [WICKEDNESS], are gone out from among you, and have withdrawn the inhabitants of their city, saying, 14 Let us go and serve other gods, which ye have not known; then shalt thou inquire, and make search, and ask diligently; and, behold, if it be truth, and the thing 15 certain, that such abomination is wrought among you; thou shalt surely smite the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, destroying it utterly, and all 16 that is therein, and the cattle thereof, with the edge of the sword. And thou shalt gather all the spoil of it into the midst of its street, and shalt burn with fire the city, and its whole spoil, for the LORD thy God: and it shall be a heap for ever; 17 it shall not be built again. And there shall cleave nought of the cursed thing to thy hand: that the LORD may turn from the fierceness of his anger, and show thee mercy, and have compassion upon thee, and multiply thee, as he hath sworn 18 unto thy fathers; when thou shalt hearken to the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep all his commandments which I command thee this day, to do that which is right in the eyes of the LORD thy God.

14 Ye are the children of the LORD your God: ye shall not cut yourselves, nor make any baldness between your eyes for the dead. For thou art a holy people unto the LORD thy God, and the LORD hath chosen thee to be a peculiar people unto himself, above all the nations that are upon the earth.

3 4 Thou shalt not eat any abominable thing. These are the beasts which ye shall eat: 5 the ox, the sheep, and the goat, the hart, and the roebuck, and the fallow deer, and 6 the wild goat, and the bison, and the wild ox, and the chamois; and every beast that parteth the hoof, and cleaveth the cleft into two claws, and cheweth the cud among 7 the beasts, that ye shall eat. Nevertheless ye shall not eat, of them that chew the cud, or of them that divide the cloven hoof, the camel, and the hare, and the coney; 8 for they chew the cud, but divide not the hoof; therefore they are unclean unto you. And the swine, because it divideth the hoof, yet cheweth not the cud, it is unclean 9 unto you: ye shall not eat of their flesh, nor touch their dead carcase.

9 These ye shall eat of all that are in the waters: all that have fins and scales shall 10 ye eat: and whatsoever hath not fins and scales ye may not eat; it is unclean unto you.

11 12 Of all clean birds ye shall eat. But these are they of which ye shall not eat: the 13 eagle, and the vulture, and the ospray, and the glede, and the kite, and the falcon 14 15 after their kinds, and every raven after their kinds, and the owl, and the night 16 hawk, and the cuckow, and the hawk after their kinds, the little owl, and the great 17 18 owl, and the swan, and the pelican, and the gier eagle, and the cormorant, and the 19 stork, and the heron after their kinds, and the lapwing, and the bat. And every 20 creeping thing that dieth is unclean unto you: they shall not be eaten. But of all clean birds ye may eat.

21 Ye shall not eat of any thing that dieth of itself: thou shalt give it unto the stranger who is in thy gates, that he may eat it; or thou mayest sell it unto an alien; for thou art a holy people unto the LORD thy God. Thou shalt not seeth a kid in its mother's milk.

22 Thou shalt truly tithe all the increase of thy seed, that the field bringeth forth year 23 by year. And thou shalt eat before the LORD thy God, in the place which he shall choose to place his name there, the tithe of thy corn, of thy wine, and of thine oil, and the firstlings of thy herds and of thy flocks; that thou mayest learn to fear the LORD thy God always.

And if the way be too long for thee, so that thou art not able to carry it; or if the place be too far from thee, in which the LORD thy God shall choose to set his name, (when the LORD thy God hath blessed thee;) then shalt thou turn it into money, and bind up the money in thy hand, and shalt go unto the place which the LORD thy God shall choose: and thou shalt bestow that money for whatsoever thy soul longeth after; for oxen, or for sheep, or for wine, or for strong drink, or for whatsoever thy soul desireth; and thou shalt eat there before the LORD thy God, and thou shalt rejoice, thou, and thy household, and the Levite who is within thy gates; thou shalt not forsake him; for he hath no part nor inheritance with thee.

At the end of three years thou shalt bring forth all the tithe of thine increase the same year, and shalt lay it up within thy gates: and the Levite, (because he hath no part nor inheritance with thee,) and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, who are within thy gates, shall come, and shall eat and be satisfied; that the LORD thy God may bless thee in all the work of thy hand which thou doest.

At the end of every seven years thou shalt make a release. And this is the manner of the release: Every creditor who lendeth ought unto his neighbour shall release it; he shall not exact it of his neighbour, or of his brother; because it is called the LORD's release. Of a foreigner thou mayest exact it again: but that which is thine with thy brother thy hand shall release; to the end that there may be no poor among you; for the LORD shall greatly bless thee in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance to possess it: only if thou carefully hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe to do all these commandments which I command thee this day. For the LORD thy God blesseth thee, as he promised thee: and thou shalt lend unto many nations, but thou shalt not borrow; and thou shalt reign over many nations, but they shall not reign over thee.

If there be among you a poor man of one of thy brethren within any of thy gates in thy land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not harden thy heart, nor shalt thou shut thy hand from thy poor brother: but thou shalt open thy hand wide unto him, and shalt surely lend him sufficient for his need, in that which he wanteth. Beware that there be not a thought in thy wicked heart, saying, The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand; and thine eye be evil against thy poor brother, and thou givest him nought; and he cry unto the LORD against thee, and it be sin unto thee. Thou shalt surely give him, and thy heart shall not be grieved when thou givest unto him; because for this thing the LORD thy God shall bless thee in all thy works, and in all that thou puttest thy hand unto. For the poor shall never cease out of the land: therefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt open thy hand wide unto thy brother, to thy poor, and to thy needy, in thy land.

And if thy brother, a Hebrew man, or a Hebrew woman, be sold unto thee, and serve thee six years; then in the seventh year thou shalt let him go free from thee. And when thou sendest him out free from thee, thou shalt not let him go away empty: thou shalt furnish him liberally out of thy flock, and out of thy floor, and out of thy vinepress: of that wherewith the LORD thy God hath blessed thee thou shalt give unto him. And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in the land of Egypt, and the LORD thy God redeemed thee: therefore I command thee this thing to-day.

And if he say unto thee, I will not go away from thee; because he loveth thee and thy house, because he is well with thee; then thou shalt take an awl, and thrust it through his ear unto the door, and he shall be thy bondman for ever. And also unto thy bondwoman thou shalt do likewise. It shall not seem hard unto thee, when thou sendest him away free from thee; for he hath been worth a double hired servant to thee, in serving thee six years: and the LORD thy God shall bless thee in all that thou doest.

All the firstling males that come of thy herd and of thy flock thou shalt sanctify unto the LORD thy God: thou shalt do no work with the firstling of thy bullock, nor shear the firstling of thy sheep. Thou shalt eat it before the LORD thy God year by year in the place which the LORD shall choose, thou and thy household.

And if there be any blemish therein, as if it be lame, or blind, or have any ill blemish, thou shalt not sacrifice it unto the LORD thy God. Thou shalt eat it within thy gates: the unclean and the clean person shall eat it alike, as the roebuck, and as the hart. Only thou shalt not eat the blood thereof; thou shalt pour it upon the ground as water.

- 16 Observe the month of Abib, and keep the passover unto the LORD thy God; for in the month of Abib the LORD thy God brought thee forth out of Egypt by night.
- 2 Thou shalt therefore sacrifice the passover unto the LORD thy God, of the flock and 3 the herd, in the place which the LORD shall choose to place his name there. Thou shalt eat no leavened bread with it; seven days shalt thou eat unleavened bread therewith, even the bread of affliction; for thou camest forth out of the land of Egypt in haste: that thou mayest remember the day when thou camest forth out of the land
4 of Egypt all the days of thy life. And there shall be no leavened bread seen with thee in all thy coast seven days; neither shall there any thing of the flesh, which thou
5 sacrificedst the first day at evening, remain all night until the morning. Thou mayest not kill the passover within any of thy gates, which the LORD thy God giveth thee:
6 hut at the place which the LORD thy God shall choose to place his name in, there thou shalt sacrifice the passover at evening, at the going down of the sun, at the 7 season that thou camest forth out of Egypt. And thou shalt roast and eat it in the place which the LORD thy God shall choose: and thou shalt turn in the morn-
8 ing, and go unto thy tents. Six days thou shalt eat unleavened bread; and on the seventh day shall be a solemn assembly to the LORD thy God: thou shalt do no work thereon.
- 9 Seven weeks shalt thou number unto thee: begin to number the seven weeks
10 from such time as thou beginnest to put the sickle to the corn. And thou shalt keep the feast of weeks unto the LORD thy God with a tribute of a freewill offering of thy hand, which thou shalt give unto the LORD thy God, according as the 11 LORD thy God hath blessed thee: and thou shalt rejoice before the LORD thy God, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy bondman, and thy bondwoman, and the Levite who is within thy gates, and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, who are among you, in the place which the LORD thy God hath chosen to 12 place his name there. And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in Egypt; and thou shalt observe and do these statutes.
- 13 Thou shalt observe the feast of tabernacles seven days, after that thou hast gathered in thy corn and thy wine: and thou shalt rejoice in thy feast, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy bondman, and thy bondwoman, and the Levite, the 14 stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, that are within thy gates. Seven days shalt thou keep a solemn feast unto the LORD thy God in the place which the LORD shall choose: because the LORD thy God shall bless thee in all thine increase, and in all the works of thy hands, therefore thou shalt surely rejoice.
- 15 Three times in a year shall all thy males appear before the LORD thy God in the place which he shall choose; in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles; and they shall not appear before the LORD 16 empty: every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the LORD thy God which he hath given thee.
- 17 Judges and officers shalt thou make thee in all thy cities, which the LORD thy God giveth thee, throughout thy tribes; and they shall judge the people with just 18 judgment. Thou shalt not wrest judgment; thou shalt not respect persons, neither take a gift; for a gift doth blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the words of the 19 righteous. That which is altogether just shalt thou follow, that thou mayest live, and inherit the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.
- 20 Thou shalt not plant thee a grove of any trees near unto the altar of the LORD 21 thy God, which thou shalt make thee. Neither shalt thou set thee up any image; which the LORD thy God hateth.
- 17 Thou shalt not sacrifice unto the LORD thy God any bullock, or sheep, wherein is blemish, or any evilfavouredness; for that is an abomination unto the LORD thy God.
- 2 If there be found among you, within any of thy cities which the LORD thy God giveth thee, man or woman, who hath wrought wickedness in the sight of the LORD
3 thy God, in transgressing his covenant, and hath gone and served other gods, and worshipped them, either the sun, or moon, or any of the host of the heavens, which
4 I have forbidden; and it be told thee, and thou hast heard of it, and inquired diligently, and behold, it be true, and the thing certain, that such abomination is 5 wrought in Israel; then shalt thou bring forth that man or that woman, who has committed that wicked thing, unto thy gates, even that man or that woman, and shalt stone them with stones, till they die.
- 6 At the mouth of two witnesses, or three witnesses, shall he who is worthy of death 7 be put to death; but at the mouth of one witness he shall not be put to death. The hands of the witnesses shall be first upon him to put him to death, and afterwards the hands of all the people. So thou shalt put the evil away from among you.

If there arise a matter too hard for thee in judgment, between blood and blood, 8 between plea and plea, and between stroke and stroke, being matters of controversy within thy gates; then shalt thou arise, and get thee up into the place which the LORD thy God shall choose; and thou shalt come unto the priests the Levites, and unto the judge who shall be in those days, and inquire; and they shall show thee the sentence of judgment: and thou shalt do according to the sentence, which they 10 of that place which the LORD shall choose shall show thee; and thou shalt observe to do according to all that they inform thee: according to the sentence of the law 11 which they shall teach thee, and according to the judgment which they shall tell thee, thou shalt do: thou shalt not decline from the sentence which they shall show thee, to the right hand, nor to the left. And the man who will do presumptuously, 12 and will not hearken unto the priest who standeth to minister there before the LORD thy God, or unto the judge, even that man shall die: and thou shalt put away the evil from Israel. And all the people shall hear, and fear, and do no more 13 presumptuously.

When thou art come unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, and shalt 14 possess it, and shalt dwell therein, and shalt say, I will set a king over me, like as all the nations that are about me; thou shalt in any wise set him king over thee, 15 whom the LORD thy God shall choose: one from among thy brethren shalt thou set king over thee: thou mayest not set a stranger over thee, who is not thy brother. But he shall not multiply horses to himself, nor cause the people to return to Egypt, 16 to the end that he should multiply horses: forasmuch as the LORD hath said unto you, Ye shall henceforth return no more that way. Neither shall he multiply wives 17 to himself, that his heart turn not away; neither shall he greatly multiply to himself silver and gold. And when he sitteth upon the throne of his kingdom, he shall 18 write him a copy of this law in a book out of that which is before the priests the Levites: and it shall be with him, and he shall read therein all the days of his life; 19 that he may learn to fear the LORD his God, to keep all the words of this law and these statutes, to do them: that his heart be not lifted up above his brethren, and 20 that he turn not aside from the commandment, to the right hand, or to the left: to the end that he may prolong his days in his kingdom, he, and his children, in the midst of Israel.

The priests the Levites, and all the tribe of Levi, shall have no part or inheritance 18 with Israel: they shall eat the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and his inheritance. Therefore shall they have no inheritance among their brethren: the LORD 2 is their inheritance, as he hath said unto them.

And this shall be the priest's due from the people, from those who offer a sacrifice, 3 whether it be ox or sheep; and they shall give unto the priest the shoulder, and the two cheeks, and the maw. The firstfruit also of thy corn, of thy wine, and of thine 4 oil, and the first of the fleece of thy sheep, shalt thou give him. For the LORD thy 5 God hath chosen him out of all thy tribes, to stand to minister in the name of the LORD, him and his sons for ever.

And if a Levite come from any of thy gates out of all Israel, where he sojourned, 6 and come with all the desire of his mind unto the place which the LORD shall choose; then he shall minister in the name of the LORD his God, as all his brethren 7 the Levites do, who stand there before the LORD. They shall have like portions 8 to eat, besides that which cometh of the sale of his patrimony.

When thou art come into the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, thou 9 shalt not learn to do after the abominations of those nations. There shall not be found among you any one who maketh his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, or who useth divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch, or 11 a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer. For all who do these things are an abomination unto the LORD: and because of these abominations the LORD thy God doth drive them out from before thee. Thou shalt 13 be upright with the LORD thy God. For these nations, which thou shalt possess, 14 hearkened unto observers of times, and unto diviners: but as for thee, the LORD thy God hath not suffered thee so to do.

The LORD thy God will raise up unto thee a Prophet from the midst of thee, of 15 thy brethren, like unto me; unto him ye shall hearken; according to all that thou 16 desiredst of the LORD thy God in Horeb in the day of the assembly, saying, Let me not hear again the voice of the LORD my God, neither let me see this great fire any more, that I die not. And the LORD said unto me, They have well spoken that 17

18 which they have spoken. I will raise them up a Prophet from among their brethren, like unto thee, and will put my words in his mouth; and he shall speak 19 unto them all that I shall command him. And whosoever will not hearken unto my words which he shall speak in my name, I will require it of him.

20 But the prophet, who shall presume to speak a word in my name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or who shall speak in the name of other gods, even 21 that prophet shall die. And if thou say in thy heart, How shall we know the word 22 which the LORD hath not spoken? When a prophet speaketh in the name of the LORD, if the thing follow not, nor come to pass, that is the thing which the LORD hath not spoken, but the prophet hath spoken it presumptuously: thou shalt not be afraid of him.

19 When the LORD thy God hath cut off the nations, whose land the LORD thy God giveth thee, and thou succeedest them, and dwellest in their cities, and in their
2 houses; thou shalt separate three cities for thee in the midst of thy land, which the 3 LORD thy God giveth thee to possess. Thou shalt prepare thee a way, and divide the coasts of thy land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee to inherit, into three parts, that every slayer may flee thither.

4 And this is the case of the slayer, who shall flee thither, that he may live: whoso
5 killeth his neighbour unintentionally, whom he hated not in time past; as when a man goeth into the wood with his neighbour to hew wood, and his hand fetcheth a stroke with the axe to cut down the tree, and the iron slippeth from the handle, and lighteth upon his neighbour, that he die; he shall flee unto one of those cities, and
6 live: lest the avenger of the blood pursue the slayer, while his heart is hot, and overtake him, because the way is long, and slay him; whereas he was not worthy of 7 death, inasmuch as he hated him not in time past. Wherefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt separate three cities for thee.

8 And when the LORD thy God shall enlarge thy coast, as he hath sworn unto thy 9 fathers, and give thee all the land which he promised to give unto thy fathers; if thou shalt keep all these commandments to do them, which I command thee this day, to love the LORD thy God, and to walk ever in his ways; then shalt thou add 10 three cities more for thee, besides these three: that innocent blood be not shed in thy land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance, and so blood be upon thee.

11 But if any man hate his neighbour, and lie in wait for him, and rise up against 12 him, and smite him mortally that he die, and fleeth into one of these cities: then the elders of his city shall send and fetch him thence, and deliver him into the hand of 13 the avenger of blood, that he may die. Thine eye shall not pity him, but thou shalt put away the guilt of innocent blood from Israel, that it may go well with thee.

14 Thou shalt not remove thy neighbour's landmark, which they of old time have set in thine inheritance, which thou shalt inherit in the land that the LORD thy God giveth thee to possess.

15 One witness shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any sin that he sinneth: at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall the matter be established. If a false witness rise up against any man 16 to testify against him that which is wrong; then both the men, between whom the controversy is, shall stand before the LORD, before the priests and the judges, who 17 shall be in those days; and the judges shall make diligent inquisition: and, behold, 18 if the witness be a false witness, and hath testified falsely against his brother; then shall ye do unto him, as he thought to do unto his brother: so shalt thou put the 19 evil away from among you. And those who remain shall hear, and fear, and shall 20 henceforth commit no more any such evil among you. And thine eye shall not pity; but life shall go for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

20 When thou goest out to battle against thine enemies, and seest horses, and chariots, and a people more than thou, be not afraid of them; for the LORD thy God is with thee, who brought thee up out of the land of Egypt. And when ye come
3 nigh unto the battle, the priest shall approach and speak unto the people, and shall say unto them, Hear, O Israel, ye approach this day unto battle against your enemies; let not your hearts faint, fear not, and do not tremble, neither be ye terrified
4 because of them; for the LORD your God is he who goeth with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.

5 And the officers shall speak unto the people, saying, What man is there who hath built a new house, and hath not dedicated it? let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man dedicate it. And what man is he who hath planted a vineyard, and hath not yet eaten of it? let him also go and return unto his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man eat of it. And what man 7 is there who hath betrothed a wife, and hath not taken her? let him go and return unto his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man take her. And the officers 8 shall speak further unto the people, and they shall say, What man is there who is fearful and fainthearted? let him go and return unto his house, lest his brethren's heart faint as well as his. And when the officers have made an end of speaking unto 9 the people, they shall make captains of the armies to lead on the people.

When thou comest nigh unto a city to fight against it, then proclaim peace unto 10 it. If it make thee answer of peace, and open unto thee, then all the people found 11 therein shall be tributaries unto thee, and they shall serve thee. And if it will make 12 no peace with thee, but will make war against thee, then thou shalt besiege it: and 13 when the LORD thy God hath delivered it into thy hands, thou shalt smite every male thereof with the edge of the sword; but the women, and the little ones, and 14 the cattle, and all that is in the city, even all the spoil thereof, shalt thou take unto thyself; and thou shalt eat the spoil of thine enemies, which the LORD thy God hath given thee. Thus shalt thou do unto all the cities which are very far off 15 from thee, which are not of the cities of these nations. But of the cities of these 16 people, which the LORD thy God doth give thee for an inheritance, thou shalt save alive nothing that breatheth; but thou shalt utterly destroy them; namely, the 17 Hittites, and the Amorites, the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites; as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee: that they teach you not 18 to do after all their abominations, which they have done unto their gods; so should ye sin against the LORD your God.

When thou shalt besiege a city a long time, in making war against it to take it, 19 thou shalt not destroy the trees thereof by forcing an axe against them; for thou mayest eat of them, and thou shalt not cut them down (for the fruit of the tree of the field is man's food) to employ them in the siege: only the trees which thou knowest 20 that they be not trees for meat, thou shalt destroy and cut them down; and thou shalt build bulwarks against the city that maketh war with thee, until it be subdued.

If one be found slain in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee to possess, 21 lying in the field, and it be not known who hath slain him; then thine elders and thy judges shall come forth, and they shall measure unto the cities which are round about him who is slain: and the city which is next unto the slain man, even the 3 elders of that city shall take a heifer, which hath not been wrought with, and which hath not drawn in the yoke; and the elders of that city shall bring down the heifer 4 unto a rough valley, which is neither ploughed nor sown, and shall strike off the heifer's neck there in the valley: and the priests the sons of Levi shall come near; 5 (for them the LORD thy God hath chosen to minister unto him, and to bless in the name of the LORD; and by their word shall every controversy and every stroke be tried;) and all the elders of that city, who are next unto the slain man, shall wash 6 their hands over the heifer that is beheaded in the valley; and they shall answer 7 and say, Our hands have not shed this blood, neither have our eyes seen it. Be mer- 8 ciful, O LORD, unto thy people Israel, whom thou hast redeemed, and lay not innocent blood unto thy people of Israel's charge. And the blood shall be forgiven them. So shalt thou put away the guilt of innocent blood from among you, when 9 thou shalt do that which is right in the sight of the LORD.

When thou goest forth to war against thine enemies, and the LORD thy God 10 hath delivered them into thy hands, and thou hast taken them captive, and seest 11 among the captives a beautiful woman, and hast a desire for her, that thou wouldest have her to be thy wife; then thou shalt bring her home to thy house; and she shall 12 shave her head, and dress her nails; and she shall put the raiment of her captivity 13 from off her, and shall remain in thy house, and bewail her father and her mother a full month: and after that thou shalt go in unto her, and be her husband, and she shall be thy wife. And if thou have no delight in her, then thou shalt let her go 14 whither she will; but thou shalt not sell her at all for money, thou shalt not restrain her as a bondwoman, because thou hast humbled her.

If a man have two wives, one beloved, and another disliked, and they have borne 15 him children, both the beloved and the disliked; and if the firstborn son be hers that was disliked: then, when he maketh his sons to inherit that which he hath, he 16 may not make the son of the beloved firstborn before the son of the disliked, who is indeed the firstborn: but he shall acknowledge the son of the disliked for the first- 17 born, by giving him a double portion of all that he hath; for he is the beginning of his strength; the right of the firstborn is his.

If a man have a stubborn and rebellious son, who will not obey the voice of his 18 father, or the voice (of his mother, and who, when they have chastened him, will not 19 hearken unto them; then shall his father and his mother lay hold on him, and bring 20 him out unto the elders of his city, and unto the gate of his place; and they shall say unto the elders of his city, This our son is stubborn and rebellious, he will not obey 21 our voice; he is a glutton, and a drunkard. And all the men of his city shall stone him with stones, that he die: so shalt thou put evil away from among you; and all Israel shall hear, and fear.

And if a man have committed a sin worthy of death, and he be to be put to death, 23 and thou hang him on a tree; his body shall not remain all night upon the tree, but thou shalt in any wise bury him that day; (for he who is hanged on a tree is accursed of God;) that thy land be not defiled, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance.

22 Thou shalt not see thy brother's ox or his sheep go astray, and hide thyself from them: thou shalt in any case bring them again unto thy brother. And if thy brother be not nigh unto thee, or if thou know him not, then thou shalt bring it unto thine own house, and it shall be with thee until thy brother seek after it, and thou shalt 3 restore it to him again. In like manner shalt thou do with his ass; and so shalt thou do with his raiment; and with every lost thing of thy brother's, which he hath lost, and thou hast found, shalt thou do likewise: thou mayest not hide thyself.
 4 Thou shalt not see thy brother's ass or his ox fall down by the way, and hide thyself from it: thou shalt surely help him to lift it up again.

5 The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment; for all who do so are abomination unto the LORD thy God.

6 If a bird's nest chance to be before thee in the way in any tree, or on the ground, whether they be young ones, or eggs, and the dam sitting upon the young, or upon 7 the eggs, thou shalt not take the dam with the young; but thou shalt in any wise let the dam go, and take the young to thee; that it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest prolong thy days.

8 When thou buildest a new house, then thou shalt make a battlement for thy roof, that thou bring not blood upon thy house, if any man fall from thence.

9 Thou shalt not sow thy vineyard with divers seeds; lest the fruit of thy seed which 10 thou hast sown, and the fruit of thy vineyard, be defiled. Thou shalt not plough 11 with an ox and an ass together. Thou shalt not wear a garment of divers sorts, as of woollen and linen together.

12 Thou shalt make thee fringes upon the four quarters of thy mantle, wherewith thou coverest thyself.

3 14 If any man take a wife, and go in unto her, and dislike her, and give occasions of speech against her, and bring up an evil name upon her, and say, I took this woman, 15 and when I came to her, I found her not a maid: then shall the father of the damsel, and her mother, take and bring forth the tokens of the damsel's virginity unto the 16 elders of the city in the gate: and the damsel's father shall say unto the elders, I 17 gave my daughter unto this man to wife, and he dishketh her; and, lo, he hath given occasions of speech against her, saying, I found not thy daughter a maid; and yet these are the tokens of my daughter's virginity. And they shall spread the cloth 18 before the elders of the city. And the elders of that city shall take that man and 19 chastise him; and they shall amerce him in a hundred shekels of silver, and give them unto the father of the damsel, because he hath brought up an evil name upon a virgin of Israel: and she shall be his wife; he may not put her away all his days.
 20 But if this thing be true, and the tokens of virginity be not found for the damsel;
 21 then they shall bring out the damsel to the door of her father's house, and the men of her city shall stone her with stones that she die; because she hath wrought folly in Israel, to play the whore in her father's house: so shalt thou put evil away from among you.

22 If a man be found lying with a woman married to a husband, then they shall both of them die, both the man who lay with the woman, and the woman: so shalt thou 23 put away evil from Israel. If a damsel who is a virgin be betrothed unto a husband, 24 and a man find her in the city, and lie with her; then ye shall bring them both out unto the gate of that city, and ye shall stone them with stones that they die; the damsel, because she cried not, being in the city; and the man, because he hath humbled his neighbour's wife: so thou shalt put away evil from among you.

25 But if a man find a betrothed damsel in the field, and the man force her, and lie 26 with her; then the man only who lay with her shall die: but unto the damsel thou shalt do nothing; there is in the damsel no sin worthy of death: for as when a man riseth against his neighbour, and slayeth him, even so is this matter: for he found 27 her in the field, and the betrothed damsel cried, and there was none to save her.

If a man find a damsel who is a virgin, not betrothed, and lay hold on her, and lie 28 with her, and they be found; then the man who lay with her shall give unto the dam- 29 sel's father fifty shekels of silver, and she shall be his wife; because he hath humbled her, he may not put her away all his days.

A man shall not take his father's wife, nor discover his father's skirt. 30

He who is wounded in the stones, or hath his privy member cut off, shall not take 31 office in the congregation of the LORD. A bastard shall not take office in the con- 32 gregation of the LORD; even to his tenth generation shall he not take office in the 3 congregation of the LORD. An Ammonite or Moabite shall not take office in the 3 congregation of the LORD; even to their tenth generation shall they not take office 4 in the congregation of the LORD for ever; because they met you not with bread and 4 with water in the way, when ye came forth out of Egypt; and because they hired against thee Balaam the son of Beor of Pethor of Mesopotamia, to curse thee. 5 Nevertheless the LORD thy God would not hearken unto Balaam; but the LORD 5 thy God turned the curse into a blessing unto thee, because the LORD thy God loved thee. Thou shalt not seek their peace nor their prosperity all thy days for 6 ever. Thou shalt not abhor an Edomite; for he is thy brother: thou shalt not abhor 7 an Egyptian; because thou wast a stranger in his land. The children who are be- 8 gotten of them shall take office in the congregation of the LORD in their third generation.

When the host goeth forth against thine enemies, then keep thee from every wick- 9 ed thing. If there be among you any man, who is not clean by reason of uncleanness 10 that chanceth him by night, then shall he go abroad out of the camp, he shall not come within the camp: but when evening cometh on, he shall wash himself with 11 water; and when the sun is down, he shall come into the camp again. Thou shalt 12 have a place also without the camp, whither thou shalt go forth abroad; and thou 13 shalt have a paddle upon thy weapon; and when thou wilt ease thyself abroad, thou shalt dig therewith, and shalt turn back and cover that which cometh from thee: 14 for the LORD thy God walketh in the midst of thy camp, to deliver thee, and to 14 give up thine enemies before thee; therefore shall thy camp be holy: that he see no unclean thing in thee, and turn away from thee.

Thou shalt not deliver unto his master the servant who is escaped from his master 15 unto thee: he shall dwell with thee, even among you, in that place which he shall 16 choose in one of thy gates, where it liketh him best: thou shalt not oppress him.

There shall be no whore of the daughters of Israel, nor a sodomite of the sons of 17 Israel. Thou shalt not bring the hire of a whore, or the price of a dog, into the house 18 of the LORD thy God for any vow; for even both these are abomination unto the LORD thy God.

Thou shalt not lend upon usury to thy brother; usury of money, usury of victuals, 19 usury of any thing that is lent upon usury: unto a stranger thou mayest lend upon 20 usury; but unto thy brother thou shalt not lend upon usury: that the LORD thy God may bless thee in all that thou settest thy hand to in the land whither thou goest to possess it.

When thou shalt vow a vow unto the LORD thy God, thou shalt not slack to pay 21
it; for the LORD thy God will surely require it of thee; and it would be sin in thee.
But if thou shalt forbear to vow, it shall be no sin in thee. That which is gone out 22 23 of thy lips thou shalt keep and perform; even a freewill offering, according as thou hast vowed unto the LORD thy God, which thou hast promised with thy mouth.

When thou comest into thy neighbour's vineyard, then thou mayest eat grapes un- 24 til thou art satisfied; but thou shalt not put any in thy basket. When thou comest 25 into the standing corn of thy neighbour, then thou mayest pluck the ears with thy hand; but thou shalt not move a sickle unto thy neighbour's standing corn.

When a man hath taken a wife, and married her, and she find no favour in his 24 eyes, because he hath found some uncleanness in her; then let him write her a bill of divorcement, and give it into her hand, and send her out of his house. And 2 when she is departed out of his house, she may go and be another man's wife. And 3 if the latter husband dislike her, and write her a bill of divorcement, and give it into her hand, and send her out of his house; or if the latter husband die, who took her to be his wife; her former husband, who sent her away, may not take her again 4 to be his wife, after that she is defiled; for that is an abomination before the LORD:
and thou shalt not cause the land to sin, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance.

- 5 When a man hath taken a new wife, he shall not go out to war, neither shall he be charged with any public business; but he shall be free at home one year, and shall cheer up his wife whom he hath taken.
- 6 No man shall take the lower or the upper millstone to pledge: for he taketh the means of life to pledge.
- 7 If a man be found stealing any one of his brethren of the children of Israel, and restraineth him as a slave, or selleth him; then that thief shall die; and thou shalt put evil away from among you.
- 8 Take heed in the plague of leprosy, that thou observe diligently, and do according to all that the priests the Levites shall teach you: as I commanded them, so ye shall observe to do. Remember what the LORD thy God did unto Miriam by the way, after that ye were come forth out of Egypt.
- 10 When thou dost lend thy brother any thing, thou shalt not go into his house to fetch his pledge. Thou shalt stand abroad, and the man to whom thou dost lend shall bring out the pledge abroad unto thee. And if the man be poor, thou shalt not sleep with his pledge: in any case thou shalt deliver him the pledge again when the sun goeth down, that he may sleep in his own raiment, and bless thee: and it shall be righteousness unto thee before the LORD thy God.
- 14 Thou shalt not oppress a hired servant who is poor and needy, whether he be of thy brethren, or of the strangers who are in thy land within thy gates: at his day thou shalt give him his hire, neither shall the sun go down upon it; for he is poor, and setteth his heart upon it; lest he cry against thee unto the LORD, and it be sin unto thee.
- 16 The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, neither shall the children be put to death for the fathers: every man shall be put to death for his own sin.
- 17 Thou shalt not pervert the judgment of the stranger, nor of the fatherless; nor take the widow's raiment to pledge: but thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in Egypt, and the LORD thy God redeemed thee thence: therefore I command thee to do this thing.
- 19 When thou cuttest down thy harvest in thy field, and hast forgot a sheaf in the field, thou shalt not go again to fetch it; it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow; that the LORD thy God may bless thee in all the work of thy hands. When thou beatest thine olive tree, thou shalt not go over the boughs again: it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow. When thou gatherest the grapes of thy vineyard, thou shalt not glean it afterward: it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow. And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in the land of Egypt: therefore I command thee to do this thing.
- 25 If there be a controversy between men, and they come unto judgment, that the judges may judge them; then they shall justify the righteous, and condemn the wicked. And if the wicked man be worthy to be beaten, the judge shall cause him to lie down, and to be beaten before his face, according to his fault, by a certain number. Forty stripes he may give him, and not exceed: lest, if he should exceed, and beat him above these with many stripes, then thy brother should seem vile unto thee.
- 4 Thou shalt not muzzle the ox when he treadeth out the corn.
- 5 If brethren dwell together, and one of them die, and have no child, the wife of the dead shall not marry without unto a stranger: her husband's brother shall go in unto her, and take her to him to wife, and perform the duty of a husband's brother unto her. And the firstborn which she beareth shall succeed in the name of his brother who is dead, that his name be not put out of Israel. And if the man like not to take his brother's wife, then let his brother's wife go up to the gate unto the elders, and say, My husband's brother refuseth to raise up unto his brother a name in Israel, he will not perform the duty of my husband's brother. Then the elders of his city shall call him, and speak unto him: and if he stand to it, and say, I like not to take her; then shall his brother's wife come unto him in the presence of the elders, and loose his shoe from off his foot, and spit in his presence, and shall answer and say, So shall it be done unto that man who will not build up his brother's house.
- 10 And his name shall be called in Israel, The house of him who hath his shoe loosed.
- 11 When men strive together one with another, and the wife of the one draweth near to deliver her husband out of the hand of him who smiteth him, and putteth forth her hand, and taketh him by the secrets: then thou shalt cut off her hand, thine eye shall not pity her.
- 13 14 Thou shalt not have in thy bag divers weights, a great and a small. Thou shalt not have in thy house divers measures, a great and a small. But thou shalt have a perfect and just weight, a perfect and just measure shalt thou have : that thy days may be lengthened in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee. For all who do such things, and all who do unrighteously, are an abomination unto the LORD thy God. 16

Remember what Amalek did unto thee by the way, when ye were come forth out of Egypt ; how he met thee by the way, and smote the hindmost of thee, even all who were feeble behind thee, when thou wast faint and weary ; and he feared not God. Therefore, when the LORD thy God hath given thee rest from all thine enemies round about, in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance to possess it, thou shalt blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under the heavens ; thou shalt not forget it. 17 18 19

And when thou art come in unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee 26 for an inheritance, and possessest it, and dwellest therein ; thou shalt take of the first of all the fruit of the earth, which thou shalt bring of thy land that the LORD thy God giveth thee, and shalt put it in a basket, and shalt go unto the place which the LORD thy God shall choose to place his name there. And thou shalt go unto 3 the priest who shall be in those days, and say unto him, I acknowledge this day unto the LORD thy God, that I am come unto the country which the LORD swore unto our fathers for to give us. And the priest shall take the basket out of thy hand, and 4 set it down before the altar of the LORD thy God. And thou shalt speak and say 5 before the LORD thy God, A wandering Syrian was my father, and he went down into Egypt, and sojourned there with a few, and became there a nation, great, mighty, and populous : and the Egyptians evil entreated us, and afflicted us, and laid upon 6 us hard bondage : and when we cried unto the LORD God of our fathers, the LORD 7 heard our voice, and looked on our affliction, and our labour, and our oppression : and the LORD brought us forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand, and with an 8 outstretched arm, and with great terribleness, and with signs, and with wonders : and he hath brought us into this place, and hath given us this land, even a land that 9 floweth with milk and honey. And now, behold, I have brought the firstfruits of 10 the land, which thou, O LORD, hast given me. And thou shalt set it before the LORD thy God, and worship before the LORD thy God : and thou shalt rejoice in 11 every good thing which the LORD thy God hath given unto thee, and unto thy house, thou, and the Levite, and the stranger who is among you.

When thou hast made an end of tithing all the tithes of thine increase the third 12 year, which is the year of tithing, and hast given it unto the Levite, the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, that they may eat within thy gates, and be filled ; then 13 thou shalt say before the LORD thy God, I have brought away the hallowed things out of my house, and also have given them unto the Levite, and unto the stranger, to the fatherless, and to the widow, according to all thy commandments which thou hast commanded me : I have not transgressed thy commandments, neither have I forgotten them : I have not eaten thereof in my mourning, neither have I taken away 14 aught thereof for any forbidden use, nor given aught thereof for the dead : but I have hearkened to the voice of the LORD my God, and have done according to all that thou hast commanded me. Look down from thy holy habitation, from the 15 heavens, and bless thy people Israel, and the land which thou hast given us, as thou swarest unto our fathers, a land that floweth with milk and honey.

This day the LORD thy God hath commanded thee to do these statutes and judgments : thou shalt therefore keep and do them with all thy heart, and with all thy soul. Thou hast avouched the LORD this day to be thy God, and to walk in his ways, and to keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his judgments, and to hearken unto his voice : and the LORD hath avouched thee this day to be his peculiar people, as he hath promised thee, and that thou shouldest keep all his commandments ; and to make thee high above all nations that he hath made, in praise, 16 17 18 19 and in name, and in honour ; and that thou mayest be a holy people unto the LORD thy God, as he hath spoken.

AND Moses with the elders of Israel commanded the people, saying, Keep all the commandments which I command you this day. And on the day when ye shall 27 pass over the Jordan unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, thou shalt set thee up great stones, and plaster them with plaster : and thou shalt write 3 upon them all the words of this law, when thou art passed over, that thou mayest go in unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, a land that floweth with milk and honey ; as the LORD God of thy fathers hath promised thee. Therefore 4 when ye are gone over the Jordan, ye shall set up these stones, which I command you this day, in mount Ebal, and thou shalt plaster them with plaster. And there 5

- shalt thou build an altar unto the LORD thy God, an altar of stones: thou shalt not lift up any iron tool upon them. Thou shalt build the altar of the LORD thy God of whole stones; and thou shalt offer burnt offerings thereon unto the LORD thy God: and thou shalt offer peace offerings, and shalt eat there, and rejoice before the LORD thy God. And thou shalt write upon the stones all the words of this law very plainly.
- 9 And Moses and the priests the Levites spoke unto all Israel, saying, Take heed, and hearken, O Israel; this day thou art become the people of the LORD thy God.
- 10 Thou shalt therefore obey the voice of the LORD thy God, and do his commandments and his statutes, which I command thee this day.
- 11 12 And Moses charged the people the same day, saying, These shall stand upon mount Gerizim to bless the people, when ye are come over the Jordan; Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Joseph, and Benjamin: and these shall stand upon mount Ebal to curse; Reuben, Gad, and Asher, and Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali.
- 14 And the Levites shall speak, and say unto all the men of Israel with a loud voice,
- 15 Cursed be the man who maketh any graven or molten image, an abomination unto the LORD, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and putteth it in a secret place.
- 16 And all the people shall answer and say, Amen.—Cursed be he who setteth light by his father or his mother. And all the people shall say, Amen.—Cursed be he who removeth his neighbour's landmark. And all the people shall say, Amen.—Cursed be he who maketh the blind to wander out of the way. And all the people shall say, Amen.—Cursed be he who perverteth the judgment of the stranger, fatherless, and widow. And all the people shall say, Amen.—Cursed be he who lieth with his father's wife; because he uncovereth his father's skirt. And all the people shall say, Amen.—Cursed be he who lieth with any manner of beast. And all the people shall say, Amen.—Cursed be he who lieth with his sister, the daughter of his father, or the daughter of his mother. And all the people shall say, Amen.—Cursed be he who lieth with his mother-in-law. And all the people shall say, Amen.—Cursed be he who smiteth his neighbour secretly. And all the people shall say, Amen.—
- 25 Cursed be he who taketh reward to slay an innocent person. And all the people shall say, Amen.—Cursed be he who confirmeth not all the words of this law to do them. And all the people shall say, Amen.
- 28 And if thou shalt hearken diligently unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe and to do all his commandments which I command thee this day, the LORD thy God will set thee on high above all nations of the earth: and all these blessings shall come on thee, and overtake thee, if thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God. Blessed shalt thou be in the city, and blessed shalt thou be in the field. Blessed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy ground, and the fruit of thy cattle, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep. Blessed shall be thy basket and thy store. Blessed shalt thou be when thou comest in, and blessed shalt thou be when thou goest out. The LORD shall cause thine enemies who rise up against thee to be smitten before thy face: they shall come out against thee one way, and flee before thee seven ways. The LORD shall command the blessing upon thee in thy storehouses, and in all that thou settest thy hand unto; and he shall bless thee in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee. The LORD shall establish thee a holy people unto himself, as he hath sworn unto thee, if thou shalt keep the commandments of the LORD thy God, and walk in his ways. And all the people of the earth shall see that thou art called by the name of the LORD; and they shall be afraid of thee. And the LORD shall make thee plenteous in goods, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy ground, in the land which the LORD swore unto thy fathers to give thee. The LORD shall open unto thee his good treasure: the heavens to give the rain unto thy land in its season, and to bless all the work of thy hand; and thou shalt lend unto many nations, and thou shalt not borrow. And the LORD shall make thee the head, and not the tail; and thou shalt be above only, and thou shalt not be beneath; if that thou hearken unto the commandments of the LORD thy God, which I command thee this day, to observe and to do them: and thou shalt not go aside from any of the words which I command you this day, to the right hand, or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them.
- 15 But if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command thee this day; all these
- 16 curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee: Cursed shalt thou be in the city, and
- 17 18 cursed shalt thou be in the field. Cursed shall be thy basket and thy store. Cursed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy land, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep. Cursed shalt thou be when thou comest in, and cursed shalt 19 thou be when thou goest out. The LORD shall send upon thee cursing, vexation, 20 and rebuke, in all that thou settest thy hand unto for to do, until thou be destroyed, and until thou perish quickly; because of the wickedness of thy doings, whereby thou hast forsaken me. The LORD shall make the pestilence cleave unto thee, 21 until he hath consumed thee from off the land, whither thou goest to possess it. The 22 LORD shall smite thee with a consumption, and with a fever, and with an inflammation, and with an extreme burning, and with drought, and with blasting, and with mildew; and they shall pursue thee until thou perish. And the heavens that are 23 over thy head shall be as brass, and the earth that is under thee shall be as iron.

 The LORD shall make the rain of thy land powder and dust: from the heavens shall 24 it come down upon thee, until thou be destroyed. The LORD shall cause thee to 25 be smitten before thine enemies: thou shalt go out one way against them, and flee seven ways before them: and shalt be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.
 And thy carcase shall be meat unto all birds of the air, and unto the beasts of the 26 earth, and no man shall frighten them away. The LORD will smite thee with the 27 botch of Egypt, and with the piles, and with the scab, and with the itch, whereof thou canst not be healed. The LORD shall smite thee with madness, and blindness, and 28 astonishment of heart: and thou shalt grope at noonday, as the blind gropeth in 29 darkness, and thou shalt not prosper in thy ways: and thou shalt be only oppressed and spoiled evermore, and no man shall save thee. Thou shalt betroth a wife, and 30 another man shall lie with her: thou shalt build a house, and thou shalt not dwell therein: thou shalt plant a vineyard, and shalt not gather the grapes thereof. Thine 31 ox shall be slain before thine eyes, and thou shalt not eat thereof: thine ass shall be violently taken away from before thy face, and shall not be restored to thee: thy sheep shall be given unto thine enemies, and thou shalt have none to rescue them.
 Thy sons and thy daughters shall be given unto another people, and thine eyes shall 32 look, and fail with longing for them all the day long; and there shall be no might in thy hand. The fruit of thy land, and all thy labours, shall a nation which thou 33 knowest not eat up; and thou shalt be only oppressed and crushed always: so that 34 thou shalt be mad for the sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see. The LORD shall 35 smite thee in the knees, and in the legs, with a sore boil that cannot be healed, from the sole of thy foot unto the top of thy head. The LORD shall bring thee, and thy 36 king which thou shalt set over thee, unto a nation which neither thou nor thy fathers have known; and there shalt thou serve other gods, wood and stone. And thou 37 shalt become an astonishment, a proverb, and a byword, among all nations whither the LORD shall lead thee. Thou shalt carry much seed out into the field, and shalt 38 gather but little in; for the locust shall consume it. Thou shalt plant vineyards, 39 and dress them, but shalt neither drink of the wine, nor gather the grapes; for the worms shall eat them. Thou shalt have olive trees throughout all thy coasts, but 40 thou shalt not anoint thyself with the oil; for thine olive shall cast its fruit. Thou 41 shalt beget sons and daughters, but thou shalt not enjoy them; for they shall go into captivity. All thy trees and fruit of the land shall the locust consume. The stranger 42 43 who is within thee shall get up above thee higher and higher; and thou shalt come down lower and lower. He shall lend to thee, and thou shalt not lend to him: he 44 shall be the head, and thou shalt be the tail.

Moreover all these curses shall come upon thee, and shall pursue thee, and over- 45 take thee, till thou be destroyed; because thou hearkenedst not unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which he commanded 46 thee: and they shall be upon thee for a sign and for a wonder, and upon thy seed 47 for ever. Because thou servedst not the LORD thy God with joyfulness, and with 48 gladness of heart, for the abundance of all things; therefore shalt thou serve thine enemies which the LORD shall send against thee, in hunger, and in thirst, and in 49 nakedness, and in want of all things; and he shall put a yoke of iron upon thy neck, until he have destroyed thee. The LORD shall bring a nation against thee from 50 far, from the end of the earth, as swift as the eagle flieth; a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand; a nation of fierce countenance, that shall not regard the 51 person of the old, nor show favour to the young: and they shall eat the fruit of thy cattle, and the fruit of thy land, until thou be destroyed: they shall not leave thee either corn, wine, or oil, or the increase of thy kine, or flocks of thy sheep, until they have destroyed thee. And they shall besiege thee in all thy gates, until thy high 52 and fenced walls come down, wherein thou trustedst, throughout all thy land; and they shall besiege thee in all thy gates throughout all thy land, which the LORD thy God hath given thee. And thou shalt eat the fruit of thine own body, the flesh 53 of thy sons and of thy daughters, which the LORD thy God hath given thee, in the 54 siege, and in the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee: so that the man who is tender among you, and very delicate, his eye shall be evil towards his 55 brother, and towards the wife of his bosom, and towards the remnant of his children whom he shall leave: so that he will not give to any of them of the flesh of his children whom he shall eat: because he hath nothing left him in the siege, and in 56 the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee in all thy gates. The tender and delicate woman among you, who would not venture to set the sole of her foot upon the ground for delicateness and tenderness, her eye shall be evil towards 57 the husband of her bosom, and towards her son, and towards her daughter, and towards her young one that cometh out from between her feet, and towards her children which she shall bear: for she shall eat them for want of all things secretly in the siege and straitness, wherewith thine enemy shall distress thee in all thy gates.

 58 If thou wilt not observe to do all the words of this law that are written in this book, that thou mayest fear this glorious and fearful name, THE LORD THY GOD; 59 then the LORD will make thy plagues wonderful, and the plagues of thy seed, even great plagues, and of long continuance, and sore sicknesses, and of long continuance.
 60 Moreover he will bring upon thee all the diseases of Egypt, which thou wast afraid 61 of; and they shall cleave unto thee. Also every sickness, and every plague, which is not written in the book of this law, them will the LORD bring upon thee, until 62 thou be destroyed. And ye shall be left few in number, whereas ye were as the stars of the heavens for multitude; because thou wouldest not obey the voice of the 63 LORD thy God. And as the LORD rejoiced over you to do you good, and to multiply you; so the LORD will rejoice over you to destroy you, and to bring you to nought; and ye shall be plucked from off the land whither thou goest to possess it.
 64 And the LORD shall scatter thee among all people, from the one end of the earth even unto the other; and there thou shalt serve other gods, which neither thou nor 65 thy fathers have known, even wood and stone. And among these nations shalt thou find no ease, neither shall the sole of thy foot have rest; but the LORD shall 66 give thee there a trembling heart, and failing of eyes, and sorrow of mind: and thy life shall hang in doubt before thee; and thou shalt fear day and night, and 67 shalt have none assurance of thy life: in the morning thou shalt say, Would God it were evening! and at evening thou shalt say, Would God it were morning! for the fear of thy heart wherewith thou shalt fear, and for the sight of thine eyes which 68 thou shalt see. And the LORD shall bring thee into Egypt again with ships, by the way whereof I spoke unto thee, Thou shalt see it no more again: and there ye shall prize yourselves unto your enemies for bondmen and bondwomen, and no man shall buy you.

29 These are the words of the covenant, which the LORD commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the land of Moab, besides the covenant which he made with them in Horeb.

2 AND Moses called unto all Israel, and said unto them, Ye have seen all that the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Egypt unto Pharaoh, and unto all his 3 servants, and unto all his land; the great temptations which thine eyes have seen, 4 the signs, and those great miracles: yet the LORD hath not given you a heart to perceive, and eyes to see, and ears to hear, unto this day. And I have led you forty 5 years in the wilderness: your clothes are not waxen old upon you, and thy shoe is 6 not waxen old upon thy foot. Ye have not eaten bread, neither have ye drunk wine 7 or strong drink: that ye might know that I am the LORD your God. And when ye came unto this place, Sihon the king of Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, 8 came out against us unto battle, and we smote them: and we took their land, and gave it for an inheritance unto the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the half 9 tribe of Manassch. Keep therefore the words of this covenant, and do them, that ye may prosper in all that ye do.

10 Ye stand this day all of you before the LORD your God; your captains of your 11 tribes, your elders, and your officers, with all the men of Israel, your little ones, your wives, and the stranger who is in thy camp, from the hewer of thy wood unto 12 the drawer of thy water: that thou shouldest enter into covenant with the LORD thy God, and into his oath, which the LORD thy God maketh with thee this day:
 13 that he may establish thee to-day for a people unto himself, and that he may be unto thee a God, as he hath said unto thee, and as he hath sworn unto thy fathers, to 14 Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. Neither with you only do I make this covenant 15 and this oath; but with him who standeth here with us this day before the LORD our God, and also with him who is not here with us this day.

(For ye know how we have dwelt in the land of Egypt; and how we came through the nations which ye passed by; and ye have seen their abominations, and their idols, wood and stone, silver and gold, which were among them:) let there not be among you man, or woman, or family, or tribe, whose heart turneth away this day from the LORD our God, to go and serve the gods of these nations; lest there should be among you a root that beareth gall and wormwood; and when he heareth the words of this curse, he bless himself in his heart, saying, I shall have peace, though I walk after the inclination of my heart, so as to gratify every desire: the LORD will not spare him, but then the anger of the LORD and his jealousy shall smoke against that man, and all the curses that are written in this book shall lie upon him, and the LORD shall blot out his name from under the heavens. And the LORD shall separate him unto evil out of all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the covenant that are written in this book of the law: so that the generation to come of your children who shall rise up after you, and the stranger who shall come from a far land, shall say, when they see the plagues of that land, and the sicknesses which the LORD hath laid upon it; the whole land thereof is burnt into brimstone and salt; it is not sown, nor beareth, nor any grass groweth therein, like the overthrow of Sodom, and Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboim, which the LORD overthrew in his anger, and in his wrath: even all nations shall say, Wherefore hath the LORD done thus unto this land? what meaneth the heat of this great anger? Then men shall say, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD God of their fathers, which he made with them when he brought them forth out of the land of Egypt: for they went and served other gods, and worshipped them, gods which they knew not, and which had not given unto them any good thing: and the anger of the LORD was kindled against this land, to bring upon it all the curses that are written in this book: and the LORD rooted them out of their land in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation, and cast them into another land, as it is this day. The secret things belong unto the LORD our God: but those things which are revealed belong unto us and to our children for ever, that we may do all the words of this law.

And when all these things are come upon thee, the blessing and the curse, which I have set before thee, and thou shalt call them to mind among all the nations, whither the LORD thy God hath driven thee, and shalt return unto the LORD thy God, and shalt obey his voice according to all that I command thee this day, thou and thy children, with all thy heart, and with all thy soul; then the LORD thy God will turn thy captivity, and have compassion upon thee, and will return and gather thee from all the nations, whither the LORD thy God hath scattered thee. If any of thine be driven out unto the uttermost parts of the heavens, from thence will the LORD thy God gather thee, and from thence will he fetch thee: and the LORD thy God will bring thee into the land which thy fathers possessed, and thou shalt possess it; and he will do thee good, and multiply thee above thy fathers. And the LORD thy God will circumcise thy heart, and the heart of thy seed, to love the LORD thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, that thou mayest live. And the LORD thy God will put all these curses upon thine enemies, and on those who hate thee, who persecuted thee. And thou shalt return and obey the voice of the LORD, and do all his commandments which I command thee this day. And the LORD thy God will make thee plenteous in every work of thy hand, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy land, for good: for the LORD will again rejoice over thee for good, as he rejoiced over thy fathers: if thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which are written in this book of the law, and if thou turn unto the LORD thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul.

For this commandment which I command thee this day, it is not hidden from thee, neither is it far off. It is not in the heavens, that thou shouldest say, Who shall go up for us to the heavens, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it? Neither is it beyond the sea, that thou shouldest say, Who shall go over the sea for us, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it? But the word is very nigh unto thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart, that thou mayest do it.

See, I have set before thee this day life and death, and good and evil; in that I command thee this day to love the LORD thy God, to walk in his ways, and to keep his commandments and his statutes and his judgments, that thou mayest live and multiply; and the LORD thy God shall bless thee in the land whither thou goest to possess it. But if thy heart turn away, so that thou wilt not hear, but shalt be drawn away, and worship other gods, and serve them; I denounce unto you this day, that ye shall surely perish, and that ye shall not prolong your days upon the 19 land, whither thou passest over the Jordan to go to possess it. I call the heavens and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live: 20 that thou mayest love the LORD thy God, and that thou mayest obey his voice, and that thou mayest cleave unto him; for he is thy life, and the length of thy days: that thou mayest dwell in the land of which the LORD swore unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give it to thee.

31 And Moses wrote this law, and delivered it unto the priests the sons of Levi, which bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and unto all the elders of Israel. And Moses commanded them, saying, At the end of every seven years, in the solemnity of the year of release, in the feast of tabernacles, when all Israel is come to appear before the LORD thy God in the place which he shall choose, thou shalt read this law before all Israel in their hearing. Gather the people together, men, and women, and children, and the stranger who is within thy gates, that they may hear, and that they may learn, and fear the LORD your God, and observe to do all the words of this law; and that their children, who have not known any thing, may hear, and learn to fear the LORD your God, as long as ye live in the land whither ye go over the Jordan to possess it.

14 AND the LORD said unto Moses, Behold, thy days approach that thou must die: call Joshua, and present yourselves in the tabernacle of the congregation, that I may give him a charge. And Moses and Joshua went, and presented themselves in the tabernacle of the congregation. And the LORD appeared in the tabernacle in a pillar of a cloud; and the pillar of the cloud stood over the door of the tabernacle. 23 And he gave Joshua the son of Nun a charge, and said, Be strong and of a good courage; for thou shalt bring the children of Israel into the land which I promised by oath unto them; and I will be with thee.

1 2 AND Moses went and spoke these words unto all Israel. And he said unto them, I am a hundred and twenty years old this day; I can no more go out and come in: 3 also the LORD hath said unto me, Thou shalt not go over this Jordan. The LORD thy God, he will go over before thee, and he will destroy these nations from before thee, and thou shalt possess them: and Joshua, he shall go over before thee, as the LORD hath said. And the LORD shall do unto them as he did to Sihon and to Og, kings of the Amorites, and unto the land of them, whom he destroyed. And the LORD shall give them up before your face, that ye may do unto them according 6 unto all the commandments which I have commanded you. Be strong and of a good courage, fear not, nor be afraid of them; for the LORD thy God, he it is who doth go with thee; he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee.

7 And Moses called unto Joshua, and said unto him in the sight of all Israel, Be strong and of a good courage; for thou must go with this people unto the land which the LORD hath sworn unto their fathers to give them; and thou shalt cause them to inherit it. And the LORD, he it is who doth go before thee; he will be with thee, he will not fail thee, neither forsake thee: fear not, neither be dismayed.

16 AND the LORD said unto Moses, Behold, thou shalt sleep with thy fathers; and this people will rise up, and go astray after the gods of the strangers of the land, whither they go to be among them, and will forsake me, and break my covenant which I have made with them. Then mine anger shall be kindled against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and I will hide my face from them, and they shall be devoured, and many evils and troubles shall befall them; so that they will say in that day, Are not these evils come upon us, because our God is not among us? And I will surely hide my face in that day for all the evils which they shall have wrought, 19 in that they are turned unto other gods. Now therefore write ye this song for you, and teach it the children of Israel: put it in their mouths, that this song may be a 20 witness for me against the children of Israel. For when I shall have brought them into the land of which I swore unto their fathers, that floweth with milk and honey; and they shall have eaten and filled themselves, and waxen fat; then will they turn 21 unto other gods, and serve them, and provoke me, and break my covenant. And when many evils and troubles have befallen them, this song shall testify against them as a witness; for it shall not be forgotten out of the mouths of their seed: for I know their imagination which they go about, even now, before I have brought them 22 into the land of which I swore. Moses therefore wrote this song the same day, and taught it to the children of Israel.

24 And when Moses had made an end of writing the words of this law in a book, until 25 they were finished, Moses commanded the Levites, who bore the ark of the covenant 26 of the LORD, saying, Take this book of the law, and put it by the side of the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, that it may be there for a witness against thee. For I know thy rebellion, and thy stiff neck : behold, while I am yet alive with you 27 this day, ye have been rebellious against the LORD ; and how much more after my death ! Gather unto me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may 28 speak these words in their ears, and call the heavens and the earth to record against them. For I know that after my death ye will utterly corrupt yourselves, and turn 29 aside from the way which I have commanded you ; and evil will befall you in the latter days ; because ye will do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger through the work of your hands.

And Moses spoke in the ears of all the congregation of Israel the words of this 30 song, until they were ended.

- 32 Give ear, O heavens, and I will speak ;
 And hear, O earth, the words of my mouth.
 2 My doctrine shall drop as the rain,
 My speech shall distil as the dew,
 As the small rain upon the tender herb,
 And as the showers upon the grass :
 3 When I mention the name of the LORD :
 Ascribe ye greatness unto our God.
 4 He is the Rock, his work is perfect :
 For all his ways are judgment :
 A God of truth and without iniquity,
 Just and right is he.
 5 His children have corrupted themselves by their pollution :
 That they are not his children, that is their blot :
 They are a perverse and crooked generation.
 6 Do ye thus requite the LORD,
 O foolish people and unwise ?
 Is not he thy father who redeemed thee ?
 Hath he not made thee, and established thee ?
 7 Remember the days of old,
 Consider the years of many generations :
 Ask thy father—and he will show thee ;
 Thine elders—and they will tell thee.
 8 When the Most High divided to the nations their inheritance,
 When he separated the sons of Adam,
 He set the bounds of the people
 According to the number of the children of Israel.
 9 For the LORD'S portion is his people ;
 Jacob is the lot of his inheritance.
 10 He supported him in a desert land,
 And in the waste howling wilderness ;
 He compassed him about, he instructed him,
 He kept him as the apple of his eye.
 11 As an eagle stirreth up her nest,
 Fluttereth over her young,
 Spreadeth abroad her wings,
 Taketh them, beareth them on her wings ;
 12 So the LORD alone did lead him,
 And there was no strange god with him.
 13 He made him ride on the high places of the earth,
 That he might eat the increase of the fields ;
 And he made him to suck honey out of the rock,
 And oil out of the flinty rock ;
 14 Butter of kine, and milk of sheep,
 With fat of lambs,
 And rams of the breed of Bashan, and goats,
 And with the finest of wheat ;
 And thou didst drink the pure blood of the grape.
 15 But Jacob ate, and was satiated :
 Jeshurun waxed fat, and kicked.
 Thou art waxen fat, thou art grown thick,
 Thou art covered with fatness ;

- Then he forsook God who made him,
And lightly esteemed the Rock of his salvation.
- 16 They provoked him to jealousy with strange gods,
With abominations provoked they him to anger.
- 17 They sacrificed unto demons, not to God;
To gods which they knew not,
To new gods which came newly up,
Which your fathers feared not.
- 18 Of the Rock that begat thee thou art unmindful,
And hast forgotten God who formed thee.
- 19 And when the LORD saw it, he abhorred them,
Because of the provoking of his sons, and of his daughters.
- 20 And he said, I will hide my face from them,
I will see what their end shall be;
For they are a very perverse generation,
Children in whom is no faith.
- 21 They have moved me to jealousy with that which is not God;
They have provoked me to anger with their vanities:
And I will move them to jealousy with those who are not a people;
I will provoke them to anger with a foolish nation.
- 22 For a fire is kindled in mine anger,
And shall burn unto the deepest destruction,
And shall consume the earth with her increase,
And set on fire the foundations of the mountains.
- 23 I will heap mischiefs upon them;
I will spend mine arrows upon them.
- 24 They shall be consumed with hunger, and devoured with burning heat,
And with bitter destruction:
I will also send the teeth of beasts upon them,
With the poison of serpents of the dust.
- 25 The sword without, and terror within,
Shall destroy both the young man and the virgin,
The suckling also with the man of gray hairs.
- 26 I said, I would scatter them into corners,
I would make the remembrance of them to cease from among men:
- 27 Were it not that I feared the wrath of the enemy,
Lest their adversaries should mistake,
And lest they should say, Our high hand,
And not the LORD, hath done all this.
- 28 For they are a nation void of counsel,
Neither is there any understanding in them.
- 29 Oh that they were wise, that they understood this,
That they would consider their latter end!
- 30 How should one chase a thousand,
And two put ten thousand to flight,
Except their Rock had sold them,
And the LORD had left them no way of escape?
- 31 For their rock is not as our Rock,
Even our enemies themselves being judges.
- 32 For their vine is worse than the vine of Sodom,
And of the fields of Gomorrah:
Their grapes are grapes of gall,
Their clusters are bitter:
- 33 Their wine is the poison of dragons,
And the cruel venom of asps.
- 34 Is not vengeance laid up in store with me,
And sealed up among my treasures?
- 35 To me belongeth vengeance, and recompence;
Their foot shall slide in due time:
For the day of their calamity is at hand,
And the things that shall come upon them make haste.
- 36 For the LORD shall judge his people,
And repent himself for his servants,
When he seeth that their power is gone,

- And there is none shut up, or left.
 37 And he shall say, Where are their rulers,
 Their helper in whom they trusted,
 38 Who did eat the fat of their sacrifices,
 And drank the wine of their drink offerings?
 Let them rise up and help you,
 Let them become your protection.
 39 See now that I, even I, am he,
 And there is no god with me:
 I kill, and I keep alive;
 I wound, and I heal:
 Neither is there any that can deliver out of my hand.
 40 For I lift up my hand to heaven,
 And say, Surely I live for ever.
 41 If I whet my glittering sword,
 And my hand take hold on judgment;
 I will render vengeance to mine enemies,
 And will reward those who hate me.
 42 I will make mine arrows drunk with blood,
 And my sword shall devour flesh;
 And that with the blood of the slain and of the captives,
 From the hairy heads of the enemy.
 43 Rejoice, O ye nations, with his people;
 For he will avenge the blood of his servants,
 And will render vengeance to his adversaries,
 And will be merciful unto his land, and to his people.

And Moses came and spoke all the words of this song in the ears of the people, he, 44 and Joshua the son of Nun. And Moses made an end of speaking all these words to 45 all Israel: and he said unto them, Consider attentively all the words which I testify 46 among you this day, which ye shall command your children to observe and do, all the words of this law. For it is not a light thing to you; because it is for your life: 47 and through this thing ye shall prolong your days in the land, whither ye go over the Jordan to possess it.

And the LORD spoke unto Moses that selfsame day, saying, Get thee up into this 48 49 mountain Abarim, unto mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab, that is over against Jericho; and behold the land of Canaan, which I give unto the children of Israel for a possession: and thou shalt die in the mount whither thou goest up, and 50 be gathered unto thy people; as Aaron thy brother died in mount Hor, and was gathered unto his people: because ye trespassed against me among the children of 51 Israel at the waters of Meribah at Kadesh, in the wilderness of Zin; because ye sanctified me not in the midst of the children of Israel. Yet thou shalt see the land before 52 thee; but thou shalt not go thither unto the land which I give the children of Israel.

And this is the blessing, wherewith Moses the man of God blessed the children of 33 Israel before his death, when the chiefs of the people of the tribes of Israel were assembled. And he said,

- The LORD came from Sinai,
 And rose up for them from Seir;
 He shone forth from mount Paran,
 And he came with ten thousands of saints:
 From the midst of the fire went a law for them.
 3 Yea, he loved the people;
 All his saints he blessed:
 And they sat down at his feet;
 And they received of his words.
 4 Jehovah commanded us a law,
 Even the inheritance of the congregation of Jacob.
 5 And he was king in Jeshurun,
 When the heads of the people
 And the tribes of Israel were gathered together.
 6 Let Reuben live, and not die;
 And let the men of Simeon be few.
 7 And this is the blessing of Judah: and he said, Hear, LORD, the voice of Judah,

- And bring him unto his people :
 Let his hands be sufficient for him ;
 And be thou a help to him from his enemies.
- 8 And of Levi he said,
 Let thy Thummim and thy Urim be with thy holy one,
 Whom thou didst prove at Massah,
 And with whom thou didst strive at the waters of Meribah ;
- 9 Who said unto his father and to his mother, I have not seen him ;
 Neither did he acknowledge his brethren,
 Nor knew his own children :
 For they have observed thy word,
 And kept thy covenant.
- 10 Let them teach Jacob thy judgments,
 And Israel thy law :
 Let them put incense before thee,
 And whole burnt sacrifice upon thine altar.
- 11 Bless, LORD, his substance,
 And accept the work of his hands :
 Smite the loins of those who rise against him,
 And of those who hate him, that they rise not again.
- 12 And of Benjamin he said,
 The beloved of the LORD shall dwell in safety by him ;
 The Most High shall cover him all the day long,
 And he shall dwell among the mountains.
- 13 And of Joseph he said,
 Blessed of the LORD be his land,
 For the precious things of the heavens,
 For the dew, and for the deep that coucheth beneath,
- 14 And for the precious fruits brought forth by the sun,
 And for the precious things put forth by the moon,
- 15 And for the chief things of the ancient mountains,
 And for the precious things of the lasting hills,
- 16 And for the precious things of the earth and fulness thereof,
 And for the good will of him who appeared to me in the bush :
 Let the blessing come upon the head of Joseph,
 And upon the top of the head of him who was separated from his brethren.
- 17 His glory is like the firstling of his bullock,
 And his horns are like the horns of an unicorn :
 With them he shall push the people Together to the ends of the earth :
 And they are the ten thousands of Ephraim,
 And they are the thousands of Manasseh.
- 18 And of Zebulun he said,
 Rejoice, Zebulun, in thy going out ;
 And, Issachar, in thy tents.
- 19 They shall call the people unto the mountain ;
 There they shall offer sacrifices of righteousness ;
 For they shall suck of the abundance of the seas,
 And of treasures hid in the sand.
- 20 And of Gad he said,
 Blessed be he who enlargeth Gad :
 He dwelleth as a lion, and teareth the arm with the crown of the head.
- 21 And he provided the first part for himself,
 Because there the portion of the lawgiver is hidden ;
 And he came with the heads of the people,
 He executed the justice of the LORD,
 And his judgments with Israel.
- 22 And of Dan he said,
 Dan is a lion's whelp :
 He shall leap from Bashan.
- 23 And of Naphtali he said,

O Naphtali, satisfied with favour,
And full with the blessing of the LORD :
Possess thou the west and the south.

- 24 And of Asher he said,
Let Asher be blessed with children ;
Let him be acceptable to his brethren,
And let him dip his foot in oil.
- 25 Thy shoes shall be as iron and brass ;
And as thy days, so shall thy strength be.
- 26 There is none like unto the God of Jeshurun,
Who rideth upon the heavens for thy help,
And in his excellency on the sky.
- 27 The eternal God is thy refuge,
And underneath thee are the everlasting arms :
And he shall thrust out the enemy from before thee ;
And shall say, Destroy them.
- 28 Israel then shall dwell in safety alone :
The fountain of Jacob shall be upon a land of corn and wine ;
Also his heavens shall drop down dew.
- 29 Happy art thou, O Israel :
Who is like unto thee, O people saved
By the LORD, the shield of thy help,
And the sword of thy excellency !
Thine enemies shall be subdued unto thee ;
And thou shalt tread upon their high places.

And Moses went up from the plains of Moab unto the mountain of Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, that is over against Jericho. And the LORD showed him all the land of Gilead, unto Dan, and all Naphtali, and the land of Ephraim, and Manasseh, and all the land of Judah, unto the utmost sea, and the south, and the plain of the valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees, unto Zoar. And the LORD said unto him, This is the land of which I swore unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, saying, I will give it unto thy seed : I have caused thee to see it with thine eyes, but thou shalt not go over thither. 34

So Moses the servant of the LORD died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the LORD. And he buried him in a valley in the land of Moab, over against Beth-peor : but no man knoweth of his sepulchre unto this day. And Moses was a hundred and twenty years old when he died : his eye was not dim, nor his natural force abated. And the children of Israel wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days : so the days of weeping and mourning for Moses were ended.

And Joshua the son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom ; for Moses had laid his hands upon him : and the children of Israel hearkened unto him, and did as the LORD commanded Moses.

And there arose not a prophet since in Israel like unto Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face, in all the signs and the wonders, which the LORD sent him to do in the land of Egypt to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all his land, and in all that mighty hand, and in all the great terror which Moses showed in the sight of all Israel.

THE BOOK OF JOSHUA.

- 1 NOW after the death of Moses the servant of the LORD, the LORD spoke unto Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' minister, saying, Moses my servant is dead; now therefore arise, go over this Jordan, thou, and all this people, unto the land which I do give to them, even to the children of Israel. Every place that the sole of your foot shall tread upon, that have I given unto you, as I said unto Moses. From the wilderness and this Lebanon even unto the great river, the river Euphrates, and unto the great sea towards the going down of the sun, shall be your coast. There shall not any man be able to stand before thee all the days of thy life: as I was with Moses, so I will be with thee: I will not fail thee, nor forsake thee. Be strong and of a good courage: for thou shalt cause this people to inherit the land, which I swore unto their fathers to give them. Only be thou strong and very courageous, that thou mayest observe to do according to all the law, which Moses my servant commanded thee: turn not from it to the right hand or to the left, that thou mayest prosper whithersoever thou goest. This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success. Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed; for the LORD thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest.
- 10 11 Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying, Pass through the host, and command the people, saying, Prepare you victuals; for within three days ye shall pass over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land, which the LORD your God giveth you to possess.
- 12 And to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to half the tribe of Manasseh, spoke Joshua, saying, Remember the word which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, saying, The LORD your God hath given you rest, and hath given you this land. Your wives, your little ones, and your cattle, shall remain in the land which Moses gave you on this side the Jordan; but ye shall pass before your brethren armed, all the mighty men of valour, and help them; until the LORD have given your brethren rest, as he hath given you, and they also have possessed the land which the LORD your God giveth them: then ye shall return unto the land of your possession, and enjoy it, which Moses the LORD'S servant gave you on this side the Jordan towards the sunrising.
- 16 And they answered Joshua, saying, All that thou commandest us we will do, and whithersoever thou sendest us, we will go. According as we hearkened unto Moses in all things, so will we hearken unto thee: only the LORD thy God be with thee, as he was with Moses. Whosoever he be that doth rebel against thy commandment, and will not hearken unto thy words in all that thou commandest him, he shall be put to death: only be strong and of a good courage.
- 2 AND Joshua the son of Nun sent out of Shittim two men as spies, secretly, saying, Go view the land, even Jericho. And they went, and came into a harlot's house, named Rahab, and lodged there.
- 2 And it was told the king of Jericho, saying, Behold, there came men in hither to night of the children of Israel to search out the country. And the king of Jericho sent unto Rahab, saying, Bring forth the men who are come to thee, who are entered into thy house: for they are come to search out all the country.
- 4 And the woman took the two men, and hid them, and said, It is true, there came men unto me, but I knew not whence they came: and about the time of shutting of the gate, when it was dark, the men went out: whither the men went I know not: pursue after them quickly; for ye shall overtake them. (But she had taken them up to the roof of the house, and hid them with the stalks of flax, which she had laid in order upon the roof.) And the men pursued after them the way to the Jordan unto the fords: and as soon as they who pursued after them were gone out, they shut the gate.
- 8 9 And before they were laid down, she went up unto them upon the roof; and she said unto the men, I know that the LORD hath given you the land, and that the dread of you is fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land faint because of you : for we have heard how the LORD dried up the water of the Red 10 Sea for you, when ye came out of Egypt; and what ye did unto the two kings of the Amorites, who were on the other side the Jordan, Sihon and Og, whom ye utterly 11 destroyed. And as soon as we had heard these things, our hearts melted, neither did there remain any more courage in any man, because of you : for the LORD your 12 God, he is God in the heavens above, and in earth beneath. Now therefore, I pray you, swear unto me by the LORD, since I have showed you kindness, that ye will 13 also show kindness unto my father's house, and give me a true token : and that ye will save alive my father, and my mother, and my brethren, and my sisters, and all 14 that they have, and deliver our lives from death.

And the men answered her, Our life for yours, if thou utter not this our busi- 14 ness. And when the LORD hath given us the land, we will deal kindly and truly with thee. Then she let them down by a cord through the window; for her house 15 was upon the side of the town wall, and she dwelt upon the wall. And she said 16 unto them, Get you to the mountain, lest the pursuers meet you; and hide yourselves there three days, until the pursuers be returned; and afterwards may ye go your way.

And the men said unto her, We will be blameless of this thine oath which thou 17 hast made us swear. Behold, when we come into the land, thou shalt bind this 18 line of scarlet thread in the window which thou didst let us down by; and thou shalt bring thy father, and thy mother, and thy brethren, and all thy father's household, home unto thee. And whosoever shall go out of the doors of thy house into the 19 street, his blood shall be upon his head, and we will be guiltless; and whosoever shall be with thee in the house, his blood shall be on our head, if any hand be upon 20 him. And if thou utter this our business, then we will be quit of thine oath which thou hast made us to swear. And she said, According unto your words, so be it. 21
 And she sent them away, and they departed; and she bound the scarlet line in the window.

And they went, and came unto the mountain, and abode there three days, until the 22 pursuers were returned: and the pursuers sought them throughout all the way, but found them not. So the two men returned, and descended from the mountain, and 23 passed over, and came to Joshua the son of Nun, and told him all things that befell them: and they said unto Joshua, Truly the LORD hath delivered into our hands 24 all the land; for even all the inhabitants of the country do faint because of us.

And Joshua rose early in the morning; and they removed from Shittim, and came 3 to the Jordan, he and all the children of Israel, and lodged there before they passed over. And after three days, the officers went through the host; and they commanded 2 3 the people, saying, When ye see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, and the priests the Levites bearing it, then ye shall remove from your place, and go after it. Yet there shall be a space between you and it, about two thousand cubits 4 by measure: come not near unto it, that ye may know the way by which ye must go: for ye have not passed this way heretofore.

And Joshua said unto the people, Prepare yourselves: for to-morrow the LORD 5 will do wonders among you. And Joshua spoke unto the priests, saying, Take up 6 the ark of the covenant, and pass over before the people. And they took up the ark of the covenant, and went before the people.

And the LORD said unto Joshua, This day will I begin to magnify thee in the 7 sight of all Israel, that they may know that, as I was with Moses, so I will be with thee. And thou shalt command the priests who bear the ark of the covenant, saying, 8 When ye are come to the brink of the water of the Jordan, ye shall stand still in the Jordan.

And Joshua said unto the children of Israel, Come hither, and hear the words 9 of the LORD your God. And Joshua said, Hereby ye shall know that the living God 10 is among you, and that he will without fail drive out from before you the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Hivites, and the Perizzites, and the Gergashites, and 11 the Amorites, and the Jebusites. Behold, the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth passeth over before you into the Jordan. Now therefore take you 12 twelve men out of the tribes of Israel, out of every tribe a man. And as soon as the soles of the feet of the priests who bear the ark of the LORD, the Lord of all the 13 earth, shall rest in the waters of the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan shall be cut off, even the waters that come down from above; and they shall stand upon a heap.

And when the people removed from their tents, to pass over the Jordan, and the 14 priests bearing the ark of the covenant before the people; and as they who bore the 15 ark were come unto the Jordan, and the feet of the priests who bore the ark were

- dipped in the edge of the water, (for the Jordan overfloweth all its banks all the time of harvest,) the waters which came down from above stood and rose up upon a heap very far from the city Adam, that is beside Zaretan: and those that came down towards the sea of the plain, even the salt sea, were entirely cut off; and the people passed over right against Jericho. And the priests who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood firm on dry ground in the midst of the Jordan, and all the Israelites passed over on dry ground, until all the people had completely passed over the Jordan.
- 4 And when all the people had completely passed over the Jordan, the LORD spoke unto Joshua, saying, Take you twelve men out of the people, out of every tribe a man, and command ye them, saying, Take you hence out of the midst of the Jordan, out of the place where the priests' feet stood firm, twelve stones, and ye shall carry them over with you, and leave them in the lodging place, where ye shall lodge this night.
- 4 Then Joshua called the twelve men, whom he had prepared of the children of Israel, out of every tribe a man: and Joshua said unto them, Pass over before the ark of the LORD your God into the midst of the Jordan, and take you up every man of you a stone upon his shoulder, according unto the number of the tribes of the children of Israel: that this may be a sign among you, that when your children ask their fathers in time to come, saying, What mean ye by these stones? Then ye shall answer them, That the waters of the Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD; when it passed over the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off: and these stones shall be for a memorial unto the children of Israel for ever.
- 8 And the children of Israel did so as Joshua commanded, and took up twelve stones out of the midst of the Jordan, as the LORD spoke unto Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, and carried them over with them unto the place where they lodged, and laid them down there. And Joshua set up twelve other stones in the midst of the Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests who bore the ark of the covenant stood: and they are there unto this day.
- 10 For the priests who bore the ark stood in the midst of the Jordan, until every thing was finished that the LORD commanded Joshua to speak unto the people, according to all that Moses commanded Joshua: and the people hastened and passed over. And when all the people had entirely passed over, the ark of the LORD passed over, and the priests, in the presence of the people. And the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Manassah, passed over armed before the children of Israel, as Moses spoke unto them: about forty thousand ready armed for war passed over before the LORD unto battle, to the plains of Jericho.
- 14 On that day the LORD magnified Joshua in the sight of all Israel; and they feared him, as they feared Moses, all the days of his life.
- 15 16 And the LORD spoke unto Joshua, saying, Command the priests who bear the ark of the testimony, that they come up out of the Jordan. Joshua therefore commanded the priests, saying, Come ye up out of the Jordan. And when the priests who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD were come up out of the midst of the Jordan, and the soles of the priests' feet were lifted upon the dry land, the waters of the Jordan returned unto their place, and flowed over all its banks, as they did before.
- 19 And the people came up out of the Jordan on the tenth day of the first month, and encamped in Gilgal, in the east border of Jericho. And those twelve stones, which they took out of the Jordan, did Joshua pitch in Gilgal. And he spoke unto the children of Israel, saying, When your children shall ask their fathers in time to come, saying, What mean these stones? Then ye shall let your children know, saying, Israel came over this Jordan on dry land. For the LORD your God dried up the waters of the Jordan from before you, until ye were passed over, as the LORD your God did to the Red Sea, which he dried up from before us, until we were gone over: that all the people of this land might know that the hand of the LORD is mighty; and that ye might fear the LORD your God for ever.
- 5 AND when all the kings of the Amorites, who were on the side of the Jordan westward, and all the kings of the Canaanites, who were by the sea, heard that the LORD had dried up the waters of the Jordan from before the children of Israel, until they were passed over, their heart melted, neither was there spirit in them any more, because of the children of Israel.
- 2 At that time the LORD said unto Joshua, Make thee sharp knives of flints, and circumcise again the children of Israel the second time. And Joshua made him sharp knives, and circumcised the children of Israel at Gibeath-aaraloth [THE HILL OF THE FORESKINS]. And this is the cause why Joshua did circumcise: all the people who came out of Egypt, who were males, even all the men of war, died in the wilderness by the way, after they came out of Egypt. Now all the people who came out were circumcised; but all the people who were born in the wilderness by the way as they came forth out of Egypt, they had not circumcised. For the children of Israel walked forty years in the wilderness, till all the people who were men of war, who came out of Egypt, were consumed, because they obeyed not the voice of the LORD: unto whom the LORD swore that he would not show them the land, which the LORD swore unto their fathers that he would give them, a land that floweth with milk and honey. And their children, whom he raised up in their stead, them Joshua circumcised; for they were uncircumcised, because they had not circumcised them by the way. And when they had done circumcising all the people, they abode in their places in the camp, till they were whole. And the LORD said unto Joshua, This day have I rolled away the reproach of Egypt from off you: wherefore the name of the place is called Gilgal unto this day.

AND the children of Israel encamped in Gilgal, and kept the passover on the fourteenth day of the month at evening in the plains of Jericho. And they did eat of the produce of the last year of the land on the morrow after the passover, unleavened cakes, and parched corn on the selfsame day. And the manna ceased on the morrow after they had eaten of the produce of the land; neither had the children of Israel manna any more; but they did eat of the fruit of the land of Canaan that year.

And when Joshua was in the plains of Jericho, he lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, there stood a man over against him with his sword drawn in his hand: and Joshua went unto him, and said unto him, Art thou for us, or for our adversaries? And he answered him, As captain of the host of the LORD am I now come. And Joshua fell on his face to the earth, and did worship, and said unto him, What saith my lord unto his servant? And the captain of the LORD'S host said unto Joshua, Loose thy shoe from off thy foot; for the place whereon thou standest is holy. And Joshua did so.

Now Jericho was closely shut up because of the children of Israel: none went out, and none came in. And the LORD said unto Joshua, See, I have given into thy hand Jericho, and the king thereof, and the mighty men of valour. And ye shall compass the city, all ye men of war, and go round about the city once. Thus shalt thou do six days. And seven priests shall bear before the ark seven trumpets of rams' horns; and the seventh day ye shall compass the city seven times, and the priests shall blow with the trumpets. And when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, and when ye hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people shall shout with a great shout; and the wall of the city shall fall down, and the people shall ascend up every man straight before him.

AND Joshua the son of Nun called the priests, and said unto them, Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD. And he said unto the people, Pass on, and compass the city, and let him who is armed pass on before the ark of the LORD.

And when Joshua had spoken unto the people, the seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns passed on before the LORD, and blew with the trumpets: and the ark of the covenant of the LORD followed them. And the armed men went before the priests who blew with the trumpets, and the gathering hosts came after the ark, the priests going on, and blowing with the trumpets. And Joshua had commanded the people, saying, Ye shall not shout, nor make your voice to be heard, neither shall any word proceed out of your mouth, until the day I bid you shout; then shall ye shout. So the ark of the LORD compassed the city, going about it once: and they came into the camp, and lodged in the camp.

And Joshua rose early in the morning, and the priests took up the ark of the LORD. And seven priests bearing seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD went on continually, and blew with the trumpets; and the armed men went before them; but the gathering hosts came after the ark of the LORD, the priests going on, and blowing with the trumpets. And the second day they compassed the city once, and returned into the camp: so they did six days.

And on the seventh day they rose early about the dawning of the day, and compassed the city after the same manner seven times: only on that day they compassed the city seven times. And at the seventh time, when the priests blew with the trumpets, Joshua said unto the people, Shout; for the LORD hath given you the city. And the city shall be accursed, even it, and all that is therein, to the LORD: only Rahab the harlot shall live, she and all who are with her in the house, because she hid the messengers whom we sent. And ye, in any wise keep yourselves from the accursed thing, lest ye make yourselves accursed, when ye take of the accursed thing, and make the camp of Israel a curse, and trouble it. But all the silver, and gold, and vessels of brass and iron, are consecrated unto the LORD: they shall come into the treasury of the LORD.

So the people shouted when the priests blew with the trumpets: and when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, and the people shouted with a great shout, the wall fell down, so that the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city. And they utterly destroyed all that was in the city, both man and woman, young and old, and ox, and sheep, and ass, with the edge of the sword.

But Joshua had said unto the two men who had spied out the country, Go into the harlot's house, and bring out thence the woman, and all that she hath, as ye swore unto her. And the young men who were the spies went in, and brought out Rahab, and her father, and her mother, and her brethren, and all that she had; and they brought out all her kindred, and left them without the camp of Israel.

And they burnt the city with fire, and all that was therein: only the silver, and the gold, and the vessels of brass and of iron, they put into the treasury of the house of the LORD.

And Joshua saved Rahab the harlot alive, and her father's household, and all that she had; and she dwelleth in Israel even unto this day; because she hid the messengers, whom Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.

And Joshua adjured them at that time, saying, Cursed be the man before the LORD, who riseth up and buildeth this city Jericho: he shall lay the foundation thereof in his firstborn, and in his youngest son shall he set up the gates of it.

So the LORD was with Joshua; and his fame was noised throughout all the country.

BUT the children of Israel committed a trespass in the accursed things; for Achar, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took of the accursed thing; and the anger of the LORD was kindled against the children of Israel.

And Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is beside Beth-aven, on the east side of Beth-el, and spoke unto them, saying, Go up and view the country. And the men went up and viewed Ai. And they returned to Joshua, and said unto him, Let not all the people go up; but let about two or three thousand men go up and smite Ai; and make not all the people to labour thither; for they are but few. So there went up thither of the people about three thousand men: and they fled before the men of Ai. And the men of Ai smote of them about thirty and six men; for they chased them from before the gate even unto Shebarim, and smote them in the going down of the sun: wherefore the hearts of the people melted, and became as water.

And Joshua rent his clothes, and fell to the earth upon his face before the ark of the LORD until the eventide, he and the elders of Israel, and put dust upon their heads. And Joshua said, Alas! O Lord God, wherefore hast thou at all brought this people over the Jordan, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us? Oh that we had been content, and remained on the other side the Jordan! O LORD, what shall I say, when Israel turneth their backs before their enemies! For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land shall hear of it, and shall environ us round, and cut off our name from the earth: and what wilt thou do for thy great name?

And the LORD said unto Joshua, Get thee up; wherefore fallest thou thus upon thy face? Israel hath sinned, and they have also transgressed my covenant which I commanded them: for they have even taken of the accursed thing, and have also stolen, and dissembled also, and they have put it even among their own stuff. Therefore the children of Israel could not stand before their enemies, but turned their backs before their enemies, because they were accursed: neither will I be with you any more, except ye destroy the accursed from among you. Up, sanctify the people, and say, Prepare yourselves against to-morrow; for thus saith the LORD God of Israel, There is an accursed thing in the midst of thee, O Israel: thou canst not stand before thine enemies, until ye take away the accursed thing from among you. In the morning therefore ye shall be brought according to your tribes; and the tribe which the LORD taketh shall come according to the families thereof; and the family which the LORD shall take shall come by households; and the household which the LORD shall take shall come man by man. And he who is taken with the accursed thing shall be burnt with fire, he and all that he hath: because he hath transgressed the covenant of the LORD, and because he hath wrought wickedness in Israel.

So Joshua rose up early in the morning, and brought Israel by their tribes; and the tribe of Judah was taken: and he brought the family of Judah; and he took the family of the Zarithes; and he brought the family of the Zarithes man by man; and Zabdi was taken: and he brought his household man by man; and Achar, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken.

And Joshua said unto Achar, My son, give, I pray thee, glory to the LORD God of Israel, and make confession unto him; and tell me now what thou hast done; hide it not from me. And Achar answered Joshua, and said, Indeed I have sinned against the LORD God of Israel, and thus and thus have I done: when I saw among the spoils a goodly Babylonish garment, and two hundred shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold of fifty shekels weight, then I coveted them, and took them; and, behold, they are hid in the earth in the midst of my tent, and the silver under it. So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran unto the tent; and, behold, it was hid in his tent, and the silver under it. And they took them out of the midst of the tent, and brought them unto Joshua, and unto all the children of Israel, and laid them out before the LORD.

And Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achar the son of Zerah, and the silver, and the garment, and the wedge of gold, and his sons, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his asses, and his sheep, and his tent, and all that he had; and they brought them unto the valley of Achor. And Joshua said, Why hast thou troubled us? the LORD shall trouble thee this day. And all Israel stoned them with stones, and after they had stoned them with stones, they burnt him and all that belonged to him with fire. And they raised over him a great heap of stones unto this day. So the LORD turned from the fierceness of his anger. Wherefore the name of that place is called, The valley of Achor [TROUBLE], unto this day.

AND the LORD said unto Joshua, Fear not, neither be thou dismayed: take all the people of war with thee, and arise, go up to Ai: see, I have given into thy hand the king of Ai, and his people, and his city, and his land: and thou shalt do to Ai and her king as thou didst unto Jericho and her king: only the spoil thereof, and the cattle thereof, shall ye take for a prey unto yourselves: lay thee an ambush for the city behind it.

So Joshua arose, and all the people of war, to go up against Ai: and Joshua chose out thirty thousand mighty men of valour, and sent them away by night. And he commanded them, saying, Behold, ye shall lie in wait against the city, even behind the city: go not very far from the city, but be ye all ready: and I, and all the people who are with me, will approach unto the city; and when they come out against us, as at the first, we will flee before them, (for they will come out after us) till we have drawn them from the city; for they will say, They flee before us, as at the first; therefore we will flee before them. Then ye shall rise up from the ambush, and seize upon the city: for the LORD your God will deliver it into your hand. And when ye have taken the city, ye shall set the city on fire: according to the commandment of the LORD shall ye do. See, I have commanded you. Joshua therefore sent them forth: and they went to lie in ambush, and abode between Beth-el and Ai, on the west side of Ai; but Joshua lodged that night among the people.

And Joshua rose up early in the morning, and numbered the people, and went up, he and the elders of Israel, before the people to Ai. And all the people, even the people of war who were with him, went up, and drew nigh, and came before the city, and pitched on the north side of Ai: now there was a valley between them and Ai. And he took about five thousand men, and set them to lie in ambush between Beth-el and Ai, on the west side of the city. And when they had set the people, even all the host who were on the north of the city, and their liers in wait on the west of the city, Joshua went that night into the midst of the valley. And when the king of Ai and his people saw them, they hastened and rose up early, and the men of the city went out against Israel to battle, he and all his people, at a time appointed, before the plain; but he knew not that there were liers in ambush against him behind the city. And Joshua and all Israel made as if they were beaten before them, and fled by the way of the wilderness. And all the people who were in Ai were called together to pursue after them; and they pursued after Joshua, and were drawn away from the city. And there was not a man left in Ai, who went not out after Israel: and they left the city open, and pursued after Israel.

And the LORD said unto Joshua, Stretch out the spear that is in thy hand towards Ai; for I will give it into thy hand. And Joshua stretched out the spear that he had in his hand towards the city. And the ambush arose quickly out of their place, and they ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand; and they entered into the city,

JOSHUA IX.

- 20 and took it, and hastened and set the city on fire. And when the men of Ai looked behind them, they saw, and, behold, the smoke of the city ascended up to the heavens, and they had no power to flee this way or that way; and the people who fled
- 21 to the wilderness turned back upon the pursuers. And when Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city, and that the smoke of the city ascended,
- 22 then they turned again, and slew the men of Ai. And the other issued out of the city against them; so they were in the midst of Israel, some on this side, and some on that side; and they smote them, so that they let none of them remain or escape.
- 23 And the king of Ai they took alive, and brought him to Joshua.
- 24 And when Israel had made an end of slaying all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, in the wilderness wherein they chased them, and when they were all fallen on the edge of the sword, until they were consumed, all the Israelites returned unto Ai, and
- 25 smote it with the edge of the sword. And all who fell that day, both of men and
- 26 women, were twelve thousand, even all the men of Ai. For Joshua drew not his hand back, wherewith he stretched out the spear, until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai. Only the cattle and the spoil of that city the children of Israel took for a prey unto themselves, according unto the word of the LORD which
- 28 he commanded Joshua. And Joshua burnt Ai, and made it a heap for ever, even a desolation unto this day. And the king of Ai he hanged on a tree until eventide;
- 29 and as soon as the sun was down, Joshua commanded that they should take his carcass down from the tree, and cast it at the entering of the gate of the city, and raise thereon a great heap of stones, that remaineth unto this day.
- 30 31 THEN Joshua built an altar unto the LORD God of Israel in mount Ebal, as Moses the servant of the LORD commanded the children of Israel, as it is written in the book of the law of Moses, an altar of whole stones, over which no man hath lifted up any iron: and they offered thereon burnt offerings unto the LORD, and sacrificed
- 32 peace offerings. And he wrote there upon the stones a copy of the law of Moses,
- 33 which he wrote in the presence of the children of Israel. And all Israel, and their elders, and officers, and their judges, stood on this side the ark and on that side before the priests the Levites, who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, as well the stranger, as he who was born among them; half of them over against mount Gerizim, and half of them over against mount Ebal; as Moses the servant of the LORD
- 34 had commanded before, that they should bless the people of Israel. And afterwards he read all the words of the law, the blessings and cursings, according to all that is
- 35 written in the book of the law. There was not a word of all that Moses commanded, which Joshua read not before all the congregation of Israel, with the women, and the little ones, and the strangers who dwelt among them.
- 9 AND when all the kings who were on this side the Jordan, in the hills, and in the valleys, and in all the coasts of the great sea nigh to Lebanon, the Hittite, and the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, heard thereof;
- 2 they gathered themselves together, to fight with Joshua and with Israel, with one accord.
- 3 And when the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done unto Jericho
- 4 and to Ai, they did work wily, and went and provided themselves with food, and
- 5 took old sacks upon their asses, and wine bottles, old, and rent, and bound up; and old shoes patched upon their feet, and old garments upon them; and all the bread
- 6 of their provision was dry and mouldy. And they went to Joshua unto the camp at Gilgal, and said unto him, and to the men of Israel, We are come from a far
- 7 country: now therefore make ye a league with us. And the men of Israel said unto the Hivites, Peradventure ye dwell among us; and how shall we make a league with
- 8 you? And they said unto Joshua, We are thy servants. And Joshua said unto them,
- 9 Who are ye? and from whence come ye? And they said unto him, From a very far country thy servants are come because of the name of the LORD thy God; for we
- 10 have heard the fame of him, and all that he did in Egypt, and all that he did to the two kings of the Amorites, who were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon king of Heshbon,
- 11 and to Og king of Bashan, who was at Ashtaroth. Wherefore our elders and all the inhabitants of our country spoke to us, saying, Take victuals with you for the journey, and go to meet them, and say unto them, We are your servants; therefore
- 12 now make ye a league with us. This our bread we took hot for our provision out of our houses on the day we came forth to go unto you; but now, behold, it is dry,
- 13 and it is mouldy: and these bottles of wine, which we filled, were new; and, behold, they are rent; and these our garments and our shoes are become old by reason of
- 14 the very long journey. And the men took of their victuals, and asked not counsel
- 15 at the mouth of the LORD. And Joshua made peace with them, and made a league with them, to let them live : and the princes of the congregation swore unto them.

And at the end of three days after they had made a league with them, they heard 16 that they were their neighbours, and that they dwelt among them. And the children 17 of Israel journeyed, and came unto their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gibeon, and Chephirah, and Beeroth, and Kirjath-jearim. And the children 18 of Israel smote them not, because the princes of the congregation had sworn unto them by the LORD God of Israel. And all the congregation murmured against the princes.

But all the princes said unto all the congregation, We have sworn unto them by 19 the LORD God of Israel : now therefore we may not touch them. This we will do 20 to them ; we will even let them live, lest wrath be upon us, because of the oath which we swore unto them. And the princes said unto them, Ye shall live ; but ye 21 shall be hewers of wood and drawers of water unto all the congregation ; and they became hewers of wood and drawers of water, as the princes promised them.

And Joshua called for them, and he spoke unto them, saying, Wherefore have 22 ye beguiled us, saying, We are very far from you ; when ye dwell among us ? Now 23 therefore ye are cursed, and there shall none of you be freed from being bondmen, and bawlers of wood and drawers of water for the house of my God. And they answered Joshua, and said, Because it was certainly told thy servants, how that the LORD thy God commanded his servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you, therefore we were sore afraid 24 of our lives because of you, and have done this thing. And now, behold, we are in 25 thy hand : as it seemeth good and right unto thee to do unto us, do. And so did 26 he unto them, and delivered them out of the hand of the children of Israel, that they slew them not. And Joshua made them that day hewers of wood and drawers 27 of water for the congregation, and for the altar of the LORD, even unto this day, in the place which he should choose.

NOW when Adoni-zedec king of Jerusalem had heard how Joshua had taken Ai, 10 and had utterly destroyed it ; as he had done to Jericho and her king, so he had done to Ai and her king ; and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were among them ; Adoni-zedec feared greatly, because Gibeon was a 2 great city, as one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all the men thereof were mighty. Wherefore Adoni-zedec king of Jerusalem sent unto 3 Hoham king of Hebron, and unto Piram king of Jarmuth, and unto Japhia king of Lachish, and unto Debir king of Eglon, saying, Come up unto me, and help me, that 4 we may smite Gibeon ; for it hath made peace with Joshua and with the children of Israel. Therefore the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of 5 Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon, gathered themselves together, and went up, they and all their hosts, and encamped before Gibeon, and made war against it.

And the men of Gibeon sent unto Joshua to the camp to Gilgal, saying, Slack not 6 thy hand from thy servants ; come up to us quickly, and save us, and help us ; for all the kings of the Amorites who dwell in the mountains are gathered together against us. So Joshua ascended from Gilgal, he, and all the people of war with him, 7 and all the mighty men of valour. And the LORD said unto Joshua, Fear them 8 not : for I have delivered them into thy hand ; there shall not a man of them stand before thee. Joshua therefore came unto them suddenly, and went up from Gilgal all 9 night. And the LORD discomfited them before Israel, and slew them with a great 10 slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them along the way that goeth up to Beth-horon, and smote them to Azekah, and unto Makkedah. And as they fled from before Is- 11 rael, and were in the going down to Beth-horon, the LORD cast down great stones from the heavens upon them unto Azekah, and they died : they were more who died with hailstones than they whom the children of Israel slew with the sword.

Then spoke Joshua to the LORD in the day when the LORD delivered up the 12 Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, Sun, stand thou still upon Gibeon ; and thou, Moon, in the valley of Ajalon ! and the sun stood 13 still, and the moon stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. Is not this written in the book of Jasher ? So the sun stood still in the midst 14 of the heavens, and hastened not to go down about a whole day. And there never was before or since so long a day ; the LORD hearkening unto the voice of a man fought for Israel. And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, unto the camp to 15 Gilgal.

But these five kings fled, and hid themselves in a cave at Makkedah. And it 16 17

JOSHUA XI.

- 18 was told Joshua, saying, The five kings are found hid in a cave at Makkedah. And Joshua said, Roll great stones upon the mouth of the cave, and set men by it to
- 19 keep them : and stay ye not, but pursue after your enemies, and smite the hindmost of them ; suffer them not to enter into their cities ; for the LORD your God hath delivered them into your hand. And when Joshua and the children of Israel had made an end of slaying them with a very great slaughter, till they were consumed, the rest who remained of them entered into fenced cities. And all the people returned to the camp to Joshua at Makkedah in peace : none moved his tongue against any of the children of Israel.
- 22 Then said Joshua, Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out those five kings unto me out of the cave. And they did so, and brought forth those five kings unto him out of the cave, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon. And when they brought out those kings unto Joshua, Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said unto the captains of the men of war who went with him, Come near, put your feet upon the necks of these kings. And they came near, and put their feet upon the necks of
- 25 them. And Joshua said unto them, Fear not, nor be dismayed, be strong and of good courage ; for thus shall the LORD do to all your enemies against whom ye fight. And afterwards Joshua smote them, and slew them, and hanged them on five
- 27 trees : and they were hanging upon the trees until the evening. And at the time of the going down of the sun, Joshua commanded, and they took them down off the trees, and cast them into the cave wherein they had been hid, and laid great stones in the cave's mouth, which remain until this very day.
- 28 And that day Joshua took Makkedah, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof he utterly destroyed, them, and all who were therein ; he let none remain : and he did to the king of Makkedah as he did unto the king of Jericho.
- 29 Then Joshua passed from Makkedah, and all Israel with him, unto Libnah, and
- 30 fought against Libnah : and the LORD delivered it also, and the king thereof, into the hand of Israel ; and he smote it with the edge of the sword, and all who were therein ; he let none remain in it ; but did unto the king thereof as he did unto the king of Jericho.
- 31 And Joshua passed from Libnah, and all Israel with him, unto Lachish, and encamped against it, and fought against it : and the LORD delivered Lachish into the hand of Israel, who took it on the second day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all who were therein, according to all that he had done to Libnah.
- 33 Then Horam king of Gezer came up to help Lachish ; and Joshua smote him and his people, until he had left him none remaining.
- 34 And from Lachish Joshua passed unto Eglon, and all Israel with him ; and they
- 35 encamped against it, and fought against it : and they took it on that day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all who were therein he utterly destroyed that day, according to all that he had done to Lachish.
- 36 And Joshua went up from Eglon, and all Israel with him, unto Hebron ; and
- 37 they fought against it : and they took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof, and all who were therein ; he left none remaining, according to all that he had done to Eglon ; but destroyed it utterly, and all who were therein.
- 38 39 And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to Debir ; and fought against it : and he took it, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof ; and they smote them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed all who were therein ; he left none remaining : as he had done to Hebron, so he did to Debir, and to the king thereof ; as he had done also to Libnah, and its king.
- 40 So Joshua smote all the country of the hills, and of the south, and of the vale, and of the springs, and all their kings : he left none remaining, but utterly destroyed
- 41 all who breathed, as the LORD God of Israel commanded. And Joshua smote them from Kadesh-barnea even unto Gaza, and all the country of Goshen, even unto
- 42 Gibeon. And all these kings and their land did Joshua take at one time, because
- 43 the LORD God of Israel fought for Israel. And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, unto the camp to Gilgal.
- 11 AND when Jabin king of Hazor had heard those things, he sent to Jobab king of Madon, and to the king of Shimron, and to the king of Achshaph, and to the kings who were on the north of the mountains, and of the plains south of Chinneroth,
- 3 and in the valley, and in the borders of Dor on the west, and to the Canaanite on the east and on the west, and to the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite and the Jebusite in the mountains, and to the Hivite under Hermon in the land of Mizpeh. And they went out, they and all their hosts with them, much people, even as the sand that is upon the sea shore in multitude, with horses and chariots very many. And when all these kings were assembled by appointment, they came and pitched together at the waters of Merom, to fight against Israel.

And the LORD said unto Joshua, Be not afraid because of them; for to-morrow about this time will I deliver them up all slain before Israel: thou shalt ham-string their horses, and burn their chariots with fire. So Joshua came, and all the people of war with him, against them by the waters of Merom suddenly; and they fell upon them. And the LORD delivered them into the hand of Israel, who smote them, and chased them unto great Zidon, and unto Misrephoth-maim, and unto the valley of Mizpeh eastward; and they smote them, until they left them none remaining. And Joshua did unto them as the LORD bade him: he ham-strung their horses, and burnt their chariots with fire.

And Joshua at that time turned back, and took Hazor, and smote the king thereof with the sword: for Hazor beforetime was the head of all those kingdoms. And they smote all who were therein with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying them: there was not any left to breathe: and he burnt Hazor with fire. And all the cities of those kings, and all the kings of them, did Joshua take, and smote them with the edge of the sword, and he utterly destroyed them, as Moses the servant of the LORD commanded. But as for the cities that stood on the hills, Israel burnt none of them, save Hazor only; that did Joshua burn. And all the spoil of these cities, and the cattle, the children of Israel took for a prey unto themselves; but every man they smote with the edge of the sword, until they had destroyed them, neither left they any to breathe. As the LORD commanded Moses his servant, so did Moses command Joshua, and so did Joshua; he left nothing undone of all that the LORD commanded Moses.

So Joshua took all that land, the hills, and all the south country, and all the land of Goshen, and the valley, and the plain, and the mountain of Israel, and the valley of the same: even from the mount Halak, that goeth up to Seir, even unto Baalgad in the valley of Lebanon under mount Hermon: and all their kings he took, and smote them, and slew them. Joshua made war a long time with all those kings.

There was not a city that made peace with the children of Israel, save the Hivites the inhabitants of Gibeon: all others they took in battle. For it was of the LORD to suffer their hearts to be hardened, that they should come against Israel in battle, that he might destroy them utterly, and that they might have no favour, but that he might destroy them, as the LORD commanded Moses.

And at that time Joshua went, and cut off the Anakims from the mountains, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, and from all the mountains of Judah, and from all the mountains of Israel: Joshua destroyed them utterly with their cities. There were none of the Anakims left in the land of the children of Israel: they remained only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod.

So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that the LORD said unto Moses; and Joshua gave it for an inheritance unto Israel according to their divisions by their tribes. And the land rested from war.

NOW these are the kings of the land, whom the children of Israel smote, and possessed their land on the other side the Jordan towards the rising of the sun, from the river Arnon unto mount Hermon, and all the plain on the east: Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Heshbon, and ruled from Aroer, which is upon the bank of the river Arnon, and from the middle of the river, and from half Gilead, even unto the river Jabbok, which is the border of the children of Ammon; and from the plain to the sea of Chinneroth on the east, and unto the sea of the plain, even the salt sea on the east, the way to Beth-jeshimoth; and from the south, under Ashdodtipisgah: and the coast of Og king of Bashan, who was of the remnant of the giants, who dwelt at Ashtaroth and at Edrei, and reigned in mount Hermon, and in Salekah, and in all Bashan, unto the border of the Geshurites and the Maachathites, and half Gilead, the border of Sihon king of Heshbon. These did Moses the servant of the LORD and the children of Israel smite: and Moses the servant of the LORD gave it for a possession unto the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh.

And these are the kings of the country which Joshua and the children of Israel smote on this side the Jordan on the west, from Baalgad in the valley of Lebanon even unto the mount Halak, that goeth up to Seir; which Joshua gave unto the tribes

8 of Israel for a possession according to their divisions; in the mountains, and in the valleys, and in the plains, and in the springs, and in the wilderness, and in the south country; the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites: the king of Jericho, one;—the king of Ai, which is beside 10 11 Beth-el, one;—the king of Jerusalem, one;—the king of Hebron, one;—the king of 12 Jarmuth, one;—the king of Lachish, one;—the king of Eglon, one;—the king of Gezer, one;—the king of Debir, one;—the king of Geder, one;—the king of Hormah, 13 14 one;—the king of Arad, one;—the king of Libnah, one;—the king of Adullam, one;
 15 16 17 —the king of Makkedah, one;—the king of Beth-el, one;—the king of Tappuah, one;
 18 —the king of Hopher, one;—the king of Aphek, one;—the king of Lasharon, one;
 19 20 —the king of Madon, one;—the king of Hazor, one;—the king of Shimron-meron, 21 one;—the king of Achshaph, one;—the king of Taanach, one;—the king of Megiddo, one;—the king of Kedesh, one;—the king of Jokneam of Carmel, one;—the 22 23 king of Dor, in the coast of Dor, one;—the king of the nations of Gilgal, one;—
 24 the king of Tirzah, one: all the kings thirty and one.

13 NOW Joshua was old and advanced in years; and the LORD said unto him, Thou art old and advanced in years, and there remaineth yet very much land to be possessed. This is the land that yet remaineth: all the borders of the Philistines, and all Geshuri, from Sihor, which is before Egypt, even unto the borders of Ekron northward, which is counted to the Canaanite: five lords of the Philistines; the Gazathites, and the Ashdodites, the Eshkalonites, the Gittites, and the Ekronites; also the Avites from the south, all the land of the Canaanites, and Meerah that is beside the Sidonians, unto Aphek, to the borders of the Amorites: and the land of the Gilelites, and all Lebanon, towards the sunrising, from Baal-gad under mount Hermon unto the entering into Hamath. All the inhabitants of the hill country from Lebanon unto Misrephoth-maim, and all the Sidonians, these will I drive out from before the children of Israel: only divide thou it by lot unto the Israelites for an inheritance, as I have commanded thee.

7 Now therefore divide this land for an inheritance unto nine tribes, and half the tribe of Manasseh. As for the other half tribe of Manasseh, with them the Reubenites and the Gadites have received their inheritance, which Moses gave them, beyond the Jordan eastward, even as Moses the servant of the LORD gave them;

9 From Aroer, that is upon the bank of the river Arnon, and the city that is in the midst of the river, and all the plain of Medeba unto Dibon; and all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, unto the border of the children of Ammon; and Gilead, and the border of the Geshurites and Maachathites, and all mount Hermon, and all Bashan unto Salcah; all the kingdom of Og in Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei, who remained of the remnant of the giants: for these did Moses smite, and cast them out. Nevertheless the children of Israel expelled not the Geshurites, nor the Maachathites: but the Geshurites and the Maachathites dwell among the Israelites until this day. Only unto the tribe of Levi he gave no inheritance; the sacrifices of the LORD God of Israel made by fire, are their inheritance, as he said unto them.

15 And Moses gave unto the tribe of the children of Reuben inheritance according to their families. And their coast was from Aroer, that is on the bank of the river Arnon, and the city that is in the midst of the river, and all the plain by Medeba; Heshbon, and all its cities that are in the plain; Dibon, and Bamoth-baal, and Beth-
 18 19 baal-meon, and Jahaza, and Kedemoth, and Mephaath, and Kirjathaim, and Sibmah, and Zareth-shahar in the mount of the valley, and Beth-peor, and Ashdodpiggah, and Beth-jeshimoth, and all the cities of the plain, and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses smote with the princes of Midian, Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, who were dukes of Sihon, dwelling in the country. Balaam also the son of Beor, the soothsayer, did 22 23 the children of Israel slay with the sword among those who were slain by them. And the border of the children of Reuben was the Jordan, and the border thereof. This was the inheritance of the children of Reuben after their families, the cities and the villages thereof.

24 And Moses gave inheritance unto the tribe of Gad, even unto the children of Gad according to their families. And their coast was Jazer, and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the children of Ammon, unto Aroer that is before Rabbah; and from Heshbon unto Ramath-mizpeh, and Betonim; and from Mahanaim unto the border of Debir; and in the valley, Beth-aram, and Beth-nimrah, and Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, the Jordan and its border, even unto the edge of the sea of Chinnereth on the other side the Jordan eastward. This is the inheritance of the children of Gad after their families, the 28 cities, and their villages.

And Moses gave inheritance unto the half tribe of Manasseh : and this was the 29 possession of the half tribe of the children of Manasseh by their families. And their 30 coast was from Mahanaim, all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all the towns of Jair, which are in Bashan, threescore cities : and half Gilead, and Ash- 31 taroth, and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, were pertaining unto the children of Machir the son of Manasseh, even to the one half of the children of Machir by their families. These are the countries which Moses did distribute for 32 inheritance in the plains of Moab, on the other side the Jordan, by Jericho, eastward. But unto the tribe of Levi Moses gave not any inheritance : the LORD God of Israel 33 was their inheritance, as he said unto them.

And these are the countries which the children of Israel inherited in the land of 14 Canaan, which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed for inheritance to them. By lot was their inheritance, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses, for the 2 nine tribes, and for the half tribe. For Moses had given the inheritance of two 3 tribes and a half tribe on the other side the Jordan ; but unto the Levites he gave no inheritance among them. For the children of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and 4 Ephraim : therefore they gave no part unto the Levites in the land, save cities to dwell in, with their suburbs for their cattle and for their substance. As the LORD com- 5 manded Moses, so the children of Israel did, and they divided the land.

Then the children of Judah came unto Joshua in Gilgal ; and Caleb the son of 6 Jephunneh the Kenezite said unto him, Thou knowest the thing that the LORD said unto Moses the man of God concerning me and thee in Kadesh-barnea. Forty 7 years old was I when Moses the servant of the LORD sent me from Kadesh-barnea to espie out the land ; and I brought him word again as it was in my heart. Nevertheless 8 my brethren who went up with me made the heart of the people melt ; but I wholly followed the LORD my God. And Moses swore on that day, saying, Surely the land 9 whereon thy feet have trodden shall be thine inheritance, and thy children's for ever, because thou hast wholly followed the LORD my God. And now, behold, the LORD 10 hath kept me alive, as he said, these forty and five years, even since the LORD spoke this word unto Moses, while the children of Israel wandered in the wilderness : and now, lo, I am this day fourscore and five years old. As yet I am as strong this day 11 as I was in the day that Moses sent me : as my strength was then, even so is my strength now, for war, both to go out, and to come in. Now therefore give me this 12 mountain, whereof the LORD spoke in that day ; for thou heardest in that day how the Anakims were there, and that the cities were great and fenced : if so be the LORD will be with me, then I shall be able to drive them out, as the LORD said.

And Joshua blessed him, and gave unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh Hebron for 13 an inheritance. Hebron therefore became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Je- 14 phunneh the Kenezite unto this day, because he wholly followed the LORD God of Israel. And the name of Hebron before was Kirjath-arba [THE CITY OF ARBA] ; 15 which Arba was a great man among the Anakims. And the land had rest from war.

This then was the lot of the tribe of the children of Judah by their families ; even 15 to the border of Edom the wilderness of Zin southward was the uttermost part of the south coast.

And their south border was from the shore of the salt sea, from the bay that look- 2 eth southward : and it went out to the south side to Maaleh-acrabbim, and passed 3 along to Zin, and ascended up on the south side unto Kadesh-barnea, and passed along to Hebron, and went up to Adar, and fetched a compass to Karkaa : from 4 thence it passed towards Azmon, and went out unto the river of Egypt ; and the go- ings out of that coast were at the sea : this shall be your south coast.

And the east border was the salt sea, even unto the end of the Jordan. 5

And their border in the north quarter was from the bay of the sea at the utter- most part of the Jordan : and the border went up to Beth-hogla, and passed along 6 by the north of Beth-arabah ; and the border went up to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben : and the border went up towards Debir from the valley of Achor, and so 7 northward, looking towards Gilgal, that is before the going up to Adummim, which is on the south side of the river : and the border passed towards the waters of En- shemesh, and the goings out thereof were at En-rogel : and the border went up by 8 the valley of the son of Hinnom unto the south side of Jebus ; (the same is Jerusa- lem) : and the border went up to the top of the mountain that lieth before the valley of Hinnom westward, which is at the end of the valley of the giants northward : and 9

- the border was drawn from the top of the hill unto the fountain of the water of Nephtoa, and went out to the cities of mount Ephron; and the border was drawn
- 10 to Baalah, which is Kirjath-jearim: and the border compassed from Baalah westward unto mount Seir, and passed along unto the side of mount Jearim, which is Chesalon, on the north side, and went down to Beth-shemesh, and passed on to
- 11 Timnah: and the border went out unto the side of Ekron northward: and the border was drawn to Shicron, and passed along to mount Baalah, and went out unto Jabneel; and the goings out of the border were at the sea.
- 12 And the west border was to the great sea, and the coast thereof. This is the coast of the children of Judah round about according to their families.
- 13 And unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh he gave a part among the children of Judah, according to the commandment of the LORD to Joshua, even the city of Arba the father of Anak, which city is Hebron. And Caleb drove thence the three sons
- 14 of Anak, Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmi, the children of Anak. And he went up thence to the inhabitants of Debir; and the name of Debir before was Kirjath-sepher. And Caleb said, He who smiteth Kirjath-sepher, and taketh it, to him will I
- 15 give Achsah my daughter to wife. And Othniel the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, took it: and he gave him Achsah his daughter to wife. And as she came
- 16 unto him, he moved her to ask of her father a field: and she lighted off her ass; and Caleb said unto her, What wouldst thou? She answered, Give me a blessing;
- 17 for thou hast given me a south land; give me also springs of water. And Caleb gave her the upper springs, and the lower springs.
- 18 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Judah according to their families.
- 19 And the uttermost cities of the tribe of the children of Judah towards the coast of Edom southward were Kabzeel, and Eder, and Jagur, and Kinah, and Dimonah, and
- 20 Adadah, and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Ithnan, Ziph, and Telem, and Bealoth, and Hazor, Hadattah, and Kerioth, and Hezron, which is Hazor, Amam, and Shema,
- 21 and Moladah, and Hazar-gaddah, and Heshmon, and Beth-palet, and Hazar-shual, and Beer-sheba, and Bizjathjah, Baalah, and Iim, and Azem, and Etlolad, and
- 22 Che- sil, and Hormah, and Ziklag, and Madmannah, and Sansannah, and Lebaoth, and Shilhim, and Ain, and Rimmon: all the cities are thirty-six, with their villages:
- 23 And in the valley, Eshtaol, and Zoreah, and Ashnah, and Zanoah, and En-gannim, and Tappuah, and Enam, Jarmuth, and Adullam, Socoh, and Azekah, and Sharaim,
- 24 and Adithaim, and Gederah, and Gederothaim; fifteen cities with their villages: Zenan, and Hadashah, and Migdal-gad, and Dilean, and Mizpeh, and Joktheel,
- 25 Lachish, and Bosphath, and Eglon, and Cabbon, and Labmam, and Kithlish, and Gederoth, Beth-dagon, and Naamah, and Makkedah; sixteen cities with their vil-
- 26 lages: Libnah, and Ether, and Ashan, and Jiphtah, and Ashnah, and Nezib, and Keilah, and Achzib, and Mareshah; nine cities with their villages: Ekron, with its
- 27 towns and villages: from Ekron westward to the sea, all that lay near Ashdod, with their villages: Ashdod with its towns and villages, Gaza with its towns and villages,
- 28 unto the river of Egypt, and the great sea, and the border thereof:
- 29 And in the mountains, Shamir, and Jattir, and Socoh, and Dannah, and Kirjath-sannah, which is Debir, and Anab, and Eshtemoah, and Anim, and Goshen, and Hon,
- 30 and Giloh; eleven cities with their villages: Arab, and Dumah, and Eshean, and Janum, and Beth-tappuah, and Aplekah, and Humtah, and Kirjath-arba, which
- 31 is Hebron, and Zior; nine cities with their villages: Maon, Carmel, and Ziph, and Juttaah, and Jezreel, and Jokdeam, and Zanoah, Cain, Gibeah, and Timnah; ten cities
- 32 with their villages: Halhul, Beth-zur, and Gedor, and Maarath, and Beth-anoth, and Eltekon; six cities with their villages: Kirjath-baal, which is Kirjath-jearim, and Rabbah; two cities with their villages:
- 33 In the wilderness, Beth-arabah, Middin, and Secacah, and Nibshan, and the city of Salt, and En-gedi; six cities with their villages.
- 34 As for the Jebusites the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the children of Judah could not drive them out: but the Jebusites dwell with the children of Judah at Jerusalem unto this day.
- 35 And the lot of the children of Joseph fell from the Jordan by Jericho, unto the water of Jericho on the east, to the wilderness that goeth up from Jericho through-
- 36 out mount Beth-el, and goeth out from Beth-el to Luz, and passeth along unto the borders of Archi to Ataroth, and goeth down westward to the coast of Japhleti, unto the coast of Beth-horon the lower, and to Gezer: and the goings out thereof are at the sea.
- 37 So the children of Joseph, Manassah and Ephraim, took their inheritance. And the border of the children of Ephraim according to their families was thus: even the border of their inheritance on the east side was Ataroth-addar, unto Beth-horon the upper; and the border went out towards the sea to Michmethah on the north side; 6 and the border went about eastward unto Taanath-shiloh, and passed by it on the east to Janohah; and it went down from Janohah to Ataroth, and to Naarath, and 7 came to Jericho, and went out at the Jordan. The border went out from Tappuah 8 westward unto the river Kanah; and the goings out thereof were at the sea. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ephraim by their families. And 9 the separate cities for the children of Ephraim were among the inheritance of the children of Manasseh, all the cities with their villages. And they drove not out the 10 Canaanites who dwell in Gezer: but the Canaanites dwell among the Ephraimites unto this day, and serve under tribute.

There was also a lot for the tribe of Manasseh; for he was the firstborn of Joseph; to wit, for Machir the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of Gilead: because 17 he was a man of war, therefore he had Gilead and Bashan. There was also a lot for 2 the rest of the children of Manasseh by their families; for the children of Abiezer, and for the children of Helek, and for the children of Asriel, and for the children of Shechem, and for the children of Hephher, and for the children of Shemida: these were the male children of Manasseh the son of Joseph by their families. But Zelophehad, 3 the son of Hephher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, but daughters: and these are the names of his daughters, Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. And they came near before Eleazar the priest, 4 and before Joshua the son of Nun, and before the princes, saying, The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brethren. Therefore according to the commandment of the LORD he have them an inheritance among the brethren of their father. And there fell ten portions to Manasseh, besides the land of Gilead 5 and Bashan, which were on the other side the Jordan; because the daughters of 6 Manasseh had an inheritance among his sons: and the rest of Manasseh's sons had the land of Gilead.

And the coast of Manasseh was from Asher to Michmethah, that lieth before 7 Shechem; and the border went along on the right hand unto the inhabitants of Entappuah. Now Manasseh had the land of Tappuah: but Tappuah on the border of 8 Manasseh belonged to the children of Ephraim; and the coast descended unto the 9 river Kanah, southward of the river: the cities of Ephraim are among the cities of Manasseh: the coast of Manasseh also was on the north side of the river, and the outgoings of it were at the sea: southward it was Ephraim's, and northward it was 10 Manasseh's, and the sea is its border; and they met together in Asher on the north, and in Issachar on the east. And Manasseh had in Issachar and in Asher Beth-shean and its towns, and Ibleam and its towns, and the inhabitants of Dor and its towns, and the inhabitants of En-dor and its towns, and the inhabitants of Taanach and its towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and its towns, even three countries. 11 Yet the children of Manasseh could not drive out the inhabitants of those cities; but the Canaanites would dwell in that land. Yet when the children of Israel were 12 waxen strong, they put the Canaanites to tribute; but did not utterly drive them out.

And the children of Joseph spoke unto Joshua, saying, Why hast thou given me 14 but one lot and one portion to inherit, seeing I am a great people, forasmuch as the LORD hath blessed me hitherto? And Joshua answered them, If thou be a great 15 people, then get thee up to the wood country, and cut down for thyself there in the land of the Perizzites and of the giants, if mount Ephraim be too narrow for thee. 16 And the children of Joseph said, The hill is not enough for us: and all the Canaanites who dwell in the land of the valley have chariots of iron, both they who are of Beth-shean and its towns, and they who are of the valley of Jezreel. And Joshua 17 spoke unto the house of Joseph, even to Ephraim and to Manasseh, saying, Thou art a great people, and hast great power: thou shalt not have one lot only: but the 18 mountain shall be thine; for it is a wood, and thou shalt cut it down: and the outgoings of it shall be thine: for thou shalt drive out the Canaanites, though they have iron chariots, and though they be strong.

AND the whole congregation of the children of Israel assembled together at 18 Shiloh, and set up the tabernacle of the congregation there. And the land was subdued before them.

And there remained among the children of Israel seven tribes, who had not yet received their inheritance. And Joshua said unto the children of Israel, How long are 2 ye slack to go to possess the land, which the LORD God of your fathers hath given you? Give out from among you three men for each tribe; and I will send them, 4

- and they shall rise, and go through the land, and describe it according to the inheritance of them; and they shall come again to me. And they shall divide it into seven parts: Judah shall abide in their coast on the south, and the house of Joseph shall abide in their coasts on the north. Ye shall therefore describe the land into seven parts, and bring the description hither to me, that I may cast lots for you here before the LORD our God. But the Levites have no part among you; for the priesthood of the LORD is their inheritance: and Gad, and Reuben, and half the tribe of Manasseh, have received their inheritance beyond the Jordan on the east, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave them.
- And the men arose, and went away: and Joshua charged those who went to describe the land, saying, Go and walk through the land, and describe it, and come again to me, that I may here cast lots for you before the LORD in Shiloh. And the men went and passed through the land, and described it by cities into seven parts in a book, and came again to Joshua to the host at Shiloh. And Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before the LORD; and there Joshua divided the land unto the children of Israel according to their divisions.
- And the lot of the tribe of the children of Benjamin came up according to their families: and the coast of their lot came forth between the children of Judah and the children of Joseph.
- And their border on the north side was from the Jordan; and the border went up to the side of Jericho on the north side, and went up through the mountains westward; and the goings out thereof were at the wilderness of Beth-aven. And the border went over from thence towards Luz, to the side of Luz, which is Beth-el, southward; and the border descended to Ataroth-adar, near the hill that lieth on the south side of the lower Beth-horon.
- And the border was drawn thence, and compassed the corner of the sea southward, from the hill that lieth before Beth-horon southward; and the goings out thereof were at Kirjath-baal, which is Kirjath-jearim, a city of the children of Judah: this was the west quarter.
- And the south quarter was from the end of Kirjath-jearim, and the border went out on the west, and went out to the well of waters of Nephtoi: and the border came down to the end of the mountain that lieth before the valley of the son of Hinnom, and which is in the valley of the giants on the north, and descended to the valley of Hinnom, to the side of Jebusi on the south, and descended to En-rogel, and was drawn from the north, and went forth to En-shemesh, and went forth towards Geliath, which is over against the going up of Adummim, and descended to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben, and passed along towards the side over against Arabah northward, and went down unto Arabah: and the border passed along to the side of Beth-hoglah northward: and the outgoings of the border were at the north bay of the salt sea at the south end of the Jordan: this was the south coast.
- And the Jordan was the border of it on the east side. This was the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, by the coasts thereof round about, according to their families.
- Now the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin according to their families were Jericho, and Beth-hoglah, and the valley of Keziz, and Beth-arabah, and Zemaraim, and Beth-el, and Avim, and Parah, and Ophrah, and Chephar-haammonai, and Ophni, and Gaba; twelve cities with their villages: Gibeon, and Ramah, and Beeroth, and Mizpeh, and Chephirah, and Mozah, and Rekem, and Irpeel, and Taralah, and Zelah, Eleph, and Jebusi, which is Jerusalem, Gibeath, and Kirjath; fourteen cities with their villages. This is the inheritance of the children of Benjamin according to their families.
- 19 And the second lot came forth to Simeon, even for the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families: and their inheritance was within the inheritance of the children of Judah. And they had in their inheritance Beer-sheba, and Sheba, and Moladah, and Hazar-shual, and Balah, and Azem, and Eltolad, and Bethul, and Hormah, and Ziklag, and Beth-marcaboth, and Hazar-susah, and Beth-lebaath, and Sharuhin; thirteen cities and their villages: Ain, Remmon, and Ether, and Ashan; four cities and their villages: and all the villages that were round about these cities to Baalath-beer, Ramath of the south. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families. Out of the portion of the children of Judah was the inheritance of the children of Simeon; for the part of the children of Judah was too much for them: therefore the children of Simeon had their inheritance within the inheritance of them.
- And the third lot came up for the children of Zebulun according to their families:

and the border of their inheritance was unto Sarid: and their border went up to- 11 wards the sea, and Maralah, and reached to Dabbasheth, and reached to the river that is before Jokneam; and turned from Sarid eastward towards the sunrising unto 12 the border of Chisloth-tabor, and then goeth out to Daberath, and goeth up to Japhia, and from thence passeth on along on the east to Gittah-hepther, to Ittah-kazin, and 13 goeth out to Renmon-methoar to Neah; and the border compasseth it on the north 14 side to Hannathon; and the outgoings thereof are in the valley of Jiphthah-el:

And Kattath, and Nahallal, and Shimron, and Idalah, and Beth-lehem: twelve 15 cities with their villages. This is the inheritance of the children of Zebulun accord- 16 ing to their families, these cities with their villages.

And the fourth lot came out to Issachar, for the children of Issachar according to 17 their families. And their border was towards Jezreel, and Chesulloth, and Shunem, 18 and Haphraim, and Shihon, and Anaharath, and Rabbith, and Kishion, and Abcz, 19 20 and Remeth, and En-gannim, and En-haddah, and Beth-pazzez; and the coast 21 22 reacheth to Tabor, and Shahazimah, and Beth-shemesh; and the outgoings of their border were at the Jordan: sixteen cities with their villages. This is the inher- 23 itance of the tribe of the children of Issachar according to their families, the cities and their villages.

And the fifth lot came out for the tribe of the children of Asher according to their 24 families. And their border was Helkath, and Hali, and Beten, and Achshaph, and 25 26 Alammelech, and Amad, and Misheal; and reacheth to Carmel westward, and to Shi-hor-libnath; and turneth towards the sunrising to Beth-dagon, and reacheth to Ze- 27 bulun, and to the valley of Jiphthah-el towards the north side of Beth-emek, and Neiel, and goeth out to Cabul on the left hand, and Hebron, and Rehob, and Ham- 28 mon, and Canah, even unto great Zidon; and then the coast turneth to Ramah, and 29 to the strong city Tyre; and the coast turneth to Hosah; and the outgoings thereof are at the sea from the coast to Achzib:

Ummah also, and Aphek, and Rehob: twenty and two cities with their villages. 30
This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families, 31 these cities with their villages.

The sixth lot came out to the children of Naphtali, even for the children of Naph- 32 tali according to their families. And their coast was from Heleph, from Allon to 33 Zaanannim, and Adami, Nekeb, and Jabneel, unto Lakum; and the outgoings thereof were at the Jordan: and then the coast turneth westward to Aznoth-tabor, 34 and goeth out from thence to Hukkok, and reacheth to Zebulun on the south side, and reacheth to Asher on the west side, and to Judah to the bank of the Jordan towards the sunrising.

And the fenced cities are Ziddim, Zer, and Hammath, Rakkath, and Chinnereth, 35 and Adamah, and Ramah, and Hazor, and Kedesh, and Edrei, and En-hazor, and 36-38 Iron, and Migdal-el, Horem, and Beth-anath, and Beth-shemesh; nineteen cities with their villages. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Naphtali 39 according to their families, the cities and their villages.

And the seventh lot came out for the tribe of the children of Dan according to their 40 families. And the coast of their inheritance was Zorah, and Eshtaol, and Ir-shemesh, 41 and Shaalabbin, and Ajalon, and Jethlah, and Elon, and Thimnathah, and Ekron, 42 43 and Eltekeh, and Gibbethon, and Baalath, and Jehud, and Bene-herak, and Gath- 44 45 rimmon, and Me-jarkon, and Rakkon, with the border over against Joppa. And the 46 47 coast of the children of Dan was too little for them: therefore the children of Dan went up to fight against Leshem, and took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and possessed it, and dwelt therein, and called Leshem, Dan, after the name of Dan their father. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan according to 48 their families, these cities with their villages.

When they had made an end of dividing the land for inheritance by their coasts, 49 the children of Israel gave an inheritance to Joshua the son of Nun among them:
according to the word of the LORD they gave him the city which he asked, even 50
Timnath-serah in mount Ephraim; and he built the city, and dwelt therein.

These are the inheritances, which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, 51 and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, divided for an inheritance by lot in Shiloh before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. So they made an end of dividing the country.

THE LORD also spoke unto Joshua, saying, Speak to the children of Israel, say- 20 ing, Appoint out for you cities of refuge, whereof I spoke unto you by the hand of Moses: that the slayer who killeth any person unawares and unintentionally may 3 flee thither: and they shall be your refuge from the avenger of blood. And when 4

- he who fleeth unto one of those cities shall stand at the entering of the gate of the city, and shall declare his cause in the ears of the elders of that city, they shall take him into the city unto them, and give him a place, that he may dwell among them.
- 5 And if the avenger of blood pursue after him, then they shall not deliver the slayer up into his hand; because he smote his neighbour unintentionally, and hated him not beforetime. And he shall dwell in that city, until he stand before the congregation for judgment, and until the death of the high priest who shall be in those days: then shall the slayer return, and come unto his own city, and unto his own house, unto the city from whence he fled.
- 7 And they appointed Kedesh in Galilee in mount Naphtali, and Shechem in mount Ephraim, and Kirjath-arba, which is Hebron, in the mountain of Judah.
- 8 And on the other side the Jordan by Jericho eastward, they assigned Bezer in the wilderness upon the plain out of the tribe of Reuben, and Ramoth in Gilead out of the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan out of the tribe of Manasseh.
- 9 These were the cities appointed for all the children of Israel, and for the stranger who sojourneth among them, that whosoever killeth any person unawares might flee thither, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood, until he stood before the congregation.
- 21 THEN came near the heads of the fathers of the Levites unto Eleazar the priest, and unto Joshua the son of Nun, and unto the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel; and they spoke unto them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, The LORD commanded by the hand of Moses to give us cities to dwell in, with the suburbs thereof for our cattle. And the children of Israel gave unto the Levites out of their inheritance, at the commandment of the LORD, these cities and their suburbs.
- 4 And the lot came out for the families of the Kohathites: and the children of Aaron the priest, who were of the Levites, had by lot out of the tribe of Judah, and out of the tribe of Simeon, and out of the tribe of Benjamin, thirteen cities.
- 5 And the rest of the children of Kohath had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Ephraim, and out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh, ten cities.
- 6 And the children of Gershon had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities.
- 7 The children of Merari by their families had out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities.
- 8 And the children of Israel gave by lot unto the Levites these cities with their suburbs, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.
- 9 And they gave out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, these cities which are here mentioned by name, which the children of Aaron, being of the families of the Kohathites, who were of the children of Levi, had: for theirs was the first lot. And they gave them the city of Arba the father of Anak, which city is Hebron, in the hill country of Judah, with its suburbs round about it. But the fields of the city, and its villages, gave they to Caleb the son of Jephunneh for his possession. Thus they gave to the children of Aaron the priest Hebron with its suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Libnah with its suburbs, and Jattir with its suburbs, and Eshtemoa with its suburbs, and Holon with its suburbs, and Debir with its suburbs, and Ain with its suburbs, and Juttah with its suburbs, and Beth-shemesh with its suburbs; nine cities out of those two tribes.
- 17 And out of the tribe of Benjamin, Gibeon with its suburbs, Geba with its suburbs, 18 Anathoth with its suburbs, and Almon with its suburbs; four cities. All the cities of the children of Aaron, the priests, were thirteen cities with their suburbs.
- 20 And the families of the children of Kohath, the Levites who remained of the children of Kohath, even they had the cities of their lot out of the tribe of Ephraim. For they gave them Shechem with its suburbs in mount Ephraim, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Gezer with its suburbs, and Kibzaim with its suburbs, and Beth-horon with its suburbs; four cities. And out of the tribe of Dan, Eltekeh with its suburbs, Gibeon with its suburbs, Aijalon with its suburbs, Gath-rimmon with its suburbs; four cities. And out of the half tribe of Manasseh, Tanach with its suburbs, and Gath-rimmon with its suburbs; two cities. All the cities were ten with their suburbs for the families of the children of Kohath who remained.
- 27 And unto the children of Gershon, of the families of the Levites, out of the other half tribe of Manasseh they gave Golan in Bashan with its suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Beesh-terah with its suburbs; two cities. And out of the tribe of Issachar, Kishon with its suburbs, Dabareh with its suburbs, Jarmuth 29 with its suburbs, En-gannim with its suburbs; four cities. And out of the tribe of 30 Asher, Mishal with its suburbs, Abdon with its suburbs, Helkath with its suburbs, 31 and Rehob with its suburbs; four cities. And out of the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh 32 in Galilee with its suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Hammoth-dor with its suburbs, and Kartan with its suburbs, three cities. All the cities of the 33 Gershonites according to their families were thirteen cities with their suburbs.

And unto the families of the children of Merari, the rest of the Levites, out of the 34 tribe of Zebulun, Jokneam with its suburbs, and Kartah with its suburbs, Dim- 35 nah with its suburbs, Nahalal with its suburbs; four cities. And out of the tribe 36 of Reuben, Bezer with its suburbs, and Jahazah with its suburbs, Kedemoth with 37 its suburbs, and Mephaath with its suburbs; four cities. And out of the tribe of 38 Gad, Ramoth in Gilead with its suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Mahanaim with its suburbs, Heshbon with its suburbs, Jazer with its suburbs; four 39 cities in all. So all the cities for the children of Merari by their families, who were 40 remaining of the families of the Levites, were by their lot twelve cities.

All the cities of the Levites within the possession of the children of Israel were 41 forty and eight cities with their suburbs. These cities were every one with their 42 suburbs round about them: thus were all these cities.

And the LORD gave unto Israel all the land which he swore to give unto their 43 fathers; and they possessed it, and dwelt therein. And the LORD gave them rest 44 round about, according to all that he swore unto their fathers: and there stood not a man of all their enemies before them; the LORD delivered all their enemies into their hand. There failed not aught of any good thing which the LORD had spoken 45 unto the house of Israel; all came to pass.

THEN Joshua called the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Ma- 22 nasseh, and said unto them, Ye have kept all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, and have obeyed my voice in all that I commanded you: ye 3 have not left your brethren these many days unto this day, but have kept the charge of the commandment of the LORD your God. And now the LORD your God hath 4 given rest unto your brethren, as he promised them; therefore now return ye, and get you unto your tents, and unto the land of your possession, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you on the other side the Jordan. But take diligent heed 5 to do the commandment and the law, which Moses the servant of the LORD charged you, to love the LORD your God, and to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and to cleave unto him, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul. So Joshua blessed them, and sent them away: and they went unto 6 their tents. Now to the one half of the tribe of Manasseh Moses had given possession in Bashan; but unto the other half thereof gave Joshua among their brethren on this side the Jordan westward. And when Joshua sent them away also unto their tents, then he blessed them, and he spoke unto them, saying, Return with much 8 riches unto your tents, and with very much cattle, with silver, and with gold, and with brass, and with iron, and with very much raiment: divide the spoil of your enemies with your brethren.

And the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Ma- 9 nasseh returned, and departed from the children of Israel out of Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go unto the country of Gilead, to the land of their possession, whereof they were possessed, according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

And when they came unto the borders of the Jordan, in the land of Canaan, the 10 children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh built there an altar by the Jordan, a great altar to be conspicuous.

And the children of Israel heard say, Behold, the children of Reuben and the 11 children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh have built an altar over against the land of Canaan, in the borders of the Jordan, at the passage of the children of Israel. And when the children of Israel heard of it, the whole congregation of the 12 children of Israel gathered themselves together at Shiloh, to go up to war against them. And the children of Israel sent unto the children of Reuben, and to the 13 children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, into the land of Gilead, Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, and with him ten princes, of each chief house a prince throughout all the tribes of Israel; and each one was a head of the house of their fathers among the thousands of Israel. And they came unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, unto the land of 14 Gilead, and they spoke with them, saying, Thus saith the whole congregation of the 16

- LORD, What trespass is this that ye have committed against the God of Israel, to turn away this day from following the LORD, in that ye have built you an altar, 17 that ye might rebel this day against the LORD? Is the iniquity of Peor too little for us, from which we are not cleansed until this day, although there was a plague 18 in the congregation of the LORD, but that ye must turn away this day from following the LORD? and seeing ye rebel to-day against the LORD, to-morrow 19 he will be wroth with the whole congregation of Israel. Notwithstanding, if the land of your possession be unclean, then pass ye over unto the land of the possession of the LORD, wherein the LORD'S tabernacle dwelleth, and take possession among us; but rebel not against the LORD, nor rebel against us, in building you an altar 20 besides the altar of the LORD our God. Did not Achar the son of Zerah commit a trespass in the accursed thing, and wrath fell on all the congregation of Israel? and that man perished not alone in his iniquity.
- 21 Then the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh answered, and said unto the heads of the thousands of Israel, The LORD God of gods, the LORD God of gods, he knoweth, and Israel he shall know it. If it be 23 in rebellion, or if in transgression against the LORD, (save us not this day,) that we have built us an altar to turn from following the LORD, or if to offer thereon burnt offering or thank offering, or if to offer peace offerings thereon, let the LORD himself require it; and if we have not rather done it for fear of this thing, saying, In time to come your children might speak unto our children, saying, What have ye 25 to do with the LORD God of Israel? For the LORD hath made the Jordan a boundary between us and you, ye children of Reuben and children of Gad; ye have no part in the LORD: so shall your children make our children cease from fearing the 26 LORD. Therefore we said, Let us now prepare to build us an altar, not for burnt 27 offering, nor for sacrifice: but that it may be a witness between us, and you, and our generations after us, that we might do the service of the LORD before him with our burnt offerings, and with our sacrifices, and with our peace offerings; that your children may not say to our children in time to come, Ye have no part in the 28 LORD. Therefore said we, when they should so say to us or to our generations in time to come, we may say again, Behold the pattern of the altar of the LORD, which our fathers made, not for burnt offerings, nor for sacrifices; but it is a witness between us and you. Far be it from us that we should rebel against the LORD, 29 and turn this day from following the LORD, to build an altar for burnt offerings, for thank offerings, or for sacrifices, besides the altar of the LORD our God that is before his tabernacle.
- 30 And when Phinehas the priest, and the princes of the congregation and heads of the thousands of Israel who were with him, heard the words that the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the children of Manasseh spoke, it pleased 31 them. And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest said unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the children of Manasseh, This day we perceive that the LORD is among us, because ye have not committed this trespass against the LORD: now ye have delivered the children of Israel out of the hand of the 32 LORD. And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, and the princes, returned from the children of Reuben, and from the children of Gad, out of the land of Gilead, unto the land of Canaan, to the children of Israel, and brought them word again. 33 And the thing pleased the children of Israel; and the children of Israel blessed God, and did not intend to go up against them in battle, to destroy the land wherein the children of Reuben and Gad dwelt.
- 34 And the children of Reuben and the children of Gad called the altar Ed [A WITNESS]: for it shall be a witness between us that the LORD is God.
- 23 AND a long time after that the LORD had given rest unto Israel from all their enemies round about, Joshua waxed old and was advanced in years. And Joshua called for all Israel, and for their elders, and for their heads, and for their judges, 3 and for their officers, and said unto them, I am old and advanced in years: and ye have seen all that the LORD your God hath done unto all these nations because of 4 you; for the LORD your God is he who hath fought for you. Behold, I have divided unto you by lot these nations that remain, to be an inheritance for your tribes, from the Jordan, with all the nations that I have cut off, even unto the great sea westward.
- 5 And the LORD your God he shall expel them from before you, and drive them from out of your sight; and ye shall possess their land, as the LORD your God 6 hath promised unto you. Be ye therefore very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, that ye turn not aside therefrom to the right hand or to the left; that ye come not among these nations, these that remain 7 among you; neither make mention of the name of their gods, nor cause to swear by them. neither serve them, nor bow yourselves unto them: but cleave unto the 8 LORD your God, as ye have done unto this day. For the LORD hath driven out 9 from before you great and strong nations: but as for you, no man hath been able to stand before you unto this day. One man of you shall chase a thousand; for the 10 LORD your God, he it is who fighteth for you, as he hath promised you.

Take good heed therefore unto yourselves, that ye love the LORD your God. Else 11 if ye do in any wise go back, and cleave unto the remnant of these nations, even 12 these that remain among you, and shall make marriages with them, and go in unto them, and they to you: know for a certainty that the LORD your God will no more 13 drive out any of these nations from before you; but they shall be snares and traps, and scourges in your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until ye perish from off this good land which the LORD your God hath given you. And, behold, this day I am going 14 the way of all the earth; and ye know in all your hearts and in all your souls, that not one thing hath failed of all the good things which the LORD your God spoke concerning you; all are come to pass unto you, and not one thing hath failed thereof. Therefore as all good things are come upon you, which the LORD your God promised you: so shall the LORD bring upon you all evil things, until he have destroyed you from off this good land which the LORD your God hath given you. When ye 16 have transgressed the covenant of the LORD your God, which he commanded you, and have gone and served other gods, and bowed yourselves to them; then shall the anger of the LORD be kindled against you, and ye shall perish quickly from off the good land which he hath given unto you.

And Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and called for the elders 24 of Israel, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers; and they presented themselves before God.

And Joshua said unto all the people, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Your 2 fathers dwelt on the other side of the river in old time, even Terah, the father of Abraham, and the father of Nachor; and they served other gods. And I took your 3 father Abraham from the other side of the river, and led him throughout all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his seed, and gave him Isaac. And I gave unto Isaac 4 Jacob and Esau; and I gave unto Esau mount Seir, to possess it; but Jacob and his children went down into Egypt. I sent Moses also and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt, 5 according to that which I did among them: and afterwards I brought you out. And 6 I brought your fathers out of Egypt: and ye came unto the sea; and the Egyptians pursued after your fathers with chariots and horsemen unto the Red Sea. And 7 when they cried unto the LORD, he put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea upon them, and covered them; and your eyes have seen what I have done in Egypt; and ye dwelt in the wilderness a long season. And I 8 brought you into the land of the Amorites, who dwelt on the other side the Jordan: and they fought with you: and I gave them into your hand, and ye took in possession their land; and I destroyed them from before you. Then Balak the son of Zip- 9 por, king of Moab, arose and warred against Israel, and sent and called Balaam the son of Beor to curse you: but I would not hearken unto Balaam; therefore he 10 blessed you still: so I delivered you out of his hand. And ye went over the Jordan, and came unto Jericho: and the men of Jericho fought against you, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Girgashites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites; and I delivered them into your hand. And I sent the hornet 12 before you, which drove them out from before you, even the two kings of the Amorites; but not with thy sword, nor with thy bow. And I have given you a land for 13 which ye did not labour, and cities which ye built not, and ye dwell in them; of the vineyards and oliveyards which ye planted not do ye eat.

Now therefore fear the LORD, and serve him in sincerity and in truth; and put 14 away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the river, and in Egypt; and serve ye the LORD. And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose 15 you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the river, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.

And the people answered and said, Far be it from us that we should forsake the 16 LORD, to serve other gods; for the LORD our God, he it is who brought us up and 17 our fathers out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, and who did those great signs in our sight, and preserved us in all the way wherein we went, and among all the people through whom we passed: and the LORD drove out from before us 18

- all the people, even the Amorites who dwelt in the land : therefore will we also serve the LORD ; for he is our God.
- 19 And Joshua said unto the people, Ye cannot serve the LORD : for he is a holy God ; he is a jealous God ; he will not bear with your transgressions nor your sins.
- 20 If ye forsake the LORD, and serve strange gods, then he will turn and do you hurt, and consume you, after that he hath done you good.
- 21 And the people said unto Joshua, Nay ; but we will serve the LORD.
- 22 And Joshua said unto the people, Ye are witnesses against yourselves that ye have chosen the LORD, to serve him.
- And they said, We are witnesses.
- 23 Now therefore put away, said he, the strange gods which are among you, and incline your heart unto the LORD God of Israel.
- 24 And the people said unto Joshua, The LORD our God will we serve, and his voice will we obey.
- 25 So Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and set them a statute and
- 26 an ordinance in Shechem. And Joshua wrote these words in the book of the law of God, and took a great stone, and set it up there under an oak, that was by the sanctuary of the LORD. And Joshua said unto all the people, Behold, this stone shall be a witness unto us ; for it hath heard all the words of the LORD which he spoke
- 28 unto us : it shall be therefore a witness unto you, lest ye deny your God. So Joshua let the people depart, every man unto his inheritance.
- 29 AND after these things, Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died,
- 30 being a hundred and ten years old. And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in Timnath-serah, which is in mount Ephraim, on the north side of the hill of Gaash.
- 31 And Israel served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, and who had known all the works of the LORD, that he had done for Israel.
- 32 And the bones of Joseph, which the children of Israel brought up out of Egypt, buried they in Shechem, in a parcel of ground which Jacob bought of the sons of Hamor the father of Shechem for a hundred pieces of silver : and it became the inheritance of the children of Joseph.
- 33 And Eleazar the son of Aaron died ; and they buried him in a hill that pertained to Phinehas his son, which was given him in mount Ephraim.

THE BOOK OF JUDGES.

- 1 NOW after the death of Joshua the children of Israel asked the LORD, saying, Who shall go up for us against the Canaanites first, to fight against them ? And the LORD said, Judah shall go up : behold, I have delivered the land into his
- 3 hand. And Judah said unto Simeon his brother, Come up with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Canaanites ; and I likewise will go with thee into thy
- 4 lot. So Simeon went with him. And Judah went up ; and the LORD delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand : and they slew of them in Bezek ten thousand men. And they found Adoni-bezek in Bezek ; and they fought
- 6 against him, and they slew the Canaanites and the Perizzites. But Adoni-bezek fled ; and they pursued after him, and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and his great
- 7 toes. And Adoni-bezek said, Threescore and ten kings, having their thumbs and their great toes cut off, gathered their food under my table : as I have done, so God hath requited me. And they brought him to Jerusalem, and there he died.
- 8 Now the children of Judah had fought against Jerusalem, and had taken it, and
- 9 smitten it with the edge of the sword, and set the city on fire. And afterwards the children of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites, who dwelt in the
- 10 mountain, and in the south, and in the valley. And Judah went against the Canaanites who dwelt in Hebron : (now the name of Hebron before was Kirjath-arba :)
- 11 and they slew Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai. And from thence he went against the inhabitants of Debir : (and the name of Debir before was Kirjath-sepher.) And 12 Caleb said, He who smiteth Kirjath-sepher, and taketh it, to him will I give Achsah 13 my daughter to wife. And Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother, took 14 it ; and he gave him Achsah his daughter to wife. And when she came to him, he 15 moved her to ask of her father a field : and she lighted from off her ass ; and Caleb 16 said unto her, What wilt thou ? And she said unto him, Give me a pool of water for 17 a blessing ; for thou hast given me a south land ; give me also springs of water.

And Caleb gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.
And the children of the Kenite, Moses' father-in-law, went up out of the city of 16 palm trees [JERICHO] with the children of Judah into the wilderness of Judah, which 17 lieth in the south of Arad ; and they went and dwelt among the people.

And Judah went with Simeon his brother, and they slew the Canaanites who in- 17 habited Zephath, and utterly destroyed it. And the name of the city was called 18 Hormah [THE DEVOTED PLACE]. Also Judah took not Gaza with the coast there- 19 of, nor Askelon with the coast thereof, nor Ekron with the coast thereof. And the 20 LORD was with Judah ; and he drove out the inhabitants of the mountain ; but could 21 not drive out the inhabitants of the valley, because they had chariots of iron. And 22 they gave Hebron unto Caleb, as Moses said : and he expelled thence the three sons 23 of Anak.

And the children of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebusites who inhabited Je- 21 rusalem ; but the Jebusites dwell with the children of Benjamin in Jerusalem unto 22 this day.

And the house of Joseph, they also went up against Beth-el ; and the LORD was 22 with them. And the house of Joseph sent to desery Beth-el : (now the name of the 23 city before was Luz.) And the spies saw a man come forth out of the city, and they 24 said unto him, Show us, we pray thee, the entrance into the city, and we will show 25 thee mercy. And when he showed them the entrance into the city, they smote the 26 city with the edge of the sword ; but they let go the man and all his family. And 27 the man went into the land of the Hittites, and built a city, and called the name there- 28 of Luz : which is the name thereof unto this day.

Neither did Manasse drive out the inhabitants of Beth-shean and its towns, nor 27
Taanach and its towns, nor the inhabitants of Dor and its towns, nor the inhabitants 28 of Ibleam and its towns, nor the inhabitants of Megiddo and its towns : but the Can- 29 aanites became tributaries in that land. And when Israel was strong, they put the 30 Canaanites to tribute, and did not utterly drive them out.—Neither did Ephraim 31 drive out the Canaanites who dwelt in Gezer ; but the Canaanites dwelt in Gezer 32 among them.—Neither did Zebulun drive out the inhabitants of Kitron, nor the in- 33 habitants of Nahalol ; but the Canaanites dwelt among them, and became tributaries.
—Neither did Asher drive out the inhabitants of Accho, nor the inhabitants of Zi- 34 don, nor of Ahlab, nor of Achziv, nor of Helbah, nor of Aphik, nor of Rehob : but 35 the Asherites dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land ; for they did 36 not drive them out.—Neither did Naphtali drive out the inhabitants of Beth-she-mesh, nor the inhabitants of Beth-anath ; but he dwelt among the Canaanites, the 37 inhabitants of the land : nevertheless the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh and of Bethanath became tributaries unto them. And the Amorites forced the children of Dan 38 into the mountain : for they would not suffer them to come down to the valley : but 39 the Amorites would dwell in mount Heres in Aijalon, and in Shaalvim : yet the hand of the house of Joseph prevailed, so that they became tributaries. And the coast of 40 the Amorites was from the going up to Akkrabbim, from the rock, and upwards.

AND the angel of the LORD came up from Gilgal to Bochim, and said, I made 2 you to go up out of Egypt, and have brought you unto the land which I swore 3 unto your fathers ; and I said, I will never break my covenant with you. And ye 4 shall make no league with the inhabitants of this land ; nor worship their gods : ye 5 shall throw down their altars : but ye have not obeyed my voice : why have ye done 6 this ? Wherefore I also said, I will not drive them out from before you ; but they 7 shall be as thorns in your sides, and their gods shall be a snare unto you. And when 8 the angel of the LORD spoke these words unto all the children of Israel, the people 9 lifted up their voice, and wept. And they called the name of that place Bochim [A 10 PLACE FOR WEeping] : and they sacrificed there unto the LORD.

And when Joshua had let the people go, the children of Israel went every man 6 unto his inheritance to possess the land. And the people served the LORD all the 7 days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, who had seen 8 all the great works of the LORD, that he did for Israel. And Joshua the son of 9 Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being a hundred and ten years old. And 9

JUDGES III.

- they buried him in the border of his inheritance in Timnath-heres, in the mount of Ephraim, on the north side of the hill Gaash. And also all that generation were gathered unto their fathers.
- AND there arose another generation after them, who knew not the LORD, nor yet the works which he had done for Israel. And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, and served Baalim: and they forsook the LORD God of their fathers, who brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed other gods, of the gods of the people who were round about them, and bowed themselves unto them, and provoked the LORD to anger. And they forsook the LORD, and served Baal and Ashtaroth. And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and he delivered them into the hands of spoilers who spoiled them, and he sold them into the hands of their enemies round about, so that they could not any longer stand before their enemies. Whithersoever they went out, the hand of the LORD was against them for evil, as the LORD had said, and as the LORD had sworn unto them: and they were greatly distressed.
- Nevertheless the LORD raised up judges, who delivered them out of the hand of those who spoiled them. And yet they would not narken unto their judges, but they committed idolatry with other gods, and bowed themselves unto them: they turned quickly out of the way which their fathers walked in, obeying the commandments of the LORD; but they did not so. And when the LORD raised them up judges, then the LORD was with the judge, and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge; for it repented the LORD because of their groanings by reason of those who oppressed them and vexed them. And when the judge was dead, they returned, and corrupted themselves more than their fathers, in following other gods to serve them, and to bow down unto them; they ceased not from their own doings, nor from their stubborn way.
- And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel; and he said, Because this people have transgressed my covenant which I commanded their fathers, and have not hearkened unto my voice; I also will not henceforth drive out any from before them of the nations which Joshua left when he died! that through them I may prove Israel, whether they will keep the way of the LORD to walk therein, as their fathers did keep it, or not. Therefore the LORD left those nations, without driving them out hastily; neither delivered he them into the hand of Joshua.
- 3 Now these are the nations which the LORD left, to prove Israel by them, even as many of Israel as had not known all the wars of Canaan; only that the generations of the children of Israel might know, to teach them war, at the least such as before knew nothing thereof; namely, five lords of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hivites who dwell in mount Lebanon, from mount Baal-hermon unto the entering in of Hamath. And they were to prove Israel by them, to know whether they would hearken unto the commandments of the LORD, which he commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.
- AND the children of Israel dwelt among the Canaanites, Hittites, and Amorites, and Perizzites, and Hivites, and Jebusites: and they took their daughters to be their wives, and gave their daughters to their sons, and served their gods. And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, and forgot the LORD their God, and served Baalim and the groves. Therefore the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of Chushan-rishathaim king of Mesopotamia: and the children of Israel served Chushan-rishathaim eight years.
- And when the children of Israel cried unto the LORD, the LORD raised up a deliverer to the children of Israel, who delivered them, even Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother. And the Spirit of the LORD was upon him, and he judged Israel, and went out to war: and the LORD delivered Chushan-rishathaim king of Mesopotamia into his hand; and his hand prevailed against Chushan-rishathaim. And the land had rest forty years. And Othniel the son of Kenaz died.
- AND the children of Israel did evil again in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD strengthened Eglon the king of Moab against Israel, because they had done evil in the sight of the LORD. And he gathered unto him the children of Ammon and Amalek, and went and smote Israel, and possessed the city of palm trees. So the children of Israel served Eglon the king of Moab eighteen years.
- But when the children of Israel cried unto the LORD, the LORD raised them up a deliverer, Ehud the son of Gera, a Benjamite, a man left-handed; and by him the children of Israel sent a present unto Eglon the king of Moab. But Ehud made him a dagger which had two edges, of a cubit length; and he girded it under his raiment upon his right thigh. And he brought the present unto Eglon king of 17 Moab; (and Eglon was a very fat man.)

And when he had made an end to offer the present, he sent away the people who 18 bore the present: but he himself turned again from the graven images that were by Gilgal, and said, I have a secret errand unto thee, O king! who said, Keep silence. And all who stood by him went out from him. And Ehud came unto him; and he 20 was sitting in a summer chamber, which he had for himself alone. And Ehud said, I have a message from God unto thee. And he arose out of his seat. And Ehud 21 put forth his left hand, and took the dagger from his right thigh, and thrust it into his belly: and the handle also went in after the blade; and the fat closed upon the blade, so that he could not draw the dagger out of his belly; and it came out be- 22 hind. Then Ehud went forth through the porch, and shut the doors of the chamber upon him, and locked them. 23

When he was gone out, his servants came; and when they saw that the doors of 24 the chamber were locked, they said, Surely he covereth his feet in his summer chamber. And they tarried till they were ashamed: and, behold, he opened not 25 the doors of the chamber; therefore they took a key, and opened them: and, behold, their lord was fallen down dead on the earth.

And Ehud escaped while they tarried, and passed beyond the graven images, and 26 escaped unto Seirath. And when he was come, he blew a trumpet in the mountain of Ephraim, and the children of Israel went down with him from the mount, and he 27 before them. And he said unto them, Follow after me: for the LORD hath delivered your enemies the Moabites into your hand. And they went down after him, and took the fords of the Jordan towards Moab, and suffered not a man to pass over. And they slew of Moab at that time about ten thousand men, all stout men, and all 29 men of valour: and there escaped not a man. So Moab was subdued that day under 30 the hand of Israel. And the land had rest fourscore years.

And after him was Shamgar the son of Anath, who slew of the Philistines six 31 hundred men with an ox goad: and he also delivered Israel.

And the children of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD, when Ehud 4 was dead. And the LORD sold them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor; the captain of whose host was Sisera, who dwelt in Harosheth of the Gentiles. And the children of Israel cried unto the LORD; for he had nine 3 hundred chariots of iron; and twenty years he mightily oppressed the children of Israel.

And Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lapidoth, judged Israel at that time. And 4 5 she dwelt under the palm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Beth-el in mount Ephraim; and the children of Israel came up to her for judgment. And she sent 6 and called Barak the son of Abinoam out of Kedesh-naphtali, and said unto him, Hath not the LORD God of Israel commanded, saying, Go and draw towards mount Tabor, and take with thee ten thousand men of the children of Naphtali and of the children of Zebulun? And I will draw unto thee to the river Kishon 7 Sisera, the captain of Jabin's army, with his chariots and his multitude; and I will deliver him into thy hand. And Barak said unto her, If thou wilt go with me, 8 then I will go: but if thou wilt not go with me, then I will not go. And she said, I 9 will surely go with thee; notwithstanding the journey that thou takest shall not be for thine honour; for the LORD shall sell Sisera into the hand of a woman. And Deborah arose, and went with Barak to Kedesh. And Barak called Zebulun and 10 Naphtali to Kedesh; and he went up with ten thousand men after him; and Deborah went up with him.

Now Heber the Kenite, who was of the children of Hobab the father-in-law of 11 Moses, had severed himself from the Kenites, and pitched his tent unto the plain of Zaanaim, which is by Kedesh.

And they showed Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam was gone up to mount 12 Tabor. And Sisera gathered together all his chariots, even nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people who were with him, from Harosheth of the Gentiles unto the river of Kishon. 13

And Deborah said unto Barak, Up; for this is the day in which the LORD hath 14 delivered Sisera into thy hand: is not the LORD gone out before thee? So Barak went down from mount Tabor, and ten thousand men after him. And the LORD 15 discomfited Sisera, and all his chariots, and all his host, with the edge of the sword before Barak; so that Sisera lighted down off his chariot, and fled away on his feet. But Barak pursued after the chariots, and after the host, unto Harosheth of the Gen- 16 tiles; and all the host of Sisera fell by the edge of the sword; and there was not a 17 man left. Howbeit Sisera fled away on his feet to the tent of Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite; for there was peace between Jabin the king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite. And Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said unto him, Turn in, my lord, turn in to me; fear not. And when he had turned in unto her into the tent, she covered him with a mantle. And he said unto her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water to drink; for I am thirsty. And she opened a bottle of milk, and gave him drink, and covered him. Again he said unto her, Stand in the door of the tent, and when any man doth come and inquire of thee, and say, Is there any man here? thou shalt say, No. Then Jael Heber's wife took a nail of the tent, and took a hammer in her hand, and went softly unto him, and smote the nail into his temples, and fastened it into the ground; for he was fast asleep and weary. So he died. And, behold, as Barak pursued Sisera, Jael came out to meet him, and said unto him, Come, and I will show thee the man whom thou seekest. And when he came into her tent, behold, Sisera lay dead, and the nail was in his temples.

23 So God subdued on that day Jabin the king of Canaan before the children of Israel. And the hand of the children of Israel prospered, and prevailed against Jabin the king of Canaan, until they had destroyed him.

5 Then sang Deborah and Barak the son of Abinoam on that day, saying,

- 2 Praise ye the LORD for the avenging of Israel,
When the people willingly offered themselves.
- 3 Hear, O ye kings;
Give ear, O ye princes;
I, even I, will sing unto the LORD;
I will sing praise to the LORD God of Israel.
- 4 LORD, when thou wentest out of Seir,
When thou marchedst out of the field of Edom,
The earth trembled, and the heavens dropped,
The clouds also dropped water.
- 5 The mountains melted from before the LORD,
Even that Sinai from before the LORD God of Israel.
- 6 In the days of Shamgar the son of Anath,
In the days of Jael, the highways were unoccupied,
And the travellers walked through byways.
- 7 The villages were deserted,
They ceased in Israel,
Until that I, Deborah, arose,
Until I arose a mother in Israel.
- 8 They chose new gods;
Then was war in the gates:
Was there a shield or spear seen Among forty thousand in Israel?
- 9 My heart is towards the governors of Israel,
Who offered themselves willingly among the people.
Bless ye the LORD.
- 10 Speak,
Ye who ride on white asses,
Ye who sit in judgment,
And walk by the way.
- 11 They who are delivered from the noise of archers in the places of drawing water,
There shall they rehearse the righteous acts of the LORD,
Even his righteous acts towards the villages of Israel:
Then shall the people of the LORD go down to the gates.
- 12 Awake, awake, Deborah:
Awake, awake, utter a song:
Arise, Barak,
And lead thine enemies captive, thou son of Abinoam.
- 13 Then he made him who remaineth have dominion over the nobles among the people:
The LORD made me have dominion over the mighty.
- 14 Out of Ephraim was there a root of them against Amalek;
After thee, Benjamin, among thy people;

- Out of Machir came down governors,
And out of Zebulun they who handle the pen of the writer.
- 15 And the princes of Issachar were with Deborah;
Even Issachar, and also Barak;
He was sent on foot into the valley.
For in the divisions of Reuben
There were great thoughts of heart.
- 16 Why abodest thou among the sheepfolds,
To hear the bleatings of the flocks?
For in the divisions of Reuben
There were great searchings of heart.
- 17 Gilead abode beyond the Jordan:
And why did Dan remain in ships?
Asher continued on the sea shore,
And abode in his breaches.
- 18 Zebulun and Naphtali were a people that jeopardied their lives Unto death in the high places of the field.
- 19 The kings came and fought,
Then fought the kings of Canaan
In Taanach by the waters of Megiddo;
They took no gain of money.
- 20 They fought from the heavens;
The stars in their courses fought against Sisera.
- 21 The river of Kishon swept them away,
That ancient river, the river Kishon.
O my soul, thou hast trodden down the mighty.
- 22 Then were the horsehoofs broken
By the headlong speed of his rider.
- 23 Curse ye Meroz, said the angel of the LORD,
Curse ye bitterly the inhabitants thereof;
Because they came not to the help of the LORD,
To the help of the LORD against the mighty.
- 24 Blessed above women
Shall Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite be, Blessed shall she be above women in the tent.
- 25 He asked water, and she gave him milk;
She brought forth buttermilk in a lordly bowl.
- 26 She put her hand to the nail,
And her right hand to the workmen's hammer;
And with the hammer she smote Sisera, she smote his head,
When she had pierced and stricken through his temples.
- 27 At her feet he bowed, he fell, he lay down:
At her feet he bowed, he fell:
Where he bowed, there he fell down dead.
- 28 The mother of Sisera looked out at a window,
And cried through the lattice,
Why is his chariot so long in coming?
Why tarry the wheels of his chariots?
- 29 Her wise ladies answered her,
Yea, she returned answer to herself,
- 30 Have they not sped? have they not divided the spoil;
To every man a damsel or two;
To Sisera a spoil of divers colours,
A spoil of divers colours of needlework,
Of divers colours of needlework on both sides,
Meet for the necks of those who take the spoil?
- 31 So let all thine enemies perish, O LORD:
But let those who love thee be as the sun when he goeth forth in his might.

And the land had rest forty years.

AND the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD delivered them into the hand of Midian seven years. And the hand of Midian prevailed against Israel; and because of the Midianites the children of Israel made

3 them the dens which are in the mountains, and caves, and strong holds. And when Israel had sown, the Midianites came up, and the Amalekites, and the children of the east, even they came up against them; and they encamped against them, and destroyed the increase of the earth, till thou come unto Gaza, and left no sustenance for Israel, neither sheep, nor ox, nor ass. For they came up with their cattle and their tents, and they came as grasshoppers for multitude; for both they and their camels were without number: and they entered into the land to destroy it. And Israel was greatly impoverished because of the Midianites; and the children of Israel cried unto the LORD.

7 And when the children of Israel cried unto the LORD because of the Midianites, the LORD sent a man a prophet unto the children of Israel, who said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I brought you up from Egypt, and brought you forth out of the house of bondage; and I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all who oppressed you, and drove them out from before you, and gave you their land; and I said unto you, I am the LORD your God; fear not the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but ye have not obeyed my voice.

11 And there came the angel of the LORD, and sat under an oak which was in Ophrah, that pertained unto Joash the Abi-ezrite; and his son Gideon threshed wheat by the winepress, to hide it from the Midianites. And the angel of the LORD appeared unto him, and said unto him, The LORD is with thee, thou mighty man of valour. 13 And Gideon said unto him, O my lord, if the LORD be with us, why then hath all this befallen us? and where are all his miracles which our fathers told us of, saying, Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt? but now the LORD hath forsaken us, and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites. And the LORD looked upon him, and said, Go in this thy might, and thou shalt save Israel from the hand of the Midianites: have not I sent thee? And he said unto him, O my lord, wherewith shall I save Israel? behold, my family is the meanest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father's house. And the LORD said unto him, Surely I will be with thee, and thou shalt smite the Midianites as one man. And he said unto him, If now I have found grace in thy sight, then show me a sign that thou talkest with me. Depart not hence, I pray thee, until I come unto thee, and bring forth my present, and set it before thee. And he said, I will tarry until thou come again.

19 And Gideon went in, and made ready a kid, and unleavened cakes of an ephah of flour: the flesh he put in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot, and brought it out unto him under the oak, and presented it. And the angel of God said unto him, Take the flesh and the unleavened cakes, and lay them upon this rock, and pour out the broth. And he did so. Then the angel of the LORD put forth the end of the staff that was in his hand, and touched the flesh and the unleavened cakes; and there rose up fire out of the rock, and consumed the flesh and the unleavened cakes. Then the angel of the LORD departed out of his sight.

22 And when Gideon perceived that he was the angel of the LORD, Gideon said, 23 Alas, O Lord God! because I have seen an angel of the LORD face to face. And the LORD said unto him, Peace be unto thee; fear not; thou shalt not die.

24 Then Gideon built an altar there unto the LORD, and called it Jehovah-shalom [THE LORD SPEAKETH PEACE]: unto this day it is yet in Ophrah of the Abi-ezrites.

25 And the same night the LORD said unto him, Take thy father's young bullock, and the second bullock of seven years old, and throw down the altar of Baal that thy father hath, and cut down the grove that is by it: and build an altar unto the LORD thy God upon the top of this rock, in the ordered place, and take the second bullock, and offer a burnt sacrifice with the wood of the grove which thou shalt cut down.

27 Then Gideon took ten men of his servants, and did as the LORD had said unto him: and because he feared his father's household, and the men of the city, that he could not do it by day, he did it by night.

28 And when the men of the city arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was cast down, and the grove was cut down that was by it, and the second bullock was offered upon the altar that was huilt. And they said one to another, Who hath done this thing? And when they inquired and asked, they said, Gideon the son of Joash hath done this thing. Then the men of the city said unto Joash, Bring out thy son, that he may die; because he hath cast down the altar of Baal, and because he hath cut down the grove that was by it. And Joash said unto all who stood against him, Will ye plead for Baal? will ye save him? he who will plead for him, let him be put to death: wait until the morning; if he be a god, he will avenge himself, because one hath cast down his altar. Therefore on that day he called him

Jerubbaal [LET BAAL PLEAD], saying, Let Baal plead against him, because he hath thrown down his altar.

Then all the Midianites, and the Amalekites, and the children of the east were gathered together, and went over, and pitched in the valley of Jezreel. But the Spirit of the LORD came upon Gideon, and he blew a trumpet; and Abi-ezer was gathered after him. And he sent messengers throughout all Manasseh; who also was gathered after him: and he sent messengers unto Asher, and unto Zebulun, and unto Naphtali; and they came up to meet them.

And Gideon said unto God, If thou wilt save Israel by my hand, as thou hast said, behold, I will put a fleece of wool in the floor; and if the dew be on the fleece only, and it be dry upon all the ground besides, then shall I know that thou wilt save Israel by my hand, as thou hast said. And it was so: for he rose up early on the morrow, and thrust the fleece together, and wrung the dew out of the fleece, a bowl full of water. And Gideon said unto God, Let not thine anger be hot against me, and I will speak but this once: let me prove, I pray thee, but this once with the fleece; let it now be dry only upon the fleece, and upon all the ground let there be dew. And God did so that night; for it was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

Then Jerubbaal, (who is Gideon,) and all the people who were with him, rose up early, and pitched beside the well of Harod: so that the host of the Midianites were on the north side of them, by the hill of Moreh, where one looketh into the valley. And the LORD said unto Gideon, The people who are with thee are too many for me to give the Midianites into their hands, lest Israel vaunt themselves against me, saying, Mine own hand hath saved me. Now therefore go and proclaim in the ears of the people, saying, Whosoever is fearful and afraid, let him return and depart early from mount Gilad. And there returned of the people twenty and two thousand; and there remained ten thousand. And the LORD said unto Gideon, The people are yet too many; bring them down unto the water, and I will try them for thee there; and of whom I say unto thee, This shall go with thee, the same shall go with thee; and of whomsoever I say unto thee, This shall not go with thee, the same shall not go. So he brought down the people unto the water: and the LORD said unto Gideon, Every one who lappeth of the water with his tongue, as a dog lappeth, him shalt thou set by himself; likewise every one who boweth down upon his knees to drink. And the number of them who lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, were three hundred men: but all the rest of the people bowed down upon their knees to drink water. And the LORD said unto Gideon, By the three hundred men who lapped will I save you, and deliver the Midianites into thy hand; and let all the other people go every man unto his place. So the people took victuals in their hand, and their trumpets: and he sent all the rest of Israel every man unto his tent, and retained those three hundred men: and the host of Midian was beneath him in the valley.

And the same night the LORD said unto him, Arise, get thee down unto the host; for I have delivered it into thy hand. But if thou fear to go down, go thou with Phurah thy servant down to the host: and thou shalt hear what they say; and afterwards thou shalt be emboldened to go down unto the host. Then went he down with Phurah his servant unto the outside of the armed men who were in the host. And the Midianites, and the Amalekites, and all the children of the east lay along in the valley like grasshoppers for multitude; and their camels were without number, as the sand by the sea side for multitude. And when Gideon was come, behold, there was a man who told a dream unto his companion, and said, Behold, I dreamed a dream, and, lo, a cake of barley bread tumbled into the host of Midian, and came unto a tent, and smote it that it fell, and overturned it, that the tent lay flat. And his companion answered and said, This is nothing else save the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel; for into his hand hath God delivered Midian, and all the host.

And when Gideon heard the telling of the dream, and the interpretation thereof, he worshipped, and returned into the host of Israel, and said, Arise; for the LORD hath delivered into your hand the host of Midian. And he divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put a trumpet in every man's hand, with empty pitchers, and lamps within the pitchers. And he said unto them, Look on me, and do likewise: and, behold, when I come to the outside of the camp, as I do, so shall ye do. When I blow with a trumpet, I and all who are with me, then blow ye the trumpets also on every side of all the camp, and say, The sword of the LORD, and of Gideon.

So Gideon, and the hundred men who were with him, came unto the outside of JUDGES VIII.

- the camp in the beginning of the middle watch; and they had but newly set the watch: and they blew the trumpets, and broke the pitchers that were in their hands. And the three companies blew the trumpets, and broke the pitchers, and held the lamps in their left hands, and the trumpets in their right hands to blow with: and they cried, The sword of the LORD, and of Gideon. And they stood every man in his place round about the camp: and all the host ran, and cried, and fled. And the three hundred blew the trumpets, and the LORD set every man's sword against his fellow, even throughout all the host: and the host fled to Beth-shittah in Zererath, and to the border of Abel-meholah, unto Tabbath.
- 23 And the men of Israel gathered themselves together out of Naphtali, and out of Asher, and out of all Manasseh, and pursued after the Midianites. And Gideon sent messengers throughout all mount Ephraim, saying, Come down against the Midianites, and take before them the waters unto Beth-abara and the Jordan. Then all the men of Ephraim gathered themselves together, and took the waters unto Beth-abara and the Jordan. And they took two princes of the Midianites, Oreb and Zeeb; and they slew Oreb upon the rock Oreb, and Zeeb they slew at the winepress of Zeeb, and pursued Midian, and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon on the other side the Jordan. And the men of Ephraim said unto him, Why hast thou served us thus, that thou calledst us not, when thou wentest to fight with the Midianites? And they did chide with him sharply. And he said unto them, What have I done now in comparison of you? Is not the gleanings of the grapes of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abiezer? God hath delivered into your hands the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb: and what was I able to do in comparison of you? Then their anger was abated towards him, when he had said that.
- 4 And Gideon came to the Jordan, and passed over, he, and the three hundred men who were with him, faint, yet pursuing them. And he said unto the men of Succoth, Give, I pray you, loaves of bread unto the people who follow me; for they are faint, and I am pursuing after Zebah and Zalmunna, kings of Midian. And the princes of Succoth said, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thy hand, that we should give bread unto thine army? And Gideon said, Therefore when the LORD hath delivered Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, then I will tear your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with briers. And he went up thence to Penuel, and spoke unto them likewise: and the men of Penuel answered him as the men of Succoth had answered him. And he spoke also unto the men of Penuel, saying, When I come again in peace, I will break down this tower.
- 10 Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and their host with them, about fifteen thousand men, all who were left of all the hosts of the children of the east; for there fell a hundred and twenty thousand men who drew sword. And Gideon went up by the way of those who dwelt in tents on the east of Nobah and Jogbehah, and smote the host; for the host was secure. And when Zebah and Zalmunna fled, he pursued after them, and took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and discomfited all the host.
- 13 14 And Gideon the son of Joash returned from battle before the sun was up, and caught a young man of the men of Succoth, and inquired of him; and he described unto him the princes of Succoth, and the elders thereof, even threescore and seventeen men. And he came unto the men of Succoth, and said, Behold Zebah and Zalmunna, with whom ye did upbraid me, saying, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thy hand, that we should give bread unto thy men who are weary? And he took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and with them he tore the men of Succoth. And he beat down the tower of Penuel, and slew the men of the city.
- 18 Then said he unto Zebah and Zalmunna, What manner of men were they whom ye slew at Tabor? And they answered, As thou art, so were they; each one resembled the son of a king. And he said, They were my brethren, even the sons of my mother: as the LORD liveth, if ye had saved them alive, I would not slay you. And he said unto Jether his firstborn, Up, and slay them. But the youth drew not his sword; for he feared, because he was yet a youth. Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, Rise thou, and fall upon us; for as the man is, so is his strength. And Gideon arose, and slew Zebah and Zalmunna, and took away the ornaments that were on their camels' necks.
- 22 Then the men of Israel said unto Gideon, Rule thou over us, both thou, and thy son, and thy son's son also: for thou hast delivered us from the hand of Midian. And Gideon said unto them, I will not rule over you, neither shall my son rule over you: the LORD shall rule over you. And Gideon said unto them, I would desire a request of you, that ye would give me every man the carrings of his prey. (For they had golden earrings, because they were Ishmaelites.) And they answered, We will willingly give 25 them. And they spread a garment, and did cast therein every man the earrings of his prey. And the weight of the golden carrings that he requested was a thousand 26 and seven hundred shekels of gold; besides ornaments, and collars, and purple raiment that was on the kings of Midian, and besides the chains that were about their camels' necks. And Gideon made an ephod thereof, and put it in his city, even 27 in Ophrah: and all Israel went thither astray after it: which thing became a snare unto Gideon, and to his house.

Thus was Midian subdued before the children of Israel, so that they lifted up their 28 heads no more. And the country was in quietness forty years in the days of Gideon. And Jerubbaal the son of Joash went and dwelt in his own house. And Gideon 29 30 had threescore and ten sons of his body begotten: for he had many wives. And his 31 concubine who was in Shechem, she also bore him a son, whose name he called Abimelech. And Gideon the son of Joash died in a good old age, and was buried 32 in the sepulchre of Joash his father, in Ophrah of the Abi-ernites.

And as soon as Gideon was dead, the children of Israel turned again, and went 33 astray after Baalim, and made Baal-berith their god. And the children of Israel re- 34 membered not the LORD their God, who had delivered them out of the hands of all their enemies on every side: neither showed they kindness to the house of Jerub- 35 baal, namely, Gideon, according to all the goodness which he had showed unto Israel; for Abimelech the son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem unto his mother's bre- 9 thren, and communed with them, and with all the family of the house of his mother's father, saying, Speak, I pray you, in the ears of all the men of Shechem, Whether 2 is better for you, either that all the sons of Jerubbaal, who are threescore and ten persons, reign over you, or that one reign over you? remember also that I am your bone and your flesh. And his mother's brethren spoke of him in the ears of all 3 the men of Shechem all these words; and their hearts inclined to follow Abimelech; for they said, He is our brother. And they gave him threescore and ten pieces of 4 silver out of the house of Baal-berith, wherewith Abimelech hired vain and light persons, who followed him. And he went unto his father's house at Ophrah, and 5 slew his brethren the sons of Jerubbaal, being threescore and ten persons, upon one stone: notwithstanding yet Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left; for he hid himself.

And all the men of Shechem gathered together, and all the house of Millo, and 6 went, and made Abimelech king, by the oak in the plain near Shechem. And when 7 they told it to Jotham, he went and stood in the top of mount Gerizim, and lifted up his voice, and cried, and said unto them, Hearken unto me, ye men of Shechem, that God may hearken unto you.

The trees went forth on a time to anoint a king over them; and they said unto the 8 olive tree, Reign thou over us. But the olive tree said unto them, Should I leave 9 my fatness, wherewith by me they honour kings and men of rank, and go to be promoted over the trees? And the trees said to the fig tree, Come thou, and reign over 10 us. But the fig tree said unto them, Should I forsake my sweetness, and my good 11 fruit, and go to be promoted over the trees? Then said the trees unto the vine, Come 12 thou, and reign over us. And the vine said unto them, Should I leave my wine, 13 which cheereth kings and men of rank, and go to be promoted over the trees? Then said all the trees unto the bramble, Come thou, and reign over us. And the 14 15 bramble said unto the trees, If in truth ye anoint me king over you, then come and put your trust in my shadow: and if not, let fire come out of the bramble, and devour the cedars of Lebanon.

Now therefore, if ye have done truly and sincerely, in that ye have made Abime- 16 lech king, and if ye have dealt well with Jerubbaal and his house, and have done unto him according to the deserving of his hands; (for my father fought for you, 17 and adventured his life far, and delivered you out of the hand of Midian: and ye are risen up against my father's house this day, and have slain his sons, threescore and ten persons, upon one stone, and have made Abimelech, the son of his maidservant, king over the men of Shechem, because he is your brother;) if ye then have dealt 19 truly and sincerely with Jerubbaal and with his house this day, then rejoice ye in Abimelech, and let him also rejoice in you: but if not, let fire come out from Abime- 20 lech, and devour the men of Shechem, and the house of Millo; and let fire come out from the men of Shechem, and from the house of Millo, and devour Abimelech. And Jotham ran away, and fled, and went to Beer, and dwelt there, for fear of 21 Abimelech his brother.

- 22 23 When Abimelech had reigned three years over Israel, then God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the men of Shechem; and the men of Shechem dealt
- 24 treacherously with Abimelech: that the cruelty done to the threescore and ten sons of Jerubbaal might come, and their blood be laid upon Abimelech their brother, who slew them; and upon the men of Shechem, who aided him in the killing of
- 25 his brethren. And the men of Shechem set liers in wait for him in the top of the mountains, and they robbed all who came along that way by them: and it was told
- 26 Abimelech. And Gaal the son of Ebed came with his brethren, and went over to
- 27 Shechem; and the men of Shechem put their confidence in him. And they went out into the fields, and gathered their vineyards, and trod the grapes, and made merry, and went into the house of their god, and did eat and drink, and cursed
- 28 Abimelech. And Gaal the son of Ebed said, Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? is not he the son of Jerubbaal? and Zebul his officer? serve the men of Hamor the father of Shechem; for why should we serve
- 29 him? Oh that this people were under my hand! then would I say to Abimelech, Increase thine army, and come out.
- 30 And when Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed,
- 31 his anger was kindled. And he sent messengers unto Abimelech craftily, saying, Behold, Gaal the son of Ebed and his brethren are come to Shechem; and, behold,
- 32 they fortify the city against thee. Now therefore up by night, thou and the people
- 33 who are with thee, and lie in wait in the field: and in the morning, as soon as the sun is up, thou shalt rise early, and set upon the city: and, behold, when he and the people who are with him come out against thee, then mayest thou do to them as thou shalt find occasion.
- 34 And Abimelech rose up, and all the people who were with him, by night, and they
- 35 laid wait against Shechem in four companies. And Gaal the son of Ebed went out, and stood in the entering of the gate of the city: and Abimelech rose up, and the
- 36 people who were with him, from lying in wait. And when Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, Behold, there come people down from the top of the mountains. And Zebul said unto him, Thou seest the shadow of the mountains as if they were men.
- 37 And Gaal spoke again and said, See there come people down by the middle of the land, and another company come along by the plain of Meonenim. Then said Zebul unto him, Where is now thy mouth, wherewith thou saidst, Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him? is not this the people whom thou hast despised? go out,
- 39 I pray now, and fight with them. And Gaal went out before the men of Shechem,
- 40 and fought with Abimelech. And Abimelech chased him, and he fled before him,
- 41 and many were overthrown and wounded, even unto the entering of the gate. And Abimelech dwelt at Arumah: and Zebul thrust out Gaal and his brethren, that they
- 42 should not dwell in Shechem. And on the morrow the people went out into the
- 43 field; and they told Abimelech. And he took the people, and divided them into three companies, and laid wait in the field, and looked, and, behold, the people were
- 44 come forth out of the city; and he rose up against them, and smote them. And Abimelech, and the company who were with him, rushed forward, and stood in the entering of the gate of the city; and the two other companies ran upon all the people
- 45 who were in the fields, and slew them. And Abimelech fought against the city all that day; and he took the city, and slew the people who were therein, and beat down the city, and sowed it with salt.
- 46 And when all the men of the tower of Shechem heard that, they entered into a
- 47 hold of the house of the god Berith. And it was told Abimelech, that all the men of
- 48 the tower of Shechem were gathered together. And Abimelech went up to mount Zalmon, he and all the people who were with him; and Abimelech took an axe in his hand, and cut down a bough from the trees, and took it, and laid it on his shoulder, and said unto the people who were with him, What ye have seen me do,
- 49 make haste, and do as I have done. And all the people likewise cut down every man his bough, and followed Abimelech, and put them to the hold, and set the hold on fire upon them; so that all the men of the tower of Shechem died also, about a thousand men and women.
- 50 51 Then went Abimelech to Thebez, and encamped against Thebez, and took it. But there was a strong tower within the city, and thither fled all the men and women, and all they of the city, and shut it to them, and went up to the top of the tower.
- 52 And Abimelech came unto the tower, and fought against it, and went near unto the
- 53 door of the tower to burn it with fire. And a certain woman cast a piece of a mill-
- 54 stone upon Abimelech's head, and it broke his scull. Then he called hastily unto the young man his armourbearer, and said unto him, Draw thy sword, and slay me, that men say not of me, A woman slew him. And his young man thrust him through, and he died. And when the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they departed every man unto his place.

Thus God rendered the wickedness of Abimelech, which he did unto his father, in slaying his seventy brethren : and all the evil of the men of Shechem did God render upon their heads : and upon them came the curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal.

AND after Abimelech there arose to defend Israel Tola the son of Puah, the son of Dodo, a man of Issachar; and he dwelt in Shamir in mount Ephraim. And he judged Israel twenty and three years, and died, and was buried in Shamir. 10

AND after him arose Jair, a Gileadite, and judged Israel twenty and two years. And he had thirty sons who rode on thirty ass colts, and they had thirty cities, which are called the villages of Jair unto this day, which are in the land of Gilead. And Jair died, and was buried in Camon.

AND the children of Israel did evil again in the sight of the LORD, and served Baalim, and Ashtaroth, and the gods of Syria, and the gods of Zidon, and the gods of Moab, and the gods of the children of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines, and forsook the LORD, and served not him. And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and he sold them into the hands of the Philistines, and into the hands of the children of Ammon. And from that time they vexed and oppressed the children of Israel eighteen years; all the children of Israel who were on the other side the Jordan in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilead. Moreover the children of Ammon passed over the Jordan to fight also against Judah, and against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim; so that Israel was sore distressed.

And the children of Israel cried unto the LORD, saying, We have sinned against thee, both because we have forsaken our God, and also served Baalim. And the LORD said unto the children of Israel, Did not I deliver you from the Egyptians, and from the Amorites, from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines? The Zidonians also, and the Amalekites, and the Maonites, oppressed you; and ye cried to me, and I delivered you out of their hand. Yet ye have forsaken me, and served other gods: wherefore I will deliver you no more. Go and cry unto the gods which ye have chosen; let them deliver you in the time of your tribulation. And the children of Israel said unto the LORD, We have sinned: do thou unto us whatsoever seemeth good unto thee; deliver us only, we pray thee, this day. And they put away the strange gods from among them, and served the LORD: and his soul was grieved for the misery of Israel.

Then the children of Ammon were gathered together, and encamped in Gilead. And the children of Israel assembled themselves together, and encamped in Mizpeh. And the people and princes of Gilead said one to another, What man is he who will begin to fight against the children of Ammon? he shall be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

NOW Jephthah the Gileadite was a mighty man of valour, and he was the son of a harlot: and Gilead begat Jephthah. And Gilead's wife bore him sons; and his wife's sons grew up, and they thrust out Jephthah, and said unto him, Thou shalt not inherit in our father's house; for thou art the son of a strange woman. Then Jephthah fled from his brethren, and dwelt in the land of Tob: and there were gathered vain men to Jephthah, and went out with him. And in process of time the children of Ammon made war against Israel. And when the children of Ammon made war against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to fetch Jephthah out of the land of Tob: and they said unto Jephthah, Come, and be our captain, that we may fight with the children of Ammon. And Jephthah said unto the elders of Gilead, Did not ye hate me, and expel me out of my father's house? and why are ye come unto me now when ye are in distress? And the elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, Therefore we turn again to thee now, that thou mayest go with us, and fight against the children of Ammon, and be our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead. And Jephthah said unto the elders of Gilead, If ye bring me home again to fight against the children of Ammon, and the LORD deliver them before me, I will be your head. And the elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, The LORD be witness between us, if we do not so according to thy words. Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and captain over them: and Jephthah uttered all his words before the LORD in Mizpeh. 11

And Jephthah sent messengers unto the king of the children of Ammon, saying, What hast thou to do with me, that thou art come against me to fight in my land? And the king of the children of Ammon answered unto the messengers of Jephthah, 13

Because Israel took away my land, when they came up out of Egypt, from Arnon even unto Jabbok, and unto the Jordan: now therefore restore those lands again peaceably.

14 And Jephthah sent messengers again unto the king of the children of Ammon :
 15 and said unto him, Thus saith Jephthah, Israel took not away the land of Moab, nor 16 the land of the children of Ammon; but when Israel came up from Egypt, and 17 walked through the wilderness unto the Red Sea, and came to Kadesh; then Israel sent messengers unto the king of Edom, saying, Let me, I pray thee, pass through thy land; but the king of Edom would not hearken thereto. And in like manner they sent unto the king of Moab; but he would not consent: and Israel abode in 18 Kadesh. Then they went along through the wilderness, and compassed the land of Edom, and the land of Moab, and came by the east side of the land of Moab, and pitched on the other side of Arnon, but came not within the border of Moab; for 19 Arnon was the border of Moab. And Israel sent messengers unto Sihon king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon; and Israel said unto him, Let us pass, we pray 20 thee, through thy land into my place. But Sihon trusted not Israel to pass through his coast: but Sihon gathered all his people together, and pitched in Jahaz, and 21 fought against Israel. And the LORD God of Israel delivered Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they smote them: so Israel possessed all the land of the 22 Amorites, the inhabitants of that country. And they possessed all the coasts of the Amorites, from Arnon even unto Jabbok, and from the wilderness even unto the Jordan.
 23 So now the LORD God of Israel hath dispossessed the Amorites from before 24 his people Israel, and shouldst thou possess it? Wilt not thou possess that which Chemosh thy god giveth thee to possess? So will we possess the land of those whom 25 the LORD our God shall drive out from before us. And now art thou any thing better than Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? did he ever strive against 26 Israel, or did he ever fight against them, while Israel dwelt in Heshbon and its towns, and in Aroer and its towns, and in all the cities that are along by the coasts of Arnon, three hundred years? why therefore did ye not recover them within that 27 time? Wherefore I have not sinned against thee, but thou doest me wrong to war against me: the LORD the Judge be judge this day between the children of Israel and the children of Ammon.

28 Howbeit the king of the children of Ammon hearkened not unto the words of 29 Jephthah which he sent him. Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jephthah, and he passed over Gilead, and Manassch, and passed over Mizpeh of Gilead, and 30 from Mizpeh of Gilead he passed over unto the children of Ammon. And Jephthah vowed a vow unto the LORD, and said, If thou shalt without fail deliver the children 31 of Ammon into my hands, then whatsoever cometh forth out of the doors of my house to meet me, when I return in peace from the children of Ammon, shall surely be the LORD'S, or I will offer it up for a burnt offering.

32 So Jephthah passed over unto the children of Ammon to fight against them; and 33 the LORD delivered them into his hands. And he smote them from Aroer, even to Minnith, twenty cities, and unto the plain of the vineyards, with a very great slaughter.
 Thus the children of Ammon were subdued before the children of Israel.

34 And Jephthah came to Mizpeh unto his house, and, behold, his daughter came out to meet him with timbrels and with dances; and she was his only child; besides her 35 he had not of his own either son or daughter. And when he saw her, he rent his clothes, and said, Alas, my daughter! thou hast brought me very low, and thou art one of those who trouble me; for I have opened my mouth unto the LORD, and I 36 cannot go back. And she said unto him, My father, if thou hast opened thy mouth unto the LORD, do to me according to that which hath proceeded out of thy mouth; forasmuch as the LORD hath taken vengeance for thee of thine enemies, even of 37 the children of Ammon. And she said unto her father, Let this thing be done for me; let me alone two months, that I may go up and down upon the mountains, and 38 bewail my virginity, I and my companions. And he said, Go. And he sent her away for two months: and she went with her companions, and bewailed her virginity 39 upon the mountains. And at the end of two months she returned unto her father, who did with her according to his vow which he had vowed: and she continued 40 a virgin. And it was a custom in Israel, that the daughters of Israel went yearly to lament with the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite four days in a year.

12 And the men of Ephraim gathered themselves together, and went northward, and said unto Jephthah, Wherefore passedst thou over to fight against the children of Ammon, and didst not call us to go with thee? we will burn thy house upon thee 2 with fire. And Jephthah said unto them, I and my people were at great strife with the children of Ammon; and when I called you, ye delivered me not out of their hands. And when I saw that ye delivered me not, I put my life in my hands, and 3 passed over against the children of Ammon, and the LORD delivered them into my hand: wherefore then are ye come up unto me this day, to fight against me?

Then Jephthah gathered together all the men of Gilead, and fought with Ephraim: 4 and the men of Gilead smote Ephraim, because they said, Ye Gileadites are fugitives of Ephraim among the Ephraimites, and among the Manassites. And the Gilead- 5 ites took the passages of the Jordan before the Ephraimites: and when those Ephraimites who had escaped said, Let me go over; the men of Gilead said unto him, Art thou an Ephraimite? If he said, Nay; then said they unto him, Say now 6 Shibboleth: and he said Sibboleth; for he could not frame to pronounce it right. Then they took him, and slew him at the passages of the Jordan; and there fell at that time of the Ephraimites forty and two thousand.

And Jephthah judged Israel six years. Then died Jephthah the Gileadite, and 7 was buried in his own city of Gilead.

AND after him Ibzan of Beth-lehem judged Israel. And he had thirty sons, and 8 9 thirty daughters, whom he sent abroad, and took in thirty daughters from abroad for his sons. And he judged Israel seven years. Then died Ibzan, and was buried at 10 Beth-lehem.

AND after him, Elon, a Zebulunite, judged Israel; and he judged Israel ten years. 11 And Elon the Zebulunite died, and was buried in Aijalon in the country of Zebulun. 12

AND after him Abdon the son of Hillel, a Pirathonite, judged Israel. And he had 13 14 forty sons and thirty grandsons, who rode on threescore and ten ass colts: and he judged Israel eight years. And Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite died, and 15 was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the mount of the Amalekites.

And the children of Israel did evil again in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD 16 delivered them into the hand of the Philistines forty years.

And there was a certain man of Zorah, of the family of the Danites, whose name 2 was Manoah; and his wife was barren, and bore not. And the angel of the LORD 3 appeared unto the woman, and said unto her, Behold now, thou art barren, and bearest not; but thou shalt conceive, and bear a son. Now therefore beware, I pray thee, 4 and drink not wine nor strong drink, and eat not any unclean thing; for, lo, thou 5 shalt conceive, and bear a son; and no razor shall come on his head: for the child shall be a Nazarite unto God from the womb: and he shall begin to deliver Israel out of the hand of the Philistines.

Then the woman came and told her husband, saying, A man of God came unto me, 6 and his countenance was like the countenance of an angel of God, very terrible; but I asked him not whence he was, neither told he me his name: but he said unto 7 me, Behold, thou shalt conceive, and bear a son; and now drink no wine nor strong drink, neither eat any unclean thing: for the child shall be a Nazarite to God from the womb to the day of his death.

Then Manoah entreated the LORD, and said, O my Lord, let the man of God whom 8 thou didst send come again unto us, and teach us what we shall do unto the child that shall be born. And God hearkened to the voice of Manoah; and the angel of 9 God came again unto the woman as she sat in the field; but Manoah her husband was not with her. And the woman made haste, and ran, and showed her husband, 10 and said unto him, Behold, the man hath appeared unto me, who came unto me the other day. And Manoah arose, and went after his wife, and came to the man, and 11 said unto him, Art thou the man who spakest unto the woman? And he said, I am. And Manoah said, Now let thy words come to pass. How shall we train up the child, 12 and what shall he do? And the angel of the LORD said unto Manoah, Of all that I 13 said unto the woman let her beware. She may not eat of any thing that cometh of 14 the vine, neither let her drink wine nor strong drink, nor eat any unclean thing: all that I commanded her let her observe.

And Manoah said unto the angel of the LORD, I pray thee, let us detain thee, 15 until we shall have made ready a kid for thee. And the angel of the LORD said 16 unto Manoah, Though thou detain me, I will not eat of thy bread: and if thou wilt offer a burnt offering, thou must offer it unto the LORD. For Manoah knew not that he was the angel of the LORD. And Manoah said unto the angel of the LORD, 17 What is thy name, that when thy sayings come to pass we may do thee honour? And the angel of the LORD said unto him, Why askest thou thus after my name, seeing it is secret? So Manoah took a kid with a thank offering, and offered it upon 18 a rock unto the LORD: and the angel did wondrously; and Manoah and his wife looked on. For when the flame went up towards the heavens from off the altar, the 20 angel of the LORD ascended in the flame of the altar. And Manoah and his wife 21 looked on it, and fell on their faces to the ground. But the angel of the LORD ap-22 peared no more to Manoah and to his wife. Then Manoah knew that he was an angel 23 of the LORD. And Manoah said unto his wife, We shall surely die, because we have 23 seen God. But his wife said unto him, If the LORD were pleased to kill us, he would not have received a burnt offering and a thank offering at our hands, neither would he have shown us all these things, nor would he as at this time have told us such things as these.

24 And the woman bore a son, and called his name Samson : and the child grew, and 25 the LORD blessed him. And the Spirit of the LORD began to move him at times in the camp of Dan between Zorah and Eshtaol.

14 AND Samson went down to Timnath, and saw a woman in Timnath of the daugh-14 ters of the Philistines. And he came up, and told his father and his mother, and said, I have seen a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistines : now 3 therefore get her for me to wife. Then his father and his mother said unto him, Is there not a woman among the daughters of thy brethren, or among all my people, 4 that thou goest to take a wife of the uncircumcised Philistines ? And Samson said unto his father, Get her for me ; for she pleaseth me well. But his father and his mother knew not that it was of the LORD, that he sought an occasion against the 5 Philistines ; for at that time the Philistines had dominion over Israel. Then went Samson down, and his father and his mother, to Timnath, and came to the vineyards 6 of Timnath ; and, behold, a young lion roared on meeting him. And the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and he rent him as he would have rent a kid, and he had nothing in his hand : but he told not his father or his mother what he 7 had done. And he went down, and talked with the woman ; and she pleased Samson well.

8 And after a time he returned to take her, and he turned aside to see the carcase of the lion : and, behold, there was a swarm of bees and honey in the carcase of the 9 lion. And he took thereof in his hands, and went on eating, and came to his father and mother, and he gave them, and they did eat ; but he told not them that he had taken the honey out of the carcase of the lion.

10 So his father went down unto the woman ; and Samson made there a feast, for so 11 used the young men to do. And when they saw him, they brought thirty com-12 panions to be with him. And Samson said unto them, I will now put forth a riddle unto you : if ye can certainly declare it me within the seven days of the feast, of your own finding out, then I will give you thirty changes of outer and under garments : 13 but if ye cannot declare it me, then shall ye give me thirty changes of outer and under garments. And they said unto him, Put forth thy riddle, that we may hear 14 it. And he said unto them,

Out of the eater came forth food,
 And out of the strong came forth sweetness.

15 And they could not in three days expound the riddle. And on the fourth day of the feast they said unto Samson's wife, Entice thy husband, that he may declare unto us the riddle, lest we burn thee and thy father's house with fire : have ye called us 16 to take that we have ? is it not so ? And Samson's wife wept before him, and said, Thou dost but hate me, and lovest me not : thou hast put forth a riddle unto the children of my people, and hast not told it me. And he said unto her, Behold, I 17 have not told it my father nor my mother, and shall I tell it thee ? And she wept before him the rest of the seven days, while their feast lasted : and on the seventh day he told her, because she lay sore upon him : and she told the riddle to the chil-18 dren of her people. And the men of the city said unto him on the seventh day before the sun went down,

What is sweeter than honey ?
 And what is stronger than a lion ?

And he said unto them, If ye had not ploughed with my heifer, ye had not found 19 out my riddle. And the Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he went down to Ashkelon, and slew thirty men of them, and took their spoil, and gave changes of outer and under garments unto those who expounded the riddle.

20 And his anger was kindled, and he went up to his father's house. But Samson's wife was given to his companion, whom he had used as his friend.

15 But within a while after, in the time of wheat harvest, Samson visited his wife with a kid ; and he said, I will go in to my wife into the chamber : but her father would not suffer him to go in. And her father said, I verily thought that thou hadst 2 utterly hated her; therefore I gave her to thy companion: is not her younger sister more beautiful than she? take her, I pray thee, instead of her.

And Samson said concerning them, Now shall I be more blameless than the Philis- 3 tines, though I do them a displeasure. And Samson went and caught three hun- 4 dred foxes, and took firebrands, and turned tail to tail, and put a firebrand in the midst between two tails. And when he had set the brands on fire, he let them go 5 into the standing corn of the Philistines, and burnt up both the shocks, and also the standing corn, with the vineyards and olives. Then the Philistines said, Who hath 6 done this? And they answered, Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he had taken his wife, and given her to his companion. And the Philistines came up, and burnt her and her father with fire.

And Samson said unto them, Though ye have done this, yet will I be avenged of 7 you, and after that I will cease. And he smote them hip and thigh with a great 8 slaughter: and he went down and dwelt in the cleft of the rock Etam.

Then the Philistines went up, and pitched in Judah, and spread themselves in 9 Lehi. And the men of Judah said, Why are ye come up against us? And they an- 10 swered, To bind Samson are we come up, to do to him as he hath done to us. Then 11 three thousand men of Judah went down to the cleft of the rock Etam, and said to Samson, Knowest thou not that the Philistines are rulers over us? what is this that thou hast done unto us? And he said unto them, As they did unto me, so have I done unto them. And they said unto him, We are come down to bind thee, that we may 12 deliver thee into the hand of the Philistines. And Samson said unto them, Swear unto me, that ye will not fall upon me yourselves. And they spoke unto him, 13 saying, No; but we will bind thee fast, and deliver thee into their hand: but surely we will not kill thee. And they bound him with two new cords, and brought him up from the rock.

And when he came unto Lehi, the Philistines shouted against him: and the Spirit 14 of the LORD came mightily upon him, and the cords that were upon his arms became as flax that was burnt with fire, and his bands loosed from off his hands. And 15 he found a new jawbone of an ass, and put forth his hand, and took it, and slew a thousand men therewith. And Samson said, 16

With the jawbone of an ass, heaps upon heaps,
With the jaw of an ass have I slain a thousand men.

And when he had made an end of speaking, he cast away the jawbone out of his 17 hand, and called that place Ramath-lehi [THE CASTING AWAY OF THE JAWBONE].

And he was sore athirst, and called on the LORD, and said, Thou hast given this 18 great deliverance unto the hand of thy servant: and now shall I die for thirst, and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised? But God clave a hollow place that was in 19 the rock at Ramath-lehi, and there came water thereout; and when he had drunk, his spirit came again, and he revived: wherefore he called the name thereof En-hakkore [THE WELL OF HIM THAT CRIED], which is in Lehi unto this day.

And he governed Israel as a judge in the days of the Philistines twenty years. 20

Then went Samson to Gaza, and saw there a harlot, and went in unto her. And 16 it was told the Gazites, saying, Samson is come hither. And they compassed him in, and laid wait for him all night in the gate of the city, and were quiet all the night, saying, By the morning, when it is day, we shall have killed him. And Samson lay 3 till midnight, and arose at midnight, and took the doors of the gate of the city, and the two posts with the bar, and went away with them, and put them upon his shoulders, and carried them up to the top of a hill that looketh towards Hebron.

And afterwards he loved a woman in the valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah. 4
And the lords of the Philistines came up unto her, and said unto her, Entice him, 5 and see wherein his great strength lieth, and by what means we may prevail against him, that we may bind him to humble him; and we will give thee, each one of us, eleven hundred pieces of silver.

And Delilah said to Samson, Tell me, I pray thee, wherein thy great strength 6 lieth, and wherewith thou mightest be bound to afflict thee. And Samson said unto 7 her, If they bind me with seven green withes that were never dried, then shall I be weak, and be as another man. Then the lords of the Philistines brought up to 8 her seven green withes which had not been dried, and she bound him with them.
Now there were men lying in wait, abiding with her in the chamber. And she said 9 unto him, The Philistines are upon thee, Samson. And he broke the withes, as a thread of tow is broken when it toucheth the fire. So his strength was not known.

- 10 And Delilah said unto Samson, Behold, thou hast mocked me, and told me lies :
 11 now tell me, I pray thee, wherewith thou mightest be bound. And he said unto her,
 If they bind me fast with new ropes that never were used, then shall I be weak, and 12 be as another man. Delilah therefore took new ropes, and bound him therewith, and said unto him, The Philistines are upon thee, Samson. And there were liers in wait abiding in the chamber. And he broke them from off his arms like a thread.
- 13 And Delilah said unto Samson, Hitherto thou hast mocked me, and told me lies :
 tell me wherewith thou mightest be bound. And he said unto her, If thou weavest the seven locks of my head with the web, and fasten them to the beam in the wall 14 with that pin, I shall be as weak as other men. So when he was asleep she fastened it with the pin, and said unto him, The Philistines are upon thee, Samson. And he awoke out of his sleep, and went away with the pin of the beam, and with the web.
- 15 And she said unto him, How canst thou say, I love thee, when thy heart is not with me ? thou hast mocked me these three times, and hast not told me wherein thy 16 great strength lieth. And when she pressed him daily with her words, and urged 17 him, so that his soul was vexed unto death ; he told her all his heart, and said unto her, There hath not come a razor upon my head ; for I have been a Nazarite unto God from my mother's womb ; if I be shaven, then my strength will go from me, and I shall become weak, and be like any other man.
- 18 And when Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, Come up this once, for he hath showed me all his heart. Then the lords of the Philistines came up unto her, and brought money in 19 their hands. And she made him sleep upon her knees ; and she called for a man, and she caused him to shave off the seven locks of his head ; and she began to hum-20 ble him, and his strength had gone from him. And she said, The Philistines are upon thee, Samson. And he awoke out of his sleep, and said, I will go out as at other times before, and shake myself. And he knew not that the LORD was de-21 parted from him. But the Philistines took him, and put out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza, and bound him with fetters of brass ; and he did grind in the prison house.
- 22 23 Howbeit the hair of his head began to grow again after he was shaven. Then the lords of the Philistines gathered themselves together to offer a great sacrifice unto Dagon their god, and to rejoice ; for they said, Our god hath delivered Samson our 24 enemy into our hand. And when the people saw him, they praised their god : for they said, Our god hath delivered into our hands our enemy, and the destroyer of our 25 country, who slew many of us. And when their hearts were merry, they said, Call for Samson, that he may make us sport. And they called for Samson out of the 26 prison house ; and he made them sport : and they set him between the pillars. And Samson said unto the lad who held him by the hand, Suffer me that I may feel the 27 pillars whereupon the house standeth, that I may lean upon them. Now the house was full of men and women ; and all the lords of the Philistines were there ; and there were upon the roof about three thousand men and women, who beheld while Sam-28 son made sport. And Samson called unto the LORD, and said, O Lord God, remember me, I pray thee, and strengthen me, I pray thee, only this once, O God, that 29 I may be at once avenged of the Philistines for my two eyes. And Samson took hold of the two middle pillars upon which the house stood, and on which it was 30 borne up, of the one with his right hand, and of the other with his left. And Samson said, Let me die with the Philistines. And he bowed himself with all his might ;
 and the house fell upon the lords, and upon all the people who were therein. So the dead whom he slew at his death were more than they whom he had slain in his life.
- 31 Then his brethren and all the house of his father came down, and took him, and brought him up, and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the burying-place of Manoah his father. And he judged Israel twenty years.
- 17 AND there was a man of mount Ephraim, whose name was Micah. And he said unto his mother, The eleven hundred shekels of silver that were taken from thee, about which thou cursedst, and spakest of also in mine ears, behold, the silver is with 3 me ; I took it. And his mother said, Blessed be thou of the LORD, my son. And when he had restored the eleven hundred shekels of silver to his mother, his mother said, I had wholly dedicated the silver unto the LORD from my hand for my son, to 4 make an engraved molten image : now therefore I will restore it unto thee. Yet he restored the money unto his mother ; and his mother took two hundred shekels of silver, and gave them to the founder, who made thereof an engraved molten image ; 5 and it was in the house of Micah. And the man Micah had a house of gods, and he made an ephod, and teraphim, and consecrated one of his sons, who became his priest. In those days there was no king in Israel, but every man did that which was 6 right in his own eyes.

And there was a young man out of Beth-lehem-judah of the family of Judah, who 7 was a Levite, and he sojourned there. And the man departed out of the city from 8 Beth-lehem-judah to sojourn where he could find a place: and he came to mount Ephraim to the house of Micah, as he journeyed. And Micah said unto him, 9 Whence comest thou? And he said unto him, I am a Levite of Beth-lehem-judah, and I go to sojourn where I may find a place. And Micah said unto him, Dwell 10 with me, and be unto me a father and a priest, and I will give thee ten shekels of silver by the year, and a double suit of apparel, and thy victuals. So the Levite went in. And the Levite was content to dwell with the man; and the young man was 11 unto him as one of his sons. And Micah consecrated the Levite; and the young 12 man became his priest, and was in the house of Micah. Then said Micah, Now 13 know I that the LORD will do me good, seeing I have a Levite to my priest.

In those days there was no king in Israel: and in those days the tribe of the 18 Danites sought an inheritance to dwell in; for unto that day all their inheritance had not fallen unto them among the tribes of Israel. And the children of Dan sent of 2 their family five men from their coasts, men of valour, from Zorah, and from Eshtaol, to spy out the land, and to search it; and they said unto them, Go, search the land: who when they came to mount Ephraim, to the house of Micah, they lodged there. When they were by the house of Micah, they knew the voice of the young man the 3 Levite; and they turned in thither, and said unto him, Who brought thee hither? and what doest thou in this place? and what hast thou here? And he said unto 4 them, Thus and thus dealeth Micah with me, and hath hired me, and I am his priest. And they said unto him, Ask counsel, we pray thee, of God, that we may 5 know whether the way which we go shall be prosperous. And the priest said unto 6 them, Go in peace: before the LORD is your way wherein ye go.

Then the five men departed, and came to Laish, and saw the people who were 7 therein, how they dwelt careless, after the manner of the Zidonians, quiet and secure; and there was no magistrate in the land, who might put them to shame in any thing; and they were far from the Zidonians, and had no intercourse with any other people. And they came unto their brethren to Zorah and Eshtaol: and their 8 brethren said unto them, What say ye? And they said, Arise, that we may go up 9 against them; for we have seen the land, and, behold, it is very good: and are ye still? be not slothful to go, and to enter to possess the land. When ye go, ye shall 10 come unto a people secure, and to a large land; for God hath given it into your hands; a place where there is no want of any thing that is in the earth.

And there went from thence of the family of the Danites, out of Zorah and out of 11 Eshtaol, six hundred men girded with weapons of war. And they went up, and 12 pitched in Kirjath-jearim, in Judah: wherefore they called that place Mahaneh-dan [THE CAMP OF DAN] unto this day: behold, it is behind Kirjath-jearim. And they 13 passed thence unto mount Ephraim, and came unto the house of Micah. Then 14 answered the five men who went to spy out the country of Laish, and said unto their brethren, Do ye know that there are in these houses an ephod, and teraphim, and an engraved molten image? now therefore consider what ye have to do. And they 15 turned thitherwards, and came to the house of the young man the Levite, even unto the house of Micah, and saluted him. And the six hundred men girded with their 16 weapons of war, who were of the children of Dan, stood by the entering of the gate. And the five men who went to spy out the land went up, and came in thither, and 17 took the engraved molten image, and the ephod, and the teraphim: and the priest stood in the entering of the gate with the six hundred men who were girded with weapons of war. And these went into Micah's house, and fetched the engraved 18 molten image, the ephod, and the teraphim. Then said the priest unto them, What do ye? And they said unto him, Hold thy peace, lay thy hand upon thy mouth, 19 and go with us, and be to us a father and a priest: is it better for thee to be a priest unto the house of one man, or that thou be a priest unto a tribe and a family in Israel? And the priest's heart was glad, and he took the ephod, and the teraphim, 20 and the engraved molten image, and went in the midst of the people. So they turned 21 and departed, and put the little ones and the cattle and the baggage before them.

And when they were a good way from the house of Micah, the men who were in 22 the houses near to Micah's house were gathered together, and overtook the children of Dan. And they cried unto the children of Dan. And they turned their 23 faces, and said unto Micah, What aileth thee, that thou comest with such a company? And he said, Ye have taken away my god which I made, and the priest, and 24

ye are gone away : and what have I more ? and what is this that ye say unto me, 25 What aileth thee ? And the children of Dan said unto him, Let not thy voice be heard among us, lest men of bitter spirit run upon thee, and thou lose thy life, with 26 the lives of thy household. And the children of Dan went their way : and when Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back unto his house.

27 And they took the things which Micah had made, and the priest whom he had, and came unto Laish, unto a people who were quiet and secure : and they smote them 28 with the edge of the sword, and burnt the city with fire. And there was no deliverer, because it was far from Zidon, and they had no intercourse with any other people ; and it was in the valley that lieth by Beth-rehob.

29 And they built a city, and dwelt therein. And they called the name of the city
 Dan, after the name of Dan their father, who was born unto Israel : howbeit the name 30 of the city was Laish at the first. And the children of Dan set up the engraved molten image : and Jonathan, the son of Gershom, the grandson of Moses, he and his sons were priests to the tribe of Dan until the day of the captivity of the land.
 31 And they set them up Micah's engraved molten image, which he made, all the time that the house of God was in Shiloh.

19 AND in those days, when there was no king in Israel, there was a certain Levite sojourning on the side of mount Ephraim, who took to him a woman, a concubine, 2 out of Beth-lehem-judah. And his concubine played the whore against him, and went away from him unto her father's house to Beth-lehem-judah, and was there four whole months.

3 And her husband arose, and went after her, to speak friendly unto her, and to bring her again, having his servant with him, and a couple of asses : and she brought him into her father's house : and when the father of the damsel saw him, he rejoiced 4 to meet him. And his father-in-law, the damsel's father, retained him ; and he 5 abode with him three days : so they did eat and drink, and lodged there. And on the fourth day, when they arose early in the morning, he rose up to depart : and the damsel's father said unto his son-in-law, Comfort thy heart with a morsel of bread, 6 and afterwards go thy way. And they sat down, and did eat and drink both of them together ; for the damsel's father had said unto the man, Be content, I pray thee, and 7 tarry all night, and let thy heart be merry. And when the man rose up to depart, 8 his father-in-law urged him : therefore he lodged there again. And he arose early in the morning on the fifth day to depart : and the damsel's father said, Comfort thy heart, I pray thee. And they tarried until the day declined, and they both of them 9 ate. And when the man rose up to depart, he, and his concubine, and his servant, his father-in-law, the damsel's father, said unto him, Behold, now the day draweth towards evening, I pray you tarry all night : behold, the day groweth to an end, lodge here, that thy heart may be merry ; and to-morrow get you early on your way, 10 that thou mayest go home. But the man would not tarry that night, but he rose up and departed, and came to over against Jebus, (which is Jerusalem ;) and there were with him two asses saddled, his concubine also was with him.

11 And when they were by Jebus, the day was far spent ; and the servant said unto his master, Come, I pray thee, and let us turn in into this city of the Jebusites, and 12 lodge in it. And his master said unto him, We will not turn aside hither into the city of a stranger, who is not of the children of Israel ; we will pass over to Gibeah.
 13 And he said unto his servant, Come, and let us draw near to one of these places to 14 lodge all night, in Gibeah, or in Ramah. And they passed on and went their way ; and the sun went down upon them when they were by Gibeah, which belongeth to 15 Benjamin. And they turned aside thither, to go in and to lodge in Gibeah : and when he went in, he sat him down in a street of the city : for there was no man who took them into his house to lodge.

16 And, behold, there came an old man from his work out of the field at evening, who was also of mount Ephraim ; and he sojourned in Gibeah : but the men of the 17 place were Benjamites. And when he had lifted up his eyes, he saw a wayfaring man in the street of the city : and the old man said, Whither goest thou ? and whence 18 comest thou ? And he said unto him, We are passing from Beth-lehem-judah, towards the side of mount Ephraim : from thence am I : and I went to Beth-lehemjudah, but I am now going to the house of the LORD ; and there is no man that 19 receiveth me into his house. Yet we have both straw and provender for our asses ; and we have bread and wine also for me, and for thy handmaid, and for the young 20 man who is with thy servants : there is no want of any thing. And the old man said, Peace be with thee ; howsoever let all thy wants lie upon me ; only lodge not in the street. So he brought him into his house, and gave provender unto the asses: and they washed their feet, and ate and drank. 21

Now as they were making their hearts merry, behold, the men of the city, certain wicked men, beset the house round about, and beat at the door, and spoke to the master of the house, the old man, saying, Bring forth the man who came into thy house, that we may know him. And the man, the master of the house, went out unto them, and said unto them, Nay, my brethren, nay, I pray you, do not so wickedly; seeing that this man is come into my house, do not this folly. Behold, here 24 is my daughter a maiden, and his concubine; them I will bring out now, and humble ye them, and do with them what seemeth good unto you; but unto this man do not so vile a thing. But the men would not hearken to him: so the man took his 25 concubine, and brought her forth unto them; and they knew her, and abused her all the night until the morning: and when the day began to spring, they let her go.

Then came the woman in the dawning of the day, and fell down at the door of the 26 man's house where her lord was, till it was light. And her lord rose up in the morning, and opened the doors of the house, and went out to go his way: and, behold, the woman his concubine was fallen down at the door of the house, and her hands 27 were upon the threshold. And he said unto her, Up, and let us be going. But none answered. Then the man took her up upon an ass, and the man rose up, and went 28 unto his place.

And when he was come into his house, he took a knife, and laid hold on his concubine, and divided her, together with her bones, into twelve pieces, and sent her into all the coast of Israel. And all who saw it said, There was no such deed done nor 30 seen from the day that the children of Israel came up out of the land of Egypt unto this day: consider of it, take advice, and speak your minds.

Then all the children of Israel went out, and the congregation was gathered 20 together as one man, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, with the land of Gilead, unto the LORD in Mizpeh. And the chief of all the people, even of all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand footmen who drew sword. (Now the children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel were gone up to Mizpeh.) 3

Then said the children of Israel, Tell us, how was this wickedness? And the man, 4 the Levite, the husband of the woman who was slain, answered and said, I came into Gibeah that belongeth to Benjamin, I and my concubine, to lodge. And the men 5 of Gibeah rose against me, and beset the house round about upon me by night, and thought to have slain me: and my concubine have they forced, that she is dead. And I took my concubine, and cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout all the 6 country of the inheritance of Israel; for they have committed lewdness and folly in Israel. Behold, ye are all children of Israel; give here your advice and counsel. 7

And all the people arose as one man, saying, We will not any of us go to his tent, 8 neither will we any of us turn into his house. But now this shall be the thing which 9 we will do to Gibeah; we will go up by lot against it; and we will take ten men of a hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, and a hundred of a thousand, and a thousand out of ten thousand, to fetch victual for the people, that they may do, when they come to Gibeah of Benjamin, according to all the folly that they have wrought 10 in Israel.

So all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, knit together as one man. 11 And the tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribe of Benjamin, saying, What wickedness is this that is done among you? Now therefore deliver us the men, the 12 children of wickedness, who are in Gibeah, that we may put them to death, and put away evil from Israel. But the children of Benjamin would not hearken to the voice of their brethren the children of Israel: but the children of Benjamin gathered 14 themselves together out of the cities unto Gibeah, to go out to battle against the children of Israel. And the children of Benjamin were numbered at that time out 15 of the cities twenty and six thousand men who drew sword, besides the inhabitants of Gibeah, who were numbered seven hundred chosen men. Among all this people 16 there were seven hundred chosen men left-handed; every one could sling stones at a hair's breadth, and not miss. And the men of Israel, besides Benjamin, were numbered four hundred thousand men who drew sword; all these were men of war. 17

And the children of Israel arose, and went up to the house of God, and asked counsel of God, and said, Which of us shall go up first to the battle against the children of Benjamin? And the LORD said, Judah shall go up first.

And the children of Israel rose up in the morning, and encamped against Gibeah. 19 And the men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin; and the men of Israel 20

- 21 put themselves in array to fight against them at Gibeah. And the children of Benjamin came forth out of Gibeah, and destroyed down to the ground of the Israelites that day twenty and two thousand men.
- 22 And the people the men of Israel encouraged themselves, and set their battle again in array in the place where they put themselves in array the first day. (And the children of Israel went up and wept before the LORD until the evening, and asked counsel of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up again to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother? And the LORD said, Go up against him.) And the children of Israel came near against the children of Benjamin the second day. And Benjamin went forth against them out of Gibeah the second day, and destroyed down to the ground of the children of Israel again eighteen thousand men; all these drew the sword.
- 26 Then all the children of Israel, and all the people, went up, and came unto the house of God, and wept, and sat there before the LORD, and fasted that day until the evening, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD. And the children of Israel inquired of the LORD, (for the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days, and Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, stood before it in those days,) saying, Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother, or shall I cease? And the LORD said, Go up; for tomorrow I will deliver them into thy hand.
- 29 30 And Israel set liers in wait round about Gibeah. And the children of Israel went up against the children of Benjamin on the third day, and put themselves in array against Gibeah, as at other times. And the children of Benjamin went out against the people, and were drawn away from the city; and they began to smite of the people, and kill, as at other times, in the highways, of which one goeth up to the house of God, and the other to Gibeah in the field, about thirty men of Israel. And the children of Benjamin said, They are smitten down before us, as at the first. But the children of Israel said, Let us flee, and draw them from the city unto the highways. And all the men of Israel rose up out of their place, and put themselves in array at Baal-tamar: and the liers in wait of Israel came forth out of their places, even out of the meadows of Gibeah. And there came against Gibeah ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and the battle was sore: but they knew not that evil was near them. And the LORD smote Benjamin before Israel: and the children of Israel destroyed of the Benjamites that day twenty and five thousand and a hundred men: all these drew the sword.
- 36 So the children of Benjamin saw that they were smitten: for the men of Israel gave place to the Benjamites, because they trusted unto the liers in wait whom they had set beside Gibeah. And the liers in wait hastened, and rushed upon Gibeah; and the liers in wait drew themselves along, and smote all the city with the edge of the sword. Now there was an appointed sign between the men of Israel and the liers in wait, that they should make a great cloud of smoke rise up out of the city. And when the men of Israel retired in the battle, Benjamin began to smite and kill of the men of Israel about thirty persons: for they said, Surely they are smitten down before us, as in the first battle. But when the flame began to arise up out of the city with a pillar of smoke, the Benjamites looked behind them, and behold, the flame of the city ascended up to the heavens. And when the men of Israel turned again, the men of Benjamin were amazed: for they saw that evil was come upon them.
- 42 Therefore they turned their backs before the men of Israel unto the way of the wilderness; but the battle overtook them; and they who made war in the cities they destroyed in the midst of them. Thus they enclosed the Benjamites round about, and chased them, and trod them down with ease over against Gibeah towards the sunrise. And there fell of Benjamin eighteen thousand men; all these were men of valour. And they turned and fled towards the wilderness unto the rock of Rimmon: and they gleaned of them in the highways five thousand men; and pursued hard after them unto Gidom, and slew two thousand men of them. So that all who fell that day of Benjamin were twenty and five thousand men who drew the sword; all these were men of valour. But six hundred men turned and fled to the wilderness unto the rock Rimmon, and abode in the rock Rimmon four months.
- 48 And the men of Israel turned again upon the children of Benjamin, and smote them with the edge of the sword, as well the men of every city, as the beast, and all that were found: also they set on fire all the cities that they came to.
- 21 Now the men of Israel had sworn in Mizpeh, saying, There shall not any of us give his daughter unto Benjamin to wife. And the people came to the house of God, and abode there till evening before God, and lifted up their voices, and wept sore ; and said, O LORD God of Israel, why is this come to pass in Israel, that there 3 should be to-day one tribe lacking in Israel ? And on the morrow the people rose 4 early, and built there an altar, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings.

And the children of Israel said, Who is there among all the tribes of Israel that 5 came not up with the congregation unto the LORD ? For they had made a great oath concerning him who came not up to the LORD to Mizpeh, saying, He shall surely be put to death. And the children of Israel repented them for Benjamin their 6 brother, and said, There is one tribe cut off from Israel this day. How shall we do 7 for wives for those who remain, seeing we have sworn by the LORD that we will not give them of our daughters to wives ? And they said, What one is there of the tribes 8 of Israel who came not up to Mizpeh to the LORD ?

And, behold, there came none to the camp from Jabesh-gilead to the assembly. For the people were numbered, and, behold, there were none of the inhabitants of 9 Jabesh-gilead there. And the congregation sent thither twelve thousand men of the most valiant, and commanded them, saying, Go and smite the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead with the edge of the sword, with the women and the children. And this is 11 the thing that ye shall do, Ye shall utterly destroy every male, and every woman who hath lain with man. And they found among the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead 12 four hundred young virgins, who had known no man by lying with him : and they brought them unto the camp to Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.

And the whole congregation went to speak to the children of Benjamin who were 13 in the rock Rimmon, and to proclaim peace to them. And Benjamin came again at 14 that time ; and they gave them wives whom they had saved alive of the women of Jabesh-gilead : and yet so they sufficed them not. And the people repented them 15 for Benjamin, because that the LORD had made a breach in the tribes of Israel.

Then the elders of the congregation said, How shall we do for wives for those who 16 remain, seeing the women are destroyed out of Benjamin ? And they said, There 17 must be an inheritance for those who have escaped of Benjamin, that a tribe be not destroyed out of Israel. Howbeit we may not give them wives of our daughters ; for 18 the children of Israel have sworn, saying, Cursed be he who giveth a wife to Benjamin.

Then they said, Behold, there is a feast of the LORD in Shiloh yearly in a place 19 which is on the north side of Beth-el, on the east side of the highway that goeth up from Beth-el to Shechem, and on the south of Lebonah. Therefore they commanded 20 the children of Benjamin, saying, Go and lie in wait in the vineyards ; and see, and 21 behold, if the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in dances, then come ye out of the vineyards, and catch you every man his wife of the daughters of Shiloh, and go 22 to the land of Benjamin. And when their fathers or their brethren come unto us to complain, we will say unto them, Be favourable unto them for our sakes ; because we reserved not to each man his wife in the war ; for ye did not give unto them at 23 this time, that ye should be guilty. And the children of Benjamin did so, and took 24 them wives, according to their number, of those who danced, whom they caught : and they went and returned unto their inheritance, and repaired the cities, and dwelt in them. And the children of Israel departed thence at that time, every man to his 25 tribe and to his family, and they went out from thence every man to his inheritance. In those days there was no king in Israel : and every man did that which was right 26 in his own eyes.

THE BOOK OF RUTH.

NOW in the days when the judges ruled, there was a famine in the land of Canaan. 1 And a certain man of Beth-lehem-judah went to sojourn in the country of Moab, he, and his wife, and his two sons. And the name of the man was Elimelech, and the 2 name of his wife Naomi, and the name of his two sons Mahlon and Chilion, Ephrathites of Beth-lehem-judah. And they came into the country of Moab, and continued there.

- 3 4 And Elimelech Naomi's husband died; and she was left, and her two sons. And they took them wives of the women of Moab; the name of the one was Orpah, and 5 the name of the other Ruth: and they dwelt there about ten years. And Mahlon and Chilion died also, both of them; and the woman was bereaved of her two sons and her husband.
- 6 Then she arose with her daughters-in-law, that she might return from the country of Moab; for she had heard in the country of Moab how that the LORD had 7 visited his people in giving them bread. Wherefore she went forth out of the place where she was, and her two daughters-in-law with her; and as they went on the way 8 to return unto the land of Judah, Naomi said unto her two daughters-in-law, Go, return each to her mother's house: the LORD deal kindly with you, as ye have dealt 9 with the dead, and with me. The LORD grant that ye may find rest, each of you in the house of her husband. Then she kissed them; and they lifted up their voice, 10 and wept. And they said unto her, Surely we will return with thee unto thy people.
- 11 And Naomi said, Turn back, my daughters; why will ye go with me? are there 12 yet any more sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands? Turn again, my daughters, go your way; for I am too old to have a husband. If I should say, I 13 have hope, were I with a husband also to-night, and should also bear sons; would ye tarry for them till they were grown? would ye stay for them from having husbands? nay, my daughters; for it grieveth me much for your sakes that the hand of the 14 LORD is gone out against me. And they lifted up their voice, and wept again: and Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, and returned to her own people; but Ruth clave unto her.
- 15 And she said, Behold, thy sister-in-law is gone back unto her people, and unto 16 her gods: return thou after thy sister-in-law. And Ruth said, Entreat me not to leave thee, or to return from following after thee: for whither thou goest, I will go; and where thou lodgest, I will lodge: thy people shall be my people, and thy God 17 my God: where thou diest, will I die, and there will I be buried: the LORD do so to me, and more also, if aught but death part thee and me. When she saw that she was steadfastly minded to go with her, then she left speaking unto her.
- 19 So they two went until they came to Beth-lehem. And when they were come to 20 Beth-lehem, all the city was moved about them, and they said, Is this Naomi? And she said unto them, Call me not Naomi [JOYFUL], call me Mara [SORROWFUL]; for 21 the Almighty hath dealt very bitterly with me. I went out full, and the LORD hath brought me home again empty: why then call ye me Naomi, seeing the LORD hath testified against me, and the Almighty hath afflicted me?
- 22 So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter-in-law, returned with her out of the country of Moab: and they came to Beth-lehem, in the beginning of barley harvest.
- 2 AND Naomi had a kinsman of her husband Elimelech's family, a mighty man of wealth; and his name was Boaz. And Ruth the Moabitess said unto Naomi, Let me now go to the field, and glean ears of corn after him in whose sight I shall find 3 favour. And she said unto her, Go, my daughter. And she went, and being come, she gleaned in the field after the reapers: and it happened to her to light on a part of the field belonging unto Boaz, who was of the kindred of Elimelech.
- 4 And, behold, Boaz came from Beth-lehem, and said unto the reapers, The LORD 5 be with you. And they answered him, The LORD bless thee. Then said Boaz 6 unto his servant who was set over the reapers, Whose damsel is this? And he answered and said, It is the Moabitish damsel who came back with Naomi out of 7 the country of Moab: and she said, I pray you, let me glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves: so she came, and hath continued even from the morn- 8 ing until now, and she tarried a little in the tent. Then said Boaz unto Ruth, Hearkest thou not, my daughter? Go not to glean in another field, neither go from 9 hence, but abide here fast by my maidens: let thine eyes be on the field that they do reap, and go thou after them: have I not charged the young men that they shall not touch thee? and when thou art athirst, go unto the vessels, and drink of that 10 which the young men have drawn. Then she fell on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, and said unto him, Why have I found grace in thine eyes, that thou 11 shouldest take knowledge of me, seeing I am a stranger? And Boaz answered and said unto her, It hath fully been made known to me, all that thou hast done unto thy mother-in-law since the death of thy husband: and how thou hast left thy father and thy mother, and the land of thy nativity, and art come unto a people whom 12 thou knewest not heretofore. The LORD recompense thy work, and a full reward be given thee of the LORD God of Israel, under whose wings thou art come to trust. Then she said, Let me find favour in thy sight, my lord; for that thou hast 13 comforted me, and for that thou hast spoken friendly unto thy handmaid, though I be not equal unto one of thy handmaidens. And Boaz said unto her, At mealtime come 14 thou hither, and eat of the bread, and dip thy morsel in the vinegar. And she sat beside the reapers: and he reached her parched corn, and she ate, and was sufficed, and left. And when she was risen up to glean, Boaz commanded his young men, 15 saying, Let her glean even among the sheaves, and reproach her not: and let fall 16 also some of the handfuls on purpose for her, and leave them, that she may glean them, and rebuke her not. So she gleaned in the field until the evening, and beat 17 out that which she had gleaned: and it was about an ephah of barley.

And she took it up, and went into the city; and her mother-in-law saw what she 18 had gleaned: and she brought forth, and gave to her that she had reserved after she was sufficed. And her mother-in-law said unto her, Where hast thou gleaned to- 19 day? and where wroughtest thou? blessed be he who took knowledge of thee. And she showed her mother-in-law with whom she had wrought, and said, The man's 20 name with whom I wrought to-day is Boaz. And Naomi said unto her daughter-in-law, Blessed be he of the LORD, who hath not left off his kindness to the living and 21 to the dead. And Naomi said unto her, The man is near of kin unto us, one of our next kinsmen. And Ruth the Moabitess said, He said unto me also, Thou shalt keep 22 fast by my young men, until they have ended all my harvest. And Naomi said unto Ruth her daughter-in-law, It is good, my daughter, that thou go out with his maid- 23 ens, that they meet thee not in any other field. So she kept fast by the maidens of Boaz to glean unto the end of barley harvest and of wheat harvest; and dwelt with her mother-in-law.

Then Naomi her mother-in-law said unto her, My daughter, shall I not seek rest 3 for thee, that it may be well with thee? And now is not Boaz of our kindred, with whose maidens thou wast? Behold, he winnoweth barley to-night in the threshing- 4 floor. Wash thyself therefore, and anoint thee, and put thy best raiment upon thee, 5 and get thee down to the threshingfloor; but make not thyself known unto the man, until he shall have done eating and drinking. And when he lieth down, thou shalt 6 mark the place where he shall lie, and thou shalt go in, and uncover his feet, and lay thee down; and he will tell thee what thou shalt do. And she said unto her, All 7 that thou sayest unto me I will do.

And she went down unto the floor, and did according to all that her mother-in-law 8 bade her. And when Boaz had eaten and drunk, and his heart was merry, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of corn: and she came softly, and uncovered his feet, and laid her down. And at midnight the man was afraid, and turned himself; 9 and, behold, a woman lay at his feet. And he said, Who art thou? And she answered, I am Ruth thy handmaid: spread therefore thy skirt over thy handmaid; for thou art a near kinsman. And he said, Blessed be thou of the LORD, my daughter; 10 for thou hast shown more kindness in the latter end than at the beginning, inasmuch as thou followest not young men, whether poor or rich. And now, my daughter, 11 fear not; I will do to thee all that thou requirest: for all the city of my people know that thou art a virtuous woman. And now it is true that I am thy near kinsman: 12 howbeit there is a kinsman nearer than I. Tarry this night, and in the morning, if he will perform unto thee the part of a kinsman, well; let him do the kinsman's 13 part: but if he will not do the part of a kinsman to thee, then will I do the part of a kinsman to thee, as the LORD liveth: lie down until the morning.

And she lay at his feet until the morning: and she rose up before one could know 14 another. And he said, Let it not be known that a woman came into the floor. Also 15 he said, Bring the outer covering that thou hast upon thee, and hold it. And when she held it, he measured six measures of barley, and laid it on her: and she went into the city.

And when she came to her mother-in-law, she said, How is it with thee, my 16 daughter? And she said, Let it be known that the man had done to her. And she said, These 17 six measures of barley gave he me; for he said to me, Go not empty unto thy mother-in-law. Then said she, Sit still, my daughter, until thou know how the matter will 18 fall; for the man will not be at rest, until he have finished the thing this day.

Then went Boaz up to the gate, and sat him down there: and, behold, the kins- 4 man of whom Boaz spoke came by; unto whom he said, Ho, such a one! turn aside, sit down here. And he turned aside, and sat down. And he took ten men of the elders 2 of the city, and said, Sit ye down here. And they sat down. And he said unto the 3 kinsman, Naomi, who is come again out of the country of Moab, selleth a parcel of land, which was our brother Elimelech's: and I thought to tell thee in thine ear, say- 4

- ing, Buy it before the inhabitants, and before the elders of my people. If thou wilt redeem it, redeem it: but if thou wilt not redeem it, then tell me, that I may know; for there is none to redeem it besides thee; and I am after thee. And he said, I will
- 5 redeem it. Then said Boaz, What day thou buyest the field of the hand of Naomi, thou must buy Ruth the Moabitess also, the wife of the dead, to raise up the name
- 6 of the dead upon his inheritance. And the kinsman said, I cannot redeem it for myself, lest I mar mine own inheritance, for I have a wife: redeem thou my right to
- 7 thyself; for I cannot redeem it. Now this was the custom in former times in Israel concerning redeeming and concerning changing, for to confirm all things: a man plucked off his shoe, and gave it to his neighbour: and this was a testimony in Israel.
- 8 Therefore the kinsman said unto Boaz, Pull off thy shoe; buy it for thyself. So he drew off his shoe.
- 9 And Boaz said unto the elders, and unto all the people, Ye are witnesses this day, that I have bought all that was Elimelech's, and all that was Chilion's and Mahlon's,
- 10 of the hand of Naomi. Moreover Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, have I purchased to be my wife, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, that the name of the dead be not cut off from among his brethren, and from the gate of
- 11 his place: ye are witnesses this day. And all the people who were in the gate, and the elders, said, We are witnesses. The LORD make the woman who is come into
- 12 thy house like Rachel and like Leah, which two did raise up children to the house of Israel: and be thou eminent in Ephratah, and be famous in Beth-lehem: and let thy house be like the house of Pharez, whom Tamar bore unto Judah, of the seed which the LORD shall give thee of this young woman.
- 13 So Boaz took Ruth, and she was his wife: and when he went in unto her, the LORD
- 14 gave her conception, and she bore a son. And the women said unto Naomi, Blessed be the LORD, who hath not left thee this day without a redeemer, and his name will
- 15 be famous in Israel. And he shall be unto thee a comforter of thy life, and a nourisher of thine old age: for thy daughter-in-law, who loveth thee, who is better to thee
- 16 than many sons, hath borne him. And Naomi took the child, and laid it in her bosom, and became nurse unto it. And the women her neighbours gave it a name,
- 17 saying, There is a son born to Naomi; and they called his name Obed: he is the father of Jesse, the father of David.
- 18 19 Now these are the generations of Pharez: Pharez begat Hezron, and Hezron begat
- 20 Ram, and Ram begat Amminadab, and Amminadab begat Nahshon, and Nahshon
- 21 22 begat Salmon, and Salmon begat Boaz, and Boaz begat Obed, and Obed begat Jesse, and Jesse begat David.

THE FIRST BOOK OF SAMUEL,

OTHERWISE CALLED,

THE FIRST BOOK OF THE KINGS.

- 1 NOW there was a certain man of Ramathaim-zophim, of mount Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of
- 2 Zuph, an Ephrathite: and he had two wives; the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah: and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children.
- 3 And this man went up out of his city yearly to worship and to sacrifice unto the LORD of hosts in Shiloh. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, the
- 4 priests of the LORD, were there. And when the time was that Elkanah offered,
- 5 he gave to Peninnah his wife, and to all her sons and her daughters, portions: but unto Hannah he gave a double portion; for he loved Hannah: but the LORD had
- 6 shut up her womb. And her adversary also provoked her sore, for to make her
- 7 fret, because the LORD had shut up her womb. And as he did so year by year, when she went up to the house of the LORD, so she provoked her; therefore she
- 8 wept, and did not eat. Then said Elkanah her husband to her, Hannah, why weep-est thou? and why eatest thou not? and why is thy heart grieved? am not I better to thee than many sons?

So Hannah rose up after she had eaten in Shiloh, and after she had drunk. Now 9 Eli the priest sat upon a seat by a post of the temple of the LORD. And she was 10 in bitterness of soul, and prayed unto the LORD, and wept sore. And she vowed a 11 vow, and said, O LORD of hosts, if thou wilt indeed look on the affliction of thy handmaid, and remember me, and not forget thy handmaid, but wilt give unto thy handmaid a man-child, then I will give him unto the LORD all the days of his life, and he shall not drink wine or strong drink, and there shall no razor come upon his head.

And as she continued praying before the LORD, Eli marked her mouth. Now 12 13 Hannah spoke in her heart; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard: therefore Eli thought she had been drunken. And Eli said unto her, How long wilt thou 14 be drunken? put away thy wine from thee. And Hannah answered and said, No, 15 my lord, I am a woman of a sorrowful spirit: I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but have poured out my soul before the LORD. Account not thy handmaid 16 a worthless woman: for out of the abundance of my distress and grief have I spoken hitherto. Then Eli answered and said, Go in peace: and the God of Israel grant 17 thee the petition that thou hast asked of him. And she said, Let thy handmaid find 18 favour in thy sight. So the woman went her way, and did eat, and her countenance was no more sad.

And they rose up in the morning early, and worshipped before the LORD, and 19 returned, and came to their house to Ramah: and Elkanah knew Hannah his wife; and the LORD remembered her. Wherefore when the time was come about after 20 Hannah had conceived, she bore a son, and called his name Samuel [ASKED OF GOD], saying, Because I have asked him of the LORD.

And the man Elkanah, and all his house, went up to Shiloh to offer unto the 21 LORD the yearly sacrifice, and his vow. But Hannah went not up; for she said unto 22 her husband, I will not go up until the child be weaned, and then I will bring him, that he may appear before the LORD, and there abide for ever. And Elkanah 23 her husband said unto her, Do what seemeth thee good; tarry until thou have weaned him; only the LORD establish his word. So the woman abode, and gave her son suck until she weaned him.

And when she had weaned him, she took him up with her, with three bullocks, and 24 one ephah of flour, and a bottle of wine, and brought him unto the house of the LORD in Shiloh: and the child was young. And they slew a bullock, and brought 25 the child to Eli. And she said, O my lord, as thy soul liveth, my lord, I am the 26 woman who stood by thee here, praying unto the LORD. For this child I prayed; 27 and the LORD hath given me my petition which I asked of him: therefore also I 28 have devoted him to the LORD; as long as he liveth he shall be devoted to the LORD. And they worshipped the LORD there.

And Hannah prayed, and said,

2

- My heart rejoiceth in the LORD,
My horn is exalted by my God;
My mouth is enlarged over mine enemies;
Because I rejoice in thy salvation.
- 2 There is none holy as the LORD;
For there is none besides thee;
Neither is there any rock like our God.
- 3 Talk no more so exceeding proudly;
Let not arrogancy come out of your mouth:
For the LORD is a God of knowledge,
And by him actions are weighed.
- 4 The bows of the mighty men are broken,
And they who stumbled are girded with strength.
- 5 They who were full have hired out themselves for bread;
And they who were hungry ceased to hunger:
So that the barren hath borne many;
And she who hath many children is waxed feeble.
- 6 The LORD killeth, and maketh alive:
He bringeth down to the grave, and bringeth up.
- 7 The LORD maketh poor, and maketh rich:
He bringeth low, and lifteth up.

I. SAMUEL II.

- 8 He raiseth up the poor out of the dust,
And lifteth up the beggar from the dunghill,
To set them among princes,
And to make them inherit the throne of glory :
For the pillars of the earth are the LORD'S,
And he hath set the world upon them.
- 9 He will keep the feet of his saints,
And the wicked shall be silent in darkness ;
For by strength shall no man prevail.
- 10 The adversaries of the LORD shall be broken to pieces ;
Out of the heavens shall he thunder upon them :
The LORD shall judge the ends of the earth ;
And he shall give strength unto his king,
And exalt the horn of his anointed.
- 11 And Elkanah went to Ramah to his house : but the child did minister unto the LORD before Eli the priest.
- 12 13 Now the sons of Eli were wicked men ; they knew not the LORD, nor the priest's custom with the people. When any man offered sacrifice, the young priest came, while the flesh was in seething, with a fleshhook of three teeth in his hand ; and he struck it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot ; all that the fleshhook brought up the priest took for himself. So they did in Shiloh unto all the Israelites who came thither. Also before they burnt the fat, the young priest came, and said to the man who sacrificed, Give flesh to roast for the priest ; for he will not have sodden flesh of thee, but raw. And if any man said unto him, Let them not fail to burn the fat presently, and then take as much as thy soul desireth ; then he would answer him, Nay ; but thou shalt give it me now : and if not, I will take it by force. Wherefore the sin of the young men was very great before the LORD ; for men abhorred the offering of the LORD.
- 18 But Samuel ministered before the LORD, being a child, girded with a linen ephod.
- 19 Moreover his mother made him a little coat, and brought it to him from year to year, when she came up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice. And Eli blessed Elkanah and his wife, and said, The LORD give thee seed of this woman for the gift which is devoted to the LORD. And they went unto their own home. And the LORD visited Hannah, so that she conceived, and bore three sons and two daughters. And the child Samuel grew before the LORD.
- 22 Now Eli was very old, and heard all that his sons did unto all Israel ; and how they lay with the women who assembled at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.
- 23 And he said unto them, Why do ye such things ? for I hear of your evil dealings by all this people. Nay, my sons ; for it is no good report that I hear : ye make the LORD'S people to transgress. If one man sin against another, the judge shall judge him ; but if a man sin against the LORD, who shall entreat for him ? Notwithstanding they hearkened not unto the voice of their father, therefore the LORD purposed to slay them. And the child Samuel grew, and was in favour both with the LORD, and also with men.
- 27 And there came a man of God unto Eli, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Did I plainly appear unto the house of thy father, when they were in Egypt in Pharaoh's house ? And did I choose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my priest, to offer upon mine altar, to burn incense, to wear an ephod before me ? and did I give unto the house of thy father all the offerings made by fire of the children of Israel ? Wherefore kick ye at my sacrifice and at mine offering, which I have commanded in my habitation ; and honourst thy sons above me, to make yourselves fat with the chief of all the offerings of Israel my people ? Wherefore the LORD God of Israel saith, I said indeed that thy house, and the house of thy father, should walk before me for ever : but now the LORD saith, Be it far from me ; for those who honour me I will honour, and they who despise me shall be lightly esteemed. Behold, the days come, that I will cut off thine arm, and the arm of thy father's house, that there shall not be an old man in thy house. With envy thou shalt see a rival who in every thing shall do good to Israel ; and there shall not be an old man in thy house for ever. And the man of thine, whom I shall not cut off from mine altar, shall remain only to consume thine eyes, and to grieve thy heart : and all the increase of thy house shall die in the flower of their age. And this shall be a sign unto thee, that shall come upon thy two sons, on Hophni and Phinehas ; in one day they shall die both of them. And I will raise me up a faithful priest, who shall do according to that which is in my heart and in my mind : and I will raise him up children ; and he shall walk before mine anointed for ever. And every one who is left in thy house shall come and crouch to him for a piece of silver and a morsel of bread, and shall say, Put me, I pray thee, into one of the priest's offices, that I may eat a piece of bread.

And the child Samuel ministered unto the LORD before Eli. And the word of the LORD was precious in those days ; there was no open vision. And at that time, when Eli was laid down in his place, and his eyes began to wax dim, that he could not see ; and ere the lamp of God went out in the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God was, and Samuel was laid down to sleep ; the LORD called Samuel : and he answered, Here am I. And he ran unto Eli, and said, Here am I ; for thou calledst me. And he said, I called not ; lie down again. And he went and lay down. And the LORD called yet again, Samuel. And Samuel arose and went to Eli, and said, Here am I ; for thou didst call me. And he answered, I called not, my son ; lie down again. Thus did Samuel before he knew the voice of the LORD, and before the word of the LORD was revealed unto him. And the LORD called Samuel again the third time. And he arose and went to Eli, and said, Here am I ; for thou didst call me. And Eli perceived that the LORD had called the child. Therefore Eli said unto Samuel, Go, lie down ; and if he call thee, thou shalt say, Speak, LORD ; for thy servant heareth. So Samuel went and lay down in his place. And the LORD came, and stood, and called as at other times, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel answered, Speak, LORD ; for thy servant heareth.

And the LORD said to Samuel, Behold, I will do a thing in Israel, at which both the ears of every one who heareth it shall tingle. In that day I will perform against Eli all things which I have spoken concerning his house : when I begin, I will also make an end. For I have told him that I will judge his house for ever for the iniquity which he knoweth ; because his sons made themselves vile, and he restrained them not. And therefore I have sworn unto the house of Eli, that the iniquity of Eli's house shall not be purged with sacrifice nor offering for ever.

And Samuel lay until the morning, and opened the doors of the house of the LORD. And Samuel feared to show Eli the vision. Then Eli called Samuel, and said, Samuel, my son. And he answered, Here am I. And he said, What is the thing that the LORD hath said unto thee ? I pray thee hide it not from me : God do so to thee, and more also, if thou hide any thing from me of all the things that he said unto thee. And Samuel told him every thing, and hid nothing from him. And he said, It is the LORD ; let him do what seemeth him good.

And Samuel grew, and the LORD was with him, and did let none of his words fall to the ground. And all Israel, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, knew that Samuel was established to be a prophet of the LORD. And the LORD appeared again in Shiloh ; for the LORD revealed himself to Samuel in Shiloh by the word of the LORD. And Samuel spoke it to all Israel.

Now Israel went out against the Philistines to battle, and pitched beside Ebenezer : and the Philistines pitched in Aphek. And the Philistines put themselves in array against Israel : and when they joined battle, Israel was smitten before the Philistines : and they slew of the army in the field about four thousand men.

And when the people were come into the camp, the elders of Israel said, Wherefore hath the LORD smitten us to-day before the Philistines ? Let us fetch the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of Shiloh unto us, that, when it cometh among us, it may save us out of the hand of our enemies. So the people sent to Shiloh, that they might bring from thence the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts, who dwelleth between the cherubims : and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God. And when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the earth rang again. And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, What meaneth the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews ? And they understood that the ark of the LORD was come into the camp. And the Philistines were afraid, for they said, God is come into the camp. And they said, Woe unto us ! for there hath not been such a thing heretofore. Woe unto us ! who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mighty Gods ? these are the Gods who smote the Egyptians with all the plagues ; and who performed wonders for his people in the wilderness. Be strong, and quit yourselves like men, O ye Philistines, that ye be not servants unto the Hebrews, as they have been to you : quit yourselves like men, and fight.

And the Philistines fought, and Israel was smitten, and they fled every man into 10

- his tent : and there was a very great slaughter ; for there fell of Israel thirty thousand footmen. And the ark of God was taken ; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were slain.
- And there ran a man of Benjamin out of the army, and came to Shiloh the same day with his clothes rent, and with earth upon his head. And when he came, lo, Eli sat upon a seat by the wayside watching ; for his heart trembled for the ark of God. And when the man came into the city, and told it, all the city cried out. And when Eli heard the noise of the crying, he said, What meaneth the noise of this tumult ? And the man came in hastily, and told Eli. Now Eli was ninety and eight years old ; and his eyes were dim, that he could not see. And the man said unto Eli, I am he who came out of the army, and I fled to-day out of the army. And he said, What is there done, my son ? And the messenger answered and said, Israel is fled before the Philistines, and there hath been also a great slaughter among the people, and thy two sons also, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead, and the ark of God is taken. And when he made mention of the ark of God, he fell from off the seat backward by the side of the gate, and his neck broke, and he died ; for he was an old man, and heavy. And he had judged Israel forty years.
- And his daughter-in-law, Phinehas' wife, was with child, and near her time of delivery : and when she heard the tidings that the ark of God was taken, and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she bowed herself and travailed ; for her pains came upon her. And about the time of her death the women who stood by her said unto her, Fear not ; for thou hast borne a son. But she answered not, neither did she regard it. And she named the child I-chabod [INGLORIOUS], saying, The glory is departed from Israel ; because the ark of God was taken, and because of her father-in-law and her husband. And she said, The glory is departed from Israel ; for the ark of God is taken.
- AND THE PHILISTINES TOOK THE ARK OF GOD, and brought it from Eben-ezer unto Ashdod. When the Philistines took the ark of God, they brought it into the house of Dagon, and set it by Dagon. And when they of Ashdod arose early on the morrow, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the earth before the ark of the LORD. And they took Dagon, and set him in his place again. And when they arose early on the morrow morning, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD ; and the head of Dagon and both the palms of his hands were cut off upon the threshold ; only his Dagon was left to him. Therefore neither the priests of Dagon, nor any who come into Dagon's house, tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod unto this day.
- But the hand of the LORD was heavy upon them of Ashdod, and he destroyed them, and smote them with piles, even Ashdod and the coasts thereof. And when the men of Ashdod saw that it was so, they said, The ark of the God of Israel shall not abide with us ; for his hand is sore upon us, and upon Dagon our god. They sent therefore and gathered all the lords of the Philistines unto them, and said, What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel ? And they answered, Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried about unto Gath. And they carried the ark of the God of Israel about thither. And after they had carried it about, the hand of the LORD was against the city with a very great destruction ; and he smote the men of the city, both small and great, and they had piles inwardly.
- Therefore they sent the ark of God to Ekron. And as the ark of God came to Ekron, the Ekronites cried out, saying, They have brought about the ark of the God of Israel to us, to slay us and our people. So they sent and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and said, Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it go again to its own place, that it slay us not, and our people : for there was a deadly destruction throughout all the city ; the hand of God was very heavy there. And the men who died not were smitten with the piles : and the cry of the city went up to heaven.
- AND THE ARK OF THE LORD WAS IN THE COUNTRY OF THE PHILISTINES seven months. And the Philistines called for the priests and the diviners, saying, What shall we do to the ark of the LORD ? tell us wherewith we shall send it to its place. And they said, If ye send away the ark of the God of Israel, send it not empty ; but in any wise return him a trespass offering : then ye shall be healed, and it shall be known to you why his hand is not removed from you. Then said they, What shall be the trespass offering which we shall return to him ? They answered, Five golden piles, and five golden mice, according to the number of the lords of the Philistines : for one plague was on you all, and on your lords. Wherefore ye shall make images of your piles, and images of your mice that mar the land ; and ye shall give glory unto the God of Israel : peradventure he will lighten his hand from off you, and from off your gods, and from off your land. Wherefore then do ye harden your hearts, as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? when he had wrought wonderfully among them, did they not let the people go, and they departed? Now therefore make a new cart, and take two milch kine, on which there hath come no yoke, and tie the kine to the cart, and bring their calves home from them : and take the ark of the LORD, and lay it upon the cart ; and put the jewels of gold, which ye return him for a trespass offering, in a coffer by the side thereof ; and send it away, that it may go. And see, if it goeth up by the way of his own coast to Beth-shemesh, then he hath done us this great evil : but if not, then we shall know that it is not his hand that smote us ; it was a chance that happened to us.

And the men did so ; and took two milch kine, and tied them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home : and they laid the ark of the LORD upon the cart, and the coffer with the mice of gold and the images of their piles. And the kine took the straight way to the way of Beth-shemesh, and went along the highway, lowing as they went, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left ; and the lords of the Philistines went after them unto the border of Beth-shemesh. And they of Beth-shemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley ; and they lifted up their eyes, and saw the ark, and rejoiced to see it. And the cart came into the field of Joshua, a Beth-shemite, and stood there, where there was a great stone : and they clave the wood of the cart, and offered the kine a burnt offering unto the LORD.
 And the Levites took down the ark of the LORD, and the coffer that was with it, wherein the jewels of gold were, and put them on the great stone : and the men of Beth-shemesh offered burnt offerings and sacrificed sacrifices the same day unto the LORD. And when the five lords of the Philistines had seen it, they returned to Ekron the same day.

And these are the golden piles which the Philistines returned for a trespass offering unto the LORD ; for Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Askelon one, for Gath one, for Ekron one ; and the golden mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, both of fenced cities, and of country villages, even unto the great stone of Abel, whereon they set down the ark of the LORD :
 which stone remaineth unto this day in the field of Joshua, the Beth-shemite.

And he smote the men of Beth-shemesh, because they had looked into the ark of the LORD, even he smote of the people threescore and ten men, even fifty of a thousand : and the people lamented, because the LORD had smitten many of the people with a great slaughter. And the men of Beth-shemesh said, Who is able to stand before this holy LORD God? and to whom shall he go up from us? And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kirjath-jearim, saying, The Philistines have brought again the ark of the LORD ; come ye down, and fetch it up to you. And the men of Kirjath-jearim came, and fetched up the ark of the LORD, and brought it into the house of Abinadab in Gibeah, and sanctified Eleazar his son to keep the ark of the LORD.

And while the ark abode in Kirjath-jearim, the time was long ; for it was twenty years : and all the house of Israel lamented after the LORD. And Samuel spoke unto all the house of Israel, saying, If ye do return unto the LORD with all your hearts, then put away the strange gods and Ashtaroth from among you, and prepare your hearts unto the LORD, and serve him only ; and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines. Then the children of Israel did put away Baalim and Ashtaroth, and served the LORD only. And Samuel said, Gather all Israel to Mizpeh, and I will pray for you unto the LORD. And they gathered together to Mizpeh, and drew water, and poured it out before the LORD, and fasted on that day, and said there, We have sinned against the LORD. And Samuel judged the children of Israel in Mizpeh.

And when the Philistines heard that the children of Israel were gathered together to Mizpeh, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the children of Israel heard it, they were afraid of the Philistines. And the children of Israel said to Samuel, Cease not to cry unto the LORD our God for us, that he will save us out of the hand of the Philistines. And Samuel took a sucking lamb, and offered it for a burnt offering wholly unto the LORD : and Samuel cried unto the LORD for Israel ; and the LORD heard him. And as Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel ; but the LORD thundered with a loud voice on that day upon the Philistines, and discomfited them ; and they were smitten before Israel. And the men of Israel went out of Mizpeh, and pursued the Philistines, and smote them, until they came unto Beth-car. Then Samuel

I. SAMUEL VIII. IX.

- took a stone, and set it between Mizpeh and Shen, and called the name of it Ebenezer [THE STONE OF HELP], saying, Hitherto hath the LORD helped us. So the Philistines were subdued, and they came no more into the coast of Israel: and the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel. And the cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron even unto Gath; and the coasts thereof did Israel deliver out of the hands of the Philistines. And there was peace between Israel and the Amorites.
- 15 16 And Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life. And he went from year to year in circuit to Beth-el, and Gilgal, and Mizpeh, and judged Israel in all those places.
- 17 And his return was to Ramah; for there was his house; and there he judged Israel; and there he built an altar unto the LORD.
- 8 And when Samuel was old, he made his sons judges over Israel. Now the name of his firstborn was Joel; and the name of his second, Abiah: they were judges in Beer-sheba. And his sons walked not in his ways, but turned aside after lucre, and took bribes, and perverted judgment.
- 4 THEN all the elders of Israel gathered themselves together, and came to Samuel
- 5 unto Ramah, and said unto him, Behold, thou art old, and thy sons walk not in thy ways: now make us a king to judge us like all the nations.
- 6 But the thing displeased Samuel, when they said, Give us a king to judge us. And
- 7 Samuel prayed unto the LORD. And the LORD said unto Samuel, Hearken unto the voice of the people in all that they say unto thee: for they have not rejected thee, but they have rejected me, that I should not reign over them. According to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt even unto this day, wherewith they have forsaken me, and served other gods, so do
- 9 they also unto thee. Now therefore hearken unto their voice: howbeit yet protest solemnly unto them, and show them the manner of the king who shall reign over them.
- 10 And Samuel told all the words of the LORD unto the people who asked of him
- 11 a king. And he said, This will be the manner of the king who shall reign over you: He will take your sons, and appoint them for himself, for his chariots, and to be his horsemen; and some shall run before his chariots. And he will appoint him captains over thousands, and captains over fifties; and will set them to plough his ground, and to reap his harvest, and to make his instruments of war, and instruments of his chariots. And he will take your daughters to be confectioners, and
- 13 cooks, and bakers. And he will take your fields, and your vineyards, and your olive-yards, even the best of them, and give them to his servants. And he will take the tenth of your seed, and of your vineyards, and give to his officers, and to his servants.
- 16 And he will take your menservants, and your maidservants, and your goodliest young men, and your asses, and put them to his work. He will take the tenth of your
- 18 sheep; and ye shall be his servants. And ye shall cry out in that day because of your king whom ye shall have chosen; and the LORD will not hear you in that day.
- 19 Nevertheless the people refused to obey the voice of Samuel; and they said, Nay;
- 20 but we will have a king over us; that we also may be like all the nations; and that
- 21 our king may judge us, and go out before us, and fight our battles. And Samuel heard all the words of the people, and he rehearsed them in the ears of the LORD.
- 22 And the LORD said to Samuel, Hearken unto their voice, and make them a king. And Samuel said unto the men of Israel, Go ye every man unto his city.
- 9 NOW there was a man of Benjamin, whose name was Kish, the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Bechorath, the son of Aphiah, a Benjamite, a mighty man, a
- 2 man of wealth. And he had a son, whose name was Saul, a choice and a goodly young man: and there was not among the children of Israel a more goodly person than he: from his shoulders and upwards he was higher than any of the people.
- 3 And the asses of Kish, Saul's father, were lost. And Kish said to Saul his son,
- 4 Take now one of the servants with thee, and arise, go seek the asses. And he passed through mount Ephraim, and passed through the land of Shalisha, but they found them not: then they passed through the land of Shalim, and there they were not:
- 5 and he passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they found them not. And when they were come to the land of Zuph, Saul said to his servant who was with him, Come, and let us return; lest my father leave caring for the asses, and take thought
- 6 for us. And he said unto him, Behold now, there is in this city a man of God, and he is an honourable man; all that he saith cometh surely to pass: now let us go
- 7 thither; peradventure he can show us our way that we should go. Then said Saul to his servant, But, behold, if we go, what shall we bring the man? for the bread is spent in our vessels, and there is not a present to bring to the man of God: what have we? And the servant answered Saul again, and said, Behold, I have here at 8 hand the fourth part of a shekel of silver; that will I give to the man of God, to tell us our way. (Beforetime in Israel, when a man went to inquire of God, thus he 9 spoke, Come, and let us go to the seer; for he who is now called a prophet was be-foretime called a seer.) Then said Saul to his servant, Thy word is good; come, let 10 us go. So they went unto the city where the man of God was.

And as they went up the hill to the city, they found young maidens going out to 11 draw water, and said unto them, Is the seer here? And they answered them, and 12 said, He is; behold, he is before you: make haste now, for he came to-day to the city; for there is a feast of the people to-day in the high place: as soon as ye come 13 into the city, ye shall straightway find him, before he go up to the high place to eat; for the people will not eat until he come, because he doth bless the feast; and afterwards they eat who are bidden. Now therefore get you up; for about this time ye shall find him. And they went up into the city: and when they were come into the 14 city, behold, Samuel came out against them, for to go up to the high place.

Now the LORD had revealed to the ear of Samuel a day before Saul came, saying, 15
To-morrow about this time I will send thee a man out of the land of Benjamin, and 16 thou shalt anoint him to be captain over my people Israel, that he may save my people out of the hand of the Philistines: for I have looked upon my people, because their cry is come unto me. And when Samuel saw Saul, the LORD said unto him, 17 Behold the man whom I spoke to thee of! this same shall reign over my people.

Then Saul drew near to Samuel in the gate, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, where 18 the seer's house is. And Samuel answered Saul, and said, I am the seer: go up before 19 me unto the high place; for ye shall eat with me to-day, and to-morrow I will let thee go, and will tell thee all that is in thy heart. And as for thine asses that were 20 lost three days ago, set not thy mind on them; for they are found. And on whom is all the desire of Israel? Is it not on thee, and on all thy father's house? And 21 Saul answered and said, Am not I a Benjamite, of the smallest of the tribes of Israel? and my family the least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin? wherefore then speakest thou so to me?

And Samuel took Saul and his servant, and brought them into the parlour, and 22 made them sit in the chiefest place among those who were bidden, who were about thirty persons. And Samuel said unto the cook, Bring the portion which I gave thee, 23 of which I said unto thee, Set it by thee. And the cook took up the shoulder, and 24 that which was upon it, and set it before Saul. And Samuel said, Behold that which is left! set it before thee, and eat; for unto this time hath it been kept for thee since I said, I have invited the people. So Saul did eat with Samuel that day.

And when they were come down from the high place into the city, Samuel com- 25 muned with Saul upon the top of the house, and he fell asleep. And they arose 26 early: and about the spring of the day, Samuel called Saul to the top of the house, saying, Up, that I may send thee away. And Saul arose, and they went out both of them, he and Samuel, abroad.

And as they were going down to the end of the city, Samuel said to Saul, Bid the 27 servant pass on before us, (and he passed on,) but stand thou still a while, that I may show thee the word of God. Then Samuel took a vial of oil, and poured it upon 10 his head, and kissed him, and said, Is it not because the LORD hath anointed thee to be captain over his inheritance? When thou art departed from me to-day, then 2 thou shalt find two men by Rachel's sepulchre in the border of Benjamin at Zelzah; and they will say unto thee, The asses which thou wentest to seek are found: and, lo, thy father hath left the care of the asses, and sorroweth for you, saying, What shall I do for my son? Then shalt thou go on forward from thence, and thou shalt 3 come to the plain of Tabor, and there shall meet thee three men going up to God to Beth-el, one carrying three kids, and another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a bottle of wine: and they will salute thee, and give thee two loaves 4 of bread; which thou shalt receive of their hands. After that thou shalt come to 5 the hill of God, where is the garrison of the Philistines: and when thou art come thither to the city, thou shalt meet a company of prophets coming down from the high place with a psaltery, and a tabret, and a pipe, and a harp, before them; and they shall prophesy: and the Spirit of the LORD will come upon thee, and thou shalt 6 prophesy with them, and shalt be turned into another man. And let it be, when 7 these signs are come unto thee, that thou do as occasion serve thee; for God is with thee. And thou shalt go down before me to Gilgal; and, behold, I will come down 8 unto thee, to offer burnt offerings, and to sacrifice sacrifices of peace offerings: seven days shalt thou tarry, till I come to thee, and show thee what thou shalt do.

I. SAMUEL XI.

- 9 And when he had turned his back to go from Samuel, God gave him another heart:
 10 and all those signs came to pass that day. And when they came thither to the hill, 11 behold, a company of prophets met him; and the Spirit of God came upon him, and 12 he prophesied among them. And when all who knew him beforetime saw, and, be-13 hold, he prophesied among the prophets, then the people said one to another, What 14 is this that is come unto the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets? And 15 one of the same place answered and said, But who is his father? Is it not Kish?
 16 Therefore it became a proverb, Is Saul also among the prophets? And when he 17 had made an end of prophesying, he came to the high place.
 18 And Saul's uncle said unto him and to his servant, Whither went ye? And he 19 said, To seek the asses: and when we saw that they were no where, we came to 20 Samuel. And Saul's uncle said, Tell me, I pray thee, what Samuel said unto you.
 21 And Saul said unto his uncle, He told us plainly that the asses were found. But 22 of the matter of the kingdom, whereof Samuel spoke, he told him not.
 23 And Samuel called the people together unto the LORD to Mizpeh; and said unto 24 the children of Israel, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I brought up Israel out
 25 of Egypt, and delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand
 26 of all kingdoms, and of those who oppressed you: and ye have this day rejected
 27 your God, who himself saved you out of all your adversities and your tribulations;
 28 and ye have said unto him, Nay, but set a king over us. Now therefore present 29 yourselves before the LORD by your tribes, and by your thousands.
 30 And when Samuel had caused all the tribes of Israel to come near, the tribe of 31 Benjamin was taken. When he had caused the tribe of Benjamin to come near by 32 their families, the family of Matri was taken. And he caused the family of Matri 33 to come near, man by man, and Saul the son of Kish was taken: and when they 34 sought him, he could not be found.
 35 Therefore they inquired of the LORD further, if the man should yet come thither.
 36 And the LORD answered, Behold, he hath hid himself among the stuff. And they 37 ran and fetched him thence: and when he stood among the people, he was higher 38 than any of the people from his shoulders and upwards.
 39 And Samuel said to all the people, See ye him whom the LORD hath chosen, that 40 there is none like him among all the people? And all the people shouted, and said, 41 Long live the king. Then Samuel told the people the manner of the kingdom, and 42 wrote it in a book, and laid it up before the LORD.
 43 And Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house. And Saul also 44 went home to Gibeah; and there went with him a band of men, whose hearts God
 45 had touched. But the children of wickedness said, How shall this man save us?
 46 And they despised him, and brought him no presents. But he was as though he 47 had been deaf.
- 11 THEN Nahash the Ammonite came up, and encamped against Jabesh-gilead: and 1 all the men of Jabesh said unto Nahash, Make a covenant with us, and we will serve
 2 thee. And Nahash the Ammonite answered them, On this condition will I make a 3 covenant with you, that I may thrust out all your right eyes, and lay it for a re-4 proach upon all Israel.
 5 And the elders of Jabesh said unto him, Give us seven days' respite, that we may 6 send messengers unto all the coasts of Israel; and then, if there be no man to save 7 us, we will come out to thee. Then came the messengers to Gibeah of Saul, and told 8 the tidings in the ears of the people: and all the people lifted up their voices, and 9 wept. And, behold, Saul came after the herd out of the field; and Saul said, What 10 aileth the people that they weep? And they told him the tidings of the men of 11 Jabesh. And the Spirit of God came upon Saul when he heard those tidings, and 12 his anger was kindled greatly. And he took a yoke of oxen, and hewed them in 13 pieces, and sent them throughout all the coasts of Israel by the hands of messengers, 14 saying, Whosoever cometh not forth after Saul and after Samuel, so shall it be done 15 unto his oxen. And the fear of the LORD fell on the people, and they came out 16 with one consent. And when he numbered them in Bezek, the children of Israel 17 were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand.
 18 And they said unto the messengers who came, Thus shall ye say unto the men of 19 Jabesh-gilead, To-morrow, by the time the sun is hot, ye shall have deliverance.
 20 And the messengers came and showed it to the men of Jabesh; and they were glad.
 21 Therefore the men of Jabesh said, To-morrow we will come out unto you, and ye 22 shall do with us all that seemeth good unto you.
 23 And on the morrow Saul put the people in three companies; and they came into 24 the midst of the host in the morning watch, and slew the Ammonites until the heat of the day : and they who remained were scattered, so that two of them were not left together.

And the people said unto Samuel, Who is he that said, Shall Saul reign over us ? 12 bring the men, that we may put them to death. And Saul said, There shall not a 13 man be put to death this day : for to-day the LORD hath wrought salvation in Israel.

Then said Samuel to the people, Come, and let us go to Gilgal, and renew the 14 kingdom there. And all the people went to Gilgal ; and there they made Saul king 15 before the LORD in Gilgal ; and there they sacrificed sacrifices of peace offerings before the LORD : and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

AND Samuel said unto all Israel, Behold, I have hearkened unto your voice in all 12 that ye said unto me, and have made a king over you. And now, behold, the king walketh before you : and I am old and grayheaded ; and, behold, my sons are with you : and I have walked before you from my childhood unto this day. Behold, here 4 I am : witness against me before the LORD, and before his anointed : whose ox have I taken ? or whose ass have I taken ? or whom have I defrauded ? whom have I oppressed ? or of whose hand have I received any bribe to blind mine eyes therewith ? and I will restore it you. And they said, Thou hast not defrauded us, nor 4 oppressed us, neither hast thou taken aught of any man's hand. And he said unto 5 them, The LORD is witness against you, and his anointed is witness this day, that ye have not found aught in my hand. And they answered, He is witness.

And Samuel said unto the people, It is the LORD who did mighty deeds by the 6 hands of Moses and Aaron, and who brought your fathers up out of the land of Egypt. Now therefore stand still, that I may reason with you before the LORD of all the 7 righteous acts of the LORD, which he did to you and to your fathers. When Jacob 8 was come into Egypt, and your fathers cried unto the LORD, then the LORD sent Moses and Aaron, who brought forth your fathers out of Egypt, and made them dwell in this place. And when they forgot the LORD their God, he sold them into the 9 hand of Sisera, captain of the host of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab, and they fought against them. And they cried 10 unto the LORD, and said, We have sinned, because we have forsaken the LORD, and have served Baalim and Ashtaroth : but now deliver us out of the hand of our enemies, and we will serve thee. And the LORD sent Jerubbaal, and Barak, and 11 Jephthah, and Samson, and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every side, and ye dwelt safe. And when ye saw that Nahash the king of the children of 12 Ammon came against you, ye said unto me, Nay ; but a king shall reign over us ; when the LORD your God was your king. Now therefore behold the king whom ye 13 have chosen, and whom ye have desired ! and, behold, the LORD hath set a king over you. If ye will fear the LORD, and serve him, and obey his voice, and not 14 rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then shall both ye and also the king who reigneth over you continue following the LORD your God : but if ye will 15 not obey the voice of the LORD, but rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then shall the hand of the LORD be against you, as it was against your fathers. Now 16 therefore stand and see this great thing, which the LORD will do before your eyes. Is it not wheat harvest to-day ? I will call unto the LORD, and he shall send thunder and rain ; that ye may perceive and see that your wickedness is great, which ye 17 have done in the sight of the LORD, in asking you a king.

So Samuel called unto the LORD ; and the LORD sent thunder and rain that day : 18 and all the people greatly feared the LORD and Samuel. And all the people said 19 unto Samuel, Pray for thy servants unto the LORD thy God, that we die not : for we have added unto all our sins this evil, to ask us a king. And Samuel said unto the 20 people, Fear not ; ye have done all this wickedness ; yet turn not aside from following the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart ; and turn ye not aside ; for 21 then will ye go after vain idols, which cannot profit nor deliver ; for they are vain. For the LORD will not forsake his people for his great name's sake ; because it hath 22 pleased the LORD to make you his people. Moreover far be it from me that I should 23 sin against the LORD in ceasing to pray for you : but I will teach you the good and the right way : only fear the LORD, and serve him in truth with all your heart ; for 24 consider what great things he hath done for you. But if ye shall still do wickedly, 25 ye shall be consumed, both ye and your king. Saul had now reigned one year. And when he had reigned two years over Israel, he chose him three thousand men of 13 Israel ; whereof two thousand were with him in Michmash and in mount Beth-el, and a thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin ; and the rest of the people he sent every man to his tent.

And Jonathan smote the garrison of the Philistines that was in Geba, and the Phi- 3

I. SAMUEL XIV.

- listines heard of it. And Saul blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying,
- 4 Let the Hebrews hear. And all Israel heard say that Saul had smitten a garrison of the Philistines, and that Israel also was had in abomination with the Philistines.
- 5 And the people were called together after Saul to Gilgal. And the Philistines gathered themselves together to fight with Israel, three thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen, and people as the sand which is on the sea shore in multitude: and they came up, and pitched in Michmash, eastward from Beth-aven.
- 6 When the men of Israel saw that they were in a strait, (for the people were distressed,) then the people did hide themselves in caves, and in thickets, and in rocks,
- 7 and in high places, and in pits. And some of the Hebrews went over the Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead. As for Saul, he was yet in Gilgal, and all the people hastened after him. And he tarried seven days, according to the set time that Samuel had appointed: but Samuel came not to Gilgal; and the people were scattered from him. And Saul said, Bring hither a burnt offering to me, and peace offerings. And he offered the burnt offering.
- 10 And as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, behold, Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him, that Samuel might bless him. And Samuel said, What hast thou done? And Saul said, Because I saw that the people were scattered from me, and that thou camest not within the days appointed, and that the
- 12 Philistines gathered themselves together at Michmash; therefore said I, The Philistines will come down now upon me to Gilgal, and I have not made supplication unto
- 13 the LORD: I forced myself therefore, and offered a burnt offering. And Samuel said to Saul, Thou hast done foolishly: thou hast not kept the commandment of the LORD thy God, which he commanded thee: for now would the LORD have established thy kingdom upon Israel for ever. But now thy kingdom shall not continue: the LORD hath sought him a man after his own heart, and the LORD hath commanded him to be captain over his people, because thou hast not kept that which the LORD commanded thee.
- 15 And Samuel arose, and departed from Gilgal, and the remainder of the people went after Saul unto Gibeah of Benjamin. And Saul numbered the people who were
- 16 present with him, about six hundred men. And Saul, and Jonathan his son, and the people who were present with them, abode in Gibeah of Benjamin:
- 17 But the Philistines encamped in Michmash. And the spoilers came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies; one company turned unto the way that
- 18 leadeth to Ophrah, unto the land of Shual; and another company turned the way to Beth-horon; and another company turned to the way of the border that looketh to the valley of Zeboim towards the wilderness.
- 19 Now there was no smith found throughout all the land of Israel: for the Philistines had said, We must take them away, lest the Hebrews make them swords or spears:
- 20 but all the Israelites went down to the Philistines, to sharpen every man his share,
- 21 and his ploughshare, and his axe, and his mattock. Yet they had a file for the mattocks, and for the ploughshares, and for the forks, and for the axes, and to sharpen the edges of them. So in the day of battle there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people who were with Saul and Jonathan: but with Saul and Jonathan his son was there found.
- 14 And the garrison of the Philistines went out to the passage of Michmash. Now upon a day Jonathan the son of Saul said unto the young man who bore his armour, Come, and let us go over to the Philistines' garrison, that is on the other side. But
- 2 he told not his father. And Saul tarried in the uttermost part of Gibeah under a pomegranate tree which is in Migron: and the people who were with him were about
- 3 six hundred men; and Ahiah, the son of Ahitub, I-chabod's brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the LORD'S priest in Shiloh, wearing an ephod. And the
- 4 people knew not that Jonathan was gone. And between the passages, by which Jonathan sought to go over unto the Philistines' garrison, there was a sharp rock on the one side, and a sharp rock on the other side: and the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh. The forefront of the one was situate northward
- 6 over against Michmash, and the other southward over against Gibeah. And Jonathan said to the young man who bore his armour, Come, and let us go unto the garrison of these uncircumcised; it may be that the LORD will work for us: for
- 7 there is no restraint to the LORD to save by many or by few. And his armour-bearer said unto him, Do all that is in thy heart: turn thee; behold, I am with thee
- 8 according to thy heart. Then said Jonathan, Behold, we will pass over unto these
- 9 men, and we will discover ourselves unto them. If they say thus unto us, Tarry until we come to you; then we will stand still in our place, and will not go up unto them. But if they say thus, Come up unto us; then we will go up; for the LORD 10 hath delivered them into our hand: and this shall be a sign unto us.

And both of them discovered themselves unto the garrison of the Philistines: and 11 the Philistines said, Behold, the Hebrews come forth out of the holes where they had hid themselves. And the men of the garrison answered Jonathan and his armourbearer, and said, Come up to us, and we will show you a thing. And Jonathan said unto his armourbearer, Come up after me; for the LORD hath delivered them into the hand of Israel. And Jonathan climbed up upon his hands and upon his feet, 12 and his armourbearer after him: and they fell before Jonathan; and his armourbearer slew after him. And that first slaughter, which Jonathan and his armourbearer made, was of about twenty men, within as it were a half acre of land, which 13 a yoke of oxen might plough.

And there was trembling in the host, in the field, and among all the people: the 14 garrison, and the spoilers, they also trembled, and the earth quaked: so it was a very great trembling.

And the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looked; and, behold, the multitude melted away, and they went on beating down one another. Then said Saul 15 unto the people who were with him, Number now, and see who is gone from us. And when they had numbered, behold, Jonathan and his armourbearer were not there. And Saul said unto Ahiah, Bring hither the ark of God. For the ark of God 16 was at that time with the children of Israel. And while Saul talked unto the priest, the noise that was in the host of the Philistines went on and increased: and Saul said unto the priest, Withdraw thy hand. And Saul and all the people who were 17 with him assembled themselves, and they came to the battle: and, behold, every man's sword was against his fellow, and there was a very great discomfiture. Moreover the Hebrews who were with the Philistines before that time, who went up 18 with them into the camp from the country round about, even they also turned to be with the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan. Likewise all the men of 19 Israel who had hid themselves in mount Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistines fled, even they also followed hard after them in the battle. So the LORD 20 saved Israel that day: and the battle passed over unto Beth-aven.

And the men of Israel were distressed that day; for Saul had adjured the people, 21 saying, Cursed be the man who eateth any food until the evening, that I may be avenged on mine enemies. So none of the people tasted any food. And all the people 22 of the land came to a wood; and there was honey upon the ground. And when the people were come into the wood, behold, the honey dropped; but no man put his hand to his mouth; for the people feared the oath. But Jonathan heard not 23 when his father charged the people with the oath: wherefore he put forth the end of the rod that was in his hand, and dipped it in a honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth; and he was much refreshed. Then answered one of the people, and said, 24 Thy father strictly charged the people with an oath, saying, Cursed be the man who eateth any food this day. And the people were faint. Then said Jonathan, My father hath troubled the land: see, I pray you, how I have been refreshed, because I 25 tasted a little of this honey. How much better, if the people had eaten freely to-day of the spoil of their enemies which they found? for had there not been now a much greater slaughter among the Philistines?

And they smote the Philistines that day from Michmash to Aijalon: and the 26 people were very faint. And the people flew upon the spoil, and took sheep, and oxen, and calves, and slew them on the ground: and the people ate them with the blood. Then they told Saul, saying, Behold, the people sin against the LORD, 27 in that they eat with the blood. And he said, Ye have transgressed: roll a great stone unto me this day. And Saul said, Disperse yourselves among the people, and 28 say unto them, Bring me hither every man his ox, and every man his sheep, and slay them here, and eat; and sin not against the LORD in eating with the blood. And all the people brought every man his ox with him that night, and slew them there. And Saul built an altar unto the LORD: the same was the first altar that he built 29 unto the LORD.

And Saul said, Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and spoil them until 30 the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them. And they said, Do whatsoever seemeth good unto thee. Then said the priest, Let us draw near hither unto God. And Saul asked counsel of God, Shall I go down after the Philistines? wilt 31 thou deliver them into the hand of Israel? But he answered him not that day.

And Saul said, Draw ye near hither all the chief of the people; and know and see 32 wherein this sin hath been this day. For, as the LORD liveth, who saveth Israel, 33

- though it be in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die. But there was not a man among all the people who answered him. Then said he unto all Israel, Be ye on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side. And the people said unto Saul, Do what seemeth good unto thee. Therefore Saul said unto the LORD God of Israel, Give a just lot. And Saul and Jonathan were taken; but the people escaped. And Saul said, Cast lots between me and Jonathan my son. And Jonathan was taken. Then Saul said to Jonathan, Tell me what thou hast done. And Jonathan told him, and said, I did but taste a little honey with the end of the rod that was in my hand, and, lo, I must die. And Saul answered, God do so and more also; for thou shalt surely die, Jonathan. And the people said unto Saul, Shall Jonathan die, who hath wrought this great salvation in Israel? That cannot be: as the LORD liveth, there shall not one hair of his head fall to the ground; for he hath wrought with God this day. So the people rescued Jonathan, that he died not. Then Saul went up from following the Philistines; and the Philistines went to their own place.
- So Saul took the kingdom over Israel, and fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, and against the children of Ammon, and against Edom, and against the kings of Zobah, and against the Philistines; and whithersoever he turned himself, he vexed them. And he gathered a host, and smote the Amalekites, and delivered Israel out of the hands of those who spoiled them.
- Now the sons of Saul were Jonathan, and Ishui, and Melehi-shua: and the names of his two daughters were these; the name of the firstborn Merab, and the name of the younger Michal: and the name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam, the daughter of Ahimaaz: and the name of the captain of his host was Abner, the son of Ner, Saul's uncle. And Kish was the father of Saul; and Ner the father of Abner was the son of Abiel.
- And there was sore war against the Philistines all the days of Saul: and when Saul saw any strong man, or any valiant man, he took him unto him. Samuel also said unto Saul, The LORD sent me to anoint thee to be king over his people, over Israel: now therefore hearken thou unto the voice of the words of the LORD. Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I remember that which Amalek did to Israel, how he laid wait for him in the way, when he came up from Egypt. Now go and smite Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have, and spare them not; but slay both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and ass.
- And Saul gathered the people together, and numbered them in Telaim, two hundred thousand footmen, and ten thousand men of Judah. And Saul came to the city Amalek, and laid wait in the valley. And Saul said unto the Kenites, Go, depart, get you down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them; for ye showed kindness to all the children of Israel, when they came up out of Egypt. So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites. And Saul smote the Amalekites from Havilah until thou comest to Shur, that is over against Egypt. And he took Agag the king of the Amalekites alive, and utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword. But Saul and the people spared Agag, and the best of the sheep, and of the oxen, and of the fatlings, and the lambs, and all that was good, and would not utterly destroy them: but every thing that was vile and refuse, that they destroyed utterly.
- Then came the word of the LORD unto Samuel, saying, It repenteth me that I have set up Saul to be king; for he is turned back from following me, and hath not performed my commandments. And it grieved Samuel; and he cried unto the LORD all night. And when Samuel rose early to meet Saul in the morning, it was told Samuel, saying, Saul came to Carmel, and, behold, he set him up a pillar, and is gone about, and passed on, and gone down to Gilgal.
- And Samuel came to Saul: and Saul said unto him, Blessed be thou of the LORD; I have performed the commandment of the LORD. And Samuel said, What meaneth then this bleating of the sheep in mine ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear? And Saul said, They have brought them from the Amalekites; for the people spared the best of the sheep and of the oxen, to sacrifice unto the LORD thy God; and the rest we have utterly destroyed. Then Samuel said unto Saul, Stay, and I will tell thee what the LORD hath said to me this night. And he said unto him, Say on.
- And Samuel said, When thou wast little in thine own sight, wast thou not made the head of the tribes of Israel, and the LORD anointed thee king over Israel? And the LORD sent thee on a journey, and said, Go and utterly destroy the sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them until they be consumed. Wherefore then didst thou not obey the voice of the LORD, but didst fly upon the spoil, and didst evil in the sight of the LORD? And Saul said unto Samuel, Yea, I have obeyed the voice of the LORD, and have gone the way which the LORD sent me, and have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have utterly destroyed the Amalekites. But the people took of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the chief of the things which should have been utterly destroyed, to sacrifice unto the LORD thy God in Gilgal. And Samuel said, Hath the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams. For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry. Because thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, he hath also rejected thee from being king. And Saul said unto Samuel, I have sinned; for I have transgressed the commandment of the LORD, and thy words: because I feared the people, and obeyed their voice. Now therefore, I pray thee, pardon my sin, and turn again with me, that I may worship the LORD. And Samuel said unto Saul, I will not return with thee: for thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD hath rejected thee from being king over Israel. And as Samuel turned about to go away, he laid hold upon the skirt of his mantle, and it rent. And Samuel said unto him, The LORD hath rent the kingdom of Israel from thee this day, and hath given it to a neighbour of thine, who is better than thou. And also the Strength of Israel will not lie nor repent: for he is not a man, that he should repent. Then he said, I have sinned: yet honour me now, I pray thee, before the elders of my people, and before Israel, and turn again with me, that I may worship the LORD thy God. So Samuel turned again after Saul; and Saul worshipped the LORD.

Then said Samuel, Bring ye hither to me Agag the king of the Amalekites. And Agag came unto him trembling. And Agag said, Surely the bitterness of death is past. And Samuel said, As thy sword hath made women childless, so shall thy mother be childless among women. And Samuel heved Agag in pieces before the LORD in Gilgal.

Then Samuel went to Ramah; and Saul went up to his house to Gibeah of Saul. And Samuel came no more to see Saul until the day of his death: nevertheless Samuel mourned for Saul:

And the LORD repented that he had made Saul king over Israel. And the LORD said unto Samuel, How long wilt thou mourn for Saul, seeing I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? fill thy horn with oil, and go, I will send thee to Jesse the Beth-lehemite; for I have provided me a king among his sons. And Samuel said, How can I go? if Saul hear it, he will kill me. And the LORD said, Take a heifer with thee, and say, I am come to sacrifice to the LORD. And call Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show thee what thou shalt do: and thou shalt anoint unto me him whom I name unto thee.

And Samuel did that which the LORD spoke, and came to Beth-lehem. And the elders of the town hastened to meet him, and said, Comest thou peaceably? And he said, Peaceably: I am come to sacrifice unto the LORD: sanctify yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice. And he sanctified Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice. And when they were come, he looked on Eliab, and said, Surely the LORD'S anointed is before him. But the LORD said unto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him: for the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the heart. Then Jesse called Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, Neither hath the LORD chosen him. Then Jesse made Shammah to pass by. And he said, Neither hath the LORD chosen him. Again, Jesse made seven of his sons to pass before Samuel. And Samuel said unto Jesse, The LORD hath not chosen these. And Samuel said unto Jesse, Are here all thy children? And he said, There remaineth yet the youngest, and, behold, he keepeth the sheep. And Samuel said unto Jesse, Send and fetch him; for we will not sit down till he come hither. And he sent, and brought him in. Now he was ruddy, and withal of a beautiful countenance, and goodly to look to. And the LORD said, Arise, anoint him: for this is he. Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed him in the midst of his brethren: and the Spirit of the LORD came upon David from that day forwards. So Samuel rose up, and went to Ramah.

But the Spirit of the LORD departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the LORD troubled him. And Saul's servants said unto him, Behold now, an evil spirit is from God troubleth thee. Let our lord now command thy servants, who are before thee, to seek out a man, who is a skilful player on a harp: and when the evil spirit

17 from God is upon thee, he shall play with his hand, and thou shalt be well. And Saul said unto his servants, Provide me now a man who can play well, and bring him to me. Then answered one of the servants, and said, Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Beth-lehemite, who is skilful in playing, and a mighty valiant man, and a man of war, and prudent in speech, and a comely person, and the LORD is with him. Wherefore Saul sent messengers unto Jesse, and said, Send me David thy son, who is with the sheep. And Jesse took an ass laden with bread, and a bottle of wine, and a kid, and sent them by David his son unto Saul. And David came to Saul, and stood before him: and he loved him greatly; and he became his armourbearer. And Saul sent to Jesse, saying, Let David, I pray thee, stand before me; for he hath found favour in my sight. And when the evil spirit from God was upon Saul, David took a harp, and played with his hand: so Saul was refreshed, and was well, and the evil spirit departed from him.

17 NOW the Philistines gathered together their armies to battle, and were gathered together at Shochoh, which belongeth to Judah, and pitched between Shochoh and Azekah, in Ephes-dam-mim. And Saul and the men of Israel were gathered together, and pitched in the valley of Elah, and set the battle in array against the Philistines. And the Philistines stood on a mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on a mountain on the other side; and there was a valley between them. And there went out a champion out of the camp of the Philistines, named Goliath, of Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span. And he had a helmet of brass upon his head, and he was armed with a coat of mail; and the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of brass. And he had boots of brass upon his legs, and a target of brass between his shoulders. And the staff of his spear was like a weaver's beam; and his spear's head weighed six hundred shekels of iron; and one bearing a shield went before him. And he stood and cried unto the armies of Israel, and said unto them, Why are ye come out to set your battle in array? am not I a Philistine, and ye servants to Saul? choose you a man for you, and let him come down to me. If he be able to fight with me, and to kill me, then will we be your servants: but if I prevail against him, and kill him, then shall ye be our servants, and serve us. And the Philistine said, I defy the armies of Israel this day; give me a man, that we may fight together. When Saul and all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, they were dismayed, and greatly afraid.

12 Now David was the son of that Ephrathite of Beth-lehem-judah, whose name was Jesse; and he had eight sons: and the man went among men for an old man in the days of Saul. And the three eldest sons of Jesse went and followed Saul to the battle: and the names of his three sons who went to the battle were Eliab the first-born, and next unto him Abinadab, and the third Shammah. And David was the youngest: and the three eldest followed Saul. But David went and returned from Saul to feed his father's sheep at Beth-lehem. And the Philistine drew near morning and evening, and presented himself forty days.

17 And Jesse said unto David his son, Take now for thy brethren an ephah of this parched corn, and these ten loaves, and run to the camp to thy brethren; and carry these little baskets of cheeses unto the captain of their thousand, and see how thy brethren fare, and take their pledge. Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel, were in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines. And David rose up early in the morning, and left the sheep with a keeper, and took the cheeses, and went, as Jesse had commanded him; and he came to the trench, as the host was going forth to the fight, and shouted for the battle. For Israel and the Philistines had put the battle in array, army against army. And David left his baskets in the hand of the keeper of the baggage, and ran into the army, and came and saluted his brethren. And as he talked with them, behold, there came up the champion, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, out of the armies of the Philistines, and spoke according to the same words: and David heard them. And all the men of Israel, when they saw the man, fled from him, and were sore afraid. And the men of Israel said, Have ye seen this man who is come up? surely to defy Israel is he come up: and the man who killeth him, the king will enrich him with great riches, and will give him his daughter, and make his father's house free in Israel. And David spoke to the men who stood by him, saying, What shall be done to the man who killeth this Philistine, and taketh away the reproach from Israel? for who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies of the living God? And the people answered him after this manner, saying, So shall it be done to the man who killeth him. And Eliab his eldest brother heard when he spoke unto the men; and Eliab's anger was kindled against David, and he said, Why camest thou down hither? and with whom hast thou left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know thy pride, and the naughtiness of thy heart; for thou art come down that thou mightest see the battle. And David said, What have I now done? Is there not a cause? And he 29 30 turned from him towards another, and spoke after the same manner: and the people answered him again after the former manner. And when the words were heard 31 which David spoke, they rehearsed them before Saul: and he sent for him.

And David said to Saul, Let no man's heart fail because of him; thy servant will go and fight with this Philistine. And Saul said to David, Thou art not able to go 32 against this Philistine to fight with him; for thou art but a youth, and he a man of war from his youth. And David said unto Saul, Thy servant kept his father's sheep, 33 and there came a lion, and a bear, and took a lamb out of the flock: and I went out 34 after him, and smote him, and delivered it out of his mouth: and when he arose against me, I caught him by his beard, and smote him, and slew him. Thy servant 35 slew both the lion and the bear: and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them, seeing he hath defied the armies of the living God. David said moreover, 36 The LORD who delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, he will deliver me out of the hand of this uncircumcised Philistine. And Saul said unto David, Go, and the LORD be with thee. 37

And Saul armed David with his armour, and he put a helmet of brass upon his head; also he armed him with a coat of mail: and David girded his sword upon his 38 armour, and he assayed to go, but could not; for he had not been accustomed to them. And David said unto Saul, I cannot go with these; for I have not been accus- 39 tomed to them. And David put them off him. And he took his staff in his hand, 40 and chose him five smooth stones out of the brook, and put them in a shepherd's bag which he had, even in a scrip; and his sling was in his hand: and he drew near to the Philistine. And the Philistine came on and drew near unto David; and the 41 man who bore the shield went before him.

And when the Philistine looked about, and saw David, he disdained him; for he 42 was but a youth, and ruddy, and of a beautiful countenance. And the Philistine said 43 unto David, Am I a dog, that thou comest to me with staves? And the Philistine cursed David by his gods. And the Philistine said to David, Come to me, and I 44 will give thy flesh unto the birds of the air, and to the beasts of the field. Then said 45 David to the Philistine, Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a shield; but I come to thee in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom thou hast defied. This day will the LORD deliver thee into my 46 hand; and I will smite thee, and take thy head from thee; and I will give the car- cases of the host of the Philistines this day unto the birds of the air, and to the wild 47 beasts of the earth; that all the earth may know there is a God in Israel. And all this assembly shall know that the LORD saveth not with sword and spear; for the battle is the LORD'S, and he will give you into our hands.

And when the Philistine arose, and came and drew nigh to meet David, David 48 hastened, and ran towards the army to meet the Philistine. And David put his hand 49 in his bag, and took thence a stone, and slang it, and smote the Philistine in his fore- head, that the stone sunk into his forehead; and he fell upon his face to the earth. So 50 David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and smote the Phi- listine, and slew him; but there was no sword in the hand of David. Therefore 51 David ran, and stood upon the Philistine, and took his sword, and drew it out of the sheath thereof, and cut off his head therewith. And when the Philistines saw their champion was dead, they fled. And the men of Israel and of Judah arose, and 52 shouted, and pursued the Philistines, until they came to the valley, and to the gates of Ekron. And the wounded of the Philistines fell down by the way to Shaaraim, even unto Gath, and unto Ekron. And the children of Israel returned from chasing 53 after the Philistines, and they spoiled their tents. And David took the head of the 54 Philistine, and brought it to Jerusalem; but he put his armour in his tent.

And when Saul saw David go forth against the Philistine, he said unto Abner, the 55 captain of the host, Abner, whose son is this youth? And Abner said, As thy soul liveth, O king, I cannot tell. And the king said, Inquire thou whose son the stripling 56 is. And as David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took him, and 57 brought him before Saul with the head of the Philistine in his hand. And Saul said 58 to him, Whose son art thou, thou young man? And David answered, I am the son of thy servant Jesse the Beth-lehemite. And when he had made an end of speaking 18 unto Saul, the soul of Jonathan was knit with the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul. And Saul took him that day, and would let him go no more 2 home to his father's house. Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he 3

- 4 loved him as his own soul. And Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was upon him, and gave it to David, and his garments, even to his sword, and to his bow, and to his girdle.
- 5 And David went out whithersoever Saul sent him, and behaved himself wisely : and Saul set him over the men of war, and he was accepted in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul's servants.
- 6 And as they came, when David was returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, the women came out of all cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet king Saul, with tabrets, with joy, and with instruments of music. And the women sang responsively as they played, and said,

Saul hath slain his thousands,
And David his ten thousands.

- 8 And Saul was very wroth, and the saying displeased him; and he said, They have ascribed unto David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed but thousands : and what can he have more but the kingdom? And Saul eyed David from that day and forwards.
- 10 And on the morrow, the evil spirit from God came upon Saul, and he prophesied in the midst of the house : and David played with his hand, as at other times : and there was a javelin in Saul's hand. And Saul cast the javelin ; for he said, I will smite David even to the wall with it. And David escaped out of his presence twice.
- 12 And Saul was afraid of David, because the LORD was with him, and had departed from himself. Therefore Saul removed him from him, and made him his captain over a thousand ; and he went out and came in before the people. And David behaved himself wisely in all his ways ; and the LORD was with him. Wherefore when Saul saw that he behaved himself very wisely, he was afraid of him. But all Israel and Judah loved David, because he went out and came in before them.
- 17 And Saul said to David, Behold my elder daughter Merab, her will I give thee to wife : only be thou valiant for me, and fight the LORD'S battles. For Saul said, Let not my hand be upon him, but let the hand of the Philistines be upon him. And David said unto Saul, Who am I? and what is my life, or my father's family in Israel, that I should be son-in-law to the king? But at the time when Merab, Saul's daughter, should have been given to David, she was given unto Adriel the Meholathite to wife.
- 20 And Michal, Saul's daughter, loved David : and they told Saul, and the thing pleased him. And Saul said, I will give him her, that she may be a snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him. Wherefore Saul said to David, Thou shalt this day be my son-in-law. And Saul commanded his servants, saying, Commune with David secretly, and say, Behold, the king hath delight in thee, and all his servants love thee : now therefore be the king's son-in-law. And Saul's servants spoke those words in the ears of David. And David said, Seemeth it to you a light thing to be a king's son-in-law, seeing that I am a poor man, and lightly esteemed? And the servants of Saul told him, saying, According to this manner spoke David. And Saul said, Thus shall ye say to David, The king desireth not any dowry, but a hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to be avenged of the king's enemies. But Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines. And when his servants told David these words, it pleased David well to be the king's son-in-law : and the days were not expired. Wherefore David arose and went, he and his men, and slew of the Philistines two hundred men ; and David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full tale to the king, that he might be the king's son-in-law. And Saul gave him Michal his daughter to wife. And Saul saw and knew that the LORD was with David, and that Michal Saul's daughter loved him.
- 29 And Saul was yet the more afraid of David ; and Saul became David's enemy continually. Then the princes of the Philistines went forth : and after they went forth, David behaved himself more wisely than all the servants of Saul ; so that his name was greatly renowned.
- 19 And Saul told Jonathan his son, and all his servants, that he intended to kill David. But Jonathan Saul's son delighted much in David : and Jonathan told David, saying, Saul my father seeketh to kill thee : now therefore, I pray thee, take heed to thyself in the morning, and abide in a secret place, and hide thyself : and I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where thou art, and I will commune with my father of thee ; and what I see, that I will tell thee. And Jonathan spoke good of David unto Saul his father, and said unto him, Let not the king sin against his servant, against David ; because he hath not sinned against thee, and because his works have been towards thee very good : for he did put his life in his hand, and slew 5 the Philistine, and the LORD wrought a great salvation for all Israel : thou savest it, and didst rejoice : wherefore then wilt thou sin against innocent blood, to slay David without a cause ? And Saul hearkened unto the voice of Jonathan : and Saul 6 swore, As the LORD liveth, he shall not be slain. And Jonathan called David, and 7 Jonathan showed him all those things. And Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence, as in times past.

And there was war again ; and David went out, and fought with the Philistines, 8 and slew them with a great slaughter ; and they fled from him. And the evil spirit 9 from the LORD was upon Saul, as he sat in his house with his javelin in his hand : and David played with his hand. And Saul sought to smite David even to the wall 10 with the javelin ; but he slipped away out of Saul's presence, and he smote the javelin into the wall : and David fled, and escaped that night. Saul also sent messengers 11 unto David's house, to watch him, and to slay him in the morning : and Michal David's wife told him, saying, If thou save not thy life to-night, to-morrow thou shalt be slain. So Michal let David down through a window : and he went, and fled, and 12 escaped. And Michal took an image, and laid it in the bed, and put a pillow of 13 goats' hair for its bolster, and covered it with a cloth. And when Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, He is sick. And Saul sent the messengers again to see 14 David, saying, Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may slay him. And when the 15 messengers were come in, behold, there was an image in the bed, with a pillow of goats' hair for its bolster. And Saul said unto Michal, Why hast thou deceived me 16 so, and sent away mine enemy, that he is escaped ? And Michal answered Saul, He said unto me, Let me go ; why should I kill thee ?

So David fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel to Ramah, and told him all that 18 Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and dwelt in Naioth. And it 19 was told Saul, saying, Behold, David is at Naioth in Ramah. And Saul sent mes- 20 sengers to take David : and when they saw the company of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as appointed over them, the Spirit of God was upon the messengers of Saul, and they also prophesied. And when it was told Saul, he sent other 21 messengers, and they prophesied likewise. And Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they prophesied also. Then Saul's anger was kindled, and he also went 22 to Ramah, and came to a great well that is in Seclu : and he asked and said, Where are Samuel and David ? And one said, Behold, they are at Naioth in Ramah.
And he went thither to Naioth in Ramah : and the Spirit of God was upon him also, 23 and he went on, and prophesied, until he came to Naioth in Ramah. And he stripped off his armour also, and prophesied before Samuel in like manner, and lay down 24 without armour all that day and all that night. Wherefore they said, Is Saul also among the prophets ?

And David fled from Naioth in Ramah, and came and said before Jonathan, What 20 have I done ? what is mine iniquity ? and what is my sin before thy father, that he seeketh my life ? And he said unto him, Far be it from me ; thou shalt not die : behold, my father will do nothing either great or small, but that he will show it me : and why should my father hide this thing from me ? it is not so. And David swore 3 moreover, and said, Thy father certainly knoweth that I have found grace in thine eyes : and he saith, Let not Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved : but truly as the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, there is but a step between me and death.
Then said Jonathan unto David, Whatsoever thy soul desireth, I will even do it 4 for thee.

And David said unto Jonathan, Behold, to-morrow is the new moon, and I should 5 not fail to sit with the king at meat : but let me go, that I may hide myself in the field unto the third day at evening. If thy father at all miss me, then say, David 6 earnestly asked leave of me that he might run to Beth-lehem his city ; for there is a yearly feast there for all the family. If he say thus, It is well ; thy servant shall have peace : but if he be very wroth, then be sure that evil is determined by him.
Therefore thou shalt deal kindly with thy servant ; for thou hast brought thy servant 8 into a covenant of the LORD with thee : notwithstanding, if there be in me iniquity, slay me thyself ; for why shouldst thou bring me to thy father ?

And Jonathan said, Far be it from thee : for if I knew certainly that evil were de- 9 termined by my father to come upon thee, then would not I tell it thee ?

Then said David to Jonathan, Who shall tell me ? or what if thy father answer 10 thee roughly ? And Jonathan said unto David, Come, and let us go out into the 11 field. And they went out both of them into the field. And Jonathan said unto David, O LORD God of Israel, be witness, when I have sounded my father about this 12 time the day after to-morrow, and, behold, if there be good towards David, and I then send not unto thee, and show it thee; the LORD do so and much more to Jonathan: but if it please my father to do thee evil, then I will show it thee, and send thee away, that thou mayest go in peace: and the LORD be with thee, as he hath been with my father. And thou shalt not only while yet I live show me the kindness of the LORD, that I die not; but also thou shalt not cut off thy kindness from my house for ever: no, not when the LORD hath cut off the enemies of David every one from the face of the earth. So Jonathan made a covenant with the house of David, saying, Let the LORD even require it at the hand of David's enemies. And Jonathan caused David to swear again, because he loved him: for he loved him as he loved his own soul.

Then Jonathan said further to him, To-morrow is the new moon: and thou shalt be missed, because thy seat will be empty. And when thou hast stayed three days, then thou shalt go down quickly, and come to the place where thou didst hide thyself when the business was in hand, and shalt remain by the stone Ezel. And I will shoot three arrows on the side thereof, as though I shot at a mark. And, behold, I will send a lad, saying, Go, find out the arrows. If I expressly say unto the lad, Behold, the arrows are on this side of thee, then take thou them, and come: for there is peace to thee, and no hurt; as the LORD liveth. But if I say thus unto the young man, Behold, the arrows are beyond thee; go thy way: for the LORD hath sent thee away. And as touching the matter which thou and I have spoken of, behold, the LORD be between thee and me for ever.

So David hid himself in the field: and when the new moon was come, the king sat him down to eat meat. And the king sat upon his seat, as at other times, even upon a seat by the wall: and Jonathan arose, and Abner sat by Saul's side, and David's place was empty. Nevertheless Saul spoke not any thing that day; for he thought, Something hath befallen him, he is not clean; surely he is not clean. And on the morrow, which was the second day of the month, David's place was empty: and Saul said unto Jonathan his son, Wherefore cometh not the son of Jesse to meat, neither yesterday, nor to-day? And Jonathan answered Saul, David earnestly asked leave of me to go to Beth-lehem: and he said, Let me go, I pray thee; for our family hath a feast in the city; and my brother, he hath commanded me to be there: and now, if I have found favour in thine eyes, let me get away, I pray thee, and see my brethren. Therefore he cometh not unto the king's table.

Then Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said unto him, Thou son of the perverse rebellious woman, do not I know that thou hast chosen the son of Jesse to thine own confusion, and unto the confusion of thy mother's nakedness? For as long as the son of Jesse liveth upon the ground, thou shalt not be established, nor thy kingdom. Wherefore now send and fetch him unto me, for he shall surely die. And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said unto him, Wherefore shall he be slain? what hath he done? And Saul cast a javelin at him to smite him: whereby Jonathan knew that it was determined of his father to slay David. So Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and did eat no food the second day of the month; for he was grieved for David, because his father had done him shame.

And in the morning Jonathan went out into the field at the time appointed with David, and a little lad with him. And he said unto his lad, Run, find out now the arrows which I shoot. And as the lad ran, he shot an arrow beyond him. And when the lad was come to the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried after the lad, and said, Is not the arrow beyond thee? And Jonathan cried after the lad, Make speed, haste, stay not. And Jonathan's lad gathered up the arrows, and came to his master. But the lad knew not any thing: only Jonathan and David knew the matter. And Jonathan gave his bow and arrows unto his lad, and said unto him, Go, carry them to the city.

And as soon as the lad was gone, David arose out of a place towards the south, and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed himself three times: and they kissed one another, and wept one with another, until David exceeded. And Jonathan said to David, Go in peace, forasmuch as we have sworn both of us in the name of the LORD, saying, The LORD be between me and thee, and between my seed and thy seed for ever. And he arose and departed: and Jonathan went into the city.

21 Then came David to Nob to Ahimelech the priest: and Ahimelech was astonished at meeting David, and said unto him, Why art thou alone, and no man with thee? And David said unto Ahimelech the priest, The king hath commanded me a business, and hath said unto me, Let no man know any thing of the business whereabout I send thee, and what I have commanded thee: and I have appointed servants to meet thee at such and such a place. Now therefore what is under thy hand? 3 give me five loaves of bread in my hand, or what there is present. And the priest 4 answered David, and said, There is no common bread under my hand, but there is hallowed bread; if the young men have kept themselves at least from women. And 5 David answered the priest, and said unto him, Of a truth women have been kept from us three days, since I came out, and all the young men were holy; but if by the way they have become unclean, they may all this day be hallowed. So the 6 priest gave him hallowed bread: for there was no bread there but the showbread, that was taken from before the LORD, to put hot bread in its place in the day when it was taken away. (Now a certain man of the servants of Saul was there that day, 7 detained before the LORD; and his name was Doeg, an Edomite, the chief of the herdmen who belonged to Saul.) And David said unto Ahimelech, And is there 8 not here under thy hand spear or sword? for I have neither brought my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king's business required haste. And the priest 9 said, The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom thou slewest in the valley of Elah, behold, it is here wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod: if thou wilt take that, take it; for there is no other save that here. And David said, There is none like that; give it me.

And David arose, and fled that day for fear of Saul, and went to Achish the king 10 of Gath. And the servants of Achish said unto him, Is not this David the king of 11 the land? did they not sing one to another of him in dances, saying, Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands? And David laid up these words in his 12 heart, and was sore afraid of Achish the king of Gath. And he changed his be- 13 haviour before them, and feigned himself mad in their hands, and scribbled on the doors of the gate, and let his spittle fall down upon his beard. Then said Achish 14 unto his servants, Lo, ye see the man is mad: wherefore then have ye brought him to me? Have I need of mad men, that ye have brought this fellow to play the mad 15 man in my presence? shall this fellow come into my house?

David therefore departed thence, and escaped to the cave Adullam: and when 22 his brethren and all his father's house heard it, they went down thither to him. And every one who was in distress, and every one who was in debt, and every one 2 who was discontented, gathered themselves unto him; and he became a captain over them: and there were with him about four hundred men.

And David went thence to Mizpeh of Moab: and he said unto the king of Moab, 3 Let my father and my mother, I pray thee, come forth, and be with you, till I know what God will do for me. And he brought them before the king of Moab: and 4 they dwelt with him all the while that David was in the hold. And the prophet Gad 5 said unto David, Abide not in the hold; depart, and get thee into the land of Judah. Then David departed, and came into the forest of Hareth.

When Saul heard that David was discovered, and the men who were with him, 6 (now Saul abode in Gibeah under a tree in Ramah, having his spear in his hand, and all his servants were standing about him;) then Saul said unto his servants who 7 stood about him, Hear now, ye Benjamites; will the son of Jesse give every one of you fields and vineyards, and make you all captains of thousands, and captains of 8 hundreds; that all of you have conspired against me, and there is none who sheweth me that my son hath made a league with the son of Jesse, and there is none of you who 9 is sorry for me, or sheweth unto me that my son hath stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?

Then answered Doeg the Edomite, who was set over the servants of Saul, and said, 9 I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub. And he in- 10 quired of the LORD for him, and gave him victuals, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine.

Then the king sent to call Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his 11 father's house, the priests who were in Nob: and they came all of them to the king. And Saul said, Hear now, thou son of Ahitub. And he answered, Here I am, my 12 lord. And Saul said unto him, Why have ye conspired against me, thou and the 13 son of Jesse, in that thou hast given him bread, and a sword, and hast inquired of God for him, that he should rise against me, to lie in wait, as at this day? Then 14 Ahimelech answered the king, and said, And who is so faithful among all thy servants as David, who is the king's son-in-law, and goeth at thy bidding, and is honour- 15 able in thy house? Did I then begin to inquire of God for him? be it far from me: let not the king impute any thing unto his servant, nor to all the house of my father: for thy servant knew nothing of all this, less or more. And the king said, Thou 16 shalt surely die, Ahimelech, thou, and all thy father's house. And the king said unto 17

the guard who stood about him, Turn, and slay the priests of the LORD; because their hand also is with David, and because they knew when he fled, and did not show it to me. But the servants of the king would not put forth their hand to fall upon the priests of the LORD. And the king said to Doeg, Turn thou, and fall upon the priests. And Doeg the Edomite turned, and he fell upon the priests, and slew on that day fourscore and five persons who wore a linen ephod. And Nob, the city of the priests, smote he with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and sucklings, and oxen, and asses, and sheep.

20 AND one of the sons of Ahimelech the son of Ahitub, named Abiathar, escaped, and fled after David. And Abiathar showed David that Saul had slain the LORD'S priests. And David said unto Abiathar, I knew it that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul: I have occasioned the death of all the persons of thy father's house. Abide thou with me, fear not: for he who seeketh my life seeketh thy life: but with me thou shalt be in safeguard.

23 Then they told David, saying, Behold, the Philistines fight against Keilah, and they rob the threshingfloors. Therefore David inquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go and smite these Philistines? And the LORD said unto David, Go and smite the Philistines, and save Keilah. And David's men said unto him, Behold, we are afraid here in Judah: how much more then if we come to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines? Then David inquired of the LORD yet again. And the LORD answered him and said, Arise, go down to Keilah; for I will deliver the Philistines into thy hand. So David and his men went to Keilah, and fought with the Philistines, and brought away their cattle, and smote them with a great slaughter. So David saved the inhabitants of Keilah. And when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech fled to David to Keilah, he came down with an ephod in his hand. And it was told Saul that David was come to Keilah. And Saul said, God hath delivered him into my hand; for he is shut in, by entering into a town that hath gates and bars. And Saul called all the people together to war, to go down to Keilah, to besiege David and his men. And David knew that Saul secretly practised mischief against him; and he said to Abiathar the priest, Bring hither the ephod. Then said David, O LORD God of Israel, thy servant hath certainly heard that Saul seeketh to come to Keilah, to destroy the city for my sake. Will the men of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? will Saul come down, as thy servant hath heard? O LORD God of Israel, I beseech thee, tell thy servant. And the LORD said, He will come down. Then said David, Will the men of Keilah deliver me and my men into the hand of Saul? And the LORD said, They will deliver thee up. Then David and his men, who were about six hundred, arose and departed out of Keilah, and went whithersoever they could go. And it was told Saul that David was escaped from Keilah; and he forbore to go forth. And David abode in the wilderness in strong holds, and remained in a mountain in the wilderness of Ziph. And Saul sought him every day, but God delivered him not into his hand. And David saw that Saul was come out to seek his life: and David was in the wilderness of Ziph in a wood.

16 And Jonathan Saul's son arose, and went to David into the wood, and strengthened his hand in God. And he said unto him, Fear not; for the hand of Saul my father shall not find thee; and thou shalt be king over Israel, and I shall be next unto thee; and that also Saul my father knoweth. And they two made a covenant before the LORD: and David abode in the wood, and Jonathan went to his house.

19 Then came up the Ziphites to Saul to Gibeah, saying, Doth not David hide himself with us in strong holds in the wood, in the hill of Hachilah, which is on the south of Jeshimon? Now therefore, O king, come down according to all the desire of thy soul to come down: and our part shall be to deliver him into the king's hand. 21 22 And Saul said, Blessed be ye of the LORD; for ye have compassion on me. Go, I pray you, prepare yet, and know and see his place where his haunt is, and who hath seen him there: for it is told me that he dealeth very subtilly. See therefore, and take knowledge of all the lurking places where he hideth himself, and come ye again to me with the certainty, and I will go with you: and if he be in the land, I will search him out throughout all the thousands of Judah. And they arose, and went to Ziph before Saul: but David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, in the plain on the south of Jeshimon.

25 Saul also and his men went to seek him. And they told David: wherefore he came down from the rock, and abode in the wilderness of Maon. And when Saul heard that, he pursued after David in the wilderness of Maon. And Saul went on this side of the mountain, and David and his men on that side of the mountain: and David made haste to get away for fear of Saul; for Saul and his men compassed David and his men round about to take them. But there came a messenger unto Saul, saying, Haste thee, and come; for the Philistines have invaded the land. Wherefore Saul returned from pursuing after David, and went against the Philistines: therefore they called that place Sela-hammahlekoth [THE ROCK OF DIVISIONS].

And David went up from thence, and dwelt in strong holds at En-gedi. And when Saul was returned from following the Philistines, it was told him, saying, Behold, David is in the wilderness of En-gedi. Then Saul took three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seek David and his men upon the rocks of the wild goats. And he came to the sheepcotes by the way, where was a cave; and Saul went in to cover his feet: and David and his men remained in the sides of the cave. And the men of David said unto him, Behold the day of which the LORD said unto thee, Behold, I will deliver thine enemy into thy hand, that thou mayest do to him as it shall seem good unto thee. Then David arose, and cut off the skirt of Saul's robe secretly. And afterwards David's heart smote him, because he had cut off Saul's skirt. And he said unto his men, It cannot be that I should do this thing unto my master, the LORD'S anointed, to stretch forth my hand against him, seeing he is the anointed of the LORD. So David stayed his servants with these words, and suffered them not to rise against Saul. But Saul rose up out of the cave, and went on his way.

David also arose afterwards, and went out of the cave, and cried after Saul, saying, My lord the king. And when Saul looked behind him, David stooped with his face to the earth, and bowed himself. And David said to Saul, Wherefore hearest thou men's words, saying, Behold, David seeketh thy hurt? Behold, this day thine eyes have seen how that the LORD had delivered thee to-day into my hand in the cave; and some bade me kill thee: but mine eye spared thee; and I said, I will not put forth my hand against my lord; for he is the LORD'S anointed. Moreover, my father, see, yea, see the skirt of thy robe in my hand: for in that I cut off the skirt of thy robe, and killed thee not, know thou and see that there is neither evil nor transgression in my hand, and I have not sinned against thee; yet thou huntest my soul to take it. The LORD judge between me and thee, and the LORD avenge me of thee: but my hand shall not be upon thee. As saith the ancient proverb, Wickedness proceedeth from the wicked: but my hand shall not be upon thee. After whom is the king of Israel come out? after whom dost thou pursue? after a dead dog, after a flea. The LORD therefore be judge, and judge between me and thee, and see, and plead my cause, and deliver me out of thy hand.

And when David had made an end of speaking these words unto Saul, Saul said, Is this thy voice, my son David? And Saul lifted up his voice, and wept. And he said to David, Thou art more righteous than I; for thou hast rewarded me good, whereas I have rewarded thee evil. And thou hast showed this day how that thou hast dealt well with me: forasmuch as when the LORD had delivered me into thy hand, thou killedst me not. For if a man find his enemy, will he let him go well away? wherefore the LORD reward thee good for that thou hast done unto me this day. And now, behold, I know well that thou shalt surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel shall be established in thy hand. Swear now therefore unto me by the LORD, that thou wilt not cut off my seed after me, and that thou wilt not destroy my name out of my father's house. And David swore unto Saul. And Saul went home; but David and his men went up unto the hold.

And Samuel died; and all the Israelites were gathered together, and lamented him, and buried him in his house at Ramah.

AND David arose, and went down to the wilderness of Paran. And there was a man in Maon, whose possessions were in Carmel; and the man was very great, and he had three thousand sheep, and a thousand goats: and he was shearing his sheep in Carmel. Now the name of the man was Nabal; and the name of his wife Abigail: and she was a woman of good understanding, and of a beautiful countenance; but the man was churlish and evil in his doings; and he was of the house of Caleb. And David heard in the wilderness that Nabal did shear his sheep. And David sent out ten young men, and David said unto the young men, Get you up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and greet him in my name: and thus shall ye say to him, Peace be both to thee, and peace be to thy house, and peace be unto all that thou hast. And now I have heard that thou hast shearers: now thy shepherds who were with us, we hurt them not, neither was there aught missing unto them, all the while they were in Carmel. Ask thy young men, and they will show thee. Wherefore let the young men find favour in thine eyes: for we come in a good day: give, I pray thee, unto

- 9 thy servants, and to thy son David, whatsoever thy hand can afford. And when David's young men came, they spoke to Nabal according to all those words in the name of David, and ceased. And Nabal answered David's servants, and said, Who is David? and who is the son of Jesse? there are many servants now-a-days that break away every man from his master. Shall I then take my bread, and my water, and my flesh that I have killed for my shearers, and give them unto men, whom I know not whence they are? So David's young men turned their way, and went again, and came and told him all those sayings. And David said unto his men, Gird ye on every man his sword. And they girded on every man his sword; and David also girded on his sword: and there went up after David about four hundred men; and two hundred abode by the stuff.
- 14 But one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, saying, Behold, David sent messengers out of the wilderness to salute our master; and he railed on them. But the men were very good unto us, and we were not hurt, neither missed we any thing, as long as we were conversant with them, when we were in the fields: they were a wall unto us both by night and day, all the while we were with them keeping the sheep. Now therefore know and consider what thou wilt do; for evil is determined against our master, and against all his household; for he is so wicked a man, that one cannot speak to him. Then Abigail made haste, and took two hundred loaves, and two bottles of wine, and five sheep ready dressed, and five measures of parched corn, and a hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid them on asses. And she said unto her servants, Go on before me; behold, I come after you. But she told not her husband Nabal. And as she rode on the ass, she came down by the covert of the hill, and, behold, David and his men came down against her; and she met them. Now David had said, Surely in vain have I kept all that this man hath in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that pertained unto him: and he hath requited me evil for good. So and more also do God unto the enemies of David, if I leave of all that pertain to him by the morning light a single male.
- 23 And when Abigail saw David, she hastened, and alighted off the ass, and fell before David on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, and fell at his feet, and said, Upon me, my lord, upon me let the punishment of this iniquity be: and let thy handmaid, I pray thee, speak in thy hearing, and hear the words of thy handmaid.
- 25 Let not my lord, I pray thee, regard this wicked man, even Nabal: for as his name is, so is he; Nabal is his name, and folly is with him: but I thy handmaid saw not the young men of my lord, whom thou didst send. Now therefore, my lord, as the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, seeing the LORD hath withholden thee from coming to shed blood, and from avenging thyself with thine own hand, now let thine enemies, and they who seek evil to my lord, be as Nabal. And now this present which thy handmaid hath brought unto my lord, let it even be given unto the young men who follow my lord. I pray thee, forgive the trespass of thy handmaid: for the LORD will certainly make my lord a sure house; because my lord fighteth the battles of the LORD, and evil hath not been found in thee all thy days. Yet a man is risen to pursue thee, and to seek thy soul; but the soul of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of life with the LORD thy God; and the souls of thine enemies, them shall he sling out, as out of the middle of a sling. And when the LORD shall have done to my lord according to all the good that he hath spoken concerning thee, and shall have appointed thee ruler over Israel; this shall be no grief unto thee, nor offence of heart unto my lord, either that thou hast shed blood causelessly, or that my lord hath avenged himself: but when the LORD shall have dealt well with my lord, then remember thy handmaid.
- 32 And David said to Abigail, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who sent thee this day to meet me: and blessed be thy advice, and blessed be thou, who hast kept me this day from coming to shed blood, and from avenging myself with mine own hand. For in very deed, as the LORD God of Israel liveth, who hath kept me back from hurting thee, except thou hadst hastened and come to meet me, surely there had not been left unto Nabal by the morning light a single male. So David received of her hand that which she had brought him, and said unto her, Go up in peace to thy house; see, I have hearkened to thy voice, and have accepted thy person.
- 36 And Abigail came to Nabal; and, behold, he held a feast in his house, like the feast of a king; and Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunken: wherefore she told him nothing, less or more, until the morning light. But in the morning, when the wine was gone out of Nabal, and his wife had told him these things, his heart died within him, and he became as a stone. And about ten days 38 after, the LORD smote Nabal, that he died. And when David heard that Nabal 39 was dead, he said, Blessed be the LORD, who hath pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and hath kept his servant from evil: for the LORD hath returned the wickedness of Nabal upon his own head.

And David sent and communed with Abigail, to take her to him to wife. And 40 when the servants of David were come to Abigail to Carmel, they spoke unto her, saying, David sent us unto thee, to take thee to him to wife. And she arose, and 41 bowed herself on her face to the earth, and said, Behold, let thy handmaid be a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord. And Abigail hastened, and arose, 42 and rode upon an ass, with five damsels of her's who went after her; and she went after the messengers of David, and became his wife. David also took Ahinoam of 43 Jezreel; and they were also both of them his wives. But Saul had given Michal his 44 daughter, David's wife, to Phalti the son of Laish, who was of Gallim.

AND the Ziphites came unto Saul to Gibeah, saying, Doth not David hide himself 26 in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jeshimon? Then Saul arose, and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, having three thousand chosen men of Israel with him, to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph. And Saul pitched on the hill of Hachilah, 3 which is before Jeshimon, by the way. But David abode in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness. David therefore sent out spies, 4 and understood that Saul was come in very deed.

And David arose, and came to the place where Saul had pitched: and David be- 5 held the place where Saul lay, and Abner the son of Ner, the captain of his host: and Saul lay amongst the baggage, and the people pitched round about him. Then answered David and said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Abishai the son of Zeruiah, brother to Joab, saying, Who will go down with me to Saul to the camp? And Abishai said, I will go down with thee. So David and Abishai came to the people 7 by night; and, behold, Saul lay sleeping amongst the baggage, and his spear stuck in the ground at his head: but Abner and the people lay round about him. Then 8 said Abishai to David, God hath delivered thine enemy into thy hand this day: now therefore let me smite him, I pray thee, with the spear even to the earth at once, and I will not smite him the second time. And David said to Abishai, Destroy him 9 not; for who can stretch forth his hand against the LORD'S anointed, and be guiltless? David said furthermore, As the LORD liveth, the LORD shall smite him; or 10 his day shall come to die; or he shall descend into battle, and perish. The LORD 11 forbid that I should stretch forth my hand against the LORD'S anointed; but, I pray thee, take thou now the spear that is at his head, and the cruise of water, and let us go. So David took the spear and the cruise of water from Saul's head; and they 12 went away, and no man saw it, nor knew it, neither awaked: for they were all asleep; because a deep sleep from the LORD was fallen upon them.

Then David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of a hill afar off; a 13 great space being between them: and David cried to the people, and to Abner the 14 son of Ner, saying, Answerest thou not, Abner? Then Abner answered and said, Who art thou who criest to the king? And David said to Abner, Art not thou a 15 valiant man? and who is like to thee in Israel? wherefore then hast thou not kept thy lord the king? for there came one of the people in to destroy the king thy lord. This thing is not good that thou hast done. As the LORD liveth, ye are worthy to 16 die, because ye have not kept your master, the LORD'S anointed. And now see where the king's spear is, and the cruise of water that was at his head. And Saul 17 knew David's voice, and said, Is this thy voice, my son David? And David said, It is my voice, my lord, O king. And he said, Wherefore doth my lord thus pursue 18 after his servant? for what have I done? or what evil is in my hand? Now therefore, I pray thee, let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. If the LORD 19 have stirred thee up against me, let him accept an offering: but if they be the children of men, cursed be they before the LORD; for they have driven me out this day from abiding in the inheritance of the LORD, saying, Go, serve other gods. Now 20 therefore, let not my blood fall to the earth before the face of the LORD; for the king of Israel is come out to seek a flea, as when one doth hunt a partridge in the mountains.

Then said Saul, I have sinned: return, my son David: for I will no more do thee 21 harm, because my soul was precious in thine eyes this day: behold, I have played the fool, and have erred exceedingly. And David answered and said, Behold the 22 king's spear! and let one of the young men come over and fetch it. The LORD 23 render to every man his righteousness and his faithfulness; for the LORD delivered thee into my hand to-day, but I would not stretch forth my hand against the LORD'S anointed. And, behold, as thy life was much set by this day in mine eyes, so let my life be much set by in the eyes of the LORD, and let him deliver me out of all tribulation. Then Saul said to David, Blessed be thou, my son David; thou shalt both do great things, and also shalt still prevail. So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

27 AND David said in his heart, I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul; there is nothing better for me than that I should speedily escape into the land of the Philistines; and Saul shall despair of me, to seek me any more in any coast of Israel: so shall I escape out of his hand. And David arose, and he passed over with the six hundred men who were with him unto Achish, the son of Maach, king of Gath. And David dwelt with Achish at Gath, he and his men, every man with his household, even David with his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the Carmelitess, Nabal's wife. And it was told Saul that David was fled to Gath; and he sought no more again for him.

And David said unto Achish, If I have now found grace in thine eyes, let them give me a place in some town in the country, that I may dwell there; for why should thy servant dwell in the royal city with thee? Then Achish gave him Ziklag that day: wherefore Ziklag pertaineth unto the kings of Judah unto this day. And the time that David dwelt in the country of the Philistines was a full year and four months.

And David and his men went up, and invaded the Geshurites, and the Gezrites, and the Amalekites: for those nations were of old the inhabitants of the land, as thou goest to Shur, even unto the land of Egypt. And David smote the land, and left neither man nor woman alive, and took away the sheep, and the oxen, and the asses, and the camels, and the apparel, and returned, and came to Achish. And Achish said, Whither have ye roved about to-day? And David said, Against the south of Judah, and against the south of the Jerahmeelites, and against the south of the Kenites. And David saved neither man nor woman alive, to bring tidings to Gath, saying, Lest they should tell on us, saying, So did David, and so will be his manner all the while he dwelleth in the country of the Philistines. And Achish believed David, saying, He hath made his people Israel utterly to abhor him; therefore he shall be my servant for ever.

28 And in those days the Philistines gathered their armies together for warfare, to fight with Israel. And Achish said unto David, Know thou assuredly, that thou shalt go out with me to battle, thou and thy men. And David said to Achish, Surely thou shalt know what thy servant can do. And Achish said to David, Therefore will I make thee keeper of my head for ever.

NOW Samuel was dead, and all Israel had lamented him, and buried him in Ramah, even in his own city. And Saul had put away those who had familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land. And the Philistines gathered themselves together, and came and pitched in Shunem: and Saul gathered all Israel together, and they pitched in Gilboa. And when Saul saw the host of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart greatly trembled. And when Saul inquired of the LORD, the LORD answered him not, neither by dreams, nor by Urim, nor by prophets. Then said Saul unto his servants, Seek me a woman who hath a familiar spirit, that I may go to her, and inquire of her. And his servants said to him, Behold, there is a woman who hath a familiar spirit at En-dor.

And Saul disguised himself, and put on other raiment, and he went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night: and he said, I pray thee, divine unto me by the familiar spirit, and bring me him up, whom I shall name unto thee. And the woman said unto him, Behold, thou knowest what Saul hath done, how he hath cut off those who have familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land: wherefore then layest thou a snare for my life, to cause me to die? And Saul swore to her by the LORD, saying, As the LORD liveth, there shall no punishment happen to thee for this thing. Then said the woman, Whom shall I bring up unto thee? And he said, Bring me up Samuel.

And when the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voice: and the woman spoke to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceived me? for thou art Saul. And the king said unto her, Be not afraid; for what sawest thou? And the woman said unto Saul, I saw some mighty one ascending out of the earth. And he said unto her, What is his form? And she said, An old man cometh up; and he is covered with a mantle. And Saul perceived that it was Samuel, and he stooped with his face to the ground, and bowed himself. And Samuel said to Saul, Why hast thou disquieted me, to bring me up? And Saul answered, I am sore distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and God is departed from me, and answereth me no more, neither by prophets, nor by dreams; therefore I have called thee, that thou mayest make known unto me what I shall do. Then said Samuel, Wherefore then dost thou ask of me, seeing the LORD is departed from thee, and is gone over to thy neighbour? And the LORD hath done to him, as he spoke by me; for the LORD hath rent the kingdom out of thy hand, and given it to thy neighbour, even to David: because thou obeyedst not the voice of the LORD, nor executedst his fierce wrath upon Amalek, therefore hath the LORD done this thing unto thee this day. Moreover the LORD will also deliver Israel with thee into the hand of the Philistines; and to-morrow shalt thou and thy sons be with me: the LORD also shall deliver the host of Israel unto the hand of the Philistines.

Then Saul fell straightway all along on the earth, and was sore afraid, because of the words of Samuel; and there was no strength in him; for he had eaten no bread all the day, nor all the night. And the woman came unto Saul, and saw that he was sore troubled, and said unto him, Behold, thy handmaid hath obeyed thy voice, and I have put my life in my hand, and have hearkened unto thy words which thou spakest unto me. Now therefore, I pray thee, hearken thou also unto the voice of thy handmaid, and let me set a morsel of bread before thee; and eat, that thou mayest have strength, when thou goest on thy way. But he refused, and said, I will not eat. But his servants, together with the woman, urged him; and he hearkened unto their voice. So he arose from the earth, and sat upon the bed. And the woman had a fat calf in the house; and she hastened, and killed it, and took flour, and kneaded it, and did bake unleavened bread thereof: and she brought it before Saul, and before his servants; and they did eat. Then they rose up, and went away that night.

Now the Philistines gathered together all their armies to Aphek: and the Israelites pitched by a fountain which is in Jezreel. And the lords of the Philistines passed on by hundreds, and by thousands; but David and his men passed on in the rearward with Achish. Then said the princes of the Philistines, What do these Hebrews here? And Achish said unto the princes of the Philistines, Is not this David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, who hath been with me these days, or these years, and I have found no fault in him since he fell unto me unto this day? And the princes of the Philistines were wroth with him; and they said unto him, Make this fellow return, that he may go again to his place which thou hast appointed him, and let him not go down with us to battle, lest in the battle he be an adversary to us: for wherewith should he reconcile himself unto his master? should it not be with the heads of these men? Is not this David, of whom they sang one to another in dances, saying, Saul slew his thousands, and David his ten thousands?

Then Achish called David, and said unto him, Surely, as the LORD liveth, thou hast been upright, and thy going out and thy coming in with me in the host is good in my sight; for I have not found evil in thee since the day of thy coming unto me unto this day: nevertheless the lords favour thee not. Wherefore now return, and go in peace, that thou displease not the lords of the Philistines. And David said unto Achish, But what have I done? and what hast thou found in thy servant so long as I have been with thee unto this day, that I may not go fight against the enemies of my lord the king? And Achish answered and said to David, I know that thou art good in my sight, as an angel of God: notwithstanding the princes of the Philistines have said, He shall not go up with us to the battle. Wherefore now rise up early in the morning with thy master's servants who are come with thee: and as soon as ye be up early in the morning, and have light, depart.

So David and his men rose up early to depart in the morning, to return into the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

And when David and his men were come to Ziklag on the third day, the Amalekites had invaded the south, and Ziklag, and smitten Ziklag, and burnt it with fire; and had taken the women captives, who were therein: they slew not any, either great or small, but carried them away, and went on their way. So David and his men came to the city, and, behold, it was burnt with fire; and their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, were taken captives. Then David and the people who were with him lifted up their voice and wept, until they had no more power to weep. And David's two wives were taken captives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite. And David was greatly distressed; for the people spake of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was grieved, every man for his sons and for his daughters: but David encouraged himself in the LORD his God.

7 And David said to Abiathar the priest, Ahimelech's son, I pray thee, bring me 8 hither the ephod. And Abiathar brought thither the ephod to David. And David inquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I pursue after this troop? shall I overtake them? And he answered him, Pursue; for thou shalt surely overtake them, and 9 without fail recover all. So David went, he and the six hundred men who were with 10 him, and came to the brook Besor, where those who were left behind stayed. But David pursued, he and four hundred men: for two hundred abode behind, who were so faint that they could not go over the brook Besor.

11 And they found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David, and gave him 12 bread, and he did eat; and they made him drink water; and they gave him a piece of a cake of figs, and two clusters of raisins: and when he had eaten, his spirit came again to him; for he had eaten no bread, nor drunk any water, three days and three 13 nights. And David said unto him, To whom belongeth thou? and whence art thou?
And he said, I am a young man of Egypt, servant to an Amalekite; and my master 14 left me, because three days ago I fell sick. We made an invasion upon the south of the Chenchites, and upon the coast which belongeth to Judah, and upon the south 15 of Caleb; and we burnt Ziklag with fire. And David said to him, Canst thou bring me down to this company? And he said, Swear unto me by God, that thou wilt neither kill me, nor deliver me into the hands of my master, and I will bring thee down to this company.

16 And when he had brought him down, behold, they were spread abroad upon all the earth, eating and drinking, and dancing, because of all the great spoil that they 17 had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Judah. And David smote them from the twilight even unto the evening of the next day: and there escaped not a man of them, save four hundred young men, who rode upon 18 camels, and fled. And David recovered all that the Amalekites had carried away:
19 and David rescued his two wives. And there was nothing lacking to them, neither small nor great, neither sons nor daughters, neither spoil, nor any thing that they 20 had taken to them: David recovered all. And David took all the flocks and the herds, which they drove before those other cattle, and said, This is David's spoil.

21 And David came to the two hundred men, who were so faint that they could not follow David, whom they had made also to abide at the brook Besor: and they went forth to meet David, and to meet the people who were with him: and when David 22 came near to the people, he saluted them. Then answered all the wicked and worthless men, of those who went with David, and said, Because they went not with us, we will not give them ought of the spoil that we have recovered, save to every man 23 his wife and his children, that they may lead them away, and depart. Then said David, Ye shall not do so, my brethren, with that which the LORD hath given us, who hath preserved us, and delivered the company who came against us into our 24 hand. For who will hearken unto you in this matter? but as his share is who goeth down to the battle, so shall his share be who tarrieth by the stuff: they shall share 25 alike. And from that day forwards he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel unto this day.

26 And when David came to Ziklag, he sent of the spoil unto the elders of Judah, even to his friends, saying, Behold a present for you of the spoil of the enemies of 27 the LORD; to those who were in Beth-el, and to those who were in south Ramoth, 28 and to those who were in Jattir, and to those who were in Aroer, and to those who 29 were in Siphmoth, and to those who were in Eshtemoa, and to those who were in Rachal, and to those who were in the cities of the Jerahmeelites, and to those who 30 were in the cities of the Kenites, and to those who were in Hormah, and to those 31 who were in Chor-ashan, and to those who were in Athach, and to those who were in Hebron, and to all the places where David himself and his men were wont to haunt.

31 Now the Philistines fought against Israel: and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down slain in mount Gilboa. And the Philistines followed bard upon Saul and upon his sons; and the Philistines slew Jonathan, and Abina-3 dab, and Melchi-shua, Saul's sons. And the battle went sore against Saul, and the 4 archers overtook him and hit him; and he was sore wounded of the archers. Then said Saul unto his armourbearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith; lest these uncircumcised come and thrust me through, and abuse me. But his armourbearer would not; for he was sore afraid. Therefore Saul took a sword, 5 and fell upon it. And when his armourbearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell like-6 wise upon his sword, and died with him. So Saul died, and his three sons, and his armourbearer, and all his men, that same day together.

7 And when the men of Israel who were on the other side of the valley, and they

II. SAMUEL I.

who were on the other side the Jordan, saw that the men of Israel fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook the cities, and fled; and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

And on the morrow, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, they found Saul 8 and his three sons fallen in mount Gilboa. And they cut off his head, and stripped 9 off his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to publish it in the house of their idols, and among the people. And they put his armour in the 10 house of Ashtaroth: and they fastened his body to the wall of Beth-shan.

And when the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead heard of that which the Philistines 11 had done to Saul; all the valiant men arose, and went all night, and took the body 12 of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth-shan, and came to Jabesh, and burnt them there. And they took their bones, and buried them under a tree 13 at Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

THE SECOND BOOK OF SAMUEL,

OTHERWISE CALLED,

THE SECOND BOOK OF THE KINGS.

NOW after the death of Saul, when David was returned from the slaughter of the 1 Amalekites, and David had abode two days in Ziklag; even on the third day, behold, a man came out of the camp from Saul with his clothes rent, and earth upon his head: and when he came to David, he fell to the earth, and did obeisance. And 3 David said unto him, From whence comest thou? And he said unto him, Out of the camp of Israel am I escaped. And David said unto him, How went the matter? I 4 pray thee, tell me. And he answered, That the people are fled from the battle, and many of the people also are fallen and dead; and Saul and Jonathan his son are dead also. And David said unto the young man who told him, How knowest thou 5 that Saul and Jonathan his son are dead? And the young man who told him said, As 6 I happened by chance upon mount Gilboa, behold, Saul leaned upon his spear; and, lo, the chariots and horsemen followed hard after him. And when he looked be- 7 hind him, he saw me, and called unto me. And I answered, Here am I. And he said 8 unto me, Who art thou? And I answered him, I am an Amalekite. He said unto 9 me again, Stand, I pray thee, upon me, and slay me: for anguish is come upon me, so that there is scarcely life in me. So I stood upon him, and slew him, because I 10 was sure that he could not live after that he was fallen: and I took the crown that was upon his head, and the braclet that was on his arm, and have brought them hither unto my lord.

Then David took hold on his clothes, and rent them; and likewise all the men who 11 were with him: and they mourned, and wept, and fasted until evening, for Saul, 12 and for Jonathan his son, and for the people of the LORD, and for the house of Israel: because they were fallen by the sword.

And David said unto the young man who told him, Whence art thou? And he 13 answered, I am the son of a stranger, an Amalekite. And David said unto him, 14 How wast thou not afraid to stretch forth thy hand to destroy the LORD'S anointed? And David called one of the young men, and said, Go near, and fall upon him. 15 And he smote him that he died. And David said unto him, Thy blood be upon thy head; for thy mouth hath testified against thee, saying, I have slain the LORD'S 16 anointed.

And David lamented with this lamentation over Saul and over Jonathan his son: 17 (also he bade them teach it the children of Judah: behold, it is written in the book 18 of Jasher.)

19 The beauty of Israel is slain upon thy high places:
How are the mighty fallen!

20 Tell it not in Gath,

II. SAMUEL II.

- Publish it not in the streets of Askelon ;
Lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice,
Lest the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph.
- 21 Ye mountains of Gilboa, let there be no dew,
Neither let there be rain, upon you, nor fields that bear heave offerings :
For there the shield of the mighty is vilely cast away,
The shield of Saul, the armour of him who was anointed with oil.
- 22 From the blood of the slain,
From the fat of the mighty,
The bow of Jonathan turned not back,
And the sword of Saul returned not empty.
- 23 Saul and Jonathan
Were lovely and pleasant in their lives,
And in their death they were not divided :
They were swifter than eagles,
They were stronger than lions.
- 24 Ye daughters of Israel, weep over Saul,
Who clothed you in scarlet, and delightful garments,
Who put on ornaments of gold upon your apparel.
- 25 How are the mighty fallen in the midst of the battle !
O Jonathan, thou wast slain in thy high places.
- 26 I am distressed for thee, my brother Jonathan :
Very pleasant hast thou been unto me :
Thy love to me was wonderful,
Passing the love of women.
- 27 How are the mighty fallen,
And the weapons of war perished !

2 AND after this, David inquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up into any of the cities of Judah ? And the LORD said unto him, Go up. And David said, Whither shall I go up ? And he said, Unto Hebron. So David went up thither, and his two wives also, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail Nabal's wife the Carmelite. And his men who were with him did David bring up, every man with his household : and they dwelt in the cities of Hebron. And the men of Judah came, and there they anointed David king over the house of Judah.

And they told David, saying, That the men of Jabesh-gilead were they who buried Saul. And David sent messengers unto the men of Jabesh-gilead, and said unto them, Blessed be ye of the LORD, that ye have shown this kindness unto your lord, even unto Saul, and have buried him. And now the LORD show kindness and truth unto you : and I also will requite you this kindness, because ye have done this thing. Therefore now let your hands be strengthened, and be ye valiant ; for your master Saul is dead, and also the house of Judah have anointed me king over them.

But Abner the son of Ner, captain of the host that was Saul's, took Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, and brought him over to Mahanaim ; and made him king over Gilead, and over the Ashurites, and over Jezreel, and over Ephraim, and over Benjamin, and over all Israel. Ish-bosheth Saul's son was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and reigned two years. But the house of Judah followed David. And the time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

And Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon. And Joab the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David, went out, and met together by the pool of Gibeon ; and they sat down, the one on the one side of the pool, and the other on the other side of the pool. And Abner said to Joab, Let the young men now arise, and play before us. And Joab said, Let them arise. Then there arose and went over by number twelve of Benjamin, who pertained to Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, and twelve of the servants of David. And they caught every one his companion by the head, and thrust his sword in his companion's side ; so they fell down together : wherefore that place was called Helkath-hazzurim [THE FIELD OF STRONG MEN], (which is in Gibeon.) And there was a very sore battle that day ; and Abner was beaten, and the men of Israel, before the servants of David.

And there were three sons of Zeruiah there, Joab, and Abishai, and Asahel : and Asahel was as light of foot as a wild roe. And Asahel pursued after Abner ; and in going he turned not to the right hand nor to the left from following Abner. Then 20

II. SAMUEL III.

Abner looked behind him, and said, Art thou Asahel? And he answered, I am.
And Abner said to him, Turn thee aside to thy right hand or to thy left, and lay thee 21 hold on one of the young men, and take thee his armour. But Asahel would not turn aside from following him. And Abner said again to Asahel, Turn thee aside 22 from following me: wherefore should I smite thee to the ground? how then should I hold up my face to Joab thy brother? Howbeit he refused to turn aside: where- 23 fore Abner with the hinder end of the spear smote him under the fifth rib, that the spear came out behind him; and he fell down there, and died in the same place: 24 and as many as came to the place where Asahel fell down and died stood still. Joab also and Abishai pursued after Abner: and the sun went down when they were come to the hill of Ammah, that lieth before Giah by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon.

And the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together after Abner, and be- 25 came one troop, and stood on the top of a hill. Then Abner called to Joab, and said, 26 Shall the sword devour for ever? knowest thou not that it will be bitterness in the latter end? how long shall it be then, ere thou bid the people return from following their brethren? And Joab said, As God liveth, unless thou hadst spoken, 27 surely then in the morning the people had gone away every one from following his brother. So Joab blew a trumpet, and all the people stood still, and pursued after 28 Israel no more, neither fought they any more.

And Abner and his men walked all that night through the plain, and passed over 29 the Jordan, and went through all Bithron, and they came to Mahanaim. And Joab 30 returned from following Abner: and when he had gathered all the people together, there lacked of David's servants nineteen men and Asahel. But the servants of 31 David had smitten of Benjamin, and of Abner's men, so that three hundred and threescore men died. And they took up Asahel, and buried him in the sepulchre 32 of his father, which was in Beth-lehem. And Joab and his men went all night, and they came to Hebron at break of day.

NOW there was long war between the house of Saul and the house of David: but 3
David waxed stronger and stronger, and the house of Saul waxed weaker and weaker.
And unto David were sons born in Hebron: and his firstborn was Amnon, of Ahin- 2 oam the Jezreelitess; and his second, Chileab, of Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite; and the third, Absalom the son of Maacah the daughter of Talmai king of 3 Geshur; and the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith; and the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital; and the sixth, Ithream, by Eglah David's wife. These were born 5 to David in Hebron.

And while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, 6 Abner made himself strong for the house of Saul. And Saul had a concubine, whose 7 name was Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah: and Ish-bosheth said to Abner, Wherefore bast thou gone in unto my father's concubine? Then was Abner very wroth for 8 the words of Ish-bosheth, and said, Am I a dog's head, who against Judah do show kindness this day unto the house of Saul thy father, to his brethren, and to his friends, and have not delivered thee into the hand of David, that thou chargest me 9 to-day with a fault concerning this woman? So do God to Abner, and more also, 10 except, as the LORD hath sworn to David, even so I do to him; to translate the kingdom from the house of Saul, and to set up the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, from Dan even to Beer-sheba. And he could not answer Abner a word 11 again, because he feared him.

And Abner sent messengers to David on his behalf, saying, Whose is the land? 12 saying also, Make thy league with me, and, behold, my hand shall be with thee, to bring about all Israel unto thee. And he said, Well; I will make a league with 13 thee; but one thing I require of thee, that is, Thou shalt not see my face, except thou first bring Michal Saul's daughter, when thou comest to see my face. And 14 David sent messengers to Ish-bosheth Saul's son, saying, Deliver me my wife Michal, whom I espoused to me for a hundred foreskins of the Philistines. And Ish-bosheth 15 sent, and took her from her husband, even from Phaltiel the son of Laish. And her husband went with her going and weeping behind her to Bahurim. Then said 16
Abner unto him, Go, return. And he returned.

And Abner had communication with the elders of Israel, saying, Ye sought for 17
David in times past to be king over you: now then do it: for the LORD hath spoken of David, saying, By the hand of my servant David I will save my people Israel out of the hand of the Philistines, and out of the hand of all their enemies. And 19
Abner also spoke in the ears of Benjamin: and Abner went also to speak in the ears of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel, and that seemed good to the whole house of Benjamin. So Abner came to David to Hebron, and twenty men with him. And David made Abner and the men who were with him a feast. And Abner said unto David, I will arise and go, and will gather all Israel unto my lord the king, that they may make a league with thee, and that thou mayest reign over all thy heart desireth. And David sent Abner away; and he went in peace.

II. SAMUEL IV.

And, behold, the servants of David and Joab came from pursuing a troop, and brought in a great spoil with them; but Abner was not with David in Hebron; for he had sent him away, and he was gone in peace. When Joab and all the host who were with him were come, they told Joab, saying, Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace. Then Joab came to the king, and said, What hast thou done? behold, Abner came unto thee; why is it that thou hast sent him away, and he is quite gone? Thou knowest Abner the son of Ner, that he came to deceive thee, and to know thy going out and thy coming in, and to know all that thou doest.

And when Joab was come out from David, he sent messengers after Abner, who brought him again from the well of Sirah: but David knew it not. And when Abner was returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside in the gate to speak with him privately, and smote him there under the fifth rib, that he died, for the blood of Asahel his brother.

And afterwards when David heard it, he said, I and my kingdom are guiltless before the LORD for ever from the blood of Abner the son of Ner: let it rest on the head of Joab, and on all his father's house; and let there not fail from the house of Joab one who hath an issue, or who is a leper, or who leaneth on a staff, or who falleth on the sword, or who lacketh bread. So Joab and Abishai his brother slew Abner, because he had slain their brother Asahel at Gibeon in the battle.

And David said to Joab, and to all the people who were with him, Rend your clothes, and gird you with sackcloth, and mourn before Abner. And king David himself followed the bier. And they buried Abner in Hebron: and the king lifted up his voice, and wept at the grave of Abner; and all the people wept. And the king lamented over Abner, and said,

Died Abner as a criminal dieth?

34 Thy hands were not bound,
Nor thy feet put into fetters:
As a man falleth before wicked men,
So fellest thou.

And all the people wept again over him. And when all the people came to persuade David to eat food while it was yet day, David swore, saying, So do God to me, and more also, if I taste bread, or aught else, till the sun be down. And all the people took notice of it, and it pleased them; as whatsoever the king did pleased all the people.

For all the people and all Israel understood that day that it was not of the king to slay Abner the son of Ner. And the king said unto his servants, Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel? And I am this day weak, though anointed king; and these men the sons of Zeruiah are too hard for me: the LORD shall reward the doer of evil according to his wickedness.

4 AND when Saul's son heard that Abner was dead in Hebron, his hands were feeble, and all the Israelites were troubled. And Saul's son had two men who were captains of bands: the name of the one was Baanah, and the name of the other Rechab, the sons of Rimmon a Beerothite, of the children of Benjamin: (for Beeroth also was reckoned to Benjamin: and the Beerothites fled to Gittaim, and were sojourners there until this day.)

4 And Jonathan, Saul's son, had a son who was lame of both his feet. He was five years old when the tidings came of Saul and Jonathan out of Jezreel, and his nurse took him up, and fled: and as she made haste to flee, he fell, and became lame. And his name was Mephibosheth.

5 And the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, went, and came about the heat of the day to the house of Ish-bosheth, who lay on a bed at noon.

6 (And the doorkeeper of the house had been cleaning wheat; and being heavy, had fallen asleep.) And they smote him under the fifth rib: and Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped. For when they came into the house, he lay on his bed in his bedchamber, and they smote him, and slew him, and beheaded him, and took his head, and went away through the plain all night. And they brought the head of

Ish-bosheth unto David to Hebron, and said to the king, Behold the head of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul thine enemy, who sought thy life; and the LORD hath avenged my lord the king this day of Saul, and of his seed.

And David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said unto them, As the LORD liveth, who hath redeemed my soul out of all adversity, when one told me, saying, Behold, Saul is dead, thinking to have brought good tidings, I took hold of him, and slew him in Ziklag, which was the reward I gave him for his tidings: how much more, when wicked men have slain a righteous person in his own house upon his bed? shall I not therefore now require his blood of your hand, and take you away from the earth? And David commanded his young men, and they slew them, and cut off their hands and their feet, and hanged them up over the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ish-bosheth, and buried it in the sepulchre of Abner in Hebron.

THEN came all the tribes of Israel to David unto Hebron, and spoke, saying, Behold, we are thy bone and thy flesh. Also in time past, when Saul was king over us, thou wast he who leddest out and broughtest in Israel: and the LORD said to thee, Thou shalt feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be a captain over Israel. So all the elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron; and king David made a league with them in Hebron before the LORD: and they anointed David king over Israel.

And the king and his men went to Jerusalem unto the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land; who spoke unto David, saying, Except thou take away the blind and the lame, thou shalt not come in hither; saying, David cannot come in hither. Nevertheless David took the strong hold of Zion: the same is the city of David. And David said on that day, Whosoever getteth up to the gutter, and smiteth the Jebusites, and the lame and the blind, who hate David's soul, he shall be chief and captain. Because the blind and the lame had said, He shall not come into the house. So David dwelt in the fort, and called it the city of David. And David built round about from Millo and inwards. And David went on, and grew great, and the LORD God of hosts was with him.

And Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, and carpenters, and masons; and they built David a house. And David perceived that the LORD had established him king over Israel, and that he had exalted his kingdom for his people Israel's sake.

And David took him more concubines and wives out of Jerusalem, after he was come from Hebron: and there were yet sons and daughters born to David. And these are the names of those who were born unto him in Jerusalem; Shammuah, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Solomon, Ithar also, and Elishua, and Nepheg, and Japhia, and Elishama, and Eliada, and Eliphalet.

BUT when the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel, all the Philistines came up to seek David; and David heard of it, and went down to the hold. The Philistines also came and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim. And David inquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up to the Philistines? wilt thou deliver them into my hand? And the LORD said unto David, Go up; for I will doubtless deliver the Philistines into thy hand. And David came to Baal-perazim, and David smote them there, and said, The LORD hath broken forth upon mine enemies before me, as the breach of waters. Therefore he called the name of that place Baal-perazim [THE PLAIN OF BREACHES]. And there they left their images, and David and his men burnt them. And the Philistines came up yet again, and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim. And when David inquired of the LORD, he said, Thou shalt not go up; but fetch a compass behind them, and come upon them over against the mulberry trees. And when thou hearest the sound of a motion in the tops of the mulberry trees, then thou shalt bestir thyself; for then shall the LORD go out before thee, to smite the hosts of the Philistines. And David did so, as the LORD had commanded him; and smote the Philistines from Geba until thou come to Gazur.

AGAIN, David gathered together all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand. And David arose, and went with all the chiefs of the people who were with him to Gibeah of Kirjath-jearim, to bring up from thence the ark of God, at which the name, even the name of Jehovah, the LORD of hosts who dwelleth between the cherubims, is called upon.

And they set the ark of God upon a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab that was in Gibeah: and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, drove the new cart. And they brought it out of the house of Abinadab which was at Gibeah, accompanying the ark of God: and Ahio went before the ark. And David and all

II. SAMUEL VII.

- the house of Israel played before the LORD on all manner of instruments made of fir wood, even on harps, and on psalteries, and on timbrels, and on cornets, and on cymbals. And when they came to Nachon's threshingfloor, Uzzah put forth his hand to the ark of God, and took hold of it; for the oxen stumbled. And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzzah; and God smote him there for his rashness; and there he died by the ark of God. And David was grieved, because the LORD had made a breach upon Uzzah: and he called the name of the place Perez-uzzah [THE BREACH OF UZZAH] to this day. And David was afraid of the LORD that day, and said, How shall the ark of the LORD come to me? So David would not remove the ark of the LORD unto him into the city of David: but David carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite. And the ark of the LORD continued in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite three months: and the LORD blessed Obed-edom, and all his household.
- 12 And it was told king David, saying, The LORD hath blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that pertaineth unto him, because of the ark of God. So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom into the city of David with gladness. And when they who bore the ark of the LORD had gone six paces, he sacrificed oxen and fatlings. And David danced before the LORD with all his might; and David was girded with a linen ephod. So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet.
- 16 And as the ark of the LORD came into the city of David, Michal Saul's daughter looked through a window, and saw king David leaping and dancing before the LORD; and she despised him in her heart.
- 17 And they brought in the ark of the LORD, and set it in its place, in the midst of the tabernacle that David had pitched for it: and David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD. And as soon as David had made an end of offering burnt offerings and peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts. And he dealt among all the people, even among the whole multitude of Israel, as well to the women as men, to every one a cake of bread, and a good piece of roasted flesh, and a flagon of wine. So all the people departed every one to his house.
- 20 Then David returned to bless his household. And Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, How glorious was the king of Israel to-day, who uncovered himself to-day in the eyes of the handmaids of his servants, as one of the vain fellows shamelessly uncovereth himself! And David said unto Michal, It was before the LORD, who chose me before thy father, and before all his house, to appoint me ruler over the people of the LORD, over Israel: therefore did I rejoice before the LORD. And I will yet be more vile than thus, and will be base in mine own sight: and of the maidservants of whom thou hast spoken, of them shall I be had in honour. Therefore Michal the daughter of Saul had no child unto the day of her death.
- 7 And when the king came to dwell in his house, and the LORD had given him rest round about from all his enemies; the king said unto Nathan the prophet, See now, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of God dwelleth within curtains. And Nathan said to the king, Go, do all that is in thy heart; for the LORD is with thee.
- 4 5 And that night the word of the LORD came unto Nathan, saying, Go and say to my servant David, Thus saith the LORD, Why shouldst thou build me a house to dwell in? Whereas I have not dwelt in any house since the time that I brought up the children of Israel out of Egypt, even to this day, but have walked in a tent and in a tabernacle. In all the places wherein I have walked with all the children of Israel spoke I a word with any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to feed my people Israel, saying, Why build ye not me a house of cedar? Now therefore so shalt thou say unto my servant David, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I took thee from the sheepcot, from following the sheep, to be ruler over my people, over Israel: and I was with thee whithersoever thou wentest, and have cut off all thine enemies out of thy sight, and have made thee a great name, like unto the name of the great men who are in the earth. Moreover I have appointed a place for my people Israel, and have planted them, that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move no more; neither shall the children of wickedness afflict them any more, as beforetime, and as since the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel, and have caused thee to rest from all thine enemies. Also the LORD telleth thee that he will make thee a house. And when thy days are fulfilled, and thou shalt sleep with thy fathers, I will set up thy seed after thee, which shall proceed out of thy bowels, and I will establish his kingdom. He shall build a house for my name, 13 and I will establish the throne of his kingdom for ever. I will be his father, and he 14 shall be my son. If he commit iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men, and with the stripes of the children of men: but my mercy shall not depart away 15 from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put away before thee. And thy house and 16 thy kingdom shall be established for ever before thee: thy throne shall be established for ever. According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did 17 Nathan speak unto David.

Then went king David in, and sat before the LORD, and he said, Who am I, O 18 LORD God? and what is my house, that thou hast brought me hitherto? And this 19 was yet a small thing in thy sight, O LORD God; but thou hast spoken also of thy servant's house for a great while to come. And is this the manner of man, O LORD 20 God? And what can David say more unto thee? for thou, LORD God, knowest thy servant. For thy word's sake, and according to thine own heart, hast thou done 21 all these great things, to make thy servant know them. Wherefore thou art great, 22 O LORD God; for there is none like thee, neither is there any God besides thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears. And what one nation in the earth is 23 like thy people, even like Israel, whom thou, O God, went to redeem for a people to thyself, and to make thyself a name, and to do for them great things and terrible, for thy land, before thy people, whom thou redeemedst to thee from Egypt, to drive 24 out the nations and their gods? For thou hast confirmed to thyself thy people Israel to be a people unto thee for ever: and thou, LORD, art become their God. And 25 now, O LORD God, the word that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant, and concerning his house, establish it for ever, and do as thou hast said. And let thy name 26 be magnified for ever, saying, The LORD of hosts is the God over Israel: and let the house of thy servant David be established before thee. For thou, O LORD of 27 hosts, God of Israel, hast revealed to thy servant, saying, I will build thee a house:
therefore hath thy servant found in his heart to pray this prayer unto thee. And 28 now, O LORD God, thou art that God, and thy words are true, and thou hast promised this goodness unto thy servant: therefore now let it please thee to bless the house of 29 thy servant, that it may continue for ever before thee: for thou, O LORD God, hast spoken it: and with thy blessing let the house of thy servant be blessed for ever.

AND after this David smote the Philistines, and subdued them: and David took 8
Metheg-ammah out of the hand of the Philistines.

And he smote Moab, and measured them with a line, casting them down to the 2 ground; even with two lines measured he to put to death, and with one full line to keep alive. And so the Moabites became David's servants, and brought gifts.

David smote also Hadarezer, the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, as he went to re- 3 cover his border at the river Euphrates. And David took from him a thousand char- 4 riots, and seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: and David ham-strung all the chariot horses, but reserved of them for a hundred chariots. And 5 when the Syrians of Damascus came to succour Hadarezer king of Zobah, David slew of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men. Then David put garrisons in 6 Syria of Damascus; and the Syrians became servants to David, and brought gifts.
And the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went. And David took the 7 shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadarezer, and brought them to Jerusalem. And from Bethah, and from Berothai, cities of Hadarezer, king David took 8 exceeding much brass.

When Toi king of Hamath heard that David had smitten all the host of Hadar- 9 ezer, then Toi sent Joram his son unto king David, to salute him, and to bless him, 10 because he had fought against Hadarezer, and smitten him: for Hadarezer had wars with Toi. And Joram brought with him vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and vessels of brass; which also king David did dedicate unto the LORD, with 11 the silver and gold that he had dedicated of all nations which he subdued; of Syria, 12 and of Moab, and of the children of Ammon, and of the Philistines, and of Amalek, and of the spoil of Hadarezer, son of Rehob, king of Zobah.

And David gat him a name when he returned from smiting eighteen thousand of 13 the Syrians in the valley of salt. And he put garrisons in Edom; throughout all 14
Edom put he garrisons, and all they of Edom became David's servants.

And the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went. And David reigned over 15 all Israel; and David executed judgment and justice unto all his people. David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years. In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months: and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty and three years over all Israel and Judah. And Joab the son of Zeruiah was 16

II. SAMUEL IX. X.

17 over the host; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder; and Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, were the priests; and Seraiah was the scribe; and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over both the archers and the slingers; and David's sons were princes.

9 AND David said, Is there yet one who is left of the house of Saul, that I may show him kindness for Jonathan's sake? And there was of the house of Saul a servant whose name was Ziba. And when they had called him unto David, the king said unto him, Art thou Ziba? And he said, Thy servant is he. And the king said, Is there not yet any of the house of Saul, that I may show the kindness of God unto him? And Ziba said unto the king, Jonathan hath yet a son, who is lame on his feet. 4 And the king said unto him, Where is he? And Ziba said unto the king, Behold, he is in the house of Machir, the son of Ammiel, in Lo-debar. Then king David sent, and fetched him out of the house of Machir, the son of Ammiel, from Lo-debar.

6 Now when Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, was come unto David, he fell on his face, and did reverence. And David said, Mephibosheth. And he answered, Behold thy servant! And David said unto him, Fear not; for I will surely show thee kindness for Jonathan thy father's sake, and will restore thee all the land of Saul thy father; and thou shalt eat bread at my table continually. And he bowed himself, and said, What is thy servant, that thou shouldest look upon such a dead dog as I am?

9 Then the king called to Ziba, Saul's servant, and said unto him, I have given unto thy master's son all that pertained to Saul and to all his house. Thou therefore, and thy sons, and thy servants, shall till the land for him, and thou shalt bring in the fruits, that thy master's son may have food to eat: but Mephibosheth thy master's son shall eat bread always at my table. Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants. Then said Ziba unto the king, According to all that my lord the king hath commanded his servant, so shall thy servant do. As for Mephibosheth, said the king, he shall eat at my table, as one of the king's sons. And Mephibosheth had a young son, whose name was Micha. And all who dwell in the house of Ziba were servants unto Mephibosheth. So Mephibosheth dwelt in Jerusalem; for he did eat continually at the king's table; and was lame on both his feet.

10 AND after this, the king of the children of Ammon died, and Hanun his son reigned in his stead. Then said David, I will show kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father showed kindness unto me. And David sent to comfort him by the hand of his servants for his father. And David's servants came into the land of the children of Ammon. And the princes of the children of Ammon said unto Hanun their lord, Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? hath not David rather sent his servants unto thee, to search the city, and to spy it out, and to overthrow it? Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and shaved off the one half of their beards, and cut off their garments in the middle, even to their loins, and sent them away. When they told it unto David, he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed: and the king said, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.

6 And when the children of Ammon saw that they were odious to David, they sent and hired the Syrians of Beth-rehob, and the Syrians of Zoba, twenty thousand footmen, and of king Maacah a thousand men, and of Ish-tob twelve thousand men.

7 And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of the mighty men. 8 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array at the entering in of the gate: and the Syrians of Zoba, and of Rehob, and Ish-tob, and Maacah, were by themselves in the field. When Joab saw that the front of the battle was against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice men of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians: and the rest of the people he delivered into the hand of Abishai his brother, that he might put them in array against the children of Ammon. 11 And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me; but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will come and help thee. Be of good courage, and let us play the men for our people, and for the cities of our God; and the LORD do that which seemeth him good.

13 And Joab drew nigh, and the people who were with him, unto the battle against the Syrians: and they fled before him. And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, then fled they also before Abishai, and entered into the city. So Joab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Jerusalem.

15 And when the Syrians saw that they were smitten before Israel, they gathered themselves together. And Hadarezer sent, and brought out the Syrians who were beyond the Euphrates; and they came to Helam; and Shobach the captain of the host of Hadarezer went before them. And when it was told David, he gathered all 17 Israel together, and passed over the Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Syrians set themselves in array against David, and fought with him. And the Syrians fled 18 before Israel; and David slew seven hundred charioteers of the Syrians, four thousand horsemen, and forty thousand footmen, and smote Shobach the captain of their host, who died there. And when all the kings who were servants to Hadarezer saw 19 that they were smitten before Israel, they made peace with Israel, and served them. So the Syrians feared to help the children of Ammon any more.

AND at the return of the year, at the time when kings go forth to battle, David sent Joab, and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed the children of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah. But David tarried still at Jerusalem. 11

And in an eveningtide David arose from off his bed, and walked upon the roof of 2 the king's house: and from the roof he saw a woman washing herself; and the woman was very beautiful to look upon. And David sent and inquired after the woman. 3 And one said, Is not this Bath-sheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite? And David sent messengers, and took her; and she came in unto him, and 4 he lay with her; for she was purified from her uncleanness: and she returned unto her house. And the woman conceived, and sent and told David, and said, I am 5 with child. And David sent to Joab, saying, Send me Uriah the Hittite. And Joab 6 sent Uriah to David.

And when Uriah was come unto him, David demanded of him how Joab did, and 7 how the people did, and how the war prospered. And David said to Uriah, Go 8 down to thy house, and wash thy feet. And Uriah departed out of the king's house, and there followed him a mess of food from the king. But Uriah slept at the door of 9 the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and went not down to his house. And when they had told David, saying, Uriah went not down unto his house, David 10 said unto Uriah, Camest thou not from thy journey? why then didst thou not go down unto thy house? And Uriah said unto David, The ark, and Israel, and Judah, 11 abide in tents: and my lord Joab, and the servants of my lord, are encamped in the open fields: shall I then go into my house, to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? as thou livest, and as thy soul liveth, I will not do this thing. And David said 12 to Uriah, Tarry here to-day also, and to-morrow I will let thee depart. So Uriah abode in Jerusalem that day, and the morrow. And when David had called him, he did eat 13 and drink before him; and he made him drunk: and at evening he went out to lie on his bed with the servants of his lord, but went not down to his house.

And in the morning David wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah. 14 And he wrote in the letter, saying, Set ye Uriah in the forefront of the hottest battle, 15 and retire ye from him, that he may be smitten, and die.

And when Joab observed the city, he assigned Uriah unto a place where he knew 16 that valiant men were. And the men of the city went out, and fought with Joab: 17 and there fell some of the people of the servants of David; and Uriah the Hittite died also.

Then Joab sent and told David all the things concerning the war; and charged 18 19 the messenger, saying, When thou hast made an end of telling the matters of the war unto the king, and if the king's wrath arise, and he say unto thee, Wherefore approached ye so nigh unto the city when ye did fight? knew ye not that they would shoot from the wall? Who smote Abimelech the son of Jerubbaal? did not a woman cast a piece of a millstone upon him from the wall, that he died in Thebez? why went ye nigh the wall? then say thou, Thy servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.

So the messenger went, and came and showed David all that Joab had sent him 22 for. And the messenger said unto David, Surely the men prevailed against us, and 23 came out unto us into the field, and we were upon them even unto the entering of the gate. And the shooters shot from off the wall upon thy servants; and some of 24 the king's servants are dead, and thy servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also. Then 25 David said unto the messenger, Thus shalt thou say unto Joab, Let not this thing displease thee, for the sword devoureth one as well as another: make thy battle stronger against the city, and overthrow it: and encourage thou him.

And when the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, she mourned 26 for her husband. And when the mourning was past, David sent and fetched her to 27 his house, and she became his wife, and bore him a son. But the thing that David had done displeased the LORD.

And the LORD sent Nathan unto David. And he came unto him, and said unto him, There were two men in one city; the one rich, and the other poor. The rich man had exceeding many flocks and herds; but the poor man had nothing, save one 12 3

II. SAMUEL XIII.

- little ewe lamb, which he had bought and nourished up: and it grew up together with him, and with his children; it did eat of his own morsel, and drank of his own cup, and lay in his bosom, and was unto him as a daughter. And there came a traveller unto the rich man, and he spared to take of his own flock and of his own herd, to dress for the wayfaring man who was come unto him; but took the poor man's lamb, and dressed it for the man who was come to him. And David's anger was greatly kindled against the man; and he said to Nathan, As the LORD liveth, the man who hath done this thing shall surely die: and he shall restore the lamb fourfold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity.
- 7 And Nathan said to David, Thou art the man. Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I anointed thee king over Israel, and I delivered thee out of the hand of Saul; and I gave thee thy master's house, and thy master's wives into thy bosom, and gave thee the house of Israel and of Judah; and if that had been too little, I would moreover have given unto thee such and such things. Wherefore hast thou despised the commandment of the LORD, to do evil in his sight? thou hast killed Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and hast taken his wife to be thy wife, and hast slain him with the sword of the children of Ammon. Now therefore the sword shall never depart from thy house; because thou hast despised me, and hast taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be thy wife. Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will raise up evil against thee out of thine own house, and I will suffer thy wives to be taken before thine eyes, and to be given unto thy neighbour, and he shall lie with thy wives in the sight of this sun. For thou didst it secretly: but I will do this thing before all Israel, and before the sun. And David said unto Nathan, I have sinned against the LORD. And Nathan said unto David, The LORD also hath put away thy sin; thou shalt not die. Howbeit, because by this deed thou hast given great occasion to the enemies of the LORD to blaspheme, the child also that is born unto thee shall surely die.
- 15 And Nathan departed unto his house. And the LORD struck the child that Uriah's wife bore unto David, and it was very sick. David therefore besought God for the child; and David fasted, and went in, and lay all night upon the earth. And the elders of his house arose, and went to him, to raise him up from the earth; but he would not, neither did he eat bread with them. And on the seventh day the child died. And the servants of David feared to tell him that the child was dead; for they said, Behold, while the child was yet alive, we spoke unto him, and he would not hearken unto our voice: how will he then vex himself, if we tell him that the child is dead! But when David saw that his servants whispered, David perceived that the child was dead: therefore David said unto his servants, Is the child dead? And they said, He is dead. Then David arose from the earth, and washed, and anointed himself, and changed his apparel, and came into the house of the LORD, and worshipped: then he came to his own house; and when he required, they set bread before him, and he did eat. Then said his servants unto him, What thing is this that thou hast done? thou didst fast and weep for the child, while it was alive; but when the child was dead, thou didst rise and eat bread. And he said, While the child was yet alive, I fasted and wept; for I said, Who can tell whether God will be gracious to me, that the child may live? But now he is dead, wherefore should I fast? can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he shall not return to me.
- 24 And David comforted Bath-sheba his wife, and went in unto her, and lay with her; and she bore a son, and he called his name Solomon: and the LORD loved him. And he sent by the hand of Nathan the prophet; and he called his name Jedidiah [BELOVED OF THE LORD].
- 26 AND Joab fought against Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and took the royal city. And Joab sent messengers to David, and said, I have fought against Rabbah, and have taken the city of waters. Now therefore gather the rest of the people together, and encamp against the city, and take it; lest I take the city, and it be called after my name. And David gathered all the people together, and went to Rabbah, and fought against it, and took it. And he took their king's crown from off his head, the weight whereof was a talent of gold with the precious stones; and it was set on David's head. And he brought forth the spoil of the city in great abundance. And he brought forth the people who were therein, and put them to work with saws, and with harrows of iron, and with axes of iron, and made them pass through the brickkiln: and thus did he unto all the cities of the children of Ammon. So David and all the people returned unto Jerusalem.
- 13 AND after this, Absalom the son of David had a beautiful sister, whose name was Tamar; and Amnon the son of David loved her. And Amnon was so vexed, that he fell sick for his sister Tamar; for she was a virgin; and Amnon thought it hard for him to do any thing to her. But Amnon had a friend, whose name was Jonadab, the son of Shammah David's brother: and Jonadab was a very subtle man. And he said unto him, Why art thou, being the king's son, lean from day to day? wilt thou not tell me? And Amnon said unto him, I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister. And Jonadab said unto him, Lay thee down on thy bed, and make thyself sick; and when thy father cometh to see thee, say unto him, I pray thee, let my sister Tamar come, and give me food, and prepare the food in my sight, that I may see it, and eat it at her hand. So Amnon lay down, and made himself sick: and when the king was come to see him, Amnon said unto the king, I pray thee, let Tamar my sister come, and make me a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat at her hand.

Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, Go now to thy brother Amnon's house, and prepare him food. So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house; and he was laid down. And she took flour, and kneaded it, and made cakes in his sight, and did bake the cakes. And she took a pan, and poured them out before him; but he refused to eat. And Amnon said, Have out all men from me. And they went out every man from him. And Amnon said unto Tamar, Bring the food into the chamber, that I may eat of thy hand. And Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother. And when she had brought them unto him to eat, he took hold of her, and said unto her, Come lie with me, my sister. And she answered him, Nay, my brother, do not force me; for no such thing ought to be done in Israel: do not thou this folly. And I, whither shall I cause my shame to go? and as for thee, thou shalt be as one of the wicked fools in Israel. Now therefore, I pray thee, speak unto the king; for he will not withhold me from thee. Howbeit he would not hearken unto her voice; but, being stronger than she, forced her, and lay with her.

Then Amnon hated her with great hatred; so that the hatred wherewith he hated her was greater than the love wherewith he had loved her. And Amnon said unto her, Arise, be gone. And she said unto him, Do not so, my brother, because this evil in sending me away is greater than the other that thou didst unto me. But he would not hearken unto her. Then he called his servant who ministered unto him, and said, Put now this woman out from me, and bolt the door after her. And she had a garment of divers colours upon her; for with such robes were the king's daughters who were virgins apparelled. Then his servant brought her out, and bolted the door after her.

And Tamar put ashes on her head, and rent her garment of divers colours that was on her, and laid her hand on her head, and went on crying. And Absalom her brother said unto her, Hath Amnon thy brother been with thee? but hold now thy peace, my sister; he is thy brother; regard not this thing. So Tamar remained desolate in her brother Absalom's house.

But when king David heard of all these things, he was very wroth. And Absalom spoke unto his brother Amnon neither good nor bad; for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar. And after two full years, Absalom had sheepshearers in Baal-hazor, which is beside Ephraim: and Absalom invited all the king's sons. And Absalom came to the king, and said, Behold now, thy servant hath sheepshearers; let the king, I beseech thee, and his servants go with thy servant. And the king said to Absalom, Nay, my son, let us not all now go, lest we be chargeable unto thee. And he pressed him: howbeit he would not go, but blessed him. Then said Absalom, If not, I pray thee, let my brother Amnon go with us. And the king said unto him, Why should he go with thee? But Absalom pressed him, that he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him.

Now Absalom had commanded his servants, saying, Mark ye now when Amnon's heart is merry with wine, and when I say unto you, Smite Amnon; then kill him, fear not; seeing I have commanded you: be courageous, and be valiant. And the servants of Absalom did unto Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king's sons arose, and every man got upon his mule, and fled.

And while they were in the way, tidings came to David, saying, Absalom hath slain all the king's sons, and there is not one of them left. Then the king arose, and tore his garments, and lay on the earth; and all his servants stood by with their clothes rent. And Jonadab, the son of Shammah David's brother, answered and said, Let not my lord suppose that they have slain all the young men the king's sons; for Amnon only is dead: for by the appointment of Absalom this hath been determined from the day that he forced his sister Tamar. Now therefore let not my lord the king take the thing to his heart, to think that all the king's sons are dead; for 34 Amnon only is dead. But Absalom fled.

And the young man who kept the watch lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, be-35 hold, there came much people by the way of the hill side behind him. And Jonadab said unto the king, Behold, the king's sons come: as thy servant said, so it is.
36 And as soon as he had made an end of speaking, behold, the king's sons came, and lifted up their voice and wept: and the king also and all his servants wept with a great weeping.

BUT Absalom fled, and went to Talmai, the son of Ammihud, king of Geshur.
37 And David mourned for his son every day. So Absalom fled, and went to Geshur, 38 and was there three years. And king David longed to go forth unto Absalom: for he was comforted concerning Amnon, seeing he was dead.

14 Now Joab the son of Zeruiah perceived that the king's heart was towards Absalom.
And Joab sent to Tekoah, and fetched thence a wise woman, and said unto her, I pray thee, feign thyself to be a mourner, and put on now mourning apparel, and anoint not thyself with oil, but be as a woman who had a long time mourned for the 3 dead: and come to the king, and speak on this manner unto him. So Joab put the words in her mouth.

4 And when the woman of Tekoah spoke to the king, she fell on her face to the 5 ground, and did obeisance, and said, Help, O king. And the king said unto her,
What aileth thee? And she answered, I am indeed a widow woman, and my hus-6 band is dead. And thy handmaid had two sons, and they two strove together in the field, and there was none to part them, but the one smote the other, and slew him.
7 And, behold, the whole family is risen against thy handmaid, and they said, Deliver him who smote his brother, that we may kill him, for the life of his brother whom he slew; and we will destroy the heir also: and so they shall quench my coal which 8 is left, and shall not leave to my husband name nor remainder upon the earth. And the king said unto the woman, Go to thy house, and I will give charge concerning 9 thee. And the woman of Tekoah said unto the king, My lord, O king, the iniquity 10 be on me, and on my father's house: and the king and his throne be guiltless. And the king said, Whosoever saith aught unto thee, bring him to me, and he shall not 11 touch thee any more. Then said she, I pray thee, let the king make mention of the name of the LORD thy God, that thou wouldest not suffer the revengers of blood to destroy any more, lest they destroy my son. And he said, As the LORD liveth, there shall not one hair of thy son fall to the earth.

12 Then the woman said, Let thy handmaid, I pray thee, speak one word unto my 13 lord the king. And he said, Say on. And the woman said, Wherefore then hast thou thought such a thing against the people of God? for the king doth speak this thing as one who is faulty, in that the king doth not fetch home again his banished.
14 For we must needs die, and are as water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again; neither doth God respect any person: yet doth he devise means 15 that his banished be not expelled from him. Now therefore that I am come to speak of this thing unto my lord the king, it is because the people have made me afraid: and thy handmaid said, I will now speak unto the king; it may be that the 16 king will perform the request of his handmaid. For the king will hear, to deliver his handmaid out of the hand of the man who would destroy me and my son to-17 gether out of the inheritance of God. Then thy handmaid said, The word of my lord the king shall now be comfortable; for as an angel of God, so is my lord the king to discern good and bad: therefore the LORD thy God will be with thee.

18 Then the king answered and said unto the woman, Hide not from me, I pray thee, the thing that I shall ask thee. And the woman said, Let my lord the king 19 now speak. And the king said, Is not the hand of Joab with thee in all this? And the woman answered and said, As thy soul liveth, my lord the king, none can turn to the right hand or to the left from aught that my lord the king hath spoken: for thy servant Joab, he made me, and he put all those words in the mouth of thy hand-20 maid: to give this turn to the matter hath thy servant Joab done this thing: and my lord is wise, according to the wisdom of an angel of God, to know all things that are in the earth.

21 And the king said unto Joab, Behold now, I have done this thing: go therefore, 22 bring the young man Absalom again. And Joab fell to the ground on his face, and bowed himself, and thanked the king: and Joab said, To-day thy servant knoweth that I have found grace in thy sight, my lord, O king, in that the king hath ful-23 filled the request of his servant. So Joab arose and went to Geshur, and brought 24 Absalom to Jerusalem. And the king said, Let him turn to his own house, and let him not see my face. So Absalom returned to his own house, and saw not the king's face.

But in all Israel there was none to be so much praised as Absalom for his beauty: 25 from the sole of his foot even to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him. And when he cut off his hair, (for it was at every year's end that he cut it off; be- 26 cause the hair was heavy on him, therefore he cut it off:) he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred shekels after the king's weight. And unto Absalom there were 27 born three sons, and one daughter, whose name was Tamar: she was a woman of a beautiful countenance.

So Absalom dwelt two full years in Jerusalem, and saw not the king's face. 28 Therefore Absalom sent for Joab, to have sent him to the king; but he would not 29 come to him: and when he sent again the second time, he would not come. There- 30 fore he said unto his servants, See, Joab's field is near mine, and he hath barley there; go and set it on fire. And Absalom's servants set the field on fire. Then 31 Joab arose, and came to Absalom unto his house, and said unto him, Wherefore have thy servants set my field on fire? And Absalom answered Joab, Behold, I sent unto 32 thee, saying, Come hither, that I may send thee to the king, to say, Wherefore am I come from Geshur? it had been good for me to have been there still: now therefore let me see the king's face; and if there be any iniquity in me, let him kill me. So 33 Joab came to the king, and told him: and when he had called for Absalom, he came to the king, and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king: and the king kissed Absalom.

AND after this, Absalom prepared him chariots and horses, and fifty men to run 15 before him. And Absalom rose up early, and stood beside the way of the gate: and when any man who had a controversy came to the king for judgment, then Absalom called unto him, and said, Of what city art thou? And he said, Thy servant is of one of the tribes of Israel. And Absalom said unto him, See, thy matters are good 3 and right: but there is no man deputed of the king to hear thee. Absalom said 4 moreover, Oh that I were made judge in the land, that every man who hath any suit or cause might come unto me, and I would do him justice! And when any man 5 came nigh to him to do him obeisance, he put forth his hand, and took him, and kissed him. And in this manner did Absalom to all Israel who came to the king for 6 judgment: so Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

And after four years, Absalom said unto the king, I pray thee, let me go and pay 7 my vow, which I have vowed unto the LORD, in Hebron. For thy servant vowed 8 a vow while I abode at Geshur in Syria, saying, If the LORD shall bring me again indeed to Jerusalem, then I will serve the LORD. And the king said unto him, Go 9 in peace. So he arose, and went to Hebron.

But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, As soon as ye 10 hear the sound of the trumpet, then ye shall say, Absalom reigneth in Hebron. And with Absalom went two hundred men out of Jerusalem, who were called; and 11 they went in their simplicity, and they knew not any thing. And Absalom sent for 12 Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's counsellor, from his city, even from Giloh, where he offered sacrifices. And the conspiracy was strong; for the people increased continually with Absalom.

And there came a messenger to David, saying, The hearts of the men of Israel 13 are after Absalom. And David said unto all his servants who were with him at Jerusalem, Arise, and let us flee; for we shall not else escape from Absalom: make speed to depart, lest he overtake us suddenly, and bring evil upon us, and smite the city with the edge of the sword. And the king's servants said unto the king, Behold, 15 thy servants are ready to do whatsoever my lord the king shall appoint.

And the king went forth, and all his household in his train. And the king left 16 ten women, who were concubines, to keep the house. And the king went forth, and 17 all the people after him, and abode at Bethamersack. And all his servants were 18 mustered before him; and all the archers, and all the slingers, and all the Gathites, six hundred men who came after him from Gath, passed before the king. Then said 19 the king to Ittai the Gathite, Wherefore goest thou also with us? return, and abide with the king; for thou art a stranger; and even shouldst thou be driven away, then go to thy place. Whereas thou camest but yesterday, should I this day make 20 thee go up and down with us? seeing I go whither I may, return thou, and take back thy brethren: and may the LORD show thee kindness, for thy kindness to me. And Ittai answered the king, and said, As the LORD liveth, and as my lord the 21 king liveth, surely in what place my lord the king shall be, whether in death or life, even there also will thy servant be. And David said to Ittai, Go and pass over. And 22

II. SAMUEL XVI.

Ittai the Gathite passed over, and all his men, and all the little ones who were with him. And all the inhabitants of the country wept with a loud voice, and all the people passed over: the king also himself passed over the brook Kidron, and all the people passed over, towards the way of the wilderness.

And lo, Zadok also, and all the Levites were with him, bearing the ark of the covenant of God: and they set down the ark of God; and Abiathar went up, until all the people had done passing out of the city. And the king said unto Zadok, Carry back the ark of God into the city: if I find favour in the eyes of the LORD, he will bring me again, and show me both it, and his habitation: but if he thus say, I have no delight in thee; behold, here am I, let him do to me as seemeth good unto him. The king said also unto Zadok the priest, Ohservest thou? return into the city in peace, and your two sons with you, Ahimaaz thy son, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar. See, I will tarry in the plain of the wilderness, until there come word from you to certify me. Zadok therefore and Abiathar carried the ark of God again to Jerusalem: and they tarried there.

And David went up by the ascent of mount Olivet, and wept as he went up, and had his head covered, and he went barefooted: and all the people who were with him covered every man his head, and they went up, weeping as they went up. And one told David, saying, Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom. And David said, O LORD, I pray thee, turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness.

And when David was come to the top of the mount, where he worshipped God, behold, Hushai the Archite came to meet him with his coat rent, and earth upon his head: unto whom David said, If thou passest on with me, then thou shalt be a burden unto me; but if thou return to the city, and say unto Absalom, I will be thy servant, O king; as I have been thy father's servant hitherto, so will I now also be thy servant: then mayest thou for me defeat the counsel of Ahithophel. And hast thou not there with thee Zadok and Abiathar the priests? therefore what thing soever thou shalt hear out of the king's house, thou shalt tell it to Zadok and Abiathar the priests. Behold, they have there with them their two sons, Ahimaaz Zadok's son, and Jonathan Abiathar's son; and by them ye shall send unto me every thing that ye can hear. So Hushai David's friend came into the city, and Absalom came into Jerusalem.

16 And when David was a little past the top of the hill, behold, Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth met him, with a couple of asses saddled, and upon them two hundred loaves of bread, and a hundred bunches of raisins, and a hundred of summer fruits, and a bottle of wine. And the king said unto Ziba, What meanest thou by these? And Ziba said, The asses are for the king's household to ride on; and the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat; and the wine, that such as be faint in the wilderness may drink. And the king said, And where is thy master's son? And Ziba said unto the king, Behold, he abideth at Jerusalem; for he said, To-day shall the house of Israel restore to me the kingdom of my father. Then said the king to Ziba, Behold, thine are all that pertained unto Mephibosheth. And Ziba said, I humbly beseech thee that I may find grace in thy sight, my lord, O king.

And when king David came to Bahurim, behold, thence came out a man of the family of the house of Saul, whose name was Shimei, the son of Gera: he came forth, and cursed still as he came. And he cast stones at David, and at all the servants of king David: and all the people and all the mighty men were on his right hand and on his left. And thus said Shimei when he cursed, Come out, come out, thou man of blood, thou worthless man: the LORD hath returned upon thee all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose stead thou hast reigned; and the LORD hath delivered the kingdom into the hand of Absalom thy son: and, behold, thou art taken in thy mischief, because thou art a man of blood. Then said Abishai the son of Zeruiah unto the king, Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? let me go over, I pray thee, and take off his head. And the king said, What have I to do with you, ye sons of Zeruiah? so let him curse, because the LORD hath said unto him, Curse David. Who shall then say, Wherefore hast thou done so? And David said to Abishai, and to all his servants, Behold, my son, who came forth of my bowels, seeketh my life: how much more now may this Benjamite do it? let him alone, and let him curse; for the LORD hath bidden him. It may be that the LORD will look on mine affliction, and that the LORD will requite me good for his cursing this day. And as David and his men went by the way, Shimei went along on the hill's side over against him, and cursed as he went, and threw stones, and cast dust at him. And the king, and all the people who were with him, came weary, and refreshed themselves there.

And Absalom, and all the people the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem, and 15 Ahithophel with him. And when Hushai the Archite, David's friend, was come un- 16 to Absalom, Hushai said unto Absalom, Long live the king, Long live the king.
 And Absalom said to Hushai, Is this thy kindness to thy friend? why wentest thou 17 not with thy friend? And Hushai said unto Absalom, Nay; but whom the LORD, 18 and this people, and all the men of Israel, choose, his will I be, and with him will I abide. And again, whom should I serve? should I not serve in the presence of his 19 son? as I have served in thy father's presence, so will I be in thy presence.

Then said Absalom to Ahithophel, Give counsel among you what we shall do. And 20 21 Ahithophel said unto Absalom, Go in unto thy father's concubines, whom he hath left to keep the house; and all Israel shall hear that thou art abhorred of thy father:
 then will they strengthen the hands of all who are with thee. So they spread Ab- 22 salom a tent upon the top of the house; and Absalom went in unto his father's con-cubines in the sight of all Israel. And the counsel of Ahithophel, that he counselled 23 in those days, was as if a man had inquired at the oracle of God: so was all the counsel of Ahithophel both with David and with Absalom.

Moreover Ahithophel said unto Absalom, Let me now choose out twelve thou- 17 sand men, and I will arise and pursue after David this night: and I will come upon him while he is weary and weak handed, and will make him afraid: and all the people who are with him shall flee; and I will smite the king only: and I will bring 3 back all the people unto thee: the man whom thou seekest is as if all returned: so all the people shall be in peace. And the saying pleased Absalom well, and all the 4 elders of Israel. Then said Absalom, Call now Hushai the Archite also, and let us 5 hear likewise what he saith.

And when Hushai was come to Absalom, Absalom spoke unto him, saying, Ahitho- 6 phel hath spoken after this manner: shall we follow his counsel? if not; speak thou.
 And Hushai said unto Absalom, The counsel that Ahithophel hath given is not good 7 at this time. For, said Hushai, thou knowest thy father and his men, that they are 8 mighty men, and they are chafed in their minds, as a bear robbed of her whelps in the field: and thy father is a man of war, and will not lodge with the people. Be- 9 hold, he is hid now in some pit, or in some other place: and when some of them are overthrown at the first, whosoever heareth it will say, There is a slaughter 10 among the people who follow Absalom. And he also who is valiant, whose heart is as the heart of a lion, shall utterly melt: for all Israel knoweth that thy father is a 11 mighty man, and they who are with him are valiant men. Therefore I counsel that 12 all Israel be generally gathered unto thee, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, as the sand that is by the sea for multitude; and that thou go to battle in thine own person. So 13 shall we come upon him in some place where he shall be found, and we will light upon him as the dew falleth on the ground: and of him and of all the men who are 14 with him there shall not be left so much as one. Moreover, if he be gotten into a city, 15 then shall all Israel bring ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the river, until there be not one small stone found there. And Absalom and all the men of Israel 16 said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel.
 For the LORD had appointed to defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel, to the in- 17 tent that the LORD might bring evil upon Absalom.

Then said Hushai unto Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, Thus and thus did 18 Ahithophel counsel Absalom and the elders of Israel; and thus and thus have I counselled. Now therefore send quickly, and tell David, saying, Lodge not this night 19 in the plains of the wilderness, but speedily pass over; lest the king be swallowed up, and all the people who are with him. Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz stayed by En- 20 rogel; for they might not be seen to come into the city: and a damsel went and told them; and they went and told king David. Nevertheless a lad saw them, and told 21 Absalom; but they went both of them away quickly, and came to a man's house in Bahurim, who had a well in his court; whither they went down. And the woman took 22 and spread a covering over the well's mouth, and spread pounded corn thereon; and the thing was not known. And when Absalom's servants came to the woman at the house, they said, Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan? And the woman said unto them, They are gone over the brook of water. And when they had sought and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem. And after they were departed, 23 they came up out of the well, and went and told king David, and said unto David, Arise, and pass quickly over the water; for thus hath Ahithophel counselled against you. Then David arose, and all the people who were with him, and they passed over the Jordan: by the morning light there lacked not one of them who was not gone over the Jordan.

- 23 And when Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his ass, and arose, and gat him home to his house, to his city, and gave charge concerning his house, and hanged himself, and died, and was buried in the sepulchre of his father.
- 24 Then David came to Mahanaim. And Absalom passed over the Jordan, he and
- 25 all the men of Israel with him. And Absalom made Amasa captain of the host instead of Joab: which Amasa was a man's son, whose name was Jether an Ishmaelite, who went in to Abigail the daughter of Nahash, sister to Zeruiah Joab's mother.
- 26 So Israel and Absalom pitched in the land of Gilead.
- 27 And when David was come to Mahanaim, Shobi the son of Nahash of Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and Machir the son of Ammiel of Lo-debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite of Rogelim, brought beds, and basins, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barley, and flour, and parched corn, and beans, and lentiles, and parched pulse, and honey, and butter, and sheep, and cheese of kine, for David, and for the people who were with him, to eat; for they said, The people are hungry, and weary, and thirsty, in the wilderness.
- 18 And David numbered the people who were with him, and set captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them. And David sent forth a third part of the people under the hand of Joab, and a third part under the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and a third part under the hand of Ittai the Gathite.
- 3 And the king said unto the people, I will surely go forth with you myself also. But the people answered, Thou shalt not go forth; for if we flee away, they will not care for us; neither if half of us die, will they care for us; were we even ten thousand they would not care for us; therefore now it is better that thou succour us from the
- 4 city. And the king said unto them, What seemeth you best I will do. And the king stood by the gate side, and all the people came out by hundreds and by thousands.
- 5 And the king commanded Joab and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Spare the young man Absalom, for my sake. And all the people heard when the king gave all the captains charge concerning Absalom.
- 6 So the people went out into the field against Israel: and the battle was in the
- 7 wood of Ephraim; where the people of Israel were slain before the servants of David, and there was there a great slaughter that day of twenty thousand men. For the battle was there scattered over the face of all the country: and the wood devoured more people that day than the sword devoured. And Absalom met the servants of David.
- 9 And Absalom rode upon a mule, and the mule went under the thick boughs of a great oak, and his head caught hold of the tree, and he was taken up between the heavens and the earth; and the mule that was under him went away.
- 10 And a certain man saw it, and told Joab, and said, Behold, I saw Absalom hanging in an oak. And Joab said unto the man who told him, And, behold, thou sawest him, and why didst thou not smite him there to the ground? and I would have
- 12 given thee ten shekels of silver, and a girdle. And the man said unto Joab, Though I should receive a thousand shekels of silver in my hand, yet would I not put forth my hand against the king's son: for in our hearing the king charged thee and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Beware that none touch the young man Absalom. Otherwise I should have wrought falsehood against mine own life: for there is no matter hid
- 14 from the king, and thou thyself wouldst have set thyself against me. Then said Joab, I may not tarry thus with thee. And he took three darts in his hand, and thrust them through the heart of Absalom, while he was yet alive in the midst of the
- 15 oak. And ten young men who bore Joab's armour compassed about and smote Absalom, and slew him.
- 16 And Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel; for Joab held back the people. And they took Absalom, and cast him into a great pit in the wood, and laid a very great heap of stones upon him: and all Israel fled
- 18 every one to his tent. Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and reared up for himself a pillar, which is in the king's dale: for he said, I have no son to keep my name in remembrance: and he called the pillar after his own name: and it is called unto this day, Absalom's place.
- 19 Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok, Let me now run, and bear the king tidings, how that the LORD hath avenged him of his enemies. And Joab said unto him, Thou shalt not bear tidings this day, but thou shalt bear tidings another day: but
- 21 this day thou shalt bear no tidings, because the king's son is dead. Then said Joab to Cush, Go tell the king what thou hast seen. And Cush bowed himself unto Joab, and ran.
- 22 Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok yet again to Joab, But howsoever, let me, I pray thee, also run after Cush. And Joab said, Wherefore wilt thou run, my son, seeing that the tidings will produce thee nothing? But howsoever, said he let me run. And he said unto him, Run. Then Ahimaaz ran by the way of the plain, and overran Cushi.

And David sat between the two gates : and the watchman went up to the roof over the gate unto the wall, and lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold a man running alone. And the watchman cried, and told the king. And the king said, If he be alone, there are tidings in his mouth. And he came apace, and drew near. And the watchman saw another man running : and the watchman called unto the porter, and said, Behold another man running alone. And the king said, He also bringeth tidings. And the watchman said, Me thinketh the running of the foremost is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok. And the king said, He is a good man, and cometh with good tidings.

And Ahimaaz called, and said unto the king, All is well. And he fell down to the earth upon his face before the king, and said, Blessed be the LORD thy God, who hath delivered up the men who lifted up their hand against my lord the king. And the king said, Is the young man Absalom safe? And Ahimaaz answered, When Joab sent the king's servant, and me thy servant, I saw a great tumult, but I knew not what it was. And the king said unto him, Turn aside, and stand here. And he turned aside, and stood still. And, behold, Cushi came ; and Cushi said, Tidings, my lord the king : for the LORD hath avenged thee this day of all those who rose up against thee. And the king said unto Cushi, Is the young man Absalom safe? And Cushi answered, The enemies of my lord the king, and all who rise against thee to do thee hurt, be as that young man is. And the king was much moved, and went up to the chamber over the gate, and wept : and as he went, thus he said, O my son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom ! would God I had died for thee, O Absalom, my son, my son !

AND it was told Joab, Behold, the king weepeth and mourneth for Absalom. And the victory that day was turned into mourning unto all the people : for the people heard say that day how the king was grieved for his son. And the people gat them by stealth that day into the city, as people being ashamed steal away when they flee in battle. But the king covered his face, and the king cried with a loud voice, O my son Absalom, O Absalom, my son, my son !

And Joab came into the house to the king, and said, Thou hast shamed this day the faces of all thy servants, who this day have saved thy life, and the lives of thy sons and of thy daughters, and the lives of thy wives, and the lives of thy concubines ; by loving thine enemies, and hating thy friends. For thou hast declared this day, that thou regardest neither princes nor servants ; for this day I perceive, that if Absalom had lived, and all of us had died this day, then it had pleased thee well. Now therefore arise, go forth, and speak comfortably unto thy servants : for I swear by the LORD, if thou go not forth, there will not tarry one with thee this night : and that will be worse unto thee than all the evil that befell thee from thy youth until now. Then the king arose, and sat in the gate. And they told unto all the people, saying, Behold, the king doth sit in the gate. And all the people came before the king : for Israel had fled every man to his tent.

AND all the people were at strife throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, The king saved us out of the hand of our enemies, and he delivered us out of the hand of the Philistines ; and now he is fled out for the land for Absalom. And Absalom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in battle. Now therefore why speak ye not a word of bringing the king back?

And king David sent to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, saying, Speak unto the elders of Judah, saying, Why are ye the last to bring the king back to his house ? (for the speech of all Israel had come to the king, to his house.) Ye are my brethren, ye are my bones and my flesh : wherefore then are ye the last to bring back the king ? And say ye to Amasa, Art thou not of my bone, and of my flesh ? God do so to me, and more also, if thou be not captain of the host before me continually in the room of Joab. And he bowed the heart of all the men of Judah, even as the heart of one man ; so that they sent this word unto the king, Return thou, and all thy servants. So the king returned, and came to the Jordan. And Judah came to Gilgal, to go to meet the king, to conduct the king over the Jordan.

And Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite, who was of Bahurim, hastened and came down with the men of Judah to meet king David. And there were a thousand men of Benjamin with him, and Ziba the servant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him ; and they went over the Jordan before the king. And there went over a ferry boat to carry over the king's household, and to do what he thought good. And Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king, as he was come over the Jordan ; and said unto the king, Let not my lord impute

II. SAMUEL XX.

iniquity unto me, neither do thou remember that which thy servant did perversely the day that my lord the king went out of Jerusalem, that the king should take it to 20 his heart. For thy servant doth know that I have sinned : therefore, behold, I am come the first this day before any of the house of Joseph to go down to meet my lord 21 the king. But Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered and said, Shall not Shimei be 22 put to death for this, because he cursed the LORD'S anointed? And David said, What have I to do with you, ye sons of Zeruiah, that ye should this day be adversaries unto me? shall there any man be put to death this day in Israel? for do not 23 I know that I am this day king over Israel? Therefore the king said unto Shimei, Thou shalt not die. And the king swore unto him.

24 And Mephibosheth the son of Saul came down to meet the king, and had neither dressed his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his clothes, from the day the 25 king departed until the day he came again in peace. And when he was come from Jerusalem to meet the king, the king said unto him, Wherefore wentest not thou
 26 with me, Mephibosheth? And he answered, My lord, O king, my servant deceived me; for thy servant said, I will saddle me an ass, that I may ride thereon, and go 27 with the king; because thy servant is lame. And he hath slandered thy servant unto my lord the king; but my lord the king is as an angel of God : do therefore 28 what is good in thine eyes. For all of my father's house were but dead men before my lord the king; yet didst thou set thy servant among those who did eat at thine
 29 own table. What right therefore have I yet to cry any more unto the king? And the king said unto him, Why speakest thou any more of thy matters? I have said, 30 Thou and Ziba divide the land. And Mephibosheth said unto the king, Yea, let him take all, forasmuch as my lord the king is come again in peace unto his own house.

31 And Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Rogelim, and went over the Jordan with the king, to conduct him over the Jordan. Now Barzillai was a very aged man, even fourscore years old : and he had provided the king sustenance while he 33 lay at Mahanaim; for he was a very great man. And the king said unto Barzillai, 34 Come thou over with me, and I will feed thee with me in Jerusalem. And Barzillai said unto the king, How long have I to live, that I should go up with the king unto 35 Jerusalem? I am this day fourscore years old : and can I discern between good and evil? can thy servant taste what I eat or what I drink? can I hear any more the voice of singing men and singing women? wherefore then should thy servant be yet 36 a burden unto my lord the king? Thy servant will go a little way over the Jordan
 37 with the king : and why should the king recompense me with such a reward? Let thy servant, I pray thee, turn back again, that I may die in mine own city, and be buried by the grave of my father and of my mother. But behold thy servant Chimham; let him go over with my lord the king; and do to him what shall seem good 38 unto thee. And the king answered, Chimham shall go over with me, and I will do to him that which shall seem good unto thee : and whatsoever thou shalt require of me, that will I do for thee. And all the people went over the Jordan. And when the king was come over, the king kissed Barzillai, and blessed him; and he returned 40 unto his own place. Then the king went on to Gilgal, and Chimham went on with him : and all the people of Judah conducted the king, and also half the people of Israel.

41 And, behold, all the men of Israel came to the king, and said unto the king, Why have our brethren the men of Judah stolen thee away, and have brought the king, 42 and his household, and all David's men with him, over the Jordan? And all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, Because the king is near of kin to us : wherefore then be ye angry for this matter? have we eaten at all at the king's cost?
 43 or hath he given us any gift? And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said, We have ten parts in the king, and we have also more right in David than ye : why then did ye despise us, that our advice should not be first had in bringing back our king? And the words of the men of Judah were fiercer than the words of the men of Israel.

20 And there happened to be there a worthless man, whose name was Sheba, the son of Bichri, a Benjamite : and he blew a trumpet, and said, We have no part in David, neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse : every man to his tents, O Israel. So every man of Israel went up from after David, and followed Sheba the son of Bichri : but the men of Judah clave unto their king, from the Jordan even to Jerusalem.
 3 AND David came to his house at Jerusalem : and the king took the ten women his concubines, whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in ward, and fed them, but went not in unto them. So they were shut up unto the day of their death, living in widowhood.

II. SAMUEL XXI.

Then said the king to Amasa, Assemble me the men of Judah within three days, 4 and be thou here present. So Amasa went to assemble the men of Judah; but he 5 tarried longer than the set time which he had appointed him. And David said to 6 Abishai, Now shall Sheba the son of Bichri do us more harm than did Absalom: take thou thy lord's servants, and pursue after him, lest he obtain possession of fenced cities, and escape us. And there went out after him Joab's men, and the archers, 7 and the slingers, and all the mighty men: and they went out of Jerusalem, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

When they were at the great stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa went before them. 8
And Joab's garment that he had put on was girded unto him, and upon it a girdle with a sword fastened upon his loins in the sheath thereof; and as he went forth it fell out. And Joab said to Amasa, Art thou in health, my brother? And Joab took 9 Amasa by the beard with the right hand to kiss him. But Amasa observed not the 10 sword that was in Joab's hand: so he smote him therewith in the fifth rib, and shed his bowels out to the ground, and struck him not again; and he died. So Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba the son of Bichri. And one of Joab's men 11 stood by him, and said, He who favoureth Joab, and he who is for David, let him go after Joab. And Amasa wallowed in blood in the midst of the highway. And when 12 the man saw that all the people stood still, he removed Amasa out of the highway into the field, and cast a cloth upon him, when he saw that every one who came by him stood still. When he was removed out of the highway, all the people went on 13 after Joab, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

And he went through all the tribes of Israel unto Abel, and to Beth-maachah, 14 and all the Berites: and they were gathered together, and went also after him. And 15 they came and besieged him in Abel of Beth-maachah, and they cast up a bank against the city, and it stood in the trench: and all the people who were with Joab battered the wall, to throw it down. Then cried a wise woman out of the city, Hear! 16 hear! say, I pray you, unto Joab, Come near hither, that I may speak with thee.
And when he was come near unto her, the woman said, Art thou Joab? And he an- 17 swered, I am he. Then she said unto him, Hear the words of thy handmaid. And he answered, I do hear. Then she spoke, saying, They were wont to speak in old time, 18 saying, They shall surely ask counsel at Abel: and so they ended the matter. I 19 am one of those who are peaceable and faithful in Israel: thou seekest to destroy a city and a mother in Israel: why wilt thou swallow up the inheritance of the LORD? And Joab answered and said, Far be it, far be it from me, that I should 20 swallow up or destroy. The matter is not so: hut a man of mount Ephraim, Sheba 21 the son of Bichri by name, hath lifted up his hand against the king, even against David: deliver him only, and I will depart from the city. And the woman said unto Joab, Behold, his head shall be thrown to thee over the wall. Then the woman went 22 unto all the people in her wisdom. And they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and cast it out to Joab. And he blew a trumpet, and they retired from the city, every man to his tent. And Joab returned to Jerusalem unto the king.

Now Joab was over all the host of Israel: and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over 23 the archers and over the slingers: and Adoram was over the tribute: and Jehosha- 24 phat the son of Ahilud was recorder: and Sheva was scribe: and Zadok and Abi- 25 athar were the priests: and Ira also the Jairite was a chief ruler about David. 26

THEN there was a famine in the days of David three years, year after year; and 27 David inquired of the LORD. And the LORD answered, It is for Saul, and for his bloody house, because he slew the Gibeonites. And the king called the Gibeonites, 2 and said unto them; (now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorites; and the children of Israel had sworn unto them: and Saul sought to slay them in his zeal to the children of Israel and Judah;) wherefore 3 David said unto the Gibeonites, What shall I do for you? and wherewith shall I make the atonement, that ye may bless the inheritance of the LORD? And the 4 Gibeonites said unto him, We will have no silver nor gold of Saul, nor of his house; neither for us shalt thou kill any man in Israel. And he said, What ye shall say, that will I do for you. And they answered the king, The man who consumed us, 5 and who devised against us that we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the coasts of Israel, let seven men of his sons be delivered unto us, and we will hang 6 them up before the LORD in Gibeah of Saul, whom the LORD did choose. And the king said, I will give them.

But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because 7 of the LORD'S oath that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul. But the king took the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she 8

II. SAMUEL XXII.

- bore unto Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth; and the five sons of Michal the daughter of Saul, whom she brought up for Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholahite: and he delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them on the hill before the LORD: and they fell all seven together, and were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first days, in the beginning of barley harvest. And Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth, and spread it upon the rock, from the beginning of harvest until it rained upon them out of the heavens, and suffered neither the birds of the air to rest on them by day, nor the beasts of the field by night.
- 11 And it was told David what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, 12 had done. And David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from the men of Jabesh-gilead, who had stolen them from the street of Bethshan, where the Philistines had hanged them, when the Philistines had slain Saul 13 in Gilboa: and he brought up from thence the bones of Saul and the bones of 14 Jonathan his son; and they gathered the bones of those who were hanged. And they buried them with the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son in the country of Benjamin in Zelah, in the sepulchre of Kish his father: and they performed all that the king commanded. And after that God was entreated for the land.
- 15 MOREOVER the Philistines had yet war again with Israel; and David went 16 down, and his servants with him, and fought against the Philistines: and David waxed faint. And Ishbi-benob, who was of the sons of the giant, the head of whose 17 spear weighed three hundred shekels of brass, he being girded with a new sword, thought to have slain David. But Abishai the son of Zeruiah succoured him, and smote the Philistine, and killed him. Then the men of David swore unto him, saying, Thou shalt go no more out with us to battle, that thou quench not the lamp of Israel.
- 18 And after this there was again a battle with the Philistines at Gezer: then Sibbechai the Hushathite slew Saph, who was of the sons of the giant. And there was 19 again a battle at Gezer with the Philistines, where Elhanan the son of Jaare-oregim, a Beth-lehemite, slew the brother of Goliath the Gathite, the staff of whose spear 20 was like a weaver's beam. And there was yet a battle in Gath, where was a man of great stature, who had on every hand six fingers, and on every foot six toes, four 21 and twenty in number; and he also was born to the giant. And when he defied 22 Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimeah the brother of David slew him. These four were born to the giant in Gath, and fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.
- 22 AND David spoke unto the LORD the words of this song in the day that the LORD had delivered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul: 2 and he said,

- The LORD is my rock, and my fortress,
 3 And my deliverer; my God, my rock;
 In him will I trust:
 He is my shield, and the horn of my salvation,
 My high tower, and my refuge,
 My saviour; who saveth me from violence.
- 4 I called on the LORD, who is worthy to be praised;
 So was I saved from mine enemies.
- 5 When the waves of death compassed me,
 The floods of ungodly men made me afraid;
- 6 The sorrows of the grave compassed me about;
 The snares of death surrounded me;
- 7 In my distress I called upon the LORD,
 And cried to my God;
 And he heard my voice out of his temple,
 And my cry entered into his ears.
- 8 Then the earth shook and trembled;
 The foundations of the heavens moved and shook,
 Because he was wroth.
- 9 There went up a smoke out of his nostrils,
 And devouring fire out of his mouth:
 Coals were kindled by it.
- 10 He bowed the heavens also, and came down;
 And darkness was under his feet.

II. SAMUEL XXII.

- 11 And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly :
And he was seen upon the wings of the wind.
- 12 And he made darkness pavilions round about him,
Dark waters, and thick clouds of the skies.
- 13 Through the brightness before him
Were coals of fire kindled.
- 14 The LORD thundered from the heavens,
And the Most High uttered his voice.
- 15 And he sent out arrows, and scattered them ;
Lightning, and discomfited them.
- 16 And the channels of the sea appeared,
The foundations of the world were discovered,
At the rebuking of the LORD,
At the blast of the breath of his nostrils.
- 17 He sent from above, he took me ;
He drew me out of great waters of affliction :
- 18 He delivered me from my strong enemy,
And from those who hated me :
For they were too strong for me.
- 19 They surrounded me in the day of my calamity ;
But the LORD was my stay.
- 20 He brought me forth also into a large place :
He delivered me, because he delighted in me.
- 21 The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness :
According to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.
- 22 For I have kept the ways of the LORD,
And have not wickedly departed from my God.
- 23 For all his judgments were before me :
And as for his statutes, I did not depart from them.
- 24 I was also upright before him,
And have kept myself from the iniquity I am prone to ;
- 25 Therefore the LORD hath recompensed me according to my righteousness ;
According to my cleanness in his eye sight.
- 26 With the merciful thou wilt show thyself merciful,
And with the upright man thou wilt show thyself upright.
- 27 With the pure thou wilt show thyself pure ;
And with the froward thou wilt contend.
- 28 And the afflicted people thou wilt save ;
But thine eyes are upon the haughty, that thou mayest bring them down.
- 29 For thou art my lamp, O LORD :
And the LORD will lighten my darkness.
- 30 For by thee I have broken through troops :
By my God have I scaled walls.
- 31 As for God, his way is perfect ;
The word of the LORD is tried :
He is a buckler to all those who trust in him.
- 32 For who is God, save the LORD ?
And who is a rock, save our God ?
- 33 God is my strength and power ;
And he maketh my way perfect.
- 34 He maketh my feet like hinds' feet ;
And setteth me upon my high places.
- 35 He teacheth my hands to war ;
So that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms.
- 36 Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation ;
And thy goodness hath made me great.
- 37 Thou hast enlarged my steps under me ;
So that my feet did not slip.
- 38 I have pursued mine enemies, and destroyed them ;
And turned not again until I had consumed them.
- 39 And I have consumed them, and wounded them, that they could not arise :
Yea, they are fallen under my feet.
- 40 For thou hast girded me with strength to battle :

II. SAMUEL XXIII.

- Those who rose up against me hast thou subdued under me.
41 Thou hast also given me the necks of mine enemies,
That I might destroy those who hate me.
42 They looked, but there was none to save ;
Even unto the LORD, but he answered them not.
43 Then did I beat them as small as the dust of the earth :
I did stamp them as the mire of the street,
And did spread them abroad.
44 Thou also hast delivered me from the strivings of my people,
Thou hast kept me to be head of the nations :
A people whom I knew not shall serve me.
45 Strangers shall submit themselves unto me :
As soon as they hear, they shall be obedient unto me.
46 Strangers shall fade away,
And they shall be afraid out of their close places.
47 The LORD liveth ;
And blessed be my rock ;
And exalted be the God of the rock of my salvation.
48 It is God who avengeth me,
And who bringeth down the people under me,
49 And who bringeth me forth from mine enemies :
Thou also hast lifted me up on high above those who rose up against me :
Thou hast delivered me from the violent man.
50 Therefore I will give thanks unto thee, O LORD, among the nations,
And I will sing praises unto thy name.
51 He is the tower of salvation for his king ;
And showeth mercy to his anointed,
Unto David, and to his seed for evermore.

23 NOW these were the last words of David.

- David the son of Jesse said,
And the man who was raised up on high,
The anointed of the God of Jacob,
And the sweet psalmist of Israel, said,
2 The Spirit of the LORD spoke by me,
And his word was on my tongue.
3 The God of Israel said,
The Rock of Israel spoke to me,
He who ruleth in human form, the Just One, cometh, Ruling in the fear of God ;
4 Even as the light of the morning, when the sun riseth,
As a morning without clouds ;
When the tender grass springeth out of the earth by clear shining after rain.
5 Although my house be not established with God ;
Yet he hath made with me an everlasting covenant,
Ordered in all things, and sure :
For this is all my salvation,
And mine every desire will he not accomplish ?
6 The sons of wickedness shall be all of them as thorns thrust away,
Because they cannot be taken with hands :
7 But the man who would touch them
Must be fenced with iron and the staff of a spear ;
And they shall be utterly burnt with fire in the same place.
8 THESE are the names of the mighty men whom David had : the Tachmonite who sat in the seat, chief among the captains ; the same was Adino the Eznite : 9 he lifted up his spear against three hundred, whom he slew at one time. And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo the Ahohite, one of the three mighty men with David, when they defied the Philistines who were there gathered together to 10 battle, and the men of Israel were gone away : he arose, and smote the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand clave unto the sword : and the LORD wrought a great victory that day ; and the people returned after him only to spoil.
11 And after him was Shammah the son of Agee the Hararite. And the Philistines were gathered together for foraging, where was a piece of ground full of barley: and the people fled from the Philistines. But he stood in the midst of the ground, and defended it, and slew the Philistines: and the LORD wrought a great victory.

And the three captains over the thirty went down, and came to David in the harvest time unto the cave of Adullam: and the troop of the Philistines pitched in the valley of Rephaim. And David was then in a hold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Beth-lehem. And David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Beth-lehem, which is by the gate! And the three mighty men broke through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: nevertheless he would not drink thereof, but poured it out unto the LORD. And he said, Be it far from me, O LORD, that I should do this: is not this the blood of the men who went in jeopardy of their lives? therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three mighty men.

And Abishai, the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chief among the three. And he lifted up his spear against three hundred, and slew them, and had the name among the three. Was he not most honourable of the three? therefore he was their captain: howbeit he attained not unto the first three.

And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man, of Kabzeel, who had done great acts, slew two lionlike men of Moab: he went down also and slew a lion in the midst of a pit in time of snow: and he slew an Egyptian, a man of great stature: and the Egyptian had a spear in his hand; but he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and slew him with his own spear. These things did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and had the name among the three mighty men. He was more honourable than the thirty, but he attained not to the first three. And David set him over his council.

Asahel the brother of Joab was one of the thirty; Elhanan the son of Dodo of Beth-lehem, Shamamah the Harodite, Elika the Harodite, Helez the Paltite, Ira the son of Ikesh the Tekoite, Abiezer the Anethothite, Mebunnai the Hushathite, Zalmon the Ahobite, Meharai the Netophathite, Heleb the son of Baanah, a Netophathite, Ittai the son of Ribai out of Gibeah of the children of Benjamin, Benaiah the Parathonite, Hiddai of the brooks of Gaash, Abi-albon the Arbathite, Azmaveth the Barhumite, Eliahba the Shaalbomite, of the sons of Jashen, Jonathan, Shammah the Hararite, Ahiam the son of Sharar the Hararite, Eliphelet the son of Ahasbai, the son of the Maachathite, Eliam the son of Ahithophel the Gilonite, Hezrai the Carmelite, Paarai the Arbite, Igal the son of Nathan of Zobah, Bani the Gadite, Zelek the Ammonite, Nahari the Beerothite, armourbearer to Joab the son of Zeruiah, Ira an Ithrite, Gareb an Ithrite, Uriah the Hittite: thirty and seven in all.

AND again the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, because Satan moved David to say, Go, number Israel and Judah. For the king said to Joab the captain of the host, who was with him, Go now through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, and number ye the people, that I may know the number of the people. And Joab said unto the king, Now the LORD thy God add unto the people, how many soever they be, a hundredfold, and that the eyes of my lord the king may see it: but why doth my lord the king delight in this thing? Notwithstanding the king's word prevailed against Joab, and against the captains of the host.

And Joab and the captains of the host went out from the presence of the king, to number the people of Israel. And they passed over the Jordan, and pitched in Arzer, on the right side of the city that lieth in the midst of the river of Gad, and towards Jazer: then they came to Gilead, and to the land of Tahtim-hodshi; and they came to Dan-jaan, and about to Zidon, and came to the strong hold of Tyre, and to all the cities of the Hivites, and of the Canaanites: and they went out to the south of Judah, even to Beer-sheba. So when they had gone through all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days. And Joab gave up the sum of the number of the people unto the king: and there were in Israel eight hundred thousand valiant men who drew the sword; and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men.

And David's heart smote him after that he had numbered the people. And David said unto the LORD, I have sinned greatly in that I have done: and now, I beseech thee, O LORD, take away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly. And David rose up in the morning, and the word of the LORD came unto the prophet Gad, David's seer, saying, Go and say unto David, Thus saith the LORD, I offer thee three things; choose thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee. So Gad came to David, and told him, and said unto him, Shall three years

I. KINGS I.

- of famine come unto thee in thy land? or wilt thou flee three months before thine enemies, while they pursue thee? or that there be three days' pestilence in thy land?
- 14 now advise, and see what answer I shall return to him who sent me. And David said unto Gad, I am in a great strait: let us fall now into the hand of the LORD; for his mercies are great: and let me not fall into the hand of man.
- 15 So the LORD sent a pestilence upon Israel from the morning even to the time appointed: and there died of the people from Dan even to Beer-sheba seventy thousand men. And when the angel stretched out his hand upon Jerusalem to destroy it, the LORD repented him of the evil, and said to the angel who destroyed the people, It is enough: stay now thy hand. And the angel of the LORD was by the
- 17 threshingplace of Araunah the Jebusite. And David spoke unto the LORD when he saw the angel who smote the people, and said, Lo, I have sinned, and I have done wickedly: but these sheep, what have they done? let thy hand, I pray thee, be against me, and against my father's house.
- 18 And Gad came that day to David, and said unto him, Go up, rear an altar unto
- 19 the LORD in the threshingfloor of Araunah the Jebusite. And David, according
- 20 to the saying of Gad, went up as the LORD commanded. And Araunah looked, and saw the king and his servants coming on towards him: and Araunah went out, and
- 21 bowed himself before the king on his face upon the ground. And Araunah said, Wherefore is my lord the king come to his servant? And David said, To buy the threshingfloor of thee, to build an altar unto the LORD, that the plague may be
- 22 stayed from the people. And Araunah said unto David, Let my lord the king take and offer up what seemeth good unto him: behold, here are oxen for burnt sacrifice,
- 23 and threshing instruments and other instruments of the oxen for wood. All these things did Araunah give unto the king. And Araunah said unto the king, The
- 24 LORD thy God accept thee. And the king said unto Araunah, Nay; but I will surely buy it of thee at a price: neither will I offer burnt offerings unto the LORD my God of that which doth cost me nothing. So David bought the threshingfloor and the
- 25 oxen for fifty shekels of silver. And David built there an altar unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. So the LORD was entreated for the land, and the plague was stayed from Israel.

THE FIRST BOOK OF THE KINGS,

COMMONLY CALLED,

THE THIRD BOOK OF THE KINGS.

- 1 NOW king David was old and advanced in years; and they covered him with clothes, but he gat no heat. Wherefore his servants said unto him, Let there be sought for my lord the king a damsel, a virgin: and let her stand before the king, and let her be a nurse to him, and let her lie in thy bosom, that my lord the king
- 3 may get heat. So they sought for a beautiful damsel throughout all the coasts of
- 4 Israel, and found Abishag a Shunammite, and brought her to the king. And the damsel was very beautiful, and nursed the king, and ministered to him: but the king knew her not.
- 5 Then Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, I will be king: and
- 6 he prepared him chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him. And his father had not displeased him at any time in saying, Why hast thou done so? and
- 7 he also was a very handsome man; and he was born next after Absalom. And he conferred with Joab the son of Zeruiah, and with Abiathar the priest: and they
- 8 following Adonijah helped him. But Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and Nathan the prophet, and Shimei, and Rei, and the mighty men who
- 9 belonged to David, were not with Adonijah. And Adonijah slew sheep and oxen and fat cattle by the stone of Zohaleth, which is by En-rogel, and called all his brethren the king's sons, and all the men of Judah the king's servants: but Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah, and the mighty men, and Solomon his brother, he called not.

I. KINGS I.

Wherefore Nathan spoke unto Bath-sheba the mother of Solomon, saying, Hast 11 thou not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith doth reign, and David our lord knoweth it not? Now therefore come, let me, I pray thee, give thee counsel, that 12 thou mayest save thine own life, and the life of thy son Solomon. Go and get thee 13 in unto king David, and say unto him, Didst not thou, my lord, O king, swear unto thy handmaid, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne? why then doth Adonijah reign? Behold, while thou yet talkest 14 there with the king, I also will come in after thee, and confirm thy words.

And Bath-sheba went in unto the king into the chamber: and the king was very 15 old; and Abishag the Shunammite ministered unto the king. And Bath-sheba 16 bowed, and did obeisance unto the king. And the king said, What wouldst thou?
And she said unto him, My lord, thou swarest by the LORD thy God unto thy 17 handmaid, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne. And now, behold, Adonijah reigneth; and now, my lord the king, 18 thou knowest it not: and he hath slain oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, 19 and hath called all the sons of the king, and Abiathar the priest, and Joab the captain of the host: but Solomon thy servant hath he not called. And thou, my lord, 20 O king, the eyes of all Israel are upon thee, that thou shouldest tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him. Otherwise, when my lord the king 21 shall sleep with his fathers, I and my son Solomon shall be counted offenders.

And, lo, while she yet talked with the king, Nathan the prophet also came in. 22
And they told the king, saying, Behold Nathan the prophet. And when he was 23 come in before the king, he bowed himself before the king with his face to the ground.
And Nathan said, My lord, O king, hast thou said, Adonijah shall reign after me, 24 and he shall sit upon my throne? For he is gone down this day, and hath slain 25 oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and hath called all the king's sons, and the captains of the host, and Abiathar the priest; and, behold, they eat and drink before him, and say, Long live king Adonijah. But me, even me thy servant, and 26 Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and thy servant Solomon, hath he not called. Is this thing done by my lord the king, and thou hast not showed it 27 unto thy servant, who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?

Then king David answered and said, Call me Bath-sheba. And she came into the 28 king's presence, and stood before the king. And the king swore, and said, As the 29 LORD liveth, who hath redeemed my soul out of all distress, even as I swore unto 30 thee by the LORD God of Israel, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne in my stead; even so will I certainly do this day. Then Bath-sheba bowed with her face to the earth, and did reverence to 31 the king, and said, Let my lord king David live for ever.

And king David said, Call me Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Be- 32 naiah the son of Jehoiada. And they came before the king. The king also said unto 33 them, Take with you the servants of your lord, and cause Solomon my son to ride upon mine own mule, and bring him down to Gihon: and let Zadok the priest and 34 Nathan the prophet anoint him there king over Israel: and blow ye with the trumpet, and say, Long live king Solomon. Then ye shall come up after him, that he 35 may come and sit upon my throne; for he shall be king in my stead: and I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and over Judah. And Benaiah the son of Je- 36 hoiada answered the king, and said, Amen: the LORD God of my lord the king say so too. As the LORD hath been with my lord the king, even so be he with Solo- 37 mon, and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord king David.

So Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, 38 and the archers, and the slingers, went down, and caused Solomon to ride upon king David's mule, and brought him to Gihon. And Zadok the priest took a horn of 39 oil out of the tabernacle, and anointed Solomon. And they blew the trumpet; and all the people said, Long live king Solomon. And all the people came up after him, 40 and the people piped with pipes, and rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth rent with the sound of them.

And Adonijah and all the guests who were with him heard it as they had made 41 an end of eating. And when Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, Wherefore is this noise of the city being in an uproar? And while he yet spoke, behold, 42 Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came: and Adonijah said unto him, Come in; for thou art a valiant man, and bringest good tidings. And Jonathan answered 43 and said to Adonijah, Verily our lord king David hath made Solomon king. And 44 the king hath sent with him Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the archers, and the slingers, and they have caused him to

I. KINGS II.

- 45 ride upon the king's mule : and Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king in Gihon : and they are come up from thence rejoicing, so that the city 46 rang again. This is the noise that ye have heard. And also Solomon sitteth on the 47 throne of the kingdom. And moreover the king's servants came to bless our lord king David, saying, God make the name of Solomon better than thy name, and make his throne greater than thy throne. And the king bowed himself upon the 48 bed. And also thus said the king, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who hath given one to sit on my throne this day, mine eyes even seeing it.
- 49 And all the guests who were with Adonijah were afraid, and rose up, and went 50 every man his way. And Adonijah feared because of Solomon, and arose, and went,
51 and caught hold on the horns of the altar. And it was told Solomon, saying, Behold, Adonijah feareth king Solomon : for, lo, he hath caught hold on the horns of the altar, saying, Let king Solomon swear unto me to-day that he will not slay his 52 servant with the sword. And Solomon said, If he will show himself a worthy man, there shall not a hair of him fall to the earth : but if wickedness shall be found 53 in him, he shall die. So king Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the altar. And he came and bowed himself to king Solomon : and Solomon said unto him, Go to thy house.
- 2 NOW the days of David drew nigh that he should die ; and he charged Solomon his son, saying, I go the way of all the earth : be thou strong therefore, and show
3 thyself a man ; and keep the charge of the LORD thy God, to walk in his ways, to keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his judgments, and his testimonies, as it is written in the law of Moses, that thou mayest prosper in all that thou doest,
4 and whithersoever thou turnest thyself : that the LORD may continue his word which he spoke concerning me, saying, If thy children take heed to their way, to walk before me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul, there shall not fail thee (said he) a man on the throne of Israel. Moreover thou knowest also what Joab the son of Zeruiah did to me, and what he did to the two captains of the hosts of Israel, unto Abner the son of Ner, and unto Amasa the son of Jether, whom he slew, and shed the blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war upon his girdle that 6 was about his loins, and in his shoes that were on his feet. Do therefore according 7 to thy wisdom, and let not his hoary head go down to the grave in peace. But show kindness unto the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be of those who eat at thy table : for so they came to me when I fled because of Absalom thy brother.
8 And, behold, thou hast with thee Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite of Bahurim, who cursed me with a grievous curse in the day when I went to Mahanaim : but he came down to meet me at the Jordan, and I swore to him by the LORD, saying, I
9 will not put thee to death with the sword. Now therefore hold him not guiltless : for thou art a wise man, and knowest what thou oughtest to do unto him ; but bring not down his hoary head to the grave with blood.
- 1011 So David slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David. And the days that David reigned over Israel were forty years : seven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jerusalem.
- 12 THEN SAT SOLOMON upon the throne of David his father ; and his kingdom was established greatly. And Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bath-sheba the mother of Solomon. And she said, Comest thou peaceably ? And he said, Peaceably.
1415 He said moreover, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And she said, Say on. And he said, Thou knowest that the kingdom was mine, and that all Israel set their faces on me, that I should reign : howbeit the kingdom is turned about, and is become my brother's : for it was his from the LORD. And now I ask one petition of thee, deny 17 me not. And she said unto him, Say on. And he said, Speak, I pray thee, unto Solomon the king, (for he will not say thee nay,) that he give me Abishag the Shunammite to wife. And Bath-sheba said, Well ; I will speak for thee unto the king.
19 Bath-sheba therefore went unto king Solomon, to speak unto him for Adonijah. And the king rose up to meet her, and bowed himself unto her, and sat down on his throne, and caused a seat to be set for the king's mother ; and she sat on his right 20 hand. Then she said, I desire one small petition of thee ; I pray thee, say me not nay. And the king said unto her, Ask on, my mother ; for I will not say thee nay.
21 And she said, Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah thy brother to wife. And king Solomon answered and said unto his mother, And why dost thou ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah ? ask for him the kingdom also ; for he is mine elder brother ; and both Abiathar the priest and Joab the son of Zeruiah are 23 for him. Then king Solomon swore by the LORD, saying, God do so to me, and 24 more also, if Adonijah have not spoken this word against his own life. Now there-force, as the LORD liveth, who hath established me, and set me on the throne of David my father, and who hath made me a house, as he promised, Adonijah shall be put to death this day. And king Solomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the son of 25 Jehoiada; and he fell upon him that he died.

And unto Abiathar the priest said the king, Get thee to Anathoth, unto thine own fields; for thou art worthy of death; but I will not at this time put thee to death, because thou barest the ark of the Lord God before David my father, and because thou hast been afflicted in all wherein my father was afflicted. Thus Solomon thrust 27 out Abiathar from being priest unto the LORD; so was fulfilled the word of the LORD, which he spoke concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh.

Then tidings came to Joab: for Joab had turned after Adonijah, though he turned 28 not after Absalom. And Joab fled unto the tabernacle of the LORD, and caught hold of the horns of the altar. And it was told king Solomon that Joab was fled 29 unto the tabernacle of the LORD; and, behold, he is by the altar. Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, Go, fall upon him. And Benaiah came to 30 the tabernacle of the LORD, and said unto him, Thus saith the king, Come forth. And he said, Nay; but I will die here. And Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me. And the king said unto him, Do 31 as he hath said, and fall upon him, and bury him; that thou mayest take away the innocent blood, which Joab shed, from me, and from the house of my father. And 32 the LORD shall return his blood upon his own head, who fell upon two men more righteous and better than himself; whom, my father David not knowing, he slew with the sword; Abner the son of Ner, captain of the host of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, captain of the host of Judah. Their blood shall therefore return upon 33 the head of Joab, and upon the head of his seed for ever: but upon David, and upon his seed, and upon his house, and upon his throne, shall there be peace for ever from the LORD. So Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up, and fell upon him, and slew 34 him; and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness. And the king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his room over the host: and Zadok the priest did the king put in the room of Abiathar. 35

And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, Build thee a house in 36 Jerusalem, and dwell there, and go not forth thence any where. For on the day 37 thou goest out, and passdest over the brook Kidron, thou shalt know for certain that thou shalt surely die: thy blood shall be upon thine own head. So the king made him swear that day. And Shimei said unto the king, The saying is good: as my 38 lord the king hath said, so will thy servant do. And Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem many days.

And at the end of three years, two of the servants of Shimei ran away unto Achish 39 son of Maachah king of Gath. And they told Shimei, saying, Behold, thy servants are in Gath. And Shimei arose, and saddled his ass, and went to Gath to Achish to seek his servants: and Shimei went, and brought his servants from Gath. And it 40 was told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and was come again. And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, Did I not make 42 thee to swear by the LORD, and protested unto thee, saying, Know for a certain, on the day thou goest out, and walkest abroad any where, that thou shalt surely die? and thou saidst unto me, The word that I have heard is good. Why then hast thou 43 not kept the oath of the LORD, and the commandment that I have charged thee with? The king said moreover to Shimei, Thou knowest all the wickedness which 44 thy heart is privy to, that thou didst to David my father: therefore the LORD shall return thy wickedness upon thine own head; and king Solomon shall be blessed, and 45 the throne of David shall be established before the LORD for ever. So the king 46 commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; who went out, and fell upon him, that he died. And the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

AND Solomon made affinity with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and took Pharaoh's daughter, and brought her into the city of David, until he had made an end of building his own house, and the house of the LORD, and the wall of Jerusalem round about. Only the people sacrificed in high places, because there was no house built 2 unto the name of the LORD, until those days. And Solomon loved the LORD, 3 walking in the statutes of David his father: only he sacrificed and burnt incense in high places.

And the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there; for that was the great high place: 4 a thousand burnt offerings did Solomon offer upon that altar. In Gibeon the LORD 5 appeared to Solomon in a dream by night: and God said, Ask what I shall give thee. And Solomon said, Thou hast showed unto thy servant David my father great mercy, 6

I. KINGS IV.

- according as he walked before thee in truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with thee; and thou hast kept for him this great kindness, that thou hast given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day. And now, O LORD my God, thou hast made thy servant king instead of David my father: and I am but a little child: I know not how to go out or come in. And thy servant is in the midst of thy people whom thou hast chosen, a great people, who cannot be numbered nor counted for multitude. Give therefore thy servant an understanding heart to judge thy people, that I may discern between good and bad; for who is able to judge this thy so great a people?
- And the speech pleased the LORD, that Solomon had asked this thing. And God said unto him, Because thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked for thyself long life; neither hast asked riches for thyself, nor hast asked the life of thine enemies; but hast asked for thyself understanding to discern judgment; behold, I have done according to thy words: lo, I have given thee a wise and an understanding heart; so that there was none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee. And I have also given thee that which thou hast not asked, both riches, and honour: so that there shall not be any among the kings like unto thee all thy days. And if thou wilt walk in my ways, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as thy father David did walk, then I will lengthen thy days. And Solomon awoke; and, behold, it was a dream. And he came to Jerusalem, and stood before the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and offered up burnt offerings, and offered peace offerings, and made a feast to all his servants.
- Then came there two women, who were harlots, unto the king, and stood before him. And the one woman said, O my lord, I and this woman dwell in one house; and I was delivered of a child with her in the house. And the third day after that I was delivered, this woman was delivered also; and we were together; there was no stranger with us in the house; we two only were in the house. And this woman's child died in the night; because she overlaid it. And she arose at midnight, and took my son from beside me, while thy handmaid slept, and laid it in her bosom, and laid her dead child in my bosom. And when I rose in the morning to give my child suck, behold, it was dead: but when I had considered it in the morning, behold, it was not my son, which I did bear. And the other woman said, Nay; but the living is my son, and the dead is thy son. And this said, No; but the dead is thy son, and the living is my son. Thus they spoke before the king. Then said the king, The one saith, This is my son that liveth, and thy son is the dead: and the other saith, Nay; but thy son is the dead, and my son is the living. And the king said, Bring me a sword. And they brought a sword before the king. And the king said, Divide the living child in two, and give half to the one, and half to the other. Then spoke the woman, whose the living child was, unto the king, for her bowels yearned upon her son, and she said, O my lord, give her the living child, and in no wise slay it. But the other said, Let it be neither mine nor thine, but divide it. Then the king answered and said, Give her the living child, and in no wise slay it: she is the mother thereof. And all Israel heard of the judgment which the king had judged; and they feared the king; for they saw that the wisdom of God was in him, to do judgment.
- SO king Solomon was king over all Israel. And these were his chief officers; Azariah the son of Zadok the priest, Elihoreph and Ahiah, the sons of Shisha, scribes; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, the recorder. And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the host; and Zadok and Abiathar were the priests: and Azariah the son of Nathan was over the officers; and Zabud the son of Nathan was principal officer, and the king's friend: and Abishar was over the household; and Adoniram the son of Abda was over the tribute.
- And Solomon had twelve officers over all Israel, who provided victuals for the king and his household: each man his month in a year made provision. And these are their names: the son of Hur, in mount Ephraim: the son of Dekar, in Makaz, and in Shaalbim, and Beth-shemesh, and Elon-beth-hanan: the son of Heseid, in Aruboth; to him pertained Sochoh, and all the land of Hepher: the son of Abinadab, in all the region of Dor; who had Taphath the daughter of Solomon to wife: Baana the son of Ahilud; to him pertained Taanach and Megiddo, and all Beth-shean, which is by Zartanah beneath Jezreel, from Beth-shean to Abel-meholah, even unto the place that is beyond Jokneam: the son of Geber, in Ramoth-gilead; to him pertained the towns of Jair the son of Manasseh, which are in Gilead; to him also pertained the region of Argob, which is in Bashan, threescore great cities with walls and brazen bars: Ahinadab the son of Iddo had Mahanaim: Ahimaaz was in Naphtali; he also took Basmath the daughter of Solomon to wife: Baanah the son of Hushai was in Asher and in Aloth : Jehoshaphat the son of Paruah, in Issa- 17 char : Shimei the son of Elah, in Benjamin : Geber the son of Uri was in the 18 19 country of Gilead, in the country of Sihon king of the Amorites, and of Og king of Bashan ; and he was the only officer who was in the land.

Judah and Israel were many, as the sand which is by the sea in multitude, eating 20 and drinking, and making merry. And Solomon reigned over all kingdoms from 21 the river unto the land of the Philistines, and unto the border of Egypt : they brought presents, and served Solomon all the days of his life.

And Solomon's provision for one day was thirty measures of fine flour, and three- 22 score measures of meal, ten fat oxen, and twenty oxen out of the pastures, and a 23 hundred sheep, besides harts, and roebucks, and fallowdeer, and fatted fowl. For he 24 had dominion over all the region on this side the river, from Tiphseh even to Azzah, over all the kings on this side the river : and he had peace on all sides round about him. And Judah and Israel dwelt safely, every man under his vine and under his 25 fig tree, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, all the days of Solomon.

And Solomon had four thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thou- 26 sand horsemen. And those officers provided victual for king Solomon, and for all 27 who came unto king Solomon's table, every man in his month : they lacked nothing.
 Barley also and straw for the horses and dromedaries brought they unto the place 28 where it should be, every man according to his charge.

And God gave Solomon wisdom and understanding exceeding much, and large- 29 ness of heart, even as the sand that is on the sea shore. And Solomon's wisdom 30 excelled the wisdom of all the children of the east country, and all the wisdom of Egypt. For he was wiser than all men ; than Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, and 31
 Chalcol, and Darda, the men of Mahol : and his fame was in all nations round about.
 And he spake three thousand proverbs : and his songs were a thousand and five. 32
 And he spoke of trees, from the cedar tree that is in Lebanon even unto the hyssop 33 that springeth out of the wall : he spoke also of beasts, and of birds, and of creeping things, and of fishes. And there came of all people to hear the wisdom of Solomon, 34 from all kings of the earth, who had heard of his wisdom.

AND Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants unto Solomon ; for he had heard that 5 they had anointed him king in the room of his father : for Hiram was ever a lover of David. And Solomon sent to Hiram, saying, Thou knowest how that David my fa- 2 3 ther could not build a house unto the name of the LORD his God for the wars which were about him on every side, until the LORD put them under the soles of his feet.
 But now the LORD my God hath given me rest on every side, so that there is neither 4 adversary nor evil occurrence. And, behold, I purpose to build a house unto the 5 name of the LORD my God, as the LORD spoke unto David my father, saying, Thy son, whom I will set upon thy throne in thy room, he shall build a house unto my name. Now therefore command thou that they hew me cedar trees out of Lebanon ; 6 and my servants shall be with thy servants : and unto thee will I give hire for thy servants according to all that thou shalt appoint ; for thou knowest that there is not among us any who have skill to hew timber like unto the Sidonians.

And when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, he rejoiced greatly, and said, 7 Blessed be the LORD this day, who hath given unto David a wise son over this great people. And Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, I have considered the things which 8 thou sentest to me for ; and I will do all thy desire concerning timber of cedar, and concerning timber of fir. My servants shall bring them down from Lebanon unto 9 the sea : and I will convey them by sea in floats unto the place that thou shalt appoint me, and will cause them to be discharged there, and thou shalt receive them ; and thou shalt accomplish my desire, in giving food for my household.

So Hiram gave Solomon cedar trees and fir trees according to all his desire. And 10 11
 Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand measures of wheat for food to his household, and twenty measures of pure oil : thus gave Solomon to Hiram year by year. And 12 the LORD gave Solomon wisdom, as he promised him : and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon ; and they two made a league together.

And king Solomon raised a levy out of all Israel ; and the levy was thirty thou- 13 sand men. And he sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month by courses : a month 14 they were in Lebanon, and two months at home : and Adoniram was over the levy.
 And Solomon had threescore and ten thousand who carried burdens, and fourscore 15 thousand hewers in the mountains ; besides the chief of Solomon's officers who were 16 over the work, three thousand and three hundred, who ruled over the people that wrought in the work. And the king commanded, and they brought great stones, 17 costly stones, and hewn stones, to lay the foundation of the house. And Solomon's 18 builders, and Hiram's builders, and the stonemasons hewed and prepared timber and stones to build the house.

- 6 And in the fourth hundred and eightieth year after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month Zif, which is the second month, he began to build the house of the LORD.
- 2 And the house which king Solomon built for the LORD, the length thereof was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits.
- 3 And the porch before the temple of the house, twenty cubits was the length thereof, according to the breadth of the house; and ten cubits was the breadth thereof before the house.
- 4 And for the house he made windows which could be opened or shut.
- 5 And against the wall of the house he built chambers round about, against the walls of the house round about, both of the temple and of the oracle: and he made chambers round about: the lowermost chamber was five cubits broad, and the middle was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad: for without in the wall of the house he made narrowed rests round about, that the beams should not be fastened in the walls of the house.
- 7 And the house, when it was building, was built of stone made ready before it was brought thither: so that there was neither hammer nor axe nor any tool of iron heard in the house, while it was building. The door for the middle chamber was in the right side of the house: and they went up with winding stairs into the middle chamber, and out of the middle into the third.
- 9 So he built the house, and finished it; and covered the house with beams and boards of cedar.
- 10 And then he built chambers against all the house, five cubits high: and they rested on the house with timber of cedar.
- 11 12 And the word of the LORD came to Solomon, saying, Concerning this house which thou art building, if thou wilt walk in my statutes, and execute my judgments, and keep all my commandments to walk in them; then will I perform my word with thee, which I spoke unto David thy father: and I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel. So Solomon built the house, and finished it.
- 13 And he built the walls of the house within with boards of cedar, from the floor of the house, unto the walls of the ceiling: and he covered them on the inside with wood, and covered the floor of the house with planks of fir.
- 14 And he built twenty cubits on the sides of the house, both the floor and the walls with boards of cedar: he even built them for it within, even for the oracle, even for the most holy place.
- 15 16 And the house, that is, the temple within it, was forty cubits long. And the cedar of the house within was carved with knops and open flowers; all was cedar; there was no stone seen.
- 17 And the oracle he prepared in the house within, to set there the ark of the covenant of the LORD. And the oracle within was twenty cubits in length, and twenty cubits in breadth, and twenty cubits in the height thereof; and he overlaid it with pure gold; and covered the altar with cedar.
- 18 So Solomon overlaid the house within with pure gold; and he made a partition by the chains of gold before the oracle; and he overlaid it with gold. And the whole house he overlaid with gold, until he had finished all the house: also the whole altar that was by the oracle he overlaid with gold.
- 19 And within the oracle he made two cherubims of olive tree, each ten cubits high.
- 20 And five cubits was the one wing of the cherub, and five cubits the other wing of the cherub: from the uttermost part of the one wing unto the uttermost part of the other were ten cubits.
- 21 And the other cherub was ten cubits: both the cherubims were of one measure and one size. The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so was it of the other cherub.
- 22 And he set the cherubims within the inner house: and they stretched forth the wings of the cherubims, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall; and their wings touched one another in the midst of the house.
- 23 And he overlaid the cherubims with gold.
- 24 And he carved all the walls of the house round about with carved figures of cherubims and palm trees and open flowers, within and without.
- 25 And the floor of the house he overlaid with gold, within and without.
- 26 And for the entering of the oracle he made doors of olive tree: the lintel and side posts were a fifth part of the wall.
- 27 The two doors also were of olive tree; and he carved upon them carvings of cherubims and palm trees and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold, and spread gold upon the cherubims, and upon the palm trees.
- 28 So also made he for the door of the temple posts of olive tree, a fourth part of the wall.
- 29 And the two doors were of fir tree: the two leaves of the one door were folding, and the two leaves of the other door were folding. And he carved thereon che-rubims and palm trees and open flowers; and covered them with gold fitted upon the carved work. And he built the inner court with three rows of hewn stone, and a row of cedar beams.

In the fourth year was the foundation of the house of the LORD laid, in the month Zif: and in the eleventh year, in the month Bul, which is the eighth month, was the house finished throughout all the parts thereof, and according to the designed form of it. So was he seven years and a half in building it.

But Solomon was building his own house thirteen years. And when he had finished all his house, he built also the house of the forest of Lebanon; the length thereof was a hundred cubits, and the breadth thereof fifty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits, upon four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams upon the pillars. And it was covered with cedar above upon the beams, that lay on forty-five pillars, fifteen in a row. And there were windows in three rows, and light was against light in three ranks. And all the doors and posts were square, with the windows; and light was against light in three ranks. And he made a porch of pillars; the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth thereof thirty cubits; and the porch was before them; and the other pillars and the thick beam were before them. Then he made a porch for the throne where he might judge, even the porch of judgment: and it was covered with cedar from one side of the floor to the other. And his house where he dwelt had another court within the porch, which was of the like work.

Solomon made also a house for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had taken to wife, like unto this porch.

All these were of costly stones, according to the measures of hewn stones, sawed with saws, within and without, even from the foundation unto the coping, and so on the outside towards the great court. And the foundation was of costly stones, even great stones, stones of ten cubits, and stones of eight cubits. And above were costly stones, after the measures of hewn stones, and cedars. And the great court round about was with three rows of hewn stones, and a row of cedar beams, both for the inner court of the house of the LORD, and for the porch of the house.

And king Solomon sent and fetched Hiram out of Tyre. He was a widow's son of the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a worker in brass: and he was filled with wisdom, and understanding, and skill to work all works in brass.

And he came to king Solomon, and wrought all his work. For he cast two pillars of brass, of eighteen cubits high apiece: and a line of twelve cubits did compass each of them about. And he made two capitals of molten brass, to set upon the tops of the pillars: the height of the one capital was five cubits, and the height of the other capital was five cubits: and nets of checker work, and wreaths of chain work, for the capitals which were upon the top of the pillars; seven for the one capital, and seven for the other capital. And he made the pillars, and two rows round about upon the one network, to cover the capital that was upon the top, with pomegranates; and so did he for the other capital. And the capitals that were upon the top of the pillars were of lily work in the porch, four cubits. And the capitals upon the two pillars had pomegranates also above, over against the belly which was by the network: and the pomegranates were two hundred in rows round about upon the other capital. And he set up the pillars in the porch of the temple: and he set up the right pillar, and called the name thereof Jachin [IT SHALL STAND]; and he set up the left pillar, and called the name thereof Boaz [IN STRENGTH]. And upon the top of the pillars was lily work: so was the work of the pillars finished.

And he made a molten sea, ten cubits from the one brim to the other: it was round all about, and its height was five cubits: and a line of thirty cubits did compass it round about. And under the brim of it round about there were knops compassing it, ten in a cubit, compassing the sea round about: the knops were cast in two rows, when it was cast. It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking towards the north, and three looking towards the west, and three looking towards the south, and three looking towards the east: and the sea was set above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inwards. And it was a hand breadth thick, and the brim thereof was wrought like the brim of a cup, with flowers of lilies: it contained two thousand baths.

And he made ten bases of brass; four cubits was the length of one base, and four cubits its breadth, and three cubits the height of it. And the work of the bases was in this manner: they had borders, and the borders were between the ledges: and on the borders that were between the ledges were lions, oxen, and cherubims: and upon the ledges there was a base above: and beneath the lions and oxen were certain additions made of thin work. And every base had four brazen wheels, and

- plates of brass : and the four corners thereof had undersetters : under the laver were undersetters molten, at the side of every addition. And the mouth of it within the capital and above was a cubit ; but the mouth thereof was round after the work of the base, a cubit and a half ; and also upon the mouth of it were gravings with their borders, foursquare, not round. And under the borders were four wheels ; and the axletrees of the wheels were joined to the base : and the height of a wheel was a cubit and half a cubit. And the work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot wheel : their axletrees, and their naves, and their fellows, and their spokes, were all molten. And there were four undersetters to the four corners of one base ; and the undersetters were of the very base itself. And on the top of the base there was a round compass of half a cubit high : and on the top of the base the ledges thereof and the borders thereof were of the same. For on the plates of the ledges thereof, and on the borders thereof, he graved cherubims, lions, and palm trees, according to the proportion of every one, and additions round about. After this manner he made the ten bases ; all of them had one casting, one measure, and one size. Then made he ten lavers of brass ; one laver contained forty baths ; and every laver was four cubits ; and upon every one of the ten bases one laver. And he put five bases on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house : and he set the sea on the right side of the house eastward over against the south.
- And Hiram made the lavers, and the shovels, and the basins. So Hiram made an end of doing all the work that he made king Solomon for the house of the LORD : the two pillars, and the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the two pillars ; and the two networks, to cover the two bowls of the capitals which were upon the top of the pillars ; and four hundred pomegranates for the two networks, even two rows of pomegranates for one network, to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were upon the pillars ; and the ten bases, and ten lavers on the bases ; and one sea, and twelve oxen under the sea ; and the pots, and the shovels, and the basins ; and all these vessels, which Hiram made to king Solomon for the house of the LORD, were made of bright brass. In the plain of the Jordan did the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zarthan. And Solomon left all the vessels unweighed, because they were exceeding many : for so great was the weight of the brass that it could not be ascertained.
- And Solomon made all the vessels that pertained unto the house of the LORD : the altar of gold, and the table of gold, whereupon the showbread was, and the lampholders of pure gold, five on the right side, and five on the left, before the oracle, with the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs of gold, and the bowls, and the snuffers, and the basins, and the spoons, and the censers of pure gold ; and the hinges of gold, both for the doors of the inner house, the most holy place, and for the doors of the outer house, or temple.
- So was ended all the work that king Solomon made for the house of the LORD. And Solomon brought in the holy things which David his father had dedicated ; even the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, did he put among the treasures of the house of the LORD.
- 8 THEN Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the children of Israel, unto king Solomon in Jerusalem, that they might bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion.
- And all the men of Israel assembled themselves unto king Solomon at the feast in the month Ethanim, which is the seventh month. And all the elders of Israel came, and the priests took up the ark. And they brought up the ark of the LORD, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle, even those did the priests and the Levites bring up. And king Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel, who were assembled unto him, were with him before the ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen, that could not be told nor numbered for multitude. And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD unto its place, into the oracle of the house, to the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubims. For the cherubims spread forth their two wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered the ark and the staves thereof above. And they drew out the staves, that the ends of the staves were seen out in the holy place before the oracle, and they were not seen without ; and there they are unto this day.
- There was nothing in the ark save the two tables of stone, which Moses put there at Horeb, when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt.
- And when the priests were come out of the holy place, the cloud filled the house of the LORD, so that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud; 11 for the glory of the LORD had filled the house of the LORD.

Then spake Solomon, The LORD said that he would dwell in the thick darkness. 12 I have surely built thee a house to dwell in, a settled place for thee to abide in for 13 ever. And the king turned his face about, and blessed all the congregation of Israel: 14 (and all the congregation of Israel stood;) and he said, Blessed be the LORD God 15 of Israel, who spoke with his mouth unto David my father, and hath with his hand fulfilled it, saying, Since the day that I brought forth my people Israel out of Egypt, 16 I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build a house, that my name might be therein; but I chose David to be over my people Israel. And it was in the heart 17 of David my father to build a house for the name of the LORD God of Israel. And 18 the LORD said unto David my father, Whereas it was in thy heart to build a house unto my name, thou didst well that it was in thy heart. Nevertheless thou shalt not 19 build the house; but thy son who shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house unto my name. And the LORD hath performed his word that he spoke, 20 and I am risen up in the room of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and have built a house for the name of the LORD God of 21 Israel. And I have set there a place for the ark, wherein is the covenant of the LORD, which he made with our fathers, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.

And Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the con- 22 gregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands towards the heavens:

And he said, LORD God of Israel, there is no God like thee, in the heavens above, 23 or on earth beneath, who keepest covenant and mercy with thy servants who walk before thee with all their heart: who hast kept with thy servant David my father 24 that thou promisedst him: thou spakest also with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thy hand, as it is this day. Therefore now, LORD God of Israel, keep with 25 thy servant David my father that which thou promisedst him, saying, There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel; only if thy children take 26 heed to their way, that they walk before me as thou hast walked before me. And now, O God of Israel, let thy word, I pray thee, be verified, which thou spakest unto thy servant David my father.

But will God indeed dwell on the earth? behold, the heavens, yea, the highest 27 heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house that I have built? Yet have 28 thou respect unto the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O LORD my God, to hearken unto the cry and to the prayer, which thy servant prayeth before thee to-day: that thine eyes may be open towards this house night and day, even to- 29 wards the place of which thou hast said, My name shall be there: that thou mayest hearken unto the prayer which thy servant shall make towards this place. And 30 hearken thou to the supplication of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, when they shall pray towards this place: and hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place: and when thou hearest, forgive.

If any man trespass against his neighbour, and he require an oath of him, and 31 the oath come before thine altar in this house: then hear thou in heaven, and do, 32 and judge thy servants, condemning the wicked, to bring his way upon his head; and justifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness.

When thy people Israel be smitten down before the enemy, because they have sin- 33 ned against thee, and shall turn again to thee, and confess thy name, and pray, and make supplication unto thee towards this house: then hear thou in heaven, and for- 34 give the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again unto the land which thou gavest unto their fathers.

When the heavens are shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned 35 against thee; if they pray towards this place, and confess thy name, and turn from their sin, when thou afflictest them: then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the sin of 36 thy servants, and of thy people Israel, that thou teach them the good way wherein they should walk, and give rain upon thy land, which thou hast given to thy people for an inheritance.

If there be in the land famine, if there be pestilence, blasting, mildew, locust, or 37 if there be caterpillar; if their enemy besiege them in the land of their cities; what- soever plague, whatsoever sickness there be; what prayer and supplication soever 38 be made by any man, or by all thy people Israel, who shall know each man the plague of his own heart, and spread forth his hands towards this house: then hear 39 thou in heaven thy dwelling place, and forgive, and do, and give to each man according to his ways, whose heart thou knowest; (for thou, even thou only, knowest

I. KINGS VIII.

- 40 the hearts of all the children of men;) that they may fear thee all the days that they live in the land which thou gavest unto our fathers.
- 41 Moreover concerning a stranger, who is not of thy people Israel, but cometh out of a far country for thy name's sake; (for they shall hear of thy great name, and of thy strong hand, and of thy stretched out arm;) when he shall come and pray towards this house; hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for: that all people of the earth may know thy name, to fear thee, as do thy people Israel; and that they may know that this house, which I have built, is called by thy name.
- 44 If thy people go out to battle against their enemy, whithersoever thou shalt send them, and shall pray unto the LORD towards the city which thou hast chosen, and towards the house that I have built for thy name: then hear thou in heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.
- 46 If they sin against thee, (for there is no man who sinneth not,) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them to the enemy, so that they carry them away captives unto the land of the enemy, far or near; yet if they shall bethink themselves in the land whither they were carried captives, and repent, and make supplication unto thee in the land of those who carried them captives, saying, We have sinned, and have done perversely, we have committed wickedness; and so return unto thee with all their heart, and with all their soul, in the land of their enemies, who led them away captive, and pray unto thee towards their land, which thou gavest unto their fathers, the city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name:
- 49 then hear thou their prayer and their supplication in heaven thy dwelling place, and maintain their cause, and forgive thy people who have sinned against thee, and all their transgressions wherein they have transgressed against thee, and give them compassion before those who carried them captive, that they may have compassion on them: for they are thy people, and thine inheritance, whom thou broughtest forth out of Egypt, from the midst of the furnace of iron: that thine eyes may be open unto the supplication of thy servant, and unto the supplication of thy people Israel, to hearken unto them in all that they call for unto thee. For thou didst separate them from among all the people of the earth, to be thine inheritance, as thou spakest by the hand of Moses thy servant, when thou broughtest our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord God.
- 54 And when Solomon had made an end of praying all this prayer and supplication unto the LORD, he arose from before the altar of the LORD, from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread up to the heavens.
- 55 And he stood, and blessed all the congregation of Israel with a loud voice, saying, Blessed be the LORD, who hath given rest unto his people Israel, according to all that he promised: there hath not failed one word of all his good promise, which he promised by the hand of Moses his servant. The LORD our God be with us, as he was with our fathers: let him not leave us, nor forsake us: that he may incline our hearts unto him, to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and his statutes, and his judgments, which he commanded our fathers. And let these my words, wherewith I have made supplication before the LORD, be nigh unto the LORD our God day and night, that he maintain the cause of his servant, and the cause of his people Israel at all times, as the matter shall require: that all the people of the earth may know that the LORD is God, and that there is none else. Let your heart therefore be perfect with the LORD our God, to walk in his statutes, and to keep his commandments, as at this day.
- 62 63 And the king, and all Israel with him, offered sacrifice before the LORD. And Solomon offered a sacrifice of peace offerings, which he offered unto the LORD, two and twenty thousand oxen, and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of the LORD. The same day did the king hallow the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD; for there he offered burnt offerings, and thank offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings; because the brazen altar that was before the LORD was too little to receive the burnt offerings, and thank offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings.
- 65 And at that time Solomon held a feast, and all Israel with him, a great congregation, from the entering in of Hamath unto the river of Egypt, before the LORD our God, seven days and seven days, even fourteen days. On the eighth day he sent the people away: and they blessed the king, and went unto their tents joyful and glad of heart for all the goodness that the LORD had done for David his servant, and for Israel his people.

AND when Solomon had finished the building of the house of the LORD, and the king's house, and all Solomon's desire which he was pleased to do, the LORD appeared to Solomon the second time, as he had appeared unto him at Gibeon. 9

And the LORD said unto him, I have heard thy prayer and thy supplication, that thou hast made before me: I have hallowed this house, which thou hast built, to put my name there for ever; and mine eyes and my heart shall be there perpetually. And if thou wilt walk before me, as David thy father walked, in integrity of heart, and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded thee, and wilt keep my statutes and my judgments: then I will establish the throne of thy kingdom upon Israel for ever, as I promised to David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man upon the throne of Israel. But if ye shall at all turn from following me, ye or your children, and will not keep my commandments and my statutes which I have set before you, but go and serve other gods, and worship them: then will I cut off Israel out of the land which I have given them; and this house, which I have hallowed for my name, will I cast out of my sight; and Israel shall be a proverb and a byword among all people: and at this house, which is high, every one who passeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss; and they shall say, Why hath the LORD done thus unto this land, and to this house? and they shall answer, Because they forsook the LORD their God, who brought forth their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and have taken hold upon other gods, and have worshipped them, and served them: therefore hath the LORD brought upon them all this evil.

And at the end of twenty years, when Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the LORD, and the king's house, (now Hiram the king of Tyre had furnished Solomon with cedar trees and fir trees, and with gold, according to all his desire,) then king Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee. And Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him; and they pleased him not. And he said, What cities are these which thou hast given me, my brother? And he called them the land of Cabul unto this day. And Hiram sent to the king sixscore talents of gold.

And this is the reason of the levy which king Solomon raised; for to build the house of the LORD, and his own house, and Millo, and the wall of Jerusalem, and Hazor, and Megiddo, and Gezer. For Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up, and taken Gezer, and burnt it with fire, and slain the Canaanites who dwelt in the city, and given it for a present unto his daughter, Solomon's wife. And Solomon built Gezer, and Beth-horon the lower, and Baalath, and Tadmor in the wilderness, in the land, and all the cities of store that Solomon had, and cities for his chariots, and cities for his horsemen, and that which Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion. And all the people who were left of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, who were not of the children of Israel, their children who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel also were not able utterly to destroy, upon those did Solomon levy a tribute of bondservice unto this day. But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no bondmen; but they were men of war, and his servants, and his princes, and his captains, and rulers of his chariots, and his horsemen. These were the chief of the officers that were over Solomon's work, five hundred and fifty, who bore rule over the people who wrought in the work.

But Pharaoh's daughter came up out of the city of David unto her house which Solomon had built for her: then did he build Millo.

And three times in a year did Solomon offer burnt offerings and peace offerings upon the altar which he built unto the LORD, and when he had finished the house he burnt incense upon the altar that was before the LORD.

And king Solomon made a ship in Ezion-geber, which is beside Elath, on the shore of the Red Sea, in the land of Edom. And Hiram sent in the ship his servants, shipmen who had knowledge of the sea, with the servants of Solomon. And they came to Ophir, and fetched from thence gold, four hundred and twenty talents, and brought it to king Solomon.

AND when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon in connexion with the name of the LORD, she came to prove him with hard questions. And she came to Jerusalem with a very great train, with camels that bore spices, and very much gold, and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart. And Solomon replied to all her questions: there was not any thing hid from the king, which he told her not. And when the queen of Sheba had seen all Solomon's wisdom, and the house that he had built, and the provisions of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his minis- 10

- ters, and their apparel, and his cupbearers, and his burnt offerings which he offered
6 In the house of the LORD; there was no more spirit in her. And she said to the king, It was a true report that I heard in mine own land of thine acts and of thy wisdom. Howbeit I believed not the words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it: and, behold, the half was not told me: thy wisdom and prosperity exceed the fame
8 which I heard. Happy are thy men, happy are these thy servants, who stand continually before thee, and who hear thy wisdom. Blessed be the LORD thy God, who delighted in thee, to set thee on the throne of Israel: because the LORD loved 10 Israel for ever, therefore made he thee king, to do judgment and justice. And she gave the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices very great store, and precious stones: there came no more such abundance of spices as these which 13 the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon. And king Solomon gave unto the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatsoever she asked, besides that which Solomon gave her of his royal bounty. So she turned and went to her own country, she and her servants.
- 11 And the ships also of Hiram, that brought gold from Ophir, brought in from Ophir 12 great plenty of almag trees, and precious stones. And the king made of the almag trees pillars for the house of the LORD, and for the king's house, harps also and psalteries for singers: there came no such almag trees, nor have been seen unto this day.
- 14 Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred three-15 score and six talents of gold, besides that which he had of the merchantmen, and of the traffic of the spice merchants, and of all the kings of Arabia, and of the governors of the country.
- 16 And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold: six hundred shekels 17 of gold went to one target. And he made three hundred shields of beaten gold; three pounds of gold went to one shield: and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.
- 18 Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with the best gold.
19 The throne had six steps, and the top of the throne was round behind: and there were stays on each side on the place of the seat, and two lions stood beside the stays.
20 And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps: there was not the like made in any kingdom. And all king Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold; none were of silver: it was nothing accounted of in the days of Solomon. For the king had at sea ships of Tharshish with the ships of Hiram: once in three years came the ships of Tharshish, bringing gold, and silver, and elephants' teeth, and apes, and peacocks.
- 23 So king Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth for riches and for wisdom.
24 And all the earth sought to Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his 25 heart. And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and garments, and armour, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year.
- 26 And Solomon gathered together chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he stationed in the cities for chariots, and with the king at Jerusalem.
- 27 And the king made silver to be in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars made he to be 28 as the sycamore trees that are in the vale, for abundance. And Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and a company of the king's merchants received the horses at a price. And a chariot came up and went out of Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for a hundred and fifty: and so for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, did they bring them out by their means.
- 11 BUT king Solomon loved many foreign women, besides the daughter of Pharaoh, women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Zidonians, and Hittites; of the nations concerning which the LORD said unto the children of Israel, Ye shall not go in to them, neither shall they come in unto you: for surely they will turn away your 3 heart after their gods: Solomon clave unto these in love. And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines: and his wives turned away
4 his heart. When Solomon was old, his wives turned away his heart after other gods: and his heart was not perfect with the LORD his God, as was the heart of 5 David his father. For Solomon went after Ashtoreth the goddess of the Zidonians, and after Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites. And Solomon did evil in the 7 sight of the LORD, and went not fully after the LORD, as did David his father. Then did Solomon build a high place for Chemosh, the abomination of Moab, in the hill that is before Jerusalem, and for Moloch, the abomination of the children of Ammon. And likewise did he for all his strange wives, who burnt incense and sacrificed unto their gods. 8

And the LORD was angry with Solomon, because his heart was turned from the LORD God of Israel, who had appeared unto him twice, and had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods: but he kept not that which the LORD commanded. Wherefore the LORD said unto Solomon, Forasmuch as this is done by thee, and thou hast not kept my covenant and my statutes, which I have commanded thee, I will surely rend the kingdom from thee, and will give it to thy servant. Notwithstanding in thy days I will not do it for David thy father's sake: but I will rend it out of the hand of thy son. Howbeit I will not rend away all the kingdom; but will give one tribe to thy son for David my servant's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake which I have chosen. 11 12 13

And the LORD stirred up an adversary unto Solomon, Hadad the Edomite: he was of the king's seed in Edom. When David was in Edom, and Joab the captain of the host was gone up to bury the slain, after he had smitten every male in Edom; (for six months did Joab remain there with all Israel, until he had cut off every male in Edom:) Hadad fled, he and certain Edomites of his father's servants with him, to go into Egypt; Hadad being yet a little child. And they arose out of Midian, and came to Paran: and they took men with them out of Paran, and they came to Egypt, unto Pharaoh king of Egypt; who gave him a house, and appointed him victuals, and gave him land. And Hadad found great favour in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him to wife the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tahpenes the queen. And the sister of Tahpenes bore him Genubath his son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house: and Genubath was in Pharaoh's household among the sons of Pharaoh. 14 15 16 17 18

And when Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers, and that Joab the captain of the host was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, Let me depart, that I may go to mine own country. Then Pharaoh said unto him, But what hast thou lacked with me, that, behold, thou seekest to go to thine own country? And he answered, Nothing: howbeit let me go in any wise. 19 20 21 22

And God stirred him up another adversary, Rezon the son of Eliadah, who fled from his lord Hadarezer king of Zobah: and he gathered men unto him, and became captain over a band, when David slew them of Zobah: and they went to Damascus, and dwelt therein, and reigned in Damascus. And he was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon, besides the mischief that Hadad did: and he abhorred Israel, and reigned over Syria. 23 24 25

And Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephrathite of Zereda, Solomon's servant, whose mother's name was Zeruiah, a widow woman, even he lifted up his hand against the king. And this was the cause that he lifted up his hand against the king: Solomon built Millo, and repaired the breaches of the city of David his father. And the man Jeroboam was a mighty man of valour: and Solomon seeing the young man that he was industrious, he made him ruler over all the charge of the house of Joseph. 26 27 28

And at that time when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him in the way; and he had clad himself with a new garment; and they two were alone in the field: and Ahijah caught the new garment that was on him, and rent it in twelve pieces: and he said to Jeroboam, Take thee ten pieces: for thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Behold, I will rend the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and will give ten tribes to thee: (but he shall have one tribe for my servant David's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel:) because he hath forsaken me, and hath worshipped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Zidonians, Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Milcom the god of the children of Ammon, and hath not walked in my ways, to do that which is right in mine eyes, and to keep my statutes and my judgments, as did David his father. Howbeit I will not take the kingdom out of his hand: but he shall reign all the days of his life for David my servant's sake, whom I chose, because he kept my commandments and my statutes: but I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand, and will give it unto thee, even ten tribes. And unto his son will I give one tribe, that David my servant may have a lamp always before me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen me to put my name there. And I will take thee, and thou shalt reign according to all that thy soul desireth, and shalt be king over Israel. And if thou wilt hearken unto all that I command thee, and wilt walk in my ways, and do right in my sight, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as David my servant did; I will be with thee, and build thee a sure house, as I built for Da- 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38

I. KINGS XII.

39 vid, and will give Israel unto thee. And I will for this afflict the seed of David, but 40 not for ever. Solomon sought therefore to kill Jeroboam. And Jeroboam arose, and fled into Egypt, unto Shishak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

41 And the rest of the words of Solomon, and all that he did, and his wisdom, are 42 they not written in the book of the acts of Solomon? And the time that Solomon 43 reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel was forty years. And Solomon slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David his father; and Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.

12 AND REHOBAM went to Shechem: for all Israel were come to Shechem to make him king.

2 And when Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who was yet in Egypt, heard of it, (for he 3 had fled from the presence of king Solomon, and Jeroboam dwelt in Egypt;) they sent and called him. And Jeroboam and all the congregation of Israel came, and 4 spoke unto Rehoboam, saying, Thy father made our yoke grievous; now therefore make thou the grievous service of thy father, and his heavy yoke which he put upon
5 us, lighter, and we will serve thee. And he said unto them, Depart yet for three days, then come again to me. And the people departed.

6 And king Rehoboam consulted with the old men, who stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, and said, How do ye advise that I may answer this people?
7 And they spoke unto him, saying, If thou wilt be a servant unto this people this day, and wilt serve them, and answer them, and speak good words to them, then they will be thy servants for ever.

8 But he forsook the counsel of the old men, which they had given him, and consulted with the young men who were grown up with him, and who stood before him:
9 and he said unto them, What counsel give ye that we may answer this people, who have spoken to me, saying, Make the yoke which thy father did put upon us lighter?

10 And the young men who were grown up with him spoke unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou speak unto this people who spoke unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it lighter unto us; thus shalt thou say unto them, 11 My little finger is thicker than my father's loins. And now whereas my father did lade you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke: my father hath chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had 13 appointed, saying, Come to me again the third day. And the king answered the 14 people roughly, and forsook the old men's counsel that they gave him; and spoke to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, and I will add to your yoke: my father also chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

15 Wherefore the king hearkened not unto the people; for the cause was from the LORD, that he might perform his saying, which the LORD spoke by Ahijah the Shilonite unto Jeroboam the son of Nebat. So when all Israel saw that the king hearkened not unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: to your tents, O Israel: now see to thine own house, David. So Israel departed unto their tents. But as for the children of Israel who dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

18 Then king Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was over the tribute; and all Israel stoned him with stones, so that he died. Therefore king Rehoboam made speed to get him
19 up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem. So Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

20 And when all Israel heard that Jeroboam was come again, they sent and called him unto the congregation, and made him king over all Israel: there was none who followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah only.

21 And when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah, with the tribe of Benjamin, a hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, who were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring the kingdom again to 22 Rehoboam the son of Solomon. But the word of God came unto Shemaiah the man 23 of God, saying, Speak unto Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and unto 24 all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the remnant of the people, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel: return every man to his house; for this thing is from me. They hearkened therefore to the word of the LORD, and returned to depart, according to the word of the LORD.

25 Then Jeroboam built Shechem in mount Ephraim, and dwelt therein; and went out from thence, and built Penuel. And Jeroboam said in his heart, Now shall the kingdom return to the house of David: if this people go up to do sacrifice in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then shall the heart of this people turn again unto their lord, even unto Rehoboam king of Judah, and they shall kill me, and go again to Rehoboam king of Judah. Whereupon the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold, and said unto them, It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem: behold thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt. And he set the one in Beth-el, and the other put he in Dan. And this thing became a sin; for the people went to worship before the one, even unto Dan. And he made a house of high places, and made priests of the lowest of the people, who were not of the sons of Levi. And Jeroboam ordained a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like unto the feast that is in Judah, and he offered upon the altar. So did he in Beth-el, sacrificing unto the calves that he had made: and he placed in Beth-el the priests of the high places which he had made. So he offered upon the altar which he had made in Beth-el the fifteenth day of the eighth month, even in the month which he had devised of his own heart; and ordained a feast unto the children of Israel: and he offered upon the altar, and burnt incense.

And, behold, there came a man of God, a prophet, out of Judah by the word of the LORD unto Beth-el; and Jeroboam stood by the altar to burn incense. And he cried against the altar in the word of the LORD, and said, O altar, altar, thus saith the LORD; Behold, a child shall be born unto the house of David, Josiah by name; and upon thee shall he slaughter the priests of the high places who burn incense upon thee, and men's bones shall be burnt upon thee. And he gave a sign the same day, saying, This is the sign which the LORD hath spoken; Behold, the altar shall be rent, and the ashes that are upon it shall be poured out.

And when king Jeroboam heard the saying of the man of God, who had cried against the altar in Beth-el, he put forth his hand from the altar, saying, Lay hold on him. And his hand, which he put forth against him, dried up, so that he could not pull it in again to him. The altar also was rent, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of the LORD. And the king answered and said unto the man of God, Entreat now the face of the LORD thy God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored to me again. And the man of God besought the LORD, and the king's hand was restored to him again, and became as it was before. And the king said unto the man of God, Come home with me, and refresh thyself, and I will give thee a reward. And the man of God said unto king, If thou wilt give me half thy house, I will not go in with thee, neither will I eat bread nor drink water in this place: for so was it charged me by the word of the LORD, saying, Eat no bread, nor drink water, nor turn again by the same way that thou camest. So he went another way, and returned not by the way that he came to Beth-el.

Now there dwelt an old prophet in Beth-el; and his sons came and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Beth-el: the words which he had spoken unto the king, these they told also to their father. And their father said unto them, What way went he? For his sons had seen what way the man of God went, who came from Judah. And he said unto his sons, Saddle me the ass. So they saddled him the ass; and he rode thereon, and went after the man of God, and found him sitting under an oak: and he said unto him, Art thou the man of God who came from Judah? And he said, I am. Then he said unto him, Come home with me, and eat bread. And he said, I may not return with thee, nor go in with thee: neither will I eat bread nor drink water with thee in this place: for it was said to me by the word of the LORD, Thou shalt eat no bread nor drink water there, nor turn again to go by the way that thou camest. He said unto him, I am a prophet also as thou art; and an angel spoke unto me by the word of the LORD, saying, Bring him back with thee into thy house, that he may eat bread and drink water. But he lied unto him. So he went back with him, and did eat bread in his house, and drank water.

And as they sat at the table, and did eat, the word of the LORD came unto the prophet who brought him back: and he cried unto the man of God who came from Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Forasmuch as thou hast disobeyed the mouth of the LORD, and hast not kept the commandment which the LORD thy God commanded thee, but camest back, and hast eaten bread and drunk water in the place, of the which the LORD did say to thee, Eat no bread, and drink no water; thy carcase shall not come unto the sepulchre of thy fathers.

And after he had eaten bread, and after he had drunk water, he saddled the ass, for 24 the prophet whom he had brought back. And when he was gone, a lion met him by the way, and slew him : and his carcase was cast in the way, and the ass stood by it, 25 the lion also stood by the carcase. And, behold, men passed by, and saw the carcase cast in the way, and the lion standing by the carcase : and they came and told it in the city where the old prophet dwelt. And when the prophet who brought him back from the way heard thereof, he said, It is the man of God, who was disobedient unto the word of the LORD : therefore the LORD hath delivered him unto the lion, which hath torn him, and slain him, according to the word of the LORD, which he 27 spoke unto him. And he spoke to his sons, saying, Saddle me the ass. And they 28 saddled it. And he went and found his carcase cast in the way, and the ass and the lion standing by the carcase : the lion had not eaten the carcase, nor torn the ass. 29 And the prophet took up the carcase of the man of God, and laid it upon the ass, and brought it back : and the old prophet came to the city, to mourn and to bury 30 him. And he laid his carcase in his own grave ; and they mourned over him, saying, Alas, my brother ! And after he had buried him, he spoke to his sons, saying, 31 When I am dead, then bury me in the sepulchre wherein the man of God is buried ; 32 lay my bones beside his bones : for the saying which he cried by the word of the LORD against the altar in Beth-el, and against all the houses of the high places which are in the cities of Samaria, shall surely come to pass. 33 After this thing Jeroboam turned not from his evil way, but returned and made again of the lowest of the people priests of the high places : whosoever would, he 34 consecrated him, and he became one of the priests of the high places. And this thing became sin unto the house of Jeroboam, even to cut it off, and to destroy it from off the face of the earth.

14 At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam fell sick. And Jeroboam said to his wife, Arise, I pray thee, and disguise thyself, that thou be not known to be the wife of Jeroboam ; and get thee to Shiloh : behold, there is Ahijah the prophet, who told 3 me that I should be king over this people. And take with thee ten loaves, and cracknels, and a cruise of honey, and go to him : he shall tell thee what shall become of the child. And Jeroboam's wife did so, and arose, and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahijah. But Ahijah could not see ; for his eyes were set 5 by reason of his age. And the LORD said unto Ahijah, Behold, the wife of Jeroboam cometh to ask a thing of thee for her son ; for he is sick : thus and thus shalt thou say unto her : for when she cometh in, she shall feign herself to be another woman. 6 And when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet, as she came in at the door, he said, Come in, thou wife of Jeroboam ; why feignest thou thyself to be another ? for I 7 am sent to thee with heavy tidings. Go, tell Jeroboam, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Forasmuch as I exalted thee from among the people, and made thee prince 8 over my people Israel, and rent the kingdom away from the house of David, and gave it thee : and yet thou hast not been as my servant David, who kept my commandments, and who followed me with all his heart, to do that only which was right in 9 mine eyes ; but hast done evil above all who were before thee ; for thou hast gone and made thee other gods, and molten images, to provoke me to anger, and hast 10 cast me behind thy back : therefore, behold, I will bring evil upon the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam every male, and him who is shut up and left in Israel, and will take away the remnant of the house of Jeroboam, as a 11 man taketh away dung, till it be all gone. Him who dieth of Jeroboam in the city shall the dogs eat ; and him who dieth in the field shall the birds of the air eat : for 12 the LORD hath spoken it. Arise thou therefore, get thee to thine own house : 13 and when thy feet enter into the city, the child shall die. And all Israel shall mourn for him, and bury him : for he only of Jeroboam shall come to the grave, because in him there is found some good thing towards the LORD God of Israel in the house 14 of Jeroboam. Moreover the LORD shall raise him up a king over Israel, who shall 15 cut off the house of Jeroboam this day : but when ? even now. For the LORD shall smite Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water, and he shall root up Israel out of this good land, which he gave to their fathers, and shall scatter them beyond the river, because they have made their groves, provoking the LORD to anger. 16 And he shall give Israel up because of the sins of Jeroboam, who did sin, and who made Israel to sin. 17 And Jeroboam's wife arose, and departed, and came to Tirzah : and when she 18 came to the threshold of the door, the child died ; and they buried him ; and all Israel mourned for him, according to the word of the LORD, which he spoke by the hand of his servant Ahijah the prophet.

And the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he warred, and how he reigned, behold, 19 they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. And the days 20 which Jeroboam reigned were two and twenty years: and he slept with his fathers, and Nadab his son reigned in his stead.

And Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty and 21 one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD did choose out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there. And his mother's name was Naamah an Ammonitess. And Judah did evil 22 in the sight of the LORD, and they provoked him to jealousy with their sins which they had committed, above all that their fathers had done. For they also built them 23 high places, and images, and groves, on every high hill, and under every green tree. And there were also sodomites in the land: and they did according to all the abo- 24 minations of the nations which the LORD cast out before the children of Israel.

And in the fifth year of king Rehoboam, Shishak king of Egypt came up against 25 Jerusalem: and he took away the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the trea- 26 sures of the king's house; he even took away all: and he took away all the shields of gold which Solomon had made. And king Rehoboam made in their stead brazen 27 shields, and committed them unto the hands of the chief of the guard, who kept the door of the king's house. And when the king went into the house of the LORD, the 28 guard bore them, and brought them back into the guard chamber.

Now the rest of the acts of Rehoboam, and all that he did, are they not written in 29 the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? And there was war between Re- 30 hoboam and Jeroboam all their days. And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and 31 was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And his mother's name was Naamah an Ammonitess. And Abijam his son reigned in his stead.

NOW IN THE eighteenth year of king Jeroboam the son of Nebat, reigned Abi- 15 jam over Judah. Three years reigned he in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Maachah, the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. And he walked in all the sins of his 3 father, which he had done before him: and his heart was not perfect with the LORD his God, as the heart of David his father. Nevertheless for David's sake did the 4 LORD his God give him a lamp in Jerusalem, to set up his son after him, and to establish Jerusalem: because David did that which was right in the eyes of the 5 LORD, and turned not aside from any thing that he commanded him all the days of his life, save only in the matter of Uriah the Hittite. And there was war between 6 Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life.

Now the rest of the acts of Abijam, and all that he did, are they not written in the 7 book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? And there was war between Abijam and Jeroboam. And Abijam slept with his fathers; and they buried him in the city 8 of David; and Asa his son reigned in his stead.

And in the twentieth year of Jeroboam, king of Israel, reigned Asa over Judah. 9 And forty and one years reigned he in Jerusalem. And his grandmother's name was Maachah, the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. And Asa did that which was right in the 11 eyes of the LORD, as did David his father. And he took away the sodomites out of 12 the land, and removed all the idols that his fathers had made. And also Maachah 13 his grandmother, even her he removed from being queen, because she had made an idol in a grove; and Asa destroyed her idol, and burnt it by the brook Kidron. But 14 the high places were not removed: nevertheless Asa's heart was perfect with the LORD all his days. And he brought in the holy things which his father had dedi- 15 cated, and the things which himself had dedicated, into the house of the LORD, silver, and gold, and vessels.

And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days. And 16 17 Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, that he might not suffer any to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

Then Asa took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasures of the 18 house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants: and king Asa sent them to Ben-hadad, the son of Tabrimon, the son of Hezion, king of Syria, who dwelt at Damascus, saying, There is a league 19 between me and thee, and between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent unto thee a present of silver and gold; come and break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me.

So Ben-hadad hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of the hosts against 20 the cities of Israel, and smote Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-beth-maachah, and all Cinnetho, with all the land of Naphtali. And when Baasha heard thereof, he left off 21 building of Ramah, and dwelt in Tirzah.

- 22 Then king Asa assembled by proclamation all Judah; none were exempted: and they took away the stones of Ramah, and the timber wherewith Baasha had built it; and king Asa built with them Geba of Benjamin, and Mizpah.
- 23 The rest of all the acts of Asa, and all his might, and all that he did, and the cities which he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
- 24 Nevertheless in the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet. And Asa slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father; and Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead.
- 25 AND Nadab the son of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned over Israel two years. And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin.
- 27 And Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him; and Baasha smote him at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines; for Nadab and all Israel laid siege to Gibbethon. Even in the third year of Asa king of Judah did Baasha slay him, and reigned in his stead. And when he reigned, he smote all the house of Jeroboam; he left not to Jeroboam any that breathed, until he had destroyed him, according unto the saying of the LORD, which he spoke by his servant Ahijah the Shilonite: because of the sins of Jeroboam which he sinned, and which he made Israel sin, by his provocation wherewith he provoked the LORD God of Israel to anger. Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.
- 33 IN the third year of Asa king of Judah began Baasha the son of Ahijah to reign over all Israel in Tirzah, twenty and four years. And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin.
- 16 Then the word of the LORD came to Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha, saying, Forasmuch as I exalted thee out of the dust, and made thee prince over my people Israel; and thou hast walked in the way of Jeroboam, and hast made my people Israel to sin, to provoke me to anger with their sins; behold, I will take away the posterity of Baasha, and the posterity of his house; and will make thy house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat. Him who dieth of Baasha in the city shall the dogs eat; and him who dieth of his in the fields shall the birds of the air eat.
- 5 Now the rest of the acts of Baasha, and what he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? So Baasha slept with his fathers, and was buried in Tirzah; and Elah his son reigned in his stead.
- 7 And also by the hand of the prophet Jehu the son of Hanani came the word of the LORD against Baasha, and against his house, even for all the evil that he did in the sight of the LORD, in provoking him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam; and because he killed him.
- 8 IN the twenty and sixth year of Asa king of Judah began Elah the son of Baasha to reign over Israel in Tirzah, two years. And his servant Zimri, captain of half his chariots, conspired against him, as he was in Tirzah, drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza steward of his house in Tirzah. And Zimri went in and smote him, and killed him, in the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his stead. And when he began to reign, as soon as he sat on his throne, he slew all the house of Baasha: he left him not one male, neither of his kinsfolks, nor of his friends. Thus did Zimri destroy all the house of Baasha, according to the word of the LORD, which he spoke against Baasha by Jehu the prophet, for all the sins of Baasha, and the sins of Elah his son, by which they sinned, and by which they made Israel to sin, in provoking the LORD God of Israel to anger with their vanities.
- 14 Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
- 15 IN the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of Judah did Zimri reign seven days in Tirzah. And the people were encamped against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines. And the people who were encamped heard say, Zimri hath conspired, and hath also slain the king: wherefore all Israel made Omri, the captain of the host, king over Israel that day in the camp. And Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah. And when Zimri saw that the city was taken, he went into the palace of the king's house, and burnt the king's house over him with fire, and died, for his sins which he sinned in doing evil in the sight of the LORD, in walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he did, to make Israel to sin. Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and his treason 20 that he wrought, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

I. KINGS XVII.

Then were the people of Israel divided into two parts: half of the people followed 21 Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king; and half followed Omri. But the people 22 who followed Omri prevailed against the people who followed Tibni the son of Ginath: so Tibni died, and Omri reigned.

IN the thirty and first year of Asa king of Judah began Omri to reign over Israel, 23 twelve years: six years reigned he in Tirzah. And he bought the hill Shomeron of 24 Shomer for two talents of silver, and built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he built, after the name of Shomer, owner of the hill, Shomeron. But Omri 25 wrought evil in the eyes of the LORD, and did worse than all who were before him.
For he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sin where- 26 with he made Israel to sin, to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger with their vanities. Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and his might that he 27 showed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
So Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria; and Ahab his son 28 reigned in his stead.

AND in the thirty and eighth year of Asa king of Judah began Ahab the son of 29
Omri to reign over Israel: and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty and two years. And Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the sight of the 30 LORD above all who were before him. And, as if it had been a light thing for him 31 to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, he took to wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Zidonians, and went and served Baal, and worshipped him. And he reared up an altar for Baal in the house of Baal, which he had built 32 in Samaria. And Ahab made a grove; and Ahab did more to provoke the LORD 33
God of Israel to anger than all the kings of Israel who were before him.

In his days did Hiel the Beth-elite build Jericho: he laid the foundation thereof 34 in Abiram his firstborn, and set up the gates thereof in his youngest son Segub, according to the word of the LORD, which he spoke by Joshua the son of Nun.

AND Elijah the Tishbite, who was of the inhabitants of Gilead, said unto Ahab, 17
As the LORD God of Israel liveth, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew or rain these years, but according to my word.

And the word of the LORD came unto him, saying, Get thee hence, and turn thee 2 3 eastward, and hide thyself by the brook Cherith, that is before the Jordan. And 4 thou shalt drink of the brook; and I have commanded the ravens to feed thee there.
So he went and did according unto the word of the LORD; for he went and dwelt 5 by the brook Cherith, that is before the Jordan. And the ravens brought him bread 6 and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening; and he drank of the brook. And after a while the brook dried up, because there had been no rain in 7 the land.

And the word of the LORD came unto him, saying, Arise, get thee to Sarepta, 8 9 which belongeth to Zidon, and dwell there: behold, I have commanded a widow woman there to sustain thee. So he arose and went to Sarepta. And when he came 10 to the gate of the city, behold, the widow woman was there gathering sticks: and he called to her, and said, Fetch me, I pray thee, a little water in a vessel, that I may drink. And as she was going to fetch it, he called to her, and said, Bring me, I 11 pray thee, a morsel of bread in thy hand. And she said, As the LORD thy God liveth, 12
I have not a cake, but a handful of meal in a barrel, and a little oil in a cruise:
and, behold, I am gathering sticks, that I may go in and dress it for me and my son, that we may eat it, and die. And Elijah said unto her, Fear not; go and do as thou 13 hast said; but make me thereof a little cake first, and bring it unto me, and afterwards make for thee and for thy son. For thus saith the LORD God of Israel, The 14 barrel of meal shall not waste, neither shall the cruise of oil fail, until the day that the LORD sendeth rain upon the earth. And she went and did according to the 15 saying of Elijah: and she, and he, and her house, did eat a full year. And the barrel of meal wasted not, neither did the cruise of oil fail, according to the word of the 16
LORD, which he spoke by Elijah.

And after these things, the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell 17 sick; and his sickness was so sore, that there was no breath left in him. And she 18 said unto Elijah, What have I to do with thee, O thou man of God? art thou come unto me to call my son to remembrance, and to slay my son? And he said unto 19 her, Give me thy son. And he took him out of her bosom, and carried him up into an upper room, where he abode, and laid him upon his own bed. And he cried unto 20

the LORD; and said, O LORD my God, hast thou also brought evil upon the widow 21 with whom I sojourn, by slaying her son? And he stretched himself upon the child three times, and cried unto the LORD, and said, O LORD my God, I pray thee, let 22 this child's soul come into him again. And the LORD heard the voice of Elijah; 23 and the soul of the child came into him again, and he revived. And Elijah took the child, and brought him down out of the chamber into the house, and delivered him 24 unto his mother: and Elijah said, See, thy son liveth. And the woman said to Elijah, Now by this I know that thou art a man of God, and that the word of the LORD in thy mouth is truth.

18 AND after many days the word of the LORD came to Elijah in the third year, saying, Go, show thyself unto Ahab; and I will send rain upon the land. And Elijah went to show himself unto Ahab. And there was a sore famine in Samaria.

3 And Ahab called Obadiah, who was the governor of his house. (Now Obadiah
 4 feared the LORD greatly: for when Jezebel cut off the prophets of the LORD, Obadiah took a hundred prophets, and hid them by fifty in a cave, and fed them with 5 bread and water.) And Ahab said unto Obadiah, Go into the land, unto all fountains of water, and unto all brooks: peradventure we may find grass to save the 6 horses and mules alive, that we lose not all the beasts. So they divided the land between them to pass throughout it: Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself.

7 And as Obadiah was in the way, behold, Elijah met him: and he knew him, and 8 fell on his face, and said, Art thou my lord Elijah? And he answered him, I am:
 9 go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here. And he said, In what have I sinned, that 10 thou wouldest deliver thy servant into the hand of Ahab, to slay me? As the LORD thy God liveth, there is no nation or kingdom, whither my lord hath not sent to seek thee: and when they said, He is not there; he took an oath of the kingdom and 11 nation, that they found thee not. And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, 12 Elijah is here. And as soon as I am gone from thee, the Spirit of the LORD shall carry thee whither I know not; and so when I come and tell Ahab, and he cannot find thee, he shall slay me: but I thy servant have feared the LORD from my youth.
 13 Was it not told my lord what I did when Jezebel slew the prophets of the LORD, how I hid a hundred men of the LORD'S prophets by fifty in a cave, and fed them 14 with bread and water? And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is 15 here; and he shall slay me. And Elijah said, As the LORD of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, I will surely show myself unto him to-day.

16 So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him: and Ahab went to meet Elijah.
 17 And when Ahab saw Elijah, Ahab said unto him, Art thou he who troubleth Israel?
 18 And he answered, I have not troubled Israel; but thou, and thy father's house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the LORD, and thou hast followed Baalim.
 19 Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel unto mount Carmel, and the prophets of Baal four hundred and fifty, and the prophets of the groves four hundred, 20 who eat at Jezebel's table. So Ahab sent unto all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together unto mount Carmel.

21 And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two opinions? if the LORD be God, follow him; but if Baal, then follow him. And the 22 people answered him not a word. Then said Elijah unto the people, I, even I only, remain a prophet of the LORD; but Baal's prophets are four hundred and fifty men.
 23 Let them therefore give us two bullocks; and let them choose one bullock for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under: and I will 24 dress the other bullock, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under: and call ye on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of the LORD; and the God who answereth by fire, let him be God. And all the people answered and said, It is well spoken.

25 And Elijah said unto the prophets of Baal, Choose you one bullock for yourselves, and dress it first; for ye are many; and call on the name of your gods, but put no 26 fire under. And they took the bullock which was given them, and they dressed it, and called on the name of Baal from morning even until noon, saying, O Baal, hear us. But there was no voice, nor any that answered. And they leaped upon the 27 altar which was made. And at noon, Elijah mocked them, and said, Cry aloud; for he is a god; either he is talking, or he is pursuing, or he is in a journey, or per-28 adventure he sleepeeth, and must be awaked. And they cried aloud, and cut themselves after their manner with knives and lancets, till the blood gushed out upon 29 them. And when mid-day was past, and they prophesied until the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, there was neither voice, nor any to answer, nor any that regarded.

And Elijah said unto all the people, Come near unto me. And all the people came 30 near unto him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD that was broken down. And 31 Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, unto whom the word of the LORD came, saying, Israel shall be thy name: and with 32 the stones he built an altar in the name of the LORD: and he made a trench about the altar, as great as would contain two measures of seed. And he put the wood 33 in order, and cut the bullock in pieces, and laid it on the wood, and said, Fill four barrels with water, and pour it on the burnt sacrifice, and on the wood. And he said, 34 Do it the second time. And they did it the second time. And he said, Do it the third time. And they did it the third time. And the water ran round about the 35 altar; and he filled the trench also with water. And at the time of the offering of 36 the evening sacrifice, Elijah the prophet came near, and said, LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, let it be known this day that thou art God in Israel, and that I am thy servant, and that I have done all these things at thy word. Hear me, 37 O LORD, hear me, that this people may know that thou art the LORD God, and that thou hast turned their heart back again. Then the fire of the LORD fell, and 38 consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench.

And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces; and they said, The LORD, 39 he is the God! the LORD, he is the God! And Elijah said unto them, Take the 40 prophets of Baal; let not one of them escape. And they took them: and Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon, and slew them there.

And Elijah said unto Ahab, Get thee up, eat and drink; for there is a sound of 41 abundance of rain. So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. And Elijah went up to 42 the top of Carmel; and he bowed himself down upon the earth, and put his face between his knees, and said to his servant, Go up now, look towards the west. And 43 he went up, and looked, and said, There is nothing. And seven times he bade him do it. And at the seventh time, he said, Behold, there ariseth a little cloud out of 44 the west, like a man's hand. And he said, Go up, say unto Ahab, Prepare thy chariot, and get thee down, that the rain stop thee not. And in the mean while, the heavens 45 were black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. And Ahab rode, and went to Jezreel. And the hand of the LORD was on Elijah; and he girded up his 46 loins, and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

And Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and how he had slain all the prophets with the sword. Then Jezebel sent a messenger unto Elijah, saying, So let 19 the gods do to me, and more also, if I make not thy life as the life of one of them by to-morrow about this time. And when he saw that, he arose, and went for his 3 life, and came to Beer-sheba, which belongeth to Judah, and left his servant there.

But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down 4 under a juniper tree: and he requested for himself that he might die; and said, It is enough; now, O LORD, take away my life; for I am not better than my fathers. And as he lay and slept under a juniper tree, behold, then an angel touched 5 him, and said unto him, Arise and eat. And he looked, and, behold, there was a 6 cake baked on the coals, and a cruise of water at his head. And he did eat and drink, and laid him down again. And the angel of the LORD came again the 7 second time, and touched him, and said, Arise and eat; because the journey is too great for thee. And he arose, and ate and drank, and went in the strength of that 8 food forty days and forty nights unto Horeh the mount of God.

And he came thither unto a cave, and lodged there; and, behold, the word of 9 the LORD came to him, and he said unto him, What doest thou here, Elijah? and 10 he said, I have been jealously concerned for the LORD God of hosts; for the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword; and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away. And he said, Go forth, and stand upon the mount before the LORD. 11 And, behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind rent the mountains, and broke in pieces the rocks before the LORD; but the LORD was not in the wind: and after the wind an earthquake; but the LORD was not in the earthquake: and after the earthquake a fire; but the LORD was not in the fire: and after the 12 fire a still small voice. And when Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle, and went out, and stood in the entering in of the cave. And, behold, there came 13 a voice unto him, and said, What doest thou here, Elijah? And he said, I have been very jealous for the LORD God of hosts; because the children of Israel have 14 forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword; and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away. And the LORD said unto him, Go, return on thy way to the wilderness of Damascus: and when thou comest, anoint Hazael to be king over Syria: and Jehu the son of Nimshi shalt thou anoint to be king over Israel: and Elisha the son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah shalt thou anoint to be prophet in thy room. And him who escapeth the sword of Hazael shall Jehu slay: and him who escapeth from the sword of Jehu shall Elisha slay. Yet I will leave seven thousand in Israel, all the knees which have not bowed unto Baal, and every mouth which hath not kissed him.

So he departed thence, and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, who was ploughing with twelve yoke of oxen before him, and he with the twelfth: and Elijah passed by him, and cast his mantle upon him. And he left the oxen, and ran after Elijah, and said, Let me, I pray thee, kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow thee. And he said unto him, Go back again: for what have I done to thee? And he returned back from him, and took a yoke of oxen, and slew them, and boiled their flesh with the instruments of the oxen, and gave unto the people, and they did eat. Then he arose, and went after Elijah, and ministered unto him.

20 AND Ben-hadad the king of Syria gathered all his host together: and there were thirty and two kings with him, and horses, and chariots: and he went up and besieged Samaria, and warred against it. And he sent messengers to Ahab king of Israel into the city, and said unto him, Thus saith Ben-hadad, Thy silver and thy gold are mine; thy wives also and thy children, even the goodliest, are mine. And the king of Israel answered and said, My lord, O king, according to thy saying, I am thine, and all that I have.

And the messengers came again, and said, Thus speaketh Ben-hadad, saying, Although I have sent unto thee, saying, Thou shalt deliver me thy silver, and thy gold, and thy wives, and thy children; yet I will send my servants unto thee to-morrow about this time, and they shall search thy house, and the houses of thy servants; and whatsoever is pleasant in thine eyes, they shall put it in their hand, and take it away. Then the king of Israel called all the elders of the land, and said, Mark, I pray you, and see how this man seeketh mischief; for he sent unto me for my wives, and for my children, and for my silver, and for my gold; and I denied him not. And all the elders and all the people said unto him, Hearken not unto him, nor consent. Wherefore he said unto the messengers of Ben-hadad, Tell my lord the king, All that thou didst send for to thy servant at the first I will do; but this thing I may not do. And the messengers departed, and brought him word again.

And Ben-hadad sent unto him, and said, The gods do so unto me, and more also, if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people who follow me. And the king of Israel answered and said, Tell him, Let not him who girdeth on his armour boast himself as he who putteth it off. And when Ben-hadad heard this message, as he was drinking, he and the kings in the pavilions, he said unto his servants, Set yourselves in array. And they set themselves in array against the city.

And, behold, there came a prophet unto Ahab king of Israel, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Hast thou seen all this great multitude? behold, I will deliver it into thy hand this day; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD. And Ahab said, By whom? And he said, Thus saith the LORD, Even by the young men, the servants of the princes of the provinces. Then he said, Who shall order the battle? And he answered, Thou.

Then he numbered the young men of the princes of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty-two: and after them he numbered all the people, even all the children of Israel, being seven thousand. And they went out at noon. But Ben-hadad was drinking himself drunk in the pavilions, he and the kings, the thirty and two kings who helped him. And the young men of the princes of the provinces went out first; and Ben-hadad sent out, and they told him, saying, There are men come out of Samaria. And he said, Whether they be come out for peace, take them alive; or whether they be come out for war, take them alive. So these young men of the princes of the provinces came out of the city, and the army which followed them. And they slew every one his man: and the Syrians fled; and Israel pursued them: and Ben-hadad the king of Syria escaped on a horse with the horsemen. And the king of Israel went out, and smote the horses and chariots, and slew the Syrians with a great slaughter. And the prophet came to the king of Israel, and said unto him, Go, strengthen thyself, and mark, and see what thou doest: for at the return of the year the king of Syria will come up against thee.

And the servants of the king of Syria said unto him, Their gods are gods of the hills; therefore they were stronger than we; but let us fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they. And do this thing, Take the kings 24 away, every man out of his place, and put captains in their rooms: and number thee 25 an army, like the army that thou hast lost, horse for horse, and chariot for chariot: and we will fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they. And he hearkened unto their voice, and did so.

And at the return of the year Ben-hadad numbered the Syrians, and went up to 26 Aphek, to fight against Israel. And the children of Israel were numbered, and were 27 all vittalued, and went against them: and the children of Israel pitched before them like two little flocks of kids; but the Syrians filled the country. And there came 28 a man of God, and spoke unto the king of Israel, and said, Thus saith the LORD, Because the Syrians have said, The LORD is God of the hills, but he is not God of the valleys, therefore will I deliver all this great multitude into thy hand, and ye shall know that I am the LORD. And they pitched one over against the other 29 seven days. And on the seventh day the battle was joined: and the children of Israel slew of the Syrians a hundred thousand footmen on one day. But the rest fled 30 to Aphek, into the city; and there a wall fell upon twenty and seven thousand of the men who were left. And Ben-hadad fled, and came into the city, into an inner chamber.

And his servants said unto him, Behold now, we have heard that the kings of the 31 house of Israel are merciful kings: let us, I pray thee, put sackcloth on our loins, and ropes upon our heads, and go out to the king of Israel: peradventure he will save thy life. So they girded sackcloth on their loins, and put ropes on their heads, 32 and came to the king of Israel, and said, Thy servant Ben-hadad saith, I pray thee, let me live. And he said, Is he yet alive? he is my brother. Now the men did 33 diligently observe whether any thing would come from him, and did hastily catch it: and they said, Thy brother Ben-hadad. Then he said, Go ye, bring him. Then Ben-hadad came forth to him; and he caused him to come up into the chariot. And 34 Ben-hadad said unto him, The cities, which my father took from thy father, I will restore; and thou shalt make streets for thee in Damascus, as my father made in Samaria. Then said Ahab, I will send thee away with this covenant. So he made a covenant with him, and sent him away.

And a certain man of the sons of the prophets said unto his neighbor in the 35 word of the LORD, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man refused to smite him. Then said he unto him, Because thou hast not obeyed the voice of the LORD, be- 36 hold, as soon as thou art departed from me, a lion shall slay thee. And as soon as he was departed from him, a lion found him, and slew him. Then he found another 37 man, and said, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man smote him, so that in smiting he wounded him. So the prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, 38 and disguised himself with a bandage upon his face. And as the king passed by, he 39 cried unto the king: and he said, Thy servant went out into the midst of the battle: and, behold, a man turned aside, and brought a man unto me, and said, Keep this man: if by any means he be missing, then shall thy life be for his life, or else thou shalt pay a talent of silver. And as thy servant was busy here and there, he 40 was gone. And the king of Israel said unto him, So shall thy judgment be; thyself hast decided it. And he hastened, and took the bandage away from his face; and 41 the king of Israel discerned him that he was of the prophets. And he said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Because thou hast let go out of thy hand a man whom I appointed to utter destruction, therefore thy life shall go for his life, and thy people for his people. And the king of Israel went to his house heavy and displeased, 43 and came to Samaria.

AND after these things, Naboth the Jezreelite, who dwelt in Jezreel, had a vine- 21 yard in Samaria near to the palace of king Ahab. And Ahab spoke unto Naboth, saying, Give me thy vineyard, that I may have it for a garden of herbs, because it is near unto my house: and I will give thee for it a better vineyard than it; or, if it seem good to thee, I will give thee the worth of it in money. And Naboth said to 3 Ahab, It is forbidden me by the LORD, that I should give the inheritance of my fathers unto thee.

And Ahab came into his house heavy and displeased because of the word which 4 Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him; for he had said, I will not give thee the inheritance of my fathers. And he laid him down upon his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no bread. But Jezebel his wife came to him, and said unto 5 him, Why is thy spirit so sad, that thou eatest no bread? And he said unto her, Because I spoke unto Naboth the Jezreelite, and said unto him, Give me thy vine- 6

- yard for money; or else, if it please thee, I will give thee another vineyard for it; and he answered, I will not give thee my vineyard. And Jezebel his wife said unto him, Dost thou now govern the kingdom of Israel? arise, and eat bread, and let thy heart be merry: I will give thee the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite. So she wrote letters in Ahab's name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters unto the elders and to the nobles who were in his city, dwelling with Naboth. And she wrote in the letters, saying, Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people: and set two men, sons of wickedness, before him, to bear witness against him, saying, Thou didst blaspheme God and the king. And then carry him out, and stone him, that he may die.
- And the men of his city, even the elders and the nobles who were the inhabitants in his city, did as Jezebel had sent unto them, and as it was written in the letters which she had sent unto them. They proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people. And there came in two men, children of wickedness, and sat before him: and the wicked men witnessed against him, even against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, Naboth did blaspheme God and the king. Then they carried him forth out of the city, and stoned him with stones, that he died. Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, Naboth is stoned, and is dead.
- And when Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned, and was dead, she said to Ahab, Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give thee for money; for Naboth is not alive, but dead. And when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, he rose up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.
- And the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, who is in Samaria: behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, whither he is gone down to possess it. And thou shalt speak unto him, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Hast thou killed, and also taken possession? And thou shalt speak unto him, saying, Thus saith the LORD, In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth shall dogs lick thy blood, even thine. And Ahab said to Elijah, Hast thou found me, O mine enemy? And he answered, I have found thee; because thou hast sold thyself to work evil in the sight of the LORD. Behold, I will bring evil upon thee, and will take away thy posterity, and will cut off from Ahab every male, and him who is shut up and left in Israel, and will make thy house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah, for the provocation wherewith thou hast provoked me to anger, and made Israel to sin. And of Jezebel also spoke the LORD, saying, The dogs shall eat Jezebel by the wall of Jezreel. Him who dieth of Ahab in the city the dogs shall eat; and him who dieth in the field shall the birds of the air eat.
- But there was none like unto Ahab, who did sell himself to work wickedness in the sight of the LORD, whom Jezebel his wife stirred up. And he did very abominably in following idols, according to all things which the Amorites did, whom the LORD cast out before the children of Israel.
- And when Ahab heard those words, he rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and went as a mourner. And the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, Seest thou how Ahab humbleth himself before me? because he humbleth himself before me, I will not bring the evil in his days; but in his son's days will I bring the evil upon his house.
- 22 AND they continued three years without war between Syria and Israel. And in the third year Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came down to the king of Israel. And the king of Israel said unto his servants, Know ye that Ramoth in Gilead is ours, and we are still, and take it not out of the hand of the king of Syria? And he said unto Jehoshaphat, Wilt thou go with me to battle to Ramoth-gilead? And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, I am as thou art, my people as thy people, my horses as thy horses.
- And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, Inquire, I pray thee, at the word of the LORD to-day. Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall I go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king.
- And Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD besides, that we might inquire of him? And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man, Micaiah the son of Imlah, by whom we may inquire of the LORD: but I hate him; for he doth not prophesy good concerning me, but evil. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so.

Then the king of Israel called an officer, and said, Hasten hither Micaiah the son 9 of Imlah. And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah sat each on 10 his throne, having put on their robes, in a void place in the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them. And Zedekiah the son of 11 Chenaanah made him horns of iron: and he said, Thus saith the LORD, With these shalt thou push the Syrians, until thou have consumed them. And all the prophets 12 prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper; for the LORD shall deliver it into the king's hand.

And the messenger who was gone to call Micaiah spoke unto him, saying, Behold 13 now, the words of the prophets declare good unto the king with one mouth: let thy word, I pray thee, be like the word of one of them, and speak that which is good.
And Micaiah said, As the LORD liveth, what the LORD saith unto me, that will I 14 speak. So he came to the king. 15

And the king said unto him, Micaiah, shall we go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall we forbear? And he answered him, Go, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king. And the king said unto him, How many times 16 shall I adjure thee that thou tell me nothing but that which is true in the name of the LORD? And he said, I saw all Israel scattered upon the hills, as sheep that 17 have not a shepherd: and the LORD said, These have no master: let them return every man to his house in peace. And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, Did 18 I not tell thee that he would prophesy no good concerning me, but evil? And he 19 said, Hear ye therefore the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing by him on his right hand and on his left.
And the LORD said, Who shall persuade Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ra- 20 moth-gilead? And one said on this manner, and another said on that manner. And 21 there came forth a spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will persuade him.
And the LORD said unto him, Wherewith? And he said, I will go forth, and I 22 will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And he said, Thou shalt persuade him, and prevail also: go forth, and do so. Now therefore, behold, the 23 LORD hath permitted a lying spirit to enter into the mouth of all these thy prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil concerning thee.

But Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah went near, and smote Micaiah on the cheek, 24 and said, Which way went the Spirit of the LORD from me to speak unto thee?
And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt see in that day, when thou shalt go into an 25 inner chamber to hide thyself.

And the king of Israel said, Take Micaiah, and carry him back unto Amon the 26
governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son; and say, Thus saith the king, 27
Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I come in peace. And Micaiah said, If thou return at all in 28 peace, the LORD hath not spoken by me. And he said, Harken, O people, every one of you.

So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth- 29 gilead. And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, when he was to disguise 30 himself, and enter into the battle, Put thou on my robes. And the king of Israel disguised himself, and went into the battle. But the king of Syria commanded his 31 thirty and two captains who had rule over his chariots, saying, Fight neither with small nor great, save only with the king of Israel. And when the captains of the chariots 32 saw Jehoshaphat, they said, Surely it is the king of Israel. And they turned aside to fight against him: and Jehoshaphat cried out. And when the captains of the 33 chariots perceived that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him. And a certain man drew a bow at a venture, and smote the king of Israel be- 34 tween the joints of his armour: wherefore he said unto the driver of his chariot, Turn thy hand, and carry me out of the host; for I am sick, being wounded. And 35 the battle increased that day: and the king was stayed up in his chariot against the Syrians, and died at evening: and the blood ran out of the wound into the midst of the chariot. And there went a proclamation throughout the host about the going 36 down of the sun, saying, Every man to his city, and every man to his own country.
So the king died, and was brought to Samaria; and they buried the king in Sama- 37 ria. And one washed the chariot in the pool of Samaria; and the dogs licked up 38 his blood, according unto the word of the LORD which he spoke.

Now the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all that he did, and the ivory house which 39 he made, and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? So Ahab slept with his fathers; and Ahaziah his 40 son reigned in his stead.

II. KINGS I.

- 41 And Jehoshaphat the son of Asa began to reign alone over Judah in the fourth 42 year of Ahab king of Israel. Jehoshaphat was thirty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's 43 name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. And he walked in all the ways of Asa his father; he turned not aside from it, doing that which was right in the eyes of the LORD: nevertheless the high places were not taken away; for the people offered 44 and burnt incense yet in the high places. And Jehoshaphat made peace with the king of Israel.
- 45 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, and his might that he showed, and how he warred, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
46 And the remnant of the sodomites, who remained in the days of his father Asa, he 47 took out of the land. There was then no king in Edom: a deputy was king.
- 48 Jehoshaphat had ten ships of Tharshish to go to Ophir for gold: but they went 49 not; for the ships were broken at Ezion-geber. Then said Ahaziah the son of Ahab unto Jehoshaphat, Let my servants go with thy servants in the ships. But Jehoshaphat would not. And Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his 50 fathers in the city of David his father: and Jehoram his son reigned in his stead.
- 51 AHAZIAH the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria the seven-52 teenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned two years over Israel. And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made 53 Israel to sin: for he served Baal, and worshipped him, and provoked to anger the LORD God of Israel, according to all that his father had done.

THE SECOND BOOK OF THE KINGS,

COMMONLY CALLED,

THE FOURTH BOOK OF THE KINGS.

- 1 THEN Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab. And Ahaziah fell down through a lattice in his upper chamber that was in Samaria, and was sick: and he sent messengers, and said unto them, Go, inquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron
3 whether I shall recover of this disease. But the angel of the LORD said to Elijah the Tishbite, Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say unto them, Is it not because there is not a God in Israel, that ye go to inquire of 4 Baal-zebub the god of Ekron? Now therefore thus saith the LORD, Thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die. And Elijah departed, and told him this.
- 5 And when the messengers turned back unto him, he said unto them, Why are ye 6 now turned back? And they said unto him, There came a man up to meet us, and said unto us, Go, turn again unto the king who sent you, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Is it not because there is not a God in Israel, that thou sendest to inquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron? therefore thou shalt not come down from 7 that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die. And he said unto them, What manner of man was he who came up to meet you, and told you these words?
8 And they answered him, He was clothed with a hairy garment, and girt with a girdle of leather about his loins. And he said, It is Elijah the Tishbite.
- 9 Then the king sent unto him a captain of fifty with his fifty. And he went up to him: and, behold, he sat on the top of a hill. And he spoke unto him, Thou man
10 of God, the king hath said, Come down. And Elijah answered and said to the captain of fifty, If I be a man of God, then fire will come down from the heavens, and consume thee and thy fifty. And there came down fire from the heavens, and consumed him and his fifty. Again also he sent unto him another captain of fifty with his fifty. And he answered and said unto him, O man of God, thus hath the king 12 said, Come down quickly. And Elijah answered and said unto them, If I be a man of God, fire will come down from the heavens, and consume thee and thy fifty. And the fire of God came down from the heavens, and consumed him and his fifty. And 13 he sent again a captain of the third fifty with his fifty. And the third captain of fifty went up, and came and fell on his knees before Elijah, and besought him, and said unto him, O man of God, I pray thee, let my life, and the life of these fifty thy servants, be precious in thy sight. Behold, there came fire down from the heavens, 14 and burnt up the two captains of the former fifties with their fifties; therefore let my life now be precious in thy sight. And the angel of the LORD said unto Eli- 15 jah, Go down with him: be not afraid of him. And he arose, and went down with him unto the king. And he said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Forasmuch as 16 thou hast sent messengers to inquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron, is it not because there is no God in Israel to inquire of his word? therefore thou shalt not come down off that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die.

So he died according to the word of the LORD which Elijah had spoken. And 17
Jehoram reigned in his stead in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah; because he had no son. Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which 18 he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

AND when the LORD would take up Elijah into heaven by a whirlwind, Elijah 2 went with Elisha from Gilgal. And Elijah said unto Elisha, Tarry here, I pray thee; for the LORD hath sent me to Beth-el. And Elisha said unto him, As the LORD 3 liveth, and as thou thyself livest, I will not leave thee. So they went down to Bethel. And the sons of the prophets who were at Beth-el came forth to Elisha, and 4 said unto him, Knowest thou that the LORD will take away thy master from over thy head to-day? And he said, Yea, I know it; hold ye your peace. And Elijah 5 said unto him, Elisha, tarry here, I pray thee; for the LORD hath sent me to Jericho. And he said, As the LORD liveth, and as thou thyself livest, I will not 6 leave thee. So they came to Jericho. And the sons of the prophets who were at Jericho came to Elisha, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the LORD will take 7 away thy master from over thy head to-day? And he answered, Yea, I know it; hold ye your peace. And Elijah said unto him, Tarry, I pray thee, here; for the 8 LORD hath sent me to the Jordan. And he said, As the LORD liveth, and as thou thyself livest, I will not leave thee. And they two went on. And fifty men of the 9 sons of the prophets went, and stood to view afar off: and they two stood by the Jordan. And Elijah took his mantle, and wrapped it together, and smote the waters, 10 and they were divided hither and thither, so that they two went over on dry ground.

And when they were gone over, Elijah said unto Elisha, Ask what I shall do for 9 thee, before I be taken away from thee. And Elisha said, I pray thee, let a double portion of thy spirit be upon me. And he said, Thou hast asked a hard thing: never- 10 theless, if thou see me when I am taken from thee, it shall be so unto thee; but if not, it shall not be so.

And as they still went on, and talked, behold, there appeared a chariot of fire, 11 and horses of fire, and parted them both asunder; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven. And Elisha saw it, and he cried, My father, my father, the cha- 12 riot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof. And he saw him no more: and he took hold of his own clothes, and rent them in two pieces. He took up also the mantle 13 of Elijah that fell from him, and went back, and stood by the bank of the Jordan; and he took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and smote the waters, and said, 14 Where is the LORD God of Elijah? and when he also had smitten the waters, they parted hither and thither; and Elisha went over.

And when the sons of the prophets who were opposite at Jericho saw it, they said, 15
The spirit of Elijah doth rest on Elisha. And they came to meet him, and bowed themselves to the ground before him. And they said unto him, Behold now, there 16 are with thy servants fifty strong men; let them go, we pray thee, and seek thy master: lest peradventure the Spirit of the LORD hath taken him up, and cast him upon one of the mountains, or into one of the valleys. And he said, Ye shall not 17 send. And when they urged him till he was ashamed, he said, Send. They sent therefore fifty men; and they sought three days, but found him not. And when 18 they came again to him, (for he tarried at Jericho,) he said unto them, Did I not say unto you, Go not?

And the men of the city said unto Elisha, Behold, I pray thee, the situation of 19 this city is pleasant, as my lord seeth; but the water is bad, and the ground barren.
And he said, Bring me a new cruise, and put salt therein. And they brought it to 20 him. And he went forth unto the spring of the waters, and cast the salt in there, 21 and said, Thus saith the LORD, I have healed these waters; there shall not be

II. KINGS III.

22 from thence any more death or barren land. So the waters were healed unto this day, according to the saying of Elisha which he spoke.

23 And he went up from thence unto Beth-el: and as he was going up by the way, there came forth little children out of the city, and mocked him, and said unto him, 24 Go up, thou bald head; go up, thou bald head. And he turned back, and looked on them, and cursed them in the name of the LORD. And there came forth two 25 she bears out of the wood, and tore forty and two children of them. And he went from thence to mount Carmel, and from thence he returned to Samaria.

3 NOW JEHORAM the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned twelve years. And he wrought evil in the sight of the LORD; but not like his father, and like his 3 mother: for he put away the statue of Baal that his father had made. Nevertheless he cleaved unto the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin; he departed not therefrom.

4 And Mesha king of Moab was a sheep-master, and rendered unto the king of Israel a hundred thousand lambs, and a hundred thousand rams, with the wool. But 5 when Ahab was dead, the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.

6 And king Jehoram went out of Samaria the same time, and numbered all Israel. 7 And he went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, The king of Moab hath rebelled against me: wilt thou go with me against Moab to battle? And he said, I will go up: I am as thou art, my people as thy people, and my horses as thy 8 horses. And he said, Which way shall we go up? And he answered, The way 9 through the wilderness of Edom. So the king of Israel went, and the king of Judah, and the king of Edom: and they fetched a compass of seven days' journey: and there was no water for the host, and for the cattle that followed them.

10 And the king of Israel said, Alas! that the LORD hath called these three kings 11 together, to deliver them into the hand of Moab! But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD, that we may inquire of the LORD by him? And one of the king of Israel's servants answered and said, Here is Elisha the son of Shaphat, who attended on Elijah. And Jehoshaphat said, The word of the LORD is 12 with him. So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went 13 down to him. And Elisha said unto the king of Israel, What have I to do with thee? get thee to the prophets of thy father, and to the prophets of thy mother. And the king of Israel said unto him, Nay; for the LORD hath called these three 14 kings together, to deliver them into the hand of Moab. And Elisha said, As the LORD of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, surely, were it not that I regard the presence of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would not look towards thee, nor 15 see thee. But now bring me a minstrel. And when the minstrel played, the Spirit 16 of the LORD came upon him. And he said, Thus saith the LORD, Make this 17 valley full of ditches. For thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not see wind, neither shall ye see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, that ye may drink, both 18 ye, and your cattle, and your beasts. And this is but a light thing in the sight of the 19 LORD: he will deliver the Moabites also into your hand. And ye shall smite every fenced city, and every choice city, and shall fell every good tree, and stop all wells of water, and mar every good piece of land with stones.

20 And in the morning, when the thank offering was offered, behold, there came 21 water by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water. And when all the Moabites heard that the kings were come up to fight against them, they gathered all 22 who were able to put on armour, and upwards, and stood in the border. And they rose up early in the morning, and the sun shone upon the water, and the Moabites 23 saw the water on the other side as red as blood: and they said, This is blood: the kings are surely slain, and they have smitten one another: now therefore, Moab, to 24 the spoil. And when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them: but they went forward smiting 25 the Moabites, even into their country. And they beat down the cities, and on every good piece of land cast every man his stone, and filled it; and they stopped all the wells of water, and felled all the good trees: until they left in Kir-haraseth only the 26 stone walls thereof; howbeit the slingers went about it, and smote it. And when the king of Moab saw that the battle was too sore for him, he took with him seven hundred men who drew swords, to break through even unto the king of Edom: but 27 they could not. Then he took his eldest son who should have reigned in his stead, and offered him for a burnt offering upon the wall. And there was great indignation against Israel: and they departed from him, and returned to their own land.

NOW there cried a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets unto Elisha, saying, Thy servant my husband is dead; and thou knowest that thy servant did fear the LORD: and the creditor is come to take unto him my two sons to be bondmen. And Elisha said unto her, What shall I do for thee? tell me, what hast thou in the house? And she said, Thy handmaid hath not any thing in the house, save a little oil. Then he said, Go, borrow three vessels abroad of all thy neighbours, even empty vessels; borrow not a few. And when thou art come in, thou shalt shut the door upon thee and upon thy sons, and shalt pour out into all those vessels, and thou shalt set aside that which is full. So she went from him, and shut the door upon her and upon her sons, who brought the vessels to her; and she poured out. And when the vessels were full, she said unto her son, Bring me yet a vessel. And he said unto her, There is not a vessel more. And the oil stayed. Then she came and told the man of God. And he said, Go, sell the oil, and pay thy debt, and live thou and thy children on the rest.

And there was a day on which Elisha passed to Shunem, where was a wealthy woman; and she constrained him to eat bread. And as oft as he passed by, he turned in thither to eat bread. And she said unto her husband, Behold now, I perceive that this is a holy man of God, who passeth by us continually. Let us make a little upper chamber, I pray thee, on the wall; and let us set for him there a bed, and a table, and a stool, and a lamp: and when he cometh to us, he shall turn in thither. And it happened on a day, that he came thither, and he turned into the chamber, and lay there. And he said to Gehazi his servant, Call this Shunammite. And when he had called her, she stood before him. And he said unto him, Say now unto her, Behold, thou hast been careful for us with all this care; what is to be done for thee? wouldest thou be spoken for to the king, or to the captain of the host? And she answered, I dwell among mine own people. And he said, What then is to be done for her? And Gehazi answered, Verily she hath no child, and her husband is old. And he said, Call her. And when he had called her, she stood at the door. And he said, About this season, according to the time of life, thou shalt embrace a son. And she said, Nay, my lord, thou man of God, do not lie unto thy handmaid. And the woman conceived, and bore a son at the season that Elisha had said unto her, according to the time of life.

And when the child was grown, it fell on a day, that he went out to his father to the reapers. And he said unto his father, My head, my head. And he said to a lad, Carry him to his mother. And when he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees till noon, and then died. And she went up, and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the door upon him, and went out. And she called unto her husband, and said, Send me, I pray thee, one of the young men, and one of the asses, that I may run to the man of God, and come again. And he said, Wherefore wilt thou go to him to-day? it is neither new moon, nor sabbath. And she said, It shall be well. Then she saddled an ass, and said to her servant, Lead the way, and go forward; slack not thy riding for me, except I bid thee. So she went and came unto the man of God to mount Carmel. And when the man of God saw her afar off, he said to Gehazi his servant, Behold, yonder is that Shunammite: run now, I pray thee, to meet her, and say unto her, Is it well with thee? is it well with thy husband? is it well with the child? And she answered, It is well. And when she came to the man of God to the hill, she caught him by the feet: but Gehazi came near to thrust her away. And the man of God said, Let her alone; for her soul is troubled within her: and the LORD hath hid it from me, and hath not told me. Then she said, Did I desire a son of my lord? did I not say, Do not deceive me? Then he said to Gehazi, Gird up thy loins, and take my staff in thy hand, and go thy way: if thou meet any man, salute him not; and if any salute thee, answer him not again: and lay my staff upon the face of the child. And the mother of the child said, As the LORD liveth, and as thou thyself livest, I will not leave thee. And he arose, and followed her. And Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staff upon the face of the child; but there was neither voice, nor hearing. Wherefore he went again to meet him, and told him, saying, The child is not awaked. And when Elisha was come into the house, behold, the child was dead, and laid upon his bed. He went in therefore, and shut the door upon them twain, and prayed unto the LORD. And he went up, and lay upon the child, and put his mouth upon his mouth, and his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands: and he stretched himself upon the child; and the flesh of the child waxed warm. Then he returned, and walked in the house to and fro; and went up, and stretched himself upon him: and the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes.

II. KINGS V.

36 And he called Gehazi, and said, Call this Shunammite. So he called her. And 37 when she was come in unto him, he said, Take up thy son. Then she went in, and fell at his feet, and bowed herself to the ground, and took up her son, and went out.

38 AND Elisha came again to Gilgal: and there was a dearth in the land; and the sons of the prophets were sitting before him: and he said unto his servant, Set on 39 the great pot, and boil pottage for the sons of the prophets. And one went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine, and gathered thereof wild gourds his lap full, and came and shred them into the pot of pottage: for they knew them 40 not. So they poured out for the men to eat. And as they were eating of the pottage, they cried out, and said, O thou man of God, there is death in the pot. And 41 they could not eat thereof. But he said, Then bring meal. And he cast it into the pot: and he said, Pour out for the people, that they may eat. And there was nothing hurtful in the pot.

42 And there came a man from Baal-shalisha, and brought the man of God bread of the firstfruits, twenty loaves of barley, and full ears of corn in the husk thereof.
43 And he said, Give unto the people, that they may eat. And his servant said, What, should I set this before a hundred men? He said again, Give the people, that they 44 may eat: for thus saith the LORD, They shall eat, and shall leave thereof. So he set it before them, and they did eat, and left thereof, according to the word of the LORD.

5 NOW Naaman, captain of the host of the king of Syria, was a great man with his master, and honourable, because by him the LORD had given deliverance unto 2 Syria: he was also a mighty man in valour, but he was a leper. And the Syrians had gone out by companies, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel 3 a little maid; and she waited on Naaman's wife. And she said unto her mistress, Would that my lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria! for he would recover 4 him of his leprosy. And Naaman went in, and told the king, saying, Thus and thus 5 said the maid who is of the land of Israel. And the king of Syria said, Depart, go thither, and I will send a letter unto the king of Israel. And he departed, and took with him ten talents of silver, and six thousand pieces of gold, and ten changes of 6 raiment. And he brought the letter to the king of Israel, saying, Now when this letter is come unto thee, behold, I have therewith sent Naaman my servant to thee, 7 that thou mayest recover him of his leprosy. And when the king of Israel had read the letter, he rent his clothes, and said, Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man doth send unto me to recover a man of his leprosy? wherefore consider, I pray you, and see how he seeketh a quarrel against me.

8 And when Elisha the man of God had heard that the king of Israel had rent his clothes, he sent to the king, saying, Wherefore hast thou rent thy clothes? let him 9 come now to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel. So Naaman came with his horses and with his chariot, and stood at the door of the house of 10 Elisha. And Elisha sent a messenger unto him, saying, Go and wash in the Jordan 11 seven times, and thy flesh shall come again to thee, and thou shalt be clean. But Naaman was wroth, and went away, and said, Behold, I thought, He will surely come out to me, and stand, and call on the name of the LORD his God, and strike his 12 hand over the place, and recover the leper. Are not Amana and Pharpar, rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? may I not wash in them, and be 13 clean? So he turned and went away in a rage. And one of his servants came near, and spoke unto him, and said, My father, if the prophet had bid thee do some great thing, wouldest thou not have done it? how much rather then, when he saith to thee, 14 Wash, and be clean? Then went he down, and dipped himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God: and his flesh came again like unto the flesh of a little child, and he was clean.

15 And he returned to the man of God, he and all his company, and came, and stood before him: and he said, Behold, now I know that there is no God in all the earth, 16 but in Israel: now therefore, I pray thee, take a blessing of thy servant. But he said, As the LORD liveth, before whom I stand, I will receive none. And he urged 17 him to take it; but he refused. And Naaman said, If not; then I pray thee let there be given to thy servant two mules' burden of earth; for thy servant will henceforth 18 offer neither burnt offering nor sacrifice unto other gods, but unto the LORD. In this thing the LORD pardon thy servant, that when my master went into the temple of Rimmon to worship there, and he leaned on my hand, and I bowed myself in the 19 house of Rimmon. The LORD pardon thy servant in this thing. And he said unto him, Go in peace. So he departed from him a little way.

But Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said, Behold, my master hath 20 spared Naaman this Syrian, in not receiving at his hands that which he brought: but, as the LORD liveth, I will run after him, and take somewhat of him. So Gehazi followed after Naaman. And when Naaman saw him running after him, he 21 lighted down from the chariot to meet him, and said, Is all well? And he said, All is well. My master hath sent me, saying, Behold, even now there are come to me 22 from mount Ephraim two young men of the sons of the prophets: give them, I pray thee, a talent of silver, and two changes of garments. And Naaman said, Be content, take two talents. And he urged him, and bound two talents of silver in two 23 bags, with two changes of garments, and laid them upon two of his servants; and they bore them before him. And when he came to a secret place, he took them from their 24 hand, and stowed them in the house: and he let the men go, and they departed. But he went in, and stood before his master. And Elisha said unto him, Whence comest 25 thou, Gehazi? And he said, Thy servant hath been no where. And he said unto him, It was not concealed from me, when the man turned again from his chariot to 26 meet thee. Was it a time to receive money, and to receive garments, and oliveyards, and vineyards, and sheep, and oxen, and menservants, and maidservants? The leprosy therefore of Naaman shall cleave unto thee, and unto thy seed for ever. 27 And he went out from his presence a leper as white as snow.

AND the sons of the prophets said unto Elisha, Behold now, the place where we 6 dwell with thee is too strait for us. Let us go, we pray thee, unto the Jordan, and take thence every man a beam, and let us make us a place there, where we may dwell. And he answered, Go ye. And one said, Be content, I pray thee, and go with thy servants. 3 And he answered, I will go. So he went with them. And when they came to the Jordan, they cut down wood. But as one was felling a beam, the axe head fell into 4 the water: and he cried, and said, Alas, master! for it was borrowed. And the man 5 of God said, Where fell it? And he showed him the place. And he cut down a stick, and cast it in thither; and the iron did swim. Therefore said he, Take it up 7 to thee. And he put out his hand, and took it.

THEN the king of Syria warred against Israel, and took counsel with his servants, saying, In such and such a place shall be my camp. And the man of God sent 8 unto the king of Israel, saying, Beware that thou pass not such a place; for thither the Syrians are come down. And the king of Israel sent to the place which the man 10 of God told him and warned him of, and saved himself thereby, not once nor twice.

Therefore the heart of the king of Syria was sore troubled for this thing; and he 11 called his servants, and said unto them, Will ye not show me who betrays me to the king of Israel? And one of his servants said, None, my lord, O king: but Elisha, 12 the prophet who is in Israel, telleth the king of Israel the words that thou speakest in thy bedchamber. And he said, Go and spy where he is, that I may send and fetch 13 him. And it was told him, saying, Behold, he is in Dothan.

Therefore sent he thither horses, and chariots, and a great host: and they came 14 by night, and compassed the city about. And when the servant of the man of God was risen early, and gone forth, behold, a host compassed the city, both with horses 15 and chariots. And his servants said unto him, Alas, my master! what shall we do? And he answered, Fear not: for they who are with us are more than they who are 16 with them. And Elisha prayed, and said, LORD, I pray thee, open his eyes, that he may see. And the LORD opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and, 17 behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha. And when they came down to him, Elisha prayed unto the LORD, and said, Smite 18 this people, I pray thee, with blindness. And he smote them with blindness according to the word of Elisha. And Elisha said unto them, This is not the way, neither 19 is this the city: follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom ye seek. But he led them to Samaria. And when they were come into Samaria, Elisha said, 20 LORD, open the eyes of these men, that they may see. And the LORD opened their eyes, and they saw; and, behold, they were in the midst of Samaria.

And the king of Israel said unto Elisha, when he saw them, My father, shall I 21 smite them? shall I smite them? And he answered, Thou shalt not smite them: wouldst thou smite those whom thou hast taken captive with thy sword and with 22 thy bow? set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink, and go to their master. And he prepared great provision for them: and when they had eaten 23 and drank, he sent them away, and they went to their master. So the bands of Syria came no more into the land of Israel.

AND after this Ben-hadad king of Syria gathered all his host, and went up, and 24 besieged Samaria. And there was a great famine in Samaria: and, behold, they be- 25

II. KINGS VII.

- sieged it, until an ass's head was sold for fourscore pieces of silver, and the fourth part of a pint of fried pulse for five pieces of silver.
- 26 And as the king of Israel was passing by upon the wall, there cried a woman unto 27 him, saying, Help, my lord, O king. And he said, If the LORD do not help thee, 28 whence shall I help thee? out of the barnfloor, or out of the winepress? And the king said unto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, This woman said unto me, Give thy son, that we may eat him to-day, and we will eat my son to-morrow.
 29 So we boiled my son, and did eat him: and I said unto her on the next day, Give 30 thy son, that we may eat him: and she hath hid her son. And when the king heard the words of the woman, he rent his clothes; and he passed by upon the wall, and 31 the people looked, and, behold, he had sackcloth within upon his flesh. Then he said, God do so and more also to me, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat shall stand on him this day.
- 32 But Elisha sat in his house, and the elders sat with him; and the king sent a man from before him: but ere the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, See ye how this son of a murderer hath sent to take away my head? look, when the messenger cometh, shut the door, and hold him fast at the door: is not the sound of his 33 master's feet behind him? And while he yet talked with them, behold, the king who had followed him came down unto him: and he said, Behold, this evil is of the 7 LORD; wherefore should I wait for the LORD any longer? Then Elisha said, Hear ye the word of the LORD; Thus saith the LORD, To-morrow about this time shall a measure of fine flour be sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a 2 shekel, in the gate of Samaria. Then a lord on whose hand the king leaned answered the man of God, and said, Behold, if the LORD would make windows in the heavens, might this thing be? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but shalt not eat thereof.
- 3 And there were four leprous men at the entering in of the gate: and they said one 4 to another, Why sit we here until we die? If we say, We will enter into the city, then the famine is in the city, and we shall die there: and if we sit still here, we die also. Now therefore come, and let us fall unto the host of the Syrians: if they save 5 us alive, we shall live; and if they kill us, we shall but die. And they rose up in the twilight, to go unto the camp of the Syrians: and when they were come to the 6 uttermost part of the camp of Syria, behold, there was no man there. For the LORD had made the host of the Syrians to hear a noise of chariots, and a noise of horses, even the noise of a great host: and they said one to another, Lo, the king of Israel hath hired against us the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of the Egyp-7 tians, to come upon us. Wherefore they arose and fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their asses, even the camp as it was, and fled for their lives.
- 8 And when these lepers came to the uttermost part of the camp, they went into one tent, and ate and drank, and carried thence silver, and gold, and raiment, and went and hid it; and came again, and entered into another tent, and carried thence 9 also, and went and hid it. Then they said one to another, We do not well: this day is a day of good tidings, and we hold our peace: if we tarry till the morning light, some mischief will come upon us: now therefore come, that we may go and tell the king's household.
- 10 So they came and called unto the porters of the city: and they told them, saying,
 We came to the camp of the Syrians, and, behold, there was no man there, nor the 11 voice of man, but horses tied, and asses tied, and the tents as they were. And the porters told it to the king's house within.
- 12 And the king arose in the night, and said unto his servants, I will now show you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we are hungry; therefore are they gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, When they come 13 out of the city, we shall catch them alive, and get into the city. And one of his servants answered and said, Let some take, I pray thee, five of the horses that re-14 main, which are left in the city, and let us send and see. They took therefore two chariot horses; and the king sent after the host of the Syrians, saying, Go and see.
 15 And they went after them unto the Jordan: and, lo, all the way was full of garments and vessels, which the Syrians had cast away in their haste. And the messengers returned, and told the king.
- 16 And the people went out, and spoiled the tents of the Syrians. So a measure of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, according 17 to the word of the LORD. And the king appointed the lord on whose hand he leaned to have the charge of the gate: and the people trod upon him in the gate, and he died, as the man of God had said, who spoke when the king came down to him. And it came to pass as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, Two measures of barley for a shekel, and a measure of fine flour for a shekel, shall be to-morrow about this time in the gate of Samaria: and that lord answered the man of God, and said, Now, behold, if the LORD should make windows in the heavens, might such a thing be? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes: but shalt not eat thereof. And so it fell out unto him; for the people trod upon him in the gate, and 20 he died.

THEN spoke Elisha unto the woman, whose son he had restored to life, saying, 8 Arise, and go thou and thy household, and sojourn wheresoever thou canst sojourn; for the LORD hath called for a famine; and it shall also come upon the land seven years. And the woman arose, and did after the saying of the man of God: and she 2 went with her household, and sojourned in the land of the Philistines seven years.

And at the seven years' end the woman returned out of the land of the Philistines: 3 and she went forth to cry unto the king for her house and for her land. And the king 4 talked with Gehazi the servant of the man of God, saying, Tell me, I pray thee, all the great things that Elisha hath done. And as he was telling the king how he had 5 restored a dead body to life, behold, the woman, whose son he had restored to life, cried to the king for her house and for her land. And Gehazi said, My lord, O king, 6 this is the woman, and this is her son, whom Elisha restored to life! And when the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed unto her a certain officer, saying, Restore all that was hers, and all the fruits of the field since the day that she left the land, even until now.

AND Elisha came to Damascus; and Ben-hadad the king of Syria was sick; and 7 it was told him, saying, The man of God is come hither. And the king said unto Hazael. Take a present in thy hand, and go, meet the man of God, and inquire of the LORD by him, saying, Shall I recover of this disease? So Hazael went to meet him, 9 and took a present with him, even of every good thing of Damascus, forty camels' burden, and came and stood before him, and said, Thy son Ben-hadad king of Syria hath sent me to thee, saying, Shall I recover of this disease? And Elisha said unto 10 him, Go, say unto him, Thou mayest certainly recover: howbeit the LORD hath showed me that he shall surely die. And he settled his countenance steadfastly, until he was ashamed: and the man of God wept. And Hazael said, Why weepeth my 11 lord? And he answered, Because I know the evil that thou wilt do unto the children of Israel: their strong holds wilt thou set on fire, and their young men wilt thou 12 slay with the sword, and wilt dash their children, and rip up their women with child. And Hazael said, But what, is thy servant a dog, that he should do this great 13 thing? And Elisha answered, The LORD hath showed me that thou shalt be king over Syria. So he departed from Elisha, and came to his master; who said to him, 14 What said Elisha to thee? And he answered, He told me that thou shouldst surely recover. And on the morrow he took a thick cloth, and dipped it in water, and 15 spread it on his face, so that he died: and Hazael reigned in his stead.

AND in the fifth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel, Jehoram the son of 16 Jehoshaphat king of Judah began to reign. Thirty and two years old was he when he 17 began to reign; and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. And he walked in the way 18 of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab; for the daughter of Ahab was his wife: and he did evil in the sight of the LORD. Yet the LORD would not destroy 19 Judah for David his servant's sake, as he promised him to give him and his children a lamp always.

In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over 20 themselves. So Joram went over to Zair, and all the chariots with him: and he rose 21 by night, and smote the Edomites who compassed him about, and the captains of the chariots: and the people fled into their tents. Yet Edom revolted from under the 22 hand of Judah unto this day. Then Libnah revolted at the same time.

And the rest of the acts of Joram, and all that he did, are they not written in the 23 book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? And Joram slept with his fathers, and 24 was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and Ahaziah his son reigned in his stead.

IN THE TWELFTH year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel did Ahaziah 25 the son of Jehoram king of Judah begin to reign. Two and twenty years old was 26 Ahaziah when he began to reign; and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Athaliah, the daughter of Omri king of Israel. And he walked in 27 the way of the house of Ahab, and did evil in the sight of the LORD, as did the house of Ahab; for he was his son-in-law. And he went with Joram the son of Ahab 28

II. KINGS IX.

to the war against Hazael king of Syria in Ramoth-gilead; and the Syrians wounded 29 Joram. And king Joram went back to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

9 AND Elisha the prophet called one of the children of the prophets, and said unto him, Gird up thy loins, and take this pot of oil in thy hand, and go to Ramoth-gilead: and when thou comest thither, look out there Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi, and go in, and make him arise up from among his brethren, and
 3 carry him to an inner chamber; then take the pot of oil, and pour it on his head, and say, Thus saith the LORD, I have anointed thee king over Israel. Then open
 4 the door, and flee, and tarry not. So the young man, the servant of the prophet, went to Ramoth-gilead.

5 And when he came, behold, the captains of the host were sitting; and he said, I have an errand to thee, O captain. And Jehu said, Unto which of all us? And he
 6 said, To thee, O captain. And he arose, and went into the house; and he poured the oil on his head, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I have 7 anointed thee king over the people of the LORD, even over Israel. And thou shalt smite the house of Ahab thy master, that I may avenge the blood of my servants the 8 prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD, at the hand of Jezebel. For the whole house of Ahab shall perish: and I will cut off from Ahab every male, and 9 him who is shut up and left in Israel: and I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah:
 10 and the dogs shall eat Jezebel in the portion of Jezreel, and there shall be none to bury her. And he opened the door, and fled.

11 Then Jehu came forth to the servants of his lord: and one said unto him, Is all well? wherefore came this mad fellow to thee? And he said unto them, Ye know
 12 the man, and his communication. And they said, It is false: tell us now. And he said, Thus and thus spoke he to me, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I have anointed 13 thee king over Israel. Then they hastened, and took every man his garment, and put it under him on the top of the stairs, and blew with trumpets, saying, Jehu is king!
 14 So Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi conspired against Joram. (Now Joram had kept Ramoth-gilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael king of Syria.
 15 But king Jehoram was returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria.)

And Jehu said, If it be your minds, then let none go forth nor escape out of the 16 city to go to tell it in Jezreel. So Jehu rode in a chariot, and went to Jezreel; for 17 Joram lay there. And Ahaziah king of Judah was come down to see Joram. And there stood a watchman on the tower in Jezreel, and he spied the company of Jehu as he came, and said, I see a company. And Joram said, Take a horseman, and 18 send to meet them, and let him say, Is it peace? So there went one on horseback to meet him, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu said, What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me. And the watchman told, saying, The 19 messenger came to them, but he cometh not again. Then he sent out a second on horseback, which came to them, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And 20 Jehu answered, What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me. And the watchman told, saying, He came even unto them, and cometh not again: and the 21 driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi; for he driveth furiously. And Joram said, Make ready; and his chariot was made ready. And Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot, and they went out against Jehu, and met him in the portion of Naboth the Jezreelite.

22 And when Joram saw Jehu, he said, Is it peace, Jehu? And he answered, What peace, so long as the whoredoms of thy mother Jezebel and her witchcrafts are so 23 many? And Joram turned his hands, and fled, and said to Ahaziah, There is treachery, O Ahaziah. And Jehu drew a bow with his full strength, and smote Jehoram between his arms, and the arrow went through his heart, and he sunk down in his 25 chariot. Then said Jehu to Bidkar his captain, Take him up, and cast him into the portion of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite; for remember how that, when I and thou rode together after Ahab his father, the LORD laid this burden upon 26 him: Surely I saw yesterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sons, saith the LORD; and I will requite thee in this plat, saith the LORD. Now therefore take and cast him into the plat of ground, according to the word of the LORD.

27 But when Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden house. And Jehu followed after him, and said, Smite him also in the chariot. And they did so at the going up to Gur, which is by Ibleam. And he fled to Megiddo, and died there. And his servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his sepulchre with his fathers in the city of David. And in the eleventh year of Jehoram the son of Ahab began Ahaziah to reign over Judah.

And when Jehu was come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she painted her eye-brows, and dressed her head, and looked out at a window. And as Jehu entered in at the gate, she said, Had Zimri peace, who slew his master? And he lifted up his face to the window, and said, Who is on my side? who? And there looked out to him two or three eunuchs. And he said, Throw her down. So they threw her down; and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses: and he trod her under foot. And when he was come in, he ate and drank, and said, Go, see now this cursed woman, and bury her; for she is a king's daughter. And they went to bury her; but they found no more of her than the skull, and the feet, and the palms of her hands. Wherefore they came again, and told him. And he said, This is the word of the LORD, which he spoke by his servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, In the portion of Jezreel shall dogs eat the flesh of Jezebel: and the carcase of Jezebel shall be as dung upon the face of the field in the portion of Jezreel; so that they shall not say, This is Jezebel.

And Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. And Jehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria, unto the rulers of the city, to the elders, and to them who brought up Ahab's children, saying, Now as soon as this letter cometh to you, seeing your master's sons are with you, and there are with you chariots and horses, a fenced city also, and armour; look even out the best and meetest of your master's sons, and set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house. But they were exceedingly afraid, and said, Behold, two kings stood not before him: how then shall we stand? And he who was over the house, and he who was over the city, the elders also, and the bringers up of the children, sent to Jehu, saying, We are thy servants, and will do all that thou shalt bid us; we will not make any king: do thou that which is good in thine eyes.

Then he wrote a letter the second time to them, saying, If ye be for me, and if ye will hearken unto my voice, take ye the heads of the men your master's sons, and come to me to Jezreel by to-morrow this time. Now the king's sons, being seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, who brought them up. And when the letter came to them, they took the king's sons, and slew them, seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets, and sent him them to Jezreel. And there came a messenger, and told him, saying, They have brought the heads of the king's sons. And he said, Lay ye them in two heaps at the entering in of the gate until the morning. And in the morning he went out, and stood, and said to all the people, Ye be righteous: behold, I conspired against my master, and slew him: but who slew all these? Know now that there shall fall unto the earth nothing of the word of the LORD, which the LORD spoke concerning the house of Ahab: for the LORD hath done that which he spoke by his servant Elijah. So Jehu slew all who remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his great men, and his kinsfolks, and his priests, until he left him none remaining.

And he arose and departed, and came to Samaria. And as he was at the shearing house in the way, Jehu met with the brethren of Ahaziah king of Judah, and said, Who are ye? And they answered, We are the brethren of Ahaziah; and we go down to salute the children of the king and the children of the queen. And he said, Take them alive. And they took them alive, and slew them at the pit of the shearing house, even two and forty men; neither left he any of them.

And when he was departed thence, he lighted on Jehonadab the son of Rechab coming to meet him: and he saluted him, and said to him, Is thy heart right, as my heart is with thy heart? And Jehonadab answered, It is. If it be, give me thy hand. And he gave him his hand; and he took him up to him into the chariot. And he said, Come with me, and see my zeal for the LORD. So they made him ride in his chariot.

And when he came to Samaria, he slew all who remained unto Ahab in Samaria, till he had destroyed him, according to the saying of the LORD, which he spoke to Elijah. And Jehu gathered all the people together, and said unto them, Ahab served Baal a little; but Jehu shall serve him much. Now therefore call unto me all the prophets of Baal, all his servants, and all his priests; let none be wanting; for I have a great sacrifice to do to Baal: whosoever shall be wanting, he shall not live. But Jehu did it in subtilty, to the intent that he might destroy the worshippers of Baal. And Jehu said, Proclaim a solemn assembly for Baal. And they pro-

- 21 claimed it. And Jehu sent through all Israel: and all the worshippers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left who came not. And they came into the house 22 of Baal; and the house of Baal was full from one end to the other. And he said unto him who was over the vestry, Bring forth vestments for all the worshippers of 23 Baal. And he brought them forth vestments. And Jehu and Jehonadab the son of Rechab went into the house of Baal, and said unto the worshippers of Baal, Search, and look that there be here with you none of the servants of the LORD, but the wor-
 24 shippers of Baal only. And when they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings, Jehu appointed fourscore men without, and said, If any of the men whom I have brought into your hands escape, the man who letteth him go, his life shall be for the life of him.
- 25 And as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, Jehu said to the guard and to the captains, Go in, and slay them; let none come forth. And they smote them with the edge of the sword; and the guard and the captains cast them 26 out, and went to the city of the house of Baal. And they brought forth the images 27 out of the house of Baal, and burned them. And they broke down the image of Baal, and broke down the house of Baal, and made it a draught house unto this day.
- 28 29 Thus Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel. Howbeit from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, by erecting golden calves in Beth-el, and in Dan, from them Jehu departed not.
- 30 And the LORD said unto Jehu, Because thou hast done well in executing that which is right in mine eyes, and hast done unto the house of Ahab according to all that was in my heart, thy children of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne
 31 of Israel. But Jehu took no heed to walk in the law of the LORD God of Israel with all his heart; for he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam, who made Israel
 32 to sin. In those days the LORD began to loathe Israel: and Hazael smote them 33 in all the coasts of Israel; from the Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer, which is by the river Arnon, even Gilead and Bashan.
- 34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his might, are they not 35 written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? And Jehu slept with his fathers; and they buried him in Samaria. And Jehoahaz his son reigned in his 36 stead. And the time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty and eight years.
- 11 AND when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed royal. But Jehosheba, the daughter of king Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons who were slain; and they hid him, even him and his nurse, in the bedchamber 3 from Athaliah, so that he was not slain. And he was with her hid in the house of the LORD six years. And Athaliah reigned over the land.
- 4 And the seventh year Jehoiada sent and fetched the rulers over hundreds, with the captains and the guard, and brought them to him into the house of the LORD, and made a covenant with them, and took an oath of them in the house of the LORD, and showed them the king's son. And he commanded them, saying, This is the thing that ye shall do; a third part of you who enter in on the sabbath shall even 6 be keepers of the watch of the king's house; and a third part shall be at the gate of Sur; and a third part at the gate behind the guard: so shall ye keep the watch of the 7 house, that it be not broken into. And two parts of all you who go forth on the sabbath, even they shall keep the watch of the house of the LORD about the king. And ye shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand: and he who cometh within the ranks, let him be slain: and be ye with the king as he goeth out and as he cometh in.
- 9 And the captains over the hundreds did according to all things that Jehoiada the priest commanded: and they took every man his men who were to come in on the sabbath, with those who should go out on the sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the 10 priest. And to the captains over hundreds did the priest give king David's spears and 11 shields, that were in the temple of the LORD. And the guard stood, every man with his weapons in his hand, round about the king, from the right corner of the temple to the left corner of the temple, along by the altar and the temple. And he brought forth the king's son, and put the crown upon him, and gave him the book of the law; and they made him king, and anointed him; and they clapped their 13 hands, and said, Long live the king. And when Athaliah heard the noise of the 14 people running, she came to the people into the temple of the LORD. And when she looked, behold, the king stood on a pillar, as the manner was, and the princes and the trumpeters by the king, and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew with trumpets : and Athaliah rent her clothes, and cried, Treason ! Treason ! But Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of the hundreds, the officers of the host, and said unto them, Have her forth without the ranks : and him who followeth her kill with the sword. For the priest had said, Let her not be slain in the house of the LORD. And they made room for her ; and she went by the way by which the 16 horses came into the king's house : and there was she slain.

And Jehoiada made a covenant between the LORD and the king and the people, 17 that they should be the LORD'S people ; between the king also and the people. And 18 all the people of the land went into the house of Baal, and broke it down ; his altars and his images broke they in pieces thoroughly, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. And the priest appointed officers over the house of the LORD. And he took the rulers over hundreds, and the captains, and the guard, 19 and all the people of the land ; and they brought down the king from the house of the LORD, and came by the way of the gate of the guard to the king's house. And he sat on the throne of the kings. And all the people of the land rejoiced, 20 and the city was in quiet : and they slew Athaliah with the sword beside the king's house.

SEVEN years old was Jehoash when he began to reign. In the seventh year of 12 Jehu, Jehoash began to reign ; and forty years reigned he in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Zibiah of Beer-sheba. And Jehoash did that which was right in 2 the sight of the LORD all his days wherein Jehoiada the priest instructed him. But 3 the high places were not taken away : the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places.

And Jehoash said to the priests, All the money of the consecrated things that is 4 brought into the house of the LORD, even the money of every one who passeth the account, the money that every man is set at, and all the money that cometh into any man's heart to bring into the house of the LORD, let the priests take it to them, 5 every man of his acquaintance : and let them repair the breaches of the house, where-soever any breach shall be found.

But in the three and twentieth year of king Jehoash the priests had not repaired 6 the breaches of the house. Then king Jehoash called for Jehoiada the priest, and 7 the other priests, and said unto them, Why repair ye not the breaches of the house ? now therefore receive no more money of your acquaintance, but deliver it for the breaches of the house.

And the priests consented to receive no more money of the people, neither to re- 8 pair the breaches of the house. But Jehoiada the priest took a chest, and bored a 9 hole in the lid of it, and set it beside the altar, on the right side as one cometh into the house of the LORD : and the priests who kept the door put therein all the money that was brought into the house of the LORD.

And when they saw that there was much money in the chest, the king's scribe and 10 the high priest came up, and they put up in bags, and told the money that was found in the house of the LORD. And they gave the money, being told, into the hands of 11 those who did the work, who had the oversight of the house of the LORD ; and they laid it out to the carpenters and builders, who wrought upon the house of the LORD, and to masons, and hewers of stone, and to buy timber and hewn stone to repair the 12 breaches of the house of the LORD, and for all that was laid out for the house to repair it. Howbeit there were not made for the house of the LORD bowls of silver, 13 snuffers, basins, trumpets, any vessels of gold, or vessels of silver, of the money that was brought into the house of the LORD : but they gave that to the workmen, and 14 repaired therewith the house of the LORD. Moreover they reckoned not with the 15 men, into whose hand they delivered the money to be bestowed on workmen ; for they dealt faithfully. The trespass money and sin money was not brought into the 16 house of the LORD : it was the priests'.

THEN Hazael king of Syria went up, and fought against Gath, and took it : and 17 Hazael set his face to go up to Jerusalem. And Jehoash king of Judah took all the hallowed things that Jehoshaphat, and Jehoram, and Abaziah, his fathers, kings of 18 Judah, had dedicated, and his own hallowed things, and all the gold that was found in the treasures of the house of the LORD, and in the king's house, and sent it to Hazael king of Syria : and he went away from Jerusalem.

And the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, are they not written in the 19 book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah ? And his servants arose, and made a 20 conspiracy, and slew Joash in the house of Millo, which goeth down to Silla. For Jo- 21 zachar the son of Shimeath, and Jehozabad the son of Shomer, his servants, smote him, and he died; and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David: and Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

13 IN THE THREE and twentieth year of Joash the son of Ahaziah king of Judah, Jehoahaz the son of Jehu began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned seven-
 2 teen years. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin; he departed not
 3 therefrom. And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he delivered them into the hand of Hazael king of Syria, and into the hand of Ben-hadad the 4 son of Hazael, all their days. And Jehoahaz besought the LORD, and the LORD hearkened unto him: for he saw the oppression of Israel, because the king of Syria
 7 oppressed them. Neither did he leave of the people to Jehoahaz but fifty horsemen, and ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen; for the king of Syria had destroyed
 5 them, and had made them like the dust by threshing. (And the LORD gave Israel a deliverer, so that they went out from under the hand of the Syrians: and the chil-
 6 dren of Israel dwelt in their tents, as beforetime. Nevertheless they departed not from the sins of Jeroboam, who made Israel sin, but walked therein: and there remained the grove also in Samaria.)

8 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, and all that he did, and his might, are they 9 not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? And Jehoahaz slept with his fathers; and they buried him in Samaria: and Joash his son reigned in his stead.

10 IN THE THIRTY and seventh year of Joash king of Judah began Jehoash the 11 son of Jehoahaz to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned sixteen years. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD; he departed not from all the sins 12 of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin: but he walked therein. And the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, and his might wherewith he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles 13 of the kings of Israel? And Joash slept with his fathers; and Jeroboam sat upon his throne: and Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

14 NOW Elisha was fallen sick of his sickness whereof he died. And Joash the king of Israel came down unto him, and wept over his face, and said, O my father, my 15 father, the chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof. And Elisha said unto him, 16 Take bow and arrows. And he took unto him bow and arrows. And he said to the king of Israel, Put thy hand upon the bow. And he put his hand upon it: and Elisha 17 put his hands upon the king's hands. And he said, Open the window eastward. And he opened it. Then Elisha said, Shoot. And he shot. And he said, The arrow of the LORD'S deliverance, and the arrow of deliverance from Syria: for thou shalt 18 smite the Syrians in Aphek, till thou hast consumed them. And he said, Take the arrows. And he took them. And he said unto the king of Israel, Smite upon the 19 ground. And he smote thrice, and stayed. And the man of God was wroth with him, and said, Thou shouldst have smitten five or six times; then hadst thou smitten Syria till thou hadst consumed it: whereas now thou shalt smite Syria but thrice.
 20 And Elisha died, and they buried him. And the bands of the Moabites invaded 21 the land at the coming in of the year. And as they were burying a man, behold, they spied a band of men; and they cast the man into the sepulchre of Elisha: and when the man was let down, and touched the bones of Elisha, he revived, and stood up on his feet.

22 23 But Hazael king of Syria oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz. And the LORD was gracious unto them, and had compassion on them, and had respect unto them, because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and would not destroy them, neither cast he them from his presence as yet. So Hazael king of Syria
 24 died; and Ben-hadad his son reigned in his stead. And Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz took again out of the hand of Ben-hadad the son of Hazael, the cities which he had taken out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father by war. Three times did Joash beat him, and recovered the cities of Israel.

14 IN THE SECOND year of Joash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel reigned Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah. He was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name
 3 was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem. And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, yet not like David his father: he did according to all things as Joash his 4 father did. Howbeit the high places were not taken away: as yet the people did 5 sacrifice and burnt incense on the high places. And as soon as the kingdom was 6 confirmed in his hand, he slew his servants who had slain the king his father. But the children of the murderers he slew not: according unto that which is written in the book of the law of Moses, wherein the LORD commanded, saying, The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, nor the children be put to death for the fathers; but every man shall be put to death for his own sin. He slew of Edom in the valley of salt ten thousand, and took Selah by war, and called the name of it Joktheel unto this day.

II. KINGS XV.

Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us look one another in the face. And Jehoash the king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trod down the thistle. Thou hast indeed smitten Edom, and thy heart hath lifted thee up: glory in this, and tarry at home: for why shouldst thou meddle to thy hurt, that thou shouldst fall, even thou, and Judah with thee? But Amaziah would not hear. Therefore Jehoash king of Israel went up; and he and Amaziah king of Judah looked one another in the face at Beth-shemesh, which belongeth to Judah. And Judah was smitten before Israel; and they fled every man to his tent. And Jehoash king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Jehoash, the son of Ahaziah, at Beth-shemesh, and came to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim unto the corner gate, four hundred cubits. And he took all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house, and hostages, and returned to Samaria.

Now the rest of the acts of Jehoash which he did, and his might, and how he fought with Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? And Jehoash slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel; and Jeroboam his son reigned in his stead.

And Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel fifteen years. And the rest of the acts of Amaziah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? Now they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem: and he fled to Lachish; but they sent after him to Lachish, and slew him there. And they brought him on horses: and he was buried at Jerusalem with his fathers in the city of David.

AND ALL THE people of Judah took Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king instead of his father Amaziah. He built Eloth, and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers.

IN THE FIFTEENTH year of Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel began to reign alone in Samaria, and reigned forty and one years. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin. He restored the coast of Israel from the entering of Hamath unto the sea of the plain, according to the word of the LORD God of Israel, which he spoke by the hand of his servant Jonah, the son of Amittai, the prophet, who was of Gath-hepher. For the LORD saw the affliction of Israel, that it was very bitter: for there was not any secretly preserved, nor any left, nor any helper for Israel. And the LORD said not that he would blot out the name of Israel from under the heavens: but he saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Joash.

Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, and all that he did, and his might, how he warred, and how he recovered Damascus, and Hamath, which belonged to Judah, for Israel, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? And Jeroboam slept with his fathers, even with the kings of Israel; and Zachariah his son reigned in his stead.

IN THE TWENTY and seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel began Uzziah son of Amaziah king of Judah to reign. Sixteen years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned two and fifty years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jeholiah of Jerusalem. And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah had done; save that the high places were not removed: the people sacrificed and burnt incense still on the high places.

And the LORD smote the king, so that he was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a separated house. And Jotham the king's son was over the house, judging the people of the land.

And the rest of the acts of Uzziah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? So Uzziah slept with his fathers; and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David; and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

IN THE THIRTY and eighth year of Uzziah king of Judah did Zachariah the

II. KINGS XVI.

9 son of Jeroboam reign over Israel in Samaria six months. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as his fathers had done: he departed not from 10 the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin. And Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him, and smote him before the people, and slew him, and reigned in his stead.

11 And the rest of the acts of Zachariah, behold, they are written in the book of the 12 chronicles of the kings of Israel. This was the word of the LORD which he spoke unto Jehu, saying, Thy sons shall sit on the throne of Israel unto the fourth generation. And so it came to pass.

13 SHALLUM the son of Jabesh began to reign in the nine and thirtieth year of 14 Uzziah king of Judah; and he reigned a full month in Samaria. For Menahem the son of Gadi went up from Tirzah, and came to Samaria, and smote Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria, and slew him, and reigned in his stead.

15 And the rest of the acts of Shallum, and his conspiracy which he made, behold, 16 they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. Then Menahem smote Tiphshah, and all who were therein, and the coasts thereof from Tirzah: because they opened not to him, therefore he smote it; and all the women therein who were with child he ripped up.

17 IN THE NINE and thirtieth year of Azariah king of Judah began Menahem the 18 son of Gadi to reign over Israel, and reigned ten years in Samaria. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not all his days from 19 the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin. And Pul the king of Assyria came against the land: and Menahem gave Pul a thousand talents of silver, that his hand might be with him to confirm the kingdom in his hand. And 20 Menahem exacted the money of Israel, even of all the mighty men of wealth, of each man fifty shekels of silver, to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria turned back, and stayed not there in the land.

21 And the rest of the acts of Menahem, and all that he did, are they not written in 22 the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? And Menahem slept with his fathers; and Pekahiah his son reigned in his stead.

23 IN THE FIFTIETH year of Uzziah king of Judah Pekahiah the son of Menahem 24 began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned two years. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the 25 son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin. But Pekah the son of Remaliah, a captain of his, conspired against him, and smote him in Samaria, in the palace of the king's house, with Argob and Arieah, and with him fifty men of the Gileadites; and he killed him, and reigned in his stead.

26 And the rest of the acts of Pekahiah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

27 IN THE TWO and fiftieth year of Uzziah king of Judah Pekah the son of Remaliah 28 began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned twenty years. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not from the sins of 29 Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin. In the days of Pekah king of Israel came Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and took Ijon, and Abel-beth-maachah, and Janoah, and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali, and carried them captive to Assyria. And Hoshea the son of Elah made a 30 conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and smote him, and slew him, and reigned in his stead, in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah.

31 And the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

32 IN THE SECOND year of Pekah the son of Remaliah king of Israel began Jotham 33 the son of Uzziah king of Judah to reign. Five and twenty years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And his 34 mother's name was Jerusha, the daughter of Zadok. And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD: he did according to all that his father Uzziah had 35 done. Howbeit the high places were not removed: the people sacrificed and burnt incense still in the high places. He built the higher gate of the house of the LORD.

36 Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, are they not written in the 37 book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? In those days the LORD began to send against Judah Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah. And 38 Jotham slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

16 IN THE SEVENTEENTH year of Pekah the son of Remaliah, Ahaz the son of Jotham king of Judah began to reign. Twenty-five years old was Ahaz when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem, and did not that which was right in the sight of the LORD his God, like David his father: but he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, yea, and made his son to pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the nations, whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel. And he sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.

Then Rezin king of Syria and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel came up to Jerusalem to war: and they besieged Ahaz, but could not overcome him. At that time Rezin king of Syria recovered Eloth to Syria, and drove the Jews from Eloth: and the Syrians came to Eloth, and dwelt there unto this day. So Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, saying, I am thy servant and thy son: come up, and save me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the king of Israel, who have risen up against me. And Ahaz took the silver and gold that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house, and sent it for a present to the king of Assyria. And the king of Assyria hearkened unto him: for the king of Assyria went up against Damascus, and took it, and carried the people of it captive to Kir, and slew Rezin.

And king Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and saw an altar that was at Damascus: and king Ahaz sent to Urijah the priest the fashion of the altar, and the pattern of it, according to all the workmanship thereof. And Urijah the priest built an altar according to all that king Ahaz had sent from Damascus: so Urijah the priest made it against king Ahaz came from Damascus. And when the king was come from Damascus, the king saw the altar: and the king approached to the altar, and offered thereon. And he burnt his burnt offering and his thank offering, and poured his drink offering, and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings, upon the altar. And he brought also the brazen altar, which was before the LORD, from the forefront of the house, from between the altar and the house of the LORD, and put it on the north side of the altar. And king Ahaz commanded Urijah the priest, saying, Upon the great altar burn the morning burnt offering, and the evening thank offering, and the king's burnt sacrifice, and his thank offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their thank offering, and their drink offerings; and sprinkle upon it all the blood of the burnt offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice: and as to the brazen altar, I will inquire what must be done. Thus did Urijah the priest, according to all that king Ahaz commanded. king Ahaz cut off the borders of the bases, and removed the laver from off them; and took down the sea from off the brazen oxen that were under it, and put it upon a pavement of stones. And the covert for the sabbath that they had built in the house, and the king's entry without, turned he from the house of the LORD for the king of Assyria.

Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.

IN THE TWELFTH year of Ahaz king of Judah began Hoshea the son of Elah to reign in Samaria over Israel nine years. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, but not as the kings of Israel who were before him. Against him came up Shalmaneser king of Assyria; and Hoshea became his servant, and gave him tribute.

And the king of Assyria found conspiracy in Hoshea; for he had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and brought no present to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year: therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in prison. Then the king of Assyria came up throughout all the land, and went up to Samaria, and besieged it three years. In the ninth year of Hoshea the king of Assyria took Samaria, and carried Israel away into Assyria, and placed them in Halah, and on the Habor, a river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.

For the children of Israel had sinned against the LORD their God, who had brought them up out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and had feared other gods, and walked in the statutes of the nations, whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel, and of those which the kings of Israel had made. And the children of Israel did secretly those things that were not right against the LORD their God, and they built them high places in all their cities, from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city. And they set them up images and groves in every high hill, and under every green tree: and there they burnt incense in all the high places, as did the heathen whom the LORD carried

II. KINGS XVII.

- 12 away before them; and wrought wicked things to provoke the LORD to anger: for they served idols, whereof the LORD had said unto them, Ye shall not do this thing.
- 13 Yet the LORD testified against Israel, and against Judah, by all the prophets, and by all the seers, saying, Turn ye from your evil ways, and keep my commandments and my statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my servants the prophets. Notwithstanding they would not hear, but hardened their necks, like to the neck of their fathers, who did not believe in the LORD their God. And they rejected his statutes, and his covenant that he made with their fathers, and his testimonies which he testified against them; and they followed vanity, and became vain, and went after the nations that were round about them, concerning whom the LORD had charged them, that they should not do like them. And they left all the commandments of the LORD their God, and made them molten images, even two calves, and made a grove, and worshipped all the host of the heavens, and served Baal. And they caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire, and used divination and enchantments, and sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger. Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight: there were none left but the tribe of Judah only. Also Judah kept not the commandments of the LORD their God, but walked in the statutes of Israel which they made.
- 20 And the LORD rejected all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of spoilers, until he had cast them out of his sight. For he rent Israel from the house of David; and they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king: and Jeroboam drove Israel from following the LORD, and made them sin a great sin. For the children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they departed not from them; until the LORD removed Israel out of his sight, as he had said by all his servants the prophets. So was Israel carried away out of their own land to Assyria unto this day.
- 24 And the king of Assyria brought men from Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from Ava, and from Hamath, and from Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel: and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof. And at the beginning of their dwelling there, they feared not the LORD: therefore the LORD sent lions among them, which slew some of them.
- 26 Wherefore they spoke to the king of Assyria, saying, The nations which thou hast removed, and placed in the cities of Samaria, know not the manner of the God of the land: therefore he hath sent lions among them, and, behold, they slay them, because they know not the manner of the God of the land. Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, Carry thither one of the priests whom ye brought from thence; and let him go and dwell there, and let him teach them the manner of the God of the land. Then one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and dwelt in Beth-el, and taught them how they should fear the LORD. Howbeit every nation made gods of their own, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities wherein they dwelt.
- 30 And the men of Babylon made Succoth-benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima, and the Avites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites burnt their children in fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim. So they feared the LORD, and made unto themselves of the lowest of them priests of the high places, who sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places. They feared the LORD, and served their own gods, after the manner of the nations whom they carried away from thence.
- 34 Unto this day they do after the former manners: they fear not the LORD, neither do they after their statutes, or after their ordinances, or after the law and commandment which the LORD commanded the children of Jacob, whom he named Israel; with whom the LORD had made a covenant, and charged them, saying, Ye shall not fear other gods, nor bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them: but the LORD, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power and a stretched out arm, him shall ye fear, and him shall ye worship, and to him shall ye do sacrifice. And the statutes, and the ordinances, and the law, and the commandment, which he wrote for you, ye shall observe to do for evermore; and ye shall not fear other gods. And the covenant that I have made with you ye shall not forget; neither shall ye fear other gods. But the LORD your God ye shall fear; and he shall deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies. Howbeit they did not hearken, but they did after their former manner.
- 41 So these nations feared the LORD, and served their graven images, both their children, and their children's children: as did their fathers, so do they unto this day.

NOW in the third year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, Hezekiah the son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign. Twenty and five years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Abijah, the daughter of Zachariah. And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his father did. He removed the high places, and broke the images, and cut down the groves, and broke in pieces the brazen serpent that Moses had made: for unto those days the children of Israel did burn incense to it: and he called it Nehushtan. He trusted in the LORD God of Israel; so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor any who were before him. For he clave to the LORD, and departed not from following him, but kept his commandments, which the LORD commanded Moses.

And the LORD was with him; and he prospered whithersoever he went forth: and he rebelled against the king of Assyria, and served him not. He smote the Philistines, even unto Gaza, and the borders thereof, from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city.

AND in the fourth year of king Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria, and besieged it. And at the end of three years they took it: even in the sixth year of Hezekiah, that is the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel, Samaria was taken. And the king of Assyria carried away Israel unto Assyria, and put them in Halah and in Habor-nahor-gozan, and in the cities of the Medes: because they obeyed not the voice of the LORD their God, but transgressed his covenant, and all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded, and would not hear them, nor do them.

NOW in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah did Sennacherib king of Assyria come up against all the fenced cities of Judah, and took them. And Hezekiah king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria to Lachish, saying, I have offended; return from me: that which thou puttest on me will I bear. And the king of Assyria appointed unto Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold. And Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house. At that time did Hezekiah cut off the gold from the doors of the temple of the LORD, and from the pillars which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and gave it to the king of Assyria.

And the king of Assyria sent Tartan and Rabsaris and Rab-shakeh from Lachish to king Hezekiah with a great host against Jerusalem. And they went up and came to Jerusalem. And when they were come up, they came and stood by the conduit of the upper pool, which is in the highway of the fuller's field. And when they had called to the king, there came out to them Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder.

And Rab-shakeh said unto them, Speak ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this wherein thou trustest? Thou sayest, (but they are but vain words,) I have counsel and strength for the war. Now on whom dost thou trust for counsel and strength, that thou rebellest against me? Now, behold, thou trustest upon the staff of this bruised reed, even upon Egypt, on which if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt unto all who trust on him. But if ye say unto me, We trust in the LORD our God: is not that he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and hath said to Judah and Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem? Now, therefore, I pray thee, give hostages to my lord the king of Assyria, and I will deliver thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them. How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? Am I now come up without the LORD against this place to destroy it? The LORD said to me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

Then said Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna, and Joah, unto Rab-shakeh, Speak, I pray thee, to thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and talk not with us in the Jews' language in the ears of the people who are on the wall. But Rab-shakeh said unto them, Hath my master sent me to thy master, and to thee, to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men who sit on the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own water with you?

Then Rab-shakeh stood and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and spoke, saying, Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria: Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you: for he shall not be able to deliver you out of his hand: neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us, and this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of

- 31 Assyria. Hearken not to Hezekiah : for thus saith the king of Assyria, Make a present to me, and come out to me, and then eat ye every man of his own vine, and 32 every one of his fig tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his cistern : until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of oil olive and of honey, that ye may live, and not die : and hearken not unto Hezekiah, when he deceiveth you, saying, The 33 LORD will deliver us. Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered at all his 34 land out of the hand of the king of Assyria ? Where are the gods of Hamath, and of Arpad ? where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah ? have they delivered 35 Samaria out of my hand ? Who are they among all the gods of the countries, that have delivered their country out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand ?
 36 But the people held their peace, and answered him not a word : for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not.
 37 Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rab-shakeh. And when king Hezekiah heard it, 19 he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of
 2 the LORD. And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet the 3 son of Amoz. And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and blasphemy ; for the children are come to the birth, and 4 there is not strength to bring forth. It may be the LORD thy God will hear all the words of Rab-shakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to reproach the living God ; and will reprove the words which the LORD thy God hath heard : wherefore lift up thy prayer for the remnant who are left.
 5 6 So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah. And Isaiah said unto them, Thus shall ye say to your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words which thou hast heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me. Behold, I will send a blast upon him, and he shall hear a rumour, and shall return to his own land ; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.
 8 So Rab-shakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah ;
 9 for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish. And when he heard say of Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, Behold, he is come out to fight against thee ; he sent 10 messengers again unto Hezekiah, saying, Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah, king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God in whom thou trustest deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria. Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly :
 12 and shalt thou be delivered ? Have the gods of the nations delivered them whom my fathers have destroyed ; as Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of 13 Eden who were in Thelasar ? Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivah ?
 14 And Hezekiah received the letter of the hand of the messengers, and read it : and Hezekiah went up into the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD.
 15 And Hezekiah prayed before the LORD, and said, O LORD God of Israel, who dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth ; thou hast made the heavens and earth. LORD, bow down thine ear, and hear : open, LORD, thine eyes, and see ; and hear the words of Sennacherib, who hath sent to reproach the living God. Of a truth, LORD, the kings
 17 of Assyria have destroyed the nations and their lands, and have cast their gods into the fire : for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone :
 18 therefore they have destroyed them. Now therefore, O LORD our God, I beseech thee, save thou us out of his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the LORD God, even thou only.
 20 Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, That which thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria I have heard. This is the word that the LORD hath spoken concerning him ; The virgin the daughter of Zion hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn ; the 22 daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken her head at thee. Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed ? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted up thine 23 eyes on high ? even against the Holy One of Israel. By thy messengers thou hast reproached the LORD, and hast said, With the multitude of my chariots I am come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon, and will cut down the tall cedar trees thereof, and the choice fir trees thereof: and I will enter into the fastnesses of his borders, and into the forest, and his fruitful field. I have digged 24 and druck strange waters, and with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of besieged places. Hast thou not heard long ago that I have done this, and 25 that from ancient times I determined it? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldest reduce to heaps of ruin the strongest cities. Therefore their inhabitants 26 were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded; they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb; as the grass on the house tops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up. But I know thine abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, 27 and thy rage against me. Because thy rage against me and thy tumult are come up 28 into mine ears, therefore I will put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest. And this shall be a 29 sign unto thee, Ye shall eat this year such things as grow of themselves, and in the second year that which springeth of the same; and in the third year sow ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruits thereof. The escaping of the house of 30 Judah that remaineth shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward. For 31 out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and they who escape out of mount Zion: the zeal of the LORD of hosts shall do this. Therefore thus saith the LORD con- 32 cerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shield, nor throw up a bank against it. By the way 33 that he came, by the same shall he return, and shall not come into this city, saith the LORD. For I will defend this city, to save it, for mine own sake, and for my 34 servant David's sake.

And that night the angel of the LORD went out, and smote in the camp of the 35 Assyrians a hundred fourscore and five thousand: and on the morrow at the time of rising, behold, they were all dead corpses. So Sennacherib king of Assyria depart- 36 ed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh. And as he was worshipping in 37 the house of Nisroch his god, Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons smote him with the sword: and they escaped into the land of Armenia. And Esarhaddon his son reigned in his stead.

IN those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And the prophet Isaiah the son of 20 Amoz came to him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Give charge concerning thy house; for thou shalt die, and not live. Then Hezekiah turned his 2 face to the wall, and prayed unto the LORD, saying, I beseech thee, O LORD, 3 remember now how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept with a great weeping.

And before Isaiah was gone out into the middle court, the word of the LORD came 4 to him, saying, Turn again, and tell Hezekiah the captain of my people, Thus saith 5 the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will heal thee: on the third day thou shalt go up unto the house of the LORD. And I will add unto thy days fifteen years; and I will deliver thee 6 and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria; and I will defend this city for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake. And Isaiah said, Take a lump of 7 figs. And they took and laid it on the boil, and he recovered. And Hezekiah said 8 unto Isaiah, What shall be the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up into the house of the LORD the third day? And Isaiah said, This sign shalt 9 thou have of the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing that he hath spoken: shall the shadow go forward ten degrees, or go back ten degrees? And Hezekiah 10 answered, It is a light thing for the shadow to go down ten degrees: nay, but let the shadow return backward ten degrees. And Isaiah the prophet cried unto the LORD: 11 and he brought the shadow ten degrees backward, by which it had gone down in the dial of Ahaz.

At that time Merodach-baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters 12 and a present unto Hezekiah; for he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick. And 13 Hezekiah hearkened unto them, and showed them all the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah showed them not.

Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said 14 these men? and whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country, even from Babylon. And he said, What have they seen in thy house? And Hezekiah answered, All the things that are in my house have they 15 seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not showed them. And 16

17 Isaiah said unto Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD. Behold, the days come, that all that is in thy house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store unto and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon. Then said Heze- kiah unto Isaiah, Good is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken. And he said, Is it not good, if peace and truth be in my days?

20 And the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and all his might, and how he made a pool, and a conduit, and brought water into the city, are they not written in the book of 21 the chronicles of the kings of Judah? And Hezekiah slept with his fathers: and Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

21 MANASSEH was twelve years old when he began to reign, and reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hephzi-bah. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, after the abominations of the heathen, 3 whom the LORD cast out before the children of Israel. For he built up again the high places which Hezekiah his father had destroyed; and he reared up altars for Baal, and made a grove, as did Ahab king of Israel; and worshipped all the host of 4 the heavens, and served them. And he built altars in the house of the LORD, of 5 which the LORD said, In Jerusalem will I put my name. And he built altars for all 6 the host of the heavens in the two courts of the house of the LORD. And he made his son pass through the fire, and observed times, and used enchantments, and dealt with familiar spirits and wizards: he wrought much wickedness in the sight of the LORD, 7 to provoke him to anger. And he set a graven image of the grove that he had made in the house, of which the LORD said to David, and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all tribes of Israel, will I 8 put my name for ever: neither will I make the feet of Israel move any more out of the land which I gave their fathers; only if they will observe to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that my servant Moses 9 commanded them. But they hearkened not: and Manasseh seduced them to do more evil than did the nations whom the LORD destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 11 And the LORD spoke by his servants the prophets, saying, Because Manasseh king of Judah hath done these abominations, and hath done wickedly above all that the Amorites did, who were before him, and hath made Judah also to sin with his 12 idols: therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Behold, I am bringing such evil upon Jerusalem and Judah, that whosoever heareth of it, both his ears shall tingle.
13 And I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab; and I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipeth a dish, wiping it, and turning 14 it upside down. And I will forsake the remnant of mine inheritance, and deliver them into the hand of their enemies; and they shall become a prey and a spoil to 15 all their enemies; because they have done that which was evil in my sight, and have provoked me to anger, since the day their fathers came forth out of Egypt, even unto 16 this day. Moreover Manasseh shed much innocent blood, till he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another; besides his sin wherewith he made Judah to sin, in doing that which was evil in the sight of the LORD.

17 Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and all that he did, and his sin that he sinned, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
18 And Manasseh slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza; and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

19 AMON was twenty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Meshullemeth, the daughter of 20 Haruz of Jotbah. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as his 21 father Manasseh did. And he walked in all the way that his father walked in, and 22 served the idols that his father served, and worshipped them: and he forsook the 23 LORD God of his fathers, and walked not in the way of the LORD. And the serv-24 ants of Amon conspired against him, and slew the king in his own house. And the people of the land slew all those who had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

25 Now the rest of the acts of Amon which he did, are they not written in the book 26 of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? And they buried him in his sepulchre in the garden of Uzza: and Josiah his son reigned in his stead.

22 JOSIAH was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned thirty and one years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jedidah, the daughter of Adiah 2 of Boscath. And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in all the way of David his father, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left.

II. KINGS XXIII.

And in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, the king sent Shaphan the son of Azariah, the son of Meshullam, the scribe, to the house of the LORD, saying, Go up to Hilkiah the high priest, that he may sum up the silver which is brought into the house of the LORD, which the keepers of the door have gathered of the people: and let them deliver it into the hand of the doers of the work, who have the oversight of the house of the LORD: and let them give it to the doers of the work who are in the house of the LORD, to repair the breaches of the house, unto carpenters, and builders, and masons; and to buy timber and hewn stone to repair the house. Howbeit there shall be no reckoning made with them of the money that may be delivered into their hand, because they deal faithfully.

And Hilkiah the high priest said unto Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it. And Shaphan the scribe came to the king, and brought the king word again, and said, Thy servants have gathered the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of those who do the work, who have the oversight of the house of the LORD. And Shaphan the scribe showed the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest hath delivered me a book. And Shaphan read it before the king. And when the king had heard the words of the book of the law, he rent his clothes. And the king commanded Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Achbor the son of Michaiah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asahiah a servant of the king's, saying, Go ye, inquire of the LORD for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that is found; for great is the wrath of the LORD that is kindled against us, because our fathers have not hearkened unto the words of this book, to do according unto all that which is written concerning us.

So Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asahiah, went unto Iudah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the suburbs;) and they communed with her. And she said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Tell the man who sent you to me, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the words of the book which the king of Judah hath read: because they have forsaken me, and have burnt incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore my wrath shall be kindled against this place, and shall not be quenched. But to the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of the LORD, thus shall ye say to him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, As touching the words which thou hast heard; Because thy heart was tender, and thou hast humbled thyself before the LORD, when thou heardest what I spoke against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, that they should become a desolation and a curse, and hast rent thy clothes, and wept before me; I also have heard thee, saith the LORD. Behold therefore, I will gather thee unto thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered into thy grave in peace; and thine eyes shall not see all the evil which I will bring upon this place. And they brought the king word again.

And the king sent, and they gathered unto him all the elders of Judah and of Jerusalem. And the king went up into the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him; and the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, both small and great: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant which was found in the house of the LORD. And the king stood by a pillar, and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments and his testimonies and his statutes with all their heart and all their soul, to perform the words of this covenant that were written in this book. And all the people stood to the covenant.

And the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the door, to bring forth out of the temple of the LORD all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for the grove, and for all the host of the heavens: and he burnt them without Jerusalem in the fields of Kidron, and carried the ashes of them unto Beth-el. And he put down the idolatrous priests, whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense in the high places in the cities of Judah, and in the places round about Jerusalem; those also who burnt incense unto Baal, to the sun, and to the moon, and to the planets, and to all the host of the heavens. And he brought out the grove from the house of the LORD, without Jerusalem, unto the brook Kidron, and burnt it at the brook Kidron, and stamped it small to powder, and cast the powder thereof upon the graves of the children of the people.

II. KINGS XXIII.

- 7 And he broke down the houses of the sodomites, that were by the house of the
- 8 LORD, where the women wove hangings for the grove. And he brought all the priests out of the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burnt incense, from Geba to Beer-sheba, and broke down the high places of the gates that were in the entering in of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which
- 9 were on a man's left hand at the gate of the city. Nevertheless the priests of the high places came not up to the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem, but they ate of the unleavened bread among their brethren. And he defiled Tophet, which is in the valley of the children of Hinnom, that no man might make his son or his daughter to pass
- 11 through the fire to Moloch. And he took away the horses which the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the entering in of the house of the LORD, by the chamber of Nathan-melech the chamberlain, which was in the suburbs, and burnt the chariots
- 12 of the sun with fire. And the altars that were on the top of the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of the LORD, did the king beat down, and broke
- 13 them down from thence, and cast the dust of them into the brook Kidron. And the high places that were before Jerusalem, which were on the right hand of the mount of corruption, which Solomon the king of Israel had built for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Zidonians, and for Chemosh the abomination of the Moabites, and for
- 14 Milcom the abomination of the children of Ammon, did the king defile. And he broke in pieces the images, and cut down the groves, and filled their places with the bones of men.
- 15 Moreover the altar that was at Beth-el, and the high place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, had made, both that altar and the high place he broke down, and burnt the high place, and stamped it small to powder, and burnt
- 16 the grove. And as Josiah turned himself, he spied the sepulchres that were there in the mount, and sent, and took the bones out of the sepulchres, and burnt them upon the altar, and polluted it, according to the word of the LORD which the man of God
- 17 proclaimed, who proclaimed these words. Then he said, What inscription is that which I see? And the men of the city told him, It is the sepulchre of the man of God, who came from Judah, and proclaimed these things that thou hast done against
- 18 the altar of Beth-el. And he said, Let him alone; let no man move his bones. So they let his bones alone, with the bones of the prophet who came out of Samaria.
- 19 And all the houses also of the high places that were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke the LORD to anger, Josiah took away, and
- 20 did to them according to all the acts that he had done in Beth-el. And he slew all the priests of the high places that were there upon the altars, and burnt men's bones upon them, and returned to Jerusalem.
- 21 And the king commanded all the people, saying, Keep the passover unto the
- 22 LORD your God, as it is written in the book of this covenant. Surely there was not holden such a passover from the days of the judges who judged Israel, nor in
- 23 all the days of the kings of Israel, nor of the kings of Judah; but in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, wherein this passover was holden to the LORD in Jerusalem.
- 24 Moreover the workers with familiar spirits, and the wizards, and the images, and the idols, and all the abominations that were spied in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, did Josiah put away, that he might perform the words of the law which were
- 25 written in the book that Hilkiah the priest found in the house of the LORD. And like unto him was there no king before him, who turned to the LORD with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the law of Moses; neither after him arose there any like him. Notwithstanding the LORD turned
- 27 not from the fierceness of his great wrath, wherewith his anger was kindled against Judah, because of all the provocations that Manasseh had provoked him with. And the LORD said, I will remove Judah also out of my sight, as I have removed Israel, and will cast off this city Jerusalem which I have chosen, and the house of which I said, My name shall be there.
- 28 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
- 29 In his days Pharaoh-nechoh king of Egypt went up against the king of Assyria to the river Euphrates: and king Josiah went against him; and he slew him at Megiddo, when he had seen him. And his servants carried him in a chariot dead from
- 30 Megiddo, and brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own sepulchre. And the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and anointed him, and made him king in his father's stead.
- 31 JEHOAHAZ was twenty and three years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done. And Pharaoh-nechoh put him in bonds at Riblah in the land of Hamath, that he might not reign in Jerusalem; and put the land to a tribute of a hundred talents of silver, and a talent of gold. And Pharaoh-nechoh made Eliakim the son of Josiah king in the room of Josiah his father, and turned his name to Jehoiakim, and took Jehoahaz away: and he went to Egypt, and died there. And Jehoiakim gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh; but he taxed the land to give the money according to the commandment of Pharaoh: he exacted the silver and the gold of the people of the land, of every one according to his taxation, to give it unto Pharaoh-nechoh.

JEHOIAKIM was twenty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Zebudah, the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

In his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his servant three years: then he turned and rebelled against him. And the LORD sent against him bands of the Chaldees, and bands of the Syrians, and bands of the Moabites, and bands of the children of Ammon, and sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of the LORD, which he spoke by his servants the prophets. Surely at the commandment of the LORD came this upon Judah, to remove them out of his sight, for the sins of Manassch, according to all that he did; and also for the innocent blood that he shed: for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood; which the LORD would not pardon.

Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

So Jehoiakim slept with his fathers; and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead. And the king of Egypt came not again any more out of his land; for the king of Babylon had taken from the river of Egypt, unto the river Euphrates, all that pertained to the king of Egypt.

JEHOIACHIN was eighteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months. And his mother's name was Nehushta, the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father had done.

At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against Jerusalem, and the city was besieged. And Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came against the city, and his servants besieged it. And Jehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he, and his mother, and his servants, and his princes, and his officers: and the king of Babylon took him in the eighth year of his reign. And he carried out thence all the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold which Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of the LORD, as the LORD had said. And he carried away all Jerusalem, and all the princes, and all the mighty men of valour, even ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and locksmiths: none remained, save the poorest sort of the people of the land. And he carried away Jehoiachin to Babylon, and the king's mother, and the king's wives, and his officers, and the mighty of the land, carried he into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon. And all the men of might, even seven thousand, and craftsmen and locksmiths a thousand, all who were strong and apt for war, even them the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon. And the king of Babylon made Mattaniah his father's brother king in his stead, and changed his name to Zedekiah.

ZEDEKIAH was twenty and one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. For through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

And in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he, and all his host, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it; and they built forts against it round about. And the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah. And on the ninth day of the fourth month the famine prevailed in the city, and there was no bread for the people of the land. And the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled by night by the way of the gate between two walls, which is by the king's garden:

II. KINGS XXV.

- (now the Chaldees were against the city round about :) and they went the way towards the plain. And the army of the Chaldees pursued after the king, and overtook him in the plains of Jericho: and all his army were scattered from him. So they took the king, and brought him up to the king of Babylon to Riblah; and he gave judgment upon him. And he slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him with fetters of brass, and carried him to Babylon.
- And in the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month, which is the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, came Nebuzar-adan, captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, unto Jerusalem: and he burnt the house of the LORD, and the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem, and every great man's house burnt he with fire. And all the army of the Chaldees, who were with the captain of the guard, broke down the walls of Jerusalem round about. Now the rest of the people left in the city, and the fugitives who fell away to the king of Babylon, with the remnant of the multitude, did Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carry away. But the captain of the guard left of the poor of the land to be vine-dressers and husbandmen.
- And the pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases, and the brazen sea that was in the house of the LORD, did the Chaldees break in pieces, and carried the brass of them to Babylon. And the pots, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass wherewith they ministered, took they away. And the firepans, and the bowls, and such things as were of gold, in gold, and of silver, in silver, the captain of the guard took away. The two pillars, the one sea, and the bases which Solomon had made for the house of the LORD; the brass of all these vessels was without weight. The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, and the capital upon it was brass: and the height of the capital three cubits; and the wreathen work, and pomegranates upon the capital round about, all of brass: and like unto these had the second pillar with wreathen work.
- And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the door: and out of the city he took an officer who was set over the men of war, and five men of those who were in the king's presence, who were found in the city, and the principal scribe of the captain of the host, who mustered the people of the land, and threescore men of the people of the land who were found in the city: and Nebuzar-adan captain of the guard took these, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah: and the king of Babylon smote them, and slew them at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away out of their land.
- And as for the people who remained in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, even over them he made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, ruler. And when all the captains of the armies, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor, there came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan the son of Careah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of a Maachathite, they and their men. And Gedaliah swore to them, and to their men, and said unto them, Fear not to be the servants of the Chaldees: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon; and it shall be well with you. But in the seventh month Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the seed royal, came, and ten men with him, and smote Gedaliah, that he died, and the Jews and the Chaldees who were with him at Mizpah. And all the people, both small and great, and the captains of the armies, arose, and came to Egypt: for they were afraid of the Chaldees.
- AND in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, Evil-merodach king of Babylon in the year that he began to reign released Jehoiachin king of Judah out of prison; and he spoke kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings who were with him in Babylon; and changed his prison garments: and he did eat bread continually before him all the days of his life. And his allowance was a continual allowance given him of the king, a daily rate for every day, all the days of his life.

Aram, and Uz, and Hul, and Gether, and Meshech. And Arphaxad begat Shelah, 18 and Shelah begat Eber. And unto Eber were born two sons: the name of the one 19 was Peleg; because in his days the earth was divided: and his brother's name was Joktan. And Joktan begat Almodad, and Sheleph, and Hazarmaveth, and Jerah, 20 Hadoram also, and Uzal, and Diklah, and Obal, and Abimael, and Sheba, and Ophir, 21-23 and Havilah, and Jobab. All these were the sons of Joktan.

Shem, Arphaxad, Shelah, Eber, Peleg, Reu, Serug, Nahor, Terah, Abram; the 24-27 same is Abraham.

The sons of Abraham; Isaac, and Ishmael. 28

These are their generations: The firstborn of Ishmael, Nebaioth; then Kedar, 29 and Adbeel, and Mibsam, Mishma, and Dumah, Massa, Hadar, and Tema, Jetur, 30 31
Naphish, and Kedemah. These are the sons of Ishmael.

Now the sons Keturah, Abraham's concubine: she bore Zimran, and Jokshan, 32 and Medan, and Midian, and Ishbak, and Shuah. And the sons of Jokshan; Sheba, 33 and Dedan. And the sons of Midian; Ephah, and Ephher, and Henoch, and Abida, 33 and Eldaah. All these are the sons of Keturah.

And Abraham begat Isaac. The sons of Isaac; Esau, and Israel. 34

The sons of Esau; Eliphaz, Reuel, and Jeush, and Jaalam, and Korah. The sons 35 36 of Eliphaz; Teman, and Omar, Zepho, and Gatam, Kenaz, and Timna, and Amalek. The sons of Reuel; Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah. And the sons of Seir; 37 38 Lotan, and Shobal, and Zibeon, and Anah, and Dishon, and Ezar, and Dishan. And 39 the sons of Lotan; Hori, and Heman: and Timna was Lotan's sister. The sons of 40 Shobal; Alvan, and Manahath, and Ebal, Shepho, and Onam. And the sons of Zi- 41
beon; Aiah, and Anah. The sons of Anah; Dishon. And the sons of Dishon; 41 Hemdan, and Eshban, and Ithran, and Cheran. The sons of Ezer; Bilhan, and 42
Zauavan, and Achan. The sons of Dishan; Uz, and Aran. Now these are the kings 43 who reigned in the land of Edom before any king reigned over the children of Israel; 44 Bela the son of Beor: and the name of his city was Dinhabah. And when Bela was 44 dead, Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his stead. And when Jobab 45 was dead, Husham of the land of the Temanites reigned in his stead. And when 46 Husham was dead, Hadad the son of Bedad, who smote Midian in the field of Moab, 47 reigned in his stead: and the name of his city was Avith. And when Hadad was 47 dead, Samlah of Masrekeh reigned in his stead. And when Samlah was dead, Shaul 48 of Rehoboth by the river reigned in his stead. And when Shaul was dead, Baal- 49 hanan the son of Achbor reigned in his stead. And when Baal-hanan was dead, 50 Hadar reigned in his stead: and the name of his city was Pau; and his wife's name 51 was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahab. Hadar died 51 also. And the dukes of Edom were; duke Timnah, duke Alvah, duke Jetheth, duke 52
Aholibamah, duke Elah, duke Pinon, duke Kenaz, duke Teman, duke Mibzar, duke 53 54
Magdiel, duke Iram. These are the dukes of Edom.

These are the sons of Israel; Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah, Issachar, and 2
Zebulun, Dan, Joseph, and Benjamin, Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.

I. CHRONICLES II.

- 3 The sons of Judah; Er, and Onan, and Shelah : which three were born unto him of the daughter of Shua the Canaanitess. And Er, the firstborn of Judah, was evil 4 in the sight of the LORD ; and he slew him. And Tamar his daughter-in-law bore him Pharez and Zerah. All the sons of Judah were five.
- 5 6 The sons of Pharez; Hezron, and Hamul. And the sons of Zerah; Zabdi, and Ethan, and Heman, and Calcol, and Darda : five of them in all.
- 7 And the sons of Carmi; Achar, the troubler of Israel, who transgressed in the 8 9 thing accursed. And the sons of Ethan; Azariah. The sons also of Hezron, who were born unto him; Jerahmeel, and Aram, and Caleb.
- 10 And Aram begat Amminadab; and Amminadab begat Nahshon, prince of the 11 12 children of Judah; and Nahshon begat Salmon, and Salmon begat Boaz, and Boaz begat Obed, and Obed begat Jesse, and Jesse begat his firstborn Eliab, and Abinadab the second, and Shammah the third, Nethaneel the fourth, Raddai the fifth, 15 16 Elihu the seventh, David the eighth : whose sisters were Zeruiah, and Abigail. And the sons of Zeruiah; Abishai, and Joab, and Asahel, three. And Abigail bore Amasa : and the father of Amasa was Jether the Ishmaelite.
- 18 And Caleb the son of Hezron begat children of Azubah his wife, and of Jerioth :
19 her sons are these ; Jeshur, and Shobab, and Ardun. And when Azubah was dead,
20 Caleb took unto him Ephrath, who bore him Hur. And Hur begat Uri, and Uri begat Bezaleel. And afterwards Hezron went in to the daughter of Machir the father of Gilead, whom he married when he was threescore years old ; and she bore him 22 Segub. And Segub begat Jair, who had three and twenty cities in the land of Gilead. And he took Geshur, and Aram, with the towns of Jair, from them, with Kenath, and the towns thereof, even threescore cities. All these belonged to the 24 sons of Machir the father of Gilead. And after that Hezron was dead in Caleb-ephratah, then Abiah Hezron's wife bore him Ashur the father of Tekoa.
- 25 And the sons of Jerahmeel the firstborn of Hezron were, Aram the firstborn, and 26 Bunah, and Orcn, and Ozem, and Ahijah. Jerahmeel had also another wife, whose 27 name was Atarah ; she was the mother of Onam. And the sons of Aram the first-born of Jerahmeel were, Maaz, and Jamin, and Eker. And the sons of Onam were, 29 Shammai, and Jada. And the sons of Shammai; Nadab, and Abishur. And the 30 name of the wife of Abishur was Abihail, and she bore him Ahban, and Molid. And 31 the sons of Nadab; Seled, and Appaim : but Seled died without children. And the sons of Appaim; Ishi. And the sons of Ishi; Sheshan. And the children of Sheshan;
32 shan; Allai. And the sons of Jada the brother of Shammai; Jether, and Jonathan :
33 and Jether died without children. And the sons of Jonathan; Peleth, and Zaza. These were the sons of Jerahmeel.
- 34 Now Sheshan had no sons, but daughters. And Sheshan had a servant, an Egyptian, whose name was Jarha. And Sheshan gave his daughter to Jarha his servant 35 to wife : and she bore him Attai. And Attai begat Nathan, and Nathan begat Zabad, and Zabad begat Ephlal, and Ephlal begat Obed, and Obed begat Jehu, 37 38 and Jehu begat Azariah, and Azariah begat Helez, and Helez begat Eleasah, and 39 40 Eleasah begat Sisamai, and Sisamai begat Shallum, and Shallum begat Jekamiah, and Jekamiah begat Elishama.
- 42 Now the sons of Caleb the brother of Jerahmeel were, Mesha his firstborn, who 43 was the father of Ziph ; and the sons of Mareshah the father of Hebron. And the 44 sons of Hebron; Korah, and Tappuah, and Rekem, and Shema. And Shema begat Raham, the father of Jorkoam : and Rekem begat Shammai. And the son of 46 Shammai was Maon : and Maon was the father of Beth-zur. And Ephah, Caleb's 47 concubine, bore Haran, and Moza, and Gazez : and Haran begat Gazez. And the sons of Jahdai; Regem, and Jotham, and Gesham, and Pelet, and Ephah, and Shaaph.
48 49 Maachah, Caleb's concubine, bore Sheber, and Tirhanah. She bore also Shaaph the father of Madmannah, Sheva the father of Machbenah, and the father of Gibeaz : and the daughter of Caleb was Aehsa.
- 50 These were the sons of Caleb the son of Hur, the firstborn of Ephratah ; Shobal 51 the father of Kirjath-jearim, Salma the father of Beth-lehem, Hareph the father of Beth-gader. And Shobal the father of Kirjath-jearim had sons ; Haroeh, and half 53 of the Manahethites. And the families of Kirjath-jearim ; the Ithrites, and the Puhites, and the Shumathites, and the Mishraites ; of them came the Zareathites, and the Eshtaulites. The sons of Salma ; Beth-lehem, and the Netophathites, 54 Ataroah, the house of Joab, and half of the Manahethites, the Zorites. And the families of the scribes who dwelt at Jabez ; the Tirathites, the Shimeathites, and Suchathites. These are the Kenites who came of Hemath, the father of the house of Reehab.

NOW these were the sons of David, who were born unto him in Hebron; the first-born Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess: the second Daniel, of Abigail the Carmelitess: the third, Absalom the son of Maachah the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur: the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith: the fifth, Shephatiah of Abital: the sixth, Ithream by Egah his wife. These six were born unto him in Hebron; and there he reigned seven years and six months: and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty and three years. And these were born unto him in Jerusalem; Shimea, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Solomon, four, of Bath-sheba the daughter of Ammiel: Ibhar also, and Elishama, and Eliphelet, and Nogah, and Nepheg, and Japhia, and Elishama, and Eliada, and Eliphelet, nine. These were all the sons of David, besides the sons of the concubines, and Tamar their sister.

And Solomon's son was Rehoboam, Abia his son, Asa his son, Jehoshaphat his son, Joram his son, Ahaziah his son, Joash his son, Amaziah his son, Azariah his son, Jotham his son, Ahaz his son, Hezekiah his son, Manasseh his son, Amon his son, Josiah his son.

And the sons of Josiah were, the firstborn Johanan, the second Jehoiakim, the third Zedekiah, the fourth Shallum.

And the sons of Jehoiakim: Jeconiah his son, Zedekiah his son.

And the sons of Jeconiah; Assir, Salathiel his son, Malchiram also, and Pedaiah, and Shenazar, Jecamiah, Hoshama, and Nedabiah.

And the sons of Pedaiah were, Zerubbabel, and Shimei: and the sons of Zerubbabel; Meshullam, and Hananiah, and Shelomith their sister: and Hashubah, and Ohel, and Berechiah, and Hasadiah, Jushab-besed, five.

And the sons of Hananiah; Pelatiah, and Jesaiah: the sons of Rephaiah, the sons of Arnan, the sons of Obadiah, the sons of Shechaniah.

And the sons of Shechaniah; Shemaiah: and the sons of Shemaiah; Hattush, and Igeal, and Bariah, and Neariah, and Azariah, and Shaphat, six.

And the sons of Neariah; Elioenai, and Hezekiah, and Azrikam, three.

And the sons of Elioenai were, Hodaiah, and Eliashib, and Pelaiah, and Akkub, and Johanan, and Dalaiah, and Anani, seven.

THE SONS OF JUDAH; Pharez, Hezron, and Carmi, and Hur, and Shobal. And Reaiah the son of Shobal begat Jahath: and Jahath begat Ahumai, and Lahad. These are the families of the Zorathites. And these peopled Etam; Jezreel, and Ishma, and Idbash: and the name of their sister was Hazeleponi: and Penuel the father of Gedor, and Ezer the father of Hushah. These are the sons of Hur, the firstborn of Ephratah, the father of Beth-lehem.

And Ashur the father of Tekoa had two wives, Helah and Naarah. And Naarah bore him Ahuzam, and Hopher, and Temeni, and Haahashtari. These were the sons of Naarah. And the sons of Helah were, Zereth, and Jezoar, and Ethnan. Coz begat Anub, and Zobebah, and the families of Aharel the son of Harum.

And Jabez was more honourable than his brethren: and his mother called his name Jabez [SORROWFUL], saying, Because I bore him with sorrow. And Jabez called on the God of Israel, saying, Oh that thou wouldest bless me indeed, and enlarge my coast, and that thy hand might be with me, and that thou wouldest keep me from evil, that it may not grieve me! And God granted him that which he requested.

And Chelub the brother of Shuah begat Mehir, who was the father of Eshton. Eshton begat Beth-rapha, and Pascah, and Tehinnah the father of Ir-nahash. These are the men of Rechab. And the sons of Kenaz; Othniel, and Seraiah: and the sons of Othniel; Hathath. And Meonothai, who begat Ophrah: and Seraiah, who begat Joab, the father of the inhabitants of the valley of Charashim; for they were craftsmen. And the sons of Caleb the son of Jephunneh; Iru, Elah, and Naam: and the sons of Elah, even Kenaz. And the sons of Jehaleleel; Ziph, and Ziphah, Tiria, and Asareel. And the sons of Ezra were, Jether, and Mered, and Ephraim, and Jalon: and she bore Miriam, and Shammai, and Ishbah the father of Eshtemoa. And his wife Jehudijah bore Jered the father of Gedor, and Heber the father of Socho, and Jekuthiel the father of Zanoah. And these are the sons of Bithiah the daughter of Pharaoh, whom Mered took. And the sons of his wife Hodiah the sister of Naham, the father of Keilah the Garmite, and Eshtemoa the Maachathite. And the sons of Shimon were, Amnon, and Rinnah, Ben-hanan, and Tilon. And the sons of Ishi were, Zoheth, and Ben-zoheth.

The sons of Shelah the son of Judah were, Er the father of Lecah, and Laadah the father of Mareshah, and the families of the house of those who wrought fine linen, of the house of Ashbea, and Jokim, and the men of Chozeba, and Joash, and Saraph, who had the dominion in Moab, and Jashubi-lehem. These were pottery, the inhabitants of Notaim and Gadera, employed by the king for his own work.

24 THE SONS OF SIMEON were, Jemuel, and Jamin, Jarib, Zerah, and Shaul :
 25 Shallum his son, Mibsam his son, Mishma his son. And the sons of Mishma ; Ha-27 muel his son, Zacehur his son, Shimei his son. And Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters ; but his brethren had not many children, neither did all their family 28 multiply, like to the children of Judah. And they dwelt at Beer-sheba, and Mola-29 dah, and Hazar-shual, and at Bilhah, and at Ezem, and at Tolad, and at Bethuel, 31 and at Hormah, and at Ziklag, and at Beth-marcaboth, and Hazar-susim, and at 32 Beth-birei, and at Shaaraim. These were their cities unto the reign of David. And their villages were, Etam, and Ain, Rimmon, and Tochen, and Ashan, five cities :
 33 and all their villages that were round about the same cities, unto Baal. These were 34 their habitations, and their genealogy. And Meshobab, and Jamlech, and Joshah 35 the son of Amaziah, and Joel, and Jehu the son of Josibiah, the son of Seraiah, the 36 son of Asiel, and Elioenai, and Jaakobah, and Jesholiaiah, and Asaiah, and 37 Adiel, and Jesimiel, and Benaiah, and Ziza the son of Shippi, the son of Allon, 38 the son of Jedaiiah, the son of Shimri, the son of Shemaiah ; these mentioned by their names were princes in their families : and the house of their fathers increased greatly.
 39 And they went to the entrance of Gedor, even unto the east side of the valley, to 40 seek pasture for their flocks. And they found fat pasture and good, and the land 41 was wide, and quiet, and peaceable ; for they of Ham had dwelt there of old. And these written by name came in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and smote their tents, and the habitations that were found there, and destroyed them utterly, and 42 dwelt in their places : because there was pasture there for their flocks. And some of them, even of the sons of Simeon, five hundred men, went to mount Seir, having for their captains Pelatiah, and Neariah, and Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi.
 43 And they smote the rest of the Amalekites who were escaped, and dwelt there unto this day.

5 NOW THE SONS OF REUBEN the firstborn of Israel, (for he was the firstborn ; but, forasmuch as he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given unto the sons of Joseph the son of Israel : and the genealogy is not to be reckoned after the 2 birthright. For Judah prevailed above his brethren, and of him came the chief
 3 ruler ; but the birthright was Joseph's :) the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel
 4 were, Hanoch, and Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi. The sons of Joel ; Shemaiah his son, 5 6 Gog his son, Shimei his son, Micah his son, Reaia his son, Baal his son, Beerah his son, whom Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria carried away captive : he was prince of the Reubenites.

7 And his brethren by their families, when the genealogy of their generations was 8 reckoned, were the chief, Jeiel, and Zechariah, and Bela the son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel, who dwelt in Aroer, even unto Nebo and Baal-meon :
 9 and eastward he inhabited unto the entering in of the wilderness from the river Eu-10 phrates : because their cattle were multiplied in the land of Gilead. And in the days of Saul they made war with the Hagarites, who fell by their hand : and they dwelt in their tents throughout all the east land of Gilead.

11 AND THE CHILDREN OF GAD dwelt over against them, in the land of Bashan unto Salcah : Joel the chief, and Shapham the next, and Jaanai, and Shaphat in 13 Bashan. And their brethren of the house of their fathers were, Michael, and Me-14 shullam, and Sheba, and Jorai, and Jachan, and Zia, and Heber, seven. These are the children of Abihail the son of Huri, the son of Jaruah, the son of Gilead, the son 15 of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz ; Ahi the son of 16 Abdiel, the son of Guni, chief of the house of their fathers. And they dwelt in Gilead in Bashan, and in its towns, and in all the suburbs of Sharon, upon their bor-17 ders. All these were reckoned by genealogies in the days of Jotham king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam king of Israel.

18 The sons of Reuben, and the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manassah, sons of valour, men able to bear buckler and sword, and to shoot with bow, and skilful in war, were four and forty thousand seven hundred and threescore, who went out to 19 the war. And they made war with the Hagarites, with Jetur, and Nephish, and 20 Nodab. And they were helped against them, and the Hagarites were delivered into their hand, and all who were with them : for they cried to God in the battle, 21 and he was entreated of them ; because they put their trust in him. And they took away their cattle ; of their camels fifty thousand, and of sheep two hundred and fifty 22 thousand, and of asses two thousand, and of men a hundred thousand. For these fell down many slain, because the war was of God. And they dwelt in their stands until the captivity.

And the children of the half tribe of Manasseh dwelt in the land: they increased 23 from Bashan unto Baal-hermon and Senir, and unto mount Hermon. And these 24 were the heads of the house of their fathers, even Ephraim, and Ishi, and Eliel, and Azriel, and Jeremiah, and Hodaviah, and Jahdiel, mighty men of valour, famous men, and heads of the house of their fathers.

And they transgressed against the God of their fathers, and went a whoring after 25 the gods of the people of the land, whom God destroyed before them. And the God 26 of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul king of Assyria, and the spirit of Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and he carried them away, even the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, and brought them unto Halah, and Habor, and Hara, and to the river Gozan, unto this day.

THE SONS OF LEVI; Gershom, Kohath, and Merari. And the sons of Kohath; 6 Amram, Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel. And the children of Amram; Aaron, and Moses, and Miriam. The sons also of Aaron; Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. Eleazar begat Phinehas. Phinehas begat Abishua, and Abishua begat 4 5 Bukki, and Bukki begat Uzzi, and Uzzi begat Zerariah, and Zerariah begat Merai- 6 oth, Meraioth begat Amariah, and Amariah begat Ahitub, and Ahitub begat Zadok, 7 8 and Zadok begat Ahimaaz, and Ahimaaz begat Azariah, and Azariah begat Joha- 9 nan, and Johanan begat Azariah, (he it is who executed the priest's office in the 10 temple that Solomon built in Jerusalem :) and Azariah begat Amariah, and Amariah 11 begat Ahitub, and Ahitub begat Zadok, and Zadok begat Shallum, and Shallum 12 13 begat Hilkiah, and Hilkiah begat Azariah, and Azariah begat Seraiah, and Seraiah 14 begat Jehozadak, and Jehozadak went into captivity, when the LORD carried away 15 Judah and Jerusalem by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar.

The sons of Levi; Gershom, Kohath, and Merari. And these are the names of 16 17 the sons of Gershom; Libni, and Shimei. And the sons of Kohath were, Amram, 18 and Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel. The sons of Merari; Mahli, and Mushi. And 19 these are the families of the Levites according to their fathers. Of Gershom; 20 Libni his son, Jahath his son, Zimmah his son, Joah his son, Iddo his son, Zerah 21 his son, Jeaterai his son. The sons of Kohath; Amminadab his son, Korah his son, 22 Assir his son, Elkanah his son, and Ebiasaph his son, and Assir his son, Tahath his 23 24 son, Uriel his son, Uzziel his son, and Shaul his son. And the sons of Elkanah; 25 Amasai, and Ahimoth. As for Elkanah: the sons of Elkanah; Zophai his son, and 26 Nahath his son, Eliab his son, Jeroham his son, Elkanah his son. And the sons of 27 28 Samuel; the firstborn Vashni, and the second Abiah. The sons of Merari; Mahli, 29 Libni his son, Shimei his son, Uzza his son, Shimei his son, Haggiah his son, Asaiah 30 his son.

And these are they whom David set over the service of song in the house of the 31 LORD, after that the ark had rest. And they ministered before the dwelling place 32 of the tabernacle of the congregation with singing, until Solomon had built the house of the LORD in Jerusalem: and then they waited on their office according to their order.

And these are they who waited with their children. Of the sons of the Kohath- 33 ites; Heman a singer, the son of Joel, the son of Shemucl, the son of Elkanah, 34 the son of Jeroham, the son of Eliel, the son of Toah, the son of Zuph, the son of 35 Elkanah, the son of Mahath, the son of Amasai, the son of Elkanah, the son of 36 Joel, the son of Azariah, the son of Zephaniah, the son of Tahath, the son of Assir, 37 the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son 38 of Levi, the son of Israel. And his brother Asaph, who stood on his right hand, 39 even Asaph the son of Berachiah, the son of Shimeah, the son of Michael, the son of 40 Baasiah, the son of Malchiah, the son of Ethni, the son of Zerah, the son of Adaiah, 41 the son of Ethan, the son of Zimmah, the son of Shimei, the son of Jahath, the son 42 43 of Gershom, the son of Levi. And their brethren the sons of Merari stood on the 44 left hand: Jeduthun the son of Kishi, the son of Abdi, the son of Malluch, the son 45 of Hashabiah, the son of Amaziah, the son of Hilkiah, the son of Amzi, the son of 46 Bani, the son of Shamer, the son of Mahli, the son of Mushi, the son of Merari, 47 the son of Levi. Their brethren also the Levites were appointed unto all manner 48 of service of the tabernacle of the house of God.

But Aaron and his sons offered upon the altar of the burnt offering, and on the 49 altar of incense, and were appointed for all the work of the most holy place, and to make an atonement for Israel, according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded. And these are the sons of Aaron; Eleazar his son, Phinehas his son, 50

- 51 52 Abishua his son, Bukki the son, Uzzi his son, Zerariah his son, Meraioth his son, 53 Amariah his son, Ahitub his son, Zadok his son, Ahimaaz his son.
 54 NOW these are their dwelling places throughout their castles in their coasts, of 55 the sons of Aaron, of the families of the Kohathites: for theirs was the lot. And 56 they gave them Hebron in the land of Judah, and its suburbs round about it. But 57 the fields of the city, and its villages, they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh. And to the sons of Aaron they gave the cities of Judah, namely, Hebron, the city of refuge, and Libnah, with its suburbs, and Jattir, and Eshtemoa, with their suburbs, 58 59 and Hilen with its suburbs, Debir with its suburbs, and Ashan with its suburbs, and 60 Beth-shemesh with its suburbs: and out of the tribe of Benjamin; Geba with its suburbs, and Alemeth with its suburbs, and Anathoth with its suburbs. All their 61 cities throughout their families were thirteen cities. And unto the sons of Kohath, who were left of the family of that tribe, were cities given out of the half tribe, 62 namely, out of the half tribe of Manasseh, by lot, ten cities. And to the sons of Gershom throughout their families out of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the tribe of Manasseh in Ba-63 shan, thirteen cities. Unto the sons of Merari were given by lot, throughout their families, out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the 64 tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities. And the children of Israel gave to the Levites these 65 cities with their suburbs. And they gave by lot out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, and out of the tribe of the children of Benjamin, these cities, which are called by their names.
 66 And the residue of the families of the sons of Kohath had cities of their coasts 67 out of the tribe of Ephraim. And they gave unto them, of the cities of refuge, Shechem in mount Ephraim with its suburbs; they gave also Gezer with its sub-68 69 urbs, and Jokmeam with its suburbs, and Beth-horon with its suburbs, and Ajjalou 70 with its suburbs, and Gath-rimmon with its suburbs: and out of the half tribe of Manasseh; Aner with its suburbs, and Bileam with its suburbs, for the family of the remnant of the sons of Kohath.
 71 Unto the sons of Gershom were given out of the family of the half tribe of Ma-
 72 nasseh, Golan in Bashan with its suburbs, and Ashtaroth with its suburbs: and out 73 of the tribe of Issachar; Kedesh with its suburbs, Daberath with its suburbs, and 74 Ramoth with its suburbs, and Anem with its suburbs: and out of the tribe of Asher;
 75 Mashel with its suburbs, and Abdon with its suburbs, and Hukok with its suburbs, 76 and Rehob with its suburbs: and out of the tribe of Naphtali; Kedesh in Galilee with its suburbs, and Hammon with its suburbs, and Kirjatbain with its suburbs.
 77 Unto the rest of the children of Merari were given out of the tribe of Zebulun, 78 Rimmon with its suburbs, Tabor with its suburbs: and on the other side the Jordan by Jericho, on the east side of the Jordan, were given them out of the tribe of Reu-79 ben, Bezer in the wilderness with its suburbs, and Jahzah with its suburbs, Kede-80 moth also with its suburbs, and Mephaath with its suburbs: and out of the tribe of 81 Gad; Ramoth in Gilead with its suburbs, and Mahanaim with its suburbs, and Heshbon with its suburbs, and Jazer with its suburbs.
- 7 NOW THE SONS OF ISSACHAR were, Tola, and Puah, Jashub, and Shimrom, four. And the sons of Tola; Uzzi, and Rephaiah, and Jeriel, and Jahmai, and Jib-sam, and Shemuel, heads of their father's house, to wit, of Tola: they were valiant men of might in their generations; whose number was in the days of David two and 3 twenty thousand and six hundred. And the sons of Uzzi; Izrahiah: and the sons of Izrahiah; Michael, and Obadiah, and Joel, Ishiah, five: all of them chief men.
 4 And with them, by their generations, after the house of their fathers, were bands of soldiers for war, six and thirty thousand men: for they had many wives and sons.
 5 And their brethren among all the families of Issachar were valiant men of might, reckoned in all by their genealogies fourscore and seven thousand.
- 6 7 THE SONS OF BENJAMIN; Bela, and Becher, and Jediel, three. And the sons of Bela; Ezbon, and Uzzi, and Uzziel, and Jerimoth, and Iri, five; heads of the house of their fathers, mighty men of valour; and were reckoned by their genealogies twenty 8 and two thousand and thirty and four. And the sons of Becher; Zemira, and Joash, and Eliezer, and Elieonai, and Omri, and Jerimoth, and Abiah, and Anathoth, and 9 Alameth. All these are the sons of Becher. And the number of them, after their genealogy by their generations, heads of the house of their fathers, mighty men of va-10 lour, was twenty thousand and two hundred. The sons also of Jediel; Bilhan:
 and the sons of Bilhan; Jeush, and Benjamin, and Ehud, and Chenaanah, and 11 Zethan, and Tharshish, and Ahishahar. All these the sons of Jediel, by the heads of their fathers, mighty men of valour, were seventeen thousand and two hundred soldiers, fit to go out for war and battle. Shuppmim also, and Huppmim, the children 12 of Ir, and Ilushim, the sons of Aher.

I. CHRONICLES VIII.

THE SONS OF NAPHTALI; Jahziel, and Guni, and Jezer, and Shallum, the 13 sons of Bilhah.

THE SONS OF MANASSEH; Ashriel, whom his Syrian concubine bore: she bore 14 also Machir the father of Gilead: and Machir took to wife the sister of Huppmim and 15 Shuppmim, whose sister's name was Maachah. And Maachah the wife of Machir 16 bore a son, and she called his name Peresh: and the name of his brother was Sheresh; and his sons were Ulam and Rakem. And the sons of Ulam; Bedan. These were 17 the sons of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh. And his sister Ham- 18 moleketh bore Ishod, and Abiezer, and Mahalah. And the sons of Shemidah were, 19
Abian, and Shechem, and Likhzi, and Aniam.

AND THE SONS OF EPHRAIM; Shuthelah, and Bered his son, and Tahath his 20 son, and Eladah his son, and Tahath his son, and Zabad his son, and Shuthelah his 21 son, and Ezer, and Elead, whom the men of Gath that were born in that land slew, because they came down to take away their cattle. And Ephraim their father mourned 22 many days, and his brethren came to comfort him. And when he went in to his 23 wife, she conceived, and bore a son, and he called his name Beriah [IN CALAMITY], because it went evil with his house. (And his daughter was Sherah, who built Beth- 24 horon the lower, and the upper, and Uzzen-sherah.) And Rephah was his son, also 25 Resheph, and Telah his son, and Tahan his son, Laadan his son, Ammihud his son, 26
Elishama his son, Non his son, Jchoshuah his son. 27

And their possessions and habitations were, Beth-el and the towns thereof, and 28 eastward Naaran, and westward Gezer, with the towns thereof; Shechem also and the towns thereof, unto Gaza and the towns thereof: and by the borders of the chil- 29 dren of Manasseh, Beth-shean and its towns, Taanach and its towns, Megiddo and its towns, Dor and its towns. In these dwelt the children of Joseph the son of Israel.

THE SONS OF ASHER; Imnah, and Isuah, and Ishuai, and Beriah, and Serah 30 their sister. And the sons of Beriah; Heber, and Malchiel, who is the father of Bir- 31 zavith. And Heber begat Japhlet, and Shomer, and Hotham, and Shua their 32 sister. And the sons of Japhlet; Pasach, and Bimhal, and Ashvath. These are the 33 children of Japhlet. And the sons of Shamer; Ahi, and Rohgah, Jehubbah, and 34 Aram. And the sons of his brother Helem; Zophah, and Imna, and Sheshel, and 35 Amal. The sons of Zophah; Suah, and Harnepher, and Shual, and Beri, and Im- 36 rah, Bezer, and Hod, and Shamma, and Shilshah, and Ithran, and Beera. And the 37 38 sons of Jether; Jephunneh, and Pispah, and Ara. And the sons of Ulla; Arah, and 39 Haniel, and Rezia.

All these were the children of Asher, heads of their father's house, choice and 40 mighty men of valour, chief of the princes. And the number throughout the genealogy of them who were apt to the war and to battle was twenty and six thousand men.

NOW Benjamin begat Bela his firstborn, Ashbel the second, and Aharah the third, 8 Nohah the fourth, and Rapha the fifth. And the sons of Bela were, Addar, and 4 Gera, and Abihud, and Abishua, and Naaman, and Ahoah, and Gera, and Shephu- 5 phan, and Huram. And these are the sons of Ehud: these are the heads of the fathers 6 of the inhabitants of Geba, and they removed them to Manahath: and Naaman, 7 and Ahiash, and Gera, he removed them, and begat Uzza, and Ahihud. And Sha- 8 haraim begat children in the country of Moah, after he had sent them away; Hu-shim and Baara were his wives. And he begat of Hodesh his wife, Jobab, and Zibia, 9 and Meshah, and Malcham, and Jeuz, and Shachia, and Mirma. These were his sons, 10 heads of the fathers. And of Hushim he begat Abitub, and Elpaal. The sons of 11 12 Elpaal; Eber, and Misham, and Shamed, who built Ono, and Lod, with the towns thereof: Beriah also, and Shema, who were heads of the fathers of the inhabitants 13 of Aijalon, who drove away the inhabitants of Gath: and Ahio, Shashak, and Jere- 14 moth, and Zebadiah, and Arad, and Ader, and Michael, and Ispah, and Joha, the sons 15 16 of Beriah; and Zebadiah, and Meshullam, and Hezeki, and Heber, Ishmerai also, 17 18 and Jeziah, and Jobab, the sons of Elpaal; and Jakim, and Ziehri, and Zabdi, 19 and Elienai, and Zilthai, and Eliel, and Adaiah, and Beraiah, and Shimrath, the sons 20 21 of Shimbi; and Ishpan, and Heber, and Eliel, and Abdon, and Ziehri, and Ha- 22 23 nan, and Hananiah, and Elam, and Antothijah, and Iphedeiah, and Penuel, the 24 25 sons of Shashak; and Shamsherai, and Shehariah, and Athaliah, and Jaresiah, and 26 27 Eliah, and Ziehri, the sons of Jeroham. These were heads of the fathers, by their 28 generations, chief men. These dwelt in Jerusalem. And at Gibeon dwelt the father 29 of Gibeon: whose wife's name was Maachah: and his firstborn son Abdon, and 30

I. CHRONICLES IX.

31 32 Zur, and Kish, and Baal, and Nadab, and Gedor, and Ahio, and Zacher. And Mikloth begat Shimeah. And these also dwelt with their brethren in Jerusalem, over against them. And Ner begat Kish, and Kish begat Saul, and Saul begat Jonathan, and Malchi-shua, and Abinadab, and Esh-baal. And the son of Jonathan was Merib-baal; and Merib-baal begat Micah. And the sons of Micah were, Pithon, and Melech, and Tarea, and Ahaz. And Ahaz begat Jehoadah; and Jehoadah begat Alemeth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri begat Moza, and Moza begat Binea: Rapha was his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son: and Azel had six sons, whose names are these, Azrikam, Bocheru, and Ishmael, and Sheariah, and Obadiah, and Hanan. All these were the sons of Azel. And the sons of Eshek his brother were, Ulam his firstborn, Jehush the second, and Eliphelet the third. And the sons of Ulam were mighty men of valour, archers, and had many sons, and sons' sons, a hundred and fifty. All these are of the sons of Benjamin.

9 So all Israel were reckoned by genealogies; and, behold, they were written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah, who were carried away to Babylon for their transgression.

2 NOW the first inhabitants that dwelt in their possessions in their cities were, the 3 Israelites, the priests, Levites, and the Nethinims. And in Jerusalem dwelt of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin, and of the children of Ephraim, and Manasseh;

4 Uthai the son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, of 5 the children of Pharez the son of Judah. And of the Shilonites; Asaiah the first-born, and his sons. And of the sons of Zerah; Jeuel, and their brethren, six hundred and ninety.

7 And of the sons of Benjamin; Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah, 8 the son of Hasenuah, and Ibneiah the son of Jeroham, and Elah the son of Uzzi, the son of Michri, and Meshullam the son of Shephathiah, the son of Reuel, the son of 9 Ibnijah; and their brethren, according to their generations, nine hundred and fifty and six. All these men were chief of the fathers in the house of their fathers.

10 11 And of the priests; Jedaiah, and Jehoiarib, and Jachin, and Azariah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of 12 Ahitub, the ruler of the house of God; and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pashur, the son of Malchijah, and Maasai the son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the 13 son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer; and their brethren, heads of the house of their fathers, a thousand and seven hundred and threescore; very able men for the work of the service of the house of God.

14 And of the Levites; Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of 15 Hashabiah, of the sons of Merari; and Bakkakkar, Heresh, and Galal, and Mattaniah the son of Micah, the son of Zichri, the son of Asaph; and Obadiah the son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun, and Berechiah the son of Asa, the 16 son of Elkanah, who dwelt in the villages of the Netophathites. And the porters were, Shallum, and Akkub, and Talmon, and Ahiman, and their brethren: Shallum 17 was the chief; who hitherto waited in the king's gate eastward: they were porters in 18 the companies of the children of Levi. And Shallum the son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his brethren, of the house of his father, the Korahites, were over the work of the service, keepers of the gates of the tabernacle: and 19 their fathers, being over the host of the LORD, were keepers of the entry. And Phinehas the son of Eleazar was the ruler over them in time past, and the LORD was 20 with him. And Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah was porter of the door of the 21 tabernacle of the congregation. All these who were chosen to be porters in the gates were two hundred and twelve. These were reckoned by their genealogy in their vil-

22 lages, whom David and Samuel the seer did ordain in their set office. So they and their children had the oversight of the gates of the house of the LORD, namely, 23 the house of the tabernacle, by wards. In four quarters were the porters, towards the 24 east, west, north, and south. And their brethren, who were in their villages, were 25 to come after seven days from time to time with them. For these Levites, the four chief porters, were in their set office, and were over the storehouses and treasures 26 of the house of God. And they lodged round about the house of God, because the charge was upon them, and the opening thereof every morning pertained to them. 27 And certain of them had the charge of the ministering vessels, that they should 28 bring them in and out by number. Some of them also were appointed to oversee the vessels, and all the vessels of the sanctuary, and the fine flour, and the wine, and the 29 oil, and the frankincense, and the spices. And some of the sons of the priests made 30 the ointment of the spices. And Mattithiah, one of the Levites, who was the first- 31

born of Shallum the Korahite, had the set office over the things that were made in the pans. And other of their brethren, of the sons of the Kohathites, were over the showbread, to prepare it every sabbath. And these are the singers, chief of the fathers of the Levites, who remaining in the chambers were free: for they were employed in that work day and night. These chief fathers of the Levites were chief throughout their generations; these dwelt at Jerusalem.

And in Gibeon dwelt the father of Gibeon, Jehiel, whose wife's name was Maachah: and his firstborn son Abdon, then Zur, and Kish, and Baal, and Ner, and Nadab, and Gedor, and Ahio, and Zechariah, and Mikloth. And Mikloth begat Shimeam. And they also dwelt with their brethren at Jerusalem, over against their brethren. And Ner begat Kish; and Kish begat Saul; and Saul begat Jonathan, and Malchi-shua, and Abinadab, and Esh-baal. And the son of Jonathan was Merib-baal: and Merib-baal begat Micah. And the sons of Micah were, Pithon, and Melech, and Tahrea, and Ahaz. And Ahaz begat Jarah; and Jarah begat Alemeth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri begat Moza; and Moza begat Binca; and Rephaiah his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son. And Azel had six sons, whose names are these, Azrikam, Bocheru, and Ishmael, and Sheariah, and Obadiah, and Hanan: these were the sons of Azel.

NOW the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down slain in mount Gilboa. And the Philistines followed hard after Saul, and after his sons; and the Philistines slew Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchi-shua, the sons of Saul. And the battle went sore against Saul, and the archers hit him, and he was wounded of the archers. Then said Saul to his armourbearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith; lest these uncircumcised come and abuse me. But his armourbearer would not; for he was sore afraid. So Saul took a sword, and fell upon it. And when his armourbearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise on the sword, and died. So Saul died, and his three sons, and all his house died together. And when all the men of Israel who were in the valley saw that they fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, then they forsook their cities, and fled: and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

And on the morrow, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, they found Saul and his three sons fallen in mount Gilboa. And when they had stripped him, they took his head, and his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to carry tidings unto their idols, and to the people. And they put his armour in the house of their gods, and fastened his head in the temple of Dagon, and his body they hung up by the walls of Beth-shan.

And when all Jabesh-gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul, they arose, all the valiant men, and took away the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh, and fasted seven days. So Saul died for his transgression which he committed against the LORD, even against the word of the LORD, which he kept not, and also for asking counsel of one who had a familiar spirit, and not inquiring of the LORD: therefore he slew him, and turned the kingdom unto David the son of Jesse.

THEN ALL ISRAEL gathered themselves to David unto Hebron, saying, Behold, we are thy bone and thy flesh. And moreover in time past, even when Saul was king, thou wast he who leddest out and broughtest in Israel: and the LORD thy God said unto thee, Thou shalt feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be ruler over my people Israel. Therefore came all the elders of Israel to the king to Hebron; and David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the LORD; and they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of the LORD by Samuel.

And David and all Israel went to Jerusalem, which is Jebus; where the Jebusites were, the inhabitants of the land. And the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, Thou shalt not come hither. Nevertheless David took the castle of Zion, which is the city of David. And David said, Whosoever smiteth the Jebusites first shall be chief and captain. So Joab the son of Zeruiah went first up, and was chief. And David dwelt in the castle; therefore they called it the city of David. And he built the city round about, even from Millo round about: and Joab repaired the rest of the city. So David waxed greater and greater: for the LORD of hosts was with him.

THESE also are the chief of the mighty men whom David had, who strengthened themselves with him in his kingdom, and with all Israel, to make him king, according to the word of the LORD concerning Israel. And this is the number of the mighty men whom David had; Jashobeam, a Hachmonite, the chief of the captains: he lifted up his spear against three hundred slain by him at one time. And after

- him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighty ones.
- 13 He was with David at Ephes-dammim, and there the Philistines were gathered together to battle, where was a parcel of ground full of barley; and the people fled
- 14 from before the Philistines. And they set themselves in the midst of that parcel, and delivered it, and slew the Philistines; and the LORD saved them by a great deliverance.
- 15 Now three of the thirty captains went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam; and the host of the Philistines encamped in the valley of Rephaim.
- 16 And David was then in the hold, and the Philistines' garrison was then at Beth-lehem.
- 17 And David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me drink of the water
- 18 of the well of Beth-lehem, that is at the gate! And the three broke through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: but David would not drink of it, but
- 19 poured it out to the LORD, and said, Far be it from me, that I should do this thing: shall I drink the blood of these men who have put their lives in jeopardy? for with the jeopardy of their lives they brought it. Therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three mighty ones.
- 20 And Abishai the brother of Joab, he was chief of the three: for lifting up his spear
- 21 against three hundred, he slew them, and had a name among the three. Of the three, he was more honourable than the two; for he was their captain: howbeit he attained not to the first three.
- 22 Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, who had done many acts; he slew two lionlike men of Moab: also he went down and slew a lion
- 23 in a pit in a snowy day. And he slew an Egyptian, a man of great stature, five cubits high; and in the Egyptian's hand was a spear like a weaver's beam; and he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and slew him with his own spear. These things did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and had a
- 24 name among the three mighty ones. Behold, he was honourable among the thirty, but attained not to the first three: and David set him over his guard.
- 26 Also the valiant men of the armies were, Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan the
- 27 son of Dodo of Beth-lehem, Shammoth the Harodite, Helez the Pelonite, Ira the son
- 29 of Ikkesh the Tekoite, Abi-ezer the Antiothite, Sibbecai the Hushathite, Ilai the
- 30 Ahohite, Maharai the Netophathite, Heled the son of Baanah the Netophathite, Ithai the son of Ribai of Gibeah, that pertained to the children of Benjamin, Benaiah the
- 31 Pirathonite, Hurai of the brooks of Gaash, Abiel the Arbathite, Azmaveth the Baharumite, Eliahba the Shaalbonite, the sons of Hashem the Gizonite, Jonathan the son
- 33 of Shage the Hararite, Ahiam the son of Sacar the Hararite, Eliphal the son of Ur,
- 34 Hephher the Mecherathite, Ahijah the Pelonite, Hezro the Carmelite, Naarai the son
- 35 of Ezbai, Joel the brother of Nathan, Mibhar the Haggerite, Zelek the Ammonite,
- 36 Naharai the Berothite, the armourbearer of Joab the son of Zeruiah, Ira the Ithrite,
- 37 Gareb the Ithrite, Uriah the Hittite, Zabab the son of Ahlai, Adina the son of Shiza the Reubenite, a captain of the Reubenites, and thirty with him, Hanan the son of
- 39 Maachah, and Joshaphat the Mithnite, Uzzia the Ashterathite, Shama and Jehiel the sons of Hothan the Aroerite, Jedaiel the Shimrite, and Joha his brother, the
- 40 Tizite, Eliel the Mahavite, and Jeribai, and Joshaviah, the sons of Elnaam, and Ithmah the Moabite, Eliel, and Obed, and Jasiel the Mesobaite.
- 12 NOW these are they who came to David to Ziklag, while he yet kept himself close because of Saul the son of Kish: and they were among the mighty men, helpers
- 2 of the war. They were armed with bows, and could use both the right hand and the left in hurling stones and shooting arrows out of a bow, even of Saul's brethren of
- 3 Benjamin. The chief was Ahiezer, then Joash, the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite; and Jeziel, and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth; and Berachah, and Jehu the Antiothite, and Ismaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty, and over the thirty;
- 5 and Jeremiah, and Jahaziel, and Johanan, and Josabab the Gederathite, Eluzai, and Jerimoth, and Bealiah, and Shemariah, and Shephatiah the Haruphite, Elkanah,
- 7 and Jesiah, and Azazeel, and Joezer, and Jashobeam, the Korhites, and Joelah, and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham of Gedor.
- 8 And of the Gadites there separated themselves unto David into the hold to the wilderness men of might, and men of war fit for the battle, who could handle shield and buckler, whose faces were like the faces of lions, and were as swift as the roes
- 9 upon the mountains; Ezer the first, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third, Mishman-
- 11 nah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth, Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh, Johanan the
- 13 eighth, Elzabad the ninth, Jeremiah the tenth, Machbanai the eleventh. These were of the sons of Gad, captains of the host: one of the least was over a hundred, and the greatest over a thousand. These are they who went over the Jordan in the first month, when it had overflowed all its banks; and they put to flight all them of the valleys, both towards the east, and towards the west.

And there came of the children of Benjamin and Judah to the hold unto David. And David went out to meet them, and answered and said unto them, If ye be come peaceably unto me to help me, my heart shall be knit unto you: but if ye be come to betray me to mine enemies, seeing there is no wrong in my hands, the God of our fathers look thereon, and rebuke it. Then the spirit came upon Amasai, who was chief of the captains, and he said, Thine are we, David, and on thy side, thou son of Jesse: peace, peace be unto thee, and peace be to thy helpers; for thy God helpeth thee. Then David received them, and made them captains of the band.

And there fell some of Manasseh to David, when he came with the Philistines against Saul to battle: but they helped them not: for the lords of the Philistines upon deliberation sent him away, saying, He will fall to his master Saul to the jeopardy of our heads. As he went to Ziklag, there fell to him of Manasseh, Adnah, and Jozabad, and Jedaiel, and Michael, and Jozabad, and Elihu, and Zilthai, captains of the thousands who were of Manasseh. And they helped David against a band of Amalekites: for they were all mighty men of valour, and were captains in the host. For at that time day by day there came to David to help him, until it was a great host, like the host of God.

AND these are the numbers of the bands who were ready armed to the war, and came to David to Hebron, to turn the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the word of the LORD. The children of Judah who bore shield and spear were six thousand and eight hundred, ready armed to the war. Of the children of Simeon, mighty men of valour for the war, seven thousand and one hundred. Of the children of Levi four thousand and six hundred. And Jehoiada was the leader of the Aaronites, and with him were three thousand and seven hundred; and Zadok, a young man mighty of valour, and of his father's house twenty and two captains. And of the children of Benjamin, the kindred of Saul, three thousand: for hitherto the greatest part of them had kept the ward of the house of Saul. And of the children of Ephraim twenty thousand and eight hundred, mighty men of valour, famous throughout the house of their fathers. And of the half tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, who were expressed by name, to come and make David king. And of the children of Issachar, who were men that had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do; the heads of them were two hundred; and all their brethren were at their commandment. Of Zebulun, such as went forth to battle, expert in war, with all instruments of war, fifty thousand, who could keep rank: they were not of double heart. And of Naphtali a thousand captains, and with them with shield and spear thirty and seven thousand. And of the Danites expert in war twenty and eight thousand and six hundred. And of Asher, such as went forth to battle, expert in war, forty thousand. And on the other side of the Jordan, of the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and of the half tribe of Manasseh, with all manner of instruments of war for the battle, a hundred and twenty thousand. All these men of war, who could keep rank, came with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king over all Israel: and all the rest also of Israel were of one heart to make David king. And there they were with David three days, eating and drinking: for their brethren had prepared for them. Moreover they who were nigh them, even unto Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, brought provision on asses, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen, and meat, meal, cakes of figs, and bunches of raisins, and wine, and oil, and oxen, and sheep abundantly: for there was joy in Israel.

AND David consulted with the captains of thousands and hundreds, and with every leader. And David said unto all the congregation of Israel, If it seem good unto you, and that it be of the LORD our God, let us send abroad unto our brethren every where, who are left in all the land of Israel, and with them also to the priests and Levites who are in their cities and suburbs, that they may gather themselves unto us: and let us bring again the ark of our God to us: for we inquired not at it in the days of Saul. And all the congregations said that they would do so: for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.

So David gathered all Israel together, from Shihor of Egypt even unto the entering of Hemath, to bring the ark of God from Kirjath-jearim. And David went up, and all Israel, to Baalah, that is, to Kirjath-jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up thence the ark of God the LORD, who dwelleth between the cherubims, and who is there invoked. And they carried the ark of God in a new cart out of the house of Abinadab: and Uzza and Ahio drove the cart. And David and all Israel played

- before God with all their might, and with singing, and with harps, and with psalteries, and with timbrels, and with cymbals, and with trumpets. And when they came unto the threshingfloor of Nachon, Uzza put forth his hand to hold the ark; and he smote him, because he put his hand to the ark: and there he died before God. And David was displeased, because the LORD had made a breach upon Uzza: wherefore that place is called Perez-uzza to this day. And David was afraid of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the ark of God home to me? So David brought not the ark home to himself to the city of David, but carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.
- And the ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom in his house three months. And the LORD blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that he had.
- 14 NOW Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and timber of cedars, with masons and carpenters, to build him a house. And David perceived that the LORD had confirmed him king over Israel, for his kingdom was lifted up on high, because of his people Israel.
- And David took more wives at Jerusalem: and David begat more sons and daughters. Now these are the names of his children whom he had in Jerusalem; Shamua, and Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon, and Ithar, and Elishua, and Elpalet, and Nogah, and Nepheg, and Japhia, and Elishama, and Eliada, and Eliphalet.
- AND when the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek David. And David heard of it, and went out against them. And the Philistines came and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.
- And David inquired of God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? and wilt thou deliver them into my hand? And the LORD said unto him, Go up; for I will deliver them into thy hand. So they came up to Baal-perazim; and David smote them there. Then David said, God hath broken in upon mine enemies by my hand like the breaking forth of waters: therefore they called the name of that place Baal-perazim. And when they had left their gods there, David gave a commandment, and they were burnt with fire.
- And the Philistines yet again spread themselves abroad in the valley. Therefore David inquired again of God; and God said unto him, Go not up after them; turn away from them, and come upon them over against the mulberry trees. And when thou shalt hear a sound of going in the tops of the mulberry trees, then thou shalt go out to battle: for God is gone forth before thee to smite the host of the Philistines. David therefore did as God commanded him: and they smote the host of the Philistines from Gibeon even to Gazer. And the fame of David went out into all lands; and the LORD brought the fear of him upon all nations.
- 15 AND David made him houses in the city of David, and prepared a place for the ark of God, and pitched for it a tent. Then David said, None ought to carry the ark of God but the Levites: for them hath the LORD chosen to carry the ark of God, and to minister unto him for ever.
- And David gathered all Israel together to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the LORD unto the place which he had prepared for it. And David assembled the children of Aaron, and the Levites: of the sons of Kohath; Uriel the chief, and his kinsmen a hundred and twenty: of the sons of Merari; Asaiah the chief, and his kinsmen two hundred and twenty: of the sons of Gershon; Joel the chief, and his kinsmen a hundred and thirty: of the sons of Elizaphan; Shemaiah the chief, and his kinsmen two hundred: of the sons of Hebron; Eliel the chief, and his kinsmen fourscore: of the sons of Uzziel; Amminadab the chief, and his kinsmen a hundred and twelve.
- And David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab, and said unto them, Ye are the chief of the fathers of the Levites: sanctify yourselves, both ye and your brethren, that ye may bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel unto the place that I have prepared for it. For because ye did it not at the first, the LORD our God made a breach upon us, for that we sought him not after the due order.
- So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel. And the children of the Levites bore the ark of God upon their shoulders with the staves thereon, as Moses commanded according to the word of the LORD.
- And David spoke to the chief of the Levites to appoint their brethren to be the singers with instruments of music, psalteries and harps and cymbals, sounding, by lifting up the voice with joy. So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel;

I. CHRONICLES XVI.

and of his kinsmen, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari their kinsmen, Ethan the son of Kushaiah; and with them their kinsmen of the second degree, Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, the porters. So the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were appointed to sound with cymbals of brass; and Zechariah, and Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with psalteries on Alamoth; and Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, and Azaziah, with harps on the Sheminith to excel.

And Chenaniah, chief of the Levites, was for song: he instructed about the song, because he was skilful. And Berechiah and Elkanah were doorkkeepers for the ark.

And Shebaniah, and Jehoshaphat, and Nethaneel, and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, did blow with the trumpets before the ark of God: and Obed-edom and Jehiah were doorkkeepers for the ark.

So David, and the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the house of Obed-edom with joy. And when God helped the Levites who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, they offered seven bullocks and seven rams. And David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites who bore the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the master of the song with the singers: David also had upon him an ephod of linen. Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting, and with sound of the cornet, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, making a noise with psalteries and harps. And as the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the city of David, Michal the daughter of Saul looking out at a window saw king David dancing and playing: and she despised him in her heart.

So they brought the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it: and they offered burnt sacrifices and peace offerings before God. And when David had made an end of offering the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD. And he dealt to every one of Israel, both man and woman, to every one a loaf of bread, and a good piece of roasted flesh, and a flagon of wine.

And he appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the ark of the LORD, and to record, and to thank and praise the LORD God of Israel: Asaph the chief, and next to him Zechariah, Jeiel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Mattithiah, and Eliab, and Benaiah, and Obed-edom: and Jeiel with psalteries and with harps; but Asaph made a sound with cymbals; Benaiah also and Jahaziel the priests with trumpets continually before the ark of the covenant of God.

Then on that day David delivered first this psalm to thank the LORD into the hand of Asaph and his brethren.

- 8 Give thanks unto the LORD, call upon his name, Make known his deeds among the people.
- 9 Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him,
Talk ye of all his wondrous works.
- 10 Glory ye in his holy name:
Let the heart of those rejoice who seek the LORD.
- 11 Seek the LORD and his strength, Seek his face continually.
- 12 Remember his marvellous works that he hath done,
His wonders, and the judgments of his mouth;
- 13 O ye seed of Abraham his servant,
Ye children of Jacob, his chosen ones.
- 14 He is the LORD our God;
His judgments are in all the earth.
- 15 Be ye mindful always of his covenant;
The word which he commanded to a thousand generations;
- 16 Even of the covenant which he made with Abraham,
And of his oath unto Isaac;
- 17 And hath confirmed the same to Jacob for a law,
And to Israel for an everlasting covenant,
- 18 Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan,
The lot of your inheritance;
- 19 When ye were but few,
Even a few, and strangers in it.

- 20 And when they went from nation to nation,
And from one kingdom to another people ;
21 He suffered no man to do them wrong :
Yea, he reprov'd kings for their sakes,
22 Saying, Touch not mine anointed,
And do my prophets no harm.
- 23 Sing unto the LORD, all the earth ;
Show forth from day to day his salvation.
24 Declare his glory among the nations ;
His marvellous works among all people.
25 For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised :
He also is to be feared above all gods.
26 For all the gods of the people are idols :
But the LORD made the heavens.
27 Glory and honour are in his presence ;
Strength and gladness are in his place.
28 Give unto the LORD, ye kindreds of the people, Give unto the LORD glory and strength.
29 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name :
Bring an offering, and come before him :
Worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.
30 Fear before him, all the earth :
The world also shall be stable, that it be not moved.
31 Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice :
And let men say among the nations, The LORD reigneth.
32 Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof :
Let the fields rejoice, and all that is therein.
33 Then shall the trees of the wood sing out
At the presence of the LORD, because he cometh
To judge the earth.
34 O give thanks unto the LORD ; for he is good ;
For his mercy endureth for ever.
35 And say ye, Save us, O God of our salvation,
And gather us together, and deliver us from the nations,
That we may give thanks to thy holy name, 36 And glory in thy praise. Blessed be the LORD God of Israel for ever and ever.

And all the people said, Amen, and praised the LORD.

- 37 So he left there before the ark of the covenant of the LORD Asaph and his brethren, 38 to minister before the ark continually, as every day's work required : and Obed-edom with their brethren, threescore and eight ; Obed-edom also the son of Jedu-39 thun and Hosah to be porters : and Zadok the priest, and his brethren the priests, 40 before the tabernacle of the LORD in the high place that was at Gibeon, to offer burnt offerings unto the LORD upon the altar of the burnt offering continually morning and evening, and to do according to all that is written in the law of the 41 LORD, which he commanded Israel ; and with them Heman and Jeduthun, and the rest who were chosen, who were expressed by name, to give thanks to the LORD, 42 because his mercy endureth for ever ; and with them Heman and Jeduthun with trumpets and cymbals for those who should make a sound, and with sacred instru-43 ments. And the sons of Jeduthun were porters. And all the people departed every man to his house : and David returned to bless his house.
- 17 NOW when David was settled in his house, David said to Nathan the prophet, Lo, I dwell in a house of cedars, but the ark of the covenant of the LORD remaineth under curtains.
- 2 Then Nathan said unto David, Do all that is thy heart ; for God is with thee.
3 And the same night the word of God came to Nathan, saying, Go and tell David my servant, Thus saith the LORD, Thou shalt not build me a house to dwell in : for I have not dwelt in a house since the day that I brought up Israel unto this day ; but 6 have gone from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another. Wheresoever I have walked with all Israel, spoke I a word to any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to feed my people, saying, Why have ye not built me a house of ce-7 dars ? Now therefore thus shalt thou say unto my servant David, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I took thee from the sheepcot, even from following the sheep, that thou shouldst be ruler over my people Israel : and I have been with thee whithersoever thou hast walked, and have cut off all thine enemies from before thee, and have made thee a name like the name of the great men who are in the earth. Also I will ordain a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, and they shall dwell in their place, and shall be moved no more ; neither shall the children of wickedness waste them any more, as at the beginning, and since the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel. Moreover I will subdue all thine enemies. Furthermore I tell thee that the LORD will build thee a house. And when thy days are expired that thou must go to be with thy fathers, I will raise up thy seed after thee, which shall be of thy sons ; and I will establish his kingdom. He shall build me a house, and I will stablish his throne for ever. I will be his father, and he shall be my son : and I will not take my merey away from him, as I took it from him who was before thee ; but I will settle him in my house and in my kingdom for ever : and his throne shall be established for evermore.

According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak unto David.

And David the king came and sat before the LORD, and said, Who am I, O LORD God, and what is my house, that thou hast brought me hitherto ? And yet this was a small thing in thine eyes, O God ; for thou hast also spoken of thy servant's house for a great while to come, and hast regarded me according to the estate of a man of high degree, O LORD God. What can David speak more to thee for the honour conferred on thy servant ? for thou knowest thy servant. O LORD, for thy servant's sake, and according to thine own heart, hast thou done all this greatness, in making known all these great things. O LORD, there is none like thee, neither is there any God besides thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears. And what one nation in the earth is like thy people Israel, whom God went to redeem to be his own people, to make thee a name of greatness and terribleness, by driving out nations from before thy people, whom thou hast redeemed out of Egypt ? For thy people Israel didst thou make thine own people for ever ; and thou, LORD, becamest their God. Therefore now, LORD, let the thing that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant and concerning his house be established for ever, and do as thou hast said. Let it even be established, that thy name may be magnified for ever, saying, The LORD of hosts is the God of Israel : and let the house of David thy servant be established before thee. For thou, O my God, hast told thy servant that thou wilt build him a house : therefore thy servant hath found in his heart to pray before thee. And now, LORD, thou art God, and hast promised this goodness unto thy servant : now therefore let it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may be before thee for ever : for thou blessest, O LORD, and it shall be blessed for ever.

NOW after this David smote the Philistines, and subdued them, and took Gath and its towns out of the hand of the Philistines. 18

And he smote Moab ; and the Moabites became David's servants, and brought gifts. And David smote Hadarezer king of Zobah unto Hamath, as he went to establish his dominion by the river Euphrates. And David took from him a thousand chariots, and seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen : David also hamstringed all the chariot horses, and disjoined all the chariots.

And when the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadarezer king of Zobah, David slew of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men. Then David put garrisons in Syria-damascus ; and the Syrians became David's servants, and brought gifts. Thus the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went. And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadarezer, and brought them to Jerusalem. Likewise from Tibhath, and from Chun, cities of Hadarezer, brought David very much brass, wherewith Solomon made the brazen sea, and the pillars, and the vessels of brass.

Now when Toi king of Hamath heard how David had smitten all the host of Hadarezer king of Zobah ; he sent Joram his son to king David, to inquire of his welfare, and to congratulate him, because he had fought against Hadarezer, and smitten him ; (for Hadarezer had war with Toi ;) and with him all manner of vessels of gold and silver and brass. These also king David dedicated unto the LORD, with the silver and the gold that he brought from all these nations ; from Edom, and from Moab, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and from Amalek.

Moreover Abishai the son of Zeruiah slew of the Edomites in the valley of salt eighteen thousand. And he put garrisons in Edom ; and all the Edomites became David's servants. Thus the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.

I. CHRONICLES XIX. XX.

14 SO David reigned over all Israel, and executed judgment and justice among all 15 his people. And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the host; and Jehoshaphat the 16 son of Ahilud, recorder. And Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Abimelech the son of 17 Abiathar, were the priests; and Shavsha was scribe; and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the archers and the slingers; and the sons of David were chief about the king.

19 NOW after this Nahash the king of the children of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his stead. And David said, I will show kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness to me. And David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. So the servants of David came into the land 3 of the children of Ammon to Hanun, to comfort him. But the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? are not his servants come unto thee for to 4 search, and to overthrow, and to spy out the land? Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and shaved them, and cut off their garments at the upper parts of their 5 thighs, and sent them away. Then there went some, and told David how the men were served. And he sent to meet them: for the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.

6 And when the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves odious to David, Hanun and the children of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire them chariots and horsemen out of Mesopotamia, and out of Syria-maacchah, and 7 out of Zobah. So they hired thirty and two thousand chariots, and the king of Maachah and his people; who came and pitched before Medeba. And the children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to battle.

8 And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of the mighty men.
9 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array before the gate of 10 the city: and the kings who were come were by themselves in the field. Now when Joab saw that the battle was set against him before and behind, he chose out of all the choice young men of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians.
11 And the rest of the people he delivered into the hand of Abishai his brother, and 12 they set themselves in array against the children of Ammon. And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me; but if the children of Am-13 mon be too strong for thee, then I will help thee. Be of good courage, and let us behave ourselves valiantly for our people, and for the cities of our God: and let the LORD do that which is good in his sight.

14 So Joab and the people who were with him drew nigh before the Syrians unto the 15 battle; and they fled before him. And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, they likewise fled before Abishai his brother, and entered into the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem.

16 And when the Syrians saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they sent messengers, and drew forth the Syrians who were beyond the river: and Shobach 17 the captain of the host of Hadarezer went before them. And it was told David; and he gathered all Israel, and passed over the Jordan, and came upon them, and set the battle in array against them. So when David had put the battle in array against 18 the Syrians, they fought with him. But the Syrians fled before Israel; and David slew of the Syrians seven hundred charioteers, four thousand horsemen, and forty 19 thousand footmen, and killed Shobach the captain of the host. And when the servants of Hadarezer saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they made peace with David, and became his servants: neither would the Syrians help the children of Ammon any more.

20 AND at the return of the year, at the time that kings go out to battle, Joab led forth the power of the army, and wasted the country of the children of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David tarried at Jerusalem. And Joab smote 2 Rabbah, and destroyed it. And David took the crown of their king from off his head, and found it to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it; 3 and it was set upon David's head: and he brought also exceeding much spoil out of the city. And he brought out the people who were in it, and put them to labour with saws, and with harrows of iron, and with axes. Even so dealt David with all the cities of the children of Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

4 AND after this, there arose war at Gezer with the Philistines; at which time Sib-bechai the Hushathite slew Sippai, who was of the children of the giant: and they were subdued.

5 And there was war again with the Philistines; and Elhanan the son of Jair slew Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gathite, whose spear staff was like a weaver's beam.

And yet again there was war at Gath, where was a man of great stature, 6 whose fingers and toes were four and twenty, six on each hand, and six on each foot: and he also was the son of the giant. But when he defied Israel, Jo- 7 nathan the son of Shammah, David's brother, slew him. These were born unto 8 the giant in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

AND Satan stood up against Israel, and provoked David to number Israel. And David said to Joab and to the rulers of the people, Go, number Israel from Beer-sheba 21 even to Dan; and bring the number of them to me, that I may know it. And Joab 3 answered. The LORD make his people a hundred times as many more as they are: but, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? why then doth my lord require this thing? why will he be a cause of trespass to Israel? Nevertheless the 4 king's word prevailed against Joab. Wherefore Joab departed, and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem. And Joab gave the sum of the number of 5 the people unto David. And there were in Israel eight hundred thousand men who drew the sword: and in Judah there were four hundred thousand men who drew the sword. But Levi and Benjamin counted he not among them; for the king's word 6 was abominable to Joab.

And God was displeased with this thing; therefore he smote Israel. And Da- 7 8 vid said unto God, I have sinned greatly, because I have done this thing: but now, I beseech thee, do away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly. And the LORD spoke unto Gad, David's seer, saying, Go and tell 9 10 David, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I offer thee three things; choose thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee. So Gad came to David, and said unto 11 him, Thus saith the LORD, Choose thee either three years' famine; or three 12 months to be destroyed before thy foes, while the sword of thine enemies overtaketh thee; or else three days the sword of the LORD, even the pestilence, in the land, and the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the coasts of Israel. Now therefore consider what word I shall bring again to him who sent me. And David said unto Gad, I am in a great strait: let me fall now into the hand 13 of the LORD; for very many are his mercies: but let me not fall into the hand of man.

So the LORD sent pestilence upon Israel: and there fell of Israel seventy thousand men. And God sent an angel unto Jerusalem to destroy it: and as he was 15 destroying, the LORD beheld, and he repented him of the evil, and said to the angel who destroyed, It is enough, stay now thy hand. And the angel of the LORD stood by the threshingfloor of Araunah the Jebusite. And David lifted up his eyes, 16 and saw the angel of the LORD stand between the earth and the heavens, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders of Israel, who were clothed in sackcloth, fell upon their faces. And David 17 said unto God, Is it not I who commanded the people to be numbered? even I it is who have sinned and done evil indeed; but as for these sheep, what have they done? let thy hand, I pray thee, O LORD my God, be on me, and on my father's house; but not on thy people, that they should be plagued.

Then the angel of the LORD commanded Gad to say to David, that David should 18 go up, and set up an altar unto the LORD in the threshingfloor of Araunah the Jebusite. And David went up at the saying of Gad, which he spoke in the name of 19 the LORD. And Araunah turned back, and saw the angel; and his four sons with him hid themselves. Now Araunah was threshing wheat. And as David came to 21 Araunah, Araunah looked and saw David, and went out of the threshingfloor, and bowed himself to David with his face to the ground. Then David said to Araunah, 22 Grant me the place of this threshingfloor, that I may build an altar therein unto the LORD: thou shalt grant it me for the full price: that the plague may be stayed from the people. And Araunah said unto David, Take it to thee, and let my lord the 23 king do that which is good in his eyes: lo, I give thee the oxen also for burnt offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for the thank offering; I give it all. And king David said to Araunah, Nay, but I will verily buy it for 24 the full price; for I will not take that which is thine for the LORD, nor offer burnt offerings without cost. So David gave to Araunah for the place six hundred she- 25 kels of gold by weight. And David built there an altar unto the LORD, and 26 offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called upon the LORD; and he answered him from heaven by fire upon the altar of burnt offering. And the 27

LORD commanded the angel; and he put up his sword again into the sheath thereof.

28 At that time when David saw that the LORD had answered him in the thresh-29 ingfloor of Araunah the Jebusite, then he sacrificed there. For the tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses made in the wilderness, and the altar of the burnt offering, 30 were at that season in the high place at Gibeon. But David could not go before it to inquire of God; for he was afraid because of the sword of the angel of the LORD.
22 Then David said, This is the house of the LORD God, and this is the altar of the burnt offering for Israel.

2 AND David commanded to gather together the strangers who were in the land of 3 Israel; and he set masons to hew wrought stones to build the house of God. And David prepared iron in abundance for the nails for the doors of the gates, and for the 4 joinings; and brass in abundance without weight; also cedar trees in abundance:
5 for the Zidonians and they of Tyre brought much cedar wood to David. And David said, Solomon my son is young and tender, and the house that is to be built for the LORD must be exceedingly magnificent, for fame and for glory throughout all countries: I will therefore now make preparation for it. So David prepared abundantly before his death.

6 Then he called for Solomon his son, and charged him to build a house for the 7 LORD God of Israel. And David said to Solomon, My son, as for me, it was in my 8 mind to build a house unto the name of the LORD my God: but the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Thou hast shed blood abundantly, and hast made great wars; thou shalt not build a house unto my name, because thou hast shed much 9 blood upon the earth in my sight. Behold, a son shall be born to thee, who shall be a man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies round about: for his name shall be Solomon [PEACEABLE], and I will give peace and quietness unto Israel 10 in his days. He shall build a house for my name; and he shall be my son, and I will be his father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel for ever.
11 Now, my son, the LORD be with thee; and prosper thou, and build the house of 12 the LORD thy God, as he hath said of thee. Only the LORD give thee wisdom and understanding, and give thee charge concerning Israel, that thou mayest keep the 13 law of the LORD thy God. Then shalt thou prosper, if thou takest heed to fulfil the statutes and judgments which the LORD charged Moses with concerning Israel:
be strong, and of good courage; dread not, nor be dismayed.
14 Now, behold, in my trouble I have prepared for the house of the LORD a hundred thousand talents of gold, and a thousand thousand talents of silver; and of brass and iron without weight; for it is in abundance: timber also and stone have I 15 prepared; and thou mayest add thereto. Moreover there are workmen with thee in abundance, hewers and workers of stone and timber, and all manner of skilful men 16 for every manner of work. Of the gold, the silver, and the brass, and the iron, there is no estimation. Arise therefore, and be doing, and the LORD be with thee.

17 18 David also commanded all the princes of Israel to help Solomon his son, saying, Is not the LORD your God with you? and hath he not given you rest on every side?
for he hath given the inhabitants of the land into my hand; and the land is sub-19 dued before the LORD, and before his people. Now set your heart and your soul to seek the LORD your God; arise therefore, and build ye the sanctuary of the LORD God, to bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and the holy vessels of God, into the house that is to be built to the name of the LORD.

23 SO when David was old and full of days, he made Solomon his son king over Israel.

2 And he gathered together all the princes of Israel, with the priests and the Le-
3 vites. Now the Levites were numbered from the age of thirty years and upwards:
4 and their number by their polls, man by man, was thirty and eight thousand. Of whom, twenty and four thousand were to overlook the work of the house of the 5 LORD; and six thousand were officers and judges: moreover four thousand were porters; and four thousand praised the LORD with the instruments which he made, to praise therewith.

6 And David divided them into courses among the sons of Levi, namely, Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

7 8 Of the Gershonites were, Leben, and Shimei. The sons of Leben; the chief were 9 Jehiel, and Zetham, and Joel, three. The sons of Shimei; Shelomith, and Haziël, 10 and Haran, three. These were the chief of the fathers of Leben. And the sons of Shimei were, Jahath, Zizah, and Jeush, and Beriah. These four were the sons of 11 Shimei. And Jahath was the chief, and Zizah the second; but Jeush and Beriah had not many sons; therefore they were in one reckoning, according to their father's house.

The sons of Kohath; Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, four. The sons of 12 13 Amram; Aaron, and Moses: and Aaron was separated, that he should sanctify the most holy things, lie and his sons for ever, to burn incense before the LORD, to minister unto him, and to bless in his name for ever. Now concerning Moses the man 14 of God, his sons were named of the tribe of Levi. The sons of Moses were, Ger- 15 shom, and Eliezer. Of the sons of Gershom, Shebuel was the chief. And the son 16 17 of Eliezer was, Rehabiah the chief. And Eliezer had no other sons; but the sons of Rehabiah were very many. Of the sons of Izhar; Shelomith the chief. Of the 18 19 sons of Hebron; Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth. Of the sons of Uzziel; Micah the first, and Jesiah the 20 second.

The sons of Merari; Mahli, and Mushi. The sons of Mahli; Eleazar, and Kish. 21
And Eleazar died, and had no sons, but daughters; and their kinsmen the sons of 22
Kish took them. The sons of Mushi; Mahli, and Eder, and Jeremoth, three. 23

These were the sons of Levi after the house of their fathers; even the chief of 24 the fathers, as they were counted by number of names by their heads, who did the work for the service of the house of the LORD, from the age of twenty years and upwards. For David said, The LORD God of Israel hath given rest unto his people, 25 that they may dwell in Jerusalem for ever: and also unto the Levites; they shall no 26 more carry the tabernacle, nor any vessels of it for the service thereof. For by 27 the last words of David the Levites were numbered from twenty years old and above: because their office was to wait on the sons of Aaron for the service of the 28 house of the LORD, in the courts, and in the chambers, and in the purifying of all holy things, and the work of the service of the house of God; both for the showbread, 29 and for the fine flour for thank offering, and for the unleavened cakes, and for that which is baked in the pan, and for that which is fried, and for all manner of measure and size; and to stand every morning to thank and praise the LORD, and 30 likewise at evening; and to offer all burnt sacrifices unto the LORD in the sabbaths, 31 in the new moons, and on the set feasts, by number, according to the order commanded unto them, continually before the LORD: and that they should keep the 32 charge of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the holy place, and the charge of the sons of Aaron their brethren, in the service of the house of the LORD.

NOW these are the divisions of the sons of Aaron. The sons of Aaron; Nadab, 24 and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. But Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no children: therefore Eleazar and Ithamar executed the priest's office.
And David distributed them, both Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of 3 the sons of Ithamar, according to their offices in their service.

And there were more chief men found of the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of 4 Ithamar: and thus were they divided. Among the sons of Eleazar there were sixteen chief men of the house of their fathers, and eight among the sons of Ithamar according to the house of their fathers. Thus were they divided by lot, one sort 5 with another; for the governors of the sanctuary, and governors of the house of God, were of the sons of Eleazar, and of the sons of Ithamar.

And Shemaiah the son of Nathaneel the scribe, one of the Levites, wrote them 6 before the king, and the princes, and Zadok the priest, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and before the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites: one principal household being taken for Eleazar, and one taken for Ithamar.

Now the first lot came forth to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah, the third to Harim, 7 8 the fourth to Seorim, the fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin, the seventh to 9 10 Hakkoz, the eighth to Abijah, the ninth to Jeshuah, the tenth to Shechaniah, the 11 12 eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim, the thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth 13 to Jeshebeah, the fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer, the seventeenth to 14 15 Hezir, the eighteenth to Aphses, the nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehe- 16 zekel, the one and twentieth to Jachin, the two and twentieth to Gamul, the three 17 18 and twentieth to Delaiah, the four and twentieth to Maaziah.

These were the orderings of them in their service to come into the house of the 19 LORD, according to their manner, under Aaron their father, as the LORD God of Israel had commanded him.

And the rest of the sons of Levi were these: of the sons of Amram; Shubael: of 20 the sons of Shubael; Jehdeiah. Concerning Rehabiah: of the sons of Rehabiah, 21 the first was Isshiah. Of the Izharites; Shelomoth: of the sons of Shelomoth; Ja- 22

23 hath. And the sons of Hebron; Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the 24 third, Jekameam the fourth. Of the sons of Uzziel; Michah: of the sons of Michah; 25 Shamir. The brother of Michah, was Isshiah: of the sons of Isshiah; Zechariah.
 26 27 The sons of Merari were Mahli, and Mushi: the sons of Jaaziah; Beno. The sons 28 of Merari by Jaaziah; Beno, and Shoham, and Zaccur, and Ibri. Of Mahli came 29 30 Eleazar, who had no sons. Concerning Kish: the son of Kish was Jerahmeel. The sons also of Mushi; Mahli, and Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Le-31 vites after the house of their fathers. These likewise cast lots over against their brethren the sons of Aaron in the presence of David the king, and Zadok, and Ahimelech, and the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites, even the principal fathers over against their younger brethren.

25 Moreover David and the captains of the host separated to the service the sons of Asaph, and of Heman, and of Jeduthun, who should sing hymns with harps, with psalteries, and with cymbals: and the number of the workmen according to their 2 service was: of the sons of Asaph; Zaccur, and Joseph, and Nethaniah, and Asarelah, the sons of Asaph under the hands of Asaph, who sang hymns according to 3 the order of the king. Of Jeduthun: the sons of Jeduthun; Gedaliah, and Zeri, and Jeshaiiah, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, six, under the hands of their father Jeduthun, who sang hymns with a harp, to give thanks and to praise the LORD.
 4 Of Heman: the sons of Heman; Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, and Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, and Romamti-ezer, Joshbekashah, 5 Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth: all these were the sons of Heman the king's seer in the words of God, to lift up the horn. And God gave to Heman fourteen sons and 6 three daughters. All these were under the hands of their father for song in the house of the LORD, with cymbals, psalteries, and harps, for the service of the house 7 of God, according to the king's order to Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman. So the number of them, with their brethren who were instructed in the songs of the LORD, even all who were skilful in music, was two hundred fourscore and eight.

8 And they cast lots, ward against ward, as well the small as the great, the teacher as 9 the scholar. Now the first lot came forth for Asaph to Joseph: the second to Geda-
 10 liah, who with his brethren and sons were twelve: the third to Zaccur, he, his sons, 11 and his brethren, were twelve: the fourth to Izri, he, his sons, and his brethren, were 12 13 twelve: the fifth to Nethaniah, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve: the 14 sixth to Bukkiah, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve: the seventh to Jeshai-15 relah, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve: the eighth to Jeshaiiah, he, his 16 sons, and his brethren, were twelve: the ninth to Mattaniah, he, his sons, and his 17 brethren, were twelve: the tenth to Shimei, he, his sons, and his brethren, were 18 19 twelve: the eleventh to Azareel, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve: the 20 twelfth to Hashabiah, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve: the thirteenth to 21 Shubael, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve: the fourteenth to Mattithiah, 22 he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve: the fifteenth to Jeremoth, he, his sons, 23 and his brethren, were twelve: the sixteenth to Hananiah, he, his sons, and his 24 brethren, were twelve: the seventeenth to Joshbekashah, he, his sons, and his bre-
 25 thren, were twelve: the eighteenth to Hanani, he, his sons, and his brethren, were 26 twelve: the nineteenth to Mallothi, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:
 27 28 the twentieth to Eliathah, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve: the one and 29 twentieth to Hothir, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve: the two and twenti-
 30 eth to Giddalti, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve: the three and twentieth 31 to Mahazioth, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve: the four and twentieth to Romamti-ezer, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve.

26 CONCERNING the divisions of the porters: of the Korbites was Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of Asaph. And the sons of Meshelemiah were, Zechariah 3 the firstborn, Jediah the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth, Elam the 4 fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Elieonai the seventh. Moreover the sons of Obed-edom were, Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, and Sacar the 5 fourth, and Nethaneel the fifth, Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peulthai 6 the eighth: for God blessed him. Also unto Shemaiah his son were sons born, who ruled throughout the house of their father: for they were mighty men of valour.
 7 The sons of Shemaiah; Othni, and Rephael, and Obed, Elzabad, whose brethren 8 were strong men, Elihu, and Semachiah. All these of the sons of Obed-edom: they and their sons and their brethren, able men for strength for the service, were three-9 score and two of Obed-edom. And Meshelemiah had sons and brethren, strong 10 men, eighteen. Also Hosah, of the children of Merari, had sons; Simri the chief, 11 (for though he was not the firstborn, yet his father made him the chief;) Hilkiah

the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth : all the sons and brethren of Hosah were thirteen.

Among these were the divisions of the porters, even among the chief men, having 12 wards one against another, to minister in the house of the LORD. And they cast 13 lots, as well the small as the great, according to the house of their fathers, for every gate. And the lot eastward fell to Shelemiah. Then for Zechariah his son, a wise 14 counsellor, they cast lots; and his lot came out northward. To Obed-edom south- 15 ward; and to his sons the house of Asuppim. To Shuppim and Hosah the lot 16 came forth westward, with the gate Shallecheth, by the causeway of the going up, ward against ward. Eastward were six Levites, northward four a day, southward 17 four a day, and towards Asuppim two and two. At Parbar westward, four at the 18 causeway, and two at Parbar. These are the divisions of the porters among the sons 19 of Kore, and among the sons of Merari.

And of the Levites, Ahijah was over the treasures of the house of God, and over 20 the treasures of the dedicated things. As concerning the sons of Leben; the sons 21 of the Gershonite Leben, chief fathers, even of Leben the Gershonite, were Jehieli. The sons of Jehieli: Zethem, and Joel his brother, who were over the treasures of 22 the house of the LORD. Of the Amramites, and the Izharites, the Hebronites, and 23 the Uzzielites: and Shebuel the son of Gershom, the son of Moses, was ruler of the 24 treasures. And his brethren by Eliezer; Rehabiah his son, and Jeshaiiah his son, 25 and Joram his son, and Zichri his son, and Shelomith his son. Which Shelomith 26 and his brethren were over all the treasures of the dedicated things, which David the king, and the chief fathers, the captains over thousands and hundreds, and the captains of the host, had dedicated. Out of the spoils won in battles did they 27 dedicate to maintain the house of the LORD. And all that Samuel the seer, and 28 Saul the son of Kish, and Abner the son of Ner, and Joab the son of Zeruiah, had dedicated: and whosoever had dedicated any thing, it was under the hand of Shelomith, and of his brethren.

Of the Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons were for the outward business over Israel, 29 for officers and judges. And of the Hebronites, Hashabiah and his brethren, men 30 of valour, a thousand and seven hundred, were officers among them of Israel on this side the Jordan westward in all the business of the LORD, and in the service of the king. Among the Hebronites was Jerijah the chief, even among the Hebronites, ac- 31 cording to the generations of his fathers. In the fortieth year of the reign of David they were sought for, and there were found among them mighty men of valour at Jazer of Gilead. And his brethren, men of valour, were two thousand and seven 32 hundred chief fathers, whom king David made rulers over the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, for every matter pertaining to God, and affairs of the king.

NOW a certain number of the children of Israel, chief fathers and captains of 27 thousands and hundreds, and their officers who served the king, were divided into courses; and came in and went out, month by month, throughout all the months of the year, of every course were twenty and four thousand.

Over the first course for the first month was Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel: and in 2 his course were twenty and four thousand. Of the children of Perez was the chief 3 of all the captains of the host for the first month. And over the course of the second 4 month was Dodo an Ahoite, and of his course was Mikloth also the ruler: in his course likewise were twenty and four thousand. The third captain of the host for 5 the third month was Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, a chief priest: and in his course were twenty and four thousand. This is that Benaiah, who was mighty among the 6 thirty, and above the thirty: and in his course was Ammizabad his son. The fourth 7 captain for the fourth month was Asahel the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son after him: and in his course were twenty and four thousand. The fifth captain for 8 the fifth month was Shamhuth the Izrahite: and in his course were twenty and four thousand. The sixth captain for the sixth month was Ira the son of Ikkeah the 9 Tekoite: and in his course were twenty and four thousand. The seventh captain 10 for the seventh month was Helez the Pelonite, of the children of Ephraim: and in his course were twenty and four thousand. The eighth captain for the eighth month 11 was Sibbecai the Hushathite, of the Zarhites: and in his course were twenty and four thousand. The ninth captain for the ninth month was Abiezer the Anetothite, 12 of the Benjamites: and in his course were twenty and four thousand. The tenth 13 captain for the tenth month was Mabbari the Netophathite, of the Zarhites: and in his course were twenty and four thousand. The eleventh captain for the eleventh 14 month was Benaiah the Pirathonite, of the children of Ephraim: and in his course 15 were twenty and four thousand. The twelfth captain for the twelfth month was Heled the Netophathite, of Othniel : and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

 16 Furthermore over the tribes of Israel : the ruler of the Reubenites was Eliezer 17 the son of Zichri : of the Simeonites, Shephatiah the son of Maachah : of the Le-18 vites, Hashabiah the son of Kemuel : of the Aaronites, Zadok : of Judah, Elihu, one 19 of the brethren of David : of Issachar, Omri the son of Michael : of Zebulun, Ish-20 maiah the son of Obadiah : of Naphtali, Jerimoth the son of Azriel : of the children of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Azaziah : of the half tribe of Manasseh, Joel the son 21 of Pedaiah : of the half tribe of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo the son of Zechariah : of 22 Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of Abner : of Dan, Azareel the son of Jeroham. These were the princes of the tribes of Israel.

23 But David took not the number of them from twenty years old and under ; because the LORD had said he would increase Israel like to the stars of the heavens.
 24 Joab the son of Zeruiah began to number, but he finished not, because there fell wrath for it against Israel ; nor was the number put in the account of the chronicles of king David.

25 And over the king's treasures was Azmaveth the son of Adiel : and over the store-houses in the fields, in the cities, and in the villages, and in the castles, was Jeho-26 nathan the son of Uzziab : and over those who did the work of the field for tillage 27 of the ground was Ezri the son of Chelub : and over the vineyards was Shimei the Ramathite : over the increase of the vineyards for the wine cellars was Zabdi the 28 Shiphmite : and over the olive trees and the sycamore trees that were in the low 29 plains was Baal-hanan the Gederite : and over the cellars of oil was Joash : and over the herds that fed in Sharon was Shitrai the Sharonite : and over the herds that 30 were in the valleys was Shaphat the son of Adlai : over the camels also was Obil 31 the Ishmaelite : and over the asses was Jehdeiah the Meronothite : and over the flocks was Jaziz the Hagerite. All these were the rulers of the substance which was king David's.

32 Also Jonathan David's uncle was a counsellor, a wise man, and a scribe : and Je-33 hiel the son of Hachmoni was with the king's sons : and Ahithophel was the king's 34 counsellor : and Hushai the Archite was the king's companion : and after Ahitho-phel was Jehoiada the son of Benaiah, and Abiathar : and the general of the king's army was Joab.

28 AND David assembled all the princes of Israel, the princes of the tribes, and the captains of the companies who ministered to the king by course, and the captains over the thousands, and captains over the hundreds, and the stewards over all the substance and possessions of the king, and his sons, with the officers, and with the mighty men, and with all the valiant men, unto Jerusalem.

2 Then David the king stood up upon his feet, and said, Hear me, my brethren, and my people : As for me, I had in my heart to build a house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and for the footstool of our God, and had made ready for 3 the building : but God said unto me, Thou shalt not build a house for my name, be-4 cause thou hast been a man of war, and hast shed blood. Howbeit the LORD God of Israel chose me before all the house of my father to be king over Israel for ever :
 for he hath chosen Judah to be the ruler ; and of the house of Judah, the house of my father ; and among the sons of my father he hath been pleased to make me king 5 over all Israel : and of all my sons, (for the LORD hath given me many sons,) he hath chosen Solomon my son to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of the LORD 6 over Israel. And he said unto me, Solomon thy son, he shall build my house and 7 my courts : for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father. Moreover
 I will establish his kingdom for ever, if he be constant to do my commandments and 8 my judgments, as at this day. Now therefore in the sight of all Israel the congregation of the LORD, and in the audience of our God, keep and seek for all the commandments of the LORD your God : that ye may possess this good land, and leave it for an inheritance for your children after you for ever.

9 And thou, Solomon my son, know thou the God of thy father, and serve him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind : for the LORD searcheth all hearts, and un-derstandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts : if thou seek him, he will be found 10 of thee ; but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for ever. Take heed now ; for the LORD hath chosen thee to build a house for the sanctuary : be strong, and do it.

11 Then David gave to Solomon his son the pattern of the porch, and of the houses thereof, and of the treasures thereof, and of the upper chambers thereof, and of 12 the inner parlours thereof, and of the place of the mercy seat, and the pattern of all that he had by the spirit, of the courts of the house of the LORD, and of all the chambers round about, of the treasuries of the house of God, and of the treasuries of the dedicated things: also for the courses of the priests and the Levites, and for all the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and for all the vessels of service in the house of the LORD. He gave of gold by weight for things of gold, for all instruments of all manner of service; silver also for all instruments of silver by weight, for all instruments of every kind of service: even the weight for the lampholders of gold, and for their lamps of gold, by weight for every lampholder, and for the lamps thereof: and for the lampholders of silver by weight, both for the lampholder, and also for the lamps thereof, according to the use of every lampholder. And by weight he gave gold for the tables of showbread, for every table; and likewise silver for the tables of silver: also pure gold for the fleshhooks, and the bowls, and the cups: and for the golden basins he gave gold by weight for every basin; and likewise silver by weight for every basin of silver: and for the altar of incense refined gold by weight; and gold for the pattern of the chariot of the cherubims, that spread out their wings, and covered the ark of the covenant of the LORD. All this, said David, the LORD made me understand in writing by his hand upon me, even all the works of this pattern.

And David said to Solomon his son, Be strong and of good courage, and do it: thou fear not, nor be dismayed: for the LORD God, even my God, will be with thee; he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee, until thou hast finished all the work for the service of the house of the LORD. And, behold, the courses of the priests and the Levites, even they shall be with thee for all the service of the house of God: and there shall be with thee for all manner of workmanship every willing skilful man, for any manner of service: also the princes and all the people will be wholly at thy commandment.

Furthermore David the king said unto all the congregation, Solomon my son, whom alone God hath chosen, is yet young and tender, and the work is great: for the palace is not for man, but for the LORD God. Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God the gold for things to be made of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and the brass for things of brass, the iron for things of iron, and wood for things of wood; onyx stones, and stones to be set, glittering stones, and of divers colours, and all manner of precious stones, and marble stones in abundance. Moreover, because I have set my affection to the house of my God, I have of mine own proper goods, of gold and silver, which I have given to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house, even three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses with: the gold for things of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and for all manner of work to be made by the hands of artificers. And who then is willing to consecrate his service this day unto the LORD?

Then the chief of the fathers and princes of the tribes of Israel, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with the rulers of the king's work, offered willingly, and gave for the service of the house of God of gold five thousand talents and ten thousand drams, and of silver ten thousand talents, and of brass eighteen thousand talents, and one hundred thousand talents of iron. And they with whom precious stones were found gave them to the treasure of the house of the LORD, by the hand of Jehiel the Gershonite. Then the people rejoiced, in that these had offered so willingly, because with perfect heart they offered willingly to the LORD: and David the king also rejoiced with great joy.

Wherefore David blessed the LORD before all the congregation: and David said, Blessed be thou, LORD God of Israel our father, for ever and ever. Thine, O LORD, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heavens and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O LORD, and thou art exalted as head above all. Both riches and honour come of thee, and thou reignest over all; and in thy hand are power and might; and in thy hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all. Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name. But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to offer so willingly after this manner? for all things come of thee, and of thine own have we given thee. For we are strangers before thee, and sojourners, as were all our fathers: our days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is no abiding. O LORD our God, all this store that we have prepared to build thee a house for thy holy name cometh of thy hand, and is all thine own. I know also, my God, that thou triest the heart, and hast pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of my heart I have willingly offered all

II. CHRONICLES I.

- these things: and now have I seen with joy thy people, who are present here, offer willingly unto thee. O LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, our fathers, keep this for ever in the imagination of the thoughts of the heart of thy people, and prepare their heart unto thee: and give unto Solomon my son a perfect heart, to keep thy commandments, thy testimonies, and thy statutes, and to do all these things, and to build the palace, for the which I have made provision.
- 20 And David said to all the congregation, Now bless the LORD your God. And all the congregation blessed the LORD God of their fathers, and bowed down their heads, and worshipped the LORD, and the king. And they sacrificed sacrifices unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings unto the LORD, on the morrow after that day, even a thousand bullocks, a thousand rams, and a thousand lambs, with their drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel: and did eat and drink before the LORD on that day with great gladness. And they made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and anointed him unto the LORD to be the chief governor, and Zadok to be priest.
- 23 Then Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Israel obeyed him. And all the princes, and the mighty men, and all the sons likewise of king David, submitted themselves unto Solomon the king. And the LORD magnified Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and bestowed upon him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel.
- 26 27 THUS David the son of Jesse reigned over all Israel. And the time that he reigned over Israel was forty years; seven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jerusalem. And he died in a good old age, full of days, riches, and honour: and Solomon his son reigned in his stead. Now the acts of David the king, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of Samuel the seer, and in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the book of Gad the seer, with all his reign and his might, and the times that went over him, and over Israel, and over all the kingdoms of the countries.

THE SECOND BOOK OF THE CHRONICLES.

- 1 AND SOLOMON the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and the LORD his God was with him, and magnified him exceedingly. Then Solomon spoke unto all Israel, to the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every governor in all Israel, the chief of the fathers. So Solomon, and all the congregation with him, went to the high place that was at Gibeon: for there was the tabernacle of the congregation of God, which Moses the servant of the LORD had made in the wilderness. But the ark of God had David brought up from Kirjath-jearim to the place which David had prepared for it; for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem. Moreover the brazen altar, that Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, was there before the tabernacle of the LORD: and Solomon and the congregation sought unto it. And Solomon went up thither to the brazen altar before the LORD, which was at the tabernacle of the congregation, and offered a thousand burnt offerings upon it.
- 7 In that night did God appear unto Solomon, and said unto him, Ask what I shall give thee. And Solomon said unto God, Thou hast showed great mercy unto David my father, and hast made me to reign in his stead. Now, O LORD God, let thy promise unto David my father be established; for thou hast made me king over a people like the dust of the earth in multitude. Give me now wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people: for who can judge this thy people, that is so great?
- 11 And God said to Solomon, Because this was in thy heart, and thou hast not asked riches, wealth, or honour, nor the life of thine enemies, neither yet hast asked long life; but hast asked wisdom and knowledge for thyself, that thou mayest judge my people, over whom I have made thee king: wisdom and knowledge is granted unto thee; and I will give thee riches, and wealth, and honour, such as none of the kings have had who have been before thee, neither shall there any after thee have the like. —Then Solomon came from his journey to the high place that was at Gibeon to Jerusalem, from before the tabernacle of the congregation, and reigned over Israel.

AND Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, which he placed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.

And the king made silver and gold at Jerusalem as plenteous as stones, and cedar trees made he as the sycamore trees that are in the vale for abundance. And Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and a company of the king's merchants received the horses at a price. And they fetched up, and brought forth out of Egypt a chariot for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for a hundred and fifty: and so brought they out horses for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, by their means.

AND Solomon determined to build a house for the name of the LORD, and a house for his kingdom. And Solomon told out threescore and ten thousand men to bear burdens, and fourscore thousand to hew in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred to oversee them.

And Solomon sent to Hiram the king of Tyre, saying, As thou didst deal with David my father, and didst send him cedars to build him a house to dwell therein, even so deal with me. Behold, I build a house to the name of the LORD my God, to dedicate it to him, and to burn before him sweet incense of spices, and for the continual showbread, and for the burnt offerings morning and evening, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts of the LORD our God. This is an ordinance for ever to Israel. And the house which I build is great: for great is our God above all gods. But who is able to build him a house, seeing the heavens, yea, the highest heavens cannot contain him? who am I then, that I should build him a house, save only to burn sacrifice before him? Send me now therefore a man skilful to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in iron, and in purple, and crimson, and blue, and who can engrave engravings with the skilful men who are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom David my father did provide. Send me also cedar trees, fir trees, and algum trees, out of Lebanon: for I know that thy servants have skill to cut timber in Lebanon; and, behold, my servants shall be with thy servants, even to prepare me timber in abundance: for the house which I am about to build shall be great and wonderful. And, behold, I will give to thy servants, the hewers who cut timber, twenty thousand measures of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand measures of barley, and twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.

Then Hiram the king of Tyre answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon, Because the LORD hath loved his people, he hath made thee king over them. Hiram said moreover, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who made the heavens and the earth, who hath given to David the king a wise son, endued with prudence and understanding, who might build a house for the LORD, and a house for his kingdom. And now I have sent a skilful man, endued with understanding, of Hiram my father's, the son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre, skilful to work in gold, and in silver, in brass, in iron, in stone, and in timber, in purple, in blue, and in fine linen, and in crimson; also to engrave any manner of engraving, and to find out every device which shall be put to him, with thy skilful men, and with the skilful men of my lord David thy father. Now therefore the wheat, and the barley, the oil, and the wine, which my lord hath spoken of, let him send unto his servants: and we will cut wood out of Lebanon, as much as thou shalt need: and we will bring it to thee in floats by sea to Joppa; and thou shalt carry it up to Jerusalem.

And Solomon numbered all the strangers who were in the land of Israel, after the numbering wherewith David his father had numbered them; and they were found a hundred and fifty thousand and three thousand and six hundred. And he set threescore and ten thousand of them to be bearers of burdens, and fourscore thousand to be hewers in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred overseers to set the people to work.

THEN Solomon began to build the house of the LORD at Jerusalem in mount Moriah, where the LORD appeared unto David his father, in the place that David

II. CHRONICLES IV.

- 2 had prepared in the threshingfloor of Araunah the Jebusite. And he began to build on the second day of the second month, in the fourth year of his reign.
- 3 Now these are the things wherein Solomon was instructed for the building of the house of God. The length by cubits after the first measure was threescore cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits. And the porch that was in the front of the house, the length of it was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the height was twenty.
- 5 And he overlaid it within with pure gold; and the greater house he ceiled with fir tree, which he overlaid with fine gold, and set thereon palm trees and chains.
- 6 And he garnished the house with precious stones for beauty: and the gold was gold of Parvaim. He overlaid also the house, the beams, the posts, and the walls thereof, and the doors thereof, with gold; and engraved cherubims on the walls.
- 8 And he made the most holy house, the length whereof was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits: and he overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to six hundred talents. And the weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. And he overlaid the upper chambers with gold.
- 10 And in the most holy house he made two cherubims of image work, and overlaid them with gold. And the wings of the cherubims were twenty cubits long: one wing of the one cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing was likewise five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other cherub. And one wing of the other cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing was five cubits also, joining to the wing of the other cherub. The wings of these cherubims spread themselves forth twenty cubits: and they stood on their feet, and their faces were inwards. And he made the vail of blue, and purple, and crimson, and fine linen, and wrought cherubims thereon.
- 15 Also he made before the house two pillars of eighteen cubits each high, and the capital that was on the top of each of them was five cubits. And he made chains, as in the oracle, and put them on the heads of the pillars; and made a hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chains. And he reared up the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left; and called the name of that on the right hand Jachin, and the name of that on the left Boaz.
- 4 Moreover he made an altar of brass, twenty cubits the length thereof, and twenty cubits the breadth thereof, and ten cubits the height thereof.
- 2 Also he made a molten sea of ten cubits from brim to brim, round in compass, and five cubits the height thereof; and a line of thirty cubits did compass it round about.
- 3 And under it was the similitude of oxen, which did compass it round about: ten in a cubit, compassing the sea round about. Two rows of oxen were cast, when it was cast. It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking towards the north, and three looking towards the west, and three looking towards the south, and three looking towards the east: and the sea was set above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inwards. And the thickness of it was a handbreadth, and the brim of it like the work of the brim of a cup, with flowers of lilies; and it received and held three thousand baths.
- 6 He made also ten lavers, and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them: such things as they offered for the burnt offering they washed in them; but the sea was for the priests to wash in.
- 7 And he made ten lampholders of gold according to their form, and set them in the temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left.
- 8 He made also ten tables, and placed them in the temple, five on the right side, and five on the left. And he made a hundred basins of gold.
- 9 Furthermore he made the court of the priests, and the great court, and doors for the court, and overlaid the doors of them with brass. And he set the sea on the right side of the east end, over against the south.
- 11 And Hiram made the pots, and the shovels, and the basins. And Hiram finished the work that he was to make for king Solomon for the house of God; the two pillars, and the pommels, and the capitals which were on the top of the two pillars, and the two wreaths to cover the two pommels of the capitals which were on the top of the pillars; and four hundred pomegranates on the two wreaths; two rows of pomegranates on each wreath, to cover the two pommels of the capitals which were upon the pillars. He made also bases, and lavers made he upon the bases; one sea, and twelve oxen under it. The pots also, and the shovels, and the fleshhooks, and all their instruments, did Hiram his father make and bring to king Solomon for the house of the LORD of bright brass. In the plain of the Jordan did the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zeredathah.

Thus Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance; for the weight of the brass could not be found out. And Solomon made all the vessels that were for the house of God, the golden altar also, and the tables whereon the showbread was set; moreover the lampholders with their lamps, that they should burn after the manner before the oracle, of pure gold; and the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, made of gold, and that perfect gold; and the snuffers, and the basins, and the spoons, and the censers, of pure gold: and the entry of the house, the inner doors thereof for the most holy place, and the doors of the house of the temple, were of gold.

Thus all the work that Solomon made for the house of the LORD was finished: and Solomon brought in all the holy things that David his father had dedicated; and the silver, and the gold, and all the instruments, put he among the treasures of the house of God. 5

THEN Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the children of Israel, unto Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion.

Wherefore all the men of Israel assembled themselves unto the king in the feast which was in the seventh month. And all the elders of Israel came; and the Levites took up the ark. And they brought up the ark, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle, these did the priests and the Levites bring up. Also king Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel who were assembled unto him before the ark, sacrificed sheep and oxen, which could not be told nor numbered for multitude. And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD unto its place, to the oracle of the house, into the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubims: for the cherubims spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered the ark and the staves thereof above. And they drew out the staves of the ark, that the ends of the staves were seen from the ark before the oracle; but they were not seen without. And there they are unto this day. There was nothing in the ark save the two tables which Moses put therein at Horeb, when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of Egypt. 7

And when the priests were come out of the holy place: (for all the priests who were present were sanctified, and did not then wait by course: also the Levites who were the singers, all of them of Asaph, of Heman, of Jeduthun, with their sons and their brethren, being arrayed in white linen, having cymbals and psalteries and harps, stood at the east end of the altar, and with them a hundred and twenty priests sounding with trumpets:) even as the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the LORD; and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of music, and praised the LORD, saying, For he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever; then the house was filled with a cloud, even the house of the LORD; so that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud; for the glory of the LORD had filled the house of God. 14

Then said Solomon, The LORD hath said that he would dwell in the thick darkness. But I have built a house of habitation for thee, and a place for thy dwelling for ever. And the king turned his face, and blessed the whole congregation of Israel: and all the congregation of Israel stood. 6

And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who hath with his hands fulfilled that which he spoke with his mouth to my father David, saying, Since the day that I brought forth my people out of the land of Egypt I chose no city among all the tribes of Israel to build a house in, that my name might be there; neither chose I any man to be a ruler over my people Israel: but I have chosen Jerusalem, that my name might be there; and have chosen David to be over my people Israel. Now it was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of the LORD God of Israel. But the LORD said to David my father, Forasmuch as it was in thy heart to build a house for my name, thou didst well in that it was in thy heart: notwithstanding thou shalt not build the house; but thy son who shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house for my name. The LORD therefore hath performed his word that he hath spoken: for I am risen up in the room of David my father, and am set on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and have built the house for the name of the LORD God of Israel. And in it have I put the ark, wherein is the covenant of the LORD, that he made with the children of Israel. 11

And he stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands: for Solomon had made a brazen scaffold, of five cubits long, and five cubits broad, and three cubits high, and had set it in the 12

- midst of the court : and upon it he stood, and kneeled down upon his knees before all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands towards the heavens, and said,
- O LORD God of Israel, there is no God like thee in the heavens, nor in the earth; who keepest covenant, and showest mercy unto thy servants, who walk before thee with all their hearts : thou who hast kept with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him ; and spakest with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thy hand, as it is this day. Now therefore, O LORD God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him, saying, There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit upon the throne of Israel ; yet so that thy children take heed to their way to walk in my law, as thou hast walked before me.
- Now then, O LORD God of Israel, let thy word be verified, which thou hast spoken unto thy servant David.
- But will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth ? behold, the heavens and the highest heavens cannot contain thee ; how much less this house which I have built ! Have respect therefore to the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O LORD my God, to hearken unto the cry and the prayer which thy servant prayeth before thee : that thine eyes may be open upon this house day and night, upon the place whereof thou hast said that thou wouldest put thy name there ; to hearken unto the prayer which thy servant prayeth towards this place. Hearken therefore unto the supplications of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, which they shall make towards this place : hear thou from thy dwelling place, even from heaven ; and when thou hearest, forgive.
- If a man sin against his neighbour, and an oath be laid upon him to make him swear, and the oath come before thine altar in this house ; then hear thou from heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, by requiting the wicked, by recompensing his way upon his own head ; and by justifying the righteous, by giving him according to his righteousness.
- And if thy people Israel be put to the worse before the enemy, because they have sinned against thee ; and shall return and confess thy name, and pray and make supplication before thee towards this house ; then hear thou from heaven, and forgive the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again unto the land which thou gavest to them and to their fathers.
- When the heavens are shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee ; yet if they pray towards this place, and confess thy name, and turn from their sin, when thou dost afflict them ; then hear thou from heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel, that thou mayest teach them the good way, wherein they should walk ; and send rain upon thy land, which thou hast given unto thy people for an inheritance.
- If there be dearth in the land, if there be pestilence, if there be blasting, or mildew, locusts, or caterpillars ; if their enemies besiege them in the cities of their land ; whatsoever sore, or whatsoever sickness there be : then what prayer or what supplication soever shall be made of any man, or of all thy people Israel, when every one shall know his own sore and his own grief, and shall spread forth his hands towards this house : then hear thou from heaven thy dwelling place, and forgive, and render unto every man according unto all his ways, whose heart thou knowest ; (for thou only knowest the hearts of the children of men :) that they may fear thee, to walk in thy ways, so long as they live in the land which thou gavest unto our fathers.
- Moreover concerning the stranger, who is not of thy people Israel, but is come from a far country for thy great name's sake, and thy mighty hand, and thy stretched out arm ; if he come and pray in this house ; then hear thou from heaven, even from thy dwelling place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for ; that all people of the earth may know thy name, and fear thee, as doth thy people Israel, and may know that this house which I have built is called by thy name.
- If thy people go out to war against their enemies by the way that thou shalt send them, and they pray unto thee towards this city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name ; then hear thou from heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.
- If they sin against thee, (for there is no man who sinneth not,) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them over before their enemies, and they carry them away captives unto a land far off or near ; yet if they bethink themselves in the land whither they are carried captive, and turn and pray unto thee in the land of their captivity, saying, We have sinned, we have done amiss, and have dealt wickedly : if they return to thee with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, whither they have carried them captives, and pray towards their land, which thou

gavest unto their fathers, and towards the city which thou hast chosen, and towards the house which I have built for thy name: then hear thou from heaven, even from thy dwelling place, their prayer and their supplications, and maintain their cause, and forgive thy people who have sinned against thee.

Now, my God, let, I beseech thee, thine eyes be open, and let thine ears be attentive unto the prayer that is made in this place. Now therefore arise, O LORD God, into thy resting place, thou, and the ark of thy strength: let thy priests, O LORD God, be clothed with salvation, and let thy saints rejoice in goodness. O LORD God, turn not away the face of thine anointed: remember the mercies of David thy servant.

Now when Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire came down from the heavens, and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of the LORD filled the house. And the priests could not enter into the house of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD had filled the LORD'S house. And when all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the LORD upon the house, they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worshipped, and praised the LORD, saying, For he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever.

Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD. And king Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty and two thousand oxen, and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep: so the king and all the people dedicated the house of God. And the priests waited on their offices: the Levites also with instruments of music of the LORD, which David the king had made to praise the LORD, because his mercy endureth for ever, when David praised by their ministry; and the priests sounded trumpets before them, and all Israel stood. Moreover Solomon hallowed the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD: for there he offered burnt offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the brazen altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt offerings, and the thank offerings, and the fat.

Also at the same time Solomon kept the feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from the entering in of Hamath unto the river of Egypt. And on the eighth day they made a solemn assembly; for they kept the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days. And on the three and twentieth day of the seventh month he sent the people away into their tents, glad and merry in heart for the goodness that the LORD had showed unto David, and to Solomon, and to Israel his people.

THUS Solomon finished the house of the LORD, and the king's house: and all that came into Solomon's heart to make in the house of the LORD, and in his own house, he prosperously effected.

And the LORD appeared to Solomon by night, and said unto him, I have heard thy prayer, and have chosen this place to myself for a house of sacrifice. If I shut up the heavens that there be no rain, or if I command the locusts to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people; if my people, who are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land. Now mine eyes shall be open, and mine ears attentive unto the prayer that is made in this place. For now have I chosen and sanctified this house, that my name may be there for ever: and mine eyes and my heart shall be there perpetually.

And as for thee, if thou wilt walk before me, as David thy father walked, and do according to all that I have commanded thee, and shalt observe my statutes and my judgments; then will I stablish the throne of thy kingdom, according as I have covenanted with David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man to be ruler in Israel.

But if ye turn away, and forsake my statutes and my commandments, which I have set before you, and shall go and serve other gods, and worship them; then will I pluck them up by the roots out of my land which I have given them; and this house, which I have sanctified for my name, will I cast out of my sight, and will make it to be a proverb and a byword among all nations. And this house, which is high, shall be an astonishment to every one who passeth by it; so that he shall say, Why hath the LORD done thus unto this land, and unto this house? And it shall be answered, Because they forsook the LORD God of their fathers, who brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold on other gods, and worshipped them, and served them: therefore hath he brought all this evil upon them.

- 8 AND at the end of twenty years, wherein Solomon had built the house of the LORD, and his own house, the cities which Hiram had restored to Solomon, Solomon built them, and caused the children of Israel to dwell there.
- 4 And Solomon went to Hamath-zobah, and prevailed against it. And he built 5 Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the store cities, which he built in Hamath. Also he built Beth-horon the upper, and Beth-horon the lower, fenced cities, with walls, 6 gates, and bars; and Baalath, and all the store cities that Solomon had, and all the chariot cities, and the cities of the horsemen, and all that Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and throughout all the land of his dominion.
- 7 As for all the people who were left of the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not of Israel, but of their children, who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel consumed 9 not, them did Solomon make to pay tribute until this day. But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no servants for his work; but they were men of war, and chief of his captains, and captains of his chariots and horsemen.
- 10 And these were the chief of king Solomon's officers, even two hundred and fifty, who bore rule over the people.
- 11 And Solomon brought up the daughter of Pharaoh out of the city of David unto the house that he had built for her: for he said, My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places are holy, whereunto the ark of the LORD hath come.
- 12 Then Solomon offered burnt offerings unto the LORD on the altar of the LORD, 13 which he had built before the porch, even after a certain rate every day, offering according to the commandment of Moses, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts, three times in the year, even in the feast of unleavened bread, 14 and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles. And he appointed, according to the order of David his father, the courses of the priests to their service, and the Levites to their charges, to praise and minister before the priests, as the duty of every day required: the porters also by their courses at every gate: for so had David the man of God commanded. And they departed not from the commandment of the king unto the priests and Levites concerning any matter, or concerning the 16 treasures. Now all the work of Solomon was prepared unto the day of the foundation of the house of the LORD, and until it was finished. So the house of the LORD was perfected.
- 17 Then went Solomon to Ezion-geber, and to Elath, at the sea side in the land of 18 Edom. And Hiram sent him by the hands of his servants ships, and servants who had knowledge of the sea; and they went with the servants of Solomon to Ophir, and took thence four hundred and fifty talents of gold, and brought them to king Solomon.
- 9 AND when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to prove Solomon with hard questions at Jerusalem, with a very great company, and camels that bore spices, and gold in abundance, and precious stones: and when she was 2 come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart. And Solomon replied to all her questions: and there was nothing hid from Solomon which he told her not.
- 3 And when the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that 4 he had built, and the provisions of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their apparel; his cupbearers also, and their apparel; and his burnt offering which he offered in the house of the LORD; there 5 was no more spirit in her. And she said to the king, It was a true report which I 6 heard in mine own land of thine acts, and of thy wisdom: howbeit I believed not their words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it: and, behold, the one half of the greatness of thy wisdom was not told me: for thou exceedest the fame that I 7 heard. Happy are thy men, and happy are these thy servants, who stand continually before thee, and hear thy wisdom. Blessed be the LORD thy God, who delighted in thee to set thee on his throne, to be king for the LORD thy God: because 8 thy God loved Israel, to establish them for ever, therefore made he thee king over them, to do judgment and justice. And she gave the king a hundred and twenty 9 talents of gold, and of spices great abundance, and precious stones: neither was 12 there any such spice as the queen of Sheba gave king Solomon. And king Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatsoever she asked, besides that which she had brought unto the king. So she turned, and went away to her own land, she and her servants.
- 10 And the servants also of Hiram, and the servants of Solomon, who brought gold 11 from Ophir, brought almug trees and precious stones. And the king made of the

II. CHRONICLES X.

almug trees terraces to the house of the LORD, and to the king's palace, and harps and psalteries for singers: and there were none such seen before in the land of Judah.

NOW the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and threescore and six talents of gold; besides that which traders and merchants brought. And all the kings of Arabia and governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon.

And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold: six hundred shekels of beaten gold went to one target. And three hundred shields made he of beaten gold: three hundred shekels of gold went to one shield. And the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.

Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold. And there were six steps to the throne, with a footstool of gold, which were fastened to the throne, and stays on each side of the sitting place, and two lions standing by the stays: and twelve lions stood on the one side and on the other upon the six steps. There was not the like made in any kingdom. And all the drinking vessels of king Solomon were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold: none were of silver; it was not any thing accounted of in the days of Solomon. For the king's ships went to Tarshish with the servants of Hiram: every three years once came the ships of Tarshish bringing gold, and silver, elephants' teeth, and apes, and peacocks.

And king Solomon surpassed all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom. And all the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, that God had put in his heart. And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and raiment, harness, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year.

And Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen; whom he stationed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.

And he reigned over all the kings from the river Euphrates even unto the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt. And the king made silver in Jerusalem as stones, and cedar trees made he as the sycamore trees that are in the low plains in abundance. And they brought unto Solomon horses out of Egypt, and out of all lands.

Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, first and last, are they not written in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the seer against Jeroboam the son of Nebat? And Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years. And Solomon slept with his fathers, and he was buried in the city of David his father: and Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.

AND REHOBAM went to Shechem: for to Shechem were all Israel come to make him king. 10

And when Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who was in Egypt, whither he had fled from the presence of Solomon the king, heard it, Jeroboam returned out of Egypt. And they sent and called him. So Jeroboam and all Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam, saying, Thy father made our yoke grievous: now therefore ease thou somewhat the grievous servitude of thy father, and his heavy yoke that he put upon us, and we will serve thee. And he said unto them, Come again unto me after three days. And the people departed.

And king Rehoboam took counsel with the old men who had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, What counsel give ye me to return answer to this people? And they spoke unto him, saying, If thou be kind to this people, and please them, and speak good words to them, they will be thy servants for ever. But he forsook the counsel which the old men gave him, and took counsel with the young men who were brought up with him, who stood before him. And he said unto them, What advice give ye that we may return answer to this people, who have spoken to me, saying, Ease somewhat the yoke that thy father did put upon us? And the young men who were brought up with him spoke unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou answer the people who spoke unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it somewhat lighter for us; thus shalt thou say unto them, My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins. For whereas my father put a heavy yoke upon you, I will put more to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king bade, saying, Come again to me on the third day. And the king answered them

II. CHRONICLES XI. XII.

14 roughly; and king Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the old men, and answered them after the advice of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add thereto: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

15 So the king hearkened not unto the people: for the cause was of God, that the LORD might perform his word, which he spoke by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat. And when all Israel saw that the king would not hearken unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? and we have no inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to your tents, O Israel: and now, David, see to thine own house. So all Israel went to their tents. 17 But as for the children of Israel who dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

18 Then king Rehoboam sent Hadoram who was over the tribute; and the children of Israel stoned him with stones, that he died. But king Rehoboam made speed to mount his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem. And Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

11 And when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he gathered of the house of Judah and Benjamin a hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, who were warriors, 2 to fight against Israel, that he might bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam. But 3 the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying, Speak unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, 4 saying, Thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren: return every man to his house: for this thing is done of me. And they obeyed the words of the LORD, and returned from going against Jeroboam.

5 6 AND Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and built cities for defence in Judah. He 7 built even Beth-lehem, and Etam, and Tekoa, and Beth-zur, and Shoco, and Adul- 8 9 lam, and Gath, and Mareshah, and Ziph, and Adoraim, and Lachish, and Azekah, 10 and Zorah, and Aijalon, and Hebron, which are in Judah and in Benjamin fenced 11 cities. And he fortified the strong holds, and put captains in them, and store of 12 food, and of oil and wine. And in every separate city he put shields and spears, 13 and made them exceedingly strong, having Judah and Benjamin on his side. And the priests and the Levites who were in all Israel resorted to him out of all their coasts. 14 For the Levites left their suburbs and their possession, and came to Judah and Jeru- 15 salem: for Jeroboam and his sons had cast them off from executing the priest's office 16 unto the LORD: and he ordained him priests for the high places, and for the 17 demons, and for the calves which he had made. And after them out of all the tribes of Israel such as set their hearts to seek the LORD God of Israel came to Jerusa- 18 lem, to sacrifice unto the LORD God of their fathers. So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong, three years: for three years they walked in the way of David and Solomon.

18 And Rehoboam took him Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David to 19 wife, and Abihail the daughter of Eliab the son of Jesse; who bore him children; 20 Jeush, and Shamariah, and Zaham. And after her he took Maachah the daughter 21 of Absalom; who bore him Abijah, and Attai, and Ziza, and Shelomith. And Rehoboam loved Maachah the daughter of Absalom above all his wives and his concubines: (for he took eighteen wives, and threescore concubines; and begat twenty 22 and eight sons, and threescore daughters.) And Rehoboam made Abijah the son of Maachah the chief, to be ruler among his brethren: for he intended to make him 23 king. And he dealt wisely, and dispersed of all his children throughout all the countries of Judah and Benjamin, unto every fenced city: and he gave them food in abundance. And he took wives for them.

12 AND when Rehoboam had established the kingdom, and had strengthened himself, he forsook the law of the LORD, and all Israel with him.

2 And in the fifth year of king Rehoboam Shishak king of Egypt came up against 3 Jerusalem, because they had transgressed against the LORD, with twelve hundred chariots, and threescore thousand horsemen: and the people were without number who came with him out of Egypt; the Lubims, the Sukkiims, and the Ethiopians. 4 And he took the fenced cities which belonged to Judah, and came to Jerusalem. 5 Then came Shemaiah the prophet to Rehoboam, and to the princes of Judah, who were gathered together to Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Ye have forsaken me, and therefore have I also left you in 6 the hand of Shishak. Whereupon the princes of Israel and the king humbled 7 themselves; and they said, The LORD is righteous. And when the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, saying, They have humbled themselves; therefore I will not destroy them, but I will grant them some deliverance; and my wrath shall not be poured out upon Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak. Nevertheless they shall be his servants; that they may 8 know my service, and the service of the kingdoms of the countries. So Shishak 9 king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house; he took all: he carried away also the shields of gold which Solomon had made. Instead of which king Rehoboam made shields of brass, and committed them to the hands of the chief of the guard, who kept the entrance of the king's house. And when the king entered into 11 the house of the LORD, the guard came and fetched them, and brought them again into the guard chamber. And when he humbled himself, the wrath of the LORD 12 turned from him, that he would not destroy him altogether: and also in Judah things went well.

So king Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem, and reigned: for Rehoboam was one and forty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there. And his mother's name was Naamah an Ammonitess. And he did evil, because he prepared not his heart to seek the LORD. 14

Now the acts of Rehoboam, first and last, are they not written in the records of Shemaiah the prophet, and of Iddo the seer concerning genealogies? And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually. And Rehoboam slept 16 with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David: and Abijah his son reigned in his stead.

NOW IN THE eighteenth year of king Jeroboam began Abijah to reign over Judah. 13 He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Michaiah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah.

And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam. And Abijah set the battle in 3 array with an army of valiant men of war, even four hundred thousand chosen men: Jeroboam also set the battle in array against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, being mighty men of valour.

And Abijah stood up upon mount Zemaraim, which is in mount Ephraim, and said, 4 Hear me, thou Jeroboam, and all Israel; ought ye not to know that the LORD God 5 of Israel gave the kingdom over Israel to David for ever, even to him and to his sons by a perpetual covenant? Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon 6 the son of David, is risen up, and hath rebelled against his lord. And there are gathered unto him vain men, the children of wickedness, and have strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and tenderhearted, and could not withstand them. And now ye think to withstand the 8 kingdom of the LORD in the hand of the sons of David; and ye are a great multitude, and there are with you golden calves, which Jeroboam made you for gods. Have ye not cast out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, 9 and have made you priests after the manner of the nations of other lands? so that whosoever cometh to consecrate himself with a young bullock and seven rams, may be a priest of no gods. But as for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not forsaken him; and the priests, which minister unto the LORD, are the sons of Aaron, and the Levites wait upon their business: and they burn unto the LORD every 11 morning and every evening burnt sacrifices and sweet incense: the showbread also set they in order upon the pure table; and the lampholder of gold with the lamps thereof, to burn every evening: for we keep the charge of the LORD our God; but ye have forsaken him. And, behold, God himself is with us for our captain, 12 and his priests with sounding trumpets to cry alarm against you. O children of Israel, fight ye not against the LORD God of your fathers; for ye shall not prosper.

But Jeroboam caused an ambuscade to come about behind them: so they were before Judah, and the ambuscade was behind them. And when Judah looked back, 13 behold, the battle was before and behind: and they cried unto the LORD, and the priests sounded with the trumpets. Then the men of Judah gave a shout: and as 15 the men of Judah shouted, God smote Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah. And the children of Israel fled before Judah: and God delivered them into 16 their hand. And Abijah and his people slew them with a great slaughter: so there fell down slain of Israel five hundred thousand chosen men. Thus the children of 18 Israel were brought under at that time, and the children of Judah prevailed, because they relied upon the LORD God of their fathers. And Abijah pursued after 19 Jeroboam, and took cities from him, Beth-el with the towns thereof, and Jeshanah

- 20 with the towns thereof, and Ephraim with the towns thereof. Neither did Jeroboam recover strength again in the days of Abijah: and the LORD struck him, and he died.
- 21 But Abijah waxed mighty, and married fourteen wives, and begat twenty and two sons, and sixteen daughters.
- 22 And the rest of the acts of Abijah, and his ways, and his sayings, are written in the records of the prophet Iddo. So Abijah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Asa his son reigned in his stead. In his days the land was quiet ten years.
- 14 2 AND ASA did that which was good and right in the eyes of the LORD his God: 3 for he took away the altars of the strange gods, and the high places, and broke down 4 the sun images, and cut down the groves: and commanded Judah to seek the LORD 5 God of their fathers, and to do the law and the commandment. Also he took away out of all the cities of Judah the high places and the sun images: and the kingdom was quiet before him.
- 6 And he built fenced cities in Judah: for the land had rest, and he had no war in 7 those years; because the LORD had given him rest. Therefore he said unto Judah, Let us build these cities, and make about them walls, and towers, gates, and bars, while the land is yet before us; because we have sought the LORD our God, we have sought him, and he hath given us rest on every side. So they built and prospered.
- 8 And Asa had an army of men who bore targets and spears, out of Judah three hundred thousand; and out of Benjamin, who bore shields and drew bows, two hundred and fourscore thousand: all these were mighty men of valour.
- 9 And there came out against them Zerah the Cushite with a host of a thousand 10 thousand, and three hundred chariots; and came unto Mareshah. Then Asa went out against him, and they set the battle in array in the valley of Zephathah at Mare- 11 shah. And Asa cried unto the LORD his God, and said, LORD, it is nothing with thee to help, whether with many, or with them who have no power: help us, O LORD our God; for we rest on thee, and in thy name we go against this multitude. 12 O LORD, thou art our God; let not man prevail against thee. So the LORD smote 13 the Ethiopians before Asa, and before Judah; and the Ethiopians fled. And Asa and the people who were with him pursued them unto Gerar: and the Ethiopians were overthrown, that they could not recover themselves; for they were destroyed before the LORD, and before his host; and they carried away very much spoil. 14 And they smote all the cities round about Gerar; for the fear of the LORD came upon them: and they spoiled all the cities; for there was exceeding much spoil in 15 them. They smote also the tents of cattle, and carried away sheep and camels in abundance, and returned to Jerusalem.
- 15 AND the Spirit of God came upon Azariah the son of Oded: and he went out to meet Asa, and said unto him, Hear ye me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin; The LORD is with you, while ye be with him; and if ye seek him, he will be found of 3 you; but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you. Now for a long season Israel hath 4 been without the true God, and without a teaching priest, and without law. But when they in their trouble did turn unto the LORD God of Israel, and sought him, 5 he was found of them. And in those times there was no peace to him who went out, nor to him who came in, but great vexations were upon all the inhabitants of the 6 countries. And nation was destroyed of nation, and city of city: for God did vex 7 them with all adversity. Be ye strong therefore, and let not your hands be weak: for your work shall be rewarded.
- 8 And when Asa heard these words, and the prophecy of Azariah the son of Oded the prophet, he took courage, and put away the abominable idols out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the cities which he had taken from mount Ephraim, and renewed the altar of the LORD, that was before the porch of the 9 LORD. And he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and the strangers with them out of Ephraim and Manasseh, and out of Simeon: for they fell to him out of Israel 10 in abundance, when they saw that the LORD his God was with him. So they gathered themselves together at Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year 11 of the reign of Asa. And they offered unto the LORD at the same time, of the spoil 12 which they had brought, seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep. And they entered into a covenant to seek the LORD God of their fathers with all their heart 13 and with all their soul; that whosoever would not seek the LORD God of Israel 14 should be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman. And they swore unto the LORD with a loud voice, and with shouting, and with trumpets, and 15 with cornets. And all Judah rejoiced at the oath: for they had sworn with all their heart, and sought him with their whole desire; and he was found of them: and the LORD gave them rest round about.

And also concerning Maachah the grandmother of Asa the king, he removed her 16 from being queen, because she had made an idol in a grove: and Asa cut down her idol, and stamped it, and burnt it at the brook Kidron. But the high places were 17 not taken away out of Israel: nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect all his days. And he brought into the house of God the things that his father had dedicated, and 18 that he himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels. And there was no more 19 war unto the five and twentieth year of the reign of Asa.

IN the six and twentieth year of the reign of Asa, Baasha king of Israel came up 16 against Judah, and built Ramah, to the intent that he might let none go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

Then Asa brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of the house of the 2 LORD and of the king's house, and sent to Ben-hadad king of Syria, who dwelt at Damascus, saying, Let there be a league between me and thee, as there was between 3 my father and thy father: behold, I have sent thee silver and gold; go, break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me. And Ben-hadad 4 hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel; and they smote Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-maim, and all the store cities of Naphtali.

And when Baasha heard it, he left off building of Ramah, and let his work cease. 5 Then Asa the king took all Judah; and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and 6 the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha was building; and he built therewith Geba and Mizpah.

And at that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah, and said unto him, 7 Because thou hast relied on the king of Syria, and not relied on the LORD thy God, therefore is the host of the king of Syria escaped out of thy hand. Were not 8 the Ethiopians and the Lubims a huge host, with very many chariots and horsemen? yet, because thou didst rely on the LORD, he delivered them into thy hand. For 9 the eyes of the LORD run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to show himself strong in the behalf of those whose hearts are perfect towards him. Herein thou hast done foolishly: therefore from henceforth thou shalt have wars. Then Asa was 10 wroth with the seer, and put him in a prison house; for he was in a rage with him because of this thing. And Asa oppressed some of the people at the same time.

And, behold, the acts of Asa, first and last, lo, they are written in the records of 11 the kings of Judah and Israel.

And Asa in the thirty and ninth year of his reign was diseased in his feet, until 12 his disease was exceeding great: yet in his disease he sought not to the LORD, but to the physicians. And Asa slept with his fathers, and died in the one and fortieth 13 year of his reign. And they buried him in his own sepulchre, which he had made 14 for himself in the city of David, and laid him in the vault which was filled with sweet odours and divers kinds of spices prepared by the apothecaries' art: and they made a very great burning for him.

AND JEHOSEPHAT his son reigned in his stead, and strengthened himself 17 against Israel. And he placed forces in all the fenced cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of Judah, and in the cities of Ephraim, which Asa his father had taken. And the LORD was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the first ways 3 of his father David, and sought not unto Baalim; but sought to the LORD God of 4 his father, and walked in his commandments, and not after the doings of Israel. Therefore the LORD established the kingdom in his hand; and all Judah brought 5 to Jehoshaphat presents; and he had riches and honour in abundance. And his 6 heart was encouraged in the ways of the LORD: moreover he took away the high places and groves out of Judah.

Also in the third year of his reign he sent to his princes, even to Ben-hail, and to 7 Obadiah, and to Zechariah, and to Nethanel, and to Michaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah. And with them he sent Levites, even Shemaiah, and Nathaniah, and 8 Zebadiah, and Asahel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehonathan, and Adonijah, and Tobijah, and Tob-adonijah, Levites; and with them Elishama and Jehoram, priests. And 9 they taught in Judah, and had the book of the law of the LORD with them, and went about throughout all the cities of Judah, and taught the people.

And the fear of the LORD fell upon all the kingdoms of the lands that were round 10 about Judah, so that they made no war against Jehoshaphat. Also some of the 11 Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents, and tribute silver; and the Arabians brought him flocks, seven thousand and seven hundred rams, and seven thousand

II. CHRONICLES XVIII.

- 12 and seven hundred he-goats. And Jehoshaphat waxed great exceedingly; and 13 he built in Judah fortresses, and cities of store. And he had much business in the cities of Judah: and the men of war, mighty men of valour, were in Jerusalem.
- 14 And these are the numbers of them according to the house of their fathers: of Judah, the captains of thousands; Adnah the chief, and with him mighty men of 15 valour three hundred thousand. And next to him was Jehohanan the captain, 16 and with him two hundred and fourscore thousand. And next him was Amasiah the son of Zichri, who willingly offered himself unto the LORD; and with him two 17 hundred thousand mighty men of valour. And of Benjamin; Eliada a mighty man of valour, and with him armed men with bow and shield two hundred thou-18 sand. And next him was Jehozabad, and with him a hundred and fourscore 19 thousand ready prepared for the war. These waited on the king, besides those whom the king put in the fenced cities throughout all Judah.
- 18 NOW Jehoshaphat had riches and honour in abundance, and joined affinity with Ahab. And at the end of two years he went down to Ahab to Samaria. And Ahab killed sheep and oxen for him in abundance, and for the people whom he had with 3 him, and persuaded him to go up with him to Ramoth-gilead. And Ahab king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat king of Judah, Wilt thou go with me to Ramoth-gilead? And he answered him, I am as thou art, and my people as thy people; and we will be with thee in the war.
- 4 And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, Inquire, I pray thee, at the word 5 of the LORD to-day. Therefore the king of Israel gathered together of prophets four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; for God will deliver it into the king's hand.
- 6 But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD besides, that we 7 might inquire of him? And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man, by whom we may inquire of the LORD: but I hate him; for he never prophesied good unto me, but always evil: the same is Micaiah the son of Imla. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so.
- 8 And the king of Israel called for one of his officers, and said, Fetch quickly Mi-9 caiah the son of Imla. And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah sat each of them on his throne, clothed in their robes, and they sat in a void place at the entering in of the gate of Samaria: and all the prophets prophesied before them.
- 10 And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah had made him horns of iron, and said, Thus 11 saith the LORD, With these thou shalt push Syria until thou consume them. And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king.
- 12 And the messenger who went to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying, Behold, the words of the prophets declare good to the king with one accord; let thy word there-13 fore, I pray thee, be like one of theirs, and speak thou good. And Micaiah said,
 As the LORD liveth, even what my God saith, that will I speak.
- 14 And when he was come to the king, the king said unto him, Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And he said, Go ye up, and prosper, 15 and they shall be delivered into your hand. And the king said to him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou say nothing but the truth to me in the name of 16 the LORD? Then he said, I did see all Israel scattered upon the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd: and the LORD said, These have no master; let them 17 return therefore every man to his house in peace. And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would not prophesy good unto me, but 18 evil? Again he said, Therefore hear the word of the LORD; I saw the LORD sitting upon his throne, and all the host of heaven standing on his right hand, and on 19 his left. And the LORD said, Who shall entice Ahab king of Israel, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one spoke saying after this manner, and 20 another saying after that manner. Then there came out a spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will entice him. And the LORD said unto him, Where-21 with? And he said, I will go out, and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And the LORD said, Thou shalt entice him, and thou shalt also prevail: go 22 out, and do even so. Now therefore, behold, the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of these thy prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil against thee.
- 23 Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near, and smote Micaiah upon the 24 cheek, and said, Which way went the Spirit of the LORD from me to speak unto thee? And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt see on that day when thou shalt go into an inner chamber to hide thyself.
- 25 Then the king of Israel said, Take ye Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son; and say, Thus saith the king, 26 Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I return in peace. And Micaiah said, If thou certainly return in 27 peace, then hath not the LORD spoken by me. And he said, Hearken, all ye people.

So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth- 29 gilead. And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and 29 will go to the battle; but put thou on my robes. So the king of Israel disguised himself; and they went to the battle. Now the king of Syria had commanded the 30 captains of the chariots who were with him, saying, Fight ye not with small or great, save only with the king of Israel. And when the captains of the chariots saw Je- 31 hoshaphat, they said, It is the king of Israel. Therefore they compassed about him to fight: but Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him; and God moved them to depart from him. For when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not 32 the king of Israel, they turned back again from pursuing him. And a certain man 33 drew a bow at a venture, and smote the king of Israel between the joints of the harness: therefore he said to his chariot man, Turn thy hand, that thou mayest carry me out of the host; for I am wounded. And the battle increased that day: howbeit 34 the king of Israel stayed himself up in his chariot against the Syrians until the evening: and about the time of the sun going down he died.

And Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned to his house in peace to Jerusalem. 19
And Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him, and said to king Jehoshaphat, Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and love those who hate the LORD?
therefore is wrath upon thee from before the LORD. Nevertheless there are good 3 things found in thee, in that thou hast taken away the groves out of the land, and hast prepared thy heart to seek God.

AND Jehoshaphat dwelt at Jerusalem: and he went out again through the people 4 from Beer-sheba to mount Ephraim, and brought them back unto the LORD God of their fathers. And he set judges in the land throughout all the fenced cities of 5 Judah, city by city, and said to the judges, Take heed what ye do: for ye judge not 6 for man, but for the LORD, who is with you in the judgment. Wherefore now let 7 the fear of the LORD be upon you; take heed and do it: for there is no iniquity with the LORD our God, nor respect of persons, nor taking of bribes. Moreover 8 in Jerusalem did Jehoshaphat set of the Levites, and of the priests, and of the chief of the fathers of Israel, for the judgment of the LORD, and for controversies, when they returned to Jerusalem. And he charged them, saying, Thus shall ye do in the 9 fear of the LORD, faithfully, and with a perfect heart. And what cause soever 10 shall come to you of your brethren who dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and judgments, ye shall even warn them that they trespass not against the LORD, and so wrath come upon you, and upon your brethren: this do, and ye shall not trespass. And, behold, Amariah the 11 chief priest is over you in all matters of the LORD; and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, for all the king's matters: also the Levites shall be officers before you. Do courageously, and the LORD shall be with thee for good.

AFTER this, the children of Moab, and the children of Ammon, and with them 20 the Edomites, came against Jehoshaphat to battle. Then there came some who told Jehoshaphat, saying, There cometh a great multitude against thee from beyond the sea on this side Edom; and, behold, they are in Hazazon-tamar, which is En-gedi.
And Jehoshaphat feared, and set himself to seek the LORD, and proclaimed a fast 3 throughout all Judah. And Judah gathered themselves together, to ask help of the 4 LORD: even out of all the cities of Judah they came to seek the LORD.

And Jehoshaphat stood in the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house 5 of the LORD, before the new court, and said, O LORD God of our fathers, art not 6 thou God in heaven? and rulest not thou over all the kingdoms of the heathen?
and in thy hand are there not power and might, so that none is able to withstand thee? Art not thou our God? Thou didst drive out the inhabitants of this land 7 before thy people Israel, and gavest it to the seed of Abraham thy friend for ever.
And they dwelt therein, and have built thee a sanctuary therein for thy name, say- 8 ing, If, when evil cometh upon us, as the sword, judgment, or pestilence, or famine, 9 we stand before this house, and in thy presence, (for thy name is in this house,) and cry unto thee in our affliction, then thou wilt hear and help. And now, behold, the 10 children of Ammon and Moab and mount Seir, whom thou wouldest not let Israel invade, when they came out of the land of Egypt, but they turned from them, and destroyed them not; behold, how they reward us evil, to come to cast us out of thy 11

II. CHRONICLES XXI.

- 12 possession, which thou hast given us to inherit. O our God, wilt thou not judge them? for we have no might against this great company who cometh against us; neither know we what to do: but our eyes are upon thee.
- 13 And all Judah stood before the LORD, with their little ones, their wives, and their
- 14 children. Then upon Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite of the sons of Asaph, came the Spirit of the LORD
- 15 in the midst of the congregation; and he said, Hearken ye, all Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem, and thou king Jehoshaphat, Thus saith the LORD unto you, Be not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle is
- 16 not yours, but God's. To-morrow go ye down against them: behold, they come up by the cliff of Ziz; and ye shall find them at the end of the valley, before the wilderness of Jeruel. Ye shall not need to fight in this battle: set yourselves, stand ye still, and see the salvation of the LORD with you, O Judah and Jerusalem: fear not, nor be dismayed; to-morrow go out against them: for the LORD will be with you.
- 18 And Jehoshaphat bowed his head with his face to the ground: and all Judah and
- 19 the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell before the LORD, worshipping the LORD. And the Levites, of the children of the Kohathites, and of the children of the Korhites, stood up to praise the LORD God of Israel with a loud voice on high.
- 20 And they rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem; Believe in the LORD your God, so shall ye be established;
- 21 believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper. And when he had consulted with the people, he appointed singers unto the LORD, who should praise the beauty of holiness, as they went out before the army, and say, Praise the LORD; for his mercy endureth for ever.
- 22 And when they began to sing and to praise, the LORD set ambuscades against the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, who were come against Judah; and
- 23 they were smitten. For the children of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of mount Seir, utterly to slay and destroy them: and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, every one helped to destroy one another.
- 24 And when Judah came towards the watch tower in the wilderness, they looked unto the multitude, and, behold, they were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and none
- 25 escaped. And when Jehoshaphat and his people came to take away the spoil of them, they found among them in abundance both riches with the garments of the dead, and precious jewels, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry
- 26 away: and they were three days in gathering the spoil, it was so much. And on the fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of Berachah; for there they blessed the LORD: therefore the name of the same place was called, The valley of Berachah [THANKSGIVING], unto this day.
- 27 Then they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat in the forefront of them, to go again to Jerusalem with joy; for the LORD had made
- 28 them to rejoice over their enemies. And they came to Jerusalem with psalteries and harps and trumpets unto the house of the LORD. And the fear of God was on
- 29 all the kingdoms of those countries, when they had heard that the LORD fought against the enemies of Israel. So the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet: for his God gave him rest round about.
- 31 AND Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah: he was thirty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's
- 32 name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. And he walked in the way of Asa his father, and departed not from it, doing that which was right in the sight of the
- 33 LORD. Howbeit the high places were not taken away: for as yet the people had not prepared their hearts unto the God of their fathers.
- 34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of Jehu the son of Hanani, who is mentioned in the book of the kings of Israel.
- 35 And after this did Jehoshaphat king of Judah join himself with Ahaziah king of
- 36 Israel, who did very wickedly: and he joined himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish: and they made the ships in Ezion-gaber. Then Eliezer the son of
- 37 Dodavah of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, Because thou hast joined thyself with Ahaziah, the LORD hath broken thy works. And the ships were broken, that they were not able to go to Tarshish.
- 21 Now Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David.
- 2 AND JEHOHAM his son reigned alone in his stead. And he had brethren the sons of Jehoshaphat, Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephatiah: all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Judah. And their father gave them great gifts of silver, and of gold, and of precious things, with fenced cities in Judah: but the kingdom gave he to Jehoram; because he was the first-born. Now when Jehoram was risen up to the kingdom of his father, he strengthened himself, and slew all his brethren with the sword, and many of the princes of Israel.

Jehoram was thirty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, like as did the house of Ahab: for he had the daughter of Ahab to wife: and he wrought that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD. Howbeit the LORD would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that he had made with David, and as he promised to give a light to him and to his sons for ever.

In his days the Edomites revolted from under the dominion of Judah, and made themselves a king. Then Jehoram went forth with his princes, and all his chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and smote the Edomites who compassed him in, and the captains of the chariots. So the Edomites revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. The same time also did Libnah revolt from under his hand; because he had forsaken the LORD God of his fathers.

Moreover he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit idolatry, and led Judah to go astray. And there came a writing to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of David thy father, Because thou hast not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat thy father, nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah, but hast walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and hast made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to go astray after idols, like the house of Ahab, and also hast slain thy brethren of thy father's house, who were better than thyself: behold, with a great plague will the LORD smite thy people, and thy children, and thy wives, and all thy goods: and thou shalt have great sickness by disease of thy bowels, until thy bowels fall out by reason of the sickness day by day.

Moreover the LORD stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines, and of the Arabians, who were near the Ethiopians: and they came up into Judah, and broke into it, and carried away all the substance that was found in the king's house, and his sons also, and his wives; so that there was not a son left him, save Jehoahaz, the youngest of his sons. And after all this the LORD smote him in his bowels with an incurable disease. And in process of time, after the end of two years, his bowels fell out by reason of his sickness: so he died of grievous diseases. And his people made no burning for him, like the burning of his fathers. Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years, and departed without being lamented. Howbeit they buried him in the city of David, but not in the sepulchres of the kings.

AND THE INHABITANTS of Jerusalem made Ahaziah his youngest son king in his stead: for the band of men who came with the Arabians to the camp had slain all the eldest. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah reigned. Twenty and two years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Athaliah the daughter of Omri. He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab: for his mother was his counsellor to do wickedly. Wherefore he did evil in the sight of the LORD like the house of Ahab: for they were his counsellors after the death of his father to his destruction. He walked also after their counsel, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth-gilead: and the Syrians smote Joram. And he returned to be healed in Jezreel because of the wounds which were given him at Ramah, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria.

And Azariah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab at Jezreel, because he was sick. And the destruction of Ahaziah was of God by coming to Joram: for when he was come, he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab. And when Jehu was executing judgment upon the house of Ahab, and found the princes of Judah, and the sons of the brethren of Ahaziah, who ministered to Ahaziah, he slew them. And he sought Ahaziah: and they caught him, (for he was hid in Samaria,) and brought him to Jehu: and when they had slain him, they buried him: Because, said they, he is the son of Jehoshaphat, who sought the LORD with all his heart.

SO the house of Ahaziah had no power to keep still the kingdom. But when 10

- Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed 11 all the seed royal of the house of Judah. But Jehoshabeath, the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons who were slain, and put him and his nurse in a bedchamber. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of king Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest, (for she was the sister of 12 Ahaziah,) hid him from Athaliah, so that she slew him not. And he was with them hid in the house of God six years: and Athaliah reigned over the land.

23 AND in the seventh year Jehoiada strengthened himself, and took the captains of hundreds, Azariah the son of Jeroham, and Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, and Azariah the son of Obed, and Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri, into covenant with him. And they went about in Judah, and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the chief of the fathers of Israel, and they
 3 came to Jerusalem. And all the congregation made a covenant with the king in the house of God. And he said unto them, Behold, the king's son shall reign, as 4 the LORD hath said of the sons of David. This is the thing that ye shall do; A third part of ye entering on the sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, shall be
 5 porters of the doors; and a third part shall be at the king's house; and a third part at the gate of the foundation: and all the people shall be in the courts of the house
 6 of the LORD. But let none come into the house of the LORD, save the priests, and they who minister of the Levites; they shall go in, for they are holy: but all
 7 the people shall keep the watch of the LORD. And the Levites shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whosoever else cometh into the house, he shall be put to death: but be ye with the king when he cometh in, and when he goeth out.

- 8 So the Levites and all Judah did according to all things that Jehoiada the priest had commanded, and took every man his men who were to come in on the sabbath, with those who were to go out on the sabbath: for Jehoiada the priest dismissed not 9 the courses. Moreover Jehoiada the priest delivered to the captains of hundreds, spears, and bucklers, and shields, that had been king David's, which were in the house 10 of God. And he set all the people, every man having his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the temple to the left side of the temple, along by the altar and the 11 temple, by the king round about. Then they brought out the king's son, and put upon him the crown, and gave him the book of the law, and made him king. And Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and said, Long live the king.

- 12 Now when Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people into the house of the LORD: and she looked, and, behold, the king stood at his pillar at the entering in, and the princes and the trumpets by the king: and all the people of the land rejoiced, and sounded with trumpets, also the singers with instruments of music, and such as taught to sing praise. Then 14 Athaliah rent her clothes, and said, Treason! Treason! Then Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds who were set over the host, and said unto them, Have her forth without the ranges: and whoso followeth her, let him be slain with 15 the sword. For the priest said, Slay her not in the house of the LORD. So they laid hands on her; and when she was come to the entering of the horse gate by the king's house, they slew her there.

- 16 And Jehoiada made a covenant between himself, and between all the people, and 17 between the king, that they should be the LORD'S people. Then all the people went to the house of Baal, and broke it down, and broke his altars and his images 18 in pieces, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. Also Jehoiada appointed the officers of the house of the LORD by the hand of the priests the Levites, whom David had distributed in the house of the LORD, to offer the burnt offerings of the LORD, as it is written in the law of Moses, with rejoicing and with 19 singing, as it was ordained by David. And he set the porters at the gates of the 20 house of the LORD, that no one who was unclean in any thing should enter in. And he took the captains of hundreds, and the nobles, and the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought down the king from the house of the LORD: and they came through the high gate into the king's house, and set the king 21 upon the throne of the kingdom. And all the people of the land rejoiced: and the city was quiet, after that they had slain Athaliah with the sword.

24 JOASH was seven years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Zibiah of Beer-sheba. And Joash did 3 that which was right in the sight of the LORD all the days of Jehoiada the priest. And Jehoiada took for him two wives; and he begat sons and daughters.

- 4 5 And after this Joash was minded to repair the house of the LORD. And he gathered together the priests and the Levites, and said to them, Go out unto the cities of Judah, and gather of all Israel money to repair the house of your God from year to year, and see that ye hasten the matter. Howbeit the Levites hastened it not.

II. CHRONICLES XXV.

And the king called for Jehoiada the chief, and said unto him, Why hast thou not required of the Levites to bring in out of Judah and out of Jerusalem the collection, according to the commandment of Moses the servant of the LORD, and of the congregation of Israel, for the tabernacle of witness? For the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken up the house of God; and also all the dedicated things of the house of the LORD did they bestow upon Baalim.

And at the king's commandment they made a chest, and set it without at the gate of the house of the LORD. And they made a proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem, to bring in to the LORD the collection that Moses the servant of God laid upon Israel in the wilderness. And all the princes and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they had made an end. Now when the chest was brought unto the king's office by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, the king's scribe and the high priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to its place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance. And the king and Jehoiada gave it to such as did the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and hired masons and carpenters to repair the house of the LORD, and also such as wrought iron and brass to mend the house of the LORD. So the workmen wrought, and the work was perfected by them, and they set the house of God in its state, and strengthened it. And when they had finished it, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada, whereof were made vessels for the house of the LORD, even vessels to minister, and to offer with, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD continually all the days of Jehoiada.

But Jehoiada waxed old, and was full of days when he died; a hundred and thirty years old was he when he died. And they buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, both towards God, and towards his house.

Now after the death of Jehoiada came the princes of Judah, and made obeisance to the king. Then the king hearkened unto them. And they left the house of the LORD God of their fathers, and served groves and idols: and wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this their trespass. Yet he sent prophets to them, to bring them again unto the LORD; and they testified against them: but they would not give ear. And the Spirit of God came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, who stood above the people, and said unto them, Thus saith God, Why transgress ye the commandments of the LORD, that ye cannot prosper? because ye have forsaken the LORD, he hath also forsaken you. And they conspired against him, and stoned him with stones at the commandment of the king in the court of the house of the LORD. Thus Joash the king remembered not the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but slew his son. And when he died, he said, The LORD look upon it, and requite it.

And at the end of the year, the host of Syria came up against him: and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoil of them unto the king at Damascus. For the army of the Syrians came with a small company of men, and the LORD delivered a very great host into their hand, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers. So they executed judgment against Joash.

And when they were departed from him, his own servants conspired against him for the blood of the sons of Jehoiada the priest, and slew him on his bed, and he died: and they buried him in the city of David, but they buried him not in the sepulchres of the kings. And these are they who conspired against him; Zabad the son of Shimeath, an Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of Shimirith, a Moabitess. Now concerning his sons, and the greatness of the burdens laid upon them, and repairing of the house of God, behold, they are written in the records of the book of the kings. And Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

AMAZIAH was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem. And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, but not with a perfect heart. Now when the kingdom was established to him, he slew his servants who had killed the king his father. But he slew not their children, but did as it is written in the law in the book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, saying, The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers, but every man shall die for his own sin.

5 Moreover Amaziah gathered Judah together, and made them captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, according to the houses of their fathers, throughout all Judah and Benjamin : and he numbered them from twenty years old and above, and found them three hundred thousand choice men, able to go forth to war, 6 who could handle spear and shield. He hired also a hundred thousand mighty men of valour out of Israel for a hundred talents of silver.

7 But there came a man of God to him, saying, O king, let not the army of Israel go with thee; for the LORD is not with Israel, the children of Ephraim. But if thou wilt go, do it, be strong for the battle : God shall make thee fall before the enemy : for God hath power to help, and to cast down. And Amaziah said to the man of God, But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the army of Israel? And the man of God answered, The LORD is able to give thee much more than this.

10 Then Amaziah separated the army that was come to him out of Ephraim, to go home again : wherefore their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home in great anger. And Amaziah strengthened himself, and led forth his people, and went to the valley of salt, and smote of the children of Seir ten thousand. And other ten thousand left alive did the children of Judah carry away captive, and brought them unto the top of the rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, that they all were broken in pieces. But the soldiers of the army which Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell upon the cities of Judah, from Samaria even unto Beth-horon, and smote three thousand of them, and took much spoil.

14 Now after that Amaziah was come from the slaughter of the Edomites, he brought the gods of the children of Seir, and set them up to be his gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burnt incense unto them. Wherefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against Amaziah, and he sent unto him a prophet, who said unto him, Why hast thou sought after the gods of the people, which could not deliver their own people out of thy hand? And as he talked with him, the king said unto him, Art thou made of the king's counsel? forbear; why shouldst thou be smitten? Then the prophet forbore, and said, I know that God hath determined to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not hearkened unto my counsel.

17 Then Amaziah king of Judah took advice, and sent to Joash, the son of Jehohaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us look one another in the face. And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife : and there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and 19 trod down the thistle. Thou sayest, Lo, I have smitten the Edomites; and thy heart lifteth thee up to boast : abide now at home ; why shouldst thou meddle to 20 thy hurt, that thou shouldst fall, even thou, and Judah with thee? But Amaziah would not hear; for it came of God, that he might deliver them into the hand of 21 their enemies, because they sought after the gods of Edom. So Joash the king of Israel went up; and they looked one another in the face, both he and Amaziah king 22 of Judah, and Beth-shemesh, who belong to Judah. And Judah was put to the 23 worse before Israel, and they fled every man to his tent. And Joash the king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Jehohaz, at Beth-shemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from 24 the gate of Ephraim to the corner gate, four hundred cubits. And he took all the gold and the silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with Obed-edom, and the treasures of the king's house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria.

25 And Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Joash son of 26 Jehohaz king of Israel fifteen years. Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, first and last, behold, are they not written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel? 27 Now after the time that Amaziah did turn away from following the LORD they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem; and he fled to Lachish: but they sent to 28 Lachish after him, and slew him there. And they brought him upon horses, and buried him with his fathers in the city of Judah.

26 THEN all the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the room of his father Amaziah. He built Eloth, and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers.

3 Sixteen years old was Uzziah when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jecoliah of Jerusalem. And he 4 did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah did. And he sought God in the days of Zechariah, who had understand- 5 ing in the fear of God: and as long as he sought the LORD, God made him to prosper.

And he went forth and warred against the Philistines, and broke down the wall 6 of Gath, and the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod, and built cities in the country about Ashdod, and among the Philistines. And God helped him against 7 the Philistines, and against the Arabians who dwelt in Gur-baal, and the Mehunims.
And the Ammonites gave gifts to Uzziah: and his name spread abroad even to the 8 entering in of Egypt; for he strengthened himself exceedingly.

Moreover Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the corner gate, and at the valley 9 gate, and at the turning of the wall, and fortified them. Also he built towers in the 10 desert, and digged many wells: for he had much cattle, both in the low country, and in the plains: husbandmen also, and vine dressers in the mountains, and in Carmel: for he loved husbandry.

Moreover Uzziah had a host of fighting men, who went out to war by bands, ac- 11 cording to the number of their account by the hand of Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the ruler, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king's captains. The whole num- 12 ber of the chief of the fathers of the mighty men of valour were two thousand and six hundred. And under their hand was an army, three hundred thousand and seven 13 thousand and five hundred, who made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy. And Uzziah prepared for them throughout all the host shields, 14 and spears, and helmets, and breastplates, and bows, and slings to cast stones. And 15 he made in Jerusalem engines, invented by skilful men, to be on the towers and upon the bulwarks, to shoot arrows and great stones with. And his name spread far abroad; for he was marvellously helped, till he was strong.

But when he was strong, his heart was lifted up to his destruction: for he trans- 16 gressed against the LORD his God, and went into the temple of the LORD to burn incense upon the altar of incense. And Azariah the priest went in after him, and 17 with him fourscore priests of the LORD, who were valiant men: and they withstood 18 Uzziah the king, and said unto him, It appertaineth not unto thee, Uzziah, to burn incense unto the LORD, but to the priests the sons of Aaron, who are consecrated to burn incense: go out of the sanctuary; for thou hast trespassed; neither shall it be for thine honour from the LORD God.

Then Uzziah was wroth, and had a censer in his hand to burn incense: and while 19 he was wroth with the priests, the leprosy even rose up in his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD, from beside the incense altar. And Azariah the 20 chief priest, and all the priests, looked upon him, and, behold, he was leprosy in his forehead, and they thrust him out from thence; yea, himself hastened also to go out, because the LORD had smitten him. And Uzziah the king was a leper unto the 21 day of his death, and dwelt in a separated house, being a leper; for he was cut off from the house of the LORD: and Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land.

Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, first and last, did Isaiah the prophet, the son of 22 Amoz, write. So Uzziah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers 23 in the field of the burial which belonged to the kings; for they said, He is a leper:
and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

JOTHAM was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned 27 sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jerushah, the daughter of Zadok. And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to 2 all that his father Uzziah did: howbeit he entered not into the temple of the LORD.
And the people did yet corruptly. He built the high gate of the house of the LORD, 3 and on the wall of Ophel he built much.

Moreover he built cities in the mountains of Judah, and in the forests he built 4 castles and towers. He fought also with the king of the Ammonites, and prevailed 5 against them. And the children of Ammon gave him the same year a hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley.
So much did the children of Ammon pay unto him, both the second year, and the third. So Jotham became mighty, because he prepared his ways before the LORD 6 his God.

Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars, and his ways, lo, they are 7 written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. He was five and twenty years 8 old when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And Jotham 9 slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

- 28 AHAZ was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: but he did not that which was right in the sight of the LORD, like David his father: for he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and made also molten images for Baalim. Moreover he burnt incense in the valley of the son of Hinnom, and burnt his children in the fire, after the abominations of the nations whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel. He sacrificed also and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.
- Wherefore the LORD his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria; and they smote him, and carried away a great multitude of them captives, and brought them to Damascus. And he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel; who smote him with a great slaughter. For Pekah the son of Remaliah slew in Judah a hundred and twenty thousand in one day, who were all valiant men; because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers. And Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, slew Maaseiah the king's son, and Azrikam the governor of the house, and Elkanah who was next to the king. And the children of Israel carried away captive of their brethren two hundred thousand, women, sons, and daughters, and took also away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria.
- But a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded: and he went out before the host who came to Samaria, and said unto them, Behold, because the LORD God of your fathers was wroth with Judah, he hath delivered them into your hand, and ye have slain them in a rage that reacheth up unto the heavens. And now ye purpose to keep under the children of Judah and Jerusalem for bondmen and bondwomen unto you: but are there not with you, even with you, sins against the LORD your God? Now hear me therefore, and deliver the captives again, which ye have taken captive of your brethren: for the fierce wrath of the LORD is upon you. Then certain of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against those who came from the war, and said unto them, Ye shall not bring in the captives hither: for whereas we have offended against the LORD already, ye intend to add more to our sins and to our trespass: for our trespass is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel. So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the congregation. And the men who were expressed by name rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all who were naked among them, and arrayed them, and shod them, and gave them to eat and to drink, and anointed them, and carried all the feeble of them upon asses, and brought them to Jericho, the city of palm trees, to their brethren: then they returned to Samaria.
- 16 17 AT that time did king Ahaz send unto the kings of Assyria to help him. For again the Edomites had come and smitten Judah, and carried away captives. The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the low country, and of the south of Judah, and had taken Beth-shemesh, and Ajalon, and Gederoth, and Shochu with the villages thereof, and Timnah with the villages thereof, Gimzo also and the villages thereof: and they dwelt there. For the LORD brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of Judah; for he made Judah to revolt, and transgressed sore against the LORD. And Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria came unto him, and distressed him, but strengthened him not. For Ahaz took away a portion out of the house of the LORD, and out of the house of the king, and of the princes, and gave it unto the king of Assyria: but he helped him not. And in the time of his distress did he trespass yet more against the LORD: this is that king Ahaz.
- For he sacrificed unto the gods of Damascus, which smote him: and he said, Because the gods of the kings of Syria help them, therefore will I sacrifice to them, that they may help me. But they were the ruin of him, and of all Israel. And Ahaz gathered together the vessels of the house of God, and cut them in pieces, and shut up the doors of the house of the LORD, and he made him altars in every corner of Jerusalem. And in every separate city of Judah he made high places to burn incense unto other gods, and provoked to anger the LORD God of his fathers.
- Now the rest of his acts and of all his ways, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, even in Jerusalem: but they brought him not into the sepulchres of the kings of Israel: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.
- 29 HEZEKIAH began to reign when he was five and twenty years old, and he reigned nine and twenty years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Abijah,

II. CHRONICLES XXIX.

the daughter of Zechariah. And he did that which was right in the sight of the 2 LORD, according to all that David his father had done.

He in the first year of his reign, in the first month, opened the doors of the house 3 of the LORD, and repaired them. And he brought in the priests and the Levites, and 4 gathered them together into the east street, and said unto them, Hear me, ye Levites, 5 sanctify now yourselves, and sanctify the house of the LORD God of your fathers, 6 and carry forth the filthiness out of the holy place. For our fathers have tres- 7 passed, and done that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD our God, and have 8 forsaken him, and have turned away their faces from the habitation of the LORD, 9 and turned their backs. Also they have shut up the doors of the porch, and put 10 out the lamps, and have not burnt incense nor offered burnt offerings in the 11 holy place unto the God of Israel. Wherefore the wrath of the LORD was upon 12 Judah and Jerusalem, and he hath delivered them up to trouble, to astonishment, 13 and to hissing, as ye see with your eyes. For, lo, our fathers have fallen by the 14 sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this. Now 15 it is in my heart to make a covenant with the LORD God of Israel, that his fierce 16 wrath may turn away from us. My sons, be not now negligent: for the LORD hath 17 chosen you to stand before him, to serve him, and that ye should minister unto him, 18 and burn incense.

Then the Levites arose, Mahath the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, 12 of the sons of the Kohathites: and of the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi, and 13 Azariah the son of Jehalelel: and of the Gershonites; Joah the son of Zimnah, and 14 Eden the son of Joah: and of the sons of Elizaphan; Shimri, and Jeiel: and of the 15 sons of Asaph; Zechariah, and Mattaniah: and of the sons of Heman; Jehiel, and 16 Shimei: and of the sons of Jeduthun; Shemaiah, and Uzziel. And they gathered 17 their brethren, and sanctified themselves, and came, according to the commandment 18 of the king, in the business of the LORD, to cleanse the house of the LORD. And 19 the priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD, to cleanse it, and 20 brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the LORD into the 21 court of the house of the LORD. And the Levites took it, to carry it out abroad into 22 the brook Kidron. Now they began on the first day of the first month to sanctify, 23 and on the eighth day of the month came they to the porch of the LORD: so they 24 sanctified the house of the LORD in eight days; and in the sixteenth day of the 25 first month they made an end.

Then they went in to Hezekiah the king, and said, We have cleansed all the house 16 of the LORD, and the altar of burnt offering, with all the vessels thereof, and the 17 showbread table, with all the vessels thereof. Moreover all the vessels, which king 18 Ahaz in his reign did cast away in his transgression, have we prepared and sanctified, 19 and, behold, they are before the altar of the LORD.

Then Hezekiah the king rose early, and gathered the rulers of the city, and went 20 up to the house of the LORD. And they brought seven bullocks, and seven rams, 21 and seven lambs, and seven he-goats, for a sin offering for the kingdom, and for the 22 sanctuary, and for Judah. And he commanded the priests the sons of Aaron to 23 offer them on the altar of the LORD. So they killed the bullocks, and the priests 24 received the blood, and sprinkled it on the altar: likewise, when they had killed the 25 rams, they sprinkled the blood upon the altar: they killed also the lambs, and they 26 sprinkled the blood upon the altar. And they brought forth the he-goats for the sin 27 offering before the king and the congregation; and they laid their hands upon them: 28 and the priests killed them, and they made reconciliation with their blood upon the 29 altar, to make an atonement for all Israel: for the king commanded that the burnt 30 offering and the sin offering should be made for all Israel. And he set the Levites 31 in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with psalteries, and with harps, according 32 to the commandment of David, and of Gad the king's seer, and Nathan the proph- 33 et: for so was the commandment of the LORD by his prophets. And the Levites 34 stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets. And Heze- 35 kiah commanded to offer the burnt offering upon the altar. And when the burnt 36 offering began, the song of the LORD began also with the trumpets, and with the 37 bands of instruments ordained by David king of Israel. And all the congregation 38 worshipped, and the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded: and all this con- 39 tinued until the burnt offering was finished. And when they had made an end of 40 offering, the king and all who were present with him bowed themselves, and wor- 41 shipped. Moreover Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to 42 sing praise unto the LORD with the words of David, and of Asaph the seer. And 43 they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped.

- 31 Then Hezekiah answered and said, Now ye have consecrated yourselves unto the LORD, come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the house of the LORD. And the congregation brought in sacrifices and thank offerings; and as many as were of a free heart burnt offerings. And the number of the burnt offerings, which the congregation brought, was threescore and ten bullocks, a hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt offering to the LORD.
- 33 34 And the consecrated things were six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep. But the priests were too few, so that they could not flay all the burnt offerings: wherefore their brethren the Levites did help them, till the work was ended, and until the other priests had sanctified themselves: for the Levites were more upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests. And also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace offerings, and the drink offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order. And Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, that God had prepared the people: for the thing was done suddenly.
- 30 AND Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel. For the king had taken counsel, and his princes, and all the congregation in Jerusalem, to keep the passover in the second month. For they could not keep it at that time, because the priests had not sanctified themselves sufficiently, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem. And the thing pleased the king and all the congregation.
- 5 So they established a decree to make proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beersheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel at Jerusalem: for they had not done it of a long time in such sort as it was written.
- 6 So the posts went with the letters from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, Ye children of Israel, turn again unto the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and he will return to the remnant of you, who are escaped out of the hand of the kings of Assyria. And be not ye like your fathers, and like your brethren, who trespassed against the LORD God of their fathers, who therefore gave them up to desolation, as ye see. Now be ye not stiffnecked, as your fathers were, but yield yourselves unto the LORD, and enter into his sanctuary, which he hath sanctified for ever: and serve the LORD your God, that the fierceness of his wrath may turn away from you. For if ye turn again unto the LORD, your brethren and your children shall find compassion before those who lead them captive, so that they shall come again into this land: for the LORD your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if ye return unto him.
- 10 So the posts passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh even unto Zebulun: but they laughed them to scorn, and mocked them.
- 11 Nevertheless divers of Asher and Manasseh and of Zebulun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem. Also in Judah the hand of God was to give them one heart to do the commandment of the king and of the princes, by the word of the LORD.
- 13 AND there assembled at Jerusalem much people to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great congregation. And they arose and took away the altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense took they away, and cast them into the brook Kidron. Then they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the second month: and the priests and the Levites were ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought in the burnt offerings into the house of the LORD. And they stood in their place after their manner, according to the law of Moses the man of God: the priests sprinkled the blood, which they received of the hand of the Levites.
- 17 For there were many in the congregation who were not sanctified: therefore the Levites had the charge of the killing of the passovers for every one who was not clean, to sanctify them unto the LORD. For a multitude of the people, even many of Ephraim, and Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet did they eat the passover otherwise than it was written. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, The good LORD pardon every one who prepareth his heart to seek God, the LORD God of his fathers, though he be not cleansed according to the purification of the sanctuary. And the LORD hearkened to Hezekiah, and healed the people.
- 21 And the children of Israel who were present at Jerusalem kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness: and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day by day, with loud instruments unto the LORD. And Hezekiah spoke comfortably unto all the Levites who taught the good knowledge of the LORD : that they would complete the feast seven days, offering peace offerings, and making confession to the LORD God of their fathers.

And the whole assembly took counsel to keep other seven days : and they kept 23 other seven days with gladness. For Hezekiah king of Judah did give to the congregation a thousand bullocks and seven thousand sheep ; and the princes gave to the congregation a thousand bullocks and ten thousand sheep : and a great number of priests sanctified themselves. And all the congregation of Judah, with the priests 25 and the Levites, and all the congregation who came out of Israel, and the strangers who came out of the land of Israel, and who dwelt in Judah, rejoiced. So there 26 was great joy in Jerusalem : for since the time of Solomon the son of David king of Israel there was not the like in Jerusalem. Then the priests the Levites arose and 27 blessed the people : and the LORD heard their voice, and their prayer came up to his holy dwelling place, even unto heaven.

Now when all this was finished, all Israel who were present in the cities of Judah, went out and broke the images in pieces, and cut down the groves, and threw 31 down the high places and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, in Ephraim also and Manassch, until they had utterly destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned, every man to his possession, into their own cities.

AND Hezekiah appointed the courses of the priests and the Levites after their 2 courses, every man according to his service, the priests and Levites for burnt offerings and for peace offerings, to minister, and to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the tents of the LORD. He appointed also the king's portion of his substance 3 for the burnt offerings, for the morning and evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the sabbaths, and for the new moons, and for the set feasts, as it is written in the law of the LORD.

Moreover he commanded the people who dwelt in Jerusalem to give the portion of 4 the priests and the Levites, that they might be encouraged in the law of the LORD. And as soon as the commandment came abroad, the children of Israel brought in 5 abundance the firstfruits of corn, wine, and oil, and honey, and of all the increase of the field : and the tithe of all things brought they in abundantly. And concern- 6 ing the children of Israel and Judah, who dwell in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and the tithe of holy things which were consecrated unto the LORD their God, and laid them by heaps. In the third month 7 they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished them in the seventh month. And when Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they blessed 8 the LORD, and his people Israel. Then Hezekiah questioned with the priests and 9 the Levites concerning the heaps. And Azariah the chief priest of the house of Zadok answered him, and said, Since the people began to bring the offerings into the house of the LORD, we have had enough to eat, and have left plenty : for the LORD 10 hath blessed his people ; and that which is left is this great store.

Then Hezekiah commanded to prepare storerooms in the house of the LORD ; 11 and they prepared them, and brought in the offerings and the tithes and the dedicated things faithfully : over which Cononiah the Levite was ruler, and Shimei his brother was the next. And Jehiel, and Azariah, and Nahath, and Asahel, and Jerimoth, and Jozabad, and Eliel, and Ismachiah, and Mahath, and Benaiah, were overseers under the hand of Cononiah and Shimei his brother, at the commandment of Hezekiah the king, and Azariah the ruler of the house of God. And Kore the 14 son of Innah the Levite, the porter towards the east, was over the freewill offerings of God, to distribute the oblations of the LORD, and the most holy things. And 15 next him were Eden, and Miniamin, and Jeshua, and Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, in the cities of the priests, in their set office, to give to their brethren by courses, as well to the great as to the small : besides their genealogy of males, from 16 three years old and upwards, even unto every one who entereth into the house of the LORD, his daily portion for their service in their charges according to their courses ; both to the genealogy of the priests by the house of their fathers, and the 17 Levites from twenty years old and upwards, in their charges by their courses ; and to the genealogy of all their little ones, their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, 18 through all the congregation : for in their set office they sanctified themselves in holiness : also of the sons of Aaron the priests, who were in the fields of the suburbs of their cities, in every several city, the men who were expressed by name, to give portions to all the males among the priests, and to all who were reckoned by genealogies among the Levites.

- 20 And thus did Hezekiah throughout all Judah, and wrought that which was good 21 and right and truth before the LORD his God. And in every work that he began in the service of the house of God, and in the law, and in the commandments, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.
- 32 AFTER these things, and the establishment thereof, Sennacherib king of Assyria came, and entered into Judah, and encamped against the fenced cities, and thought to win them for himself.
- 2 And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib was come, and that he was purposed to fight against Jerusalem, he took counsel with his princes and his mighty men to stop the waters of the fountains which were without the city: and they did help him.
- 4 So there was gathered much people together, who stopped all the fountains, and the brook that ran through the midst of the land, saying, Why should the kings of Assyria come, and find much water? Also he strengthened himself, and built up all the wall that was broken, and raised it up to the towers, and another wall without, and repaired Millo in the city of David, and made darts and shields in abundance.
- 6 And he set captains of war over the people, and gathered them together to him in the street of the gate of the city, and spoke encouragingly to them, saying, Be strong and courageous, be not afraid nor dismayed for the king of Assyria, nor for all the multitude who are with him: for there are more with us than with him: with him is an arm of flesh; but with us is the LORD our God to help us, and to fight our battles. And the people rested themselves upon the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.
- 9 After this did Sennacherib king of Assyria send his servants to Jerusalem, (but he himself laid siege against Lachish, and all his power with him,) unto Hezekiah king of Judah, and unto all Judah who were at Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith Sennacherib king of Assyria, Whereon do ye trust, that ye abide in the strong hold in Jerusalem? Doth not Hezekiah persuade you to give over yourselves to die by famine and by thirst, saying, The LORD our God shall deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria? Hath not the same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall worship before one altar, and burn incense upon it? Know ye not what I and my fathers have done unto all the people of other lands? Were the gods of the nations of those lands any way able to deliver their lands out of my hand? Who was there among all the gods of those nations that my fathers utterly destroyed, that could deliver his people out of my hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of my hand? Now therefore let not Hezekiah deceive you, nor persuade you on this manner, neither yet believe him: for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of my hand, and out of the hand of my fathers: how much less shall your God deliver you out of my hand? And his servants spoke yet more against the LORD God, and against his servant Hezekiah.
- 17 He wrote also letters to rail on the LORD God of Israel, and to speak against him, saying, As the gods of the nations of other lands have not delivered their people out of my hand, so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliver his people out of my hand.
- 18 Then they cried with a loud voice in the Jews' speech unto the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to affright them, and to trouble them; that they might take the city. And they spoke against the God of Jerusalem, as against the gods of the people of the earth, which were the work of the hands of man.
- 20 And for this cause Hezekiah the king, and the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz, prayed and cried to heaven. And the LORD sent an angel, who cut off all the mighty men of valour, and the leaders and captains in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with shame of face to his own land. And when he was come into the house of his god, they who came forth of his own bowels slew him there with the sword. Thus the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from all their enemies, and gave them rest on every side. And many brought gifts unto the LORD to Jerusalem, and presents to Hezekiah king of Judah: so that he was magnified in the sight of all nations from thenceforth.
- 24 IN those days Hezekiah was sick to death, and prayed unto the LORD: and he hearkened unto him, and wrought a miracle for him. But Hezekiah rendered not again according to the benefit done unto him; for his heart was lifted up: therefore there was wrath upon him, and upon Judah and Jerusalem. Notwithstanding Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD came not upon them in the days of Hezekiah. And Hezekiah had exceeding much riches and honour: and he made himself treasuries for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all manner of pleasant jewels; storehouses also for the increase 28 of corn, and wine, and oil; and stalls for all manner of beasts, and cotes for flocks. Moreover he provided him cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance: 29 for God had given him substance very much.

This same Hezekiah also stopped the upper watercourse of Gihon, and brought 30 it straight down to the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all his works. Howbeit in the business of the ambassadors of the princes of Baby- 31 lon, who sent unto him to inquire of the wonder that was done in the land, God left him, to try him, that he might know all that was in his heart.

Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his goodness, behold, they are written 32 in the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, and in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. And Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the 33 highest of the sepulchres of the sons of David: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honour at his death. And Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

MANASSEH was twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty 33 and five years in Jerusalem: but did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, like unto the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel. For he built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had 3 broken down, and he reared up altars for Baalim, and made groves, and worshipped all the host of the heavens, and served them. Also he built altars in the house of 4 the LORD, whereof the LORD had said, In Jerusalem shall my name be for ever. And he built altars for all the host of the heavens in the two courts of the house of 5 the LORD. And he caused his children to pass through the fire in the valley of the 6 son of Hinnom: also he observed times, and used enchantments, and used witchcraft, and dealt with a familiar spirit, and with wizards: he wrought much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger. And he set a carved image, the 7 idol which he had made, in the house of God, of which God had said to David and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen before all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever: neither will I any more remove the 8 foot of Israel from out of the land which I have appointed for your fathers; so that they will take heed to do all that I have commanded them, according to the whole law and the statutes and the ordinances by the hand of Moses. So Manasseh made 9 Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to err, and to do worse than the heathen, whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Israel. And the LORD spoke 10 to Manasseh, and to his people: but they would not hearken. Wherefore the LORD 11 brought upon them the captains of the host of the king of Assyria, who took Manasseh alive, and bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon. And when 12 he was in affliction, he besought the LORD his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers, and prayed unto him: and he was entreated of him, 13 and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD was God.

Now after this he built a wall without the city of David, on the west side of Gihon, 14 by the brook, even to the entering in at the fish gate, and compassed about Ophel, and raised it up a very great height, and put captains of war in all the fenced cities of Judah. And he took away the strange gods, and the idol out of the house of the 15 LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of the LORD, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the city. And he repaired the altar of the 16 LORD, and sacrificed thereon peace offerings and thank offerings, and commanded Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel. Nevertheless the people did sacrifice still 17 in the high places, yet unto the LORD their God only.

Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer unto his God, and the words 18 of the seers who spoke to him in the name of the LORD God of Israel, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel. His prayer also, and how God was 19 entreated of him, and all his sins, and his trespass, and the places wherein he built high places, and set up groves and graven images, before he was humbled: behold, they are written among the sayings of the seers. So Manasseh slept with his fathers, 20 and they buried him in his own house: and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

AMON was two and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned 21 years in Jerusalem. But he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as did Manasseh his father: for Amon sacrificed unto all the carved images which Manasseh his father had made, and served them; and humbled not himself before the 23 LORD, as Manasseh his father had humbled himself; but Amon trespassed more and more. And his servants conspired against him, and slew him in his own house. 24

25 But the people of the land slew all those who had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

34 JOSIAH was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem one and thirty years. And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of David his father, and declined neither to the right hand, nor to the left. For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to seek after the God of David his father: and in the twelfth year he began to cleanse Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images. And they broke down the altars of Baalim in his presence; and the sun images, that were on high above them, he cut down; and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images, he broke in pieces, and made dust of them, and strowed it upon the graves of those who had sacrificed unto them. And he burnt the bones of the priests upon their altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem. And in the cities of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, even unto Naphtali, he destroyed their idol temples. And when he had broken down the altars and the groves, and had beaten the graven images into powder, and cut down all the idols throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.

8 NOW in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had cleansed the land, and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God. 9 And when they came to Hilkiah the high priest, they delivered the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites who kept the doors had gathered of the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Judah and Benjamin, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And they put it in the hand of the workmen who had the oversight of the house of the LORD, and they gave it to the workmen who wrought in the house of the LORD, to repair and amend the house: even to the artificers and builders gave they it, to buy hewn stone, and timber for couplings, and to floor the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed. And the men did the work faithfully: and the overseers of them were Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of Merari; and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to preside over it; and other of the Levites, all who were skilful in instruments of music. Also they were over the bearers of burdens, and were overseers of all who wrought the work in any manner of service: and of the Levites there were scribes, and officers, and porters.

14 And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest found a book of the law of the LORD given by Moses. 15 And Hilkiah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiah delivered the book to Shaphan. And Shaphan carried the book to the king, and brought the king word back again, saying, All that was committed to thy servants, they do it. And they have gathered together the money that was found in the house of the LORD, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers, and to the hand of the workmen. Then Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest hath given me a book. And 19 Shaphan read it before the king. And when the king had heard the words of the law, he rent his clothes. And the king commanded Hilkiah, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Achbor the son of Micah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah a servant of the king's, saying, Go, inquire of the LORD for me, and for those who are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found: for great is the wrath of the LORD that is poured out upon us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD, to do after all that is written in this book.

22 And Hilkiah, and they whom the king had appointed, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvath, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the college :) and they spake to her to that effect. And she answered them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Tell ye the man who sent you to me, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the curses that are written in this book which they have read before the king of Judah: because they have forsaken me, and have burnt incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore my wrath shall be poured out upon this place, and shall not be quenched. And as for the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, so shall ye say unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel concerning the words which thou hast heard; Because thy heart was tender, and thou didst humble thyself before God, when thou heardest his words against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, and humbledst thyself before me, and didst rend thy clothes, and weep before me; I have even heard thee also, saith the LORD. Behold, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered to thy grave in 28 pence, neither shall thine eyes see all the evil that I will bring upon this place, and upon the inhabitants of the same. So they brought the king word again.

THEN the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. 29
And the king went up into the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah, and 30 the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the people, great and small: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant that was found in the house of the LORD. And the king stood in his place, and made 31 a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant which are written in this book. And he caused 32 all who were present in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand to it. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers. And Josiah took away all the abominations out of all the countries that pertained to 33 the children of Israel, and made all who were present in Israel to serve, even to serve the LORD their God. And all his days they departed not from following the LORD, the God of their fathers.

MOREOVER Josiah kept a passover unto the LORD in Jerusalem: and they 35 killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the first month. And he set the priests in their charges, and encouraged them to the service of the house of the LORD, and said unto the Levites who taught all Israel, who were holy unto the LORD, 3 Put the holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel did build; it shall not be a burden upon your shoulders: serve now the LORD your God, and his people Israel, and prepare yourselves by the houses of your fathers, after 4 your courses, according to the writing of David king of Israel, and according to the writing of Solomon his son. And stand in the holy place according to the divisions 5 of the families of the fathers of your brethren the people, and after the division of the families of the Levites. So kill the passover, and sanctify yourselves, and pre- 6 pare your brethren, that they may do according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses. And Josiah gave to the people, of the flock, lambs and kids, all for 7 the passover offerings, for all who were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bullocks: these were of the king's substance. And his princes 8 gave willingly unto the people, to the priests, and to the Levites: Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, rulers of the house of God, gave unto the priests for the passover offerings two thousand and six hundred small cattle, and three hundred oxen. Conaniah also, and Shemaiah and Nethaneel, his brethren, and Hashabiah and Jeiel 9 and Jozabad, chief of the Levites, gave unto the Levites for passover offerings five thousand small cattle, and five hundred oxen.

So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their place, and the Levites in 10 their courses, according to the king's commandment. And they killed the passover, 11 and the priests sprinkled the blood from their hands, and the Levites flayed them. And they removed the burnt offerings, that they might give according to the divisions 12 of the families of the people, to offer unto the LORD, as it is written in the book of Moses. And so did they with the oxen. And they roasted the passover with fire 13 according to the ordinance: but the other holy offerings boiled they in pots, and in caldrons, and in pans, and divided them speedily among all the people.

And afterwards they made ready for themselves, and for the priests: because the 14 priests the sons of Aaron were busied in offering of burnt offerings and the fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests the sons of Aaron. And the singers the sons of Asaph were in their place, according to the 15 commandment of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer; and the porters waited at every gate; they might not depart from their service; for their brethren the Levites prepared for them. So all the service of the LORD was pre- 16 pared the same day, to keep the passover, and to offer burnt offerings upon the altar of the LORD, according to the commandment of king Josiah. And the children of 17
Israel who were present kept the passover at that time, and the feast of unleavened bread seven days.

And there was no passover like to that kept in Israel from the days of Samuel the 18 prophet; neither did all the kings of Israel keep such a passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel who were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this 19 passover kept.

AFTER all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Necho king of Egypt came 20

- up to fight against Charchemish by the Euphrates: and Josiah went out against 21 him. But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, What have I to do with thee, thou king of Judah? I come not against thee this day, but against the house wherewith I have war: for God commanded me to make haste: forbear thee from meddling
22 with God, who is with me, that he destroy thee not. Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and hearkened not unto the words of Necho from the mouth of God, and came to fight
23 in the valley of Megiddo. And the archers shot at king Josiah; and the king said
24 to his servants, Have me away; for I am sore wounded. His servants therefore took him out of that chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had; and they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died, and was buried in one of the sepulchres of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah. And Jeremiah lamented for Josiah: and all the singing men and the singing women spoke of Josiah in their lamentations to this day, and made them an ordinance in Israel: and, behold, they are written in the lamentations.
- 26 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his kindnesses, according to that which was 27 written in the law of the LORD, and his deeds, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.
- 36 THEN THE PEOPLE of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his father's stead in Jerusalem. Jehoahaz was twenty and three years old 3 when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. And the king of Egypt removed him from Jerusalem, and condemned the land to a tribute of a 4 hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold. And the king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and turned his name to Jehoiakim. And Necho took Jehoahaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt.
- 5 JEHOIAKIM was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the 6 LORD his God. Against him came up Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and 7 bound him in fetters, to carry him to Babylon. Nebuchadnezzar also carried of the vessels of the house of the LORD to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon.
- 8 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and his abominations which he did, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah: and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.
- 9 JEHOIACHIN was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of 10 the LORD. And when the year was expired, king Nebuchadnezzar sent, and brought him to Babylon, with the goodly vessels of the house of the LORD, and made Zedekiah his father's brother king over Judah and Jerusalem.
- 11 ZEDEKIAH was one and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned 12 eleven years in Jerusalem. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD his God, and humbled not himself before Jeremiah the prophet speaking 13 from the mouth of the LORD. And he also rebelled against king Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God: but he stiffened his neck, and hardened his heart
14 from turning unto the LORD God of Israel. Moreover all the chief of the priests, and the people, transgressed very much after all the abominations of the heathen;
15 and polluted the house of the LORD which he had hallowed in Jerusalem. And the LORD God of their fathers sent to them by his messengers, rising up betimes, and sending; because he had compassion on his people, and on his dwelling place:
16 but they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and misused his prophets, until the wrath of the LORD arose against his people, till there was no remedy.
- 17 Therefore he brought upon them the king of the Chaldees, who slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion upon young man or maiden, old man, or him who stooped for age: he gave them all into 18 his hand. And all the vessels of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king, and of his princes; all
19 these he brought to Babylon. And they burnt the house of God, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem, and burnt all the palaces thereof with fire, and destroyed all 20 the goodly vessels thereof. And those who had escaped from the sword carried he away to Babylon; where they were servants to him and his sons until the reign of 21 the kingdom of Persia: to fulfil the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed its sabbaths: for as long as it lay desolate it kept sabbath, to fulfil threescore and ten years.

NOW in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD spoken 22 by the mouth of Jeremiah might be accomplished, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying, Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, All the king- 23 doms of the earth hath the LORD God of heaven given me; and he hath charged me to build him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Who is there among you of all his people? The LORD his God be with him, and let him go up.

E Z R A.

NOW in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD by the 1 mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying,

Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, The LORD God of heaven hath given me all the 2 kingdoms of the earth; and he hath charged me to build him a house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Who is there among you of all his people with whom his God 3 is? Let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of the LORD God of Israel, (he is the God,) which is in Jerusalem. And whosoever remaineth in 4 any place where he sojourneth, let the men of his place help him with silver, and with gold, and with goods, and with beasts, besides the freewill offering for the house of God that is in Jerusalem.

Then rose up the chief of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and 5 the Levites, with all them whose spirit God had raised, to go up to build the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem. And all they who were about them strength- 6 ened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with beasts, and with precious things, besides all that was willingly offered.

Also Cyrus the king brought forth the vessels of the house of the LORD, which 7 Nebuchadnezzar had brought forth out of Jerusalem, and had put them in the house of his gods; even those did Cyrus king of Persia bring forth by the hand of Mith- 8 redath the treasurer, and numbered them unto Sheshbazzar, the prince of Judah.
And this is the number of them: thirty chargers of gold, a thousand chargers of 9 silver, nine and twenty knives, thirty basins of gold, silver basins of a second 10 sort four hundred and ten, and other vessels a thousand. All the vessels of gold 11 and of silver were five thousand and four hundred. All these did Sheshbazzar bring up with those of the captivity who were brought up from Babylon unto Jerusalem.

NOW these are the children of the province who went up out of the captivity, of 2 those who had been carried away, (whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away unto Babylon,) and came again unto Jerusalem and Judah, every 3 one unto his own city. The number of the men of the people of Israel who came 2 with Zerubbabel: Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mizpar, Bigvai, Rehum, Baanah. The children of Parosh, two thousand a hundred seventy 3 and two. The children of Shephatiah, three hundred seventy and two. The chil- 4 5 dren of Arah, seven hundred seventy and five. The children of Pahath-moab, of the 6 children of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand eight hundred and twelve. The children 7 of Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four. The children of Zattu, nine hun- 8 dred forty and five. The children of Zaccai, seven hundred and threescore. The 9 10 children of Binnui, six hundred forty and two. The children of Bebai, six hundred 11 twenty and three. The children of Azgad, a thousand two hundred twenty and two. 12
The children of Adonikam, six hundred sixty and six. The children of Bigvai, 13 14 two thousand fifty and six. The children of Adin, four hundred fifty and four. The 15 16 children of Ater of Hezekiah, ninety and eight. The children of Bezai, three hun- 17 dred twenty and three. The children of Jorah, a hundred and twelve. The chil- 18 19 dren of Hashum, two hundred twenty and three. The children of Gibbar, ninety 20 and five. The children of Beth-lehem, a hundred twenty and three. The men of 21 22 Netophah, fifty and six. The men of Anathoth, a hundred twenty and eight. The 23 24

25 children of Azmaveth, forty and two. The children of Kirjath-arim, Chephirah, and 26 Beeroth, seven hundred and forty and three. The children of Ramah and Gaba, 27 six hundred twenty and one. The men of Michmas, a hundred twenty and two.
 28 29 The men of Beth-el and Ai, two hundred twenty and three. The children of Nebo, 30 31 fifty and two. The children of Magbish, a hundred fifty and six. The children of 32 the other Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four. The children of Harim, 33 three hundred and twenty. The children of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, seven hundred 34 35 twenty and five. The children of Jericho, three hundred forty and five. The children of Senaah, three thousand and six hundred and thirty.

36 The priests: the children of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua, nine hundred seventy 37 38 and three. The children of Immer, a thousand fifty and two. The children of Pashur, a thousand two hundred forty and seven. The children of Harim, a thousand and seventeen.

40 The Levites: the children of Jeshua and Kadmiel, of the children of Hodevah, seventy and four.

41 The singers: the children of Asaph, a hundred twenty and eight.

42 The children of the porters: the children of Shallum, the children of Ater, the children of Talmon, the children of Akkub, the children of Hatita, the children of Shobai, in all a hundred thirty and nine.

43 The Nethinims: the children of Ziha, the children of Hasupha, the children of 44 45 Tabbaoth, the children of Keros, the children of Siaha, the children of Padon, the children of Lebanah, the children of Hagabah, the children of Akkub, the children 47 of Hagab, the children of Shalmai, the children of Hanan, the children of Giddel, 48 the children of Gahar, the children of Reaiah, the children of Rezin, the children of 49 Nekoda, the children of Gazzam, the children of Uzza, the children of Paseah, the 50 children of Besai, the children of Asnah, the children of Mehunim, the children of 51 Nephusim, the children of Bakbuk, the children of Hakupha, the children of Har-52 53 hur, the children of Bazluth, the children of Mehida, the children of Harsha, the 54 children of Barkos, the children of Sisera, the children of Thamah, the children of 55 Nezhiah, the children of Hatipha. The children of Solomon's servants: the children 56 of Sotai, the children of Sophereth, the children of Perida, the children of Jaalah, 57 the children of Darkon, the children of Giddel, the children of Shephatiah, the chil-58 dren of Hattil, the children of Pochereth of Zebaim, the children of Amon. All the Nethinims, and the children of Solomon's servants, were three hundred ninety and two.

59 And these were they who went up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsa, Cherub, Addan, and Immer: but they could not show their father's house, and their pedigree, whether 60 they were of Israel: the children of Delaiah, the children of Tobiah, the children of 61 Nekoda, six hundred fifty and two. And of the children of the priests: the children of Habaiah, the children of Koz, the children of Barzillai; who took a wife of the 62 daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called after their name: these sought for their register among those who were reckoned by genealogy, but they were not 63 found: therefore were they, as polluted, put from the priesthood. And the governor said unto them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, till there stood up a priest with Urim and with Thummim.

64 The whole congregation together was forty and two thousand three hundred and 65 threescore, besides their servants and their maids, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and there were among them two hundred 66 singing men and singing women. Their horses were seven hundred thirty and six; 67 their mules, two hundred forty and five; their camels, four hundred thirty and five;
 their asses, six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

68 And some of the chief of the fathers, when they came to the house of the LORD which is at Jerusalem, offered freely for the house of God to set it up in its place:
 69 they gave after their ability unto the treasure of the work threescore and one thousand drams of gold, and five thousand pounds of silver, and one hundred priests' garments.

70 So the priests, and the Levites, and some of the people, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinims, dwelt in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

3 AND when the seventh month was come, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together as one man to Jerusalem. Then stood up Joshua the son of Josedech, and his brethren the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and his brethren, and built the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings thereon, as it is written in the law of Moses the man of God.

3 And they set the altar upon its bases; for fear was upon them because of the people of those countries; and they offered burnt offerings thereon unto the LORD, even burnt offerings morning and evening. They kept also the feast of tabernacles, 4 as it is written, and offered the daily burnt offerings by number, according to the custom, as the duty of every day required; and afterwards offered the continual 5 burnt offering, both of the new moons, and of all the set feasts of the LORD that were consecrated, and of every one who willingly offered a freewill offering unto the LORD. From the first day of the seventh month began they to offer burnt offerings 6 unto the LORD. But the foundation of the temple of the LORD was not yet laid. They gave money also unto the masons, and to the carpenters; and meat, and drink, 7 and oil, unto them of Zidon, and to them of Tyre, to bring cedar trees from Lebanon to the sea of Joppa, according to the grant that they had of Cyrus king of Persia.

Now in the second year of their coming unto the house of God at Jerusalem, in the 8 second month, began Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Josedech, and the remnant of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all they who were come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem; and appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upwards, to set forward the work of the house of the LORD. Then stood Joshua with his sons and his brethren, Kadmiel and his sons, 9 the sons of Judah, together, to preside over the workmen in the house of God: the sons of Henadad, with their sons and their brethren the Levites.

And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, they set 10 the priests in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph with cymbals, to praise the LORD, after the ordinance of David king of Israel. And 11 they sang together by course in praising and giving thanks unto the LORD; because he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever towards Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid. But many of the priests and Levites and chief 12 of the fathers, who were ancient men, who had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and many shouted aloud for joy: so that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of 13 joy from the noise of the weeping of the people: for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off.

NOW when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of 4 the captivity built the temple unto the LORD God of Israel; then they came to Zerubbabel, and to the chief of the fathers, and said unto them, Let us build with you: for we seek your God, as ye do; and we do sacrifice unto him since the days of Esar-haddon king of Assur, which brought us up hither. But Zerubbabel, and Jo- 3 shua, and the rest of the chief of the fathers of Israel, said unto them, Ye have nothing to do with us to build a house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the LORD God of Israel, as king Cyrus the king of Persia hath commanded us. Then the people of the land discouraged the people of Judah, and 4 troubled them in building, and hired counsellors against them, to frustrate their 5 purpose, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.

And in the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, wrote they unto 6 him an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem. And in the days 7 of Artaxerxes wrote Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of their companions, unto Artaxerxes king of Persia; and an exact copy of the letter was written in the Syriac character, and interpreted in the Chaldaic language. Rehum the chancellor 8 and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king in this sort: then wrote Rehum the chancellor, and Shimshai the scribe, and the 9 rest of their companions; the Dinaites, the Apharsathchites, the Tarpelites, the Apharsites, the Archevites, the Babylonians, the Susanchites, the Dehavites, and the Elamites, and the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Asmapper brought 10 over, and set in the cities of Samaria, and the rest who are on this side the river, and at such a time. This is the copy of the letter that they sent unto him, even 11 unto Artaxerxes the king;

Thy servants the men on this side the river, and at such a time. Be it known 12 unto the king, that the Jews who came up from thee to us are come unto Jerusalem, building the rebellious and the bad city, and have set up the walls thereof, and joined the foundations. Be it known now unto the king, that, if this city be built, 13 and the walls set up again, then will they not pay toll, tribute, and custom, and so thou shalt do damage to the revenue of the kings. Now because we have main- 14 tenance from the king's palace, and it was not meet for us to see the king's dishonour, therefore have we sent and certified the king; that search may be made in the book 15 of the records of thy fathers : so shalt thou find in the book of the records, and know that this city is a rebellious city, and hurtful unto kings and provinces, and that they have moved sedition within the same of old time : for which cause was this city destroyed. We certify the king that, if this city be built again, and the walls thereof set up, by this means thou shalt have no portion on this side the river.

17 Then sent the king an answer unto Rehum the chancellor, and to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their companions who dwell in Samaria, and unto the rest beyond the river, Peace, and at such a time. The copy of the letter which ye sent unto us hath been plainly read before me. And I commanded, and search hath been made, and it is found that this city of old time hath made insurrection against kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been made therein. There have been mighty kings also over Jerusalem, who have ruled over all countries beyond the river ; and toll, tribute, and custom, was paid unto them. Give ye now commandment to cause these men to cease, and that this city be not built, until another commandment shall be given from me. Take heed now that ye fail not to do this : why should damage grow to the hurt of the kings ?

23 Now when the copy of king Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went up in haste to Jerusalem unto the Jews, and made them to cease by force and power. Then ceased the work of the house of God which is at Jerusalem. So it ceased unto the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

5 THEN the prophets, Haggai the prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied unto the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel, even unto them. Then rose up Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Josedech, and began to build the house of God which is at Jerusalem : and with them were the prophets of God helping them.

3 At the same time came to them Tatnai, governor on this side the river, and She-thar-boznai, and their companions, and said thus unto them, Who hath commanded you to build this house, and to make up this wall ? Then said we unto them after this manner, What are the names of the men who erect this building ? But the eye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, that they could not cause them to cease, till the matter came to Darius : and then they returned answer by letter concerning this matter.

6 The copy of the letter that Tatnai, governor on this side the river, and She-thar-boznai, and his companions the Arpharsachites, who were on this side the river, sent unto Darius the king : they sent a letter unto him, wherein was written thus ;

8 Unto Darius the king, all peace. Be it known unto the king, that we went into the province of Judea, to the house of the great God, which is built with great stones, and timber is laid in the walls, and this work goeth fast on, and prospereth in their hands. Then asked we those elders, and said unto them thus, Who commanded you to build this house, and to make up these walls ? We asked their names also, to certify thee, that we might write the names of the men who were the chief of them. And thus they returned us answer, saying, We are the servants of the God of the heavens and the earth, and build the house that was built these many years ago, which a great king of Israel built and set up. But after that our fathers had provoked the God of heaven unto wrath, he gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Babylon. But in the first year of Cyrus the king of Babylon, the same king Cyrus made a decree to build this house of God. And the vessels also of gold and silver of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought them into the temple of Babylon, those did Cyrus the king take out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered unto one, whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor ; and said unto him, Take these vessels, go, carry them into the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be built in his place. Then came the same Sheshbazzar, and laid the foundation of the house of God which is in Jerusalem : and since that time even until now hath it been in building, and yet it is not finished. Now therefore, if it seem good to the king, let there be search made in the king's treasure house, which is there at Babylon, whether it be so, that a decree was made of Cyrus the king to build this house of God at Jerusalem, and let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter.

6 THEN Darius the king made a decree, and search was made in the house of the rolls, where the treasures were laid up in Babylon. And there was found at Achmetha, in the palace that is in the province of the Medes, a roll, and therein was a record thus written :

In the first year of Cyrus the king, the same Cyrus the king made a decree concerning the house of God at Jerusalem, Let the house be built, the place where they offered sacrifices, and let the foundations thereof be strongly laid ; the height thereof threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof threescore cubits ; with three rows of great stones, and a row of new timber : and let the expenses be given out of the king's house : and also let the golden and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took forth out of the temple which is at Jerusalem, and brought unto Babylon, be restored, and brought again unto the temple which is at Jerusalem, every one to its place, and place them in the house of God.

Now therefore, Tatnai, governor beyond the river, Shethar-boznai, and your companions the Apharsachites, who are beyond the river, be ye far from thence : let the work of this house of God alone ; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God in his place. Moreover I make a decree what ye shall do to the elders of these Jews for the building of this house of God : that of the king's goods, even of the tribute beyond the river, forthwith expenses be given unto these men, that they be not hindered. And that which they have need of, both young bullocks, and rams, and lambs, for the burnt offerings of the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the appointment of the priests who are at Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day without fail : that they may offer sacrifices of sweet savours unto the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king, and of his sons. Also I have made a decree, that whosoever shall alter this word, let timber be pulled down from his house, and being set up, let him be hanged thereon ; and let his house be made a dunghill for this. And the God who hath caused his name to dwell there destroy all kings and people, who shall put to their hand to alter and to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem. I Darius have made a decree : let it be done with speed.

Then Tatnai, governor on this side the river, Shethar-boznai, and their companions, according to that which Darius the king had sent, so they did speedily. And the elders of the Jews built, and they prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they built, and finished it, according to the commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the commandment of Cyrus, and Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia. And this house was finished on the third day of the month Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king.

And the children of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the rest of the children of the captivity, kept the dedication of this house of God with joy, and offered at the dedication of this house of God a hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs ; and for a sin offering for all Israel, twelve he-goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel. And they set the priests in their divisions, and the Levites in their courses, for the service of God, which is at Jerusalem ; as it is written in the book of Moses.

And the children of the captivity kept the passover upon the fourteenth day of the first month. For the priests and the Levites were purified together, all of them were pure, and killed the passover for all the children of the captivity, and for their brethren the priests, and for themselves. And the children of Israel, who were come again out of captivity, and all such as had separated themselves unto them from the filthiness of the heathen of the land, to seek the LORD God of Israel, did eat, and kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with joy : for the LORD had made them joyful, and turned the heart of the king of Assyria unto them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

NOW after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah, the son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahiab, the son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth, the son of Zerahiah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki, the son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest : this Ezra went up from Babylon ; and he was a ready scribe in the law of Moses, which the LORD God of Israel had given : and the king granted him all his request, according to the band of the LORD his God upon him. And there went up some of the children of Israel, and of the priests, and the Levites, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinims, unto Jerusalem, in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king. And he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king. For upon the first day of the first month began he to go up from Babylon, and on

- the first day of the fifth month came he to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God upon him. For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the law of the LORD, and to do it, and to teach in Israel statutes and judgments.
- Now this is the copy of the letter that the king Artaxerxes gave unto Ezra the priest, the scribe, even a scribe of the words of the commandments of the LORD, and of his statutes to Israel.
- Artaxerxes, king of kings, unto Ezra the priest, a scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect peace, and at such a time. I make a decree, that all they of the people of Israel, and of his priests and Levites, in my realm, which are minded of their own freewill to go up to Jerusalem, go with thee. Forasmuch as thou art sent by the king, and his seven counsellors, to inquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, according to the law of thy God which is in thy hand; and to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his counsellors have freely offered unto the God of Israel, whose habitation is in Jerusalem, and all the silver and gold that thou canst find in all the province of Babylon, with the freewill offering of the people, and of the priests, offering willingly for the house of their God which is in Jerusalem: that thou mayest buy speedily with this money bullocks, rams, lambs, with their thank offerings and their drink offerings, and offer them upon the altar of the house of your God which is in Jerusalem. And whatsoever shall seem good to thee, and to thy brethren, to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, that do after the will of your God.
- The vessels also that are given thee for the service of the house of thy God, those deliver thou before the God of Jerusalem. And whatsoever more shall be needful for the house of thy God, which thou shalt have occasion to bestow, bestow it out of the king's treasure house. And I, even I Artaxerxes the king, do make a decree to all the treasurers who are beyond the river, that whatsoever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, shall require of you, it be done speedily, unto a hundred talents of silver, and to a hundred measures of wheat, and to a hundred baths of wine, and to a hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribing how much.
- Whatsoever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be diligently done for the house of the God of heaven: for why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons? Also we certify you, that touching any of the priests and Levites, singers, porters, Nethinims, or ministers of this house of God, it shall not be lawful to impose toll, tribute, or custom, upon them. And thou, Ezra, after the wisdom of thy God, that is in thy hand, set magistrates and judges, who may judge all the people who are beyond the river, all such as know the laws of thy God; and teach ye those who know them not. And whosoever will not do the law of thy God, and the law of the king, let judgment be executed speedily upon him, whether it be unto death, or to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment.
- Blessed be the LORD God of our fathers, who hath put such a thing as this into the king's heart, to beautify the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem: and hath extended mercy unto me before the king, and his counsellors, and before all the king's mighty princes. And I was strengthened as the hand of the LORD my God was upon me, and I gathered together out of Israel chief men to go up with me.
- 8 THESE are now the chief of their fathers, and this is the genealogy of those who went up with me from Babylon, in the reign of Artaxerxes the king. Of the sons of Phinehas; Gershom: of the sons of Ithamar; Daniel: of the sons of David; Hattush. Of the sons of Shechaniah, of the sons of Pharosh; Zechariah: and with them were reckoned by genealogy of the males a hundred and fifty. Of the sons of Pahath-moab; Elihoenai the son of Zerahiah, and with him two hundred males.
- Of the sons of Shechaniah; the son of Jahaziel, and with him three hundred males.
- Of the sons also of Adin; Ebed the son of Jonathan, and with him fifty males. And of the sons of Elam; Jeshaiah the son of Athaliah, and with him seventy males.
- And of the sons of Shephatiah; Zebadiah the son of Michael, and with him fourscore males. Of the sons of Joab; Obadiah the son of Jehiel, and with him two hundred and eighteen males. And of the sons of Shelomith; the son of Josiphiah, and with him a hundred and threescore males. And of the sons of Bebai; Zechariah the son of Bebai, and with him twenty and eight males. And of the sons of Azgad; Johanan the youngest son of Hakkatan, and with him a hundred and ten males. And of the last sons of Adonikam, whose names are these, Eliphelet, Jeiel, and Shemaiah, and with them threescore males. Of the sons also of Bigvai; Uthai, and Zabbud, and with them seventy males.
- And I gathered them together to the river that runneth to Ahava; and there abode we in tents three days: and I viewed the people, and the priests, and found there none of the sons of Levi. Then sent I for Eliezer, for Ariei, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, chief men; also for Joiarib, and for Elnathan, men of understanding. And I sent them with commandment unto Iddo the chief at the place Casiphia, and I told them what they should say unto Iddo, and to his brethren the Nethinims, at the place Casiphia, that they should bring unto us ministers for the house of our God. And by the good hand of our God upon us they brought us a man of understanding, of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel; and Sherebiah, with his sons and his brethren, eighteen; and Hashabiah, and with him Jesaiiah of the sons of Merari, his brethren and their sons, twenty; also of the Nethinims, whom David and the princes had appointed for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinims: all of them were expressed by name.

Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river of Ahava, that we might afflict ourselves before our God, to seek of him a right way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance. For I was ashamed to require of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way: because we had spoken unto the king, saying, The hand of our God is upon all those for good who seek him; but his power and his wrath are against all those who forsake him. So we fasted and besought our God for this: and he was entreated of us.

Then I separated twelve of the chief of the priests, Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with them, and weighed unto them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, even the offering of the house of our God, which the king, and his counselors, and his lords, and all Israel there present, had offered: I even weighed unto their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels a hundred talents, and of gold a hundred talents; also twenty basins of gold, of a thousand drams; and two vessels of fine copper, precious as gold. And I said unto them, Ye are holy unto the LORD; the vessels are holy also; and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering unto the LORD God of your fathers. Watch ye, and keep them, until ye weigh them before the chief of the priests and the Levites, and chief of the fathers of Israel, at Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of the LORD. So took the priests and the Levites the weight of the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem unto the house of our God.

Then we departed from the river of Ahava on the twelfth day of the first month, to go unto Jerusalem: and the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy, and of such as lay in wait by the way. And we came to Jerusalem, and abode there three days. Now on the fourth day was the silver and the gold and the vessels weighed in the house of our God by the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest; and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinchas; and with them was Jozabad the son of Joshua, and Noadiah the son of Binnui, Levites; by number and by weight of every one: and all the weight was registered.

At that time the children of those who had been carried away, who were come out of the captivity, offered burnt offerings unto the God of Israel, twelve bullocks for all Israel, ninety and six rams, seventy and seven lambs, twelve he-goats for a sin offering: all this was a burnt offering unto the LORD. And they delivered the king's commissions unto the king's lieutenants, and to the governors on this side the river: and they furthered the people, and the house of God.

NOW when these things were done, the princes came to me, saying, The people of Israel, and the priests, and the Levites, have not separated themselves from the people of the lands, doing according to their abominations, even of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites. For they have taken of their daughters for themselves, and for their sons: so that the holy seed have mingled themselves with the people of those lands: yea, the hand of the princes and rulers hath been chief in this trespass. And when I heard this thing, I rent my garment and my mantle, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down astonished. Then were assembled unto me every one who trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the transgression of those who had been carried away; and I sat astonished until the evening sacrifice.

And at the evening sacrifice I arose up from my heaviness; and having rent my garment and my mantle, I fell upon my knees, and spread out my hands unto the LORD my God, and said, O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God: for our iniquities are increased over our head, and our guiltiness is grown up unto the heavens. Since the days of our fathers have we been in a great trespass unto this day; and for our iniquities have we, our kings, and our priests, been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and

- 8 to a spoil, and to confusion of face, as it is this day. And now for a little space grace hath been showed from the LORD our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a constant and sure abode in his holy place, that our God may lighten our 9 eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage. For we are yet bondmen; yet our God hath not forsaken us in our bondage, but hath extended mercy unto us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a reviving, to set up the house of our God, and to repair the desolations thereof, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem. And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? for we have forsaken thy 10 commandments, which thou hast commanded by thy servants the prophets, saying, The land, unto which ye go to possess it, is an unclean land with the filthiness of the people of the lands, with their abominations, which have filled it from one end
11 to another with their uncleanness. Now therefore give not your daughters unto their sons, neither take their daughters unto your sons, nor seek their peace or their wealth for ever: that ye may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and 12 leave it for an inheritance to your children for ever. And after all that is come upon us for our evil deeds, and for our great trespass, seeing that thou our God hast punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and hast given us such deliverance
13 as this; should we again break thy commandments, and join in affinity with the people of these abominations, wouldest not thou be angry with us till thou hadst
14 consumed us, so that there should be no remnant nor escaping? O LORD God of Israel, thou art righteous: for we remain yet escaped, as it is this day: behold, we are before thee in our trespasses: for we cannot stand before thee because of this.
- 10 Now when Ezra had prayed, and when he had confessed, weeping and casting himself down before the house of God, there assembled unto him out of Israel a very great congregation of men and women and children: for the people wept
2 very sore. And Shechaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered and said unto Ezra, We have trespassed against our God, and have taken strange wives of the people of the land: yet now there is hope in Israel concerning this 3 thing. Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of my lord, and of those who tremble at the commandment of our God; and let it be done according 4 to the law. Arise; for this matter belongeth unto thee: we also will be with thee: be of good courage, and do it.
- 5 Then arose Ezra, and made the chief priests, the Levites, and all Israel, to swear that they should do according to this word. And they swore. Then Ezra rose up from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Johanan the son of Eliashib: and when he came thither, he did eat no bread, nor drink water: for he 7 mourned because of the transgression of those who had been carried away. And they made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem unto all the children of 8 the captivity, that they should gather themselves together unto Jerusalem; and that whosoever would not come within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should be forfeited, and himself separated from the congregation of those who had been carried away.
- 9 Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together unto Jerusalem within three days. It was the ninth month, and the twentieth day of the month; and all the people sat in the street of the house of God, trembling because of 10 this matter, and for the great rain. And Ezra the priest stood up, and said unto them, Ye have transgressed, and have taken foreign wives, to increase the trespass of Israel. Now therefore make confession unto the LORD God of your fathers, and do his pleasure: and separate yourselves from the people of the land, and from 11 the foreign wives.
- 12 Then all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, As thou hast said, so must we do. But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are 13 not able to stand without, neither is this a work of one day or two: for we are many who have transgressed in this thing. Let now our rulers of all the congregation 14 stand, and let all those who have taken foreign wives in our cities come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and the judges thereof, until the fierce wrath of our God for this matter be turned from us. Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahaziah the son of Tikvah were employed about this matter:
15 and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite helped them. And the children of the captivity did so.
- AND Ezra the priest, with certain chief of the fathers, after the house of their fathers, and all of them by their names, were separated, and sat down on the first day 17 of the tenth month to examine the matter. And they made an end with all the men who had taken strange wives by the first day of the first month. And among 18 the sons of the priests there were found who had taken strange wives: namely, of the sons of Joshua the son of Josedech, and his brethren; Maaseiah, and Eliezer, and Jarib, and Gedaliah. And they gave their hands that they would put away their 19 wives; and the guilty offered a ram of the flock for their trespass. And of the sons 20 of Immer; Hanani, and Zebadiah. And of the sons of Ilarim; Maaseiah, and Eli- 21 jah, and Shemaiah, and Jehiel, and Uzziiah. And of the sons of Pashur; Elioenai, 22 Maasciah, Ishmael, Nethaneel, Jozabad, and Elasah. Also of the Levites; Jozabad, 23 and Shimci, and Kelaiah, (the same is Kelita,) Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer. Of 24 the singers also; Eliashib: and of the porters; Shallum, and Telem, and Uri.

Moreover of Israel: of the sons of Parosh; Ramiah, and Jeziah, and Malchiah, and 25
Miamin, and Eleazar, and Malchijah, and Benaiah. And of the sons of Elam; 26 Mattaniah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, and Abdi, and Jeremoth, and Eliah. And of the 27 sons of Zattu; Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, and Jeremoth, and Zabad, and Aziza.
Of the sons also of Bebai; Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, and Athlai. And of the 28 29 sons of Bani; Meshullam, Malluch, and Adaiah, Jashub, and Sheal, and Ramoth.
And of the sons of Pahath-moab; Adna, and Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, 30
Bezaleel, and Binnui, and Manassch. And of the sons of Harim; Eliezer, Ishijah, 31
Malchiah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, Benjamin, Malluch, and Shemariah. Of the sons of 32 33
Hashum; Mattenai, Mattathah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, and Shimci.
Of the sons of Bani; Maadai, Amram, and Uel, Benaiah, Bedeiah, Chelluh, Vaniah, 34-36 Meremoth, Eliashib, Mattaniah, Mattenai, and Jaasau, and Bani, and Binnui, Shi- 37 38 mei, and Shelemiah, and Nathan, and Adaiah, Machnadebai, Shashai, Sharai, Aza- 39-41 reel, and Shelemiah, Shemariah, Shallum, Amariah, and Joseph. Of the sons of 42 43 Nebo; Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jadau, and Joel, Benaiah. All these had 44 taken strange wives: and some of them had wives by whom they had children.

THE BOOK OF NEHEMIAH.

THE WORDS OF NEHEMIAH THE SON OF HACHALIAH.

And in the month Chisleu, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the palace, 1 Hanani, one of my brethren, came, he and certain men of Judah; and I asked them 2 concerning the Jews who had escaped, who were left of the captivity, and concern- 3 ing Jerusalem. And they said unto me, The remnant who are left of the captivity 3 there in the province are in great affliction and reproach: the wall of Jerusalem also 4 is broken down, and the gates thereof are burnt with fire.

And when I heard these words, I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days, 4 and fasted, and prayed before the God of heaven, and said, I beseech thee, O LORD 5 God of heaven, the great and terrible God, who keepeth covenant and mercy for those who love him and observe his commandments: let thine ear now be attentive, and 6 thine eyes open, that thou mayest hear the prayer of thy servant, which I pray before thee now, day and night, for the children of Israel thy servants, and confess the 7 sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against thee: both I and my father's house have sinned. We have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not 7 kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, which thou command-edst thy servant Moses. Remember, I beseech thee, the word that thou command- 8 edst thy servant Moses, saying, If ye transgress, I will scatter you abroad among the nations: but if ye turn unto me, and keep my commandments, and do them; though 9 there were of you cast out unto the uttermost part of the heavens, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them unto the place that I have chosen to set my name there. Now these are thy servants and thy people, whom thou hast redeemed 10 by thy great power, and by thy strong hand. O LORD, I beseech thee, let now thine 11 ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thine own children, who desire to fear thy name: and prosper, I pray thee, thy servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man.

For I was the king's cupbearer, and in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of 2 Artaxerxes the king, wine was before him: and I took up the wine, and gave it unto

- 2 the king. Now I had not been beforetime sad in his presence. Wherefore the king said unto me, Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sick? this is nothing
3 else but sorrow of heart. Then I was very sore afraid, and said unto the king, Let the king live for ever: why should not my countenance be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' sepulchres, lieth waste, and the gates thereof are consumed with 4 fire? Then the king said unto me, For what dost thou make request? So I prayed
5 to the God of heaven. And I said unto the king, If it please the king, and if thy servant have found favour in thy sight, that thou wouldest send me unto Judah, unto 6 the city of my fathers' sepulchres, that I may build it. And the king said unto me, (the queen also sitting by him,) For how long shall thy journey be? and when wilt
7 thou return? So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him a time. Moreover I said unto the king, If it please the king, let letters be given me to the governors
8 beyond the river, that they may convey me over till I come into Judah; and a letter unto Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the palace which appertained to the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter into. And the king granted me, according to the good hand of my God upon me.
- 9 Then I came to the governors beyond the river, and gave them the king's letters.
10 Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me. When Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly that there was come a man to seek the welfare of the children of Israel.
- 11 12 SO I came to Jerusalem, and was there three days. And I arose in the night, I and some few men with me; neither told I any man what my God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem: neither was there any beast with me, save the beast that 13 I rode upon. And I went out by night by the gate of the valley, even before the dragon well, and to the dung port, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem, which were 14 broken down, and the gates thereof were consumed with fire. Then I went on to the gate of the fountain, and to the king's pool: but there was no place for the beast
15 that was under me to pass. Then went I up in the night by the brook, and viewed the wall, and entered by the gate of the valley, and so returned.
- 16 And the rulers knew not whither I went, or what I did; neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest
17 who did the work. Then said I unto them, Ye see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem lieth waste, and the gates thereof are burnt with fire: come, and let us
18 build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more a reproach. Then I told them of the hand of my God which was good upon me; as also the king's words that he had spoken unto me. And they said, Let us rise up and build. So they strengthened their hands for this good work.
- 19 But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian, heard it, they laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, 20 What is this thing that ye do? will ye rebel against the king? Then answered I them, and said unto them, The God of heaven, he will prosper us; therefore we his servants will arise and build: but ye have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem.
- 3 TIEN Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brethren the priests, and they built the sheep gate; they sanctified it, and set up the doors of it; even unto the 2 tower of Meah they sanctified it, unto the tower of Hananeel. And next unto him built the men of Jericho. And next to them built Zaccur the son of Imri.
- 3 But the fish gate did the sons of Hassenaah build, who also laid the beams thereof, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof. And next unto them repaired Meremoth the son of Urijah, the son of Koz. And next unto them repaired Meshullam the son of Berechiah, the son of Meshezabeel. And next 5 unto them repaired Zadok the son of Baana. And next unto them the Tekoites repaired; but their nobles put not their necks to the work of their Lord.
- 6 Moreover the old gate repaired Jehoiada the son of Paseah, and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah; they laid the beams thereof, and set up the doors thereof, and the locks thereof, and the bars thereof. And next unto them repaired Melatiah the Gibeonite, and Jadon the Meronothite, the men of Gibeon, and of Mizpah, unto the throne of 8 the governor on this side the river. Next unto him repaired Uzziel the son of Harhaiah, of the goldsmiths. Next unto him also repaired Hananiah the son of one of 9 the confectioners, and they fortified Jerusalem unto the broad wall. And next unto them repaired Rephaiah the son of Hur, the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem.
10 And next unto them repaired Jedaiah the son of Harumaph, even over against his 11 house. And next unto him repaired Hattush the son of Hashabniah. Malchijah the son of Harim, and Hashub the son of Pahath-moab, repaired the other piece, and the tower of the furnaces. And next unto him repaired Shallum the son of Halohesh, 12 the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem, he and his daughters.

The valley gate repaired Hanun, and the inhabitants of Zanoah; they built it, and 13 set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and a thousand cubits on the wall unto the dung gate.

But the dung gate repaired Malchiah the son of Rechab, the ruler of part of Beth-haccerem; he built it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

But the gate of the fountain repaired Shallun the son of Col-hozeh, the ruler of 15 part of Mizpah; he built it, and covered it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and the wall of the pool of Siloah by the king's garden, and unto the stairs that go down from the city of David. After him repaired Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, the ruler of the half part of Beth-zur, unto the place over 16 against the sepulchres of David, and to the pool that was made, and unto the house of the mighty. And after him repaired the Levites, Rehun the son of Bani. Next 17 unto him repaired Hashabiah, the ruler of the half part of Keilah, in his part. After him repaired their brethren, Bavai the son of Henadad, the ruler of the half part of Keilah. And next to him repaired Ezer the son of Jeshua, the ruler of Mizpah, 18 another piece over against the going up to the armoury at the turning of the wall. After him Baruch the son of Zabbai earnestly repaired the other piece, from the turning 20 of the wall unto the door of the house of Eliashib the high priest. After him repaired Meremoth the son of Urijah the son of Koz another piece, from the door of the house of Eliashib even to the end of it. And after him repaired the priests, 22 the men of the plain. After him repaired Benjamin and Hashub over against their house. After him repaired Azariah the son of Maaseiah the son of Ananiah by his house. After him repaired Binnui the son of Henadad another piece, from the 24 house of Azariah unto the turning of the wall, even unto the corner. Palal the son of Uzai, over against the turning of the wall, and the tower which lieth out 25 from the king's high house, that was by the court of the prison. After him Pe-daiah the son of Parosh. Moreover the Nethinims, who dwelt in Ophel, repaired 26 unto the place over against the water gate towards the east, and the tower that lieth out.

After them the Tekoites repaired another piece, over against the great tower that 27 lieth out, even unto the wall of Ophel.

From above the horse gate repaired the priests, every one over against his house. 28 After them repaired Zadok the son of Immer over against his house. After him 29 repaired also Shemaiah the son of Shecaniah, the keeper of the east gate. After 30 him repaired Ifaniah the son of Shelemiah, and Hanun the sixth son of Zalaph, another piece. After him repaired Meshullam the son of Berechiah over against his chamber. After him repaired Malchiah the goldsmith's son unto the place of the 31 Nethinims, and of the merchants, over against the gate Miphkad, and to the going up of the corner. And between the going up of the corner unto the sheep gate 32 repaired the goldsmiths and the merchants.

BUT when Sanballat heard that we built the wall, he was wroth, and took great 4 indignation, and mocked the Jews. And he spoke before his brethren and the army of Samaria, and said, What do these feeble Jews? will they fortify themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they revive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish which are burnt? Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, 3 and he said, Even that which they build, if a fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall.

Hear, O our God; for we are despised: and turn their reproach upon their own 4 head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity: and cover not their iniquity, 5 and let not their sin be blotted out from before thee: for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders.

So built we the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof: 6 for the people had a mind to work.

But when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the 7 Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem were built up, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very wroth, and conspired all of them together 8 to come and to fight against Jerusalem, and to hinder it. Nevertheless we made our 9 prayer unto our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them. And Judah said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is 10 much rubbish; so that we are not able to build the wall. And our adversaries said, 11

They shall not know, neither see, till we come in the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease.

12 And when the Jews who dwelt by them came, they said unto us many times, Go 13 where you will they will be upon you. Therefore set I in the lower places behind the wall, and on the higher places, I even set the people after their families, with 14 their swords, their spears, and their bows. And I looked, and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Be not ye afraid of them: remember the LORD, great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses.

15 And when our enemies heard that it was known unto us, and God had brought their counsel to nought, we returned all of us to the wall, every one unto his work.
16 And from that time forth the half of my servants wrought in the work, and the other half of them held both the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the habergeons; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah. They who built on the wall, and they who bore burdens, with those who laded, every one with one of 18 his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon. For the builders, every one had his sword girded by his side, and so built. And he who 19 sounded the trumpet was by me. And I said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated upon 20 the wall, one far from another. In what place therefore ye hear the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither unto us: our God shall fight for us.

21 So we laboured in the work: and half of them held the spears from the rising of 22 the morning till the stars appeared. Likewise at the same time said I unto the people, Let every one with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they 23 may be a guard to us, and labour on the day. So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard who followed me, none of us put off our clothes, for a whole month.

5 AND there was a great cry of the people and of their wives against their brethren the Jews. For there were some who said, We, our sons, and our daughters, are
3 many: therefore we take up corn for them, that we may eat, and live. Some also there were who said, We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses,
4 that we might buy corn, because of the dearth. There were also some who said, We have borrowed money for the king's tribute, and that upon our lands and vine-
5 yards. Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children: and, lo, we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought into bondage already: neither is it in our power to redeem them; for other men have our lands and vineyards.

6 7 And I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words. Then I consulted with myself, and I rebuked the nobles, and the rulers, and said unto them, Ye exact usury, every one of his brother. And I set a great assembly against them.
8 And I said unto them, We after our ability have redeemed our brethren the Jews, who were sold unto the heathen; and will ye even sell your brethren? or will they also be sold unto us? Then held they their peace, and found nothing to answer.
9 Also I said, It is not good that ye do: ought ye not to walk in the fear of our God
10 because of the reproach of the heathen our enemies? I likewise, and my brethren, and my servants, might exact of them money and corn: I pray you, let us leave 11 off this usury. Restore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their oliveyards, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money,
12 and of the corn, the wine, and the oil, that ye exact of them. Then said they, We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so will we do as thou sayest. Then I called the priests, and took an oath of them, that they should do according to this promise. Also I shook my lap, and said, So God shake out every man
13 from his house, and from his labour, who performeth not this promise, even thus be he shaken out, and emptied. And all the congregation said, Amen, and praised the LORD. And the people did according to this promise.

14 Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year even unto the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that is, twelve years, I and my brethren have not eaten their bread. But the former governors who had been before me were chargeable unto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, besides forty shekels of silver; yea, even their 16 servants bore rule over the people: but so did not I, because of the fear of God. Yea, also I continued in the work of this wall, neither bought we any land: and all my 17 servants were gathered thither unto the work. Moreover there were at my table a hundred and fifty of the Jews and rulers, besides those who came unto us from among the nations who are about us. Now that which was prepared for me daily 18 was one ox and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine: yet for all this required not I the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy upon this people.

Think upon me, my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this 19 people.

NOW when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our 6 enemies, heard that I had built the wall, and that there was no breach left therein; (though at that time I had not set up the doors upon the gates;) Sanballat and 2 Geshem sent unto me, saying, Come, let us meet together in some one of the villages in the plain of Ono. But they thought to do me mischief. And I sent messengers 3 unto them, saying, I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down: why should the work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to you? Yet they sent unto me four 4 times after this sort; and I answered them after the same manner.

Then sent Sanballat his servant unto me in like manner the fifth time with an open 5 letter in his hand; wherein was written, It is reported among the nations, and Geshem saith it, that thou and the Jews think to rebel: for which cause thou buildest 6 the wall, that thou mayest be their king, according to these words. And thou hast also appointed prophets to preach of thee at Jerusalem, saying, There is a king in 7 Judah: and now shall it be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore, and let us take counsel together. Then I sent unto him, saying, 8 There are no such things done as thou savest, but thou feignest them out of thine own heart. For they all made us afraid, saying, Their hands shall be weakened 9 from the work, that it be not done. Now therefore, O God, strengthen my hands.

Afterwards I came unto the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehe- 10 tabeel, who was shut up; and he said, Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to slay thee: yea, in the night will they come to slay thee. And I said, Should such a 11 man as I flee? and who is there, that, being as I am, would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in. And, lo, I perceived that God had not sent him; but 12 that he pronounced this prophecy against me: for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. Therefore was he hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, and that 13 they might have matter for an evil report, that they might reproach me.

My God, think thou upon Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, 14 and on the prophet Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets, who would have put me in fear.

So the wall was finished on the twenty and fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty and 15 two days. And when all our enemies heard thereof, and all the nations who were about us saw these things, they were much east down in their own eyes: for they perceived that this work was wrought by our God. 16

Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters unto Tobiah, and 17 the letters of Tobiah came unto them. For there were many in Judah sworn unto him, because he was the son-in-law of Shechaniah the son of Arah; and his son Johanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah. Also they reported his good deeds before me, and uttered my words to him. And Tobiah sent 18 letters to put me in fear. 19

NOW when the wall was built, and I had set up the doors, and the porters and the 7 singers and the Levites were appointed, I gave my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the ruler of the palace, charge over Jerusalem: for he was a faithful man, and feared God above many. And I said unto them, Let not the gates of Jerusalem be opened 3 until the sun be hot; and while they stand by, let them shut the doors, and bar them: and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, every one in his watch, and every one to be over against his house.

Now the city was large and great: but the people were few therein, and the houses 4 were not built. And my God put into my heart to gather together the nobles, 5 and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy. And I found a register of the genealogy of those who came up at the first, and found written therein,

These are the children of the province, who went up out of the captivity, of those 6 who had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away, and came again to Jerusalem and to Judah, every one unto his city; who 7 came with Zerubbabel, Joshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, Baanah. The number of the men of the people of Israel was this; The children of Parosh, two thousand a hundred seventy 8

- 9 10 and two. The children of Shephatiah, three hundred seventy and two. The children of Arah, six hundred fifty and two. The children of Pahath-moab of the children of Joshua and Joab, two thousand and eight hundred and eighteen. The children of Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four. The children of Zattu, eight hundred forty and five. The children of Zaccai, seven hundred and threescore.
- 15 16 The children of Binnui, six hundred forty and eight. The children of Bebai, six hundred twenty and eight. The children of Azgad, two thousand three hundred twenty and two. The children of Adonikam, six hundred threescore and seven.
- 19 20 The children of Bigvai, two thousand threescore and seven. The children of Adin, six hundred fifty and five. The children of Ater of Hezekiah, ninety and eight.
- 22 23 The children of Hashum, three hundred twenty and eight. The children of Bezai, three hundred twenty and four. The children of Hariph, a hundred and twelve.
- 25 26 The children of Gibeon, ninety and five. The men of Beth-lehem and Netophah, a hundred fourscore and eight. The men of Anathoth, a hundred twenty and eight.
- 28 29 The men of Beth-azmaveth, forty and two. The men of Kirjath-jearim, Chephirah, and Beeroth, seven hundred forty and three. The men of Ramah and Gaba, six hundred twenty and one. The men of Micimmas, a hundred and twenty and two.
- 32 33 The men of Beth-el and Ai, a hundred twenty and three. The men of Nebo, fifty and two. The children of the other Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four.
- 34 35 The children of Harim, three hundred and twenty. The children of Jericho, three hundred forty and five. The children of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, seven hundred twenty and one. The children of Senaah, three thousand nine hundred and thirty.
- 38 39 The priests: the children of Jedaiah, of the house of Joshua, nine hundred seventy and three. The children of Immer, a thousand fifty and two. The children of Pashur, a thousand two hundred forty and seven. The children of Harim, a thousand and seventeen.
- 43 The Levites: the children of Joshua, of Kadmiel, and of the children of Hodevah, seventy and four.
- 44 The singers: the children of Asaph, a hundred forty and eight.
- 45 The porters: the children of Shallum, the children of Ater, the children of Talmon, the children of Akkub, the children of Hatita, the children of Shobai, a hundred thirty and eight.
- 46 The Nethinims: the children of Ziha, the children of Hashupha, the children of Tabbaoth, the children of Keros, the children of Sia, the children of Padon, the children of Lebana, the children of Hagaba, the children of Shalmai, the children of Hanan, the children of Giddel, the children of Gahar, the children of Resaiah, the children of Resin, the children of Nekoda, the children of Gazzam, the children of Uzza, the children of Phaseah, the children of Besai, the children of Meunim, the children of Nephisheshim, the children of Bakkuk, the children of Hakupha, the children of Iarhur, the children of Bazlith, the children of Mehida, the children of Harsha, the children of Barkos, the children of Sisera, the children of Tamah, the children of Nezhiah, the children of Hatipha. The children of Solomon's servants: the children of Sotai, the children of Sophereth, the children of Perida, the children of Jaala, the children of Darkon, the children of Giddel, the children of Shephatiah, the children of Hattai, the children of Pochereth of Zebaim, the children of Amon.
- 55 56 All the Nethinims, and the children of Solomon's servants, were three hundred ninety and two.
- 57 And these were they who went up also from Tel-melah, Tel-haresheh, Cherub, Addon, and Immer: but they could not show their father's house, nor their pedigree, whether they were of Israel. The children of Delaiah, the children of Tobiah, the children of Nekoda, six hundred forty and two.
- 63 And of the priests: the children of Habaiah, the children of Koz, the children of Barzillai, who took one of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite to wife, and was called after their name. These sought their register among those who were reckoned by genealogy, but it was not found: therefore were they, as polluted, put from the priesthood. And the governor said unto them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, till there stood up a priest with Urim and Thummim.
- 66 The whole congregation together was forty and two thousand three hundred and threescore, besides their manservants and their maid servants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and they had two hundred forty and five singing men and singing women. Their horses, seven hundred thirty and six: their mules, two hundred forty and five: their camels, four hundred thirty and five: six thousand seven hundred and twenty asses.
- 70 And some of the chief of the fathers gave unto the work. The governor gave to the treasure a thousand drams of gold, fifty basins, five hundred and thirty priests' garments. And some of the chief of the fathers gave to the treasure of the work twenty thousand drams of gold, and two thousand and two hundred pounds of silver. And that which the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand drams of gold, and two thousand pounds of silver, and threescore and seven priests' garments.

So the priests, and the Levites, and the porters, and the singers, and some of the people, and the Nethinims, and all Israel, dwelt in their cities; and when the seventh month came, the children of Israel were in their cities.

And all the people gathered themselves together as one man into the street that was before the water gate; and they spoke unto Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded to Israel. And Ezra the priest brought the law before the congregation both of men and women, and all who could hear with understanding, upon the first day of the seventh month. And he read therein before the street that was before the water gate from the morning until midday, before the men and the women, and those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive unto the book of the law. And Ezra the scribe stood upon a pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Matithiah, and Shema, and Anaiah, and Urijah, and Hilkiah, and Maaseiah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedaiah, and Mishael, and Malchiah, and Hashum, and Hashbadana, Zechariah, and Meshullam. And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people; (for he was above all the people;) and when he opened it, all the people stood up: and Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God. And all the people answered, Amen, Amen, with lifting up their hands: and they bowed their heads, and worshipped the LORD with their faces to the ground. Also Joshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, caused the people to understand the law: and the people stood in their place. So they read in the book in the law of God distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading.

And Nehemiah, who is the governor, and Ezra the priest the scribe, and the Levites who taught the people, said unto all the people, This day is holy unto the LORD your God; mourn not, nor weep. For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the law. Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions unto those for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy unto our Lord: neither be ye sorry; for the joy of the LORD is your strength. So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, Hold your peace, for the day is holy; neither be ye grieved. And all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had understood the words that were declared unto them.

And on the second day were gathered together the chief of the fathers of all the people, the priests, and the Levites, unto Ezra the scribe, even to understand the words of the law. And they found written in the law which the LORD had commanded by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in booths in the feast of the seventh month: and that they should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying, Go forth unto the mount, and fetch olive branches, and pine branches, and myrtle branches, and palm branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written. So the people went forth, and brought them, and made themselves booths, every one upon the roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in the street of the water gate, and in the street of the gate of Ephraim. And all the congregation of those who were come again out of the captivity made booths, and sat under the booths: for since the days of Joshua the son of Nun unto that day had not the children of Israel done so. And there was very great gladness.

Also day by day, from the first day unto the last day, they read in the book of the law of God. And they kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day was a solemn assembly, according unto the manner.

NOW on the twenty and fourth day of this month the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, and with sackclothes, and earth upon them. And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all strangers, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers. And they stood up in their place, and read in the book of the law of the LORD their God one fourth part of the day; and another fourth part they confessed, and worshipped the LORD their God. Then stood up upon the stairs, of the Levites, Joshua, and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani, and cried with a loud voice unto the LORD their

- 5 God. Then the Levites, Joshua, and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabniah, Sherebiah, Hodiaj, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said,
 6 Stand up and bless the LORD your God for ever and ever : and blessed be his glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise. Thou, even thou, art LORD alone ; thou hast made the heavens, the highest heavens, with all their host, the earth, and all things that are therein, the seas, and all that is therein, and thou preservest them all ; and the host of heaven worshippeth thee.
 7 Thou art the LORD the God, who didst choose Abram, and broughtest him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gavest him the name of Abraham ; and foundest his heart faithful before thee, and madest a covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Girgashites, to give it to his seed, and hast performed thy words ; for thou art righteous :
 9 And didst see the afflictions of our fathers in Egypt, and heardest their cry by the Red Sea ; and showedst signs and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land : for thou knewest that they dealt proudly against them. So didst thou get thee a name, as it is this day. And thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land ; and their persecutors thou threwest into the deeps, as a stone into the mighty waters.
 12 Moreover thou leddest them in the day by a cloudy pillar ; and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way wherein they should go. Thou camest down also upon mount Sinai, and spakest with them from the heavens, and gavest them right judgments, and laws of truth, good statutes and commandments : and madest known unto them thy holy sabbath, and commandedst them precepts, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Moses thy servant : and gavest them bread from the heavens for their hunger, and broughtest forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and promisedst them that they should go in to possess the land which thou hadst sworn to give them.
 16 But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardened their necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments, and refused to obey, neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them ; but hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage in Egypt : but thou art a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forsookest them not. Yea, when they had made them a molten calf, and said, This is thy God that brought thee up out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations ; yet thou in thy manifold mercies forsookest them not in the wilderness : the pillar of the cloud departed not from over them by day, to lead them in the way ; neither the pillar of fire by night, to show them light, and the way wherein they should go. Thou gavest also thy good spirit to instruct them, and withheldest not thy manna from their mouth, and gavest them water for their thirst. Yea, forty years didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, so that they lacked nothing ; their clothes waxed not old, and their feet swelled not. Moreover thou gavest them kingdoms and nations, and didst divide them into corners : so they possessed the land of Sihon, and the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan. Their children also multipliedst thou as the stars of the heavens, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it. So the children went in and possessed the land, and thou subduedst before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings, and the people of the land, that they might do with them as they would. And they took strong cities, and a fat land, and possessed houses full of all goods, wells digged, vineyards, and oliveyards, and fruit trees in abundance : so they did eat, and were filled, and became fat, and delighted themselves in thy great goodness.
 26 Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and cast thy law behind their backs, and slew thy prophets who testified against them to turn them to thee, and they wrought great provocations. Therefore thou deliveredst them into the hand of their enemies, who vexed them : and in the time of their trouble, when they cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven ; and according to thy manifold mercies thou gavest them saviours, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies. But after they had rest, they did evil again before thee : therefore leftest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them : yet when they returned, and cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven ; and many times didst thou deliver them according to thy mercies ; and testifiedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law : yet they dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, (which if a man do, he shall live in them;) and withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear. Yet many years didst thou forbear them, and testifiedst against them by thy spirit in thy prophets: yet would they not give ear: therefore gavest thou them into the hand of the people of the lands. Nevertheless for thy great mercies' sake thou didst not utterly consume them, nor forsake them; for thou art a gracious and merciful God.

Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the terrible God, who keepest covenant and mercy, let not all the trouble seem little before thee, that hath come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all thy people, since the time of the kings of Assyria unto this day. Howbeit thou art just in all that is brought upon us; for thou hast done right, but we have done wickedly: neither have our kings, our princes, our priests, nor our fathers, kept thy law, nor hearkened unto thy commandments and thy testimonies, wherewith thou didst testify against them. For they have not served thee in thy kingdom, which in thy great goodness thou gavest them, and in the large and fat land which thou gavest before them, neither turned they from their wicked works. Behold, we are servants this day, and for the land that thou gavest unto our fathers to eat the fruit thereof and the good thereof, behold, we are servants in it: and it yieldeth much increase unto the kings whom thou hast set over us because of our sins: also they have dominion over our bodies, and over our cattle, at their pleasure, and we are in great distress.

And after all this we made a sure covenant, and wrote it; and our princes, Levites, and priests, sealed it.

Now those who sealed were, Nehemiah, the governor, the son of Hachaliah, and Zidkijah, Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah, Pashur, Amariah, Malchijah, Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch, Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah, Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch, Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin, Maaziah, Bilgai, Shemaiah: these were the priests.

And the Levites: both Joshua the son of Azaniah, Binnui of the sons of Henadad, Kadmiel: and their brethren, Shebaniah, Hodijah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan, Micha, Rehob, Hashabiah, Zaeur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah, Hodijah, Bani, Beninu.

The chief of the people; Parosh, Pahath-moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani, Bunni, Azgad, Bebai, Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin, Ater, Hiskijah, Azzur, Hodijah, Hashum, Bezai, Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai, Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir, Meshezabeel, Zadok, Jaddua, Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah, Hoshea, Hananiah, Hashub, Hallohes, Pileah, Shobek, Rehum, Hashabnah, Maasiah, and Ahijah, Hanan, Anan, Malluch, Harim, Baanah.

And the rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the porters, the singers, the Nethinims, and all they who had separated themselves from the people of the lands unto the law of God, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, every one having knowledge, and having understanding; they clave to their brethren, their nobles, and entered into a curse, and into an oath, to walk in God's law, which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of the LORD our Lord, and his judgments and his statutes; and that we would not give our daughters unto the people of the land, nor take their daughters for our sons: and if the people of the land bring ware or any victuals on the sabbath day to sell, that we would not buy it of them on the sabbath, or on the holy day: and that we would leave the seventh year, and the exaction of every debt.

Also we made ordinances for us, to charge ourselves yearly with the third part of a shekel for the service of the house of our God; for the showbread, and for the continual thank offering, and for the continual burnt offering, of the sabbaths, of the new moons, for the set feasts, and for the holy things, and for the sin offerings to make an atonement for Israel, and for all the work of the house of our God.

And we cast the lots among the priests, the Levites, and the people, for the wood offering, to bring it into the house of our God, after the houses of our fathers, at times appointed year by year, to burn upon the altar of the LORD our God, as it is written in the law: and to bring the firstfruits of our ground, and the firstfruits of all fruit of all trees, year by year, unto the house of the LORD: also the firstborn of our sons, and of our cattle, as it is written in the law, and the firstlings of our herds and of our flocks, to bring to the house of our God, unto the priests that minister in the house of our God: and that we should bring the firstfruits of our dough, and our offerings, and the fruit of all manner of trees, of wine and of oil, unto the priests, to the chambers of the house of our God; and the tithes of our ground unto the Levites, that the same Levites might have the tithes in all the cities of our tillage. And the priest the son of Aaron shall be with the Levites, when the Levites take tithes:

- And the Levites shall bring up the tithe of the tithes unto the house of our God, to the chambers, into the treasure house. For the children of Israel and the children of Levi shall bring the offering of the corn, of the new wine, and the oil, unto the chambers, where are the vessels of the sanctuary, and the priests who minister, and the porters, and the singers : and we will not forsake the house of our God.
- 11 AND the rulers of the people dwelt at Jerusalem : the rest of the people also cast lots, to bring one of ten to dwell in Jerusalem the holy city, and nine parts to dwell in other cities. And the people blessed all the men, who willingly offered themselves to dwell at Jerusalem.
- Now these are the chief of the province who dwelt in Jerusalem : but in the cities of Judah dwelt every one in his possession in their cities, Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the Nethinims, and the children of Solomon's servants. And at Jerusalem dwelt certain of the children of Judah and of the children of Benjamin.
- Of the children of Judah ; Athaiah the son of Uzziab, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalaleel, of the children of Perez ; and Maaseiah the son of Baruch, the son of Col-hozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of Shiloni.
- All the sons of Perez who dwelt at Jerusalem were four hundred threescore and eight valiant men.
- And these are the sons of Benjamin ; Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jesaiah. And after him Gabbai, Sallai, nine hundred twenty and eight.
- And Joel the son of Zichri was their overseer : and Judah the son of Senuah was second over the city.
- Of the priests : Jedaiah the son of Joiarib, Jachin. Seraiah the son of Hilkiab, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, was the ruler of the house of God. And their brethren who did the work of the house were eight hundred twenty and two : and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashur, the son of Malchiah, and his brethren, chief of the fathers, two hundred forty and two : and Amashai the son of Azareel, the son of Ahasai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer, and their brethren, mighty men of valour, a hundred twenty and eight : and their overseer was Zabdai, the son of one of the great men.
- Also of the Levites : Shemaiah the son of Hashub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni ; and Shabbethai and Jozabad, of the chief of the Levites, had the oversight of the outward business of the house of God. And Mattaniah the son of Micha, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, was the principal to begin the thanksgiving in prayer : and Bakkukiah the second among his brethren, and Abda the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun. All the Levites in the holy city were two hundred fourscore and four.
- Moreover the porters, Akkub, Talmon, and their brethren who kept the gates, were a hundred seventy and two.
- And the residue of Israel, of the priests, and the Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, every one in his inheritance.
- But the Nethinims dwelt in Ophel : and Ziha and Gispa were over the Nethinims.
- The overseer also of the Levites at Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micha. Of the sons of Asaph, the singers were over the business of the house of God. For it was the king's commandment concerning them, that a certain portion should be for the singers, due for every day.
- And Pethahiah the son of Meshezabeel, of the children of Zerah the son of Judah, was at the king's hand in all matters concerning the people.
- And for the villages, with their fields, some of the children of Judah dwelt at Kirjath-arba, and in the villages thereof, and at Dibon, and in the villages thereof, and at Jekabzeel, and in the villages thereof, and at Jeshua, and at Moladah, and at Beth-pheret, and at Hazar-shual, and at Beer-sheba, and in the villages thereof, and at Ziklag, and at Mekonah, and in the villages thereof, and at En-rimmon, and at Zareah, and at Jarmuth, Zanoah, Adullam, and in their villages, at Lachish, and the fields thereof, at Azekah, and in its villages. And they dwelt from Beer-sheba unto the valley of Hinnom.
- The children also of Benjamin from Gibeah dwelt at Michmash, and Aija, and Beth-el, and in their villages, and at Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah, Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim, Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat, Lod, and Ono, the valley of craftsmen.
- And of the Levites were divisions in Judah, and in Benjamin.

NOW these are the priests and the Levites who went up with Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua : Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra, Amariah, Malluch, Hattush, Shechaniah, Rehum, Meremoth, Iddo, Ginnetho, Abijah, Miamin, Maadiah, Bilgah, Shemaiah, and Joiarib, Jedaiah, Sallu, Amok, Hilkiyah, Jedaiah. These were the chief of the priests and of their brethren in the days of Joshua. 12 3 4 5 6 7

Moreover the Levites : Joshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah, who was over the psalms of thanksgiving, he and his brethren. Also Bakbukiah and Unni, their brethren, were over against them in the watches. 8 9

And Joshua begat Joiakim, Joiakim also begat Eliashib, and Eliashib begat Joiada, and Joiada begat Jonathan, and Jonathan begat Jaddua. 10 11

And in the days of Joiakim were priests, the chief of the fathers : of Seraiah, Meraiarah : of Jeremiah, Hananiah ; of Ezra, Meshullam ; of Amariah, Jehohanan ; of Melicui, Jonathan ; of Shebaniah, Joseph ; of Harim, Adna ; of Meraioth, Helkai ; of Iddo, Zechariah ; of Ginnethon, Meshullam ; of Abijah, Zichri ; of Miniamin, of Moadiah, Piltai ; of Bilgah, Shammua ; of Shemaiah, Jehonathan ; and of Joiarib, Mattenai ; of Jedaiah, Uzzi ; of Sallai, Kallai ; of Amok, Eber ; of Hilkiyah, Hashabiah ; of Jedaiah, Nethaneel. 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21

The Levites in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, and Johanan, and Jaddua, were recorded chief of the fathers : also the priests, to the reign of Darius the Persian. The sons of Levi, the chief of the fathers, were written in the book of the chronicles, even until the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib. And the chief of the Levites : Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Joshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brethren over against them, to praise and to give thanks, according to the commandment of David the man of God, ward over against ward. Mattaniah, and Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, Akkub, were porters keeping the ward at the storeholds of the gates. These were in the days of Joiakim the son of Joshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor, and of Ezra the priest, the scribe. 22 23 24 25 26

And at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with gladness, both with thanksgivings, and with singing, with cymbals, psalteries, and with harps. And the sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the plain country round about Jerusalem, and from the villages of Netophathi ; also from the house of Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba and Azmaveth : for the singers had built them villages round about Jerusalem. And the priests and the Levites purified 30 themselves, and purified the people, and the gates, and the wall. 27 28 29

Then I brought up the princes of Judah upon the wall, and appointed two great companies of those who gave thanks, whereof one went on the right hand upon the wall towards the dung gate : and after them went Hoshaiiah, and half of the princes of Judah, and Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam, Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, and Jeremiah, and certain of the priests' sons with trumpets ; namely, Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Michaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph : and his brethren, Shemaiah, and Azrael, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethaneel, and Judah, Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of God, and Ezra the scribe before them. And at the fountain gate, which was over against them, they went up by the stairs of the city of David, at the going up of the wall, above the house of David, even unto the water gate eastward. 31 32 33 34 35 36 37

And the other company of those who gave thanks went over against them, and I after them, and the half of the people upon the wall, from beyond the tower of the furnaces even unto the broad wall ; and from above the gate of Ephraim, and above the old gate, and above the fish gate, and the tower of Hananeel, and the tower of Meah, even unto the sheep gate : and they stood still in the prison gate. 38 39

So stood the two companies of those who gave thanks in the house of God, and I, and the half of the rulers with me : and the priests ; Eliakim, Mauseiah, Miniamin, Michaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets ; and Mauseiah, and Shemaiah, and Elcazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan, and Malchijah, and Elam, and Ezer. And the singers sang loud, with Jezrahiah their overseer. Also that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced : for God had made them rejoice with great joy : the wives also and the children rejoiced : so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off. 40 41 42 43 44

And at that time were some appointed over the chambers for the treasures, for the offerings, for the firstfruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them out of the fields of the cities the portions appointed by the law for the priests and Levites : for Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites who waited. And both the singers and 45

the porters kept the ward of their God, and the ward of the purification, according to the commandment of David, and of Solomon his son. For in the days of David and Asaph of old there were chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving unto God. And all Israel in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers and the porters, every day his portion : and they sanctified holy things unto the Levites ; and the Levites sanctified them unto the children of Aaron.

13 On that day they read in the book of Moses in the audience of the people ; and therein was found written, that the Ammonite and the Moabite should not come into the congregation of God for ever ; because they met not the children of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Balaam against them, that he should curse them : howbeit our God turned the curse into a blessing. Now when they had heard the law, they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude.

And before this, Eliashib the priest, having the oversight of the chamber of the house of our God, was allied unto Tobiah : and he had prepared for him a great chamber, where aforetime they laid the thank offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the corn, the new wine, and the oil, which was commanded to be given to the Levites, and the singers, and the porters ; and the offerings of the priests. But in all this time was not I at Jerusalem : for in the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon came I unto the king, and after certain days I earnestly requested leave of the king : and I came to Jerusalem, and understood of the evil that Eliashib did for Tobiah, in preparing him a chamber in the courts of the house of God. And it grieved me sore : therefore I cast forth all the household stuff of Tobiah out of the chamber. Then I commanded, and they cleansed the chambers : and thither brought I again the vessels of the house of God, with the thank offering and the frankincense.

And I perceived that the portions of the Levites had not been given them : for the Levites and the singers, who did the work, were fled every one to his field. Then contended I with the rulers, and said, Why is the house of God forsaken ? And I gathered them together, and set them in their place. Then brought all Judah the tithe of the corn and the new wine and the oil unto the treasuries. And I made treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah : and next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Matthaniah : for they were counted faithful, and their office was to distribute unto their brethren.

Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for its services.

IN those days saw I in Judah some treading wine presses on the sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses ; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath day : and I testified against them on the day wherein they sold victuals. There dwelt men of Tyre also therein, which brought fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem. Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said unto them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the sabbath day ? Did not your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city ? yet ye bring more wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath.

And when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath : and some of my servants set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath day. So the merchants and sellers of all kind of ware lodged without Jerusalem once or twice. Then I testified against them, and said unto them, Why lodge ye about the wall ? If ye do so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth came they no more on the sabbath. And I commanded the Levites that they should cleanse themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates of the temple, to sanctify the sabbath day.

Remember me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the greatness of thy mercy.

IN those days also saw I Jews who had married wives of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab : and their children spoke half in the speech of Ashdod, and could not speak in the Jews' language, but according to the language of each people. And I contended with them, and denounced on them the curses, and smote certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, Ye shall not give your daughters unto their sons, nor take their daughters unto your sons, or for yourselves. Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things ? yet among many nations was there no king like him, who was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Israel: nevertheless even him did outlandish women cause to sin. Shall we then hearken unto you to do all this great evil, to transgress against our God in marrying strange wives?

And one of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was son-in-law to Sanballat the Horonite: therefore I chased him from me. Remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood, and the covenant of the priesthood, and of the Levites.

Thus cleansed I them from all strangers, and appointed the wards of the priests and the Levites, every one in his business; and for the wood offering, at times appointed, and for the firstfruits.

Remember me, O my God, for good.

THE BOOK OF ESTHER.

NOW in the days of Ahasuerus, who reigned, from India even unto Ethiopia, over a hundred and seven and twenty provinces: in those days, when king Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in Shushan the palace, in the third year of his reign, he made a feast unto all his princes and his servants; the power of Persia and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him: when he showed the riches of his glorious kingdom, and the honour of his excellent majesty, many days, even a hundred and fourscore days.

And when these days were expired, the king made a feast unto all the people who were present in Shushan the palace, both unto great and small, seven days, in the court of the garden of the king's palace; where were white, green, and blue hangings, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble: the couches were of gold and silver, upon a pavement of red, and blue, and white, and black marble. And they gave them drink in vessels of gold, (the vessels being diverse one from another,) and royal wine in abundance, according to the state of the king. And the drinking was according to the law; none did compel: for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every man's pleasure. Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king Ahasuerus.

On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven chamberlains who served in the presence of Ahasuerus the king, to bring Vashti the queen before the king with the crown royal, to show the people and the princes her beauty: for she was beautiful to look on. But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king's commandment by his chamberlains: therefore was the king very wroth, and his anger burned in him.

Then the king said to the wise men, who knew the times, (for so was the king's manner towards all who knew law and judgment: and the next unto him was Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media, who saw the king's face, and who sat as chief men in the kingdom;) What shall we do unto the queen Vashti according to law, because she hath not performed the commandment of the king Ahasuerus by the chamberlains?

And Memucan answered before the king and the princes, Vashti the queen hath not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the people who are in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus. For this deed of the queen shall come abroad unto all women, so that they shall despise their husbands in their eyes, when it shall be reported, The king Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she came not. In like manner will the ladies of Persia and Media, who have heard of the deed of the queen, speak this day unto all the king's princes, and thus shall there arise too much contempt and wrath. If it please the king, let there go a royal commandment from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, that it be not altered, That Vashti come no more before king Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal estate unto 20 another better than she. And when the king's decree which he shall make shall be published throughout all his empire, (for it is great,) all the wives shall give to their husbands honour, both to great and small.

21 And the saying pleased the king and the princes; and the king did according to 22 the word of Memucan: for he sent letters into all the king's provinces, into every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language, that every man should bear rule in his own house, and that it should be published according to the language of every people.

2 AFTER these things, when the wrath of king Ahasuerus was appeased, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and what was decreed against her. Then said the king's servants who ministered unto him, Let there be beautiful young virgins 3 sought for the king: and let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the beautiful young virgins unto Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, unto the custody of Hegai the king's chamberlain, keeper of the women; and let their things for purification be given 4 them: and let the maiden who pleaseth the king be queen instead of Vashti. And the thing pleased the king; and he did so.

5 NOW in Shushan the palace there was a certain Jew, whose name was Mordecai, 6 the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite; who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captivity which had been carried away with Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried 7 away. And he brought up Hadassah, that is, Esther, his uncle's daughter: for she had neither father nor mother, and the maid was fair of countenance and beautiful of form; whom Mordecai, when her father and mother were dead, took for his own daughter.

8 So when the king's commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, Esther was brought also unto the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of 9 the women. And the maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness of him; and he speedily gave her her things for purification, with her portions, and seven maid-ens, who were meet to be given her, out of the king's house: and he preferred her 10 and her maids unto the best place of the house of the women. Esther had not showed her people nor her kindred: for Mordecai had charged her that she should not show it.

11 And Mordecai walked every day before the court of the women's house, to know 12 how Esther did, and what should become of her. Now when every maid's turn was come to go in to king Ahasuerus, after that she had been twelve months, according to the manner of the women, (for so were the days of their purifications accomplished, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odours, and with 13 other things for the purifying of the women;) then thus came every maiden unto the king; whatsoever she desired was given her to go with her out of the house 14 of the women unto the king's house. In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's chamberlain, who kept the concubines: she came in unto the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and that she were called by name.

15 Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, was come to go in unto the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed.
 16 And Esther obtained favour in the sight of all those who looked upon her. So Esther was taken unto king Ahasuerus into his house royal in the tenth month, 17 which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign. And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and favour in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her 18 queen instead of Vashti. Then the king made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants, even Esther's feast; and he made a release of tribute to the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the munificence of the king.

19 And when the virgins were gathered together the second time, then Mordecai sat 20 in the king's gate. Esther had not yet showed her kindred nor her people; as Mordecai had charged her: for Esther did the commandment of Mordecai, like as when she was brought up with him.

21 IN those days, while Mordecai sat in the king's gate, two of the king's chamberlains, Bigthana and Teresh, of those who kept the door, were wroth, and sought to 22 lay hand on the king Ahasuerus. And the thing was known to Mordecai, who told it unto Esther the queen; and Esther certified it to the king in Mordecai's name. And when inquisition was made of the matter, it was found out; therefore they were both hanged on a tree: and it was written in the book of the chronicles before the king.

AFTER these things did king Ahasuerus promote Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes who were with him. And all the king's servants, who were in the king's gate, bowed, and revered Haman: for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence. Then the king's servants, who were in the king's gate, said unto Mordecai, Why transgressest thou the king's commandment?

Now when they spoke daily unto him, and he hearkened not unto them, they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai's matters would stand: for he had told them that he was a Jew. And when Haman saw that Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Haman full of wrath. And he thought scorn to lay hands on Mordecai alone; for they had showed him the people of Mordecai: wherefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews who were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even the people of Mordecai.

IN the first month, that is, the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of king Ahasuerus, they cast Pur, that is, the lot, before Haman from day to day, and from month to month, to the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar. And Haman said unto king Ahasuerus, There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of thy kingdom; and their laws are diverse from all people; neither keep they the king's laws; therefore it is not for the king's profit to suffer them. If it please the king, let it be written that they may be destroyed; and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver to the hands of those who have the charge of the business, to bring it into the king's treasuries. And the king took his ring from his hand, and gave it unto Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews' enemy. And the king said unto Haman, The silver is given to thee, the people also, to do with them as it seemeth good to thee.

Then were the king's scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and there was written according to all that Haman had commanded unto the king's lieutenants, and to the governors who were over every province, and to the rulers of every people of every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language; in the name of king Ahasuerus was it written, and sealed with the king's ring. And the letters were sent by posts into all the king's provinces to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, on one day, even upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to take the spoil of them for a prey. The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was published unto all people, that they should be ready against that day. The posts went out, being hastened by the king's commandment, and the decree was given in Shushan the palace. And the king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city Shushan was perplexed.

WHEN Mordecai perceived all that was done, he rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried with a loud and a bitter cry; and came even before the king's gate: for none might enter into the king's gate clothed with sackcloth. And in every province, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing; and many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

So Esther's maids and her chamberlains came and told it her. Then was the queen exceedingly grieved; and she sent raiment to clothe Mordecai, and to take away his sackcloth from him; but he received it not. Then called Esther for Hatach, one of the king's chamberlains, whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and gave him a commandment to Mordecai, to know what it was, and why it was. So Hatach went forth to Mordecai unto the street of the city, which was before the king's gate. And Mordecai told him of all that had happened unto him, and of the sum of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the Jews, to destroy them. Also he gave him the copy of the writing of the decree that was given at Shushan to destroy them, to show it unto Esther, and to declare it unto her, and to charge her that she should go in unto the king, to make supplication unto him, and to make request before him for her people.

And Hatach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai. Again Esther spoke unto Hatach, and gave him commandment unto Mordecai; All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, do know, that whosoever, whether man or woman, shall come unto the king into the inner court, who is not called, there is one

- law of his to put him to death, except such to whom the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in unto the king these thirty days. And they told to Mordecai Esther's words.
- Then Mordecai commanded to answer Esther, Think not with thyself that thou shalt escape in the king's house, more than all the Jews. For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall there enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place; but thou and thy father's house shall be destroyed: and who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?
- Then Esther bade them return Mordecai this answer, Go, gather together all the Jews who are present in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast likewise; and so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law: and if I perish, I perish. So Mordecai went his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.
- 5 NOW on the third day, Esther put on her royal apparel, and stood in the inner court of the king's house, over against the king's house: and the king sat upon his royal throne in the royal house, over against the gate of the house. And when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, she obtained favour in his sight: and the king held out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his hand. So Esther drew near, and touched the top of the sceptre. Then said the king unto her, What wilt thou, queen Esther? and what is thy request? it shall be even given thee to the half of the kingdom. And Esther answered, If it seem good unto the king, let the king and Haman come this day unto the banquet that I have prepared for him.
- Then the king said, Cause Haman to make haste, that he may do as Esther hath said. So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.
- And the king said unto Esther at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed. Then answered Esther, and said, My petition and my request is; if I have found favour in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition, and to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I shall prepare for them, and I will do to-morrow as the king hath said.
- Then went Haman forth that day joyful and with a glad heart: but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king's gate, that he stood not up, nor moved for him, he was full of indignation against Mordecai. Nevertheless Haman refrained himself: and when he came home, he sent and called for his friends, and Zeresh his wife. And Haman boasted of the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king. Haman said moreover, Yea, Esther the queen did let no man come in with the king unto the banquet that she had prepared by myself; and to-morrow am I invited unto her also with the king. Yet all this availeth me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate.
- Then said Zeresh his wife and all his friends unto him, Let a gallows be made of fifty cubits high, and in the morning speak thou unto the king that Mordecai may be hanged thereon: then go thou in merrily with the king unto the banquet. And the thing pleased Haman; and he caused the gallows to be made.
- 6 ON that night could not the king sleep, and he commanded to bring the book of records of the chronicles; and they were read before the king. And it was found written, that Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's chamberlains, the keepers of the door, who sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus.
- And the king said, What honour and dignity hath been done to Mordecai for this? Then said the king's servants who ministered unto him, There is nothing done for him. And the king said, Who is in the court? Now Haman was come in to the outward court of the king's house, to speak unto the king to hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him. And the king's servants said unto him, Behold, Haman standeth in the court. And the king said, Let him come in.
- So Haman came in. And the king said unto him, What shall be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour? Now Haman thought in his heart, To whom would the king delight to do honour more than to myself? And Haman answered the king, For the man whom the king delighteth to honour, let the royal apparel be brought which the king useth to wear, and the horse that the king rideth upon, when the crown royal is set upon his head: and let this apparel and horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that they may array the man with whom the king delighteth to honour, and bring him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaim before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delighteth to honour. Then the king said to Haman, Make 10 haste, and take the apparel and the horse, as thou hast said, and do even so to Mordecai the Jew, who sitteth at the king's gate: let nothing fail of all that thou hast spoken.

Then took Haman the apparel and the horse, and arrayed Mordecai, and brought 11 him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him, Thus shall it be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour.

And Mordecai came again to the king's gate. But Haman hastened to his house 12 mourning, and having his head covered. And Haman told Zeresh his wife and all 13 his friends every thing that had befallen him. Then said his wise men and Zeresh his wife unto him, If Mordecai be of the seed of the Jews, before whom thou hast begun to fall, thou shalt not prevail against him, but shalt surely fall before him.

And while they were yet talking with him, came the king's chamberlains, and 14 hastened to bring Haman unto the banquet that Esther had prepared.

So the king and Haman came to banquet with Esther the queen. And the king 7 said again unto Esther on the second day at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition, queen Esther? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? and it shall be performed, even to the half of the kingdom. Then Esther the queen 3 answered and said, If I have found favour in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request: for we 4 are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for bondmen and bondwomen, I had held my tongue, although the enemy could not make up the damage done to the king.

Then the king Ahasuerus answered and said unto Esther the queen, Who is he, 5 and where is he, that durst presume in his heart to do so? And Esther said, The 6 adversary and enemy is this wicked Haman.

Then Haman was afraid before the king and the queen. And the king arising 7 from the banquet of wine in his wrath went into the palace garden: and Haman remained to make request for his life to Esther the queen; for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the king.

Then the king returned out of the palace garden into the place of the banquet 8 of wine: and Haman was fallen upon the couch whereon Esther was. Then said the king, Will he force the queen also before me in the house? As the word went out of the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face. And Harbonah, one of the chamberlains, said before the king, Behold also, the gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman 9 had made for Mordecai, who had spoken good for the king, standeth in the house of Haman. Then the king said, Hang him thereon. So they hanged Haman on the 10 gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king's wrath pacified.

On that day did the king Ahasuerus give the house of Haman the Jews' enemy unto 8 Esther the queen. And Mordecai came before the king; for Esther had told what he was unto her. And the king took off his ring, which he had taken from Haman, 2 and gave it unto Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman.

AND Esther spoke yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet, and be- 3 sought him with tears to put away the mischief of Haman the Agagite, and his device that he had devised against the Jews. Then the king held out the golden sceptre 4 towards Esther. So Esther arose, and stood before the king, and said, If it please the 5 king, and if I have found favour in his sight, and the thing seem right before the king, and I be pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy all the Jews 6 who are in all the king's provinces: for how can I endure to see the evil that shall come unto my people? or how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?

Then the king Ahasuerus said unto Esther the queen, and to Mordecai the Jew, 7 Behold, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and him they have hanged upon the gallows, because he would have laid his hand upon the Jews. Write ye also for 8 the Jews, as it liketh you, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring: for the writing which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, may no man reverse.

Then were the king's scribes called at that time in the third month, that is, the 9 month Sivan, on the three and twentieth day thereof; and it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded unto the Jews, and to the lieutenants, and the deputies and rulers of the provinces which are from India unto Ethiopia, a hundred twenty and seven provinces, unto every province according to the writing thereof, and unto every people after their language, and to the Jews according to their writing, and according to their language.

10 And he wrote in the king Ahasuerus' name, and sealed it with the king's ring, and sent letters by posts on horseback, and riders on mules, camels, and young dromedaries: wherein the king granted the Jews who were in every city to gather themselves together, and to stand for their life, to destroy, to slay, and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province that would assault them, both little

11 ones and women, and to take the spoil of them for a prey, upon one day in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, namely, upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar.

12 The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was published unto all people, and that the Jews should be ready against that day to avenge themselves on their enemies. So the posts who rode upon mules and camels went out, being hastened and pressed on by the king's commandment. And the decree was given at Shushan the palace.

13 And Mordecai went out from the presence of the king in royal apparel of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a mantle of fine linen and purple: and the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad. The Jews had light, and gladness, and joy, and honour. And in every province, and in every city, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and a good day. And many of the people of the land professed themselves Jews; for the fear of the Jews fell upon them.

9 NOW in the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar, on the thirteenth day of the same, when the king's commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, on the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have power over them, (though it was turned to the contrary, that the Jews had rule over those who hated them;) the Jews gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, to lay hand on such as sought their hurt: and no man could withstand them; for the fear of them fell upon all people. And all the rulers of the provinces, and the lieutenants, and the deputies, and officers of the king, exalted the Jews; because the fear of Mordecai fell upon them. For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces: for this man Mordecai waxed greater and greater.

5 Thus the Jews smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction, and did what they would unto those who hated them. And in Shushan the palace the Jews slew and destroyed five hundred men. And Parshandatha, and Dalphon, and Aspatha, and Poratha, and Adalia, and Aridatha, and Parmashta, and Arisai, and Aridai, and Vajezatha, the ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews, slew they; but on the spoil laid they not their hand.

11 On that day the number of those who were slain in Shushan the palace was brought before the king. And the king said unto Esther the queen, The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the palace, and the ten sons of Haman; what have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? now what is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: or what is thy request further? and it shall be done.

13 Then said Esther, If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews who are in Shushan to do to-morrow also according unto this day's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged upon the gallows. And the king commanded it so to be done: and the decree was given at Shushan; and they hanged Haman's ten sons. For the Jews who were in Shushan gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and slew three hundred men at Shushan; but on the prey they laid not their hand.

16 But the other Jews who were in the king's provinces gathered themselves together, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of their foes seventy and five thousand, but they laid not their hands on the prey, on the thirteenth day of the month Adar; and on the fourteenth day of the same rested they, and made it a day of feasting and gladness. But the Jews who were at Shushan assembled together on the thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth thereof; and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness. Therefore the Jews of the villages, who dwelt in the unwalled towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, even a joyful day, and of sending portions one to another.

20 And Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters unto all the Jews who were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both nigh and far, to establish this among them, that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, yearly, as the days whereon the Jews rested from their enemies, and the month which was turned unto them from sorrow to joy, and from mourning into a good day: that they should make them days of feasting and joy, and of sending portions one to another, and gifts to the poor. And the Jews undertook to do 23 as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written unto them; because Haman the 24 son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had devised against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur, (that is, the lot,) to crush them, and to destroy them; but when Esther came before the king, he commanded by letters that 25 his wicked device, which he devised against the Jews, should return upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows. Wherefore they 26 called these days Purim after the name of Pur. Therefore for all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and which had come unto them, the Jews ordained, and took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon 27 all such as joined themselves unto them, so as it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to their writing, and according to their appointed time every year; and that these days should be remembered and kept throughout 28 every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them perish from their seed.

Then Esther the queen, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with 29 all authority, to confirm this second letter of Purim. And he sent the letters unto 30 all the Jews, to the hundred twenty and seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of peace and truth, to confirm these days of Purim in their times ap- 31 pointed, according as Mordecai the Jew and Esther the queen had enjoined them, and as they had decreed for themselves and for their seed, the matters of the fastings and their cry. And the decree of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim; and it 32 was written in the book.

AND the king Ahasuerus laid a tribute upon the land, and upon the isles of the 10 sea. And all the acts of his power and of his might, and the declaration of the greatness of Mordecai, whereunto the king advanced him, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia? For Mordecai the Jew 3 was next unto king Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews, and accepted of the multitude of his brethren, seeking the wealth of his people, and speaking peace to all his seed.

THE BOOK OF JOB.

1 THERE was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job ; and that man was perfect and upright, and one who feared God, and refrained from evil. And there were 3 born unto him seven sons and three daughters. His substance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five thousand yoke of oxen, and five hundred she-asses, and a very great household ; so that this man was the greatest of all the men of the east.

4 And his sons went and made a feast in the house of each on his day ; and sent and 5 called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them. And when the days of their feasting were gone round, Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all : for Job said, It may be that my sons have sinned, and not blessed God in their hearts. Thus did Job continually.

6 Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the 7 LORD, and Satan came also in among them. And the LORD said unto Satan, Whence comest thou ? And Satan answered the LORD, and said, From running to 8 and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it. And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou set thy heart on my servant Job, for there is none like him on the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one who feareth God, and refraineth from 9 evil ? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doth Job fear God for nought ?
10 Hast not thou made a hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side ? thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is 11 increased in the land. But put forth thy hand now, and touch all that he hath, and 12 see if he will not curse thee to thy face. And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thy power ; only upon himself put not forth thy hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD.

13 And there was a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking 14 wine in their eldest brother's house : and there came a messenger unto Job, and 15 said, The oxen were ploughing, and the she-asses feeding beside them : and the Sabeans fell upon them, and took them away ; yea, they have slain the young men thy servants with the edge of the sword ; and I have hardly escaped alone to tell 16 thee. While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The fire of God is fallen from the heavens, and hath burnt up the flock, and the young men thy 17 servants, and consumed them ; and I have hardly escaped alone to tell thee. While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The Chaldeans made out three bands, and rushed upon the camels, and carried them away, yea, and slew the young men thy servants with the edge of the sword ; and I have hardly escaped alone to tell thee. While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, 18 Thy sons and thy daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's 19 house : and, behold, there came a great wind from across the desert, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they died ; and I have hardly escaped alone to tell thee.

20 Then Job arose, and rent his mantle, and shaved his head, and fell down on the 21 earth, and worshipped, and said, Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither : the LORD gave, and the LORD hath taken away ;
22 blessed be the name of the LORD. Notwithstanding all this Job sinned not, nor charged God with wrong.

2 Again there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan also came in among them to present himself before the LORD.
2 And the LORD said unto Satan, From whence comest thou ? And Satan answered the LORD, and said, From running to and fro in the earth, and from walking up
3 and down in it. And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou set thy heart on my servant Job, for there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one who feareth God, and refraineth from evil ? and still he holdeth fast his integrity, although thou stirrest me up against him, to destroy him without cause. And Satan answered the LORD, and said, Skin for skin, yea, all that a man hath will he 5 give for his life. But put forth thy hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse thee to thy face. And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, he is in 6 thy hand; only save his life.

So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD, and smote Job with ulcer- 7 ous sores from the sole of his foot unto his crown. And he took him a piece of a 8 broken pot to scrape himself with; and he sat down among the ashes.

Then said his wife unto him, Dost thou still retain thine integrity? bless God, and 9 (2) die. But he said unto her, Thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh. 10 What? shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? In all this did not Job sin with his lips.

NOW when Job's three friends heard of all this evil that was come upon him, they 11 came each one from his own place; Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite: for they had made an appointment together to come to mourn with him and to comfort him. And when they lifted up their eyes afar off, 12 and knew him not, they lifted up their voice, and wept; and they rent each one his mantle, and sprinkled dust upon their heads towards the heavens. And they sat 13 down with him upon the ground seven days and seven nights, but no one spoke a word unto him: for they saw that his affliction was very great.

After this Job opened his mouth, and cursed the day of his birth. And Job spoke, 3
and said,

3 Let the day perish on which I was born,
And the night in which it was announced, A man child is brought forth.

4 Let that day be darkness;

Let not God regard it from above,

Neither let the light shine upon it.

5 Let darkness and the shadow of death claim it;

Let a cloud dwell upon it;

Let the blackest terrors of day terrify it.

6 As for that night, let thick darkness seize upon it;

Let it not rejoice among the days of the year,

Let it not come into the number of the months.

7 Lo, let that night be solitary,

Let no joyful voice come therein.

8 Let them curse it who curse the day,

Who are ready to raise up their mourning.

9 Let the stars of its twilight be darkened;

Let it look for light, but have none;

Neither let it see the dawning of the day:

10 Because it shut not up the doors of my mother's womb,

And concealed not sorrow from mine eyes.

11 Why died I not from the womb?

Why did I not give up the ghost when I came out of the belly?

12 Why were the knees ready to receive me?

Or why the breasts that I should suck?

13 For now should I have lain still and been quiet,

I should have slept: then had I been at rest,

14 With kings and counsellors of the earth,

Who built for themselves places now desolate;

15 Or with princes who had gold,

Who filled their houses with silver:

16 Or as a hidden untimely birth I had not remained;

As infants who never saw light.

17 There the wicked cease from troubling;

And there the weary are at rest.

18 There the prisoners rest together;

They hear not the voice of the oppressor.

19 The small and great are there;

And the servant is free from his master.

20 Wherefore is light given to him who is in misery,

And life unto the bitter in soul;

21 Who long for death, but it cometh not;

And dig for it more than for hidden treasures;

22 Who rejoice exceedingly,

And are glad, when they can find the grave?

- 23 Why is light given to a man whose way is hid,
And whom God hath hedged in?
- 24 For my sighing becometh my daily food,
And my roarings are poured out like the water.
- 25 For the thing which I greatly feared has happened to me,
And that which I was afraid of is come upon me.
- 26 I have had no more ease, nor rest, nor quiet;
But trouble only hath come.

4 THEN ELIPHAZ the Temanite answered and said,

- 2 If we attempt a word with thee, thou wilt be offended:
But who can withhold himself from speaking?
- 3 Behold, thou hast instructed many,
And thou hast strengthened the weak hands.
- 4 Thy words have upholden him who was falling,
And thou hast strengthened the feeble knees.
- 5 But now it is come upon thee, and thou faintest;
It toucheth thee, and thou art perplexed.
- 6 Was not thy fear thy confidence,
And the uprightness of thy way thy hope?
- 7 Remember, I pray thee, who ever perished, being innocent?
Or where were the righteous cut off?
- 8 According as I have seen, they who plough iniquity,
And sow wickedness, reap the same.
- 9 By the blast of God they perish,
Even by the breath of his nostrils are they consumed.
- 10 The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion, are stopped,
And the teeth of the young lions are broken.
- 11 The old lion perisheth for lack of prey,
And the whelps of the lioness are scattered abroad.
- 12 Now a word was secretly brought to me,
And mine ear received a whisper thereof.
- 13 In thoughts from the visions of the night,
When deep sleep falleth on men,
- 14 Fear came upon me, and trembling,
Which made all my bones to shake.
- 15 Then a spirit passed before my face;
The hair of my flesh stood up:
- 16 It stood still, but I could not discern the form thereof:
An image was before mine eyes,
There was silence, and I heard a still voice, saying,
- 17 Shall mortal man be just before God?
Shall a man be pure before his Maker?
- 18 Behold, if he confide not in his servants;
And if to his angels he ascribeth not praise:
- 19 How much less to those who dwell in houses of clay,
Whose foundation is in the dust,
Who are crushed sooner than the moth?
- 20 They are destroyed from morning to evening:
They perish for ever without any regarding it.
- 21 Doth not their excellency pass away with them?
They die, even without wisdom.

5 Call now, if there be any who will answer thee;
And to which of the saints wilt thou turn?

- 2 For vexation killeth the foolish man,
And envy slayeth the silly one.
- 3 I have seen the foolish taking root:
But instantly I denounced his habitation.
- 4 His children are far from safety,
And they are crushed in the gate,
Neither is there any to deliver them.
- 5 Whose harvest the hungry eateth up,
And taketh it even out of the thorns,

JOB VI.

- And the robber swalloweth up their substance.
 6 For affliction cometh not forth of the dust,
 Neither doth trouble spring out of the ground;
 7 For man is not born to trouble,
 As the sparks fly upwards.
 8 I would seek unto God,
 And unto God would I commit my cause:
 9 Who doeth great things and unsearchable;
 Marvellous things beyond number:
 10 Who giveth rain upon the earth,
 And sendeth waters upon the fields:
 11 To set up on high those who are low;
 That those who mourn may be exalted to safety.
 12 He disappointeth the devices of the crafty,
 So that their hands cannot perform their enterprise.
 13 He entangleth the wise in their own craftiness:
 And the counsel of the froward is brought to confusion.
 14 By day they meet with darkness,
 And grope at noon-day as in the night.
 15 So he saveth the poor from the sword,
 And from the hand of the mighty.
 16 So also the poor recovereth that he has hoped for,
 And iniquity stoppeth her mouth.
 17 Behold, blessed is the man whom God correcteth:
 Therefore despise not thou the chastening of the Almighty:
 18 For he afflicteth, and bindeth up:
 He woundeth, and his hands make whole.
 19 In six troubles he will deliver thee:
 Yea, in seven there shall no evil touch thee.
 20 In famine he shall redeem thee from death:
 And in war from the power of the sword.
 21 Thou shalt be hid from the scourge of the tongue:
 Neither shalt thou be afraid of violence when it cometh.
 22 At violence and famine thou shalt laugh:
 Neither shalt thou be afraid of the wild beasts of the earth.
 23 For thou shalt be in league with the stones of the field:
 And the wild beasts of the field shall be delivered up to thee.
 24 Know also that thy tabernacle shall be in peace;
 And thou shalt visit thy habitation, and miss no one.
 25 Thou shalt know also that thy seed shall be great,
 And thine offspring as the grass of the earth.
 26 Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age,
 Like as a shock of corn cometh in in its season.
 27 Lo, this we have searched out, thus it is;
 Hear it, and know thou it for thy good.

6 THEN JOB answered and said,

- 2 Oh that my grief were exactly weighed,
 And my calamity balanced with it in the scales!
 3 For it would be found heavier than the sand of the sea:
 Therefore have my words been rash.
 4 For the arrows of the Almighty are within me,
 The poison whereof drinketh up my spirit:
 The terrors of God are set in array against me.
 5 Doth the wild ass bray when he hath grass?
 Or loweth the ox over his fodder?
 6 Can that which is unsavoury be eaten without salt?
 Or is there any taste in the white of an egg?
 7 The things that my soul refused to touch
 Are to me as polluted food.
 8 Oh that I might have my request;
 And that God would hasten my expected end!

- 9 Even that it would please God to destroy me ;
That he would let loose his hand, and cut me off !
- 10 Then should I yet have comfort ;
Yea, I would even exult in pain, without pity ;
For I would not resist the commands of the Most Holy.
- 11 What is my strength, that I should hope ?
And what is mine end, that I should prolong my life ?
- 12 Is my strength the strength of stones ?
Or is my flesh of brass ?
- 13 Verily there is no help for me in myself, Support is driven from me.
- 14 To him who is afflicted, pity should be showed from his friend ;
Though he have forsaken the fear of the Almighty.
- 15 My brethren have dealt deceitfully as a brook,
And as the flood of winter torrents that pass away ;
- 16 Which are turbid by reason of the ice,
And wherein the snow is hid :
- 17 What time they wax warm, they vanish :
When it is hot, they are consumed out of their place.
- 18 The paths of their way are turned aside ;
They evaporate to nothing, and perish.
- 19 The troops of Tema looked to them,
The companies of Sheba waited for them.
- 20 They were confounded because they trusted in them ;
They came thither, and were put to confusion.
- 21 For now ye are wearied ;
Ye have seen the stroke, and are afraid.
- 22 Did I say, Bring unto me ?
Or, Give a bribe for me of your substance ?
- 23 Or, Deliver me from the oppressor's hand ?
Or, Redeem me from the hand of the mighty ?
- 24 Teach me, and I will hold my tongue :
And cause me to understand wherein I have erred.
- 25 How forcible are right words !
But what reproof is there in you ?
- 26 Do ye mean to reprove words,
And the speeches of one who is desperate, which are as wind ?
- 27 Yea, ye overwhelm the bereaved,
And ye insult your friend !
- 28 Now therefore be pleased to look upon me ;
And see if I be a deceiver.
- 29 Return, I pray you, let there be no iniquity ;
Yea, return again, until I show you my righteousness.
- 30 Is there iniquity in my tongue ?
Cannot my taste discern perverse things ?
- 7 Is not the life of man upon earth a warfare ?
Are not his days also like the days of a hireling ?
- 2 As a servant earnestly desireth the evening,
And as a hireling looketh for the reward of his work :
- 3 So am I made to possess months of vanity,
And wearisome nights are appointed to me.
- 4 When I lie down, I say,
When shall I arise, and the night be gone ?
And I am full of tossings to and fro unto the dawning of the day.
- 5 My flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust ;
My skin is broken, and become loathsome.
- 6 My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle,
And are spent without hope.
- 7 O remember that my life is wind :
Mine eye shall no more see good.
- 8 The eye of him who hath seen me shall see me no more :
Thine eyes are upon me, and I am not.
- 9 As a cloud wasteth and vanisheth away :

- So he who goeth down to the grave shall come up no more.
- 10 He shall return no more to his house,
Neither shall his place know him any more.
- 11 Therefore I will not refrain my mouth;
I will speak in the anguish of my spirit;
I will complain in the bitterness of my soul, saying,
- 12 Am I a sea monster,
That thou settest a watch over me?
- 13 When I say, My bed shall comfort me,
My couch shall ease my complaint;
- 14 Then thou scarest me with dreams,
And terrifiest me through visions:
- 15 So that my soul chooseth strangling,
And death rather than my life.
- 16 I loathe it; I would not live always:
Let me alone; for my days are vanity.
- 17 What is man, that thou shouldest magnify him?
And that thou shouldest set thy heart upon him?
- 18 And that thou shouldest visit him every morning,
And try him every moment?
- 19 How long wilt thou not depart from me,
Nor let me alone till I swallow down my spittle?
- 20 I have sinned; what can I do for thee, O thou observer of men?
Why hast thou set me as a mark against thee,
So that I am a burden to myself?
- 21 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression,
And take away mine iniquity?
For now shall I sleep in the dust;
And thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

8 THEN ANSWERED BILDAD the Shuhite, and said,

- 2 How long wilt thou speak these things?
And how long shall the words of thy mouth be like an impetuous wind?
- 3 Doth God pervert judgment?
Or doth the Almighty pervert justice?
- 4 If thy children have sinned against him,
And he have cast them away for their transgression;
- 5 If thou wouldest seek unto God betimes,
And make thy supplication to the Almighty;
- 6 And thou wert pure and upright;
Surely now he would awake for thee,
And make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous.
- 7 Though thy beginning was small,
Yet thy latter end should greatly increase.
- 8 For inquire, I pray thee, of the former age,
And prepare thyself to search as to their fathers:
- 9 (For we are but as of yesterday, and know nothing, Because our days upon earth are as a shadow:)
- 10 Shall not they teach thee, and tell thee,
And utter words out of their heart?
- 11 Can the rush grow up without mire?
Can the flag grow without water?
- 12 Whilst it is yet in its greenness, is it not cut down,
And withereth before any other herb?
- 13 So are the paths of all who forget God;
And the hypocrite's hope shall perish:
- 14 Whose confidence shall be cut off,
And whose trust shall be as a spider's web.
- 15 He shall lean upon his house, but it shall not stand:
He shall hold it fast, but it shall not endure.
- 16 He is fresh before the sun,
And his branch shooteth forth in his garden.
- 17 His roots are wrapped about the spring,

- And are seen among the stones.
 18 Nevertheless he shall be rooted out from his place,
 And it shall deny him, saying, I have not seen thee.
 19 Behold, this is the end of his glorying,
 And out of the earth shall others spring up like him.
 20 Behold, God will not cast away a perfect man,
 Neither will he help the evil doers :
 21 While he filleth thy mouth with laughing, and thy lips with rejoicing.
 22 They who hate thee shall be clothed with shame ;
 And the dwelling place of the wicked shall come to nought.

9 THEN JOB answered and said,

- 2 I know it is so of a truth :
 But how should man be just before God ?
 3 If he should contend with him,
 He cannot answer him for one thing of a thousand.
 4 He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength :
 Who hath hardened himself against him, and hath prospered ?
 5 He removeth the mountains, and they know not
 That he overturneth them in his anger.
 6 He shaketh the earth out of its place,
 And the pillars thereof tremble.
 7 He commandeth the sun, and it riseth not ;
 And sealeth up the stars.
 8 He alone spreadeth out the heavens,
 And walketh upon the waves of the sea.
 9 He maketh Arcturus, Orion, and Pleiades,
 And the chambers of the south.
 10 He doeth great things past finding out ;
 Yea, and wonders without number.
 11 Lo, he goeth by me, and I see him not :
 He passeth on also, but I perceive him not.
 12 Behold, he taketh away, who can hinder him ?
 Who will say unto him, What doest thou ?
 13 If God will not withdraw his anger,
 The helpers of the proud sink down under him.
 14 How much less shall I answer him,
 And choose out my words to reason with him ?
 15 Whom, though I were righteous, yet could I not answer,
 But I would make supplication to my judge.
 16 If I had called, and he had answered me ;
 Yet could I not be confident that he had hearkened unto my voice.
 17 For he breaketh me with a tempest,
 And multiplieth my wounds to no purpose.
 18 He will not suffer me to refresh my spirit,
 But filleth me with bitterness.
 19 If I speak of strength, lo, he is strong :
 And if of judgment, who shall set me a time to plead ?
 20 If I justify myself, mine own mouth shall condemn me :
 If I say, I am perfect, it shall also convict me of perverseness.
 21 Though I were perfect, yet should I not care to live :
 I should despise my life.
 22 This is one thing, therefore I said it,
 He afflicteth the upright as well as the wicked.
 23 If the scourge slay suddenly,
 Would he then laugh at the trial of the innocent ?
 24 The earth is given into the hand of the wicked :
 He covereth the faces of the judges thereof ;
 If not, how is it thus ?
 25 Now my days are swifter than a post :
 They flee away, they see no good.
 26 They are passed away as the swift ships :
 As the eagle that hasteneth to the prey.

- 27 If I say, I will forget my complaint,
I will leave off my heaviness, and comfort myself :
28 I am afraid of all my sorrows,
I know that thou wilt not hold me innocent.
29 If I be wicked,
Why then labour I in vain ?
30 If I wash myself with snow water,
And make my hands ever so clean ;
31 Yet shalt thou plunge me in corruption,
And mine own clothes shall make me to be abhorred.
32 For he is not a man, as I am, that I should answer him,
And we should come together in judgment.
33 Neither is there any umpire betwixt us,
Who might lay his hand upon us both.
34 Let him take his rod away from me,
And let not his fear terrify me :
35 Then would I speak, and not fear him ;
But in my present state, I cannot do so.

- 10 My soul is weary of my life ;
I will give myself up to complaint ;
I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.
2 I will say unto God, Do not condemn me ;
Show me wherefore thou contendest with me.
3 Is it good unto thee that thou shouldest oppress,
That thou shouldest despise the work of thine own hands,
And shine upon the counsel of the wicked ?
4 Hast thou eyes of flesh ?
Or seest thou as man seeth ?
5 Are thy days as the days of man ?
Are thy years as the days of the mighty,
6 That thou inquirest after mine iniquity,
And searchest after my sin ?
7 Thou knowest that I am not guilty ;
And there is none who can deliver out of thy hand.
8 Thy hands have made me and fashioned me
Together round about ; yet thou dost destroy me.
9 Remember, I beseech thee, that thou hast made me as the clay ;
And wilt thou bring me to dust again ?
10 Hast thou not poured me out as milk,
And curdled me like cheese ?
11 Thou hast clothed me with skin and flesh,
And hast fenced me with bones and sinews.
12 Thou hast granted me life and favour,
And hath not thy providence preserved my spirit ?
13 And these things hast thou hid in thy heart :
I know that all this remaineth with thee.
14 If I have sinned, thou hast observed me,
And thou wilt not acquit me from mine iniquity.
15 If I have done wickedly, woe unto me ;
And righteously, yet will I not lift up my head.
I am full of confusion ; therefore look thou on mine affliction ;
16 But the wicked increase ! Thou huntest me as a fierce lion :
And again thou showest thyself marvellous upon me.
17 Thou renewest thy plagues against me,
And increasest thine indignation upon me ;
Changes and war are against me.
18 Wherefore then hast thou brought me forth out of the womb ?
Oh that I had died, and no eye had seen me !
19 I should have been as though I had not been ;
I should have been carried from the womb to the grave.
20 Are not my days few ? cease then,
And let me alone, that I may take comfort a little,

- 21 Before I go whence I shall not return,
Even to the land of darkness and the shadow of death ;
- 22 A land whose nightfall is as darkness itself ;
And of the shadow of death, without any order,
And where the noontide is as utter darkness.

11 THEN ANSWERED ZOPHAR the Naamathite, and said,

- 2 Should not so many words be answered ?
And should a man so full of talk be justified ?
- 3 Should thy lies make men hold their peace ?
And when thou mockest, shall no man make thee ashamed ?
- 4 For thou hast said, My doctrine is pure,
And I am clean in thine eyes.
- 5 But oh that God would speak,
And open his lips against thee ;
- 6 And that he would show thee the secrets of wisdom,
That far exceed the most profound knowledge !
Know therefore that God exacteth of thee less than thine iniquity deserveth.
- 7 Canst thou by searching find out the secrets of God ?
Canst thou find out the designs of the Almighty ?
- 8 They are as high as the heavens ; what canst thou do ?
Deeper than hell ; what canst thou know ?
- 9 The measure thereof is longer than the earth,
And broader than the sea.
- 10 If he seize, and bind in chains, and bring to judgment,
Then who can hinder him ?
- 11 For he knoweth vain men :
He seeth wickedness also ;
Will he not then consider it ?
- 12 For proud man would be wise,
Though man be born like a wild ass's colt.
- 13 If thou prepare thy heart,
And stretch out thy hands towards him ;
- 14 If iniquity be in thy hand, put it far away,
And let not wickedness dwell in thy tabernacles.
- 15 For then shalt thou lift up thy face without spot ;
Yea, thou shalt be steadfast, and shalt not fear :
- 16 Because thou shalt forget thy misery,
Or remember it as waters that have passed away :
- 17 And thine age shall be clearer than the noonday ;
Thou shalt shine forth, thou shalt be as the morning.
- 18 And thou shalt be secure, because there is hope ;
Yea, thou shalt look around, and shalt take thy rest in safety.
- 19 Also thou shalt lie down, and none shall make thee afraid ;
Yea, many shall entreat thy favour.
- 20 But the eyes of the wicked shall fail,
And they shall not escape,
And their hope is as the giving up of the spirit.

12 THEN JOB answered and said,

- 2 No doubt but ye are the wise people,
And wisdom shall die with you !
- 3 But I have understanding as well as you ;
I am not inferior to you :
Yea, who knoweth not such things as these ?
- 4 I am as one mocked of his neighbour, saying of me,
He calleth upon God, but doth he answer him ?
The just upright man is laughed to scorn.
- 5 As a lamp whose flame is just going out,
So is a man sliding into poverty.
- 6 The tabernacles of robbers prosper,
And they who provoke God are secure ;

- Even he who bringeth his idol in his hand.
 7 But ask now the beasts, and they shall teach thee;
 And the birds of the air, and they shall tell thee:
 8 Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach thee:
 And the fishes of the sea shall declare unto thee, saying, 9 Who knoweth not in all these That the hand of the LORD hath wrought this?
 10 Seeing that in his hand is the life of every living thing,
 And the breath of all mankind.
 11 Doth not the ear try words?
 And the palate taste its food?
 12 With the ancient is wisdom;
 And in length of days understanding.
 13 With God is wisdom and strength,
 He hath counsel and understanding.
 14 Behold, he breaketh down, and it cannot be built again:
 He shutteth up a man, and there can be no opening.
 15 Behold, he withholdeth the waters, and they dry up:
 Also he sendeth them out, and they overturn the earth.
 16 With him is strength and wisdom:
 The deceived and the deceiver are his.
 17 He leadeth counsellors away as spoil,
 And maketh the judges fools.
 18 He looseth the bond of kings,
 And girdeth their loins with a girdle.
 19 He leadeth princes away as spoil,
 And overthroweth the mighty.
 20 He removeth away the reputation of the trusty,
 And taketh away the understanding of the aged.
 21 He poureth contempt upon princes,
 And weakeneth the strength of the mighty.
 22 He discovereth the deep things of darkness,
 And bringeth out to light the shadow of death.
 23 He increaseth the nations, and destroyeth them:
 He enlargeth the nations, and straiteneth them again.
 24 He taketh away the heart of the chief of the people of the earth,
 And causeth them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way.
 25 They grope in the dark without light,
 And he maketh them to stagger like a drunken man.
- 13 Lo, mine eye hath seen all this,
 Mine ear hath heard and understood it.
 2 What ye know, the same do I know also:
 I am not inferior unto you.
 3 Surely I would speak of the Almighty,
 And I desire to reason of God.
 4 But ye are forgers of lies,
 Ye are all physicians of no value.
 5 Oh that ye would altogether hold your peace!
 It should be your wisdom.
 6 Hear now my reasoning,
 And hearken to the pleadings of my lips.
 7 Will ye speak wickedly for God?
 And talk deceitfully for him?
 8 Will ye accept his person?
 Will ye contend for God?
 9 Is it good that he should search you out?
 Or as one man mocketh another, do ye so mock him?
 10 He will surely reprove you,
 If ye do secretly accept the persons of any.
 11 Shall not his majesty make you afraid?
 And his dread fall upon you?
 12 Your memorable sayings are like dust,
 Your heaps of words like clay.

- 13 Hold your peace, let me alone,
That I may speak, let come on me what will.
- 14 Wherefore do I take my flesh in my teeth,
And my life in my hand?
- 15 Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him :
But I will maintain mine own ways before him,
- 16 He also shall be my salvation :
For a hypocrite shall not come before him.
- 17 Hear diligently my speech,
And my declaration with your ears.
- 18 Behold now, I have ordered my cause ;
I know that I shall be justified.
- 19 Who is he who will plead with me ?
For soon shall I hold my tongue, when I shall depart hence.
- 20 Only do not two things unto me :
Then will I not hide myself from thee.
- 21 Withdraw thy hand far from me :
And let not thy terror affright me.
- 22 Then call thou, and I will answer :
Or let me speak, and answer thou me, saying,
- 23 How many are mine iniquities and sins ?
Make me to know my transgression and my sin.
- 24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face,
And holdest me for thine enemy ?
- 25 Wilt thou break a leaf driven to and fro ?
And wilt thou pursue the dry stubble ?
- 26 For thou writest bitter things against me,
And makest me to possess the iniquities of my youth.
- 27 Thou putttest my feet also in the stocks,
And lookest narrowly unto all my paths ;
Thou settest a print upon the heels of my feet.
- 28 And he, as a worm-eaten tree, wasteth away,
As a garment which the moth consumeth.

- 14 Even man who is born of a woman
Is of few days, and full of trouble !
- 2 He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down :
He fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.
- 3 And dost thou fix thine eyes upon such a one,
And bringest me into judgment with thee ?
- 4 Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean ?
Not one :
- 5 Seeing his days are determined,
The number of his months with thee,
Thou hast appointed his bounds that he cannot pass ;
- 6 Turn from him, that he may rest,
Till he shall accomplish, as a hireling, his day.
- 7 For there is hope of a tree,
If it be cut down, that it will sprout again,
And that the tender branch thereof will not cease.
- 8 Though the root thereof wax old in the earth,
And the stump thereof die in the ground ;
- 9 Yet through the refreshing of water it will bud,
And bring forth boughs like a plant.
- 10 But man dieth, and is cut off :
Yea, man giveth up the spirit, and then where is he ?
- 11 As the waters fail from the sea,
And the river becometh dry and is parched up :
- 12 So man lieth down, and riseth not :
Till the heavens be no more, they shall not awake,
Nor be raised out of their sleep.
- 13 Oh that thou wouldest hide me in the grave,
That thou wouldest keep me secret, until thy wrath be past,

- That thou wouldest set a boundary to my trouble, and remember me !
- 14 If a man die, shall he live again ?
All the days of my appointed warfare will I wait,
Till my conflict be over.
- 15 Thou shalt call, and I will answer thee :
Thou wilt have a desire to the work of thy hands.
- 16 For now thou numberest my steps :
But wilt thou not watch over my sin ?
- 17 My transgression is sealed up in a bag,
And thou castest a covering over mine iniquity.
- 18 Surely the mountain breaketh to pieces in falling,
And the rock is removed out of its place.
- 19 As the waters wear the stones ;
And the flood washeth away the seed together with the dust of the earth ;
So thou destroyest the hope of man.
- 20 Thou showest thyself stronger than he, and he passeth away :
Thou changest his countenance, and sendest him away.
- 21 His sons come to honour, but he knoweth it not ;
And they are brought low, but he perceiveth it not.
- 22 But his flesh upon him shall have pain,
And his soul within him shall mourn.

15 THEN ANSWERED ELIPHAZ the Temanite, and said,

- 2 Should a wise man utter vain knowledge,
And fill his belly with the east wind ?
- 3 Should he reason with unprofitable talk ?
Or with speeches wherewith he can do no good ?
- 4 But thou castest off fear,
And restrainest prayer before God.
- 5 For thy mouth uttereth thine iniquity,
And thou choosest the tongue of the crafty.
- 6 Thine own mouth condemneth thee, and not I :
Yea, thine own lips testify against thee.
- 7 Wast thou the first man who was born ?
Or wast thou made before the hills ?
- 8 Hast thou heard the secret counsel of God ?
And dost thou restrain wisdom to thyself ?
- 9 What knowest thou, that we know not ?
What understandest thou, which is not in us ?
- 10 With us are both the grayheaded and very aged men, Much elder than thy father.
- 11 Are the consolations of God small with thee ?
Is there any secret thing with thee ?
- 12 Why doth thy heart carry thee away ?
And what do thine eyes wink at,
- 13 That thou turnest thy spirit against God,
And lettest such words go out of thy mouth ?
- 14 What is man, that he should be clean ?
And he who is born of a woman, that he should be righteous ?
- 15 Behold, he putteth no trust in his saints ;
Yea, the heavens are not clean in his sight.
- 16 How much less abominable and filthy man,
Who drinketh iniquity like water !
- 17 I will show thee, hear me ;
And that which I have seen I will declare ;
- 18 Which wise men have told from their fathers,
And have not hid :
- 19 Unto whom alone the earth was given,
And no stranger passed among them, saying,
- 20 The wicked man travaileth with pain all his days,
And the number of years is hidden to the oppressor.
- 21 A fearful alarm is in his ears :

- In prosperity the destroyer shall come upon him.
 22 He believeth not that he shall return out of darkness,
 And he is waited for of the sword.
 23 Wheresoever he wandereth for bread,
 He knoweth that the day of darkness is ready at his hand.
 24 Trouble and anguish make him afraid;
 They prevail against him, as a king ready to the battle.
 25 For he stretcheth out his hand against God,
 And strengtheneth himself against the Almighty.
 26 He runneth upon him, even with his neck,
 Upon the thick bosses of his bucklers:
 27 Because he covereth his face with his fatness,
 And heapeth up fat on his loins.
 28 He shall dwell in desolate cities,
 And in houses which no man inhabiteth,
 Which are ready to become heaps.
 29 He shall not be rich, nor shall his power continue,
 Neither shall his wealth be extended over the land.
 30 He shall never depart out of darkness;
 The flame of God shall dry up his branches,
 And by the breath of his mouth shall he pass away.
 31 Let not him who is deceived trust in vanity:
 For vanity shall be his recompence.
 32 It shall be accomplished before his time,
 And his branch shall not be green.
 33 He shall shake off his unripe grape as the vine,
 And shall cast off his flower as the olive.
 34 For the assembly of the profane shall be desolate,
 And fire shall consume the tabernacles of bribery.
 35 They conceive mischief, and bring forth vanity,
 And their belly prepareth deceit.

16 THEN JOB answered and said,

- 2 I have heard many such things as these:
 Miserable comforters are ye all.
 3 Shall vain words have no end?
 Or what imboldeneth thee that thou answerest?
 4 I also could speak as ye do:
 If you were in my stead,
 I could heap up words against you,
 And shake my head at you.
 5 But I would strengthen you with my mouth,
 And the moving of my lips should assuage your grief.
 6 Though I speak, my grief is not assuaged:
 And though I forbear, what am I eased?
 7 But now he hath made me weary:
 Thou hast made desolate all my company.
 8 And thou hast filled me with wrinkles,
 Which are a witness against me:
 And my leanness rising up in me
 Beareth witness to my face.
 9 He teareth me in his wrath, and dealeth cruelly with me:
 Mine enemy gnasheth upon me with his teeth;
 He darteth his eyes upon me.
 10 They run with open mouths upon me;
 They have smitten me upon the cheek reproachfully;
 They have gathered themselves together against me.
 11 God hath delivered me to the ungodly,
 And turned me over into the hands of the wicked.
 12 I was at ease, but he hath broken me asunder:
 He hath also taken me by my neck, and shaken me to pieces,
 And set me up for his mark.
 13 His archers compass me round about,

- He cleaveth my loins asunder, and doth not spare ;
 He poureth out my gall upon the ground.
 14 He breaketh me with breach upon breach,
 He runneth upon me like a mighty man.
 15 I have sewed sackcloth upon my skin,
 And defiled my horn in the dust.
 16 My face is flushed with weeping,
 And on mine eyelids is the shadow of death ;
 17 And because there is no injustice in my hands,
 My prayer is pure.
 18 O earth ! cover not thou my blood,
 And let my cry have no place.
 19 Also now, behold, my witness is in heaven,
 And my record is on high.
 20 My friends deride me :
 But mine eye poureth out tears unto God.
 21 Oh that one might plead for a man with God,
 As a man pleadeth for his friend !
 22 When a few years are come to an end,
 Then I shall go the way whence I shall not return.
- 17 My breath is corrupt,
 My days are extinct,
 The chambers of the grave are ready for me.
- 2 Are not those present who mock me ?
 And doth not mine eye continue in their provocation ?
 3 Lay thy hand down now, put me in a surety with thee ;
 Who is he who will strike hands with me ?
 4 For thou hast hid their heart from understanding :
 Therefore shalt thou not exalt them.
 5 He who speaketh flattery to his friends,
 Even the eyes of his children shall fail.
 6 He hath made me also a byword of the people ;
 And before them I was as a tabret.
 7 Mine eye also is dim by reason of sorrow,
 And all my limbs are as a shadow.
 8 Upright men shall be astonished at this,
 And the innocent shall stir up himself against the profane.
 9 The righteous also shall hold on his way,
 And he who hath clean hands shall add strength to strength.
 10 But as for you all, turn ye, and come in :
 For I cannot find one wise man among you.
 11 My days are past,
 My purposes are broken off,
 Even the thoughts of my heart.
 12 They change the night into day :
 The light is short because of darkness.
 13 If I wait, the grave is my house :
 I have made my bed in the darkness.
 14 I have said to corruption, Thou art my father !
 To the worm, Thou art my mother, and my sister !
 15 And where is now my hope ?
 Even my hope, who shall see it ?
 16 They shall go down to the chambers of the grave,
 When we rest together in the dust.

18 THEN ANSWERED BILDAD the Shuhite, and said,

- 2 When will ye make an end of words ?
 Be still, and afterwards we will speak.
 3 Wherefore are we counted as beasts,
 And reputed vile in your sight ?
 4 Let him tear himself in his anger :

Shall the earth be forsaken for thee ?
And shall the rock be removed out of its place ?

- 5 Yea, the light of the wicked shall be put out,
And the spark of his fire shall not shine.
- 6 The light shall be dark in his tabernacle,
And his lamp shall be put out.
- 7 The steps of his strength shall be straitened,
And his own counsel shall cast him down.
- 8 For he shall be cast into a net by his own feet,
And he shall walk upon a snare.
- 9 The gin shall take him by the heel,
And the robber shall prevail against him.
- 10 The snare is hidden for him in the ground,
And a trap for him in the way.
- 11 Terrors shall make him afraid on every side,
And shall make him take to his feet.
- 12 His strength shall be weakened by hunger,
And destruction shall be ready at his side.
- 13 It shall devour the strength of his muscles :
Even the firstborn of death shall devour his strength.
- 14 His confidence shall be rooted out of his tabernacle,
And it shall bring him to the king of terrors.
- 15 It shall dwell in his tabernacle, none being left to him :
Brimstone shall be scattered upon his habitation.
- 16 His roots shall be dried up beneath,
And above shall his branch be cut off.
- 17 His remembrance shall perish from the earth,
And no street shall be called by his name.
- 18 He shall be driven from light into darkness,
And chased out of the world.
- 19 He shall neither have son nor grandson among his people, Nor any remaining in his dwellings.
- 20 They who come after him shall be astonished at his day,
As they who went before were affrighted.
- 21 Surely such are the dwellings of the wicked,
And this is the state of him who acknowledgeth not God.

19 THEN JOB answered and said,

- 2 How long will ye vex my soul,
And overwhelm me with words ?
- 3 Many times have ye reproached me ;
Ye are not ashamed that they proudly treat me.
- 4 And be it indeed that I have erred,
Mine error remaineth with myself.
- 5 If indeed ye will magnify yourselves against me,
And plead against me my reproach :
- 6 Know now that God hath bowed me down,
And hath compassed me with his net.
- 7 Behold, I cry out of wrong, but I am not heard :
I cry aloud, but there is no judgment.
- 8 He hath fenced up my way that I cannot pass,
And he hath set darkness in my paths.
- 9 He hath stripped me of my glory,
And taken the crown from my head.
- 10 He hath destroyed me on every side, and I am gone :
And my hope hath he removed like a tree.
- 11 He hath also kindled his wrath against me,
And he counteth me unto him as one of his enemies.
- 12 His troops come together,
And raise up their way against me,
And encamp round about my tabernacle.
- 13 He hath put my brethren far from me

- And mine acquaintance are verily estranged from me.
 14 My kinsfolk have failed,
 And my familiar friends have disregarded me.
 15 They who dwell in my house,
 And my maids, count me for a stranger :
 I am an alien in their sight.
 16 I called my servant, and he gave me no answer ;
 I entreated him with my mouth.
 17 My breath is strange to my wife,
 And mine entreaties to the children of mine own body.
 18 Yea, young children despised me ;
 I arose, and they spoke against me.
 19 All my intimate friends abhorred me :
 And they whom I loved are turned against me.
 20 My bone cleaveth to my skin and to my flesh,
 And I am escaped with the skin of my teeth.
 21 Have pity upon me, have pity upon me, O ye my friends ;
 For the hand of God hath touched me.
 22 Why do ye persecute me as God,
 And are not satisfied with my flesh ?
 23 Oh that my words were now written !
 Oh that they were imprinted !
 24 That they were engraven with an iron point in lead,
 In the rock for ever !
 25 For I know that my redeemer liveth,
 And that he shall stand at the last day upon the earth :
 26 And though after my skin worms destroy this body,
 Yet in my flesh shall I see God :
 27 Whom I shall see for myself,
 And mine eyes shall behold, and not another's ;
 The desires of my heart shall be accomplished.
 28 But if ye should still say, Why persecute we him,
 Seeing the root of the matter is found in me ?
 29 Be ye afraid of the sword :
 For wrath bringeth the punishments of the sword,
 That ye may know there is a judgment.

20 THEN ANSWERED ZOPHAR the Naamathite, and said,

- 2 Therefore do my thoughts cause me to answer,
 On account of my feelings within me.
 3 Because I have chastisement which is my reproach,
 And the spirit of my understanding causeth me to answer.
 4 Knowest thou not this of old,
 Since man was placed upon earth,
 5 That the triumphing of the wicked is short,
 And the joy of the hypocrite but for a moment ?
 6 Though his excellency mount up to the heavens,
 And his head reach unto the clouds ;
 7 Yet he shall perish for ever like his own dung :
 They who have seen him shall say, Where is he ?
 8 He shall fly away as a dream, and shall not be found :
 Yea, he shall be chased away as a vision of the night.
 9 The eye also which saw him shall see him no more ;
 Neither shall his place any more behold him.
 10 His children shall seek to please the poor,
 And his hands shall restore their goods.
 11 His bones are full of the sin of his youth,
 Which shall lie down with him in the dust.
 12 Though wickedness be sweet in his mouth,
 Though he hide it under his tongue ;
 13 Though he spare it, and forsake it not ;
 But keep it still within his mouth :

- 14 His food in his bowels is turned,
It is as the gall of asps within him.
- 15 He hath swallowed down riches,
And he shall vomit them up again :
God shall cast them out of his belly.
- 16 He shall suck the poison of asps :
The viper's tongue shall slay him.
- 17 He shall not see the rivers, the floods,
The brooks of honey and buttermilk.
- 18 That which he laboured for shall he restore,
And shall not swallow it down :
According to his substance shall the restitution be,
And he shall not rejoice therein.
- 19 Because he hath oppressed and hath forsaken the poor ;
Because he hath violently taken away a house which he built not ;
- 20 Because he knew not quietness within him,
He shall not save of that which he desired.
- 21 There shall none of his food be left ;
Therefore shall no man look for his goods.
- 22 In the fulness of his sufficiency he shall be in straits :
And trouble on every hand shall come upon him.
- 23 When he is about to fill his belly,
God shall cast the fury of his wrath upon him,
And shall rain it upon him while he is eating.
- 24 Should he flee from the iron weapon,
The bow of brass shall strike him through.
- 25 It is drawn, and cometh out of the body ;
Yea, the glittering sword cometh out of his gall :
Terrors are upon him.
- 26 All darkness is hid in his secret places :
A fire not blown shall consume him ;
It shall go ill with him who is left in his tabernacle.
- 27 The heavens shall reveal his iniquity ;
And the earth shall rise up against him.
- 28 The increase of his house shall depart,
And his treasures shall be dispersed in the day of his wrath.
- 29 This is the portion of the wicked man from God,
And the heritage appointed unto him by God.

21 BUT JOB answered and said,

- 2 Hear diligently my speech,
And let this be your great consolation.
- 3 Bear with me that I may speak ;
And after that I have spoken, mock on.
- 4 As for me, is my complaint to man ?
And if it is not so, why should I not be impatient ?
- 5 Mark me, and be astonished,
And lay your hand upon your mouth.
- 6 When I have remembered I have been perplexed,
And trembling hath taken hold on my flesh.
- 7 Wherefore do the wicked live,
Become old, yea, are mighty in power ?
- 8 Their seed is established in their sight with them,
And their offspring before their eyes.
- 9 Their houses are safe from fear,
Neither is the rod of God upon them.
- 10 Their bull engendereth, and faileth not ;
Their cow calveth safely, and casteth not her calf.
- 11 They send forth their little ones like a flock,
And their children leap for joy.
- 12 They take the timbrel and harp,
And rejoice at the sound of the organ.
- 13 They spend their days in mirth,

- And in a moment go down to the grave.
 14 Therefore they say unto God, Depart from us;
 For we desire not the knowledge of thy ways.
 15 Who is the Almighty, that we should serve him?
 And what profit should we have, if we pray unto him?
 16 Lo, their prosperity is not in their own power:
 The counsel of the wicked therefore—be it far from me.
 17 How oft is the lamp of the wicked put out!
 And how oft cometh their destruction upon them!
 How oft he distributeth sorrows in his anger!
 18 They are as stubble before the wind,
 And as chaff that the storm carrieth away.
 19 God layeth up the punishment of his iniquity for his children:
 He rewardeth him, and he shall know it.
 20 His eyes shall see his destruction,
 And he shall drink of the wrath of the Almighty.
 21 For what pleasure hath he in his house after him,
 When the number of his months is cut off.
 22 Shall any teach God knowledge?
 Seeing he judgeth those who are high.
 23 One dieth in his full strength,
 Being wholly at ease and quiet.
 24 His breasts are full of milk,
 And his bones are moistened with marrow.
 25 And another dieth in the bitterness of his soul,
 And never eateth with pleasure.
 26 They shall lie down alike in the dust,
 And the worms shall cover them.
 27 Behold, I know your thoughts,
 And the devices which ye wrongfully imagine against me.
 28 For ye say, Where is the house of the prince?
 And where are the dwelling places of the wicked?
 29 Have ye not asked those who go by the way?
 And their tokens ye cannot mistake,
 30 That the wicked is reserved to the day of destruction.
 They shall be brought forth to the day of wrath.
 31 Yet who hath denounced his way to his face?
 And who hath repaid him according to what he hath done?
 32 Yet shall he be brought to the grave,
 And shall remain in the tomb.
 33 The soft sods of the valley shall be sweet unto him,
 And every man shall be borne away after him,
 As there were innumerable before him.
 34 How then can ye comfort me with vain consolations,
 Seeing in your answers there remaineth falsehood?

22 THEN ELIPHAZ the Temanite answered and said,

- 2 Can a man be profitable unto God,
 As he who is wise may be profitable unto himself?
 3 Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, that thou art righteous?
 Or is it gain to him, that thou makest thy ways perfect?
 4 Will he reprove thee for fear of thee?
 Will he enter with thee into judgment?
 5 Is not thy wickedness great?
 And thine iniquities without bounds?
 6 For thou hast taken a pledge from thy brother for nought,
 And stripped the destitute of their clothing.
 7 Thou hast not given water to the weary to drink,
 And thou hast withholden bread from the hungry.
 8 But as for the mighty man, he had the earth as his own;
 And the honourable man dwelt in it.
 9 Thou hast sent widows away empty,
 And the arms of the fatherless have been broken by thee.

- 10 Therefore snares are round about thee,
And sudden fear troubleth thee;
11 Or darkness, that thou canst not see;
And abundance of waters cover thee.
12 Is not God higher than the heavens?
And does he not behold the height of the stars, lofty as they are?
13 And yet thou sayest, How doth God know?
Can he judge through the dark cloud?
14 Thick clouds are a covering to him, that he seeth not;
And he walketh in the circuit of the heavens.
15 Hast thou marked the old way
Which wicked men have trodden?
16 Who were cut down out of time,
Whose foundation was overflown with a flood:
17 Who said unto God, Depart from us:
And what can the Almighty do to them?
18 When he had filled their houses with good things:
Be therefore the counsel of the wicked far from me.
19 The righteous see it, and are glad:
And the innocent laugh them to scorn, saying,
20 Our substance is not cut down,
But their excellency the fire shall consume.
21 Acquaint now thyself with God, and be at peace:
Thereby good shall come unto thee.
22 Receive, I pray thee, the law from his mouth,
And lay up his words in thy heart.
23 If thou return to the Almighty, thou shalt be built up,
Thou shalt put iniquity far away from thy tabernacles.
24 Then shalt thou lay up precious treasure as dust,
And the gold of Ophir as the stones of the brooks.
25 Yea, the Almighty himself shall be thy treasure,
And in him thou shalt have plenty of silver.
26 For then shalt thou have thy delight in the Almighty,
And shalt lift up thy face unto God.
27 Thou shalt make thy prayer unto him, and he shall hear thee,
And thou shalt pay thy vows.
28 Thou shalt also decide a matter,
And it shall be established unto thee:
And the light shall shine upon thy ways.
29 When men are cast down,
Then thou shalt say, There was pride;
And he shall save the humble person.
30 He shall deliver the habitation of the innocent:
And he shall be delivered for the pureness of his hands.

23 THEN JOB answered and said,

- 2 Even to-day is my complaint bitter:
My stroke is heavier than my groaning.
3 Oh that I knew where I might find him!
That I might come even to his seat!
4 I would order my cause before him,
And fill my mouth with arguments.
5 I would know the words which he would answer me,
And understand what he would say unto me.
6 Will he plead against me with his great power?
No; but he would put strength in me.
7 There the righteous might argue with him;
So should I be delivered for ever from him who judged me.
8 Behold, I go forward, but he is not there;
And backward, but I cannot perceive him:
9 On the left hand, where he doth work,
But I cannot behold him:
He hideth himself on the right hand,

That I cannot see him :

10 But he knoweth the way that I take :

When he hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold.

11 My foot hath held his steps,

His way have I kept, and not declined.

12 Neither have I gone back from the commandment of his lips ;

I have esteemed the words of his mouth more than my necessary food.

13 But he is in one mind, and who can turn him ?

And what his soul desireth, even that he doeth.

14 For he performeth the thing that is appointed for me :

And many such things are with him.

15 Therefore am I troubled at his presence :

When I consider, I am afraid of him.

16 For God maketh my heart soft,

Yea, the Almighty troubleth me :

17 Because I was not cut off before the darkness,

Neither hath he covered the darkness from my face.

24 Why, seeing times are not hidden from the Almighty,
Do they who know him not see his days ?

2 Some remove the landmarks ;

They violently take away flocks, and feed thereon.

3 They drive away the ass of the fatherless,

They take the widow's ox for a pledge.

4 They turn the needy out of the way :

The poor of the earth hide themselves together.

5 Behold, as wild asses in the desert, go they forth to their work ;

Rising betimes for the prey :

The wilderness yieldeth food for them and for their children.

6 They reap what belongeth not to them in the field :

And they gather the vintage of the wicked.

7 They cause the naked to lodge without clothing,

That they have no covering in the cold.

8 They are wet with the showers of the mountains,

And embrace the rock for want of a shelter.

9 They pluck the fatherless from the breast,

And take a pledge of the poor.

10 They cause him to go naked without clothing,

And they who take away the sheaf are hungry ;

11 Who make oil within their walls at noonday,

And tread their winepresses, and suffer thirst.

12 Men groan from out of the city,

And the soul of the wounded crieth out :

Yet God regardeth not their supplication.

13 They are of those who rebel against the light ;

They know not the ways thereof,

Nor abide in the paths thereof.

14 The murderer rising with the light

Killeth the poor and needy,

And in the night he is as a thief.

15 The eye also of the adulterer waiteth for the twilight,

Saying, No eye shall see me :

And disguiseth his face.

16 In the dark they dig through houses,

Which they had marked for themselves in the daytime :

They know not the light.

17 For the morning is to them even as the shadow of death :

If one know them, they are in the terrors of the shadow of death.

18 He is swift as the waters ;

Their portion is cursed in the earth :

He turneth not to go in the way of the vineyards.

19 Drought and heat consume the snow waters :

So doth the grave those who have sinned.

- 20 Mercy shall disregard him;
The worm shall feed sweetly on him;
He shall be no more remembered;
And wickedness shall be broken as a tree.
- 21 He devoureth the barren who beareth not:
And doeth no good to the widow.
- 22 He draweth forth also the mighty with his power:
He riseth up, and no man is sure of life.
- 23 It is given him to be in safety, and he is upholden;
Yet his eyes are upon their ways.
- 24 They are exalted for a little while, but are gone and brought low;
They are taken out of the way as all others,
And cut off as the tops of the ears of corn.
- 25 And if it be not so now, who will confute me,
And make my speech nothing worth?

25 THEN ANSWERED BILDAD the Shuhite, and said,

- 2 Dominion and fear are with him,
He maintaineth peace in his high places.
- 3 Is there any number of his armies?
And upon whom doth not his light arise?
- 4 How then can man be justified before God?
Or how can he be pure who is born of a woman?
- 5 Behold even the moon, it abideth not;
Yea, the stars are not pure in his sight.
- 6 How much less man, who is but corruption?
And the son of man, who is a worm?

26 THEN JOB answered and said,

- 2 How hast thou helped him who is without power?
How savest thou the arm that hath no strength?
- 3 How hast thou counselled him who hath no wisdom?
And how hast thou plentifully declared the thing as it is?
- 4 To whom hast thou uttered words?
And what inspiration cometh from thee?
- 5 The mighty dead, and those who dwell with them,
Are in anguish beneath the waters.
- 6 The invisible world is naked before him,
And the region of destruction hath no covering.
- 7 He stretcheth out the north over the empty space,
And hangeth the earth upon nothing.
- 8 He bindeth up the waters in his thick clouds;
And the cloud is not rent under them.
- 9 He holdeth back the face of his throne,
And spreadeth his cloud upon it.
- 10 He hath compassed the waters with bounds,
Until the day and night come to an end.
- 11 The pillars of the heavens tremble
And are confounded at his rebuke.
- 12 He calmeth the sea with his power,
And by his understanding he smiteth through the proud waves.
- 13 By his spirit he hath garnished the heavens;
His hand hath wounded the flying serpent.
- 14 Lo, these are but parts of his ways; they convey but a whisper of his glory;
But the thunder of his power who can understand?
